

NPC Become 511

Chapter 511: The Battle That Ended Right After It Begins (Part 2)

Even Luo Sha, who was still under Blacky's claws, didn't even look at Gong Si. He was the first to suddenly throw this strange topic at them.

It was strange, but it was not the first time Vivian had heard something similar. Someone had said something similar to her before.

The astrologer girl, Mei Ji.

Speaking of which, when the blue-haired Witch appeared, Mei Ji, who was already a little low profile, seemed to have been hit by some kind of immobilizing spell. She stared at the blue-haired Witch in a daze.

Unfortunately, Vivian could not even protect herself now, so she did not have the energy to look at Maggie.

"Lord Gong Si, I, I don't quite understand. "The little girl could only reply in this way after holding it in for a long time.

Previously, Mei Ji had said this to Ann, but now the Water God was talking to him. Could it be that in the eyes of the Water God, Ann was the one who could be recognized?

The blue-haired witch was silent. She did not continue to talk to the little girl. Instead, she stared at her for a long time before speaking again.

" As one of the Nine Gods, the Guardian of Fate, I shouldn't be allowed to make a move without permission, but you guys...It's a change of fate."

“A variable is an ant nest that collapses a thousand-mile dike. It is a hoof nail that destroys a country and a king. A variable...I am an enemy. Therefore, all variables are necessary for me... Clear.”

“Moreover...”

The former was the selfishness of the Water God, while the latter was the reason that the Water God found for this selfishness.

Smuggling saltpeter, causing explosions at the port, causing deaths and injuries to the people. After he was arrested and sent to prison, he did not repent and bribed officials. He colluded with the outside world and broke out of prison without permission. Now, he was stopped by the soldiers of the Great Fu Enforcement, but he was arrested and resisted, causing countless injuries.

“You guys...Is there anything else you want to explain?”

“Yes!”

As Vivian pursed her lips, a loud young voice suddenly came from beside the little girl.

The black wolf, which was originally as tall as a man and could hold down a general in a robe with one claw, turned into a young black-haired man in a flash.

“Eh? Bai... Lord Bai?” Vivian’s brain went blank when she saw the young girl’s face. The game was in a daze for a while.

At this point, Liao Zixuan no longer cared about the identity game.

It was obviously easier to communicate after transforming into a human.

The young man looked at Water God fearlessly. To others, Water God was one of the Nine Gods and the pinnacle of all living beings. However, to Liao Zixuan, who was once a player, Water God was just a Boss. It was just that this Boss was at the ceiling level.

Although he had transmigrated to become a native, he still had the mentality of a "player" in the past. At least, he still had the courage to try to reason with the Water God face to face.

Lord Gong Si, with your remarkable abilities, you must already know that we have traveled thousands of miles from the neighboring Flame Domain. The reason why we have gone through so much trouble is that in the name of our Fire God, who is also your sister, we have asked Lord Water God to unseal a necklace to alleviate the evil forces that are spreading in the Flame Domain."

If you say that our non-existence under this starry sky is a variable of fate, then I think that evil force must be even more so. Even our Fire God was almost corrupted. I think that's the enemy of you, Lord Water God, and us, and all the living beings in the Nine Nations Continent!

Under Liao Zixuan's words, the blue-haired witch's expression changed slightly, especially when she mentioned "evil forces".

There was hope!

Liao Zixuan secretly observed and was delighted. He decided to add fuel to the fire and directly say those two words.

"Fallen Abyss."

"I think with Lord Water God's intelligence, you must have sensed this evil power, right?"

The blue-haired witch's hostility towards them did not diminish, but she fell silent. After a long while, she asked again,"

"Where is that necklace now? Give it to me, and I'll believe you."

Liao Zixuan,"Uh..."

"To tell you the truth, on our way to the Thousand Islands on the Astorokis, we encountered the forbidden monster under your command, Orochi. After we repelled it, the snake pulled us to the bottom of the sea."

' There, the snake told us that the Water God Palace couldn't hold on for much longer after suppressing the evil creatures in the Eye of the Abyssal Sea. The reason was that no new Divine Magi had gone to the Abyssal Sea for several consecutive years. The reason why the snake attacked us was that one of its heads had been corrupted by evil and became violent and aggressive.

" The snake requested us to bring this information to the surface and ask about the Divine Wizard selection in the Thousand Islands region. It also requested us to leave your necklace behind, saying that this item could temporarily hold off the crisis in the Abyssal Sea. You also know that our strength is completely incomparable to the snake in the sea, so we could only obey and leave the necklace in the Abyssal Sea. The snake also promised us that it would return the necklace when we return to the Abyssal Sea."

Whoosh!

He let out a long sigh.

Liao Zixuan summarized all his previous experiences in one breath and told the Water God in front of him.

Water God had yet to express his stance, but many of the remaining people present cast various shocked gazes at Liao Zixuan..

Chapter 512: The Battle That Ended Right After It Begins (Part 2)

Among them, the little girl admired him. In front of the Water God, she clearly wanted to say all these things, but it was as if there was a thorn stuck in her throat. It was difficult for her to even make a sound because of her reverence.

However, her Little Black seemed to be fine. Even in such an environment, he could still talk like a river without stopping.

Most of the martial artists who practiced the great ceremony felt the same as the little girl, or even more so, especially Luo Sha. In their impression, Lord Gong Si had always been the spokesperson of words such as cold and pure.

It was rare for someone to say so much in front of Lord Gong. What surprised Luo Sha even more was that her Water God seemed to be listening very seriously and did not show any impatience.

Could it be...Could it be that these foreign fugitives were really...

But then...

“You can’t take out the necklace?” The blue-haired witch had returned to her expressionless face.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

I told you so much, and this is all you came up with?

You...

If I were your leader, I would be the first to fire you!

Liao Zixuan could only be patient and explain nicely,

“Lord Water God, I can’t take it out, but as long as you bring us into the Abyssal Sea, we can immediately take out the necklace.

“The Abyssal Sea is the most important part of the Thousand Islands. Unless you take out your necklace to prove your identity, no outsiders are allowed to enter.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Are you a robot?

This was an endless loop. If he wanted to enter the Abyssal Sea, he had to gain trust. To gain trust, he had to rely on the necklace, but to obtain the necklace, he had to rely on the Abyssal Sea.

Such a simple logic, but the Water God’s clone refused to let it go. After seeing that Liao Zixuan had nothing to say, he revealed his true intentions.

“Since there’s nothing else to explain, please...Return to fate.”

As Water God spoke, a white arm emerged from the sleeve of the witch’s robe, and a Star Sea Compass that was almost identical to the one used by Mei Ji appeared in the blue-haired witch’s hand.

“Ashes to ashes, earth to earth. Your fates have already been engraved here.

Destiny to return, destiny...”

“Destiny...It’s decided.”

The blue-haired witch’s palm gently touched the Starry Sea Compass. Liao Zixuan, who was closest to the Water God’s clone, saw a word written on the surface of the compass. Death.

Immediately after, Liao Zixuan felt his body begin to become lighter. This was not a physical or magical attack, but a higher level of magical power belonging to the Water God...Fate.

Liao Zixuan looked down and saw his body turning into specks of starlight from his feet. The same scene was happening to Vivian.

This was the attack of the " God " from the " God ". They even had no means of resistance.

Struggling before death was the instinct of all living creatures. Liao Zixuan knew that his " first life " had come to an end, so it didn't matter what he did in the end. Driven by a crazy thought, he took the opportunity before he completely disappeared and waved his fist at the blue-haired witch opposite him.

At least...He could also obtain more information.

Liao Zixuan only had this thought in his heart.

Unfortunately, his fist pierced through the blue-haired witch's body without causing any damage. The Water God's clone seemed to be too lazy to dodge. He did not even spare them another glance after releasing Destiny's Will and was prepared to turn around and leave.

Well, that's true. After all, he was a god.

Liao Zixuan thought to himself.

However...

"Vivian! Little Black! Stinky old woman, you, what are you doing? Stop right now! "Suddenly, a wake-up scream came from the side.

This belonged to the astrologer girl, Mei Ji.

For the first time, Liao Zixuan saw something called...A surprised expression.

It was as if the Water God had not noticed the Astrologer maiden standing there the entire time. It was only when Mei Ji jumped out that the blue-haired witch suddenly realized that there was such an existence.

Especially when Mei Ji also took out a Starry Sea Compass that was exactly the same as hers. It was no longer a shock, but a shock.

In the end, when Mei Ji realized that her compass ability was no match for the Water God's clone, she used the most primitive method to rush forward and push the blue-haired witch, wanting to interrupt her casting, and then...Plop! Stunned, absolutely hallucinating, a scene appeared, one person, one god, all fell to the ground'

Unfortunately, it was too late.

Just like when he was on the Astorokis, the endless darkness swallowed Liao Zixuan's vision. The sinking feeling of falling into the deep sea enveloped his entire body, and the dizzy sense of weightlessness finally made him lose consciousness.

But this time, it was slightly different.

Dark green snake shadow...No, this time it wasn't a girl. In his haziness, Liao Zixuan seemed to see a huge snake. It was very, very big. If he had to describe it, it might be a snake as big as the world.

The snake wrapped around his body. Snakes were cold-blooded animals, but Liao Zixuan felt extremely warm. Any discomfort he felt just now seemed to have disappeared in an instant.

The snake head stuck out its tongue and quietly stuck close to his ear.

Brother, please come out of 'limitless'...Search for that possibility, from the end of the sea...Find... My sister and I..."

Chapter 513: Second Zhou, Activate!_I

The faint salty and moist smell that belonged only to seawater came from his nose. When he opened his eyes, he saw the familiar ceiling of the Astorokis...Oh, sorry, it was the little girl's chest plate.

The sound of waves crashing could be vaguely heard, and the noise of passengers packing their luggage echoed in the corridor.

Whoosh!

The wolf cub, who woke up in Vivian's arms, breathed a sigh of relief.

Although he had the previous "cycle" experience and the "snake" that popped out of nowhere as a guarantee, Liao Zixuan was still a little nervous about whether he could return the "post-death replay." Now, he was completely relieved.

As expected, as the main character...How could a wolf cub with a golden finger be so easy to deal with?

Second week, activate!

The spawn point this time was indeed not the first time they boarded the ship.

The wolf cub had expected the same thing, and now it was the Astorlogius. It had entered the port, and a few minutes after it was about to dock, the astrological girl had also accidentally discovered that Vivian had suddenly received the "God's Gaze".

But then again...

The little wolf cub was a little puzzled. According to the script, why was Miss Maggie not speaking according to her lines at this time? Instead... A look of confusion?

Immediately after, not only Mei Ji, but even the little girl who was hugging him began to make strange movements.

Vivian had the same dull expression as Maggie at first, but then she seemed to come back to her senses and began to touch her body with the other hand holding the wolf cub, as if to confirm whether it was real or not.

Then, it was not enough to touch the little wolf cub. Soon, it was also killed by Vivian. After being rubbed all over its body, the little girl's uneasy mood gradually disappeared.

At this point, the wolf cub finally realized something.

And from Mei Ji's next actions, he got confirmation.

"Wuwuwu! Vivian! Little Black! You, you're still alive. You're all here. That's great! "The astrologer girl ran to the little girl and hugged her tightly as if she had found her again.

"So what exactly...What exactly happened? Xiao Hei and I were clearly not...' Vivian was also stunned.

"I don't know either, but for now..." Seems like we're back on the Stologgis?"

After Mei Ji calmed down a little, she looked around with the little girl and finally confirmed the fact that time had been reversed.

"Right! What about Little Black? Quick, ask Little Black. It was Little Black who saved us!

Merji's words reminded Vivian to send a message to her cub.

Although the wolf cub was an experienced person, he did not understand the principle of the cycle, so he temporarily pretended to be confused and shook his head, indicating that he was as confused as Vivian and the others.

Liao Zixuan only knew that it had something to do with the snake. It seemed to be as what Meowu had told him. After breaking through the first cycle and completing the key node, his "infinite" ability became stronger and could interfere with the world more.

The result was that not only could he bring his memories back, but now it seemed that even Vivian and the astrological girl could still remember what happened in the first week.

This indeed provided a lot of convenience for the wolf cubs,

This was because this time was different from the previous "cycle." Last time, he could still slowly explore, but now, he had to race against time.

The Astorokis was about to enter the port. At the bottom of the cabin, there were many boxes of smuggled saltpeter used to frame them. Sakai Yosuke had been waiting by the port for a long time. Once they docked, he would immediately bring people to search and even detonate the saltpeter to create evidence for them.

Because of the failure of the opening of the round, it had been in a passive position for the rest of the round. In the end, it was killed by the Water God. After the new round, the little wolf cub made a prompt decision.

He told Vivian that they did not have time to investigate the reason. They had to act now, or they would repeat the same mistake again.

The little girl and Mei Ji were obviously aware of this, but they were like ants on a hot pan, not knowing what to do for a moment.

Fortunately, Liao Zixuan had already made a plan.

They split into two groups. The wolf cub told Vivian and Maggie to go and find Luzi immediately.

If Roko also retained her memories, that would naturally be the best. If not, he would briefly inform Yosuke of his plot so that Roko could be mentally prepared in advance. Then, he would ask Roko to borrow the backup ship on the Astorokis.

After they boarded the backup boat, they sneaked off the Astorokis before the boat reached the shore. The two of them went to White -Plume Island first.

The young military official had told them that there was a stronghold of the enemy behind the scenes on the island, which was the key evidence of the corruption of the Divine Wizard election.

Unfortunately, Liao Zixuan checked his inventory space immediately, but the scroll that recorded the detailed information had disappeared. It was obvious that he could not bring it with them.

Because of the Six Paths Robe's attack, they did not have much time to look at the scroll carefully. The wolf cub could only give Vivian a rough location of the stronghold based on the memory of a quick glance at the time and asked the little girl to wait for orders.

"Then.... What about you, Xiao Hei?"

Chapter 514: Second Zhou, Activate!_2

Since they were going to split up, the little wolf cub told them that he was responsible for destroying the saltpeter on the ship and making some preparations for the next attack on the stronghold.

Don't worry about him. He will go to White Wing Island soon to meet them.

Knowing that it was not the time to talk, Vivian remembered it and immediately followed the plan with Maggie. As for the wolf cubs, they also rushed to the bottom of the cabin.

There was no one here at all. The laborers who used to live here had also retreated to the upper level because of the snake attack.

The girl who had stopped the wolf cub from entering the cargo hold was no longer there.

What appeared in Liao Zixuan's field of vision were boxes of tightly sealed goods. The wolf cubs jumped up and poked with their claws. They could see that there was indeed a large amount of saltpeter inside the container.

Logically speaking, at this time, the Astorokis had already entered the port. It was impossible to throw so many boxes of saltpeter off the ship and sink to the bottom of the sea.

However, after the wolf cub transformed into a human, he touched the saltpeter in the box with his hand, and the ore magically disappeared into thin air.

At the same time, a line of text appeared in front of Liao Zixuan.

[Ding! You have received Origin Origin Grade Saltpeter (Unprocessed)"x 50.]

After repeating this action a few times, all the cargo boxes at the bottom of the cabin were emptied by Liao Zixuan. In their place were hundreds of pieces of saltpeter in the inventory space.

Saltpeter " belonged to the material category. Unlike normal items, each item needed a character. For normal materials, each inventory slot could only hold ' 999 ' before reaching the upper limit.

Therefore, even if there were more ships of saltpeter, Liao Zixuan could easily eat it.

After taking care of the most critical evidence, Liao Zixuan returned to the cabin. Through the connection between him and Vivian, Liao Zixuan could feel that the little girl was no longer on the ship and was moving into the distance.

And what he was going to do next...

As an ordinary passenger, he just needed to wait for the boat to reach the shore and disembark.

Very quickly.

With a loud thud, the Astorokis paused for a moment before coming to a complete stop.

Liao Zixuan, who was also among the passengers, came to the deck. The familiar scene of the port of Deep Moon Island appeared in Liao Zixuan's eyes. Even the people of Thousand Islands who came to watch the Astorokis were exactly the same as before.

The only possible difference was that Liao Zixuan, who was hiding in the dark, cast his gaze on Luzi, who was beside the railing on the deck.

A sailor warrior quickly ran to RoRoko's side and whispered something into her ear. After that, the official's expression became slightly better.

Obviously, they had already discovered the saltpeter that he had cleared out of the cabin. Moreover, from Roko's skeptical expression, it did not seem like she had memories.

So... Why did Mei Ji have one?

Liao Zixuan could understand that Vivian could keep her memories, but the astrologer girl was an outsider. Although she had been with them since they disembarked, did she have the privilege to be with Meowu because of this?

Or rather...

Taking advantage of the fact that Sakai Yosuke had yet to appear, Liao Zixuan carefully recalled the last scene that appeared in the first round.

Water God's attitude towards Mei Ji, and...Mei Ji was actually able to injure the blue-haired witch! ?

It had to be known that when he had tried to attack the Water God's clone in his last struggle, he had directly passed through it and hit the air. It was as if the two of them were on different planes.

Ah, right, why did I almost forget about this!

The battle interface...Battle panel...

Liao Zixuan hurriedly opened the game system and looked for the battle record column. Generally speaking, there were two ways to obtain information about the enemy. The first was to actively use the "detection" skill, but if the difference between the two sides was too big, it was basically useless.

However, the second option was for both parties to enter battle mode. In that case, no matter how powerful the opponent was, far surpassing the player's level, the player would be able to obtain some basic information about the enemy under the system's coercion.

This was also the reason why Liao Zixuan had tried to attack the Water God before he died.

"This is it! There really is!"

Liao Zixuan had originally thought of giving it a try, but when he really saw the panel of the Moon Palace Guard, he couldn't help but reveal a look of surprise.

[Moon Abyss Palace Secretary]

[Level: 85]

[Affinity: Moon Abyss Society]

[Main Class: Gong Si]

[Secondary Class: Astrologer (Master)?? ? ...]

[Bloodline/Status: ???] [Waning Moon Body.???

[Skills: Phantom of Fate (Passive), Destiny is Fixed, Absolute Water Element Affinity (Passive), Illusion of Water Moon for a moment...]

(In order to achieve the future that he desired, he voluntarily gave up on unnecessary emotions in exchange for a firm and eternal pursuit of “destiny.” He strictly abided by the rules and agreements that were set in the beginning. He was the absolute ruler of the Thousand Islands and also the representative of Water God Floria in the world.)

He was only Level 83?

When Liao Zixuan saw Gong Si’s level, he was surprised to use “Cai” because it was common knowledge that the official level limit of creatures in Fallen God was set at level 90. No matter how powerful they were, they couldn’t exceed level 90. Only by becoming a “god” could they break this limit.

In other words, the prerequisite to become a Nine God was to be above level 90. However, Gong Si was a Water God, and level 83 was indeed not enough to describe him as a “God.”

Later on, Liao Zixuan noticed the “Waning Moon Body” in his status. Although he didn’t know what it was, and the system didn’t give him a hint, it should be the reason why Water God’s level was so low.

He had also found the reason why he could not hurt Water God previously. It was because of his first skill.

[Shadow of Fate (Passive)-Any attack from an enemy whose ‘fate’ is lower than yours will turn into a shadow and pass through.]

(Note: “Fate” is an exclusive attribute series, and most of the attribute value depends on the level of “Luck Value”)

From the original [Water God's Chain] accessory, the concept of " Luck " had appeared. As the origin of the Water God, it was the same. There was also an exclusive attribute like " Fate

This was the perverse part of Gods. They would always have unreasonable skills. Therefore, the higher one's level, the more powerful one's skills would be.

This was also why Liao Xuan was willing to let Vivian become a witch. Back to the main topic.

Even though she had the almost invincible passive ability [Phantom of Fate], Mei Ji was able to " push " the blue-haired witch to the ground. In other words, he could come into contact with the real body of the Water God's clone. Based on this point, didn't it mean that Mei Ji's " fate " was higher than that of the Water God Palace?? ? This was...

Thump thump thump thump!

A large number of footsteps quickly came from the connection of the cabin stairs, pulling Liao Zixuan back to reality.

He temporarily put away the game panel and was once again surprised and curious about Meggie's identity. Liao Zixuan looked at the familiar man who had boarded the Astorokis deck.

Yosuke Sakai.

His experience was exactly the same as last week. He first pretended to be happy that Luzi could return safely. Then, he began to reveal his true intentions. He said that he would search the ship's warehouse to see if the rumors of " smuggling " were true.

However, when the underling of the men of sacrifice that he had sent out to trigger the saltpeter explosion rushed back in a panic and quickly reported to Sakai Yosuke, the man's originally confident expression finally changed.

However, Liao Zixuan was right. Even if there was no saltpeter, it was only a slight delay. Soon, Sakai Yosuke used the excuse of finding an " antique treasure " to escort Roko away.

It was worth mentioning that Sakai Yosuke had even sent someone to find Vivian. The reason was that she was a suspect who was close to Roko. Obviously, his target had included the little girl from the beginning.

Unfortunately, due to Liao Zixuan's plan, Vivian and Meiji had left in the spare boat before they could reach the shore. Therefore, Sakai Yosuke had missed the boat..

Chapter 515: I Raised A Girl From A Abandoned House To Be A Goddess Novelist

After taking Ruko away, Sakai and the warriors quickly left the Astorokis without finding Vivian.

Liao Zixuan was only treated as an ordinary passenger by the people who were searching for him. Because of this sudden change, none of the original passengers on the ship noticed the young man who had quietly appeared on the ship.

Oh, no... It seemed that 'that' passenger was still a special case.

After the search for smuggling was over, the passengers on the ship were allowed to leave on their own. From now on, Liao Zixuan was free to move around on the island.

Based on the experience he had gained from the "one week the first problem he had to solve was the hostile attitude of the Water God towards them. In other words, he had to gain the trust of the Water God.

In order to avoid the endless cycle of "you give me the necklace so that I can take you to the Abyssal Ocean, and you take me to the Abyssal Ocean so that I can give you the necklace", Liao Zixuan had to find another way. Then, he would uncover the secrets of the "Selection of Divine Wizard", punish the evil people, and return the Thousand Islands to a peaceful world. Becoming a hero was the best choice.

And it just so happened that he had found relevant clues in the “cycle” of his first time.

In the prison, Liao Zixuan remembered the name of the young military officer who also had the heart to resist. He was...Naosuke Kondo.

However, this time, he had seized the initiative and allowed them to hide behind the scenes from the public. Correspondingly, they, who were not in prison, had no contact with this young military official.

“Good! The next step was to find the military official from before. “Liao Zixuan pondered for a moment and quickly set his goal.

The purpose of finding the military officer was to obtain information on the exact location of the enemy’s stronghold on Bailing Island. Secondly, Liao Zixuan wanted to discuss with Naosuke to let both sides attack together.

Judging from the attitude of Water God last week, as long as he and Vivian showed their auras, the blue-haired witch would come to them in less than a minute.

Therefore, the main force of this attack had to be Naojie and his soldiers. At most, he would secretly assist from the side and carry out some secret operations similar to beheading.

For example, if Kai Wushuang directly charged over, it would be purely courting death.

Even after Liao Zixuan transformed into a human, he could still borrow the physical strength of a Forbidden Devil. As long as he did not use his talent or skills, he should not be discovered if he attacked purely on the physical level.

However, Vivian was different. Strictly speaking, the witch’s body was very weak. She could be considered a spellcaster. Her main combat power was still carried out by magic power, and magic power was like the stars in the night. Once she used it, the Water God would more or less sense it.

Therefore, in this operation, the little girl probably did not even have the chance to make a move.

Sigh...

If only Vivian's other self was here.

Liao Zixuan could not help but sigh.

Because for the second personality Vivian, even if she did not use magic, she could still exert unimaginable combat power and use her physical body to the extreme.

Unfortunately...

Wait a little longer. Soon, I'll...It was you who brought it back from the bottom of the sea!

Liao Zixuan secretly encouraged himself.

At this time, most of the passengers had already begun to get off the ship with their luggage. Liao Zixuan also followed in the crowd.

The first thing Liao Zixuan thought of was to rely on the businessman uncle, Zhao Jie. After all, in the previous week, Zhao Jie had fully demonstrated that he still had a lot of power and manpower in Thousand Islands.

As long as he continued to spread the news about Jingfu in the prison, with the young military official's informant, Liao Zixuan did not need to take the initiative to find him. The other party would definitely come to him first.

However...

Liao Zixuan looked at Zhao Jie's back as he left, but in the end, he chose not to talk to him.

Zhao Jie was chased and attacked by Luo Sha because he helped them. In the end, the carriage was blown up by the lightning arrow. Liao Zixuan still remembered the scene of one dead and one injured. Uncle Guili, who was full of homesickness and had a wife and daughter whom he had not seen for many years, was sleeping forever in the Thousand Islands. Both Vivian and Liao Zixuan were filled with guilt.

So this time, Liao Zixuan decided not to involve this middle-aged man again and let him return to Guili safely.

Well...

In this way, he had taken the initiative to increase the difficulty for himself.

Without Zhao Jie's manpower and connections, a stranger like him couldn't just go out on the streets and randomly pick up a warrior from the Grand Fuke Enforcement Hall and say that he wanted to find his leader.

Moreover, the Grand Fuxi Law Enforcement had many departments. Liao Zixuan only knew that Kondo Naosuke was very concerned about the selection of the shaman, so he should be in a position close to him.

Just as Liao Zixuan got off the Astorokis and was about to scout around the port for information.

Suddenly, a voice that seemed to have mustered up the courage for a long time before coming over to talk appeared behind him.

"That. n!"

"Please, please wait a moment, sir!"

Liao Zixuan turned around in surprise and found that it was a person with a big spectacle frame on the bridge of his nose. His hair was messy, and his clothes were very casual. If one had to describe him, he would give people a feeling of, uh, trash and slovenly...A young man?

The most important thing was that Liao Zixuan still had an impression of this person because he was one of the passengers on the Astorokis.. His identity and occupation were...A light novelist from the Thousand Islands?

Chapter 516: I Raised a Useless Otaku Girl into a Goddess Novelist (2)

Why is this person looking for me?

Doubt rose in his heart, and he was still vigilant. However, on the surface, Liao Zixuan still pretended to be normal and asked curiously,

“What’s the matter?”

It was just a probing question, but who would have thought that the other party would throw a depth bomb.

“Sir, you...You are not a passenger on the Astorius, are you? “Although the other party’s tone was very weak, there was a sense of affirmation hidden in it.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Sensing that Liao Zixuan’s aura had paused and a strong sense of danger rose from the bottom of his heart, the young man was so frightened that he immediately waved his hand and explained, “Ah! Please don’t misunderstand. I-I’m not here to cause trouble for you. I’m really just curious, very curious. So, sir, can you please allow me to... We can participate in your follow-up actions together!

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

He sized up the sloppy young man in front of him again. Looking at the bright eyes under the frame of his glasses, he did not look like a mentally ill person, but his thoughts were too jumpy...Even he could not keep up with the pace. "You said that I'm not a passenger on the ship. Do you have any evidence?"

"You mean this... Obviously, every passenger on the Astologius has an impression of you. This is the most basic quality of a novelist, so when we were disembarking, we suddenly saw a strange face like you disembarking with us, so we were very concerned.

Not to mention... Moreover..." As the young man spoke, he suddenly panted heavily towards Liao Zixuan.

The eyes under his glasses shone brightly as he stared straight at Liao Zixuan, like a pervert looking at a peerless beauty.

"From the first time I saw you, I heard amazing music in my ears. This is a super powerful character who can bring his own sound effects when he appears! It was too rare! So, Sir, please do it...You must let me follow you! "

"Sound... Music?" Liao Zixuan once again suspected that the person in front of him was a madman.

"That's right! This was the most basic quality of every novelist! In the process of collecting materials from reality, we will meet all kinds of people, and we will distribute them, such as, ah! This person was obviously a passerby. Wow! That person seemed to be able to be written into the book as a supporting villain..."

The above and so on."

"And you...Although I don't know why, I just feel that the first time I saw you, all kinds of images inexplicably appeared in my mind. The plot of the novel couldn't help but overflow and fill my entire body. For a big character like you, the appearance of the novel has its own melody!"

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

He silently retreated, putting some distance between him and the sloppy young man. He was now 100% sure that this person was a lunatic, and it was very likely that he was Nan Tong.

For the first time, Liao Zixuan realized that being handsome also had its troubles.

“Ah, sir, don’t go! I beg you, please, please, please take a look at the plot of the novel I wrote for you. I believe you will be moved, sir!

When the young man saw Liao Zixuan turn around and leave, he immediately chased after him and blocked his way. He even reached out to Liao Zixuan and handed him a note. It was densely written with words, which should be the draft of a novel.

“Sir, just take a look! If the plot I wrote can’t move you, then I won’t pester you anymore! “The young man saw the impatience in Liao Xuan’s expression, but he still suppressed his fear and solemnly handed his draft to Liao Zixuan.

Since the other party had said so, Liao Zixuan saw that the movement on his side seemed to have attracted many passers-by. He had no choice but to take the draft and warn the other party,

“We’ve agreed that if you can’t beat me, don’t pester me.”

“Good! No problem, but I believe in my own novel! “The sloppy young man was full of confidence.

Haha.

That’s what every noob writer says.

Liao Zixuan mocked in his heart and prepared to call back after flipping through a few pages.

But...

“This, this...

Liao Zixuan’s eyes widened in surprise when he saw the first sentence of the draft.

[This is a legendary story about a young girl who relied on countless reincarnations to save the Thousand Islands from extinction.]

The more Liao Zixuan read, the more surprised he became. It wasn’t that the story was good, but...

This was exactly what he had experienced in the first week!

However, it was not from his own perspective. Instead, it seemed to be from... Zhao Jie’s side?

“Hmph, how is it? I was suddenly inspired and wrote it down when I was searching the ship. Sir, sir, looking at your expression, the initial idea of my novel is not bad, right?”

“You said...All of this is based on your inspiration?”

“Uh...! Sir, I know what you want to say. This is an insult to us novelists. I,

Kasumiakiko, will never do anything like plagiarism! All of the plots were created by the flash of Linguan. They were 100% original!

The sloppy young man put his hands on his hips and puffed up his cheeks, looking angry.

On the other hand, Liao Zixuan...

“Wait, you said your name is... Xia Qiuzi?”

“Yes... That’s right! Wow! Sir, could it be that you’re still a fan of my books?? Ah, that’s not right. The novel I submitted to the publishing house has already been rejected for the 98th time. Even if you want to read it, you shouldn’t be able to see it...

Xia Qiuzi was originally very excited when she saw that Liao Zixuan seemed to know her, but then she became dejected.

However, Xia Qiuzi was really wrong this time. Liao Zixuan was sure that she not only recognized her, but also read several of her novels!

For example, “Reincarnate into Lord Gong Si, and then become the mother of the world”, “Marry into the Water God”, “My Forbidden Companion Won’t Be So Strong”.

This light novelist in the game was extremely popular among the players at that time. Even hardcore players like Liao Zixuan were one of her fans.

After all, from the title of the book, one could tell that in the 2.0 version of Under the Blacktide, the Thousand Islands was a depressing and heart-wrenching storyline. This was one of the few NPC that could provide entertainment for the players and was talked about with relish.

There was even a time when there were posts in the official forum urging the NPCs in the game to update their novels. This was definitely the first time Liao Zixuan had seen such a spectacle.

Unfortunately, in the end, the Thousand Islands was conquered by Fallen Abyss and was destroyed. Naturally, many local NPCs died as well. The last novel’s serial came to an abrupt end and was never updated again. It became a regret in the hearts of many players, and they even swore to destroy Fallen Abyss’s fighting spirit.

He seemed to have run far away.

Liao Zixuan quickly came back to his senses. In his memory, Kasumi Akiko was not just a cold goddess, but also a super beautiful girl writer. Otherwise, how could she be so popular among the players?

But now...

This person was breathing white air into his mouth, his cheeks were red, and his eyes were flickering. Because he was wearing a loose dress...Sportswear? In addition, his hair was so messy that he could not tell the gender of the person. Was he really the person in his memory?

Besides, even if it was really inspiration as the other party said, it should definitely be a vague memory that Snake-Snake had deliberately left for her, right? Therefore, she took it as an "inspiration" and recorded it.

"Alright, then follow me. But let me warn you in advance. What I'm going to do is very dangerous. If you cause trouble or can't keep up, I'll kick you out immediately.

"Danger...It's dangerous!"

It was as if these two words did not bring fear to Kasumi Akiko. Instead, it brought excitement. What attracted the readers the most...Danger! Clash! "Sir! Then let's go and do something now!"

"You can call me Bai. After that, we'll... I'll gather some information at the port regarding the Divine Wizard Selection and the Grand Ceremony." Liao Zixuan sighed.

However, after Kasumi Akiko heard what was said, she immediately said, "

"Eh? If it was related to these two elements.... If I remember correctly, there should be a public performance of a Divine Wizard candidate today?"

Chapter 517: Number One Divine Wizard Candidate

Sure enough, it was easier to have a local by his side. With Xia Qiuzi's news, Liao Zixuan quickly rushed to the so-called public performance.

It was hard to say if it was luck or not. According to Kasumi Akiko, the venue of the performance trailer was still some distance away from the port. However, it seemed that because of the Astorokis, it attracted a large number of Thousand Islands citizens, causing the performance to be moved to the square near the port.

After walking for a short while, they saw a black crowd of people who were no less than those who were watching the Astorokis dock.

“You two! Are you also here to support Sugaya Akino? Thank you for coming. Please keep this.

As soon as they entered the venue, a young man with a thick stack of flyers jumped out from the side and enthusiastically stuffed two copies into Liao Zixuan’s hands.

Before the two of them could reply, he quickly went to the next target.

Liao Zixuan looked down at the flyer that he had just handed over. In the middle of the page, there was a picture of a young girl in cute clothes. The girl’s movements in the picture seemed to be like a big sister, bending over and touching her head.

By leaning his upper body forward, the white peaks were faintly revealed. At the same time, the curves of his buttocks were also outlined. It had to be said that the composition was very particular and technical. If one was not an experienced driver, it would be easy to be captivated at first glance.

In short, it was just two words.

“All the candidates of the Thousand-island Divine Wizard are so...Sese?” Liao Zixuan looked at the girl on the flyer and couldn’t help but ask Xia Qiuzi beside him.

He remembered that Kasumi Akiko had just mentioned that this person was a seeded candidate for the Divine Wizard election.

In the end...

At least from this flyer, Liao Zixuan didn't see any shadow of a "witch". No, she didn't even wear a witch costume, but openly used this kind of clothing.

It's said that it wasn't like this in the early days, but in recent years, more and more candidates have done so. After all, the final battle of the Divine Wizard election is still voting, so naturally, it's up to them to gain more popularity.

"If you were Mr. White, would you rather see a dignified and serious witch recite scriptures and pray for you, or would you rather have a beautiful girl dressed shamelessly sing and dance for you?"

Kasumi Akiko said as she adjusted her glasses.

Without waiting for Liao Zixuan to speak, he gave his own answer first.

Indeed, there are some people in Thousand Island who feel that this is a violation of tradition and is detrimental to customs. Unfortunately, after the voting results are out, their voices become softer and softer. In any case, from my point of view, I quite like the way things are now.

"There should be a variety of choices in the Divine Wizard selection! There was no need to be limited to the traditional type. There had to be a cold and elegant witch, but there had to be a cute and erotic type!

If it were me, I would add some deeper settings to them. For example, the former looks cold on the surface but is actually gentle on the inside, while the latter pretends to be cute but is actually dark on the inside...The two of them were at loggerheads because of the election. After experiencing a series of hardships, they finally turned enemies into friends and lived together..." The girl in sportswear became more and more excited as she spoke, as if she had entered an indescribable state.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

"Nosebleed, your nose is bleeding.

“Ah! S-sorry! I can’t help but get carried away when I think of the exciting plot. I’m fine. Mr. White, don’t mind me!”

Once again, he wondered if there was something wrong with his brain when he decided to bring this person along.

Liao Zixuan was the first to enter the venue. Behind him, Xia Qiuzi, who was frantically looking for a tissue to wipe her nosebleed, quickly caught up.

They weren’t too late. The performance had just started. From the shouts of the crowd and the excited applications of many young men from Thousand Island, Liao Zixuan could feel the popularity of the dancing girl on stage.

Kasumi Akiko, who was beside her, was quickly immersed in the performance. She stared at the girl on stage with sparkling eyes, and at the same time, she kept writing something on a note. She was probably going to use her as a model to create a character in the book.

Liao Zixuan’s attention was naturally not on the girl in the stands. These country bumpkins from the other world had too little knowledge. They were no longer interested in idol singers like Liao Zixuan.

Besides, he was not here to listen to the singing. Firstly, he wanted to see what the so-called “ seed candidates ” of the Divine Wizard Selection looked like. Secondly, he wanted to...

Liao Zixuan found a high place with a wide view and scanned the surroundings of the venue. In addition to the fans of the candidate, there were also a large number of internal staff who distributed flyers.

From this, it could be seen that this candidate was not just herself. Behind her, there was at least a very powerful team supporting her. This was also very common on Planet Blue. Most idols had the shadow of a financial magnate or a club behind them.

However, Liao Zixuan was not paying attention to these things. He finally looked at the last group of security personnel in the venue, who were wearing the martial arts uniform of the Great Fuxi.

Such a large gathering was related to the "Divine Wizard Selection", so the Grand Duke Practitioner would definitely be involved. Liao Zixuan blended in the crowd and carefully looked at the security personnel, trying to see if he could find any familiar faces.

Not long after...

As expected, a smile appeared at the corner of Liao Zixuan's mouth. It was similar to a temporary security command point at the venue. One of them should be the squad leader in charge of this security mission. Liao Zixuan recognized him..

Chapter 518: Number One Divine Wizard Candidate (2)

It was the soldier that Naosuke had sent to lead them out of the prison a week ago.

Although Naosuke himself was not present for such a small and medium-sized event, he was lucky to have met his core subordinate who happened to be on duty.

With this primer, the rest was much simpler.

It just so happened that the concert had come to an end. It should be the intermission period, so the turnover of the staff was relatively high. Many of the samurai who were practicing the great ceremony were busy, so no one paid attention to him.

However, just as Liao Xuan was about to quietly stop the subordinate.

All of a sudden, something strange happened on the stage.

"Thank you, everyone, for taking time out of your busy schedule to visit Akino today! How did everyone feel about Akino's performance in the first half? If she could bring happiness and relaxation to everyone, then it would be the greatest happiness for Akino!"

“There’s still a wonderful performance in the second half. I hope everyone won’t miss it. After singing for such a long time, her mouth and tongue were a little dry and her throat was very thirsty. There must be a lot of people like her, right?”

“But fortunately! There was a special drink specially prepared for Akino’s fans! It was made from an exclusive secret recipe of tea mixed with milk. Not only was it refreshing, but it also had a strong mellow fragrance. Every time Akino felt tired, she would immediately be full of energy after taking a small sip!”

The beautiful girl in cute clothes on the stage said as she took a cup of milk tea from the backstage staff as if she was performing a magic trick.

“If anyone needs it, you can buy it over there –”

After Akino Sugaya took a sip, she revealed a sweet smile like the milk tea in her hand. She pointed to the exclusive beverage selling spot in the venue for the enthusiastic fans below the stage.

In Liao Zixuan’s eyes, this was just a very common act of bringing goods. However, for the people of the Thousand Islands who had not seen much of the world, the effect was absolutely overwhelming. After all, this had been confirmed on the Blue Planet. It was said that the higher the influence, the more goods they brought in a day could be compared to others for a year or even a few years.

The sudden incident that interrupted Liao Zixuan’s operation also began here.

Stinky woman, get off the stage! Don’t use your inferior drinks to cheat people here! “A middle-aged man suddenly flashed past the security personnel of the Grand Ceremony and rushed to the front of the stage.

He directly knocked away the drink cup in Akino Sugaya’s hand and crushed it under his feet.

Due to the sudden incident, no one could react in time. The candidate for the Divine Wizard on the stage, Akino Sugaya, seemed to be scared silly.

“Everyone, listen to me. Don’t be deceived! Their drinks were made with the worst quality, even broken raw materials, but they were sold at a price several times higher than the market price. You...” Every time you buy an extra cup of this thing, not only are you harming your own bodies, but you’re also encouraging these black-hearted people who use the name of the Divine Wizard... Ah, let go of me, let go of me. Wuwuwu...”

The man was only halfway through his angry words when the Grand Fuxi

Practitioners below the stage reacted and instantly went up to subdue him.

The huge commotion here attracted Liao Zixuan’s original target, the squad leader. He hurriedly ran over to understand the situation.

The scene became chaotic. The team behind Sugaya Akino must have taken emergency measures and announced that the second half of the performance was canceled. At the same time, the Grand Fujikuro also forcefully began to evacuate the crowd.

The man’s words on the stage had not only failed to wake them up, but had instead angered the crowd. Many people were angry that he had slandered their idol and that Akino had attacked them rudely. If the Grand Fuxi Priest had not dismissed them, the matter would have blown up.

As for Liao Zixuan and Kasumiko, although they were part of the audience, they had to leave the venue quickly under the order of the Grand Priest. However, just like Kasumiko’s excited and expectant gaze when she looked at him.

Liao Zixuan concealed his whereabouts. After making a slight detour, he brought Kasumi Akiko and quickly chased after the troublemaker man that Sugaya Akino’s team and the leader of the Omokushiro Squad had escorted away.

“Ah! How annoying! How did you good-for-nothings do things? How could you let that lunatic go on stage!”

In a luxurious carriage that looked like a circus, the young girl who had been lovable on the stage was now sitting on the main chair with her legs crossed.

Her original charming posture was completely gone, replaced by a face full of frustration and anger.

‘S-sorry, Miss Akino. It was our carelessness. We thought that there was a great ceremony to watch over us, so...’ One of the servants, who looked like a butler, lowered his head and apologized continuously in the spacious carriage.

However, before he could finish, he was interrupted by Akino Sugaya.

‘Just what? I’ve told you many times that I have to have my own personal guards when I go out. For a public figure like me, a situation like today might happen again in the future!’

‘Hmph, I don’t know what you’re thinking. Isn’t it just to save some stinky money...Let me tell you, if anything happens to me, without me, how are you going to make money?’

‘Yes, yes.’ Definitely. I’ll arrange it immediately. ‘The butler was so scolded that he could not raise his head.

The woman was still wearing the cute and zither costume that was used for performances. Unfortunately, her current words and actions were completely unrelated to her, as if she had changed into another person.

‘It’s already tiring enough to pretend every day and face the trash at the bottom of society. Now, we’re even making such a scene...If it wasn’t for your promise to send me abroad to tour in the winter, I wouldn’t have done it!’

‘Yes, yes, yes. Miss Akino, please rest assured about this. We have an agreement with the Winter Kingdom. After you become a Divine Wizard, you will be the same as the other winners of each competition. We will find someone to replace you. You don’t have to suffer in that damned Abyssal Sea.’

‘All the procedures regarding you have been completed in the winter. Once we have earned enough money from the reputation of the Divine Wizard in the Thousand Islands, we will immediately leave the country.’

Under the comfort of the housekeeper, she could also imagine her own glory and wealth in the cold winter. Sugaya Akino finally looked a little better. "Alright, in short, earning money is still the first priority, but..." The young girl hesitated for a moment before asking,

"Is what that lunatic who rushed up to the stage said true or false? Are the products that you used my name to sell really inferior?"

"No, of course not! We're supplying the same drink to Miss Akino, how can it be inferior!" the butler said quickly.

It was a pity that Akino did not see the panic that the butler was trying to hide.

"That's true...You don't even have the guts! But I'll warn you again. You can sell it at an expensive price. After all, it's a product that I endorse, but you can't have any problems with the quality, especially in terms of safety. Do you hear

Of course, of course. Miss Akino, we've vented our anger. Outside the carriage, there are people from the Great Fu-chou Sect who are still waiting with the criminal. According to the procedure, I'll have to trouble Miss Akino to deal with it a little. Just do an oral investigation and leave the rest to us!" "Sigh..

The arrogant girl with her legs crossed sighed and jumped down from the chair. She walked out of the carriage. However, the moment she stepped out, the girl put away her previous irritated expression and changed it to a pitiful little girl who was still in shock.

However, neither Akino Sugaya, nor her butler and servants noticed the two people who were peeking at everything in the carriage from the bushes outside..

Chapter 519: Conspiracy (1)

"That's all, Lord Aunai. I represent the public security personnel of the Grand Ceremony to express my deepest apologies. However, I personally suggest that today's matter should be resolved privately. After all, the Divine Wizard election is just around the corner..."

The captain samurai brought the impulsive man who had been captured by them and kept his head down silently to Akino Hayasugaya's carriage to apologize.

However, before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by the butler's sharp voice.

"What? A private settlement? Impossible! Do you know how much this person has caused us? The second half of the performance was directly interrupted, and he even spread false statements in a fair place. This is completely defamation!"

"In addition to the serious impact on our Miss Akino's mental state, these... All of these must be compensated with a high amount of money. How can you treat it as nothing because of a private settlement?"

B0xn*ovel*.com

The butler angrily pointed at the impulsive man as if he wanted to vent all the anger he had suffered in the carriage.

Looking at his appearance, he probably wouldn't give up until he sued the other party until he went bankrupt and offered sky-high compensation.

The squad leader held back his patience and was about to continue persuading him, but the impulsive man, who had been listless and had lowered his head after being lectured by them, felt his blood boil again because of the butler's words. He looked up with red eyes and said angrily,

"When did I slander you? Maybe you don't have the same drinks on Moon Abyss Island, where Gong Si lives, but on a low-level island like White Plume Island, there are already several young people who have contracted strange diseases after drinking your drinks! I can't cure it no matter how hard I try!"

' Also, the factories that you built with foreign countries have been draining all kinds of waste waste into the sea without any bottom line. Half of the water resources on White Nyeong Island have been polluted by you, turning into poisonous water that will corrode and hurt even the slightest touch!!

The butler's expression did not change at all when he heard the accusation. Instead, he snorted coldly and said,

" I was wondering where you came from. It turns out that you're a country bumpkin from a small place like White Plume Island. Maybe you're living in a terrible place. You can blame us for the strange disease. As for the factory...

" That was approved by the Law Enforcement Office. Everything is in accordance with the rules, so it's not up to you to criticize. Now, your crime has increased to another level. Not only did you slander our Miss Akino, but you also dare to doubt the credibility of the government. Lord of the Law Enforcement Office, I suggest that we throw such a person directly to Prison Mountain!

"You... You!"

The impulsive man obviously couldn't win against the eloquent butler who was familiar with the rules. Even though he was filled with anger, he could only show it on his face in the end.

"Alright! This matter ends here. Stop pestering me and saying crazy things. Hurry up and apologize to Lord Akino. "The squad leader shouted and interrupted the quarrel.

He frowned and kept gesturing to the impulsive man, but the butler was the first to refuse.

"I say, isn't this already considered bending the law for personal gain? You're so protective..."

" Mr. Kawai, I think what this Great Fuchu said makes sense. The Grand Wizard selection is the most grand ceremony in the Thousand Islands. A conflict like this should be avoided as much as possible.

In the end, Akino Sugaya, who had been silent all this while, spoke up. The girl shook her head at her aggressive butler.

“This... This was...Miss Akino...

“Thank you for your understanding, Lord Akino! You are worthy of being the candidate who is most loved by the people of Thousand Islands. With your magnanimity, you are definitely the top wizard.

The squad leader warrior rushed in front of the butler and quickly replied. After seeing such a scene, although the butler was unwilling, he did not say anything and tacitly agreed to let it go.

“You! Hurry up and apologize to Lady Akino! If not for Lord Akino’s kindness, you would have been locked up long ago! “The squad leader gave the impulsive man a look.

“It’s okay. I believe in this... I promise you that I will urge the factory to do a good job in product inspection and pay attention to environmental protection.

“Really...Really? Then you must do what you say! I... Alright, I really have a problem. I shouldn’t have rushed up to the stage...

I apologize to you too, Akino... Sir...”

There were many times when she was forced to do so. Under Akino Sugaya’s sincere expression, the impulsive man looked at the beautiful and pure girl opposite him and his heart wavered. In the end, he apologized, but he did not forget to emphasize that Akino Sugaya would definitely find out the problem.

“Then we won’t disturb Lord Akino anymore.

Seeing that the situation was finally under control, the samurai captain heaved a sigh of relief and quickly led his men back from Akino Sugaya’s carriage.

After all the people from the Grand Ceremony had left, the butler finally expressed his dissatisfaction to the young girl beside him.

‘ Miss Akino, we’ve already agreed that I’ll take care of these things. Why do you still...’

However, the girl ignored her and only shook her hand in disgust. After pretending to shake hands with the impulsive man just now, she returned to the carriage.

The butler looked at the girl’s back as she disappeared into the carriage, and a gloomy expression finally appeared on his face.

“Humph! What a b * tch. What’s with the arrogance? Did she really think that she was someone important? If not...Forget it, he still had to rely on her to earn money now. In the future...”Hmph... ‘

Chapter 520: Conspiracy (1)

After the vicious words and the expression on his face disappeared, the butler returned to his flattering attitude and followed him back into the carriage.

Tsk tsk...

Liao Zixuan, who had secretly recorded all of this with the in-game recording function, couldn’t help but smack his lips.

It seemed that there was more to this than he had imagined.

However, what was more important now was...

B0xnovel.com

“Let’s go!”

Liao Zixuan picked up Kasumi Akiko, who was still in the midst of her inspiration and writing, and ran in the direction where the squad leader samurai had gone.

Thump...

Thump! Thump!

“Didn’t I tell you? I told you to go home quickly. Do you really want to be sent to prison by man’s impatient voice came from inside the room.

The squad leader thought it was the impulsive man who had finally been persuaded to go back.

However, when he got up and opened the door, a man and a...A stranger whose gender could not be distinguished.

“You are...”

“No! Only internal staff can enter this place. Why are you...” The squad leader was quite alert. His first reaction was to grab the scabbard at his waist. However, when Liao Zixuan spoke up, the squad leader temporarily let go of his tense nerves.

“You should be one of Kondo Naosuke’s trusted subordinates, right? Take us to him.”

“You...”

“We were sent by Lord Keisuke.

Liao Zixuan’s first sentence directly exposed his identity, and his second sentence shocked the captain even more.

He hesitated for a moment before he quickly got Liao Zixuan and the others to come into the house. He quickly closed the door and even locked it to prevent outsiders from entering.

After everything was done, he re-examined Liao Zixuan and asked seriously,

“Why are you looking for Lord Naosuke?”

“If my intelligence is correct, you must have been planning how to rescue Lord Keisuke from Prison Mountain, right? I asked Naosuke for this.

If the squad leader was still skeptical about Liao Zixuan’s identity, after hearing this, he completely believed it.

Rescuing Lord Keisuke was a top secret among top secrets. If the other party was truly hostile, just this revelation would be enough to make them lose everything.

The captain was smart enough not to ask any more questions because he knew that the fewer people who knew about such a top-secret matter, the safer it was. So he only said again,

“Is it something important?”

“It’s very important.”

Alright! Then change into this and follow me! “Seeing Liao Xuan’s persistence, the squad leader gritted his teeth and took out two sets of clothes from his room, indicating for them to wear.

After dressing up a little, Liao Zixuan and the other disguised themselves as civil servants in the Grand Fudge Court and followed the samurai beside the squad leader. However, it was obvious that Kondo Naosuke was quite a distance away from here. Thus, while they were on the way, Liao Zixuan pretended to casually talk to the samurai beside him.

“The troublemaker from the Divine Wizard performance just now, did you let him go home?”

“Yes...” The squad leader sighed. He understood why Liao Zixuan asked this.

“Even if what he said is the truth, we actually can’t do anything about it. After all, business isn’t under the jurisdiction of our Grand Fuxing Justice. As for the Kanding Justice... Since you are Lord Keisuke’s subordinate, you should understand the situation there.

Liao Zixuan pretended to nod and asked again,

“Then what do you think of the highly reputable candidate for the Divine Wizard?”

” To be honest, there have been many people like them in the past. On the surface, they seem to be competing for the position of Divine Wizard, but in fact, they have already evolved into using the Divine Wizard Selection to obtain official permission. Through extremely high exposure, they will pick up the plane to sell all kinds of associated goods. This is not the first time. ”

” The reason why the three of them went along with it and even Lord Gong Si agreed to it was probably because they had indeed increased the taxes and finances of the Thousand Islands by a lot. Secondly, they did not run away in the end and fulfilled their responsibility as Divine Magi to go to the Abyssal Sea. Unfortunately...Sigh, this kind of method of going by the tail, no wonder the Divine Magi who have been in charge for several years have never returned. I really wonder what the situation under the Abyssal Sea is like...”

“However, it’s strange. There are clearly so many Divine Magi who can’t return, but they still continue to tirelessly run for the Divine Magi. It can only be said that... As expected, money was more attractive, right?”

The captain of the squad sighed, but he still interjected at the end.

But actually, I feel that this year’s Lord Akino might really be different from the other candidates in the past who only wanted fame and money. The Divine Wizard Selection has just started, but she has already gained such astonishing popularity. This is something that the previous candidates could not do.

“So, I believe that even though Lord Akino may have a money-making side, she must be sincere to those fans who support her!

“You don’t know, but her butler was unwilling to let go of the previous conflict. It’s all thanks to Miss Akino who spoke up. Otherwise, even if I wanted to protect that man, I would probably end up in prison with my family destroyed.

After getting to know more about the Daphne’s actions and the attitude of the people at the bottom of the Thousand Islands, they approached the office where Kondo Naosuke was.

After the squad leader sent someone in to inform them, he bowed to Liao Zixuan and the others, then quickly left and returned to his post.

Not long after...

“Lord Naosuke invites you in.” A new soldier led Liao Zixuan and the others through a few more carefully hidden corridors before finally arriving in front of a very remote house.

He pushed the door open and entered the room. It was a little dimly lit, but he could still see the young military officer sitting in the middle of the room. He had a familiar burly and tall figure.

Xia Qiuzi, who was beside Liao Zixuan, was a little nervous. She quietly moved closer to him. After all, the aura that this person brought was much more oppressive than the previous team leader.

“Tell me, why did you pretend to be Lord Keisuke’s retainer to see me?” Although the young military official was sitting with his back facing them, his words were shocking.

Kasumi Akiko panicked and became extremely nervous. Fortunately, Liao Zixuan, who was beside her, was prepared for this. His casual lie might be able to fool the squad leaders below, but it would be useless at the level of Kondo Naosuke.

However, for Liao Zixuan, he had already achieved his goal by allowing him to stand here and talk to the young military official.

“Before I explain, I wonder if you can lend me the ruler on the table.”

The ruler was a black square stone used to flatten paper in paperwork. Kondo Naosuke frowned at Liao Zixuan's unexpected words. He was obviously puzzled.

However, since the other party had said so, the young military official turned around and nodded at Liao Zixuan, indicating that he could borrow it at will. He wanted to see what Liao Zixuan wanted to do.

However, what happened next...

"Thank you."

Liao Zixuan smiled at the young military official, walked to the edge of the stage, picked up the ruler, and shook it slightly in his hand. It was indeed a military official's configuration. Whether it was the texture or the hardness, it was very high-grade, giving people a sense of solidity.

The paperweight was originally used to press paper. It required weight, and for the sake of aesthetics and convenience, it had to specially choose special stones with high internal density. As for the stone that Kondo Naosuke was using, it was probably the best among the high-grade stones. Liao Zixuan could even vaguely feel the reaction of the "rock element" inside.

Any stone had rock properties, but not necessarily rock elements. The people of Gui Li, who were under the God of Rock, might know better that a stone with rock elements attached to it was an existence comparable to a forged weapon.

Very good.

Liao Zixuan nodded in satisfaction and began to hold both sides of the ruler with both hands, then exerted a little force.

At first, neither Kondo Naosuke nor Kasumiko, who was accompanying him, could understand what Liao Zixuan was doing. Or rather, they understood his posture but could not understand it.

However, the crisp sound that rang out in the room immediately followed, as if the two of them had pressed the pause button.

Kacha...

Thump! Thump!

The two hands, one on the left and one on the right, brought the broken pieces of the ruler back to the table. Liao Zixuan looked at the stunned young military official and said again,

“Now, Lord Naosuke should believe that I have no ill intentions, right? Can we sit down and have a good talk about the future...To raid the enemy’s stronghold on White PluIsland?”