

NPC Become 501

Chapter 501: I Raised the Jailbreak Witch into a Thousandisland Divine Wizard (3)

Finally, the footsteps got closer and closer, and Liao Zixuan could tell that the other party's target should be...In their cell.

Did the dew take effect outside?

But soon, the wolf cub heard the sound of footsteps and listened to the conversation, denying this possibility.

Zheer, I think we should forget about it. If the higher-ups find out about the matter of privately bringing up prisoners from the prison cell, then...That's a serious crime!"

"Why are you so timid! If we bring a criminal in the middle of the night and secretly send him to the old master's courtyard, we'll wait for him to play for a night before sending the criminal back. Who knows!"

"This, I think it's still..."

"Alright, alright. Keep the money bag in your pocket. Even if you're a small prison head, you can't earn so much money in a few months with your salary, right? If you don't want to do it, there are still a lot of people fighting for it. Do you really think our prison is that clean? Everyone was secretly doing this kind of business!

"Really...Really?"

Upon hearing that everyone was doing it, the little prison head, who lacked confidence and was a little hesitant, seemed to be slightly relieved. However, he could not help but ask again,

"Zhe Er, these rich people are really strange. Why...Why do you still like to play with prisoners..."

“Aiya, why are you so talkative? People have money and can play whatever they want.”

The man named Zhe Er was obviously impatient with his accomplices. He waved his hand and quickened his pace. He looked left and right. The prisoners in the surrounding cells seemed to be choosing goods.

However, if one observed carefully, they would realize that Zhe Er’s gaze was actually sweeping past them. These actions were just for show.

When he finally approached the door of Vivian’s cell...

“Tsk, look, isn’t there a good one here? I think it’s her. Old Master will definitely like her. Quickly take the key and open the door.”

Zhe Er said quickly to his accomplice, who followed Zhe Er’s line of sight and saw Vivian, who was pretending to be asleep in the cell.

Little Prison Head immediately revealed a surprised expression.

Vivian was probably locked up today. He was not sure about the girl’s identity, but just from her appearance, he had many questions in his heart. When did such a beautiful female prisoner appear?

Thinking about it, everyone knew that his identity was not simple. However, under the temptation of money and since the other party had been locked up, it was useless no matter how capable he was before. Therefore, the little warden finally gave a look to the two prison guards who were with him.

Hence, one of them quickly walked forward. Just as he was about to open the door of the little girl’s cell..

Scared!

The jailer almost sat down because the little girl who seemed to be sleeping soundly on the straw mat had suddenly disappeared. When she came back to her senses, she was face to face with him, only separated by a railing.

However, this was not the most terrifying thing. The most terrifying thing was that the prison bars that separated him from the female prisoners had actually started...

It was bent and deformed, as if it was forcefully torn apart by an invisible mysterious force.

“Ghost...A ghost!”

The jailer was frightened. Although the little warden was also covered in cold sweat, he reacted quickly and realized that this was magic power. The other party was a mage.

“Not good! Zheer, her, her demon-sealing handcuffs are gone. Quick...Hurry up and call for help...”

Plop!

Little Prison Head’s anxious shout was only halfway through when there was no sound.

His entire body was sent flying by a huge force. As Vivian moved her finger, he was thrown against the wall and smashed heavily. He followed his two prison guards and fell to the ground weakly and fainted.

In the end, only Zhe Er was left.

Vivian was planning to do the same, but the young man was one step ahead.

Plop!

“Wei...Miss Vivian, don’t do it, don’t do it! I’m one of us, one of us! It was sent by Old Master Zhao to save you!! “

Chapter 502: Divine Witch (1)

Ah, this...

Not only Vivian, but even the wolf cub who came out of the cell almost fell.

“It’s true, it’s absolutely true. I’m not lying to you, Miss Vivian... Yes, yes! Old Master Zhao said to show you this, and you’ll know!

Zhe Er shuddered when the little girl looked at him suspiciously.

The miserable state of the jailers was still vivid in his mind. Although they had only fainted, Vivian had not been gentle. A living person weighing more than a hundred pounds was thrown up and down like a toy. It was estimated that there were many fractures.

Zhe Er was shocked and did not react in time. He quickly took out an exquisite pocket watch from his pocket. Soon, he took it out and anxiously gestured to Vivian, who was still on guard.

“This is...” When Vivian looked over and took a closer look, she immediately recognized him.

When Zhe Er opened his pocket watch again, he revealed the photo of Zhao Jie’s family in Gui Li. Only then did the misunderstanding disappear completely.

This pocket watch with the family portrait was a very precious item to Zhao Jie. It was also the only way for him to reminisce about his hometown. The wolf cub and Vivian both knew how much it meant to Zhao Jie.

It could be seen from this that Zhao Jie was willing to use this pocket watch as a token to save Vivian. He had already gone all out.

Alright!

This Uncle Gui Li was really good at dealing with people!

If there was anything, he would really go up!

Even the wolf cubs were touched, let alone Vivian. The little girl quickly helped Zhe Er up from his knees and kept apologizing.

“I’m, I’m sorry. I’m really sorry! I really didn’t expect you to be...”

Vivian glanced at the three companions of Zhe Er who were twitching on the ground and barely breathing.

However, when Zhe Er saw this, he quickly waved his hand and said,” “It’s okay, Miss Vivian. The three of them are not with me. They really accepted Master Zhao’s bribe and thought I was going to pick up a female prisoner for the rich businessman to play with.

“Ah, this...”

Vivian did not know what to say.

In fact, one of the reasons why the little girl was so harsh was because of the conversation between the few people just now. It really made Vivian angry. Such a dirty deal had harmed countless people.

“I’m very sorry, Miss Vivian!”

“Originally, we didn’t want to act so quickly, but according to the latest news that Master Zhao received, the former head of the society, Sakai Risa, as well as her trusted aides, have been demoted and transferred to Sakuragi Island. The new head of the society has become her younger brother, Sakai Yosuke! The one who sent you to prison!

“The above information is said to have come from the personal decree of Lord Gong Si. Under forced circumstances, Master Zhao is afraid that if we delay any longer, it will really be impossible to salvage the situation. Therefore, while the situation has not deteriorated and Sakai Yousuke is busy taking over the position of the family head, we have to hurry and save you, Young Miss! ”

“However, due to the lack of time, our plans are limited. After discussing for half a day, this is the fastest and most effective method. It is not to the extent that we will be suspected. Miss Vivian had been wronged!

Zhe II lowered his head and put his hands together in front of his face. While explaining the whole situation to Vivian, he did not forget to apologize repeatedly.

When the wolf cub heard this, the corner of his mouth twitched. Although he was really grateful for Zhao Jie’s loyalty and loyalty, which was very similar to the martial world of Gui Li, the method used was really... Unique.

However, not to mention Vivian, even he was fooled and believed it. After all, people seemed to be used to the appearance of this kind of vulgar plot.

Thinking of this, he suddenly felt a little sad.

In addition, there was indeed a problem with Roko. It was impossible to count on them, but Zheji said that they were sent to Sakuragi Island...This was indeed the same as the game plot in his previous life. Back then, when the players in Version 2.0 met Bella’s clone, Sakai Risa was the owner of Sakuragi Island.

So...

Did he and the little girl push the plot forward a lot?

Moreover... Sakuragi Island.

If Liao Zixuan remembered correctly, the only two forbidden demons in the Thousand Islands, the second one besides the Yamata no Orochi, the nine-tailed fox demon, was there, right? Furthermore, in the Yaei Shrine that was related to it, there was a long hidden chain mission that was connected to the future version.

Zhe Er's next words interrupted the wolf cubs' thoughts and pulled them back to reality. Now that they had officially "escaped from prison", the atmosphere was more tense and focused.

"Miss Vivian, since it's already like this, let's hurry up and pick up the next one. Master Zhao said that you have another companion who has also come in. If you don't get her out, Miss Vivian will definitely not leave.

As Zhe Er spoke, he quickly ran to the corpse of the prison head. After feeling around his body, he skillfully took out a key chain.

Vivian and the wolf cubs did not have any objections to this. In fact, they were a little impressed by Zhao Jie.

On the Astrokis, perhaps because there was no room for Zhao Jie to display his abilities, Liao Zixuan did not think that this merchant was very capable..

Chapter 503: Inside Story of the Wizard (1)

But now, it seemed that not only did he come up with a feasible plan in a very short time, but he also took Vivian's personality into consideration.

Moreover, the wolf cubs saw Zhe Er leading the way quickly. It was obvious that it was Zhao Jie and the others. They had already figured out the location of the Astrology Girl's prison beforehand.

Not bad...

The little wolf cub nodded in his heart. It seemed that Zhao Jie was really humble when he said that he had some business and power in the Thousand Islands.

Therefore, what was good about Gui Liren was that he was too modest sometimes.

There weren't many guards in the middle of the night. With Zhao Jie and the others' help, the guards in this area should have been deliberately transferred away by the little warden who wanted to take advantage of the situation.

Therefore, Vivian and the others were unimpeded and soon arrived in front of a cell.

Following the light from the torch outside, he could see that Miss Mei Ji was sleeping soundly on a straw mat in a one-piece astrology suit.

When Zhe Er opened the cell door, Vivian and the wolf cub walked in. The astrologer girl did not notice at all. She even called out a few times, but did not wake up. She just scratched her butt, turned over, and went back to sleep.

Zhe Er, who was beside him, felt a little embarrassed by this scene.

What kind of immortals did Old Master Zhao order him to save? This... This didn't look like a prisoner in prison at all. It was completely like going on an outing in the wild.

"Mei Ji! Meggy, wake up! We should go out!" Finally, Vivian raised her voice and shook the girl's body harder.

This time, Mei Ji finally woke up from her sleep in a daze and opened her glasses.

But the most obvious thing that filled the girl's vision was a furry black wolf cub. Vivian was swaying Meggie from the side, and the wolf cub was right in front of the girl's head.

“Eh? Little... Blackie? Am I dreaming? Why are you here?”

“Wait, you can’t be... No, don’t do that kind of thing, people... Man Beast and whatnot...Wuuuu... I was wrong. I knew it. I shouldn’t have played with fire blindly. Now, retribution has come...

You actually chased me into my dreams...As expected, it was impossible to use

Vivian as a substitute... Wuuuu...”

Some people were angry when they were suddenly woken up, while others were brainless and spouting nonsense. The astrological girl was obviously the latter.

“What are you talking about, Maggie? Wake up, we have to get out of here! ”

When she turned around and saw Vivian beside her, Maggie finally came back to her senses. She rubbed her eyes hard and finally woke up from her dream.

At first, her face turned red, and she did not dare to look at the wolf cubs again because she remembered what she had said in a daze. But soon, the girl threw herself into Vivian’s arms.

“Wuwuwu... You’re finally here. I’m so scared to be locked up here!”

Afraid...

He almost believed it!

In addition...

Not only the wolf cubs, but even Vivian noticed this strange thing.

'Wait, Mei Ji, you...The handcuffs on your hands? Didn't they put it on for you?' The little girl looked at Maggie's free and empty hands in surprise.

Meggie...With such obvious Astrologer attire, even a fool would know that this person could use magic power.

The corresponding [Sea Serpent's Feet] magic sealing handcuffs should have been arranged just like Vivian.

"Handcuffs...Oh, you're talking about that. I took it off. It seems to be...He found it! I threw it over there!"

Meji picked up a pair of handcuffs from the corner. It was the Epic-level item used to attack Mages, which would have given the wolf cubs a headache if it weren't for the appearance of the mysterious snake-shadow girl, Meowu.

"This..." Even Zhe Er, who was beside him, showed a surprised expression.

Although he could get the keys to the cells, he could not do anything about the Demon Sealing Handcuffs. This kind of handcuffs could not be opened by keys, but by incantations. It was said that only high-ranking personnel in the Great Fu Practice could know the complicated incantations needed to unlock them.

In that case...It was no wonder that the little warden was so shocked that Vivian did not have any handcuffs on her.

Zhe Er was once again amazed by the mysteriousness of Vivian and Mei Ji, guessing what kind of big shots they were. On the other hand, the wolf cubs had the same feelings towards Mei Ji.

That was because...

"Is it difficult to open this? Wasn't it just an ordinary pair of handcuffs? It was opened with a casual charge of magic power. Speaking of which, the people of the Great Evil Practice seemed to be a little stupid. They didn't really think that these things that were used to deal with ordinary people could trap people with magic power like us, right? If I were the warden here, I would definitely get something that could seal magic power.

"Mei Ji, could it be that you...Didn't he feel that his magic power was sealed by the handcuffs?"Vivian could not help but interrupt.

"Ah? This handcuff sealed magic power? Really? I didn't do it at all!" A shocked expression appeared on the astrologer girl's face.

"I wanted to pretend, but it was too uncomfortable to sleep with this, so I took it off. If you guys didn't come, I was going to wear it again after I woke up..

Chapter 504: Inside Story of the Wizard (1)

Maggie initially thought Vivian was the same as her because she saw that Vivian's hands were not cuffed, but now it seemed... It didn't seem like it?

Although many of the details had already proved that this girl was not only very ambitious, but also a poor astrologer girl. She was very powerful and definitely had a great background. However, this time, even the magic sealing handcuffs could not stop her. It still refreshed the wolf cubs 'understanding.

After all, that was an Epic item, and it was made from the skin of a forbidden monster like Orochi, which had a strong restraining effect on mages.

Even if he was Water God's disciple... Wasn't this too abnormal?

It was equivalent to using 99-999% mana reduction to insta-kill someone.

Comparing the Flame Domain's Dammir, who was also the Fire God Alice's disciple, there seemed to be no comparison between the two.

“Young ladies, let’s talk about this after we get out of here. “Zhe Er looked at the time on his pocket watch and couldn’t help but interrupt.

It was only then that Vivian realized that they were still in the middle of a prison break. Why were they suddenly chatting?

Thus, the little girl hurriedly pulled Mei Ji out. However, she did not expect Mei

Ji to purse her lips and hesitate for a moment. In the end, she decided,”

“Wait, Vivian, can we...Bring one more person out?”

No one had expected this sudden request from the astrologer girl.

Mei Ji quickly explained,

“It’s the old man in the cell next to mine. I just met him yesterday. That old man is really nice. Not only did he give me water to drink, but he also returned the straw mat he made to me!

For prisoners who entered the prison on the first day, they were not given food and drink. The purpose was to show off. Vivian did not have this problem because she had a backpack space. The wolf cubs had already stored a large number of rooms in it.

Moreover, the straw mat that Mei Ji slept on seemed to be bigger and softer. “But, this...

“Please, Vivian! That old man was also wronged, and it was also done by the people of the Great Evil Practice, and, and...Ah, right! Vivian, didn’t you want to run for the position of Divine Wizard of the Thousand Islands? The daughter of that old man is also a candidate for the position of Divine Wizard this year! There was a very serious shady deal involved!

The old man was imprisoned because of this!

Maggie was still anxiously trying to persuade Vivian, but at this time, a sigh suddenly came from the cell next door that the girl mentioned, interrupting her.

Following closely behind was a very old and dispirited voice.

“Little girl, thank you for your kindness, but you should leave quickly. Don’t think about me. I... I won’t go out.”

Before Vivian and Maggie could look over, they heard footsteps coming from the dark corridor.

Zhe Er was shocked. The light from the torch in the cell showed the “done for” expression on his face. Zhe Er thought that they had been here for too long and had been discovered by the real Grand Priest guarding the door.

This was indeed the case, but it was also full of twists and turns.

A man in warrior armor, who was obviously much taller and stronger than the little prison head from before, came to the front of the crowd with a team of elite prison guards.

Just as Vivian gave a look to Mei Ji and the few of them were about to make a move...

However, the tall male warrior seemed to have ignored Vivian and the others and went straight to the cell where the old voice came from.

He immediately knelt down, his expression so angry that his hands were already gripping the prison bars tightly.

What followed was his angry and trembling voice.

“Lord Keisuke, why? Why are you still so stubborn! Could it be that because of the decree of the Lord Gong Si, you will suffer humiliation here for the rest of your life and let the traitor go unpunished?”

“Even if you don’t consider yourself, you.... You have to think about your daughter! Don’t you know why those people wanted to label Zhi Mei as a ”

Divine Wizard Candidate Don’t you know what they want to do to Zhi Mei?! “

Chapter 505: The Witch’s Inner Story (Part 2)

“Naosuke, enough!” An old man walked out from the shadows of the cell.

However, although he was an old man, his actual age should only be around 50 or 60 years old. It was just that the other party’s face was haggard and his spirit was dispirited, making him look much older.

Mei Ji quietly tugged at the little girl beside her, using her eyes to indicate that this was the old man she had mentioned earlier that she wanted to save together.

Now the situation was full of twists and turns. The new military officer had surrounded them with elite jailers. Fortunately, the other party’s target seemed to be the old prisoner, so Vivian and the others decided to wait and see.

On the other side, after the old man interrupted the young military official named Naosuke, he lowered his voice and whispered,

“I was wondering why the dignified Prison Mountain, which is the place where the Great Fu Priest guards the most important criminals of the Thousand Islands, was so easily accessed by a few foreigners. So...You’re the one behind this!”

The old man snorted coldly and shot a sharp gaze at the young military official.

“Naosuke, are you worthy of Lord Luo Sha who values you so much and even made an exception to promote you to the position of deputy??

The wolf cub narrowed his eyes.

The "foreigners" that the other party mentioned must be Vivian and the others, so it seemed... It seemed like Zhao Jie wasn't the only one behind the escape from prison?

That was true. The Prison Mountain was located on Deep Moon Island. It was equivalent to the base of the imperial city. It would be acceptable if it was a prison on a remote island, but judging from the current situation, the security here was a little too weak.

"Lord Keisuke, if this can make you change your mind and stop you from being stubborn, then even if I, Kondo Naosuke, am to be dismissed and held accountable after the incident, even if I am to be thrown into prison, as long as I can get you out, it will all be worth it!"

"I believe that after you go out, you will definitely be able to find out the truth. After all, you are an elder who has been appointed to the throne. At that time, whether it is Lord Luo Sha or that Gong Si, they will all understand my actions tonight!

The young military official was not afraid of the old man's gaze at all. He responded with an unwavering and persistent expression. Unfortunately, he still received a scolding.

"Nonsense! This was simply nonsense! You, you, you... You are ruining your future! You're rushing to give your weakness to the enemy!

You... Sigh..."

"Lord Jingfu! You even said the word "enemy"! "Not only was the young military official not angered by the old man's scolding, but he was also very excited.

' Naosuke, you don't understand. If it wasn't for Lord Gong Si's final judgment, even if I had to risk my old life, I would definitely fight those people to the death. But, but..."

“Doesn’t Lord Gong Si make mistakes?”

After a short silence, the old man shook his head.

“Lord Gong Si is the Water God’s spokesperson. God... Even if there are mistakes, they are the mistakes that mortals like us think are wrong, just like the incident with the rebel army.”

“Lord Gong Si is never looking at the present, but...”

“The future.”

At this point, the old man’s expression darkened. He seemed to have lost the strength to argue. He dragged his body and turned around to return to the dark corner of the cell.

” Therefore, whether it was my daughter who was forcefully taken away from the residence on the grounds of being a candidate for the Divine Wizard, or I was also convicted of hiding and resisting the election, and became a prisoner, Lord Gong Si must know all of this.

“The reason why he is still silent must be...It must be...They are setting up a bigger scheme, and what we mortals have to do is to obey and cooperate.

all.”

Others might not be able to see the old man who had returned to the darkness because of the light, but the wolf cub could clearly see the old man curled up in the corner of the cell. At this moment, the expression on his face and the movements of his fingers were not as calm as his tone.

The wolf cub saw the pain and pain on the old man’s face, and also saw the scratches on the cold floor of the cell that the old man had made with his fingernails.

He was furious.

The young military official was completely enraged.

His hands shook the bars of the prison until they buzzed. He even shouted at the old man hiding inside in the middle of the night.

“Future? To me, my younger sister is my future!! If someone wants to trade my sister’s life for

The so-called beautiful future, then Lord Keisuke, let me tell you, !! No! Catch! Accept!”

” The so-called ‘future’ that was exchanged for the ‘present’...I’m not Lord Miyasu-sama, I’m not a god. As a mortal, I can’t see the beauty of the future. I can only see the pain of the present! ”

“Lord Keisuke, you don’t dare to go against God’s ideals...Then, let me come!”

Facing the young military official’s hoarse voice, there was no response from the cell for a long time. It seemed that they were no longer willing to talk.

When the young military official gradually came back, his gaze finally fell on Vivian and the others who had been listening and witnessing everything.

“Foreigner, you all heard the conversation just now. Rescuing Lord Keisuke is an operation that I have been planning for a long time. However, because it is of great importance, I have been waiting for an opportunity.. “

Chapter 506: Divine Witch (2)

” At this point, I won’t hide anything from you anymore. From the moment those enemies plotted against the Thousand Islands and attacked Lord Jingfu, I had already predicted that the other two officials must have been within their plans. After that...” As expected.”

” There has been a great change in the society. Lord Risha has been dismissed and sent away. As for you, I have investigated the case file. I am sure that you have also been implicated because of this. You have been framed and sent to prison. At this time, I have received a tip-off from my subordinates. I have a place to return to the merchant. I am outside to inquire about your information. I have also repeatedly wanted to contact the people of the society.

The young military official snorted coldly.

His intentions are too obvious. If it was any other time, I would have arrested and interrogated that merchant, but now...I felt that this was the opportunity I had been waiting for, so I went along with the flow and secretly helped your merchant to operate within the Grand Ceremony, resulting in your escape. ”

‘ My original plan was to use you guys as a cover to attract the enemy’s attention, and I would take the opportunity to take Lord Keisuke out of prison and replace him with someone else. But now...”

Thump!

The young military official sulked and hammered the wall beside him.

It could be seen that Naosuke was a man. He openly revealed his plan without hiding anything. He was actually behind the scenes, trying to use Vivian and the others.

However, the little wolf cub did not feel any hostility towards this. After all, there was no free lunch in the sky. Others would not help you for no reason. They were just using each other. Moreover, if the other party was willing to tell the truth, there must be something else to say.

After that...As expected.

“Although my plan failed, I won’t say anything. That’s why I’m taking you back.

I can feel that your strength far surpasses mine.”

The young military officer glanced at Vivian and Meggie’s wrists, only to find that they were empty. The magic sealing handcuffs had disappeared.

Then, Kondo Naosuke changed his tone.

‘ However, ladies, even I know that you have a close relationship with Lady Risa. I believe that after you escape from prison, not only will you be targeted by the Thousand Islands government, but those evil people in the dark will also not let you off. Besides, I also heard your previous conversation. Miss, you said that you... You still want to compete for a witch?’ The young military officer looked at Vivian.

The little girl nodded affirmatively.

“How about this...I understand now. It seems that you must have your own reasons. I won’t dissuade you. However, I have to tell you that the Divine Wizard Selection of the Thousand Islands is very different from the ancient traditional ceremony.”

‘ Due to the inaction of the Great Fu Cult, and even their deliberate indulgence, more and more shady dealings have appeared. Women from rich families rely on buying candidates to become Divine Magi to gain high exposure among the people of the Thousand Islands. They continue to use this to create hype and swindle a large amount of wealth from the people.

” There are also some who are beautiful women from poor families or wives and daughters of political enemies. It’s ridiculous. Some people want to buy the qualifications, but some people...”

” These innocent people have been forcefully identified by the Grand Priest Fu as candidates for the Divine Wizard. They have all been captured to participate in the so-called internal training. If they dare to resist, they will be considered as disobeying orders and disrupting the selection. Lord Keisuke’s daughter... Also, I, my sister, Xiang Zhi, is so taken away by the wind. ”

When the young military official said this, Vivian could not help but say angrily,”

“Then why didn’t you report to the palace commissioner? Was Gong Si going to sit back and watch this mess? Is there no one else who can distinguish right from wrong in your Great Fu Practitioner besides the Great Concubine?”

“I... My superior is also the first general in the Grand Fu-Enforcement Hall, second only to the family head. Lord Luo Sha had noticed the signs of chaos in time and personally went to see Lord Gong Si about it, but...Refuse to meet.”

The young military official said the last word bitterly.

“Refuse to meet?”

“Yes, it’s just like the rebellion during the Great Fuxing, so...”

‘ Lord Gong Si’s attitude has caused many people like me, including Lord Luo Sha and Lord Jing Fu, to completely turn their hearts to ashes. They no longer interfere with the chaos, while those evil people became even more rampant.

In the end, it turned into today’s situation...”

The young military official’s voice became softer and softer, and his head lowered.

But soon, he clenched his fists again and looked at the little girl with a fiery and pleading gaze.

‘ Miss, I’ve heard some things about you from your friend who is a merchant.

One of them is a writer who wrote a novel about what happened to the Astorokis at sea.”

“I used some methods to obtain the draft of the novel immediately. Although there must be some exaggeration in it, after all, you can even defeat and subdue the legendary Yamata no Orochi, so 1...1 beg you to lend me a hand!

The young military officers all knelt down in front of Vivian.

Not only him, but the group of elite warriors following behind him also made the same kneeling gesture as their captain.

This scene seemed to have been rehearsed several times in advance.

“Good! No problem, we will not shirk our responsibilities! I, the greatest astrologer of this century, Mei Ji, will defy the heavens and change the fate of the Thousand Islands! “The astrologer girl was affected by the emotions at the scene. She immediately stood up and patted her chest, feeling indignant.

In the past, there was a legend of the astrologer of the Astorokis. He broke the fog and saved the Thousand Islands. He was hailed as the greatest astrologer in the astrology world.

Now, since she, Mei Ji, had the same ambition, she would naturally do something worthy of praise from future generations.

If he didn't fight now, when would he?

However, it was a pity that the Astrology girl had only just realized that it was not enough to rely on herself.

“Vivian! You, you must have the same thoughts as me, right? If we join forces again, it will be just like the Astorokis not long ago! ”

Mei Ji seemed to be acting coquettishly as she looked at the little girl beside her with her big watery eyes.

“Think about it, think about it. Since you want to become a witch, there’s no way you can get past this hurdle. Don’t hesitate! When the time comes, with such achievements, which candidate in this election can compare to you? You can be your god, and I’ll be my greatest astrologer, hehe...Ahem.”

The astrologer girl knew that it was time to be serious, so she coughed twice and waited for Vivian’s response.

After a quick discussion with the wolf cub, Vivian finally accepted the young military officer’s request.

“Lord Naosuke, we have the same enemy, so it’s best to join forces. But can I stop for a moment? What do you mean by assistance?? You must have a goal in mind, right?”

“Of course! Thank you so much, little... Miss Vivian, my breakthrough point is the one mentioned earlier, my sister Kaho. I’ve already secretly sent someone to investigate the place where she was captured. There must be something fishy there, and there’s a lot of evidence hidden behind the scenes. I’m going to lead a team to raid that place. If I can get your help, Miss Vivian, our chances of winning will definitely increase greatly!

“We’ll talk about the detailed information after we leave. For now...

Before the young military officer could finish his excited words with Vivian, suddenly, several muffled grunts came from the prison corridor in the distance.

Accompanied by it was a large piece of...Purple lightning.

As mages, Vivian and Maggie could feel the lightning element in the air rising rapidly. The sizzling sound was beating on people’s nerves, and a domineering aura like thunder was approaching them at high speed.

The young military official’s expression changed drastically when he saw this scene. He was filled with disbelief.

The purple lightning flashed in his eyes, and Kondo Naosuke cried out, "How is this possible. Why, why did Lord Luo Sha appear here?"

Chapter 507: The Battle That Ended Right After It Began

The approaching purple light finally woke the young military official from his shock. He could even feel a numbing pain coming from the air through his armor and clothes.

"Hurry up and leave! Lord Luo Sha controlled the power of thunder and was the number one general of the Great Fu Dao. His strength was unfathomable, and now he was on Deep Moon Island. He could not be his opponent! Pingchuan! You take them out of Prison Mountain through the secret passage, I'll go hold Lord Luo Sha!"

After the young military official called out a subordinate from the ranks, he anxiously reached into his bosom.

"Take this well. The place marked on it is the hiding place of the traitor I mentioned to you just now.

Vivian quickly took a small scroll from Naosuke. After unfolding it, she found that it was a map of "White Silk Island." A certain location on the island was marked with clear annotations.

"In this battle, I only needed the two ladies to help from the side, but now..."

"If you don't hear from me before sunset tomorrow, please...Make your own decision!" The young military official gritted his teeth and raised the sword at his waist.

Finally, he gave a simple warrior salute to Vivian and the rest. Then, he led the team towards the purple lightning. Instead of retreating, he advanced directly towards it.

If it was just him and Lord Luo Sha, it would be considered an internal struggle between the Grand Fuxi Executors and would not alarm Lord Gong Si of the Moon Abyss Shrine.

However, if the little girl acted as a foreigner, the nature would be completely different.

This was also why the young military officer still sacrificed himself in exchange for their time to leave, even though he knew that Vivian had the same strength as Lord Luo Sha, or even slightly better.

Even so, Naosuke only entrusted the map to Vivian as his last hope and said that he would let the little girl make her own decision.

Because anyone could tell that Luo Sha's appearance here was not a coincidence. It was very likely that it was like the young military official's encounter with Zhao Jie. He had long discovered it, but in order to play a long game, he had stayed in the dark.

Naosuke's meaning of "make your own decision" could basically be said that he was hoping for a miracle to happen to Vivian and the others. However, reason told him that the possibility was slim. The young military official was more inclined to let the little girl give up and escape from the Thousand Islands.

The wolf cubs understood the situation, so they stopped Vivian and Meggy from attacking. Not only did the young military officer warn them, but the snake shadow girl, Meow, also warned them not to attack, or they would be discovered.

All of this gave the wolf cubs a hint.

Although the Water God of the Thousand-island Sect had a "disregarding" attitude towards other things, it didn't seem to be the case for "them." In fact, it was the opposite.

Little wolf cub has a kind of premonition, but when they make a little noise, that shrine peak's palace, will come in time.

The sounds of fighting could be heard from behind them, as well as the faint rumbling of thunder. The little girl and her group were led by the subordinate of the military officer.

“My two young ladies, I have received orders from Lord Zhi Jie, so I can only send you here. After that, your friend Gui Li will come to pick you up very soon.”

The subordinate of Kondo Naosuke quickly said to Vivian. Without hesitation, he turned around and returned to support his superior, even though he knew that doing so would not change much.

Not long after, the sound of a carriage came from afar. The person leading the carriage was an old acquaintance of the wolf cubs.

“This way, quick, Miss Vivian!” Zhao Jie stopped the car and waved at the little girl.

The group boarded the carriage under the cover of the night and sped away.

From inside the carriage, I look at the prison on the mountainside, there’s still a fire, the prison on the mountain, Vivian finally clenched her hands and put down the curtain of the carriage.

“Vivian, are you all right?” Zhao Jie handed the carriage to Zhe Er, who had followed him out earlier, and entered the carriage.

Vivian shook her head, as for the superfluous words of thanks, put them at the back, and now the urgent matter is still...

“Uncle Zhao Jie, where are we going now?”

“No, we can’t go there again. From the situation in the prison just now, it’s very likely that our whereabouts have been known by the Grand Fuxi Priest. Now that they haven’t caught us, they will definitely send people to control the stronghold and wait for us to fall into their trap.

The little girl pondered for a moment in the bumpy carriage and immediately made a decision.

“Uncle Zhao Jie, the fact that you were able to save us is already enough to repay the kindness you showed us on the Astorokis. So, don’t get involved in this anymore. After we get off the carriage, take care of yourself and do everything you can to leave the Thousand Islands as soon as possible.

Get off the carriage?” Zhao Jie was stunned.

“That’s right. The Grand Priest’s main target is us, so we got off halfway. This way, we can distract Uncle Zhao Jie and the Grand Priest’s men and make them lose track of our location.

Vivian nodded. The little girl had come up with all of this herself, and the wolf cubs did not give any hints..

Chapter 508: The Battle That Ended Right After It Began

It could be seen that Vivian had indeed made great progress after experiencing all kinds of things.

“Good! Then we won’t be a burden to Vivian and the rest. But remember one word. “Zhao Jie judged the situation and had a better understanding of his own abilities.

Indeed, this was the limit of what he could do for the little girl.

“Boiled Cabbage.” Zhao Jie quickly said.

“Boiling water...Cabbage?” Vivian was stunned.

” This is a secret code. Although my men have left the Thousand Islands, there are some businesses that have not been sold yet. Perhaps you can use them, Vivian. When the time comes, just say these four words and they will understand. The guys will definitely listen to your arrangements.”

After Zhao Jie finished his explanation, he didn't forget to add another explanation.

“Why boiled cabbage...This is actually my daughter's favorite food when she was young. ”

“Alright, I'll remember it. If we meet again in the future...I will definitely visit you guys in Guili. ”

“Okay, take care. See you in the martial arts world!”

Vivian imitated Zhao Jie and cupped her hands behind her chest. She gave the astrologer girl a look, and the girl quickly lifted the curtain of the carriage.

“Xiao Hei, please.” Vivian whispered to the wolf and threw it out.

The little wolf cub and Vivian had a tacit understanding. The moment he was thrown out of the carriage, his body expanded rapidly and in the blink of an eye, he became a black wolf as tall as a person.

Zhe Er, who was in charge of driving the carriage in front, felt that the moment the black wolf appeared, the horse's speed immediately dropped by a large margin. It was accompanied by a whinny, and its legs almost went weak to the point that it could not run.

Fortunately, the little girl jumped out of the carriage with Mei Ji. When Zhao Jie regained his senses, Vivian and the astrologer girl had already appeared on the back of the black wolf outside.

The entire process was very fast. Hei Lang and the two girls seemed to have blended into the night. In just a few breaths, Zhao Jie could no longer see them.

“It’s really a strange beast...Zhao Jie was finally enlightened. He kept smacking his lips and sighing at the black wolf.

“Zhe Er, let’s change the direction of the carriage...”

After a while, Zhao Jie was about to follow Vivian’s advice and change his destination, but before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly looked up at the night sky.

“Zhe...Zheer, what’s that purple thing?”

As Zhao Jie cried out in horror, Zhe Er had just raised his head from the driver’s seat. However, the last thing that appeared in his field of vision was a purple shooting star that cut through the night sky. It was unusually obvious in the darkness, and it kept enlarging in his pupils.

“Dodge... Quickly dodge, that’s it!”

That wasn’t a shooting star, that was...It was an arrow.

Before Zhao Jie could finish his sentence, he heard a loud bang.

Boom!

The Raging Thunder Arrow that descended from the sky directly hit the center of the carriage. The violent thunder elemental power contained in the arrow seemed to have lost its restraint and spread in all directions.

The entire carriage was blasted into pieces by the huge force and directly disintegrated. The tall horses in front of them were directly torn apart by the explosion of lightning, and blood flowed like a river. As for the people who were originally in the carriage, they were thrown out, and it was unknown if they were dead or alive.

Vivian and the others on the black wolf could hear the commotion as they got off the car not far away.

Vivian's heart skipped a beat, and she suddenly looked back at the blazing fire in the dark night.

"Uncle Zhao Jie!" Everyone could hear the irrepressible anger in the little girl's trembling voice.

As for the black wolf carrying Vivian, Liao Zixuan sighed in his heart. It seemed that this battle could not be avoided.

If Naosuke was the one who had been treated like this, Vivian could still tolerate it. But now, Zhao Jie, who was the most ordinary mortal, was being treated like this. It was very likely that he would lose his life. This had completely touched the little girl's reverse scale.

Then, Liao Zixuan did not need the little girl to take the initiative to say it. He immediately stopped. After turning around, Hei Lang, the girl, and the others began to speed toward the explosion.

Since the other party insisted on chasing after him, he must have done his best...He was prepared to receive Vivian's wrath.

Buzz...

The flames burned the remains of the carriage. In the dark night, it illuminated a tall woman holding a bow and arrow beside it.

She did not wear much armor. Most of her body was made of simple and light cloth. The only thing worth mentioning was her cold and arrogant face. On the side of the woman's forehead, there was a pointy nose and a red face. No one knew what kind of mask it was.

"Lord Luo Sha, the two suspects have been found. One is dead and the other is injured. However, the person who escaped from prison is not here..."

Soon, one of his subordinates ran over to report to the woman. However, the woman's eyes narrowed and she suddenly turned her head to look at the darkness of the night. She reached out her hand to stop her subordinate from reporting.

The subordinate was puzzled, but when he followed the woman's gaze...

His heart almost stopped.

That was because he had never seen a black wolf before. It was actually as tall as a person. When he focused his gaze again, the two people on the black wolf's back...

"It's them! Escape from prison..."

"Why?" On the back of the black wolf, the voice of the subordinate interrupted.

Vivian's eyes, which were covered by hair, were filled with flames when she saw the tragic scene of the carriage being blown up by the lightning and the death and injury reported by the subordinate..

Chapter 509: The Battle That Had Just Ended (1)

"Hiding fugitives and plotting to escape from prison should be a crime without mercy. If smuggling and the port explosion are included...You should be beheaded." Luo Sha replied coldly as she quietly slipped into the bow in her hand.

"You guys...That's also the case."

The bow in the woman's hand glowed with purple light as soon as she finished her last word. The lightning elemental energy gathered on the string and formed a lightning arrow. Luo Sha drew the bow from both sides and shot it at the black wolf and the woman.

Entering battle mode, you have received the following information.

[Six Paths Silk Robe]

[Level: 43]

[Faction Owner: Grand Concealment]

[Class: Lightning Cursemancer] [Secondary Profession: Hunter]

[Bloodline: Mutant]

[Skills: Secret archery, Thousand Lightning Tribulation, Lightning Curse,

Mutant Blood...]

Hei Lang looked at the information on the interface sent by the "Detection". Luo Sha was indeed the martial arts leader of the Grand Fuxi. She had already become a Transcendent at a young age and had a level of 43.

Unfortunately, in front of Vivian... It was not enough.

Although the little girl had just reached Level 40 not long ago, the difference in class between the two of them was enough to greatly increase their combat power. Under the same level, the Witch's terrifying suppression was no joke.

"Xinyan...Draw your sword."

Vivian raised her arm, and the little loli's figure came out of the summoning space. As she pulled out the fiery red sword, the witch's dress also appeared on Vivian's body. The little girl's aura began to rise like a ladder.

Facing the lightning arrow shot by Luo Sha, Vivian only raised her wrist, and the sharp edge of the fiery red sword met the lightning arrow that was flying straight at her, splitting it into two.

In this scene, the tall woman's cold expression finally changed. She began to realize that Vivian's strength was far above hers.

However, it was too late to retreat now.

Luo Sha's nerves jumped and her heart was alerted. She subconsciously used the lightning bow in her hand as a melee weapon and blocked behind her.

Thump!

After a muffled sound, Luo Ya's figure flew out like a cannonball. At the position where the woman had been just now, it was the ponytailed girl wrapped in flames.

In the end, Vivian still used the back of the sword. If she used the blade, it would not be as simple as being sent flying.

"Damn it..."

With the additional ability of the Firewood Sword, Luo Sha could feel a burning sensation from the back of the sword. It went through her wound and ravaged her body. Her internal organs felt like they were on fire, and she felt a burning pain.

Hurry up and retreat..." Luo Sha's words to her soldiers were only halfway through when she stopped abruptly.

Because a huge black claw pressed down on Luo Sha's body, pushing the woman who was about to get up back to the ground.

It's that black wolf!

Luo Sha reacted and wanted to struggle, but she felt that the black wolf's claws seemed to have a thousand catties of strength, like a huge mountain, making it impossible for her to move. Even breathing became difficult.

If it was said that she could not last more than one or two rounds against the girl with the fiery-red greatsword, then the feeling she gave Luo Sha towards the girl's black wolf was...It was a fear that she had not felt for a long time.

It was an instinct from the depths of her body. The bloodline of the other half of her body was constantly wailing, making her only want to escape.

A normal battle would take less than three minutes from start to finish.

Even Luo Sha's Great Fuxing Warriors could not react in time. They stood rooted to the ground in a daze, staring at the God of War in their hearts, Luo Sha, who had now become a prisoner under the claws of the black wolf.

This was...

Were they pursuing...What kind of enemy? Why does the Thousand Islands have? Such a terrifying existence?

An indescribable sense of fear climbed into everyone's hearts, but in the next second, the situation took a new turn.

It was a drastic change.

Luo Sha suddenly felt that the black wolf's claws pressing down on her body had lost a lot of strength. She could also keenly discover that the black wolf's entire body had suddenly tensed up, and its fur stood on end. It was letting out a dangerous roar from its mouth.

Because a new shadow had appeared on the battlefield. It was a witch with blue hair that was as blue as the sea..

Chapter 510: The Battle that Had Just Begun (Part 2)

From the moment he noticed the blue-haired witch, Liao Zixuan immediately shifted his attention from the robe under his claws.

Although it was midnight, he could still see the other party's appearance.

The witch's eyes were the first to bear the brunt. Her long and dense eyelashes were like snow, half-covering the blue eyes below, giving people a sense of mystery and distance.

The seemingly loose witch dress was worn on her body, but it did not look bloated at all. The red lapel at the waist not only outlined her slender waist, but also highlighted the fullness of her upper body.

Although her slender legs were covered by the red dress, it could not hide her impressive figure.

At the bottom of the dress, there was a pair of exquisite wooden clogs that were exposed from the bottom of the red dress. There was a spotless snow-white sock that wrapped around her small and exquisite feet. She was slim and elegant, like a lotus in the water. She could only be seen from afar and not touched.

When Liao Zixuan was looking at the witch, the witch was also looking at him.

Their eyes met. Although this was the first time Liao Zixuan had seen the blue-haired witch, he had seen her eyes many times before. They were familiar.

It was like the stars shining in the dark night, beautiful and desirable, but at the same time, it was like a tidal vortex that could not be seen at all. It wanted to suck people in and awaken their innate fear of the deep sea and the unknown.

Whether it was his appearance or his eyes.

The blue-haired witch's identity was obvious.

In other words, from the moment the Witch appeared, just by standing there quietly, the invisible aura that she emitted was enough to make anyone present unable to help but kneel under her witch dress.

There were many shamans on the Thousand Islands. The only one who could do this was the highest official of the Moon Abyss Society on the peak of the island. She was also the assistant of the Three Supreme Dao Practitioners, and...The absolute ruler of the Thousand Islands.

Water God.

Liao Zixuan was not surprised by this and just sighed silently.

It comes so fast. What?

He had originally planned to end the battle as quickly as possible and then flee with Zhao Jie and the others. However, it seemed that he had underestimated Water God's speed.

Or rather, how much importance did the Water God place on 'them'?

Just like how the Grand Priest had chosen to pursue Zhao Jie relentlessly and attack him, he had to bear the wrath of Vivian. And he had chosen to be willful with the little girl and fight with her on the Moon Abyss Island, so he had to bear the consequences as well...The arrival of the Water God.

However, it was true that the combination of the Witch and the Forbidden Demon would attract the attention of the gods in the Nine Nations.

However, some gods might just scratch their heads and turn around to continue fishing. Some gods might invite you to drink tea and listen to an opera, talking about the past and the present. However, some gods were not so friendly.

Liao Zixuan could clearly feel the aura emitted from the Palace Minister.

Although it seemed to be restrained, as a demon, it was extremely sensitive to such things. That was... The hostility was directed at the hostility between him and the little girl.

It was also impossible to hide the look in his eyes that he wanted to bury a person into the statue.

“Hello, Merv? Snake Sister? Snake, are you there?”

Liao Zixuan’s first reaction was to immediately try to ask the mysterious snake-shadow girl for help in his mind.

“Your best brother is probably going to send it now! If you have any ideas, you’d better use them now!!”

“Hello? Hey! Snakes! Even if you don’t want your brother anymore, aren’t you going to save your sister?”

“Meow! Snakes!”

Unfortunately, Liao Zixuan shouted in his mind for a long time without any movement. The mysterious dark green snake shadow girl from before did not appear.

On the contrary, the scene suddenly became lively.

“Lord Gong Si!

“Lord Gong Si is here!”

“We are saved!”

“Lord Gong Si, please save Lord Luo Sha!

The first to let out excited shouts were the pursuing Grand Fu Practitioners. They didn't even hold their weapons and knelt on one knee, offering their most sincere and fanatical love to the blue-haired witch.

However, the incarnation of the Water God did not pay attention to the crowd. She slowly began to walk forward. As for the direction, she did not shift her gaze from the beginning to the end. She looked at Black Wolf and Vivian, who had returned to Black Wolf's side and was in Xin Yanli's body.

As the blue-haired witch took a step forward, the wooden clogs made a crisp sound on the ground. It was not pleasant for the black wolf and Vivian.

The little girl's body was visibly trembling. She gripped the Firewood Sword in her hands tightly. The raging flames that were dancing around the fiery-red sword seemed to be losing momentum. As the blue-haired witch got closer, the flames became weaker.

Finally, to Vivian and Black Wolf's relief, the blue-haired witch stopped about five steps away from them.

But then, the Water God's doppelganger spoke, which made Vivian's heart jump to her throat again.

“You guys...It doesn't belong to this starry sky.”

Doesn't belong to...This starry sky?

The little girl thought that the Water God was going to ask them about the prison break and the battle with the Great Fu. She did not expect that the blue-haired witch in front of her did not even mention a word about it..
