Chapter 521: Conspiracy (Part 2)

Kondo Naosuke's first reaction was to reach for the sword at his waist, but he quickly retracted it.

This was because the young military official was very rational. In the face of a monster that far surpassed him, unless it was a matter of life and death, pulling out his sword would only have the opposite effect.

Kondo Naosuke also had a piece of the stone used to make this ruler. He had tried to use his sword to slash at it with all his might, but he had only managed to leave a few marks on the stone. However, the unfamiliar young man before him had split his ruler into two with his bare hands...

Kondo Naosuke was very sure that he did not feel any mana fluctuations, which proved that he was relying purely on his physical body.

A monster.

These two words appeared in his heart.

Even his immediate superior, the Great Fuxi Court's top general, Lord Six Paths Robe, Kondo Naosuke, was certain that it was impossible for him to do what the young man did without using the lightning elemental magic.

One had to know that Lord Luo Sha had the bloodline of a "mutant", which meant that half of her body had the bloodline of a "demon". She already belonged to the type of human who was born with divine strength and endless strength.

Therefore, the young military official couldn't think of another word to describe the young man in front of him other than "monster."

To think that he had chosen to meet these two people with ulterior motives alone without fear because of his powerful martial arts. Now that he thought about it, Kondo Naosuke felt cold sweat on his back.

But fortunately...

It seemed that the other party did not have any malicious intentions. Moreover, after Kondo Naosuke recovered from Liao Zixuan's "convincing people with strength", he realized the second half of the sentence.

Bai Ling Island. Surprise attack..

This information shocked the young military official. It could be said that it was not inferior to the previous splitting of the ruler into two.

Phew...

Taking a deep breath, Kondo Naosuke calmed himself down.

"May I know your name?"

"You can call me Bai."

"Lord Bai, can you tell me how you know about White Plume Island?" Kondo Naosuke's question was very subtle and did not reveal anything. It was obvious that he was still trying to probe.

However, Liao Zixuan did not have the patience and time. He directly laid his cards on the table.

"Lord Naosuke, I think we only need to know one thing, and that is that we all have a common enemy, and... We all want the Thousand Islands to change the current situation.

“As long as it’s for this goal, it doesn’t matter who I am or how I know all this,

Military Officer Nian was silent for a while after hearing Liao Zixuan’s words. He seemed to be thinking and hesitating. He could not help but ask the last question.

“You have such powerful strength, why... You still want to find me?”

First of all, I need the exact information you have on White Plume Island. You must be the main force in this surprise attack, at least on the surface. I can only act secretly to help you wipe out the enemy’s high-level combat forces. As for the reason...’

“The person from the Moon Abyss Society is keeping a close eye on him. “Liao Zixuan didn’t say her name. Who knew if the blue-haired witch had any ability to sense when others mentioned her?”

“You... You mean!” Kondo Naosuke widened his eyes and finally stopped questioning.

“Since you’re not saying anything, I’ll take it that you’ve agreed. Now, tell me, how long will it take you to gather your men and carry out the operation at the stronghold on White Plume Island?”

“This... A week.” Kondo Naosuke pondered for a moment and gave this number.

However, Liao Zixuan frowned after hearing it.

One week...It was too long.

“Three days, three days. We’ll move together on White Plume Island. “He raised three fingers.

“Three...Three days? This is too hasty, really...”

“The reason why you dared to take such a huge risk and act on your own was to save your adopted sister Kaho, right? You should know that the longer you stay in that place, the higher the risk of your sister meeting with an accident.

“Before this, you could say that you weren’t confident, but now that I’m secretly helping you, the only thing you need to do is to quietly gather your men.

“Alright... !”

Liao Zixuan had struck the young military officer’s sore spot by starting with Xiang, forcing him to grit his teeth and make a decision.

The things that needed to be said were over. After getting the scroll containing the exact location of the stronghold from Kondo Naosuke, Liao Zixuan thought of something before he left. He stopped in his tracks and turned around to remind him,

I’ll give you one last piece of advice. Don’t even think about saving Kaho’s father from Prison Mountain. That old man has already lost his will to fight, just like most people from the Thousand Islands. This is also why I came to find you. Not everyone dares to fight against fate.

“Ming... Understood.”

But you don’t have to be discouraged. I believe that when we obtain strong evidence from the settlement, both them and the person from the Moon Abyss Society will change.

Liao Zixuan looked at the young military officer who was a little depressed and cheered him up a little.

“Yes! Therefore, he had to succeed this time! Then, I’ll have to ask Senior White to help me with this!”

Kondo Naosuke gave Liao Zixuan a very serious warrior salute. This was the most common way for the people of the Thousand Islands to express their respect.

Liao Zixuan nodded and continued to walk out, ready to leave.

However...

“Stop looking, let’s go!” Liao Zixuan glared at Xia Qiuzi, who was still looking at the ruler that he had split into two.

During their conversation, she even secretly touched it with her hand and bit the ruler with her silver teeth to confirm whether it was real or fake and whether it was some kind of performance prop..

Chapter 522: Conspiracy (Part 2)

The hardness of her teeth and the pain that almost knocked her teeth out proved to Kasumi Akiko that this was indeed a real stone.

Kasumi Akiko woke up from a dream when she heard Liao Zixuan’s voice. She quickly followed behind him and the two of them left Kondo Naosuke’s secret room.

After they left, the pressure on the young military official who was still holding on a moment ago finally lessened. He bent his back a little and let out a few long breaths.

After that, Kondo Naosuke did the same thing as Kasumi Akiko. Even as the owner of the ruler, he became suspicious. However, the result was the same. He used all his strength, but he did not see any movement from the ruler.

“Sigh...”

This sigh could be because he was unwilling to accept the blow to his strength, or it could also be because he felt a little heartache for his broken ruler. This was a masterpiece that he had imported from Gui Li.

Speaking of Gui Li...

The news of the Astorokis' return was huge. As a high-ranking official of the Grand Fudge, Kondo Naosuke naturally paid special attention to it and participated in the investigation. He knew a lot of information.

He seemed to have seen a document that was to be handed over to the Palace Minister. It said that the "Qilin Pavilion", one of the five elements of Gui Li, attached great importance to the Astorokis's disaster. It even reached the point of sending a diplomatic envoy.

At first, the young military official suspected that there was some big shot on the ship who had returned. However, based on today's return trip, other than a merchant, there seemed to be no other people who had returned...

No! Wait a minute!

Suddenly, an idea flashed across Kondo Naosuke's mind.

The Gui Li people and the people of the Thousand Islands looked very similar, and it was impossible to tell them apart just by looking at their appearances. Could it be that Senior White, who had suddenly appeared, was also a passenger on the Astorokis?

If he calculated the time, it just happened to be right!

Moreover...

Kondo Naosuke quickly found a document of the passengers on the ship that he had been investigating. As expected, the person with Lord Bai was one of them.

No wonder...

Kondo Naosuke suddenly felt that he had seen a corner of the fog.

According to the society, the Astorokis had encountered the legendary deep-sea serpent, but now it had miraculously returned safely...That's right! Other than Senior White, Naoto Naosuke couldn't find any other reason to get close.

So... The person that the Qilin Pavilion was really looking for was Senior White?

To be able to make Gui Li Wuxing pay so much attention to him, not hesitating to engage in international diplomacy, coupled with his terrifying strength, Kondo Naosuke's eyes lit up! Two words flashed across his mind!

This time, it was no longer a 'monster', but...

Immortals!

He had long heard of the immortals of Gui Li. Legend had it that some could fly into the sky and some could control swords. The immortals were extremely mysterious and their cultivation techniques were unique in the world. They were divided into many realms. He did not expect that he would be able to witness it with his own eyes today...

Ah! Damn it!

At first, he had thought of Senior White as a monster!

It was too rude! After this matter is over, I must apologize again!

Kondo Naosuke was extremely angry and regretful.

After some brainstorming, Liao Zixuan's loyalty to the young military official was completely maxed out. Kondo Naosuke no longer had any concerns. After pondering for a moment, he quickly walked out of the secret room.

Three days...

Although he was nervous, he had secretly transferred a group of soldiers to White Plume Island in the name of changing positions. This way, it was not easy to be discovered, but...

I don't care anymore, let's fight!

Kondo Naosuke was ready to give it his all. He could tell that Liao Zixuan's attitude was that the sooner the better. He would do it to the end and not be afraid of being exposed. He was prepared to prepare the ship now and inform the soldiers, and then tomorrow night...

He directly led his troops and traveled by boat overnight!

They could either take down the enemy's stronghold in one fell swoop, or...The next morning, a large number of soldiers were found missing and arrested.

Originally, he had planned to leave without returning, and his selfish motives were even greater. His main goal was to rescue Kaho and send her out of the Thousand Islands.

But now...

Perhaps, he could really...Change the Thousand Islands!

"You heard the conversation in the room. I'm going to White Wing Island soon.

I can't take you with me because the method is very special. "

After coming out of the Great Fuxing Hall, Liao Zixuan said goodbye to Xia Qiuzi beside him.

He thought that it would take a lot of persuasion, but unexpectedly, Kasumiakko obediently nodded.

“Alright, Bai Xian...Senior White, even if you were to take me there, White Feather Island would still take more than half a day by boat. I still have relatives waiting for me at the Moon Abyss Island, so I can't go too far.

After such a big accident happened on the Astorokis, it was not easy for them to get off the ship. It turned out that someone at home missed them and did not hurry home to report their safety. Instead, they were running around with him...

Xia Qiuzi also understood what Liao Zixuan meant. She scratched her head awkwardly and explained,

“Senior White, it's fine. My sister is the only one at home, and she's the one who makes fireworks. It's going to be the Divine Wizard election soon, so she's probably busy every day. It's fine if I go back a little late!”

Unfortunately, after his explanation, he only received a glare from Liao Zixuan.

“Then, then I'll leave! I'm going home now!” Xia Qiuzi shrunk her neck and quickly waved goodbye before turning around to leave.

However, before she left, she still mustered up her courage and said to Liao Zixuan very seriously, “Senior White! I sincerely wish you all the best in martial arts! I hope that the real-life model of this novel can have a perfect ending, so... So I will wait for the official news!

Xia Qiuzi ran away after she finished speaking, while Liao Zixuan shook his head. To have a recorder...It wasn't that bad. After the Players descended, it could be considered as a means of publicity?

Liao Zixuan seemed to understand why the snake would retain some of Kasumi Akiko's memories about the “ cycle “.

Then...

Liao Zixuan returned to his wolf cub mentality and sent a telepathic message to Vivian. Although White Plume Island was half a day away from Moon Abyss Island, just as Kasumiko had said, it was still a long boat ride.

However, at this distance, the little girl could still teleport her Summoned Beast back to her side.

This was also a special method mentioned by Liao Zixuan.

Soon, he established contact with Vivian, which showed the efficiency of Liao Zixuan's decision. After he was done, the little girl arrived at White-feathered Island by boat.

With a flash of white light, the wolf cub's figure disappeared on the spot.

When he reappeared...

The first thing that caught the wolf cub's attention was the thick smell of herbs. When the wolf cub opened its eyes, it found itself in a small straw hut.

"I'm sorry, Xiao Hei. Wait a moment. I'm a little busy here..."

In the hut, Vivian did not look at her cub immediately, which was rare. Instead, she was in a room that should be similar to a kitchen, focusing on cooking a clay pot.

Steam was rising from the clay pot. The thick medicinal smell that the wolf cubs had smelled earlier came from here.

Fortunately, the astrological girl, Mei Ji, was also in the room, acting as a temporary wolf crawl. After she picked up the wolf cub, she whispered into his ear and explained.

“Blackie, we found a village nearby according to the general location on the map of White Plume Island. Vivian said that she wanted to get some information, but she found that many people in the village were sick.

Strange illness...

That’s right! In the performance of the candidate for the Divine Wizard, the man who rushed onto the stage seemed to be a resident of White Plume Island. He had also mentioned the strange disease.

The wolf cub frowned. Judging from Vivian and Maggie’s current state, the illness might not be so simple.

After that, Vivian wiped the sweat off her forehead. After the herbs were finally cooked, she said to the wolf cubs worriedly,”

“Xiao Hei, do you still remember that when we met in the forest, I was picking herbs to treat my brother?”

coma De...

Vivian nodded at the wolf cub’s thoughtful look.

“The illness in this village is very similar to my brother’s symptoms at that time, so I suspect that it’s also...Fallen Abyss!”

Chapter 523: White-feathered Island

Vivian and the rest carried the medicine and headed to the victim’s house. As soon as they entered the house, they heard murmurs.

“Akino...Lord Akino...

The voice came from the bedroom. A young man was lying on the bed in a semi-conscious state. There was a cold towel on his head. Although he was unconscious because of his high fever, his mouth was low as if he was talking in his sleep.

Standing by the bed was an elderly woman, who should be his mother. When she saw her son in this state, she was anxious, but other than taking care of him, there was nothing she could do.

When footsteps sounded outside the door and the mother saw the little girl coming in with hot medicine, she immediately went up to her with tears on her face. After thanking her profusely, she hurriedly gave the herbs that Vivian handed over to her child on the bed.

After a while, the effect was immediate. Soon, the young man's muttering on the bed disappeared, and his breathing was much more stable than before. The red face from the high fever finally faded a little.

Her mother was so excited that she almost knelt down in front of Vivian and the others. After the little girl waved her hand repeatedly, she calmed down a little and sent Vivian and the others away.

"Xiao Hei, you should have noticed that the medicinal herb I brewed earlier used a small amount of Purple Crystal Grass as the base. I was originally just trying it out...They didn't expect it to be effective on their illnesses.

After leaving the house, Vivian discussed with the wolf cubs in a serious manner. The little girl also noticed another detail.

" There have been seven or eight cases of the disease in this village, and most of them are young men. According to their parents, they all got it after buying a new drink from White Plume Island. The symptoms are very similar. They all have high fevers and keep talking about a girl from the Thousand Islands.

" The locals say that the girl named Akino is the most popular candidate for the upcoming Divine Wizard Selection in the Thousand-island Region. If that's the case, it might not be a big deal. When people are sick and weak, it's not surprising that they will subconsciously call out the person they rely on, but... The child from our family just now was not a fan of Miss Akino. He did not even know who Akino was. He did not care about the selection of the Divine Wizard. He only bought the drink and drank it under the strong recommendation of his friend.

“In the end... After she fell sick, she actually started to recite Akino-san’s name, so... Xiao Hei, I feel that the Fallen Abyss on the body of the group is similar to the one in our Flame Domain...Different?”

Unknowingly, it was Vivian’s turn to reason, which made the wolf cub ponder.

He carefully recalled the main storyline of the Fallen Abyss on the Thousand Islands in the game in his previous life. If he had to say that it was clearly different from the Flame Domain, there was indeed a difference!

From their previous experience, they could tell that the most powerful ability of the Fallen Abyss in the Flame Domain was that it had the same ability as the zombie virus. It had extremely strong infection and corrosive power. For example, if a monster infected the Fallen Abyss in the Forest of Horror Claw, it was possible that in a few days, all the living beings in the entire forest would be infected.

Xue Li was infected by the Fallen Abyss because she was bitten by the Fallen Abyss creatures when she was purifying the wolves.

However, in Liao Zixuan’s memory, the Fallen Abyss Army of the Thousand Islands did not have this ability. Even if they were injured by an attack, they would not say that they were mutated and infected.

Or rather...

In the Thousand Islands ‘Fallen Abyss, there was no such thing as an “ army ” to begin with. The Fallen Abyss Boss that players mainly faced was the Rotten Yamata no Orochi.

The Flame Domain’s Fallen Abyss was the quantity of the quantity of the universe, while the Thousand Islands ‘Fallen Abyss was the quality.

In the game forum in her previous life, some Fallen Scholars had actually put forward a similar point of view to Vivian's, that is, the Fallen Abyss also had categories, and even... The purpose of the game

Liao Zixuan still remembered the post that he had accidentally browsed. The Fallen Scholar had defined the Fallen Abyss of the Flame Domain as the responsibility of a "production site", which was...Unending, responsible for the production volume

And the Fallen Abyss of the Thousand Islands was defined as...

Brainwashing.

At that time, Liao Zixuan and most of the players didn't really care about this. They only knew that Fallen Abyss was the villain in the game, so the post quickly sank to the bottom.

But now that Vivian suddenly mentioned it...

The current Liao Zixuan had personally come into contact with the Fire God and the Water God.

The Fire God was a tumor-shaped Fallen Abyss monster that looked like a Zerg mother in the future...Indeed, it was in line with the concept of governing the country of the Fire God. It was to take care of the child meticulously like a mother, even to the extent of turning the entire Flame Domain into a low-level demon to prevent internal strife.

And the Water God before him...Stubbornly pursuing the so-called fate was a firm belief, but from another perspective, was excessive stubbornness also a kind of...Brainwash?

"Maybe I'm thinking too much, Xiao Hei..." Vivian shook her head. "How can there be more than one Fallen Abyss?"

The little girl consoled herself, but the little wolf cub could see fear in the depths of Vivian's eyes. Because the Fallen Abyss of the Flame Domain was enough to make people afraid, but if you said it, it was just a branch of the Fallen Abyss tree...

Just thinking about it made one shudder, so the little girl subconsciously chose to avoid it.

“Divine Magus! Lord Divine Wizard, so you’re here! “A shout came from a middle-aged man not far away..

Chapter 524: White-feathered Island

“Mr. Village Chief, I-I’m not a Divine Wizard yet...I haven’t even gotten the qualifications to be a candidate, so you can just call me Vivian.”

From Vivian’s conversation, he could tell that the middle-aged man with deep wrinkles on his forehead was the village chief. He must have heard that the little girl had treated the family just now and rushed over.

“Lady Vivian, we don’t care about this. It was you who saved many people in our village with your brilliant medical skills. You, you are the Lord Wizard in our hearts!

The village chief said as he took a bag from a villager beside him. He wanted to give it to Vivian.

“Lord Divine Wizard, this is a small thank you gift that we have put together.

Please accept it, although it is not much...But it’s also our sincerity!”

Of course, Vivian would not accept it. After a few excuses, the village chief finally gave up.

“Mr. Village Chief, the most important thing now is to tell the villagers as soon as possible not to buy that problematic drink again. If possible, I hope you can send one or two to take me to see where this drink is sold.

Sigh, Lord Divine Wizard, you might not know this, but after the village fell ill, those profiteers all moved away. Now, we don't know where they've gone. We only know that they're the products of the so-called Divine Wizard candidates.

The village chief was very angry when he said this, and his face was filled with anger.

"The candidate for the Divine Wizard, Akino Sugaya, used some kind of sorcery. Not only in our village, but many young men in the surrounding villages are also infatuated with her, as if they are all possessed!"

"They go to buy that drink on time every day. Some even buy a lot at once. Even if they can't finish it and throw it away, they still want to continue buying it.

What do you mean by supporting Lord Akino!"

'I was curious, so I bought a cup and tried it. Although the taste is indeed a little unique, it's not to the point where I can't forget to leave. So I really don't understand. The young people these days, and Thousand Islands...What's going on?!"

The more he spoke, the more he sighed. The village chief seemed to have aged many years, but Vivian looked surprised. She quickly asked,"

"Eh? Mr. Village Chief, have you drunk that drink before?"

"That's right! I understand what you mean, Lady Vivian. This is also what we are troubled about. Not everyone will get that strange disease after drinking it. At present, only a small number of people have such symptoms. That is why when we went to the local survey to complain and request for a thorough investigation, it was ineffective.

The village chief's face darkened as he spoke. He could more or less see that Vivian was concerned about this matter. She was trying to explain to her benefactor, but she also hoped that someone could change the situation. The village chief told the little girl everything.

“Actually, there are also rumors that those profiteers have already bribed the local three officials. If any village dares to complain and report it, they will attract revenge behind their backs.”

“At first, we didn’t believe it. Sanxing served Lord Gong Si. How could he be taken advantage of by a traitor? But who knew..At first, it was Muyu Village. After the only female doctor in the village discovered the danger of this illness, she began to persuade and resist it. In the end, it wasn’t long before she was taken away by the people who practiced the great ceremony, saying that she was the candidate for the Divine Wizard chosen by Lord Gong Si! ”

‘ Next up is a foreign mine next door. It’s said that the boss is a businessman. They ordered a ban because some of their employees fell sick because of it, but in the end... “It might have only been a week, but the people in charge of the survey seized the factory on the grounds that it was a safety hazard. Not only did they cause the merchant boss to suffer heavy losses, but they also caused many people in the surrounding villages to lose their jobs!

” The White Plume Island got its name because it is rich in a kind of ore called White Plume Stone. The biggest feature of this ore is that it is very stable and will not interact with any elemental magic power. It is one of the main raw materials for producing a kind of magic sealing handcuffs that are widely used in prisons. No accidents have ever happened after many years of mining. The village chief clenched his fists, and his hunchbacked body trembled faintly.

“After these two things spread, no one dared to openly boycott the other party.

However, we are not just going to be trampled on like this! If the local Sanfeng

Sect is corrupt, then we’ll go to the Moon Abyss Island! That’s where Gong Si is. Go there and think of a way to report the situation! Calculating the time...They should be arriving soon. Sigh, I hope Wu Ping can go smoothly.

The little wolf cub in Mei Ji’s arms did not expect that he would actually be able to connect the line here. The Wu Ping that the village chief was talking about should be the man who rushed onto the stage during Akino Sugaya’s performance.

Unfortunately...

Looking at the village chief's expectant expression, the little wolf cub thought for a moment and did not reveal the fact that the man had already been captured and almost went to jail.

"Lord Divine Wizard, we're really grateful that you've done so much for our village. However, before Wu Ping returns, we don't dare to resist them on our own. What if they also target our village..." So, I don't know if it's good or bad. Because there are more cases in our village, they might be afraid, so they took the initiative to move away first.

"I know you're kind and you're a Divine Magus of White Wing Island, just like the female doctor from that village. But you...you must be careful. Don't be targeted by them! Once you're labeled as a "candidate", they'll capture you and send you to God knows where!"

After the exchange with the village chief, Vivian finally realized what the young military officer had told them in the last "cycle". The chaos that was happening in the Thousand Islands due to the "selection of the Wizard of Gods

The nobles in the Flame Domain did not dare to snatch women openly because they were restricted by the Knight Regiment and the Fire God Cult. Most of them were bought as "servants". However, in the Thousand Islands, they only needed to use a "candidate" document to snatch women from the common people without any scruples. This was too...

"Mr. Village Chief, don't worry. I'm very strong, and...I promise you that soon, whether it's these evildoers on White Plume Island or the entire Thousand Islands, I'll...Bring him to justice!"

Vivian's eyes were firm. The little girl before might have only wanted to get the title of "Divine Witch" as soon as possible, but now, she wanted to save the people of Thousand Islands who were suffering and oppressed.

Or rather, when a real...The title of Divine Wizard was not just a pass to the Abyssal Sea.

Mei Ji's eyes were filled with admiration for this little girl. If she looked deeper, she would find that there were a few traces of confusion. It was only after the little wolf cub in the girl's arms patted her with its paw to remind her that she quickly came back to her senses with a red face.

The little wolf cub then told Vivian about his situation in the Moon Abyss Island. According to the detailed map that he had obtained from Kondo Naosuke, he found a hidden village stronghold on White Plume Island.

In order not to alert the enemy, the little wolf cub simply groped around and returned. He began to temporarily stay with the little girl in the nearby village, waiting for the meeting with the young military official three days later.

However, on the night of the second day, a red light flew into the night sky and disappeared very quickly. The little wolf cub in the room sensed it and quickly opened its eyes, revealing a surprised expression.

Then he immediately called Vivian and Meggie and headed for a waterway at the foot of the forest.

When they arrived at the appointed place, a familiar burly man stood under the moonlight. It was the young military official of the Grand Fuku Order, Kondo Naosuke.

The little wolf cub continued to look back. Behind the military officers, civilian boats were slowly approaching the shore. Three to four hundred soldiers quietly landed in the night and arrived near the stronghold of White Plume Island.

It was obvious that not only had Kondo Naosuke arrived two days earlier than planned, but he had also mobilized all the men he could from Deep Moon Island!

Chapter 525: Farm 47

Farm No. 47

In the warehouse.

It was supposed to be a place to store goods, but now it had been transformed into the residence of 30 to 40 girls. There were no lights or torches. Only with the faint moonlight shining through the window could one see the girls wrapped tightly in thin blankets on the bunks that looked like concentration camps.

“Sister Eri, it hurts...” Two of the beds were empty. Looking closely, two girls were sitting under the window where the moonlight was the brightest.

They were all dressed in simple linen clothes, even more shabby than Vivian in the countryside. The older ones were carefully pushing away the backs of their companions.

Under the moonlight, the fair back of a young girl who was supposed to be in her prime was now covered in large bruises.

Even though the older girl’s movements were already very gentle, when she accidentally touched it, her companion still whimpered in pain.

.. Those bastards!” The source of the bruise was the frequent violent beatings. As a pharmacist, Eri could tell at a glance that she gritted her teeth and let out an angry voice.

But soon, she took out some herbs that she had secretly picked near the manor from a small cloth bag.

‘ Endure, endure, endure, and persevere for a while. After applying the medicine, it will be much better.” “Eri comforted her companion while putting the herb in her mouth.

She didn’t have any medicine tools at hand, so she could only use the most primitive method. She used her teeth and saliva to mix the herbs, and finally formed an ointment to apply to her companion’s wound.

“Thank... Thank you, Sister Eri...” When the simple ointment was applied, a cool feeling immediately came from his back, greatly relieving the burning pain.

From this, it could be seen how amazing the female apothecary was. Even in such a difficult environment, she could still use the limited resources at hand to treat patients and save people.

Ever since Eri's sister came, everyone's torturous life seemed to have a bit of a breather. The young girl wanted to express her gratitude, but as she spoke, it turned into sobbing.

"Sob... Sister Eri, we... Can we still go out? I, I don't want to be a wizard anymore, I... I just want to go back. I miss home so much. I miss my mother, I miss my father..."

"It's okay, it's okay." Eri's heart ached for the girl, and she held the crying girl in her arms.

"We will definitely get out of here."

Even if she didn't believe it herself, Eri had to hold back her words in order to comfort her. However, she knew better than anyone else the cruel truth and shady dealings here.

They had captured beautiful women from the common people under the pretext of being the candidates for the Divine Wizard, or, like her, they had been accused of causing trouble in the Divine Wizard election because they had boycotted drinks that could cause strange diseases. They had been imprisoned in a secret manor on White Plume Island.

After nearly a month of observation, Eri had gradually figured out the nature of the manor. At first, she thought that profiteers were colluding with the local Sanshang of Baengnyeong Island to cause trouble, but the more she learned, the more frightened she became.

Eri realized that they seemed to be treated as a kind of commodity, and a portion of them would be taken out regularly and sent to an unknown place.

During the waiting time of the "delivery", they would not let them off. Every day, they would be assigned a lot of labor work in the manor.

This manor did not employ many servants because they were the best free laborers.

Whether it was the guards or the people in the manor, they were all bullied in various ways. It was even better to be beaten and scolded like this. What was worse was being called out alone in the middle of the night..

Eri's medical skills could only treat the physical body, but she had no way to treat mental illnesses. Almost every girl who was called away alone would return after a few days. The various traces on their bodies were unimaginable.

It was difficult to imagine what kind of perverted torture they had experienced.

Most of the girls would become like walking corpses, their eyes losing their luster. Some of them would choose to end their lives on the night after they returned.

Eri was still hopeful that there would be other people on the Thousand Islands and that Gong Si would notice the complete darkness on White Plume Island.

In the end, it wasn't until a young girl named " Kaho " was also detained and sent here that Eri felt as if the sky had collapsed. She also realized just how far the evil claws of these dark forces had reached.

Perhaps the other young girls who had been captured didn't know this, but Eri knew that this Kaho was the daughter of an extremely prestigious doyen in the Kanda-samurai.

Even the daughter of such a big shot had fallen to such a state. Eri did not dare to imagine how powerful the other party was in the Thousand Islands.

What made her even more desperate was last night.

Kaho had been called out by someone in the manor alone that night, and she had yet to return today.

"Lord Gong Si...You... Have you abandoned us..."

Looking up at the cold iron window of the warehouse that looked like a prison, the female apothecary faced the bright and beautiful moon in the night sky. In the cold and humid warehouse, she prayed in a hoarse voice.

Perhaps God had not abandoned her.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps came from outside the window. A few minutes later, the locked back door of the warehouse creaked open.

Eri initially thought that those bastards were here to "call people alone" again, but she thought that was not right. Those people had always been big and unrestrained, and they came directly from the front door..

Chapter 526: Farm 47 (2)

But now, not only were the footsteps sneaky, but they were also coming in and out from the back door.

Could it be that...

A certain possibility popped up in Eri's mind. It was the impossible hope that she had been praying for. Her heart began to beat rapidly, and her eyes stared at the slightly closed back door.

Finally, the figure flashed in under the cover of the night. The shadow in the darkness looked around the warehouse as if it was looking for something. Naturally, the female pharmacist was the most eye-catching under the moonlight window. Their eyes met.

The moment their gazes met, Eri's hope felt as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over her from head to toe. Although she did not see his face clearly, she was very familiar with that gaze.

It was filled with malice and desire. It used evil and obscene eyes to scan their bodies. This was what the guards in the manor often did.

At this moment, the black shadow's gaze gave Eri the same feeling.

On the other side, the other party seemed to be overjoyed after facing Eri. After the black shadow rushed over, as the distance between them shortened, Eri guessed correctly. She recognized the other party. He was a guard captain in charge of the warehouse. He often harassed her in private.

The man did not say anything else. He grabbed the female pharmacist's hand and began to pull her out.

"You! What are you doing! Let go of Sister Eri! The young girl who had been saved by the female apothecary wanted to stop him, but she was kicked down by the man.

Originally, the girls in the warehouse were starving every day. They were also arranged with heavy work. In the face of a strong guard captain, they were almost powerless.

"Woo... Wuuuu..." Eri knew what would happen if she was taken away. She struggled desperately and wanted to shout.

She noticed that it was different from those who were called out alone. The other party probably did not have enough status and did not have permission to do so in private.

However, the man lowered his voice and said fiercely in her ear,

"Don't scream! You'll be sent away by those people to be experimented on tomorrow, but if you let me have my fun tonight...Maybe I'll let you out when I'm in a good mood!

As the captain of the squad, he had been drooling over the female apothecary for a long time. However, as Eri had expected, even though he was the captain of the guard squad, he could still beat and scold them, but he could not really play with these women. This was something that only the rich could afford.

Other than selling them to rich people, these girls had another use, which was to be sent underground for secret experiments. The man did not know what he was doing, but from his voice, it was obvious that he was in pain and every one of them came out alive.

It was precisely because he knew that this female pharmacist was on the next batch of experimental list that the man's evil intentions were aroused. He decided that since he was going to die anyway, it would be a pity if he did not make good use of her before he died.

As for releasing the female apothecary...

That was naturally his lie. How could he do such a stupid thing? If they really investigated, he would definitely not be able to escape.

"Wu..." Eri's voice gradually faded.

The female apothecary knew all this, but she had no other choice. Even if she knew that the man had a 99% chance, he would not let her go, but...What if?

Just like that, Eri no longer resisted. After being violently taken away by the man, she disappeared from the warehouse. As for the other girls, they hid on the bed and trembled in fear. Their wills were already extremely weak, and they knew that they were weak and powerless.

The guard captain's room wasn't far from here. Eri, whose face was ashen, was quickly brought in by the man and locked the door.

He couldn't wait to throw Eri onto the bed. Looking at the female apothecary's voluptuous body, the man panted heavily, his eyes filled with excitement.

Eri, who was lying on the bed, knew what was going to happen next. She lay there like a puppet with a broken string, her lifeless eyes looking at the lower part of the bed.

However, it was just this glance that made her eyes suddenly fluctuate.

Because from her perspective, she realized that on the ground at the edge of the bed, there was a...Little wolf cubs?

Eri suddenly remembered a fairy tale her mother told her when she was young. The female apothecary could not remember the exact content, but it was probably that when the heroine was in a desperate situation, some objects of fate would appear. The moment you saw them, the entire world would turn upside down.

She had stopped reading fairy tales like this since she was 18 years old, because she knew that reality would never exist.

But today, the female apothecary knew that fairy tales...Perhaps it was not fake.

This little wolf cub was the so-called object of fate. From the moment he saw it, the world had changed.

“Who is it? Ah!”

“Hey, why are you. .Ah!”

“If it’s not good, it’s an enemy...Enemy attack!”

“Get up quickly, don’t sleep anymore! Hurry up and get up!”

At first, there were one or two shouts, but in the span of a few breaths, the entire manor became extremely noisy and chaotic.

All kinds of footsteps were running back and forth in a hurry. The red fire cut through the dark night and lit up the entire manor.

The captain of the guards, who had been facing the female apothecary that he had secretly brought out with great difficulty and was about to unleash his bestial nature, was also hurriedly knocked open by the soldiers.

“Bastard! Who let you in!” The man was furious. This time, his theft was going to be exposed.

However, it was obvious that the man was not aware of the seriousness of the problem.

“Team... Captain! A large group of warriors had entered the villa! “The soldier had long forgotten about the woman on his captain’s bed, who was trembling in fear of reporting.

“A large number of warriors? Tell me clearly!”

The man’s expression froze. Before he could react, the next soldier ran in, rolling and crawling.

“Captain, captain, it’s the people from the Grand Fuxiu. They’re all elites, all elites, we... We can’t defend it at all!”

“Impossible!” The man found it hard to believe. “ The local San-Shang is already one of us. How could..

“Captain, I... I don’t think their equipment and formation are from our White

Plume Island. Captain, do you think it’s...Someone from the Moon Abyss

Island?”

The guards of the manor had a guilty conscience, and their faces paled when they heard the name of the island.

“I know! You guys quickly go to the front and continue to hold them off. You definitely can’t let them break through! I... I’m going to find the boss. What are you guys waiting for? Go!

The man forced himself to remain calm. After chasing away a few panicked subordinates and guards, he only revealed panic and fear when he was alone.

Coincidentally, at this time, he had been listening to the entire conversation in bed. In addition to the chaos outside the manor, it should be a fact.

It was really...Someone had really come to save them!

"It's Lord Gong Si...I knew it...I knew Lord Gong Si hadn't abandoned us!" Eri, the female apothecary, cried tears of joy. She kept muttering under her lips. Her originally despairing and ashen face saw life again.

However, Eri was so excited that she had obviously forgotten that she was still in danger.

"Humph! What are you shouting for, you b * tch! No one can save you now. Do you think you can escape? I'm going to kill you now..."

The man approached Eri angrily, his hands in a strangle-grip position. He had lost all will to resist when he learned that it was the Grand Priest from Lunar Abyss Island. He wanted to knock the female apothecary unconscious and escape with her in the chaos.

"No, no, no. Don't come over, get lost!" At first, there was no hope if she did not resist, but now that she was about to be rescued, Eri struggled and shouted desperately.

"Is there anyone who can save...Help!"

"No one will come even if you scream your lungs out. Just follow me obediently!"

The female apothecary watched helplessly as the man's large hand came for her neck. It only took a few seconds for her to suffocate and faint. Eri was once again shrouded in dark clouds of despair.

'Why...' 'Why...' Clearly, the hope was...

“Hey.” The room rang with the sighs of the three parties.

Immediately after, Eri saw the figure of a young man suddenly appear behind the squad leader. What followed next seemed to be the troubled voice of the young man?

“I was wondering if you guys couldn’t think of any other lines.. Next time, can you let your broken throat rest for a while?”

Chapter 527: A Perfect... Ending?_I

He casually threw the unconscious leader of the small team to the side. Liao Zi shook his head. He thought that this was a secret base, so there would be some guards. However, from the looks of it, it was just a bunch of stinky fish. When they found out that it was the big Fuke from Moon Abyss Island, they didn’t even have the thought of resisting. They were all running away in defeat.

Just as he was about to step out of the door to look for his next target, Liao Zixuan remembered that there seemed to be a girl in the room. After he stopped, he turned around and said to the dazed female pharmacist on the bed,

“After you go out, run down the mountain. You should soon meet the warriors of the Grand Fuxing. After explaining the situation to them, they will protect you. We’re safe now.”

“Oh, that’s right. You said that Lord Gong Si didn’t abandon you guys just now...”But I’m sorry, there’s no imperial decree for this matter. It’s better to say that we took the risk of being punished by your Lord Gong Si to force it.

Liao Zixuan was about to go out after he finished speaking, but Eri seemed to have finally woken up from her daze. The female pharmacist ran down from the bed in a panic and shouted loudly to stop Liao Zixuan.

“Wait! Wait a minute!”

“Hmm?”

“Beg... Please save those children! In the warehouse at the back of the mountain! I once secretly heard the boss of the game tell the guards that if there was an accident, they should go immediately...Set fire to the children in the warehouse!”

After Eri came back from her great joy, she immediately revealed an anxious expression. They were all evidence of the crime. Naturally, when the matter was exposed, they would be the first to be destroyed.

Now that the villa had almost completely fallen, it was impossible for the warehouse to not notice such a big motive. The guards would definitely choose to trigger the fire explosion array under the warehouse immediately. At that time...

“So it’s like this...” But then again, are you one of the candidates who were captured? “Liao Zixuan nodded slowly as if he understood.

Eri, on the other hand, was anxious. Although the young man opposite her was her benefactor, but...

“Don’t worry, our main target is you guys. How can we leave you guys alone? My companions have already gone to the warehouse. “Before the female pharmacist could speak again, Liao Zixuan took the lead to explain.

“Calculating the time...It should be about time for me to be able to get out, right?”

As soon as the young man finished speaking, a loud rumble came from the direction of the warehouse. The soaring fire snake was about to devour the entire warehouse. Eri’s heart almost jumped out of her chest at this scene.

However, the next moment that followed, a crystal clear blue water screen was extremely eye-catching in the night and the flames. It directly enveloped the flames that were about to wreak havoc around the warehouse.

Although Eri couldn't see the scene clearly due to the distance, she could still see that under the protection of the water curtain, the flames that originally lit up the night were extinguished one by one, and the warehouse returned to darkness.

"Are you relieved now?"

In the plan that Liao Zixuan and Kondo Naosuke had agreed on, they would split into three groups. The young military official would lead most of his warriors and attack from the front. He would sneak into the manor and look for the leader. As for Vivian and the astrologer girl, they would also lead a small group of warriors to protect the imprisoned girls in the warehouse.

The water curtain just now was not created by Vivian. The little girl had a sharp sword hanging over her head, so she did not dare to use magic easily, but Merji did not have such a restriction.

This astrologer girl, whose presence had suddenly become a little low ever since she got off the Astorokis, was finally useful now.

"Thank... Wuuuu... Thank you..." Thousands of words finally converged into two words. The female pharmacist choked up and knelt on the ground with weak legs.

"I know you're very emotional now... But could you do me another favor? You mentioned earlier that... Boss? Can you tell me where he is in the villa?"

Liao Zixuan had simply figured out the general structure of the manor yesterday, but he didn't go into the specific rooms in the villa.

His words seemed to have suddenly awakened Eri. The female apothecary immediately said,

"Yes! Sir, there's one more! I recognize that child as the daughter of a big shot in the investigation. She was brought to the inner part of the villa last night. If it's now...There should still be time!"

The daughter Eri was talking about was Kaho. After anxiously looking around, she picked up a sharp stone from her feet and used the method of drawing on the ground to tell Liao Zixuan where her " boss " was located.

"Thank you for your hard work. I'll leave the rest to..."

Before Liao Zixuan could finish his words, a dazzling purple lightning bolt streaked across the dark night sky, followed by the sound of thunder. In an instant, it drowned out all the sounds of fighting in the manor.

Eri was frightened by the sudden thunder, which could be said to be the situation of most people in the villa. Liao Zixuan frowned and looked at the gradually fading purple thunder shadow. He thought it was bad.

Liao Zixuan was no longer a stranger to the owner of the purple lightning. At the same time, Vivian and Vivian, who were freeing the girls from the warehouse prison, were also shocked..

Chapter 528: A Perfect... Ending?_2

"Difficult... Could it be Luo...Lord Luo Sha? Why is Lord Luo Sha here..." Some of the samurai that Kondo Naosuke had brought with him looked in the direction of Thunder in shock.

The young military official who was commanding the front line, Kondo Naosuke, was also stunned by the thunder. However, he quickly gritted his teeth and ordered the samurai not to think too much and to take down the villa as soon as possible.

Or...Had he underestimated the intelligence gathering abilities of Roshal?

Or perhaps, she had always paid special attention to Naosuke?

Liao Zixuan was actually prepared for this. After all, from the week's experience, the young military official's every move was tightly controlled by the Six Paths Luo Sha.

However, what he did not expect was that Luo Sha could really come so quickly every time. It was simply the same as them.

However...

Liao Zixuan carefully checked the map drawn by the female pharmacist on the ground and the place where the purple lightning flashed. Then, his originally furrowed brows quickly relaxed and the smile on the corner of his mouth slowly rose.

It seemed that this time...

He had made the right bet.

“Alright, it seems that there’s no need for me. Someone is impatient. “Liao Zixuan shook his head and prepared to bring the female pharmacist back to meet up with Kondo Naosuke.

Although Eri was still in a daze and did not know what had happened, she could vaguely feel that it had something to do with the purple lightning just now.

“Ah, right, please help me with a small favor...’

As Liao Zixuan spoke, his body shape rapidly changed. In the blink of an eye, he transformed from a handsome young man into a black wolf cub in front of the dumbfounded Eri.

Then, without giving the female Apothecary time to react, the wolf cub jumped up and very skillfully jumped onto his temporary passerby wolf climbing frame. After that, he directed Eri to walk towards the agreed gathering place.

Although Vivian had retained her memories, the little girl already knew the identity of White. However, the wolf cub’s stubborn heart made him unwilling to accept the fact that his disguise was exposed. He still insisted on appearing as a wolf cub... To put it bluntly, Liao Zixuan did not know how to face Vivian, and the little girl did not seem to have exposed it. After all, they were still deep in the whirlpool and had no time to think about it, so both sides tacitly ignored this fact.

All in all, the battle at the secret base on White Plume Island came to an end in less than three hours.

The three groups of soldiers also gathered at the center of the villa.

I want to say that the only thing is a little bit of an exception, or maybe it's just...

There was one more person among the three parties present. It was a tall woman with short purple hair and a cold and solemn expression. She held a lightning bow in her hand.

Naosuke and the Grand Priest warriors he brought with him did not dare to make a sound in front of this purple-haired woman. Everyone could tell that they were afraid. This was because, at the very least, they were acting on their own accord. At the very least, it was the private use of the officers and soldiers. Even if they did not lose their heads, they would all be imprisoned.

In the end, they were caught by their superior, the most powerful person in the world, the Six Paths Robe. Kondo Naosuke thought that he was mentally prepared, but when the time came, and it came so quickly, especially when KODE's emouomess gaze swept over mm as usual, INaosuKe reli as 11 ne was sitting on pins and needles.

"Do you know your sins?" Finally, although they had won the battle, they still fell into a strange and desolate silence. It was the Six Paths Robe who broke the silence.

"Lord Luo Sha, Neisuke...There was no explanation to speak of. He was willing to be punished!
"However, these soldiers under me are only following orders. I only hope that Lord Luo Sha will let them off!

The young military official kneeled down with a thud and pressed his head to the ground, begging the purple-haired woman for alms.

However, Luo Sha ignored him and quickly turned her gaze to the other side of the stage.

“You guys...If I remember correctly, it should be someone who was closely related to the Astorokis smuggling case a few days ago, right? She Xingxing just applied to me not long ago for an arrest warrant for you.”

Vivian and Mei Ji were on guard. They had not forgotten that in the last cycle, it was because of the Six Paths Robe that the little girl was forced to attack, which eventually led to the arrival of Gong Si.

So this time...Was he going to repeat the same mistake again?

The only one who was relatively relaxed was probably the little wolf cub. His gaze was not on Luo Sha, but behind her.

“Lord Luo Sha, we’ve apprehended more than a hundred suspects. Two of the masterminds, including a Winter envoy, have been stunned by Lord Luo Sha’s lightning and have lost all ability to resist. We’ve escorted them to a ship heading for the Moon Abyss Island!

“Got it. You may leave.” The purple-haired woman nodded.

“Yes, sir!”

When Luo Sha’s trusted aide led a group of elite warriors and disappeared, everyone on Kondo Naosuke’s side was shocked and confused.

“What the hell...This was...Lord Luo Sha?”

“After we return to the Moon Abyss Island, you will be my adjutant and the vanguard of this operation. After writing down all the details, we will report it to Lord Gong Si together. ”

Luo Sha’s words were filled with a lot of information. In just a few words, he had cleared up the matter for Kondo Naosuke. He was no longer the one who sent out the troops on his own accord, but the vanguard that had been "planned" long ago. In other words, the entire surprise attack had become Luo Sha's idea.

On the surface, it seemed like he had snatched the credit, but in reality, everyone could see that he was blatantly covering up for Kondo Naosuke and absolved him of his original sin.

And this was not the end. What really made the young military official unable to hold back was Luo Sha's last sentence.

"Also, take good care of Lord Jingfu's daughter."

The purple-haired woman's tone was still cold, but a young girl was brought out from behind her. When Kondo Naosuke saw the young girl, the young military official's eyes widened, and his entire body trembled with excitement.

"Fragrance...Kaho!"

Kondo Naosuke ran over and hugged the girl tightly.

Although Eri didn't know about the relationship between the two of them, as the female apothecary who worked at the temporary wolf tree, she still smiled happily when she saw that Kaho was completely fine.

Vivian and Maggie were happy for the two of them, but they had to brace themselves and deal with the Six Paths Robe that was now looking at them again.

"Hand over the victims behind you to us. As for you... "You have assisted in this operation and made a great contribution. Therefore, your reputation score in the Grand Fuxing Court will have to be re-evaluated. Therefore, before the score is given, I will have to discuss the arrest warrant that the Society Court has requested for you."

Vivian and Maggie were stunned for a moment before they looked at each other and saw that they were relieved.

“Thank you, Lord Luo Sha!” The little girl also knew how to act good when she was in a good position.

In the last time, they escaped from the prison mountain and injured the soldiers inside. This was the main reason why Six Luo Sha could not tolerate them.

But this time, they did not do anything to the Great Fu Priest and only targeted the enemy, so Luo Sha also showed them mercy.

This purple-haired woman, who seemed to be ruthless and ruthless, was actually a firm and kind faction in her heart. The wolf cub had long been aware of this. After all, in the “ Thousand Islands ” storyline in his previous life, Luo Sha was the main NPC character who led the players to fight against Fallen Abyss, the official Justice Faction.

The wolf cubs knew this very well, so they did not deliberately target Luo Sha. And this approach was rewarded. Luo Sha had indeed been secretly watching their actions, and at the last moment, she even took the initiative to attack and take down the enemy leader in one fell swoop.

Whoosh!

Finally!

He had finally passed this round!

After that, they had the stronghold to prove their innocence. The dozens of girls who were “ imprisoned ” were the best witnesses. In addition, Luo Sha was on their side. No matter how they thought about it, Gong Si would no longer be hostile to them.

The only strange thing was that the wolf cub felt that the leader of the other party was too weak. The attack on the entire stronghold was a little too smooth. He kept feeling that this perfect ending was a little...

The little wolf cub had just thought of this, and before he could even finish the word 'uneasy', he heard a' pfft 'sound.

Luo Sha and the wolf cub reacted the fastest. They found the source of the sound in an instant.

However, there was...

"Fragrance...Kaho?"

Plop.

The young military official clutched his chest that was covered in blood. He was pushed away by the girl in her arms and fell to the ground weakly..

Chapter 529 -Things Can't Be Done More Than Two Times

A purple lightning bolt flashed by, and in the next second, Kaho's neck was gripped tightly by the Six Paths Gauze Robe and lifted up high.

In the eyes of this purple-haired general, there was a rare anger in his coldness.

After that, the soldiers under Kondo Naosuke finally reacted and anxiously ran towards their commander who was lying in a pool of blood.

Soon, a wail was heard. There was an extremely deep wound that had almost completely pierced through Kondo Naosuke's heart. There was no chance of survival at all.

"You..." The Six Paths Robe caught a glimpse of her adjutant from the corner of her eye. Her pitch-black pupils constricted, and she could vaguely see the shadow of a pair of black wings on her back.

The soldiers who were familiar with the purple-haired woman knew that this was a sign that their general was truly angry.

The reason why the Six Paths Robe was always so cold and indifferent was because once she had any other violent emotional fluctuations, the “mutant” bloodline in the woman’s body would not be able to be suppressed, and she would turn into a half-human, half-demon form.

Upon seeing the sudden death of Kondo Naosuke, and the fact that the murderer was a young girl whom she had saved, the Six Paths Robe’s eyes were fixed on Kaho, who she had grabbed by the neck.

“You... Who is it?” Luo Sha resisted the urge to strangle the other party and questioned him sternly.

Everyone could tell that something was wrong with the daughter of the main target of this rescue mission.

However, what puzzled Luo Sha was that as the number one general of the Grand Fuxi Supreme Court, she would definitely not make such a low-level mistake. She had clearly checked Kaho thoroughly before this, and hadn’t noticed anything unusual at all, so why was she now...

Even though Kaho was almost unable to breathe and her face had turned ashen, she still managed to squeeze out a crazy smile at the furious Raisa.

Then, she pulled her slender neck, her eyes filled with confusion and disdain. Her hoarse voice that was like a demon’s whisper echoed in everyone’s ears.

“For... [Apostle]...Sir...”

“Present your... Life!”

As soon as Kaho finished speaking, a pitch-black, dark light emanated from her chest.

And this was only the beginning. The chests of all the other imprisoned girls at the scene also showed a similar situation.

Even the female Apothecary Eri, who was carrying the wolf cubs, felt the same.

Because the wolf cub was the closest to Kaho, it could clearly sense the light coming from her chest. The light was like a signal transmitter, and the Apothecary was the receiver. The moment the light's magical waves came into contact with the Apothecary, her body shook slightly, and she immediately lost her spiritual will, becoming a puppet like a puppet.

At the same time, Eri's muttering echoed in the wolf cub's ears.

Chapter 530: Things Can 't Be Done Again (2)

However, the same method was used, but the state of the two was completely different after the incident.

As a pure demon with thick skin and a taboo level of the highest bloodline, the impact of this explosion on Liao Zixuan was only a slight bleeding of the outer skin of his claws and a faint pain. Other than that, it was not a big deal.

However, the Six Paths Silk Robe was not so good.

She fell to the ground with a thud. Her originally black and beautiful feathers looked very miserable under the explosion. Her entire inner side was a bloody mess, charred into a paste that was difficult to look at.

As for Luo Sha himself, he was in an even worse state. His eyes were tightly shut, and blood flowed out of the corner of his mouth. The light armor on his front body was shattered into pieces, and it was a terrible sight to behold. His exposed arms and thighs had shocking injuries.

If it wasn't for her half-human, half-demon body as a "mutant", her bloodline as a "demon", and her extraordinary strength, a human like her, who was equivalent to holding a bomb, might have died countless times.

The little girl and Mei Ji were also fine because the astrologer girl seemed to have an automatic magic shield on her body. Although the two of them did not react in time, the water screen magic shield that appeared around Mei Ji protected them very well.

However, Vivian and Meggie, who were in the water curtain, still did not seem to have recovered from their shock, or... They could not accept the scene before them...It was a hellish scene.

"It hurts..."

"Help, help me..."

"My leg, blood...It's all blood..."

The moans and wails of the surviving Grand Fudge Warriors echoed in Vivian's ears, as if it woke her up from her daze. She ran to the injured in a panic, trying her best to save them, but...

Too many, too many.

This was the first time the little girl had seen so many people dying and injured in front of her. She saw the broken limbs, the blood, and the entire world seemed to be a red ocean.

Vivian fell to the ground with a thud. The little girl was at a loss as she looked at the giant black wolf that walked up to her. It was as if she was asking, why... Why did it suddenly...

On the other side, Mei Ji was the same. An indescribable emotion squeezed her chest, causing her to open her mouth, but she could not say anything.

"Lord Luo Sha...Lord Luo Sha!"

Some of the soldiers who could still move and were conscious struggled to run to the side of the purple-haired woman who was lying on the ground. They shouted Luo Shan's name but received no response.

The only thing that was worth consoling them was that the Six Paths Silk Robe was still breathing, and the bloodstained chest was still faintly heaving.

"Sir...Please... Please save Lord Luo Sha..." Vivian and Meji were the highest combat power available, so the soldiers turned to them for help.

"Don't worry about us, hurry... Quickly send Lord Luo Sha to the doctor!"

One of the adjutants saw that Vivian did not move and thought that she was hesitating, so he shouted at Vivian, which showed the loyalty of these soldiers and the status of Luo Shan in their hearts.

However, what they did not know was that the little girl's brain had already crashed. In the face of this situation, it was the black wolf beside Vivian who picked up Vivian and Meiji with its mouth. Ignoring the cries of the soldiers, it disappeared from everyone's sight in a few flashes.

When the black wolf reappeared, it was already on another mountain peak far away from the villa.

As the scene changed, Vivian seemed to have finally recovered after the miserable scene in front of her. When the black wolf returned to the form of a young man, the little girl could not hold it in anymore. Her tears gushed out like a spring and she threw herself into the arms of the young man.

"Xiao Hei...Wuuuu... 1... They...Why..:"

Why did they do such a thing..." Vivian's fingers gripped Liao Zixuan's clothes tightly and buried her head in the young man's chest.

He placed an unknown special unstable magic gem into the bodies of all the imprisoned girls, turning each of them into a bomb. Finally, he used a dark light magic similar to hypnosis to make the girls detonate themselves.

Such a cruel method was too shocking and a blow to the little girl who had a blank heart. It left a deep shadow in her heart.

“Vivian.”

The young man’s voice rang in the girl’s ear. Vivian subconsciously longed for comfort, but Liao Zixuan did not. He just said,”

“In the future, we will definitely encounter enemies that are even crueler and more heartless than now, so... Are we giving up? With our current strength, we can find a remote place to live a peaceful and relaxed life and enjoy every day of happiness.”

‘ You can choose the location as you wish. I’ll always be by your side. If you want, we can also bring your brother here. Oh, you can also ask Liz and the little maid. If they’re willing, I’m sure life will be more colorful. To be honest, I think it’s quite necessary to change a wolf crawl every day.”

“When the time comes, you can open a tailor shop and make a lot of clothes you like every day. Then, you can let the little maid be your mannequin. As for Liz... Just be the acting manager. I know that with your stupid brain, you definitely won’t be able to run a shop.”

Liao Zixuan was telling the girl in his arms about the beautiful future. They indeed had the strength to have such a future, and it was not just for fun. If Vivian really made up her mind, Liao Zixuan would not refute.

But...

From the girl’s hand that was still tightly clutching her chest, Liao Zixuan understood that this might have been the dream of the village girl Vivian.

But now, the little girl, the little girl, the little girl

Her wishes grew with her abilities. She did not wish for her to be the only one happy. She wished for one more, one more...

"You will always be with me, right, Xiao stopped sobbing and suddenly asked in a low voice.

"Of course."

"Even I...Why did she have to punish evil as a Demoness, hoping that every story would have a happy ending like someone with OCD?"

"Of course."

"But, but... Wuuuu... Now, everything, everything..."

Vivian couldn't hold it in anymore, but the young man wiped away the tears that were about to burst out of the little girl's eyes.

"Don't cry, silly girl. Since you've set your ambition, you have to do what you say. Even if you don't believe in yourself, you have to believe in me, right?"

"Xiao Hei, could it be...Can you bring them back to life?"

"Of course!"

Liao Zixuan couldn't help but laugh when he saw Vivian suddenly raise her head and stare at him with wide eyes. He rubbed the little girl's head.

"Have you forgotten how we died the first time? Alive?"

"Xiao Hei, you...You mean!"

Liao Zixuan was an old wolf cub who had gone through many cycles, but for Vivian and Meggie, it was their first time. It was normal that they did not think of it for a moment.

“In other words, as long as we die again, time will be able to...Back to...”

Without Liao Zixuan’s further explanation, Vivian and Maggie understood. Their dull eyes suddenly burst with a fiery light.

However, in this way, it seemed that a new problem had appeared. They should...How could he die?

However, the answer to this question soon appeared in everyone’s mind.

“Let’s go. In the past, we had to carefully avoid that old woman every time, but now...We can finally let ourselves loose openly for once!”

“Let’s go and make the future what you want it to be!

The young man turned back into a black wolf and disappeared with the two girls.

Liao Zixuan’s heart was not as calm as it appeared on the surface. He also had emotions.

In the previous cycle, he should have died three times before passing. As the saying goes, things should not happen more than three times, but this time...

In short, it seemed that he no longer had the face to boast about being a “god-level trainer”. However, people had to improve, so...

There was no second time..
