Chapter 361: Winter Is Coming, Witch of Truth

Elina stood up and walked towards Vivian.

At this moment, the little girl was sending a message to the city guards that she had just fought. They were taking action to arrest the underground hideout of the Fox Clan Treasure Thief Gang.

When the little maid was within a certain range of Vivian...

Who, who was talking?

Elena only felt a mechanical voice in her head.

“Mistake...Mistakes... Self-inspection and repair in progress...”

Repair stopped...The reason...Natural Witch Embryo discovered...Mission target changed...

“Activate...Stop... Replicating data...Completed... They were ready to move...”

New quest target: Cut...”

When the word “ cut ” fell, the mechanical voice stopped abruptly. Elina also felt that her mind had returned to normal. She was no longer as dizzy as before.

The return of her consciousness was also the reason why Irina realized what she was going to do now.

No, no, no.

NO!

The little maid subconsciously wanted to throw away the tiny syringe in her palm. She didn't know what it was or when it had appeared, but she knew that it was definitely not something good.

Moreover, as she had been secretly investigating the missing maids in the Castle of the Earl, Eleanor had a vague premonition in her heart.

The current her was probably the same as those maids. She had been unknowingly cast with some kind of magic or something even stranger...The hypnosis had taken control!

And the other party's goal was obviously to use her to...Harm Vivian!

He had to throw away the syringe before she could regain her senses. No, he had to crush it to prevent her from being controlled again! This was what a villain in Elena's heart thought.

However, another dwarf appeared.

She said to Irina, "Have you forgotten what the oracle said? As long as you follow the other party's request and find an opportunity to stab the needle into Vivian's body, you will be saved.

It was also the so-called regaining humanity from a puppet that was forever controlled.

It was only then that Elena understood the meaning of "human nature" in the oracle.

They obviously felt that controlling Vivian was more valuable than them.

The servant girl, who was on the side of justice, refuted fiercely. "Have you forgotten who was the first person to disregard your status and treat you with equal respect? Who didn't look down on you? Who encouraged you and became friends with you? Who saved you?"

Have you forgotten what you wrote in your notes? Ever since you met Vivian, you have endless stories to tell?

“Eh? Elena, what’s wrong? From just now, I felt that you seemed to be...Weird?” Vivian had finished her work by now, so she naturally noticed the abnormality of the maid.

“Don’t come over, don’t come near me!”

The voice of the righteous villain was getting softer and softer, and the voice of the evil villain was about to occupy Elena’s will.

Therefore, in order to avoid making a decision that he would regret for the rest of his life.

This was the first time Elena had acted against the oracle.

Puff!

Elena stabbed the tiny syringe in her hand into her arm.

It was at this moment.

She seemed to hear a voice of anger from an unknown country far away. It seemed to be angry at her sudden action and wasting the injection.

At least...

He didn’t let them succeed...

This was the last thought in Elena’s mind before her consciousness disappeared.

After that, her vision turned black. Countless strange, garbled patterns that looked like chaotic characters flashed by, and Irina completely lost her mind.

“Intrinsic reagent injection...Remote control completed...Checking the identity of the controller...Highest authority confirmed...Open all the Witch Gene Library for use...”

“Judging the situation...Urgent... Entering battle mode...Searching the gene library...The search Search ended...”

Manual selection...[S] class...The Witch of Truth factor...”

Charging...”

” The Witch of Truth Gene...The loading is complete!”

In an instant, a terrifying and powerful aura soared into the sky. With the maid as the center, it spread throughout the entire city in the blink of an eye.

At this moment, everyone in the Fire Law City seemed to feel a shiver that came from their souls.

They stopped what they were doing at the same time, and out of instinct, they looked at Alina in shock.

And Ai Lina is the best.

The maid raised her head again.

The empty reagent in her hand fell to the ground. The syringe shattered and made a crisp sound.

At the same time, Elena’s emotionless and cold voice rang out.

” Construction: Ice Prison.”

The ground under Vivian’s feet shook, and in a moment, five or six sharp icicles broke out of the ground. They were like claws, imprisoning the little girl in the center of the claw.

Although the incident was sudden, Vivian’s reaction was still relatively quick. Because of the frequent incidents during this period, she had at least honed some combat skills.

The flame ignited from her fingertips and shot towards the ice prison that imprisoned her.

However, the scene of breaking out of the prison did not appear.

The claws of the Ice Prison did not show any signs of melting under the burning of Vivian’s flames. This proved that the level of the ice element was far higher than her fire element. In a short period of time, even if it was a 3rd rank all-out violence mage, Vivian could not break free..

Chapter 362: Winter is Coming, Witch of Truth

[Command: Advanced Teleportation]

After trapping Vivian in the ice prison, the mechanical voice of the maid continued to ring, and a new round of magic rose from the ground where the little girl was.

However, this wasn’t a follow-up offensive spell. On the contrary, Elina didn’t have any intention of hurting the little girl. It was more like she wanted to leave her unharmed... Take it away?

The complex and profound teleportation array was more than ten meters in diameter. With Vivian as the center, everything it covered, including buildings, vegetation, and even tiles, had to be teleported along with it.

Advanced teleportation spells were said to be able to travel across continents and between countries. Such spells were not even at the Extraordinary level. They could only be cast at the Epic level, which was level-50 or 60.

Similarly, because it was a high-level spell, it was far less instantaneous than the previous Ice Prison. Even the current maids needed time to cast it.

But this time...

Sizzle...!

Fire descended from the sky and surged towards Elena, forcefully interrupting the maid's teleportation spell.

Then, a young mage wearing an archbishop's robe walked out of the flames and confronted Irina with a grave expression.

The successor of the Fire God's Heart, and also the current Archbishop of the Fire God Church, Damir.

Irina's aura fluctuations were so obvious that Damir, who was in the Fire God Tower, could not have missed it. He rushed over immediately.

A cursory glance at the form.

Even though the young mage wanted to help Vivian out of the ice prison, the suffocating pressure emanating from Elena made Damir break out in cold sweat. He did not dare to be distracted.

This pressure was so strong that even his teacher, Maggie, and the mysterious Lord Bai had never given him such a feeling.

' Who are you?!'

Damir suppressed his fear. He tried to communicate with the maid, but Irina had no intention of talking.

Or rather, the current maid had already become a replica of the Witch of Truth.

” Construction: Floating Cannon.”

The water elements in the air were quickly extracted and condensed into ice. Following that, under an unknown force... Under the Sorceress’s power, the ice was assembled. In less than half a breath, it turned into a cannon model that Damir had never seen before, floating above the maid’s head.

Damir didn’t have the time to observe any further, because Elena’s next syllable had already sounded.

[Command: Cannon Strike.]

With a command, a dark blue halo suddenly flashed from the Floating Cannon above the maid’s head. In the next second, it turned into a cold beam of light and shot straight in Damir’s direction.

The young mage had already begun to chant a spell in secret before Irina attacked. Thus, when faced with the beam of light that was charging at him, a five-meter-tall flame shield completely protected Damir from behind.

Boom!

The beam of light hit the shield wall.

It looked like a weak Ice Beam Cannon, but the energy it contained was beyond imagination.

After a violent explosion, the huge flame shield that could even withstand a Transcendent attack was frozen by the ice, turning from a fire shield into an ice wall.

Following the sound of cracks, it collapsed and turned into ice shards on the ground.

If even the Flaming Shield was like this, Damir, who was behind him, naturally did not feel good either.

Although the power of the Ice Beam Cannon had been reduced by more than half, the young mage's body was still blasted away by the powerful impact. He was also suffering from different degrees of frostbite.

The Floating Cannon above the floating maid's head began a new round of charging and firing. Damir had yet to recover from the shock and was still lying on the ground...

Bang!

There was another loud bang.

But this time, it came from the ice prison where Vivian was trapped.

Irina's attention was immediately drawn over. Obviously, Vivian's priority was definitely higher than Damir's.

This time, the little girl who broke out of the ice prison held a huge black sickle in her hand. Her entire body was covered by the strongest amplification spell under the Transcendent level of fire, the reproductive equipment.

There was no doubt that the second personality had taken over the control of Vivian.

However, even the second personality, who had always looked down on his enemies and was full of invincibility, had a solemn expression on his face when he faced Elena. He didn't even have his usual trash talk lines.

" Construction: Ice Prison."

The maid wanted to use the same trick on Vivian, but because she had suffered once and was now in the second personality, the moment the new ice prison broke from the ground below, the little girl jumped on her toes and easily flipped back. Before the ice prison formed, she was out of control.

” Constitution: Ice...”

Before the maid could finish her sentence, Vivian was nowhere to be seen. When she came back to her senses, a black scythe came slashing at her from behind.

Thump!

Unfortunately, the particle shield formed by countless blue particles covered the maid’s entire body. Usually, she relied on optical invisibility and would only appear after being attacked. The second personality’s sneak attack did not work.

Vivian seemed to have changed into her Warrior form. Her reaction speed and reaction speed had greatly improved. It was difficult for her to even touch the little girl, let alone trap her. The maid also changed.

” Construction: Heavy Ice Rabbit.”

The new command was to construct a new order, and the next black sickle was to move forward from Vivian, and the next black sickle was to form a half-body robot outline model from the sky behind Elena.

It had two thick ice crystal armors, and the floating cannon constructed by the maid could be combined with one of them to form a brand-new arm-shaped hand cannon.

The new half-body robot was sky blue in color. It had no consciousness, and all its movements were connected to Alina’s nerves. Therefore, rather than calling it a robot, it was more like a heavy mech. However, this mech was not worn on the body, but was an external type.

The only thing that was a little strange was that the maid had clearly said ‘ Heavy Armor Ice Rabbit ‘. However, from the appearance, there was a heavy armor, but it definitely did not have the slightest connection with the ‘ Ice Rabbit ‘. Perhaps this was just a model of a mech.

Sparks flew under the high-speed friction.

At the same time, the heavy ice rabbit’s other arm suddenly grabbed at the little girl who was in a state of attack.

There was no time to dodge.

Along with the appearance of the mech, Elina seemed to have switched to close combat mode as well. Moreover, even though she was a heavy soldier, she did not seem clumsy at all. Instead, she had both strength and agility.

“Damn it...”

The second personality tried to struggle a few times, but it was futile with her current strength.

Damir was blown away by the blast, and Vivian was caught on the arm of the mech.

Under the absolute difference in strength, any resistance was futile.

[Command: Advanced Teleportation]

The transmission began again. This time, no one seemed to be able to stop it.

Just as Elena was about to teleport away with Vivian and the mech behind her...

“Tsk tsk...”

A female's smacking sound suddenly came from behind the maid.

The expressionless Lina frowned, and the Heavy Ice Rabbit's jet jet was activated at high speed. The powerful thrust allowed the maid to quickly dodge away from her.

In the next moment.

A woman appeared at the spot she had been at just now.

She was wearing the Fire God Sect's robe, but it seemed to have been re-designed. Her round and fair thighs were hidden from the sides of the robe, and her upper body was bare. Her half-wrapped chest was undulating and deep. At first glance, the fire mage did not show it, but it was really hot.

In addition, she was looking at Elena with a playful gaze and her words were full of mockery.

If it wasn't for the fact that she looked exactly the same, no one would be able to compare this woman with the dignified and intellectual Archbishop Maggie.

"You want to run away after stealing something from someone else's house while Master is sleeping?"

"Let me see...Where did this little mouse come from?"

Chapter 363: Fire God Brand Nanny, It's Good to Use

Facing Maggie...No, the former Archbishop was gone forever. Now, there was only Fire God Alice.

After pulling away, the maid stared at Alice, and a huge amount of calculations began to quickly go through her mind.

But soon, the maid gave up because...

“Warning...Warning... unknown energy source detected...Beyond the upper limit of computing power...Enemy evaluation...

Extremely lethal! ”

“Requesting immediate retreat...”

. Rejected...”

In the calculations of all the Witch test subjects, extreme danger was already the ceiling. In this case, the only option was to self-destruct. If it reached extreme fatality, it would only prove that even self-destruct would not be able to cause any harm to the other party. Trying to escape was the only choice. However, it was obvious that someone had canceled Elena’s retreat request.

This was the case many times.

When a lion didn’t show its might for too long, it would become a sick cat in the eyes of others. They would be so curious that they would pluck their whiskers to see if the lion still had teeth.

However, some people would think they were smart and use tools to test Fire God, one of the nine gods.

“Change to...Long-range control mode...”

Elina’s eyes lost their luster. If she had acted on her own just now, she had now become a puppet.

“Command: Release the reserve energy.

The aura of the maid’s entire body suddenly increased by a large margin. The armor of the heavy ice rabbit that was constructed on her back began to tremble faintly as if it could not withstand the power.

” Construction: Floating Cannon.”

Although it was the same command as when he was fighting Damir, the number of floating cannons hovering behind the maid had multiplied several times.

More than two digits of Floating Cannons were aimed at Alice, and each muzzle was flashing with a deadly cold light. After Elena gave the order, they bombarded Alice.

“Teacher Maggie! Be careful!” In the distance, Damir finally got up. When he saw this scene, his heart almost jumped out of his throat as he shouted anxiously.

He had a deep understanding of the power of the servant girl’s Floating

Cannon. It could even destroy his Transcendent level magic with a single shot. What was facing Maggie now was not just one beam of light, but more than ten densely packed beams!

However...

“What are you shouting for? Haven’t you embarrassed me enough? It seems that I have taught you every night for nothing. “Alice rolled her eyes at her silly disciple.

Looking at the barrage that was coming at her, Alice seemed to be too lazy to even move, allowing the beam cannon to attack at will.

Rumble...?

However, the expected explosion did not happen. Alice was still standing where she was, and the beam cannons that were flying towards her were only five or six meters away from the woman...

It melted.

Yes, it was as if Alice was the center of a domain that surrounded her. Any long-range attack that came close, even if it was magic, would be burned to ashes.

This scene made Damir speechless. It gave him an earth-shattering understanding of Instructor Maggie's strength. Touching his heart, the young man seemed to suddenly understand something at this moment.

"Anyway, return what you stole first.

Alice said lazily. Her body turned into a flaming shadow and disappeared from where she was.

In Overload mode, Irina reacted quickly. She immediately deployed a particle barrier, but the barrier that Vivian's Black Sickle could safely block was easily torn apart by Alice's hand as if she was piercing through a window paper.

She easily got close to the maid, and with a simple twist of her hand, the mechanical arm of the heavy ice rabbit that was holding Vivian was dislocated by Alice.

The maid did not think of resisting during the whole process, but it happened too quickly. It was as if time had stopped for her, and she could only watch Alice's every move.

After Vivian was held in Alice's arms, the maid's time began to move. Her first action was to pull away from the heavy ice rabbit. Behind her, sparks were jumping on one of the broken arms of the heavy ice rabbit. It looked very miserable.

But what was even more terrifying was yet to come.

“Now, it’s time to settle the score between us. “After saving Vivian, Alice had no more worries.

Her body slowly rose into the air, and the aura around her seemed to increase with the height.

If one were to say that the influence of the fake witch aura released by the maidservant previously had shocked everyone in Fire Law City, then what Alice released this time was...

The azure blue sky began to be covered in red. The white clouds instantly turned fiery red. The ground seemed to have been placed in an oven, and the surrounding temperature rose rapidly.

The tallest and most spectacular statue of the Fire God in the center of the city shone brightly at this moment.

Everyone in the Fire Law City prostrated themselves on the ground.

This was because everyone knew what this signified. Be it the change in the color of the world or the illumination of the divine statue, there was only one person in the entire Yan Region...No, a supreme existence could do it.

Fire God.

However, none of the people of Fire Code City had expected that the descent of the Fire God, which might not happen even once in a few lifetimes, would happen here in just a week.

And this is the best way to get back to the game

Chapter 364: Fire God Brand Nanny, It’s Good to Use (2)

Everyone could feel the Fire God’s emotions.

Anger.

“He knew that it was me, but he didn’t run away. He even took the initiative to attack, trying to test me.”

So, it’s time to give the card to the system.

“Who gave you the courage to challenge the gods?”

Floating in the sky above the entire city, Alice changed her frivolous temperament and became sacred and dignified, like the sun hanging in the sky that mortals could not reach.

For the sun, people only remembered the warmth it brought. Bathing under the sun, it drove away the cold. However, they forgot that the sun could also bring destruction. To the sun, destruction could only be a sneeze.

Alice opened her eyes.

At the same time, the fiery red sky also opened its eyes. It was a terrifying crack.

From the depths of the crack in the sky, an incomparably huge meteorite surrounded by raging flames could be seen. It was burning fiercely and was about to fall like a meteor, smashing straight into the ground.

With this attack, not only the maidservants, but even the entire Fire Code City would suffer. Under the blazing meteorite, the city would be covered in a sea of fire. All the buildings and living beings in the center would be turned into ashes the moment the meteorite fell.

At this moment, the black and evil patterns on Alice’s chest emitted a demonic light as if they were excited. just like Alice’s expression at this moment-

Destroying the precious thing that he had single-handedly created and protected for thousands of years was a wonderful thing.

The voice echoed in Alice's mind. The pattern that symbolized the " Fallen Abyss " continued to climb up the woman's chest like a plant, growing crazily. However, in the end, it could not invade Alice's more important part. It stopped at the edge of her neck and could not go any further.

Alice frowned when the pattern stopped. She seemed to have lost interest. She waved her hand and the tear in the sky was closed. The meteorite that was about to fall was also stopped.

In its place, a small flame rose from Alice's fingertips. She pointed it at the maid below and the harmless flame floated down to the maid.

The flame didn't actually land on Elena's body. Instead, it penetrated the maid's body, as if it was igniting something further away.

It was an invisible line. One end was connected to Elena, and the other end was connected to the other side of the distant continent.

Alice's small flame was like a fuse.

Buzz...

When the flame touched the virtual thread, it actually burned it as if it was real and turned into a fuse. At first, it was a little slow, but the more it burned, the faster the fuse burned.

Until...

A faint scream came from the other end of the fuse.

One had to pay the price for courting death. This was a rule that had never changed for thousands of years.

It was also after this sound that the maid, Elina, fell to the ground like a puppet without strings or a robot without a controller. She lost consciousness.

The sky returned to its normal azure color, and the fiery red clouds faded back to pure white.

The Fire God Statue fell silent again, and Alice floated down leisurely from the sky.

“Yes...”

“What should I do about this mess...” His tone returned to the frivolous tone when he first appeared.

Alice walked to the maid who was unable to do anything again and nodded her chin. She seemed to be hesitating, but also seemed to have a headache.

However, very soon.

She had a flash of inspiration, and the corners of her mouth curled up into a smile.

Alice looked at Vivian, who had also passed out because of the huge energy fluctuations that she had overflowed. She suddenly had an idea.

Every time Alice showed such an expression, it meant that she was interested. However, anything that could arouse her interest was definitely not a good thing. Before that, she had to destroy Fire Code City as well.

This time, although it wasn't so exaggerated, Alice's idea was enough to make her laugh.

As everyone knew, because of her "Mother's Treasure Kingdom" policy, the Flame Domain had stagnated and was secretly mocked as the weakest country among the Nine Kingdoms.

In the past, Alice didn't think much of it.

But now, the wheel of the era that could be seen with the naked eye was about to turn again. She felt that it was time to add some high-level combat strength to the Flame Domain.

Therefore, Alice did not choose to destroy the maid.

Because under her "flame", it might be impossible for others to do it, but for her, it was easy to cut off the connection between the maid and the mastermind behind the scenes.

Use more intuitive words to describe the current maid's state, that is. No owner waiting.

The network cable was pulled out, and the local data, which was the Witch of Truth's factor, was still there, but it couldn't connect to the mainframe.

Although he could no longer update new data packets, he would no longer be controlled by the mainframe.

It was somewhat similar to the feeling of Xue Li. The former was separated from the Fallen Abyss Network, while the latter was...I've left the experimental network!

In this way, as long as he could successfully retrieve Alina, it would be equivalent to having the combat power of a Witch of Truth. Although it was a replica, it was still powerful enough. It could be seen from the fact that she was able to defeat Vivian and Damir, the two peak combat powers of the Fire Domain, when she was fighting two people at the same time. However, in this case, wasn't it a little too difficult to recover?

Chapter 365: Fire God Brand Nanny, It's Good to Use It (3)

So, Alice thought for a while and knocked the maid's head a few more times. Every time she knocked, Elena's aura weakened.

Finally, Alice nodded in satisfaction when she was almost at the level above Extraordinary and below Epic.

If Vivian really wanted to retrieve Elena and awaken the maid's self-awareness, she would have to rely on... "That"?

Not bad!

From the looks of it, it had been many years since she had established and protected the Flame Region. The first native "Witch" of the Flame Region might finally be born!

Thinking of this, Alice was full of enthusiasm.

Moreover, she remembered an old proverb that the "Gui Li" had heard from her, "Help someone to the end, and send Buddha to the west."

After leaving Damir with a message, Alice teleported away with the unconscious Vivian and the maidservant in each hand. As for the location of the teleportation, it was naturally...

Swoosh!

God Splitting Lake, deep within the Starfire Forest.

The commotion caused by the Fire God could also be felt here. Combined with the information left behind by the Earl before his death and the current location of Vivian, Liao Zixuan was anxious to teleport back to the little girl.

However, three figures appeared before him.

“Maggie...Archbishop?” Liz exclaimed.

When Xue Li saw the figure of the woman walking out of the flames, her face turned pale. She was actually quite afraid of the Fire God.

As for Liao Zixuan, he was relieved because his focus was on the two people who came out of the flames from Alice’s hands.

As he had guessed, Vivian’s little maid, Elena, had also awakened at this time, so once they killed the Earl, the control was immediately taken over by the little maid.

It seemed that Vivian had also experienced a lot while she was dealing with the Earl.

The reason why Liao Zixuan was so assured and even deliberately wanted to leave the little girl’s side was mainly because this was the Flame Domain. With the protection of the Fire God, he knew that Alice would not let anything happen to the little girl. Since she had such a good nanny, it would be a pity not to use her.

But now it seemed like...He seemed to have overtrained?

Liao Zixuan did not say a word. He immediately flashed in front of Alice and anxiously took Vivian, who was still unconscious, from her hands into his arms.

After carefully checking the little girl’s panel, Liao Zixuan heaved a sigh of relief. There was nothing unusual.

When he raised his head, he wanted to ask the Fire God what had happened.

Liao Zixuan looked at the other side, but Alice’s eyes were full of amusement. It was as if she was saying, “Did you forget something?”

What did he mean?

Because he was concerned about the little girl's condition, Liao Zixuan did not react for a moment.

It was not until Vivian, who was in his arms, finally woke up and opened her eyes as if she had sensed a familiar aura...

Liao Zixuan quickly looked down and happened to meet the little girl's eyes.

However, the friendly look that he had imagined Vivian to show did not appear.

On the contrary, Liao Zixuan saw a kind of...

Similar to "Who are you?" 's vigilant expression?

Chapter 366: It's Over, I'm All Lost

"That..." Vivian hesitated.

He seemed to want to say something but hesitated.

The little girl stared at this person. The moment she opened her eyes, she saw the "stranger" hugging her tightly for a while. She was puzzled, strange, and a little uncertain.

Vivian was sure that she had never seen this young man before, but for some reason, he gave her a very strong sense of familiarity.

It could even be said that...

They had already reached the point of being “close” to each other, so much so that they subconsciously did not resist being hugged by each other and actually wanted to stay a little longer!?

As soon as this thought appeared, the little girl herself was shocked.

Vivian quickly threw the mess to the back of her mind and struggled to get out of the arms of the others. However, out of politeness, she said, “Thank you, but I’m much better now, so can you please... Let me go?”

“Ah? Ah! Alright, alright!”

From Vivian’s perspective, the young man holding her seemed to have the same expression as her just now. His expression changed again and again.

Moreover, compared to her, he seemed very uneasy, especially avoiding her eyes, not daring to look at her.

This made Vivian even more suspicious and curious about the young man. She really wanted to ask him.

However, before she talked to the young man, Vivian knew that there was something more important.

She asked anxiously to one of the nine gods who was watching the show and covering his mouth to hide his laughter.

“Lord Fire God, Elena...How is she now?! What happened?”

Towards the little girl, Alice had more or less straightened her expression. She no longer had the intention to tease her. She coughed twice and pretended to clear her throat.

“Don’t worry, your little maid is safe now. At least her life isn’t in danger.”

Vivian had just breathed a sigh of relief when the Fire God's last sentence made her worry again.

But, as for the maid's current condition...

"You'd better come and see for yourself."

After Alice finished speaking, she carried the maid away from the crowd. Then, as if she was setting up a machine, she placed the maid in an empty space in the forest and waved her hand gently.

Buzz...

It was as if the seal had been broken, or more accurately, the " Power On " button had been pressed again?

In short, the unconscious Irina immediately stood up.

However, before Vivian could be happy, the maid's performance stunned her.

Elena stood up without a word. Her head was lowered as if she had fallen asleep.

"Elena?" Vivian called out as she approached.

However, when the little girl walked into a certain range of the maid, Irina seemed to be immediately awakened. She raised her head, her emotionless eyes looking at Vivian with hostility.

"Intruders detected, executing extermination procedures."

"Ai...Elena?"

Before Vivian could finish her name, the familiar floating cannon was constructed above the maid's head. Then, the muzzle flashed blue and bombarded the little girl.

Vivian tried to dodge, but another figure was faster than her.

Shua!

The little girl only felt her vision blur. When she regained her composure, she felt a touch of being hugged from her waist. A wide and thick palm was placed on it.

Of course, this was not the main point.

The main point was that the young man who used one arm to hug her actually raised his other arm high up in a defensive stance. The target of the block was naturally the servant girl's floating cannon.

It was over!

Vivian's heart skipped a beat, and she looked anxious.

The little girl had seen the power of Elena's Floating Cannon before. How could it be withstood by physical strength?

At first glance, it looked like a small beam of light, but in fact, even Damir's Transcendent defensive spell was blasted into pieces. If it was a real person's body...

But it was too late.

He only heard a thud! There was a muffled sound.

As expected.

The enormous power of the Floating Cannon sent the two of them flying.

During this time, the young man did not let go of the other arm that was holding her. Moreover, as the two of them rolled to the ground, the young man's action changed from "hugging" to "hugging", carefully protecting her in his arms.

Just like that, under the inertia of the cannon fire, the two of them spun on the ground a few times before they barely stopped.

When he recovered a little.

The little girl didn't care about her current position with the young man. Vivian's first reaction was to check on the young man's injuries. Fortunately, the young man's arm that blocked the floating cannon did not explode like she had imagined.

But it was not much better.

Instead, a string of ice crystals had condensed on his arm. It looked as if his entire arm had been frozen.

In an instant.

Even Vivian found it unbelievable.

Because after she saw the "tragic state" of the young man's arm, her emotions began to go out of control. The tip of her nose turned sour, and tears almost appeared.

If one had to describe it, it was anger and heartache.

“You... Are you stupid?!”

“I could have dodged it myself! You, why did you...No! Hurry up and look for Lord Fire God. She must have a way to treat your arm injury. You....”

Chapter 367: It's Over, It's All Lost (2)

Vivian said a lot of things in a hurry, and even her body language was displayed. Judging from her tone and movements, she did not seem to be talking to a stranger at all.

However, the little girl stopped halfway.

Because when she noticed the young man's expression, not only did he not reflect on himself, but he was even grinning, as if saying, “Curse more, I like it.”

“You, you...What are you laughing at? Go find Fire God! ”

Vivian asked angrily. She was really angry and anxious. She even omitted the word “ Lord ” after the Fire God. It was obvious how flustered a very traditional girl was.

But the next moment, when the young man shook his “ frozen ” arm, Vivian's voice stopped abruptly. Not only that, the little girl's mouth also opened into an O shape.

That was because it was actually just a thin layer of ice shards covering it.

The young man shook it and it fell off. The arm inside was intact. There was not even the slightest trace of frostbite.

“You...!” Vivian looked incredulous.

She didn’t even believe that she could do it herself. She went back and forth to touch it a few times before she finally confirmed this fact. The young man who took a shot from Elena was indeed fine.

“Ah, this...

This time, the strongest BUFF called Worry was gone.

Vivian returned to her normal state, and it was because of this that she realized that she had not come out of his arms.

And...

Heavens!

What had she done?

Touching someone else’s arm? He even touched a few times??

“Yes... I’m sorry!”

“I’m just a little worried, that’s why...”

Vivian jumped out of Liao Zixuan’s arms and apologized while blaming herself.

In addition, during this period of time, Little Black was always not by his side, so he had not touched Little Black for a long time. He could not help but...

What a disgrace, Vivian!

The little girl could feel that the other her in the spiritual space was already furious. She shouted and wanted to go out and break the young man's arm. No, both of them were chopped at the same time!

She hurriedly diverted her attention. Otherwise, she really wanted to find a hole to hide in.

Vivian looked back at Elena.

She realized that after she was sent flying, the maid did not chase after her. Instead, she stood back at her original position. Just like before, she lowered her head and did not speak as if she was sleeping.

What exactly was this...

At this moment, Alice's explanation sounded.

' As you can see, Vivian, although I cut off the connection between the maid and the controller, the fact that the maid has been transformed is beyond my control. Without the controller, the maid is now acting on instinct. As long as any creature comes within her range of vigilance, she will attack. Otherwise, if she does nothing, she will always sleep like this until the energy in her body is exhausted.

Modification? Controller? Hibernation?

Vivian, who had no idea what Alice was talking about, was still confused.

"Lord Fire God, I still..." The little girl hurriedly wanted to ask, but Alice waved her hand and interrupted her.

In fact, Alice was not explaining to Vivian, let alone to Liao Zixuan, so that he could understand the situation.

Seeing that Liao Zixuan understood what she meant, Alice nodded in satisfaction.

In this way, she had done what she needed to do. It was time to leave the stage to these little fellows.

Hence...

Ever since the Heart of God shattered, my strength has been far from what it used to be. Helping you this time is already a huge burden for me, and it affected my old injuries. So, I'm sorry, Vivian, I can't help you more on this matter.

"However, if you are confused, or if you don't want to give up just like that, and this maid who seems to be on good terms with you, then why don't...How about you ask your friends?"

Alice smiled and gave the little girl hints and guidance.

After Vivian finished speaking, she followed Alice's gaze and turned around. It was only then that she realized that there were many people here!

"Friends...? Huh? Liz? You, why are you here?"

The little girl was surprised and delighted by the Earl's daughter.

But then, when Vivian's gaze continued to shift and landed on another tall woman standing beside Liz...

Eh? What was going on today?

The young man was like this just now, and now this tall woman was like this too. Why did she feel an inexplicable sense of familiarity when she looked at everyone?

However, unlike the familiarity of the young man, Vivian felt a sense of familiarity towards this tall woman. Battle Instinct.

It was as if the two of them had a fight.

No!

It wasn't like that!

She, she was!

As soon as Vivian appeared, Shirley's head was even lower than that of the sleeping maid.

Chapter 368: It's Over, It's All Lost (3)

However, the little girl was not blind. After a little serious identification, she could tell from the magic power that Vivian immediately began to condense that she had recognized Shirley.

The mastermind behind the Fallen Abyss!

It was the leader of the Fallen Abyss who rode the bone dragon and fought with her outside the Fire Code City. In the end, it was only because of Blackie's appearance that he was able to swallow her!

Wasn't she dead? Why was she here? Wait, it seemed like she knew Liz?

"This, this is..."

Vivian looked at Shirley with vigilance and hostility. On the other hand, Shirley...

If it were anyone else, Shirley would have a clear conscience and would look back fearlessly, but if it was Vivian..Xue Li wouldn't dare to speak to an adult.

Thus, Xue Li, who was caught in the middle, could only look at Liao Zixuan with a pitiful pleading gaze.

It was as if he was saying.

Lord Hei, save him! What should we do now?

“Liao Zixuan, who had always been a glib talker, also fell silent.

Yes, what should he do?

POW!

Send!

It was over, it was all over.

Liao Zixuan held his forehead helplessly.

When Vulcan appeared with the unconscious Vivian, he was so anxious that he forgot that he was still in his transformation state. How could he still remember that Shirley was here?

Alright, I can't hide it anymore. It's all leaked out, all leaked out!

When Liao Zixuan looked back at the old woman, Fire God, with a resentful look in his eyes, even a fool Imew from Alice's crafty eyes and her satisfied expression that the old woman was definitely doing this on purpose. She was waiting for this to happen.

Not only that, when she noticed Liao Zixuan's complaining gaze, Alice did not say anything. Not only did she not feel guilty, but she even glared back at him righteously.

Looking at the 45-degree angle on the face of the game and the sneer on the corner of the mouth, it was as if the game was saying:

What do you mean? You want to blame it on me? When you went out to flirt with women, I helped you to be a nanny for your little girl at home. It's not too much to charge some interest, right? Vivian was the first to break the silence.

"Lord Fire God, so, she is..."

Vivian was not stupid. After the initial shock, the little girl realized that Vulcan was still here.

Since the Fire God didn't say anything, this meant that the Fallen Abyss woman wasn't on the enemy's side.

"You'll have to ask our Lord Bai about this." Alice was only responsible for watching the show.

Finally, she lit a fire and made Vivian look around. Finally, her eyes fell on Liao Zixuan. The God of Fire knew that it was time for her to leave. After all, the most exciting part of the show had been enjoyed.

She had no reason to stay here.

After symbolically waving goodbye, Alice turned into flames and disappeared.

Without the Fire God, the atmosphere became even colder.

Fortunately, one of them was still in a disconnected state and was still silent. It's the Fire God?" After Alice left, a certain young lady finally woke up from her dream.

She suppressed the countless questions she had about Vivian and the Archbishop Maggie, who was known as the Fire God.

Liz was the first to speak. She sorted out the little girl's past and explained Cher's identity..

Chapter 369: Stop Pretending, 1 1 m Revealing My Truth

Vivian did not make a sound as Liz recounted, but the little girl's changing expression revealed her inner thoughts as she kept talking to Liz.

Especially when she heard that Liz had personally buried the Earl, Vivian could not help but hold the hand of the girl beside her.

The little girl knew that things had come to this point. It was useless to say any more comforting words at this moment. She could only use this method to convey her comfort.

However, Liz shook her head. The past was the past. She wasn't the kind of person who would always be depressed in grief. This feeling was even more so after she awakened the Blood Breed bloodline and truly inherited her mother's genes.

The girl had once been afraid of this feeling. She was afraid that she would become like her mother, abandoning her father and daughter, playing with feelings, and becoming a cold-blooded monster who had lost her humanity.

However, when she was facing Bai, her heart was still burning with adoration, and when she was facing Xue Li, her heart was jealous and competitive. All of these made Liz dispel her worries.

After all, these were not emotions that a cold-blooded monster would have.

Although some of her actions seemed childish, it was the best proof that she was still a human being. It was the feelings that Liz cherished.

Therefore, wait for the future to be peaceful

When the girl explained to Vivian about Shirley, she started from how she was just like Vivian at the beginning, full of hostility towards Shirley, and even fought with her in the middle. In the end, the misunderstanding was resolved, they understood each other, and they lived in peace...

Err... I'm sorry, I'll have to correct that. I understand, but whether or not they can coexist peacefully is still up for discussion.

After all, as Liz spoke, the young girl snorted coldly at Cher.

As for Shirley, she didn't dare to do anything to Vivian, but she didn't even dare to look at a human noble girl.

"Phew...!"

Finally, everything had been said. Liz heaved a sigh of relief. She did not expect that so much had happened in such a short period of time.

Even Liz, who had personally witnessed it, found it unbelievable, let alone Vivian, who was an onlooker.

After a long time, the little girl finally digested the information.

As expected, Vivian walked towards Shirley.

Heartbeats sounded.

Thump!

Thump! Thump!

Thump... Dong dong dong!

Shirley, who had been secretly looking at Vivian from the corner of her eye, saw the little girl approaching, and her heart suddenly beat wildly.

Xue Li wasn't even this nervous when the Fire God appeared.

Shirley knew that it was crucial for Vivian to accept her. If her relationship with Vivian was still stiff, it would make Lord Black feel uncomfortable.

so...

Liz's eyes widened in disbelief.

This was because the young girl actually saw a hint of...Anxious and bashful?

Shy? Shirley?

Liz found it difficult to connect the two words.

And look at Xue Li's appearance.

Liz was born as a noble lady, so she was naturally very experienced in judging people. She could see the many small changes in Cher's body at a glance.

For example, the other party's bare feet, which had been properly placed previously, had now turned into toes that were stepping on the ground, moving uneasily.

Her fingers on both sides of her thighs tightened and loosened at times. Even Xue Li's breathing was erratic.

Liz was very puzzled.

This was also her “innocent” identity and relationship with Vivian. It was impossible for the two of them to have any connection.

Otherwise, those who didn’t know better would have thought that it was some noble’s concubine who suddenly met his main wife!

Liz had seen this scene many times. It couldn’t be said that it was too similar, but it was exactly the same.

However...

When Cher and Vivian continued their conversation, the girl soon realized that she was wrong, very wrong!

“Sister Xue Li, previously...” Vivian thought for a long time and was ready to speak.

From Cher’s appearance, she was tall and plump, exuding a mature aura. She was in stark contrast to the little girl’s youthful body. It was very reasonable for Vivian to call her “sister.” However, Xue Li heard it.

She almost staggered.

“Lady Vivian, just call me Shirley. Well, I... That... “I’m sorry. In the past, because of the circumstances, I’ve always hidden it from you. I even fought with you. In short...” I’m very sorry!”

He really couldn’t hold it in anymore.

As soon as Vivian opened her mouth, Shirley apologized first, snatching all the lines that should have belonged to the little girl. The spectating Liszts were dumbfounded.

Immediately after, he was furious.

What did he mean?

You hit me hard, but you're submissive to Vivian?

Why?

Vivian was also stunned by Shirley's attitude.

"Sister Xue Li, I..."

"Lady Vivian, call me Shirley..."

Shirley was so persistent in addressing the little girl that she even interrupted her. This made Vivian a little angry, so she interrupted Shirley as well. "Then why did you call me Lady Vivian?"

"Because..." Shirley immediately stammered when Vivian asked her a question.

She had once tried to challenge the position of this young lady in Lord Black's heart, but in the end...Naturally, it was a tragic sight, which frightened Xue Li..

Chapter 370: Stop Pretending, 1 1 m Revealing My Truth (2)

From then on, she no longer dared to be disrespectful to Vivian. Every time she mentioned Vivian, she would always add the word "Your Excellency" which was a bit black and white.

In the end, Liao Zixuan, who couldn't stand it anymore, came over to save the situation.

“Xue Li, since everyone is doing this for the Flame Domain, there’s no need to be so distant. “Liao Zixuan took this opportunity to change Xue Li.

“Yes, Black...Cough, Lord Bai.

After Liao Zixuan finally intervened, Xue Li heaved a sigh of relief. However, when she relaxed, she almost blurted out her habitual address. She quickly coughed and changed it.

Finally.

After a round, Vivian’s eyes fell back on the familiar young man.

As for Liao Zixuan, he wasn’t really hacking for nothing just now.

The corners of his mouth curled up into a smile as if he knew what was going on. A little Fire God wanted to expose his social death? What a joke!

“Hello, Miss Vivian. I’ve heard of your name like thunder. I’m lucky to see you in person today. You’re indeed extraordinary. You’re really a natural beauty.”

Liao Zixuan smiled at the little girl and recited the words he had long thought of in his heart.

According to the script that he had expected, Vivian would be embarrassed by his sugar-coated words. She would be so shy that she would wave her hands to show her flaws.

In this way, he could take the opportunity to tell the story he had made up to Wei...

Err...

Vivian was speechless.

Silence.

Silence.

“Miss Vivian, my face...Is there something dirty?” Liao Zixuan started to get nervous, and he couldn’t even speak properly.

Because Vivian did not follow the script at all!

The little girl actually acted as if she didn’t listen to his awkward bragging just now. She was completely on guard.

On the contrary, Vivian stared at Liao Zixuan’s face with a scrutinizing gaze.

The more the little girl looked at it, the more her brows furrowed. She even put her hand between her chin and lips, in a contemplative posture.

In the spiritual space where even Liao Zixuan couldn’t hear.

“The other me, do you think... This person felt very familiar?” Vivian began to ask for help.

[No! Not at all!]

[Hey! Vivian, I’m warning you. From a human’s point of view, I admit that he might be a little handsome, but you can’t be like this! You... You, you weren’t this kind of person in the past!]

The second personality’s angry voice sounded, and the little girl quickly explained.

“The other me, you...What are you thinking? It’s not because of that.”

“I’m really...She really felt that there was something, something...He couldn’t help but want me to get close to him.”

Vivian was telling the truth, but the second personality heard the sound of something being smashed in his spiritual space.

The girl in the black dress who looked exactly like Vivian was so angry that her chest was about to explode!

[Huh? And you still say that you’re not! He even said that he was close! I can’t!

I’m so angry!]

[Where’s Little Black? Where the hell did that little wolf cub run off to! Your Vivian has been kidnapped by someone else. How can you still be in the mood to play outside?)

[Little Black! Summon Little Black back, I want to see Little Black! I want Little Black! Vivian!]

The second personality, who had always disliked Liao Zixuan, missed the little wolf cub.

As the saying goes, the enemy of my enemy is my friend. The second personality felt that she was too weak to pull Vivian back by herself. She had to find a teammate.

Even if they ate their own cabbages, they had to be digested internally. How could they let others benefit?

Not to mention, as the second personality, she was also considered a cabbage in a sense...Gifts? Buy one get one free, twin cabbages?

However...

While the second personality was screaming at the top of his lungs, the little girl's eyes lit up as if she had finally been awakened.

"Thank you so much! Another me! I finally know what the aura on that person's body is. That's right, it's exactly the same as when I faced Xiao Hei!

As if she had finally solved a difficult question, Vivian was excited and excited. In the mental space, the second personality calmed down a little.

There was... Xiao Hei's aura?

She did not say that she was even angrier because the second personality knew how important Blackie was to Vivian. Vivian would never joke about such things.

If the little girl said yes, then perhaps...Really?

"The other me, you, do you think there's a possibility? I mean, a possibility.

Could he... Is it Xiao Hei?"

It was as if a whole new world had been opened up in his mind.

Like a curious baby, Vivian bravely and excitedly made a bold guess.

[Impossible!]

[Absolutely impossible!] the second personality blurted out.

“Why? Wasn’t Xinyan the same back then? He could transform into a human! Little Black...I can definitely do it too!” The more Vivian thought about it, the brighter her eyes became. She was full of anticipation.

Seeing this, the second personality immediately scratched her ears and cheeks, racking her brains to think of a retort. She was unwilling to accept this fact from the bottom of her heart.

[Because...Because...]

He slapped his thigh.

[Yes, that’s right! Even if he wanted to change, he would have to become a child! Just like Xinyan now, your little wolf cub is still so young. It has just passed its infancy, how could it possibly turn into a young man!]

Under the second personality’s argument, it did seem reasonable.

However, Vivian still insisted and muttered,”

“However, the current Xinyan is more, uh...She was a little silly! That’s why I became a child!”

“But Xiao Hei is different. He is very smart. Sometimes, I feel that...It’s not me nurturing him, but him nurturing me!”

It could be considered as a “shame of the summoner”, but from Vivian’s face, there was at most a bit of shyness, but more of it was pride.

What’s wrong? She summoned Little Black by luck. Who said that Summoned Beasts couldn’t train Summoners?

[You! You! Uh uh uh...I’m so angry! I don’t care. If you think he is, ask him yourself!]

The second personality remained silent in a fit of pique, as if he had gone to sleep.

But in reality..

When Vivian, who had been staring at Liao Zixuan for a long time, was about to speak, the second personality hid under the blanket and watched the small television outside. She was more focused and nervous than anyone else.

“That...’

“Xiao, Xiao Hei?” Vivian made up her mind to ignore anything. She opened her mouth and asked the young man directly.

The little girl blinked, her big watery eyes looking at Liao Zixuan, her eyes full of anticipation.

As for Liao Zixuan...

After his heart beat a beat slower.

“Sigh, I should say... As expected of Miss Vivian. As expected, I still can’t hide it from you.”

Liao Zixuan shook his head helplessly as if he had been discovered. Vivian’s eyes lit up, and her voice trembled with excitement.

“So, so you really are Xiao Hei...”

“That’s right!”

Liao Zixuan said without hesitation.

The wind stopped, the trees were quiet, and the birds stopped chirping.

Time seemed to freeze at this moment.

Everyone's expressions were different.

Vivian couldn't control her emotions and covered her mouth.

In the mental space, the second personality, who was buried in the blanket, did the same thing as Vivian in reality. She covered her mouth in front of Liao Zixuan.

Liz... Uh, this young lady was in a worse state. She seemed to have been petrified, similar to the little maid who was "hacking" not far away.

As for the last person, Xue Li, she was actually still alright. After all, she knew everything long ago. However, she still looked surprised. She didn't expect Lord Black to really admit it.

However...

When the second hand moved again, all these expressions disappeared in Liao Zixuan's next sentence.

Because...

"That's right, I am Xiao Hei...Elder!"

Liao Zixuan added..
