

NPC Become 491

Chapter 491: The Beginning of the Explosion

“What a pity. If I hadn’t divined for you two days ago, I would have strongly requested for Vivian to let me try astrology again!

Mei Ji chopped off her feet, looking very angry and regretful. The way she looked at the little girl was like an exquisite toy in the display window, very eager but unable to reach it.

However, Vivian was nervous. On one hand, she noticed the restlessness of the wolf cub in her arms. On the other hand, she instantly thought of...

“Mei...Miss Mei Ji, then you better stay away from me! Could it be that Lord Water God cast her gaze so that she could rely on me to find you!

Pfft...

However, when Maggie saw that Vivian was worried about her, she laughed out loud.

The astrologer girl waved her hand and said,”

“You misunderstood Vivian! Being cast under the gaze of the gods is just a folk story in our Thousand Islands. Often, people who are particularly lucky or have great virtues and talents will be jokingly said by the people that they have been chosen by the Lord Water God.

‘ Over time, we astrologers used this phrase to describe those who have a strong sense of destiny. In fact, it’s not really the gaze of the gods. Every god is high and mighty. With our weight, how could the Lord Water God be so free to cast his gaze?’”

Maggie explained to Vivian with confidence. She had encountered this kind of blunder many times. Many people were flattered by this sentence, but in fact, they were just overthinking it. Who are you?

But as she spoke, the astrologer girl realized that something was wrong.

“Alright... Alright, even if the old woman was really the Water God and was so free to look for me, she would have directly thrown herself at me. After all, with the power of the Water God, there was no need for her to rely on you as a middleman.”

Seeing that even Maggie herself was not taking it seriously, and it seemed to make sense, Vivian was relieved. At the same time, she comforted the wolf cub in her arms.

Vivian thought that the wolf cubs had misunderstood her, which was why they suddenly became anxious.

However...

Liao Zixuan was very sure that the Water God's gaze was not a joke, but... The real deal!

Moreover, Mei Ji had always thought that the Water God was looking for her, but Liao Zixuan knew...

Even if the astrologer girl was really the Water God's disciple and did something to make the Water God angry, it was nothing compared to Vivian. Because the former might just be angry, but the latter was...Variant.

It was a change in fate.

On the Astorokis, Liao Zixuan had relied on Meggie's astrology and the reverse cycle to turn An into an enemy and successfully rewrite his fate.

Liao Zixuan thought that when the Water God's gaze disappeared during the fourth time, he felt that the Water God finally recognized their efforts and gave up on the persistence of the variable.

So why...

“Vivian, what did you do just now? It still feels so sudden. It’s only been a short while...” Apparently, Mei Ji had the same doubts.

“No, I’m just packing up and preparing to get off the ship and land on the island.

Vivian recalled carefully, and she also looked confused.

“I see. Forget it. Even we astrologers can’t figure out fate. ”

“It’s not like there aren’t situations like yours. You should have accidentally triggered a certain node, for example... Get off the boat? From the looks of it, hmm...Maybe something good will be waiting for you when you get off the Ship!

“Damn it! Damn it! I really want to divine, I really want to divine!” The more Mei Ji spoke, the more she beat her chest and stamped her feet.

The node...

The little wolf cub keenly captured this concept.

If they had boarded the ship at the first node, but they did not know because they had not met the astrological girl, then if they had disembarked at the second node, did that mean...

Would a new crisis appear?

Meggie’s “ good things are waiting for you ” could also prove that his guess was correct. After all, he had learned from the Astorokis.

This was bad...

If the " cycle " was compared to a dungeon, Liao Zixuan felt that Water God was deliberately reminding him that the previous dungeon was just an appetizer, and a new dungeon was about to come.

However, as the biggest contributor to the previous dungeon, Miss Mei Ji, the " guide ", her skills were now in cooldown. It was obvious that she could no longer rely on divination to provide him with a shortcut.

In addition..

Thump!

The Astorokis stopped moving.

This was a signal.

They...They reached the shore.

Forget about the luggage. Let's meet up with Luzi first!

The little wolf cub immediately sent a message to Vivian. At the same time, he did not forget to emphasize that he must keep the astrologer girl by his side.

Originally, Liao Zixuan was a little dissatisfied with Meiji for shamelessly following Vivian. He thought that it would be troublesome, but now it seemed that he should be glad instead.

It was good to have one more teammate, not to mention the thigh that was matched with the previous one, even though he was crippled now.

Vivian always acted first before thinking about the reason for the wolf cubs. So the little girl immediately gave up on packing her luggage. Without a word, she pulled the confused Meggie and rushed to Luzi's location..

Chapter 492: The Beginning of the Explosion

He didn't find Luzi in the control room. When he reached the deck, he found the administrative officer, but Luzi didn't look too good.

She didn't even notice the little girl approaching until Vivian spoke, which startled her.

"Miss Vivian, I think...Something's not right."

"Something's not right. It's..."

Roko didn't say anything. Instead, she frowned and continued to look at the port of the Moon Abyss Island where the Astorokis was docked.

Vivian looked over and was a little shocked.

There was a huge black mass at the port. It was probably filled with the citizens of the Thousand Islands who were watching. The crowd was pointing at the Astorokis, as if they were discussing it. Moreover, most of the people had surprised expressions on their faces.

As they were on the three-story deck, which was equivalent to two to three stories high, they could not hear it too clearly. They could only vaguely catch the words " Orochi come back alive "," shipwreck ", and so on.

Combined with the expressions of the crowd, it was not difficult to determine that they had rushed over so quickly after learning that the Astorokis had docked. They probably did not expect that they would survive the shipwreck.

Vivian thought it was normal at first. There was nothing strange about it, right? This was just a normal phenomenon for people to have a miracle.

However, the wolf cub in her arms instantly understood what Luzi was frowning about.

Because Vivian had subconsciously overlooked one point.

The people on the Thousand Islands...How did they know that they were shipwrecked? Even the "Serpent" knew about it?

"Wait, Miss Luzi, don't tell me you didn't..." Vivian finally reacted and looked at the administrative officer next to her with a surprised expression.

"When we were in the Abyssal Sea, we couldn't send any messages through any means of communication. After we came out of the Abyssal Sea safely, I only sent messages to Lady Risa through magic.

"Could it be Lady Risa...No, Risa wouldn't take the initiative to spread the news so soon. Moreover, judging from the reaction of the people, it was more of a celebration than a welcome. Instead...Shocked?"

All these phenomena pointed to one conclusion.

Before they arrived at the Thousand Islands, someone had announced that the Astorokis had encountered a great snake.

As for the purpose, the "lady" had also said that it was to use this move against the society and against Sakai Risa, the current master of the family. The sinking of the Astorokis was a huge responsibility, and it was enough to make the person in charge step down.

However, what the enemies in the dark did not expect was that they actually came back alive from the snake.

Under this premise, the current situation of the people watching in surprise was created.

"I was too careless..." Roko clenched her fists, and a rare expression of anger and regret appeared on her face.

When the " lady " was destroyed, Roko relaxed and thought that the " lady " was the Winter person who hypnotized her and the leader of the enemy's plan against the Thousand Islands.

But now it seemed like...

Other than the "lady", there must be another mastermind behind the scenes. It was very likely...He was also an executive officer!

She could not see anything on the deck, and what made Roko's eyes narrow was that she found many warriors in all directions of the port.

With such a large number, it seemed like they were going to surround the port. It was definitely not something that the Society could do. The only person who could do this was the Great Fu Society, who was in charge of the Thousand Islands Military Organization.

Combined with what the 'lady' had said when she was interrogated, one of the pursuers in the Thousand Islands had already fallen and was secretly bribed.

It seemed that the person behind the scenes was very meticulous. It was very likely that after receiving the news of the "lady's" death, he immediately made a backup plan for the possibility of them coming back alive.

The wolf cubs also noticed this.

Moreover, he discovered something even stranger.

These warriors were just standing on the periphery. They didn't seem to have any intention of approaching the Astorokis, nor did they have any intention of maintaining law and order or dispersing the crowd.

"Let's go down first..."

Just as Lu Zi was about to leave, she had no choice but to stop.

A group of people squeezed through the crowd and walked toward the Astorokis.

The leader was a man.

"Yosuke...Sir?"

When they got on the boat from the port, Lu Zi was surprised to see the man in front of her.

Yosuke... Yosuke Sakai?

The little wolf cub squinted his eyes and observed the young man. Suddenly, a sense of familiarity welled up in his heart, because this was the leader of the Thousand Islands Society in the plot of his previous life.

When he first heard about the Bella's avatar, Lord Risha, the leader of the society, Liao Zixuan felt a little strange. Because in the plot of his previous life, this leader was only the leader of the society.

The Island Master's concept of the Thousand Islands was equivalent to a mayor, but the society was in charge of the entire country. The difference in status between the two was not small. Liao Zixuan had also thought of an explanation for this at that time. Perhaps he had abdicated. After all, in this life, the timeline was much earlier than that of the players. From the open beta time, it could be seen that they had already arrived at the Thousand Islands before the release of version 1.0.

They all had the surname Sakai, so they were naturally related. Yosuke's words later proved this point.

"Lord Yosuke, why did you suddenly come..."

"Because my sister, that muddle-headed ghost...Sigh, your eyes were blinded by your desire for profit. It's also my fault for not discovering and stopping you in time. Now that things have come to this, Lu 'zi, you don't have to pretend anymore. The goods that my sister ordered you to smuggle from the Flame Domain are on this ship, right?"

The young man shook his head and sighed.

On the other hand, Lu Zits face was filled with shock and disbelief.

"You... What are you talking about, Lord Yosuke? Smuggled goods? And Lord Risa...What happened to Lady Risa?"

Roko was very emotional and wanted to ask further, but Sakai Yosuke did not answer. He gestured to the samurai behind him, and the samurai immediately split up and headed towards the cargo hold at the bottom of the cabin. "Lord Yosuke, you...What are you trying to do?"

" We'll find out if there's any. Roko, I'm helping the Sakai Clan. Since we've made a mistake, we have to admit our mistakes. I believe that Lord Gong Si will also give us a light punishment."

The goods...

The goods...

Liao Zixuan finally knew where the faint uneasiness that he had always felt as if he had forgotten something came from.

Lady Luzi had imported a batch of goods into the Flame Domain. Liao Zixuan had obtained this information from Zhan Tip during the " second round " of interrogation.

At that time, although he was strange, he did not investigate because his focus was still on Ann.

In the " third " cycle, when Zhao Jie mysteriously disappeared, Liao Zixuan sensed that something was wrong with the warehouse and went to investigate. However, he found Ann there and was accidentally picked up by Ann and stopped.

Since then, his focus had been on the snake, and he had forgotten more and more about the goods.

So he was waiting for them here.

Liao Zixuan had to admit that the opponents he encountered in the Flame Domain were all too weak, which made him a little numb. As for the ones on the Thousand Islands... It was obvious that the enemy's methods and techniques were not on the same level.

It seemed like...

They couldn't count on the society to deal with the Divine Magi anymore. Now, they couldn't even protect themselves.

At first, Liao Zixuan thought so.

However, he still underestimated the cruelty and decisiveness of the person behind the scenes.

That was because...

The corners of Sakai Yosuke's mouth curled up into a faint smile as he looked at his watch, as if he had estimated the time.

Then...

It might be in the next second.

Boom!

A huge explosion sounded like thunder on the ground.

Following that, a sky-high flame burst out from the bottom of the Astorokis.

A blue protective barrier enveloped the Astorokis, protecting the ship and the people on board from the huge explosion. This was the power of the Heart of the Sea.

However, this barrier was only limited to the Astorokis.

Don't forget, at the port where the ship was docked, there were countless people from the Thousand Islands who had rushed over after hearing the news and were watching the Astorokis..

Chapter 493: Saltpeter Smuggling

"The Divine Wizard Selection is a grand ceremony held once every ten years in the Thousand Islands. There will be a large number of fireworks orders at the last minute. Sigh...Lu Zi, I really didn't expect that my sister would actually have her eyes on this business. She asked you to smuggle a large amount of saltpeter from the Flame Domain to be used as a raw material for fireworks.

Thick smoke and fire rose from the dock below the Astorokis. Among them were countless people who were injured by the explosion.

Blood flowed all over the ground. The people closest to the warehouse were the most severely injured by the explosion and flames. Some of them even had their limbs blown away, leaving only half of their bodies lying on the ground.

“If it was just smuggling, I might still be able to protect my sister, but now...” Yosuke Sakai had a look of regret on his face.

“The smuggled saltpeter that was stored in the cargo hold of the Astrologgis suddenly caused an explosion, causing countless casualties among the surrounding innocent citizens. Luzi, this matter has blown up. Even if I want to help you, I can’t...Sigh.”

The young man’s tone and expression were completely opposite.

Salt peter was not so easy to explode. Moreover, why was the Astorokis fine for so long, but at this time, an accident happened after Yosuke sent someone to check?

Liao Zixuan recalled that when the Astorokis docked, it suddenly appeared around the port, but deliberately did not approach the ship. It was just the warriors waiting outside.

Now that the explosion had occurred, the warriors of the Grand Ceremony swarmed forward, as if they had rehearsed this beforehand. They surrounded the Astorokis and sealed off all the entrances and exits.

“Lord Yosuke, you...How could you do such a thing! “Lu Zi’s eyes were wide open, and her entire body was trembling.

She ran to the edge of the deck and looked down at the tragic scene at the port. Roko was not stupid. She had already reacted to everything. Moreover, this was no longer a conspiracy, but a blatant conspiracy.

Thump thump thump thump!

The sound of footsteps came from the stairs. In the blink of an eye, the warriors of the Grand Fuxi came to the deck and aimed their weapons at Roko and Vivian.

The rest of the passengers on the Astorokis were all shocked by the sudden situation. Everything happened too quickly. First, it was the explosion, and now, it seemed like the warriors were trying to catch the criminals.

When the passengers finally came back to their senses, they raised their trembling hands under the warrior's halberd. Some even squatted down with their hands on their heads. In less than a few minutes, the entire Astorokis was under the control of the Grand Priest.

"Roko, don't blame me for being heartless, but for the sake of the Sakai family, I can only do this. Geckos live by cutting off their tails.

"Take the prisoner away and send him to prison!

Yosuke Sakai waved his hand, and the samurai began to approach Roko.

And that was not all. When Sakai Yosuke's gaze shifted from Roko to Vivian and the astrological girl Meiji beside her, he did not hesitate and immediately ordered again,"

"Take them with you!"

"You! They're just passengers on the ship. What right do you have to arrest

When? Roko saw that Yosuke wanted to involve Vivian and the others, she immediately shouted to stop him.

However, Sakai Yosuke clearly had more than one target from the beginning.

He glanced at the furious Roko with contempt and said indifferently,"

“I can temporarily believe that the other passengers on the ship are innocent, but these two people...Obviously, they have a close relationship with you, Luzi. One of them is even from the Flame Field. Perhaps he is related to this incident.

“Besides, what right do I have to ask you? I’m now the acting head of the society, and you, Luzi, have been fired. I suggest you keep your mouth shut.

“Take them all away!”

Looking at the approaching Grand Priest Warriors, Vivian and the wolf cubs had two choices. They could either be taken away or...Resist.

Liao Zixuan cast the “ Detection ” skill on the samurai, including Sakai Yosuke. The game panel showed that they were all around level 20, just like in his previous life. For Vivian, who was now level 40 and had reached the Extraordinary level, she could easily deal with them without the wolf cubs.

Roko was also aware of this, which was why she tried her best to stop the man from provoking Vivian. But now that the situation had become like this, Roko cast a pleading look at the little girl.

Don’t make a move here!

Vivian read out the message that Roko was anxiously conveying to her.

INOC only ama ne use them to blow up the matter and make it irreversible, but he also used this to threaten Roko.

If they didn’t obey obediently and surrender, once a dispute broke out, all the warriors of the Great Fu Sect would have to focus on dealing with them. However, if that happened, they wouldn’t be able to spare any manpower for the rescue at the port.

Many of the citizens were now in danger from the explosion. They were heavily injured and had fallen to the ground. If they were to be rescued at the first moment, they might be able to save many lives.

Resisting was not only an additional crime, but it also meant that you chose to abandon the countless lives below the port.

To Luzi, this was already a general..

Chapter 494: Saltpeter Smuggling (2)

Whether it was reason or reason, she gave up the idea of resisting by force. Otherwise, Roko was not only an administrative officer, but also a water mage. The warriors of the Great Fu Enforcement might not be able to do anything to Roko.

This was the same for Vivian.

After asking for Little Wolf's opinion, Vivian finally broke through and summoned Little Wolf back to the summoning space. Together with Little Wolf, she was controlled by the warriors.

As for the astrologer girl, seeing that Vivian did not move, she could only resign herself to fate and be tied up as well.

"Thank you, Lady Vivian. On behalf of the innocent people of the Thousand Islands, I am truly grateful to you! Please believe me, Lady Vivian. I'm just temporarily troubling you..."

Roko expressed her gratitude for Vivian's decision.

She took a deep breath and looked at the young man with a smug expression on her face. Although Luzi was caught off guard, she quickly launched a counterattack.

‘ Lord Yosuke, even if I am dismissed from my post because of my crime, the laws of the Thousand Islands clearly state that if an official of my level commits a crime, he must report it to the Minister of Justice. Only the Minister of Justice, the head of the Three Courts, can decide my subsequent sentence.

“Are you going to ignore the law? Was this also considered an abuse of power? It wasn’t easy for you to take over your sister’s position and sit in the position of the temporary family head. Don’t come down again before your butt gets warm.

RoRoko’s eloquent words made Sakai Yosuke’s originally smiling face, which had a look of control over everything, darken.

He snorted coldly and didn’t reply to Lu Zi. Instead, he said to the warriors around him,”

“First, lock up the two foreigners beside Roko. The rest of you, split up and bring Roko with you to see Lord Gong Si.

“Yes, sir!”

The warriors began to take action. Roko looked at Vivian and Meji who were being escorted to the prison and finally decided to trust them again. They must not do anything extreme. They must believe her. She could explain everything to Gong Si and they would be released soon.

Vivian believed that Meggy was looking at her as if she had to hurry up. As for the wolf cubs in the summoning space...

At the same time, the passengers on the Astorokis also witnessed the scene on the deck.

Some people saw that the little girl who had saved them from the snake’s mouth was being taken away as a prisoner by the Grand Fuxing Priest and was about to be born. Was there a misunderstanding?

However, in the face of the strict gazes and spears of the warriors, even though they were all nobles, they still chose to be the silent third party in the face of the absolute authority of the Thousand Islands.

There were only two people among the passengers who were different from the rest. One of them was the merchant who had left the ship. After Zhao Jie and the other warriors allowed the passengers to leave, he did not think that the others would run away and desperately wanted to leave this troublesome ship.

This middle-aged man chose to stay on the ship. After a while, he meowed at one of the Thousand-island Warriors who was guarding the ship and approached him with a money bag in his hand.

Through bribery, Zhao Jie easily understood the series of changes that happened on the ship in a short period of time from the warrior.

After that, Zhao Jie frowned. Even a fool could tell that there was a thick conspiracy behind this. Moreover, it was obvious that this matter had huge implications and was a very deep whirlpool.

The best and wisest decision would be to quickly clear their name and leave like the other passengers on the other ships.

However...

Zhao Jie gritted his teeth. He reached into his inner pocket and took out the pocket watch that contained the family portrait. He took a deep look at it before closing the pocket watch again and putting it back into his pocket.

"I'm sorry, Honey, Xing 'Er. Wait for me for a while. That little girl saved my life. I... I can't leave him in the lurch!"

"The foundation of our Gui Li people is the word 'contract'. I, I can't go back on my word!"

After muttering to himself, Zhao Jie seemed to be giving himself courage. After that, there was no longer any hesitation on his face. He seized every moment and did not even take his luggage. After finding a direction, he hurriedly left.

Vivian had saved his life, that was the main thing. Besides, this was a subconscious feeling that every father would have, especially when they were away from home.

Zhao Jie could not help but think of his own daughter, Xing 'er, as Vivian. If it was his daughter who was framed at the moment, he would definitely hope that a stranger could lend a helping hand, right?

Thinking of this, Zhao Jie quickened his pace. However, what he did not expect was that someone would suddenly approach him from behind.

" Wait, wait for a moment, Mister!"

Zhao Jie quickly turned around and heaved a sigh of relief. The person who had come was not a warrior from the Great Fuxing Court, but...It was a young man wearing glasses who looked a little messy.

He had some impression of this person. He should be the same as him, both of them...A passenger?

As mentioned before, there were two passengers who had different performances. One of them was Zhao Jie.. As for the other...

Chapter 495: Saltpeter Smuggling (3)

"Sir, I, I heard what you said just now. Are you going to think of a way to help that heroic senior??"

The young man wearing glasses was panting heavily. He was obviously young, but his physical fitness seemed to be very weak. It was difficult for him to even chase an uncle.

After panting for a while, he quickly continued,

"I'm sorry for eavesdropping on you, but I don't have any ill intentions. I just wanted to ask if I could travel with you. I... I also want to do something for Senior! "Seeing Zhao Jie's suspicious and vigilant expression, the light novelist waved his hands and explained.

“Who are you? Why should I believe you?”

“I... My name is Kasumi Akiko, I'm a... A light novelist! The senior who faced the Orochi is a very important character in my next novel, so please let me

Was there something wrong with this person's brain?

That was Zhao Jie's first reaction.

But at the very least, the other party should not be a bad person. It was always good to have another teammate. Moreover, the other party had also eavesdropped on his goal.

After weighing the pros and cons, Zhao Jie could only nod.

Under Kasumi Akiko's excited expression, the two of them disappeared from the port.

On the highest peak of Moon Abyss Island, a towering shrine stood.

Moon Abyss Society.

There was an endless stream of people from the Thousand Islands who came to pay their respects, but they could only move around in the outer area of the shrine because the inner area was where Miyazaki was located.

Gong Si was not only the leader of the Moon Society Society, but also the person in charge of the entire Thousand Islands. There was only one reason for this: she was the incarnation of the Water God in the human world.

The Thousand Islands could be seen as a theocracy country, which was different from the Fire Domain. Although Archbishop Maggie was also the incarnation of Fire God Alice, she was only in charge of the Fire God Church. Unless it was necessary, she would not interfere with the internal affairs of the knights and nobles. The Fire Domain was at least divided into three powers on the surface.

On the surface, the Thousand Islands had the three Supreme Officials, but in reality, the highest authority was still the Palace Secretary. The three Supreme Officials were only assistants, so all important matters needed to be reported to the Palace Secretary.

” The selection of the Divine Wizard is proceeding smoothly. The first batch of candidates for the Divine Wizard...”

[The residents of many places have jointly requested to increase the number of candidates for the Wizard of God.]

[The Astorokis encountered Orochi in the sea and was unfortunately killed.] Sakai Risa, the head of the society’s executive, is suspended for investigation.”

[Qilin Pavilion, one of the five elements of Gui Li, has sent a diplomatic document, strongly hoping to participate in the investigation of the Astorokis.]

” The Eight Old Society is plotting to interfere with the election. The Grand Priest hopes to increase funding to ensure the safety of the election.”

“Lord Gong Si, Sakai Yosuke, the acting head of the society, requests an audience.

Outside of the attic in the center of the shrine, the shrine maiden respectfully asked the people inside the room for instructions.

Inside the pavilion, a blue-haired woman was sitting behind a silk screen. She had closed the open document on the table. Although she was also wearing a witch’s robe, it was obvious from her decoration that she was different from other ordinary witches.

His entire body exuded an ethereal aura. At a glance, it was as if he was facing a bottomless sea, making people feel unfathomable and fearful.

The incarnation of the Water God.

Under her long eyelashes was a pair of sapphire like crystal clear eyes. Unfortunately, these eyes did not flicker with a crystal-like dazzling light. Instead...It was calm.

Similarly, there was also the woman's indifferent voice that sounded like an ancient pool. "Let them in.'

"Yes..

Chapter 496: Mysterious Snake Shadow

"Lord Gong Si.

Sakai Yosuke half-knelt outside the screen with his head lowered. No matter how arrogant he was on the Astorokis, he did not dare to show any disrespect in front of this person.

The few guards behind him also let go of Lu Zi and did the same thing.

"Why are you here this blue-haired woman walked out from behind the screen and swept her gaze across the audience below.

"Lord Gong Si, there has been new progress regarding the shipwreck of the Astorokis that I previously reported to you. The matter is more complicated than I imagined.

"Oh? Tell me."

Although the blue-haired woman sounded like she was asking, there was no concern on her face.

" Yes, just earlier, the Astorokis returned to the port. This should have been a joyous occasion, and I could also investigate whether my sister was framed for smuggling. Unfortunately, I found a large amount of saltpeter that belongs to the Flame Domain at the bottom of the cabin. The smuggling matter is already set in stone."

However, before I could take the next step, the smuggled saltpeter exploded violently at the port, perhaps because of its poor quality or because of the way it was stored. Flames danced wildly, and thick smoke billowed. "

" Although the Society and the Fufu Society worked together to provide immediate assistance, many innocent citizens who came to watch the Astorokis were still affected by the explosion and suffered heavy casualties. On one hand, I sent more people to rescue them, and on the other hand, because this matter is of great importance, I didn't dare to delay at all. I immediately brought the criminal, Lu Zi, to meet Lord Miyasi.

After Sakai Yosuke finished speaking, the Miyaji woman, who had transformed into the Water God, finally shifted her gaze to Roko behind her.

"Do you have anything to explain?"

' Lord Gong Si, Roko knew that she was guilty. She was driven by a thief using witchcraft and fell into a trap, implicating the Astorokis and Lord Risa. Roko was willing to be punished after the incident, but..."

Lu Zi knelt on the ground and said sincerely,"

" I hope that you can understand. Whether it's the smuggling of saltpeter, the explosion at the port, or the Astorokis that lost its course at sea a few days ago and was attacked by a giant snake, I have already found some clues about the mastermind behind all these. It's a foreign force from the cold winter.

Lord Yosuke has ulterior motives and is most likely colluding with foreign enemies..."

"Humph! Using such words to excuse himself and even trying to disturb the public and mess up the matter, do you think Lord Gong Si will believe it?"

Although Sakai Yosuke did not seem to be moved and only shouted to stop her, he was actually a little surprised. He did not expect that Roko already knew so much.

Lu Zi ignored the man and continued to plead with the blue-haired woman,”

It’s the Divine Wizard Selection that happens once every ten years in the Thousand Islands. The manpower and material resources of the Three Courts have been transferred away. Lord Gong Si, the enemy has targeted this time. Therefore, we must not let them succeed. Luzi, I hope Lord Gong Si can...”
Take action personally! ”

“You... Y’

Sakai Yosuke was about to say something, but when the blue-haired woman’s gaze swept over, he instantly fell silent.

“I know what happened.”

“Sakai Yosuke has made contributions in investigating the smuggling. He rescued the people who exploded at the port in the first place and reduced the casualties. This proves that you are indeed qualified to take over your sister’s position. From now on, you can officially become the head of the society.

“Thank... Thank you, Lord Gong Si! Yosuke Sakai’s face was filled with ecstasy.

Although he claimed to be the temporary head of the family, there was still the word “temporary”. Only after being personally appointed by Lord Gong Si could he be considered to have completely taken over the society.

On the other hand, on Roko’s side, a look of disbelief appeared on her face. She did not understand why Gong Si had still...

“Lord Gong Si, then I’ll take my leave now. As for the punishment of the criminals, I’ll definitely...”

Before the man could finish his words, he stopped abruptly because the blue-haired woman did not end the meeting. Instead, she looked at Lu Zi and said again, ‘ Sakai Risa and her subordinates were supposed to be dismissed and imprisoned for abusing their power and smuggling goods, putting the people of the Thousand Islands in danger. However, they revealed the truth and exposed the enemy. It is suspected that there is a slanderer behind the scenes. Therefore, they were demoted and sent away. They will leave the Moon Abyss Island today and go to Sakuragi Island to serve as the island master to observe the results.

“This... Lord Gong Si, this, this isn’t appropriate!

Sakai Yosuke was dumbfounded by the blue-haired woman’s words. He could not help but ask questions.

“What, do you have a problem?”

After Miyaji Magi glanced at the young man coldly, Sakai Yosuke finally came back to his senses and realized what he had done by uttering those arrogant words.

Gong Si’s words carried weight, and no one in the Thousand Islands could doubt his words.

“No... No, I lost my composure. I will obey Lord Gong Si. “Sakai Yosuke was so frightened that he immediately prostrated on the ground.

The blue-haired woman didn’t pursue the matter further. She only asked indifferently,

“Other than that, is there anything else?”

Chapter 497: Mysterious Snake Shadow (2)

There was also the title of the title!

Roko did not forget about Vivian and the others. She was about to ask Gong Si to release them, but as soon as she thought of this...

A dark green snake-shaped shadow flashed through Ro Zi's mind.

[Although you're doing this for my own good...] However, now was not the time. The current them...Still can't be discovered by this water god...

[So, I'll eat this memory...]

A young girl's voice echoed in Roko's ears. The tone of the voice was very strange. It clearly sounded young, but it had a bewitching feeling.

If she had to describe it, Luzi's first reaction was...Snakes.

It was like a snake spitting its tongue. That extremely fast and clear hissing sound made people's hearts itch. It even had a pleasant feeling, but they were afraid of being bitten, and their entire bodies felt cold.

Especially when he said " I've eaten it ", Roko felt goosebumps all over her body. This was the reaction of a " prey "

Unfortunately, the thought of resisting flashed past Lu Zi's mind.

This was because in the next second, this dark green snake-shaped phantom opened its mouth at lightning speed and made a devouring action. It was extremely fast and clean. After it was done, it disappeared as if it had never appeared.

As for the dew, the sutra, the sutra

He...Did I want to do something just now?

The administrative officer's face revealed a look of confusion and reminiscence.

The only one who could react was probably the Water God, who had transformed into the Magus Maiden Gong Si.

However, even the blue-haired woman who was high up on the steps of the shrine only glanced at the strange dew below before she retracted her gaze.

"If there's nothing else, you can leave.

"Yes..."

"Yes..."

The two voices rang out in succession. Not only Sakai Yosuke, but also Roko. They all had endless doubts about Lord Miyasaki's judgment.

When she was promoted to Sakai Yosuke, Roko's vision went black and she almost fainted. However, the harem secretary actually pardoned her and Lord Risa. Although they were demoted to island masters, it was much better than what Yosuke said, that they were going to be imprisoned as criminals.

so...

Who exactly was Lord Gong Si...What did he mean?

And...

She felt like she had missed something. There was something she didn't tell Lord Gong Si. What was it...What exactly was the...

“But, that’s not the eighth level god...Ahem, the place of the Eightfold Old Society? Isn’t Lord Gong Si afraid that these traitors will conspire...”

“Don’t worry so much. This matter has already been settled. However, the only thing that surprised me was that Luzi actually didn’t mention the traveler from the Flame Domain in front of Lord Gong Si...”

Sakai Yosuke glared at his trusted samurai and fell into deep thought.

This time, the samurai did not dare to speak casually.

After one or two minutes, Sakai shook his head and said again,” Forget it. Let’s not interfere with those two people anymore. Now that we’ve achieved our goal ahead of time, we don’t need the help of Lin Dong and the others anymore. Besides...Humph! ‘Those bastards of winter, do you really think that I, Sakai Yousuke, am a fool? Do you still want to use me to deal with that little girl from the Flame Domain?’”

” With Ryu’s abilities, how could she have allowed the Astorokis to return intact from the hands of the legendary Yamata no Orochi? It’s obvious that the Flame Domain person must have played a key role. Although I don’t know why they insist on being enemies with such people, we can’t be used as a weapon. We can take the opportunity to lock them up in prison. Just a little mercy is enough to give the Winter people face. ”

“Yes, Lord Yosuke. Then I’ll instruct my brothers to watch over them and not do anything unnecessary. ”

“Yes, go ahead. Also, it’s okay if you can’t keep an eye on it. It’s just for show.

The main point is, don’t get involved in any more.”

“Understood ! ”

As Sakai Yosuke and his group left the Tsukiyuan Shrine, the place finally returned to its initial peace.

In the highest pavilion of the shrine, the blue-haired woman returned to the screen and sat down.

“Variant...It’s all variables...”

“Why is this happening...Where exactly did I make a mistake...”

Chapter 498: Mysterious Snake Shadow 3

In front of the wooden table of the clone of the Daoist God, there was a piece of paper with words such as “ Sakai Yosuke Master of the Society “, and “ Lord of Sakuragi Island ” written on it.

The blue-haired woman picked up her pen and connected the two related words together as if she was doing a connecting question.

She connected Sakai Yosuke and the head of the society, as well as Sakai Risa and the owner of Sakuragi Island.

However, the blue-haired woman was unable to write down the remaining lines, such as the line between the Astorokis and the sunken ship. After all...This matter did not happen at all, and she could not rely on herself to force it to happen.

In addition, there was also the words “ Qilin Pavilion’s diplomatic document ” on the paper. However, this entry did not even have a corresponding entry. It was completely blank. How could it be connected?

“We must find...’

“In order to reach that future...All the variables must be taken Kill...”

The blue-haired woman's murmurs echoed in the pavilion. It was as if her killing intent was tangible. It was like ink spilling from the tip of a pen, dyeing the entire piece of Xuan paper black.

The Great Ceremony of Sacrifice is carried out in the jurisdiction of the land.

Prison Mountain.

There was no need for an introduction. Just the name alone was enough to explain what this place was used for.

All the prisoners on Deep Moon Island would be sent here for unified management. It was also one of the largest prisons on the Thousand Islands.

"Get in!"

After a jailer opened the new cell door, he scolded Vivian, who was handcuffed. After confirming that the little girl was in, he locked the cell door tightly and left quickly.

"Xiao Hei...Xiao Hei?" Vivian tried to call the wolf cubs in the summoning space, but there was no response.

As for the reason, the little girl looked down at the handcuffs in her hand.

Compared to the Flame Domain, the Thousand Islands did not have the political philosophy of the Fire God Alice, a Low Level Martial World.

For people like Vivian who had "magic power", there were special magic sealing handcuffs. Once put on, it was equivalent to being a silent mage, and the magic power in her body could not be used at all.

Otherwise, how could the low-level warriors who practiced the Great Fuxi Law guard the prisoners of Prison Mountain so easily? There were many vicious and evil Almighties among them.

Liao Xuan was a little depressed about this and started to regret it. Was it better to resist back then?

Actually, there were two reasons why he had decided not to do anything at that time.

Giving Lu Zi face and estimating that there were many injured Thousand Islands people below were only one of the reasons. The real reason why the wolf cub did not make a move was...

At that time, a voice suddenly sounded in his mind.

[You can't do anything here. You'll be discovered. Trust me...] Brother."

It was this young girl's voice that made Liao Zixuan hesitate. It was this hesitation that led to the current situation.

This was troublesome...

With the magic sealing handcuffs, Vivian could not summon him and Xinyan. If she wanted to escape, she had to find a way to remove the handcuffs...

However, this handcuff was really not simple. Liao Zixuan used his detection skill to probe it and found that it was actually an Epic grade prop!

The introduction written on the game panel was...

[Sea Serpent Feet]

[Rarity: Epic]

[Effect: Seals all the user's magic power]

(Rumor has it that this handcuff was made from the old skin of Orochi after it shed its skin. It was taken by the Water God and handed over to the Great Fujikuru to be refined. It is indestructible. Not only is it extremely tough, but it also has a strong suppressive force against magic.) So... Who was that damned voice at that time?

He commanded, and then what? Don't care?

In addition...

What was wrong with him at that time? Why did he believe it?

Just as the wolf cub was cursing in its heart, perhaps it had heard the voice in its heart, the strange girl's voice sounded again, but this time, the tone was not very good.

[Humph...

[Bad Brother...] Are you underestimating Meow? Let alone a mere handcuff, even if it was a god, as long as I had enough room to grow, I could...Swallow it..."

[After all, I am....] World Devouring Snake

Chapter 499: I've Raised the Witch of the Thousand-island Prison to Be a Divine Wizard

Snakes?

Where did he come from? Who are you? Why did you call me brother?

Explosive questions popped up one after another.

The wolf cub was confused. It felt like Vivian's second personality. It appeared too suddenly without any preparation. No, wait...

This time, there seemed to be some traces.

The little wolf cub had actually seen a snake that was as powerful as the Thousand-island Snake a few days ago.

Moreover, the wolf cub noticed that in the mysterious girl's words, the description of Vivian's handcuffs was that it was made from her " father's " skin. The introduction on the game panel stated that the material of these magic handcuffs came from the snake that he had just seen.

There were only two forbidden demonic creatures in the Thousand Islands, the absolute overlord of the ocean, the Eight Limbs.

"Are you the offspring of that snake? Why did you appear in my consciousness?"

Why did you stop us from attacking earlier? Why..."

The little wolf cub faced the dark green snake-shaped girl's phantom, and its questions were like cannonballs.

However, the snake-shaped girl clearly could not give a complete answer. Bad brother, if it wasn't for my sister's request, I wouldn't have..."

[Mayu is a possibility born from the 'limitless'...] And now, the brothers, you are...Because..."

[The more I reveal to you, my influence on this world will...] The smaller...So... Meow could not say anything more...He still wanted to devour...

My traces...”

[From that ship, Meow had already used his ‘infinite’ authority...] I’m helping you... Because you’ve completed the first cause... Let me increase the “possibility” of this fruit, so I can turn it around... It would interfere with this world even more...

Appearing in your current... In my consciousness...”

[Damn it! Clearly... Clearly... We agreed that we couldn’t say more...Clearly... Even if the bad brother came back, Mei Wu would never talk to him again...” [Bad... Brother... Remember this, Meow...The future...That day, you still...

Left without saying goodbye. These handcuffs...Meow is going to do you... I did!”

At the start, the green snake-shaped girl’s voice was still very clear, but as time passed, it became weaker and weaker, as if it was isolated by a barrier. Even so, the girl’s last sentence could still be heard. She had shouted with all her might.

As the snake-shaped girl’s voice stopped in the wolf cub’s mind, Vivian’s handcuffs changed in reality.

The same color as the girl, a dark green snake phantom appeared on the handcuffs out of thin air. Before the little girl could react to this abnormality, she saw the snake suddenly open its mouth and bite at the handcuffs.

To Vivian’s surprise, the epic prop,[Feet of the Sea Serpent], was easily bitten into two by the snake shadow.

However, this was not the end. Immediately after, like the venom from the fangs of a snake, a dark green liquid that looked like mercury quickly wrapped around the broken handcuffs and devoured them in the blink of an eye.

As for the area where the handcuffs came into contact with the little girl’s skin, the dark green liquid was like a living thing. During the entire devouring process, it did not touch the little girl at all.

By the time Vivian came back to her senses, her hands were already light, and the magic power that was sealed in her body surged again. As for the prison handcuffs of [Sea Serpent's Feet], it was as if they had never existed.

Shua!

As soon as Vivian's ability returned, she immediately summoned.

The little wolf cub and the little fiery sparrow immediately appeared beside the little girl in the prison. However, the little girl was coaxed back into the summoning space by Vivian. Xinyan was still young, and it was not suitable for them to move together at this juncture.

"Xiao Hei, that just now...Did you do it?" Vivian looked confused.

Her memories of the scene where the snake shadow devoured the handcuffs began to blur out quickly. Later on, she was left with a dazed state where she was still troubled about how to unlock the handcuffs, and the handcuffs disappeared on their own.

The wolf cubs saw all the changes in Vivian.

This was probably what the snake-shadow girl who called herself "Meow" had mentioned. She needed to erase her sense of existence. In other words, the less she knew, the more she could influence the world.

Therefore, the wolf cub did not tell Vivian about Meow. He only pretended to nod and attributed the disappearance of the handcuffs to his own ability.

Vivian did not doubt it. After all, in the little girl's eyes, her Little Black was omnipotent. She would not doubt anything that Little Black did.

"Then now...Xiao Hei, what should we do?" Facing the tightly locked prison door, Vivian asked worriedly.

It was the first time that she had been imprisoned as a prisoner. It was impossible to say that she was not nervous, but thanks to the little wolf cub, Vivian was relieved.

Let's stay for a day to give Luzi time to turn things around and see if she can work. If it really doesn't work and there's no response, it's not too late to make a move.

The little wolf cub thought for a moment before sending a voice transmission to the little girl.

Since they had already left, they chose to believe in Luzi's path. They didn't need to use force and would carry it out to the end. If Luzi could get them out through official channels, it would naturally be the best situation.

Although the wolf cubs did not have much hope for this.

From the looks of it, even Roko's superior, Sakai Risa, the clone of the witch Bella, had been usurped. Roko alone was probably unable to reverse the situation..

Chapter 500: I Raised the Jailbreak Witch into a Thousand-island Divine Wizard (2)

The little wolf cub had to complain. This Bella was too much. Her clone in the Flame Domain, Archbishop Eugenia, had been swallowed by the Fallen Abyss. Her clone in the Thousand Islands, Sakai Risa, had been slandered and ousted without even seeing her face.

So the worst case scenario was that they could not point anyone and had to rely on themselves. The only good news was that without the shackles of the magic handcuffs, it would be easy for Vivian to get out of Prison Mountain.

However, this was equivalent to giving the little girl the title of a " jailbreaker " .

The problem is that they are not escaping from prison, but they are going to participate in the wizard election, win the support of the people of the Thousand Islands, and get tickets to the "Sea of Abyss".

Well...

The Astorokis escaped the witch!

He wanted to highlight a new idol character!

The little wolf cub could only comfort himself in this way.

After sorting out the follow-up plan, it was now the wolf cub's turn to deal with the most troublesome thing, the snake-shadow girl named "Mei Wu"

Meow had devoured Vivian's memory, but he did not forget about it. This reminded Liao Zixuan of the cycle he had gone through. He was the only one who had retained his memory.

Moreover, the snake-shadow girl's words also revealed that from the moment they boarded the Astorokis, they had already used the "unlimited" authority.

All these similarities made Liao Zixuan believe that Mayo's 'infinite' ability was the reason why he could keep repeating the cycle.

Previously, Liao Zixuan had thought that this was the Water God's secret operation. Now, it seemed that it was much more complicated.

As for Mei Wu's background, although the snake-shadow girl seemed to be restricted by some kind of restriction and was always in Riddler, the information she gave, such as her relationship with the "snake" and the hints of cause and effect, was enough for Liao Zixuan to understand.

Furthermore, the last person who had been calling him 'big sister' and 'big brother', was a certain red sparrow, Xin Yan.

Therefore, the only thing that left Liao Zi puzzled was Mew's last sentence.

This might also be the reason why the snake-shadow girl had always called him " Big Brother Scoundrel " from the beginning.

Anyway...

The answers to all the mysteries seemed to be hidden at the bottom of the Abyssal Sea.

Meiwu's appearance made Liao Zixuan even more determined to enter the Abyssal Sea with the little girl.

Time passed by quietly. Although they were in the prison, they could still see through the narrow window at the top of the prison. They found that it was already night outside. The silver moonlight fell on the cold iron pillars of the prison bars, adding a sense of desolation.

Vivian and the wolf cub had planned to rest, although the environment in the prison was very bad. There was only a very dirty straw mat on the hard cement floor.

But after all, the little girl was born in the countryside, so she did not say that she was uncomfortable. Instead, she had always wanted the wolf cubs to return to the summoning space and summon them when needed. She did not want the wolf cubs to suffer with her.

However, how could Liao Zixuan agree? Vivian did not mind letting her sleep on the straw mat in the prison for a night, but it was unbearable for Liao

Zixuan.

Therefore, ignoring the little girl's dissuasion, the wolf cub's body suddenly grew larger without a sound. It only stopped when it was almost large enough for the little girl to curl up comfortably.

“You... Thank you, Xiao Hei...” Vivian’s face showed some helplessness towards Blackie’s toughness, but there was also some sweetness of being doted on.

Looking at the black wolf that occupied almost half of the cell, it patted its paws at itself, signaling her to hurry over. This made Vivian recall the first time she met Little Black.

At that time, she thought that Blackie was a wild, man-eating demon and fainted from fear. When she woke up, she found that she had slept with the wolf cubs for the whole night.

What a stupid village girl...

But now, Vivian skillfully lay on the lower abdomen of the black wolf, which was the warmest and most comfortable place.

The little girl wrapped her arms around her chest and buried her head into the black wolf’s soft and silky fur.

For a moment, Vivian suddenly felt that going to prison this time...It seemed pretty good!

No, that wasn’t right.

It was not prison, but as long as she was with Black, it did not matter to her whether it was prison or anywhere else, right?

With this thought in mind, it did not take long for Vivian to fall asleep. The cute snoring sound of her sleeping nose came out. Liao Zixuan adjusted the position of the wolf’s body to make the little girl as comfortable as possible. Then, he lowered his head and closed his eyes to rest.

A few hours later, it should be midnight. It should be the quietest time in the prison, but suddenly, footsteps came from afar.

The black wolf in the cell instantly opened its eyes and raised its head when the footsteps approached. For a demon, staying alert while sleeping was the most basic ability.

Liao Zixuan quickly fiddled with the little girl in his arms with his claws. After waking Vivian up, his body shrank rapidly again.

He did not return to the summoning space. Instead, he transformed back into the familiar wolf cub. Liao Zixuan hid in a dark corner outside the cell where the torch could not shine..