Chapter 531: Starting From Becoming the Son-in-Law of the Pavilion Master (1)

Sakuragi Island.

It got its name because it was once the place where the Thousand Islands Cherry Blossom bloomed the most, and it was also the place with the most variety.

Legend had it that the cherry trees here would bloom all year round and would not wither. Light pink petals covered the island, and a unique fragrance lingered around the nose. Everyone who set foot on this island would describe this island as beautiful.

However, all of this had become a thing of the past.

The current Sakuragi Island..

Boom!

In the midst of lightning and thunder, the small boat of the Society Master finally reached the shore of this ominous island that was shrouded in thunderstorms.

Lu Zi and a woman with long black hair got off the boat.

“Tsk, Lord Gong Si is really... He sent me to a good place.” The black-haired woman looked around after getting off the boat, clicking her tongue in wonder.

All the plants along the coast were a devilish dark purple. This was the result of being enveloped by thunderstorms all year round. If one looked carefully, one could even see that there was a faint plasma-like liquid flowing on the root veins.

Many of them had never been seen before. They were deformed and strange. They were also mutated products of the thunderstorm. Many of them made people feel a chill in their hearts at a glance.

Lady Risa, we have been framed and exiled to this place. Whether it's the person who plotted against us or this cursed island, please correct your attitude, Lady Risa. You can't be as casual as before. "

Roko lectured with a straight face, but the black-haired woman beside her was in high spirits, as if she was on an outing.

Alright, alright, how big of a deal, Lu Zi, you're too serious, hiss..." Speaking of which, Ryu, you said that this island is a cursed island?" Sakai Risa asked curiously.

' Yes, I've read many ancient books before. This is the island where the first Divine Wizard of the Thousand Islands, the Eighth Level Divine Wizard, was born. However, it seems that an unknown incident that happened in the past angered the Lord Water God and caused a curse to be placed on the island, causing the entire island to be shrouded in endless thunderstorms. The Eighth Level Shrine, which used to be as famous as Tsukifuka Taisha, also fell in decline. In the end, it was forgotten and abandoned by the people, becoming the current Eighth Level Shrine.

"Ah, it's great to have Luzi as my administrative officer. Since you've done so much homework, you must have planned what we should do first, right?" Sigh...

Roko sighed, but she had already gotten used to her master Risa's cynical attitude.

My suggestion is that we should go visit the Yaejo Shrine. There should still be witches there now. Only there should be people there. Because of the Shrine's enchantment, there should be people in places where the thunderstorm won't affect."

"Good! Then let's go!"

Sakai Risa, who was also Bella's clone in the Thousand Islands, looked in the direction of the mountain where the Yaeji Shrine was located with interest.

Suddenly, Bella seemed to have sensed something. She immediately turned her head and looked at the location of the Lunar Abyss Island where they had come from.

‘ What’s the matter, Lady Risa?’ Lu Zi asked curiously.

However, Sakai Risa’s relaxed expression disappeared, which was rare. She furrowed her brows, and her face was filled with confusion and surprise.

Bella could sense an aura coming from the Moon Abyss Island.

With the strength of her clone, it was logically impossible for her to sense other islands from such a far distance. However, there was an exception, and it was the same as her... The aura of a witch.

If Bella tried harder to sense it, she could still sense a trace of the witch’s aura beside her...Forbidden aura.

Speaking of which, why did he feel a strong sense of familiarity with this combination? Had he seen it somewhere before... However, Bella searched her memories but found nothing.

Strange...

At the foot of the Eighth Mountain.

A man covered in a cloak sat cross-legged at the entrance of the shrine at the foot of the mountain.

The luggage he carried with him was on the ground beside him. He looked like a traveler from afar. If he looked at the luggage carefully, he could see many patterns of feathers and dandelions. They were undoubtedly the absolute symbols of a certain country.

Green Maple.

It was clearly raining heavily at this moment, but not a single drop of rain could get close to the man sitting on the ground. His clothes remained dry in the rain, without a drop of water.

As Bella looked at the island, the man at the foot of the shrine opened his eyes.

However, his reaction was much calmer than Bella's. After a cold glance, he quickly retracted his gaze.

However, perhaps because his meditation was interrupted, the man stood up and stroked the abandoned shrine pillar at the foot of the mountain with a nostalgic expression.

Amidst the roaring of the wind, rain, and thunder, one could vaguely hear him murmuring a few words.

"Sister..."

"I... I'm back..."

Deep Moon Island.

Tonight was destined to be a sleepless night.

"Mom, look, there's a big wolf in the sky!"

"Don't divert your attention. Hurry up and do the questions!"

"But, but there really is!"

"The child's father, I told you not to buy those dubious light novels for Xiangtai anymore. Look at Xiangtai now! She was not good at her studies and only knew how to spout nonsense all day.. How could she make friends like this? She would be bullied and ostracized by others in school!"

Chapter 532: Starting From Becoming the Son-in-Law of the Pavilion Master (1)

The mother angrily turned around and shouted into the house, while the child looked aggrieved. He pointed to the window that could only be seen from his point of view and said,

“But Mom, there really is a wolf, and there are two girls sitting on the wolf! ”

“You still dare to say that! You still dare to say it!”

“Wii...”

. Wuuu!”

B0xnovel.com

The former was the child’s whimper due to grievances, but the sound that followed closely behind was the cry of surprise from the child’s mother.

A few minutes ago.

Moon Abyss Society.

“Stinky old woman, come out! “Only Lady Mei Ji could say such sharp words.

The astrologer girl had been afraid of the blue-haired Gong Si, but now, after what had happened on White Plume Island, Mei Ji was only angry with the incarnation of the Water God.

He was angry at her for not doing anything and for her indifferent attitude.

As the God of a nation, he was worshipped and loved by the people of the Thousand Islands. He should take on the responsibility of protecting the Thousand Islands, not like now, where Mei Ji felt ashamed for having such a master!

Unfortunately, even if she went to the entrance of the shrine to curse, it would only attract the guards. The palace guard at the top of the shrine turned a blind eye and did not move.

“Mei Ji, let us do it.”

Vivian shook her head at Maggie. She took a deep breath and stroked the wolf cub in her arms. Although she had made this decision a long time ago, she was still a little nervous when she was about to make it.

However...

After the wolf cub in her arms jumped down first, its body expanded rapidly. The aura of the forbidden demon, just like the black wolf's current size, was released without any concealment.

It was as if a nuclear bomb had been dropped on the island. The guards closest to the shrine fainted. It was the pressure of a superior being.

The people who were sleeping soundly in the middle of the night were all startled awake from their dreams without exception. They ran to their beds in horror and looked in the direction of the Moon Abyss Society.

However, this was only the first wave. The second wave of terrifying aura that followed closely behind was slightly weaker than the first wave, but the effect it brought was even more shocking.

It was a flame that soared into the sky in the night, as if it was going to cut through the darkness. The Thousand Islands was a country of water. The people here had never seen such a scorching flame.

However...

Perhaps in the blink of an eye.

In front of Vivian and Black Wolf, the figure of a blue-haired witch floated there. The blue crystal eyes under her long eyelashes stared straight at them.

Liao Zixuan no longer had the same reverence he had when he saw the highest official of the Thousand Islands, the incarnation of the Water God.

In fact, he was laughing in his heart.

This method was indeed useful.

It was really a call at any time.

“You old hag, aren’t you supposed to be omniscient and omnipotent? Are you going to watch what happened on White Plume Island? Why aren’t you talking?”

Speak!”

Meiji mustered her courage and shouted at the blue-haired witch. Unfortunately, Gong Si did not even look at her. All his attention was on Vivian and Black Wolf.

As for the little girl, she had probably never fought with anyone more than a few times in her life, so she naturally could not express her anger well.

Therefore, in the end, someone had to appear on this occasion.

Oh, isn’t this Lord Water God? I haven’t seen you for a few days. The national treasure-level ship Astorokis was secretly manipulated by someone to sail towards the Abyssal Sea and crash into the snake. It doesn’t matter. The Abyssal Sea is restless and wants to break the seal of the Fallen Abyss. It doesn’t matter. One of the snake’s heads has already been corroded by the Fallen Abyss. It doesn’t matter. The only society that hasn't fallen has been framed and toppled by others. It doesn't matter. You know clearly the shady business behind the Divine Wizard election, but it still doesn't matter!" "

How many girls from poor families were persecuted because of this? Foreign forces used witches to experiment in private on the Thousand Islands. Their loyal generals were seriously injured because of this. The important officials who were determined to be in charge of the country's economic lifeline were even sent to prison because of this. Their daughters were even taken as test subjects. As fathers, they could only spend their days in prison..."

"I can't take it anymore. The more I talk, the angrier I get. If I didn't know that I couldn't defeat you, I would have long..." Forget it. I can tell from your eyes that it's useless for just a few of us to scold you. We have to reveal the dirty tricks to all the people of Thousand Islands and let everyone know that they need to change. Only then will you be willing to listen, right? Alright, let's do it then.

"In addition, one last thing. In the past, I thought that Fire God Alice, that old woman, was enough to pull people down and cheat them. But now, I realize that I was wrong. You sisters are more and more deceptive. Let's not talk about becoming a God like the Rock God who can let his people live and work in peace and sweep the world. You can learn from the Wind God of Qing Feng, right? Although that person didn't do anything serious and slacked off all day, at least he didn't do the opposite!?"

"You're really the worst god I've ever seen in this batch!"

"The most... The worst god of the Chinese! While Liao Zixuan was talking, Vivian kept nodding. She wished she could say the same thing herself, but in the end, she could only repeat Liao Zixuan's last sentence as a support.

Phew...

After Liao Zixuan finished talking about Datong, he let out a long breath. Suddenly, he felt that the haze had been swept away and his mood became particularly comfortable.

so...

Pointing at a god's nose and scolding him was such a satisfying thing! If he was still a player, he would definitely be able to achieve something like that.

"Alright, I've finished speaking. You can kill us now." Liao Zixuan did not forget the purpose of their trip.

The Astorokis.

In the corridor.

Like a drowning person being pulled up, the wolf cub suddenly opened its eyes and took a few deep breaths.

The little girl was the same. She almost lost her balance.

Liao Zixuan recalled the experience a few seconds ago. Although he had achieved his goal, he could not help but curse in his heart.

This Water God did not hesitate at all!

Moreover, wasn't it said that the Water God was emotionless and was just a heartless machine of fate?

Why was he so anxious after just a few curses??

The reason why they had such a huge reaction after using Time Backtrack was because they had died a little miserably in the previous cycle. This time, the blue-haired witch did not use the instant kill skill of Destiny. Instead, she beat them up openly before killing them in an instant. If this wasn't an obvious retaliation, what was it?!?

However, it could still be seen from here.

So... The Water God still had some feelings, but it was hidden in a very deep corner. If it was other gods, Liao Zixuan would not dare to do this. Otherwise, they might not kill you and seal you for a lifetime.

Anyway...

Good!

This was the last time, he would take it down in one fell swoop!

Vivian and Meggie were already familiar with the place. They did not even need to look for Luzi anymore. They ran straight to the spare boat on the Astorokis and went to White Plume Island to wait for orders.

As for the wolf cubs...

After learning the lesson from the previous cycle, the magic bombs on Kaho and the imprisoned girls had to be dealt with in advance. Otherwise, taking down the stronghold would be useless.

According to the female apothecary whom he had unintentionally saved back then, Kaho had been sent into the prison last night, and he had delayed his attack for two days because of the young military official.

If this was the case, Kaho had only been taken away tonight. This meant that he actually had a chance to save this important member's daughter before the incident happened!

The first problem was solved. The second problem was the magic bomb in their bodies.

Liao Zixuan had also found a solution. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so confident to start over.

The nature of the magic bomb was to receive the dark magic signal. In the modern language of the blue planet, the remote control of the bomb required the other end to press the button.

However, if all the bombs were placed in an absolutely enclosed space, no signal would be transmitted no matter how much the other party controlled them.

In this magical world, as long as he could think of a way to hide the girls in a completely magic-sealed space, he could solve the problem perfectly.

Coincidentally, there was one on White Wing Island!

This was also the information that Vivian had obtained from the villagers by doing good deeds.

After reorganizing the plan in his mind, Liao Zixuan seized every second and took action.

The first target he went to after he turned into a young man was the foreign boss who owned the mining area on White Plume Island..

Chapter 533: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(2)

According to the villagers, the foreign boss was from Guili. Although they didn't know the boss's full name, they at least knew that his surname was Zhao.

Moreover, the mine was banned from mining due to the "safety hazard" forcing the boss to close the mine. At the same time, business naturally plummeted. Many miners lost their jobs and returned to the village. They learned from the miners that their boss still owed wages. They said that they would take the money to the Moon Abyss Island, hoping to build a relationship and think of a way.

When Liao Zixuan heard the first two, he was almost certain that the so-called foreign boss was Zhao Jie from the Astorokis.

As for the last condition, it was completely in line with it. It wasn't just the location of Deep Moon Island, but also the style of running away after closing down. From Zhao Jie's experience, it was obvious that this wasn't the first time.

No wonder...

B0xnovel.com

Judging from the first week of the prison break, Zhao Jie still had a lot of power in the Thousand Islands. However, when they were on the Astorokis, Uncle Guili seemed to be desperate to get a lot of money. He even tried to get close to Rozi, which was why Zhao Jie was close to Vivian.

In the end, this was the reason.

Liao Zixuan could not help but sigh at how small the Thousand Islands were. Of course, it could also be...Fate was magical, wasn't it?

He said that he was going to find Zhao Jie, but before that, Liao Zixuan did not forget about the large amount of saltpeter stolen goods in the cargo hold. Just like in the second week, Liao Zixuan only returned to the deck after putting them all into his inventory space.

Following that, everything progressed in exactly the same way as the previous two cycles.

Yosuke Sakai led the people of the Grand Fudge to surround the Astorokis, wanting to frame the Astorokis for smuggling saltpeter and use saltpeter to create an explosion to expand the situation.

Unfortunately, after searching the bottom of the cargo hold, Sakai Yosuke chose to use other charges to cover up for himself, just like what happened in Nisuzu. He still took Roko away. From Nisuzu's Robe of Six Paths, Liao Zixuan also learned that this kid would apply for a warrant to arrest Vivian. It could be said that he was an enemy from head to toe.

However, Liao Zixuan could not deal with such a small character for the time being. He would let it jump around for a while. His main goal now was to defeat the big Boss, Water God.

Huff... Whoosh...

After Yosuke Sakai and the others left, the passengers on the Astorokis quickly regained their freedom and began to carry their luggage off the ship.

It was the same for Zhao Jie. It could be seen that this middle-aged man was a little fat and did not pay much attention to exercising. When he dragged his luggage from the cabin, it was especially strenuous.

And at this moment...

“Uncle! Let me help you!” Zhao Jie, who was panting, suddenly heard a conversation coming from behind him.

He turned around and saw a handsome young man smiling brightly at him as if he was a close friend.

Before he could speak in confusion, the young man took a step forward and walked past him. He easily carried his heavy luggage.

“Let’s go Uncle, what are you waiting for? Or is there something else?”

“Stop! Young man, you...Wait a minute!” Zhao Jie finally found a chance to interrupt from the strange enthusiasm of the young man. “Young man, put down your things first. Hey, put them down!”

You...!

Zhao Jie was a little angry at first. Anyone who suddenly had their luggage in the hands of a stranger would be like this. However, when he saw Liao Zixuan holding a big box in each hand and talking to him normally without blushing or jumping, and even lifting it as if it was weightless, Zhao Jie chose to listen to him.

“That... Young man, who are you? Why do you call me Uncle Zhao? Do we, do we know each other?” Zhao Jie carefully looked at the young man again and finally couldn’t help but ask.

At the same time, his brain was working quickly. As a shrewd businessman, Zhao Jie boarded the Astorokis to socialize. Naturally, he did not know all the passengers on the ship, but at least he was familiar with them. Therefore, he was very sure that the young man was not an original passenger on the ship. This was one of the suspicious points.

Zhao Jie, who had experienced many storms, was already a wily old fox. Moreover, because he had the identity of a "indebted person," he was always on guard.

However...

The young man's answer was completely out of Zhao Jie's imagination.

"Uncle Zhao, someone once told me that after I met you, no matter if you knew me or not, as long as I said the secret code of 'Boiled Cabbage,' you would definitely help me."

Liao Zixuan lowered his voice and whispered into Zhao Jie's ear. When he saw the middle-aged man's dumbfounded reaction, he felt slightly relieved.

The secret code of Boiled Cabbage could be traced back to the end of the week. It was when the little girl and her group had escaped from prison. In order to prevent Zhao Jie from taking risks with them, they proposed to separate. It was at that time that Zhao Jie told Vivian the secret code. He said that even if he was not around, Vivian could use this secret code to borrow his power in the Thousand Islands..

Chapter 534: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(2)

Now that Vivian had left Astorokis due to time constraints, Liao Zixuan, as a stranger, could only use this method to gain Zhao Jie's trust as soon as possible.

Of course, there were other options, such as turning back into a wolf cub in front of him, or using violence directly, but none of them were as good as this.

It should be... Did he succeed?

Liao Zixuan could clearly feel that even though the other party had yet to recover from the shock, at least Zhao Jie's vigilance towards him had decreased a lot.

After about four to five seconds, Zhao Jie swallowed the ointment and asked in a trembling voice,"

B0xnovel.com

"Young man, can you tell me who...Who told you this secret code?"

It was you!

Liao Zixuan really wanted to say this, but he couldn't explain the cycle, so he could only tell a little lie.

"Xing 'er." He said these two words softly to Zhao Jie.

Back then, Zhao Jie had explained to the little girl that the origin of the strange code was because it was the name of Zhao Jie's daughter Xing 'er's favorite dish when she was young.

Liao Zixuan had no choice but to say this in order not to show his cards.

However, what Liao Zixuan did not expect was that he had indeed instantly obtained Zhao Jie's full favorable impression. In fact, he even...Too much was overflowing!

"Xing 'er! I knew it! Only Xing 'er would say something like that and know this secret code! "Zhao Jie's face was filled with ecstasy.

It was a feeling similar to meeting an old friend in a foreign land. Zhao Jie had no choice but to leave his hometown because of his debt and was forced to go overseas. His heart was filled with longing. This could be seen from the family watch that he held in his arms like a treasure.

So now that he had met someone related to his daughter, Zhao Jie felt like his heart was about to jump out!

“Quickly tell me, Xing ‘er, how is Xing’ er?”

“She... I’m doing very well.”

“Has Xing ‘Er grown very tall now?”

“Uh... Indeed, he’s just a little shorter than me. His figure is also very good, tall and plump...Cough cough, healthy!” Liao Zixuan hurriedly stopped and corrected himself.

The original Zhao Jie would definitely have noticed it, but the current Zhao Jie was no longer the calculative businessman. He was an old father who was desperate to get information about his daughter.

Zhao Jie slapped his thigh.

“Haha! I knew it, I knew it! Back then, I spent a lot of effort chasing after the child’s mother. As expected, it has improved the bloodline of my Old Zhao family. I’m almost on the same level as you...Hahaha, my daughter is great!”

By the way, Zhao Jie only reached Liao Zixuan’s chest.

“That...”

Liao Zixuan originally wanted to get the topic back on track, but he couldn’t stand Zhao Jie’s questions like cannonballs, bombarding him one after another.

“How are Xing ‘Er’s grades in school?”

“Very good.”

“Did you graduate successfully? He didn’t stay, but he stayed a year?”

“After she graduated, the teachers praised her for being smart and a rare genius. ”

“Then what did she do after she came out of school?”

“She... I’m in business.”

“Business...Haha, as expected of my Old Zhao family’s seedling, just like her father! Ah! No, wait, wait, wait, doing business is very risky, Xing ‘er, she, she’s Okay, right??

“She... He was very powerful and had already earned a lot of money.

“Hahaha, you inherited her mother’s beauty and figure, and you also inherited her father’s business acumen. Xing ‘er, I’m really proud of you!!

Under Liao Zixuan’s persuasion, Zhao Jie was so happy that he almost went crazy. He was completely immersed in his precious girl and could not extricate himself until..

“Hmph, then there must be a lot of silly boys pursuing my daughter now!

“There are indeed a lot of them. They are lined up from the top of the city to the bottom of the city.
“Liao Zixuan sighed in his heart and continued to make up for the guilt he felt toward Zhao Jie next week.

However, his words made Zhao Jie shudder. Liao Zixuan had yet to realize what a father with a daughter was most afraid of.

“Hahaha, as expected of my...Wait a minute! Right? It was broken... This is bad!

Looking at her age, Xing 'er should be in the midst of her first awakening of love. Moreover, there are so many people chasing after Xing' er. There will definitely be one or two bastards who will use flowery words to slip away. If Xing 'er really falls for it...'

Hiss!

Zhao Jie instantly sucked in a breath of cold air and did not dare to think further.

The joy from before disappeared in the blink of an eye and turned into gnashing teeth.

“Damn it! It's such an important time, when my daughter needs me, I...I'm actually not by your side. I, I... Damn it, damn it!”

“Uncle Zhao, don't be so agitated. Xing 'er isn't so easily taken away by others...”

Before Liao Zixuan could finish his words of consolation, he was stopped by Zhao Jie's glare.

“What do you know! That's how I managed to woo her mother back then, how could I not know!?”

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

“But then again... Kid, what's your relationship with Xing 'er? How did he know that Xing 'er had so many things to do!?” Zhao Jie finally realized this problem.

He sized up the conversation again. The sense of vigilance that had disappeared appeared again. Of course, this vigilance was not just vigilance.

“Uncle Zhao, I just... He’s a very good friend of Xing ‘er’s..”

Chapter 535: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(3)

“Huh? Do you think Uncle Zhao is a fool? And very good friends? You have to have a deep relationship to make Xing ‘er tell you our secret code?”

After hearing Liao Zixuan’s answer, Zhao Jie was furious. If he looked carefully, he could see a strong heartache in the depths of his eyes.

That was the feeling every father would have after seeing the cabbage he had raised for more than ten years being eaten by a pig.

“No, Uncle Zhao, you’ve misunderstood. I really...” Liao Zixuan suddenly felt that the situation was developing a little out of his control.

“Alright, stop talking! I still don’t understand you youngsters...Everyone likes to say one thing and mean another. But let me tell you, a man must be responsible. He must fulfill his promise. Whether it’s business or women, he must finish what he started. He must be loyal. Do you understand??

B0xnovel.com

Zhao Jie suddenly started lecturing. His expression was serious and serious. Liao Zixuan wanted to complain that a person who ran away from debt did not have the right to say such things. However, thinking about Zhao Jie’s actions, he was indeed a person who kept his words and paid attention to gratitude. Therefore, he nodded obediently.

“Uncle Zhao is right, I understand.

Not bad, not bad.

Seeing Liao Zixuan's humble attitude, Zhao Jie's mood finally improved a little. At least his daughter didn't find an arrogant bastard.

What? He knew so much about Xing 'er, and he even made Xing' er tell him the secret code of the family, yet he still said that he was not his daughter's lover? Not his son-in-law? Even if the other party did not have such intentions, his daughter was definitely interested in this brat!

Thinking about it, it made sense.

Even Zhao Jie had to admit that the young man in front of him was indeed tall and handsome. From the way he carried the luggage, it could be seen that his physical strength was also top-notch. His body was very strong.

Apart from his family background, he did not know anything else. Even a harsh old father like him could not find any fault in the young man.

Instead of worrying every day about whether his daughter would be abducted by others, he might as well take the initiative and choose a good match for his daughter! Moreover, this person was the person her daughter liked!

At the thought of this, Zhao Jie's rejection of Liao Zixuan's " son-in-law " disappeared without a trace.

With his sharp eyes, he could tell that this young man seemed to be lukewarm towards Xing Jer. In that case, he had to hurry up and give his daughter an assist! Zhao Jie already had a strong sense of guilt towards his daughter. Now, this guilt had turned into a strong motivation!

That's right! Speaking of which...

"Didn't you say that you need my help?"

Zhao Jie's eyes were filled with passion and disbelief. In just a few minutes, it was as if the two of them had switched identities. It had become Zhao Jie's strong desire to quickly help Liao Zixuan solve the problem and strive to increase his daughter's favorability with Liao Zixuan.

Guili.

Qilin Pavilion.

The Thousand Islands had the Three Executors, the Fire Domain had the nobles, the Knights, and the Fire God Sect.

And in Guili's administrative organization, it was naturally Guili's "Five Elements".

The so-called five elements were named after the five demonic beasts and divine beasts recorded in the "Legend of the Emperor: Mountain and Sea Divergence (1)".

They were the Azure Dragon Hall, the Vermillion Bird Gate, the Black Tortoise Gate, the White Tiger Hall, and finally...Qilin Pavilion.

And now, this magnificent pavilion, which was floating in the air of the largest city of Guili, was one of the five elements of Guili...

Qilin Pavilion.

Standing here, one could see the small mountains and more than half of the city. Many people's lifelong dream was perhaps to one day climb up this pavilion in the air. Unfortunately, unless they were invited by the pavilion master, ordinary people would never have the chance in their lifetime.

Speaking of the pavilion master.

The owner of this sky-seizing building could be said to be an absolutely important figure in the upper echelons of Gui Li. However, he had an identity and background that was as shocking and unbelievable as this sky-building.

That was because she was a young girl in her early twenties..

Chapter 536: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(2)

Gui Li was a vast country. Not only was it the largest of the Nine Nations, but it was also the most populated country. Thus, the difficulty of governance was much higher than other countries, and the classification was more detailed.

After many years of exploration, the five elements were born. They were from the people's livelihood, finance, public security, etiquette, and supervision. These five major aspects maintained the prosperity of Guili. Each line was very important, so there was no distinction between them.

The Kirin Pavilion was in charge of the finance of Gui Li.

The reason why Guili could have such a prosperous business and was known as the " Land of Gold " in the entire continent was definitely because of the operation and maintenance of Qilin Pavilion.

Every day, countless administrative orders were sent out from the castle in the air and born from the pen of the 'Pavilion Master'.

Updated on BOXNOVEL.COM

Perhaps just a small note from the Qilin Pavilion could cause the market to shake violently. It could double the price of ordinary items or cause the prices of treasures worth thousands of dollars to plummet.

However, don't misunderstand. The former usually appeared to stimulate certain industries that Guili was in urgent need of, while the latter usually appeared in products that were sold at inflated prices and were manipulated by unscrupulous people.

Qilin Pavilion's business attitude towards Guili was still based on freedom and fairness. However, while maintaining this balance, some necessary measures were still needed.

It was almost impossible to abuse one's power for personal gain. Not only was the " Pavilion Master " already standing at the peak of the Guili Business, but the White Tiger Hall, which was responsible for " supervising all officials " , was also keeping a close eye on them. The White Tiger Hall was like a sharp sword hanging over the heads of any corrupt officials.

Err...

However, something unexpected happened in the Qilin Pavilion today. Many of the staff in the pavilion looked at the room in the deepest part of the pavilion with worry and suspicion.

That was the location of the Qilin Pavilion's Pavilion Master.

However, there were two soldiers holding spears and halberds standing on the left and right sides of the door. If one looked at the armor on their bodies, it was not difficult to understand why the people in Qilin Pavilion were so anxious at this moment.

There were only two kinds of clothes for the soldiers in Guili. One was embroidered with the symbol of " Azure Dragon " on the chest, and the other was the " Tiger " pattern that was currently standing guard at the door of the pavilion master's room.

White Tiger Hall.

"The people of Guili say that once you ascend the Qilin Pavilion, you won't have to worry about glory and wealth for half your life...Tsk tsk, then it seems that the US can consider retirement! "

In the deepest room of the Qilin Pavilion, two people were sitting in the tea room of the living room.

The first person to speak was a skinny man in casual clothes. He had a bright and carefree look on his face. Sitting opposite him, also in the main seat, was a young girl in a light yellow cheongsam.

“Lord Li, you must be joking. How can there be such a simple thing in the world? If Qilin Pavilion is really so magical, then Yu ‘er would rather let every Guili person come up once.

The young girl was graceful and dignified.

At this moment, as the host, while replying, he was also pouring tea and water for the skinny man who was a guest.

“Haha, Lord Zhao, you’re being too humble. I know that according to the statistics from the Vermillion Bird Sect, the number of poor people in Guili has reached a new low this year. Isn’t this the miraculous embodiment of the Qilin Pavilion? Ah, of course, it also showed how powerful Lord Zhao was.”

“Lord Li is too polite. Yu ‘er was only doing her part. The prosperity and progress of Guili is not just due to one person, but the hard work of everyone in Gulli.

The two people in the tea room seemed to be chatting with each other, but the atmosphere in the room was getting more and more tense.

It might not be obvious from her words, but the girl in the cheongsam glanced at the tea she had brewed on the table from the corner of her eye. It was not moved at all.

Then, as expected.

“Sigh...” The skinny man sighed.

“It’s really boring to talk to Lord Zhao. You’re always so flawless. Forget it, forget it. I won’t waste our time anymore. I believe Lord Zhao must know why our White Tiger Hall suddenly came to find you.

“May I ask why Lord Zhao suddenly issued a diplomatic document to the Thousand Islands? And someone who directly skipped the Black Tortoise

The lean man who was originally very easy-going suddenly changed his tone. His entire aura instantly became murderous.

Under his sharp gaze, an ordinary person would find it hard to breathe, as if they were being stared at by a ferocious tiger.

The five elements of Gui and Li each had their own duties and could not cross over. This was the most basic rule.

For example, sending diplomatic documents to foreign countries was the area that Xuanwu Pass was responsible for. It should have nothing to do with Qilin Pavilion, which was only in charge of domestic finance.

However, just a few days ago, the Qilin Pavilion suddenly issued a diplomatic document to the Thousand Islands regarding the “ request for assistance in investigating the victims of the Astorokis.”

Such strange behavior naturally alerted the people of the White Tiger Hall to come and investigate.

“Lord T.i. it’s true that ‘er was a little careless and anxious about this matter-

However, not long ago, I sent someone to send the explanation documents to Xuanwu Pass.

“I happen to have a copy here. Lord Li, please take a look. “Zhao Yu ‘er said as she took out a file that she had prepared earlier..

Chapter 537: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(2)

After the skinny man took it, he opened it and quickly scanned it. After a while, he revealed a rare look of surprise.

At the same time, the girl in the cheongsam's calm voice sounded in the tea room.

"A few years ago, there was a businessman who was on the verge of bankruptcy due to a business mistake. He was also burdened with a huge debt. He knew that he couldn't pay it back, so he abandoned his wife and daughter and fled overseas with the money. This debt was recorded in Xuanwu Pass and Qilin Pavilion."

'And now, in the shipwreck of the Astorokis that was announced by the Thousand Islands, I accidentally found the name of this merchant who had returned from the island in the list of victims. That's why I asked the Thousand Islands to allow us to investigate. It's fine if the name is the same, but if it's really this person, it'll be considered as closing a file.

After the girl in the cheongsam finished speaking, the skinny man put down the file.

The man looked at the calm young girl with a complicated expression. He wanted to say something, but in the end, his throat only moved.

He finally understood why the slick Qilin Pavilion would suddenly do such a reckless thing. If he was in the position of a young girl and received such a piece of news, it would be difficult for anyone who knew everything to remain calm.

The skinny man from the White Tiger Hall drank the tea on the table in one gulp and cupped his hands at the young girl.

"Thank you for your cooperation, Lord Zhao. I've already understood the situation. Moreover, Lord Zhao has already submitted the documents to Black Tortoise Pass, so there's naturally no need for me to investigate."

After saying that, the man stood up and was about to leave the tea room. However, before he left, he seemed to be unable to hold it in. He did not turn around and said to the girl with his back facing the door,

"Although I know that saying this is a little b * stard, but... The past is in the past. Lord Zhao, please accept my condolences.

"Not long from now, the Emperor will come out of seclusion after a hundred years. At this critical moment, both the Qilin Pavilion and Lord Zhao must be present.

"I've spoken too much. Lord Zhao, please forgive me."

After the lean man left the tea room, he quickly left the Qilin Pavilion with the White Tiger Hall soldiers. The staff in the pavilion heaved a sigh of relief when they saw this. What they were most afraid of was that the pavilion master would be carried away by the White Tiger Hall soldiers. It would be as if the sky had collapsed.

After a while, a bell rang from the pavilion master's room in the deepest part of the room.

The two secretaries of the pavilion master, who had been waiting at the side for a long time, quickly obeyed the summons and entered the room.

They thought that the pavilion master would give some new orders, but who knew that the two female secretaries would notice a rare trace of fatigue on the face of the girl in the cheongsam.

"Jade...Sister Yu 'Er, are you alright?" One of the younger secretaries, who had just taken office, could not help but ask.

"It's nothing serious. I'm just a little tired.

“Then... Sister Yu ‘Er, let’s get the kitchen to make some lotus soup to nourish the body and refresh the mind!

“Lotus soup...I was indeed a little hungry, but I suddenly felt like eating another dish. “After hearing the secretary mention it, the girl in the cheongsam seemed to be lost in her memories and finally shook her head.

“Sister Yu ‘Er, no matter what dish you say, we’ll get the kitchen to prepare it!

“Go and prepare some boiled cabbage. “The girl finally recalled the familiar name of the dish.

“Open... Boiled Cabbage?” The new secretary looked confused.

In her eyes, the pavilion master was an extremely respected and worshipful person. It was obvious that she felt that this girl with the name of the dish and the cheongsam was really...It doesn’t match?

Fortunately, the other female secretary beside him was much more experienced. She hurriedly stopped her companion who could not help but ask questions with her eyes and left the room.

“Sister Cecelia, why do you think Sister Yu ‘Er suddenly wants to eat cabbage? Or...What boiled cabbage? How tasteless would it be to boil cabbage with boiling water?”

The young secretary’s curiosity was met with another secretary’s rolling eyes and sigh.

“Boiled cabbage is just the name of the dish. Is there really a wife in the wife cake? You might think that boiled cabbage was boiled in boiling water, but in reality, boiling water referred to using the most tender chicken and duck, ribs, dried scallops, hoof meat, and many other precious ingredients. According to extremely strict proportions, many seasonings were added and the soup was brewed for at least four hours. That was not all. There was a more complicated process of absorbing the impurities in the soup. The soup had to be as clear as boiling water before it was completely completed.

“As for the selection of cabbage, it’s even more demanding. You have to use cabbage that’s almost ripe but not completely transparent, and only choose the tender yellow heart. After a complicated process, it’s finally combined with the soup stock.

After the slightly older female secretary explained, the younger female secretary beside her was already dumbfounded.

“Ah, ah, this...What the hell! Was there no wife in the wife pancake? I always thought there was! Pui, no, Sister Yu ‘Er’s boiled cabbage is referring to this.

I’ve learned...”

The young secretary lamented that money had limited her imagination, but at the same time, she became even more curious about the boiled cabbage.

“Sister Cecelia, you’ve been by Sister Yu ‘Er’s side the longest. Tell me a little bit. I saw that Sister Yu’ Er looked like she had a lot on her mind, but she specially called us here just for this dish.. There must be a story behind this!

Chapter 538: The First Step Begins From Becoming a Sonin-Law!(3)

This little secretary might not be good at other things, but she was definitely good at acting coquettishly. Under the other party’s curious and pitiful big eyes, Cecelia could not help but secretly tell him about the past of their pavilion master.

“Sister Yu ‘Er used to be born into a wealthy family. Unfortunately, when she was a few years old, her father was secretly sabotaged by someone, and his business plummeted. It was said that because he could not pay off his high debts, he ran overseas, leaving Sister Yu’ Er and her daughter to rely on each other. ”

“However, in such a desperate environment, Sister Yu ‘er relied on her extraordinary business talent to not only pay off the debts her father owed in just ten years, but also defeat the competitor who plotted against her father in one fell swoop. In the end, she ascended to the position of Qilin Pavilion Master!

‘ Therefore, people only see the Pavilion Master’s boundless glory, but they don’t see how the Pavilion Master gritted his teeth and persevered for the sake of the blood and sweat he had put in for so many days and nights. Moreover, it’s said that Sister Yu ‘er’s original name was not this. After paying off her father’s debt, she was furious at her father’s abandonment of her wife and daughter, so she changed her name. It means that she has cut off all ties with the past, and now there’s the famous Pavilion Master of Qilin Pavilion, Zhao Yu’ er.

After the Pavilion Master’s secret was revealed, the young secretary’s eyes widened and she couldn’t help but exclaim.

“What?! So Sister Yu ‘Er changed her name?”

“Shh! You wretched girl! Why are you so shocked? If Sister Yu ‘Er finds out that we’re talking about this in private, we’ll have to go to the toilet tomorrow! “The experienced female secretary glared at her companion.

“Woo... Alright, alright, alright. Sister Cuicui, continue, quickly continue! ”

The young secretary’s eyes were bright and she really wanted to know what happened next. Unfortunately, her companion slapped her.

“Look at you! Don’t listen to it! Hurry up and get to work!”

“Sister Cecelia, how can you do this! It’s so annoying to talk half a sentence! Wu Deep Moon Island, port.

‘ I see. I see. In short, you want to borrow my mine on White Wing Island. You can’t tell me what it’s for, and you can’t let me go with you. You may also need my workers depending on the situation. Is that all?’

Zhao Jie suppressed the anger in his heart and repeated what the young man opposite him had said.

To be honest.

If not for the fact that he was his daughter's sweetheart, Zhao Jie would have cursed.

But there was no other way.

He already owed Xing 'Er too much, so based on the relationship between the other party and Xing' Er, even if this young man wanted to go against Water God, he, as his father-in-law, had to brace himself and support him.

Therefore, when Liao Zixuan and Zhao Jie separated, he had already gotten his wish. He got a letter from Zhao Jie, the mine owner, stating that everyone in the mine would listen to him from now on.

It could be said that it had perfectly met Liao Zixuan's expectations and went very smoothly!

The only thing that made Liao Zixuan feel a little awkward was that Zhao Jie had obviously misunderstood something.

However... Forget it!

When he and the little girl traveled to Guili, he would pay attention to Zhao Jie's daughter called "Xing 'er". When the time came, he would compensate her. He heard that Zhao Jie owed a large debt, so he would pay it off for him! At the same time, he would also improve the living conditions of others.

After all, without a father, the mother and daughter were all alone with huge debts. Their lives must be very difficult and miserable. It was simply a replica of the village girl Vivian!

Since he was fated to be with Zhao Jie, he naturally had to help the poor!

The little wolf cub didn't dare to guarantee anything else, but there was still some money in his little treasury!

Don't forget that he had even ransacked the underground vault of the Treasure

Thief Group back then.

It was perfect!

After nodding his head in satisfaction, Liao Zixuan did not think too much about it and set off to find the second target in his plan..

Chapter 539: The Fireworks Are Here!

Nagano Smoke Flower Shop.

"Sister, I brought you a man back! "Kasumi Akiko knocked on the closed shop door and shouted excitedly.

Behind this failed novelist stood a young man with black lines all over his face.

After Liao Zixuan successfully obtained the mine permit from Zhao Jie, the second person he went to look for was also a passenger on the Astorokis. He could be considered an acquaintance.

As expected, Kasumi Akiko also retained a vague memory of her goal from the previous week. However, compared to Vivian and the others, the light novelist saw it as a manifestation of " inspiration ".

Updated on BOXNOVEL.COM

Therefore, when Liao Zixuan found her, the communication process was exceptionally smooth. At first, Liao Zixuan was wondering if he should make up a reason, but Kasumiko did not say anything and directly brought Liao Zixuan to their house.

Yes, to be precise, Liao Zixuan was not looking for Xia Qiuzi, but her sister.

Last week, Liao Zixuan clearly remembered Xia Qiuko saying that her family owned a tobacco shop and that her sister was a very skilled firework maker on the island.

From his previous experience, Liao Zixuan knew that he wouldn't have enough time to use Kondo Naosuke to lead his troops from Deep Moon Island to attack the stronghold on Whiteplume Island. If he wanted to save Kaho, the key person, he would have to do it tonight.

However, this meant that there would be a large number of elite warriors from the Great Fu Sect to help and attract the enemy's attention. In addition, the restrictions of the Water God prevented him and the little girl from using their skills. Liao Zixuan had to find another way to replace them to attract the enemy's attention.

This was also the reason why he appeared in front of the Nagano Cigarette Shop.

Creak...

The door of the shop with the wooden sign "Closed" was opened from the inside, and what greeted his eyes was an orange-red haired...Vital Qi? A young girl.

Scared!

"Sis...Sister, are you okay?" Kasumi Akiko was frightened by the orange-haired girl's appearance and hurriedly asked with concern.

"You're back, Qiuzi. Me? It's nothing. It's just that there have been more than 100 million orders for fireworks recently, so I've been staying up all night.

The orange-haired girl was panting as she rubbed her eyes, which should have been hazy from waking up in the middle of the day. Around her eyes, there were obvious signs of staying up late.

“You must be tired from the trip, right? Hurry up and come in, hurry up and come in Huh? This is...” The orange-haired girl was halfway through her sentence when she finally noticed a young man following behind her.

Speaking of which...

“Sister, let me introduce you. This is the prototype of the male lead in my latest novel! We met on the Astorokis! “Kasumi Akiko was very proud as if she was showing off to her sister.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

“Yuan... So it was the male lead! Hello, my name is Nagano Miyako. Nice to meet you! Please guide me!” The orange-haired girl was only slightly surprised, but she quickly accepted this setting and happily extended her small hand to Liao Zixuan.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Nice to meet you, Miss Miyako. My name is Bai. I’m very sorry to have suddenly come to visit you. After learning from Kasumiakko that you’re in the fireworks industry, I have a request that I hope to discuss with Miss Miyako...”

After the orange-haired girl welcomed him into their shop, Liao Zixuan briefly introduced himself and went straight to the point, explaining his purpose of coming.

He hoped that Gongzi could go to White Plume Island with him and help him create a large number of ‘special’ fireworks in a short time.

“Is that so...I almost understand, but there are two more questions, Mr. White.

“First of all, what do you mean by special fireworks? Also, no matter how simple the fireworks are, if there are enough of them, I’m afraid I won’t be able to complete them alone.”

Liao Zixuan was already prepared for these two points.

” The fireworks that I hope for don’t need to be exquisitely crafted. It’s better to be as simple as possible. The only two requirements are to create as much noise as possible, similar to an explosion. The second is to be as small as possible.

“Is that so...” The orange-haired girl pondered for a moment.

“This is not difficult. I have also made similar fireworks models. With a little improvement, it should be able to be put into use and mass produced. However...”

“Don’t worry, Miss Miyako. Manpower, location, and raw materials are not a problem. What we need is someone like Miss Miyako who has rich experience to guide us.

Liao Zixuan saw that the orange-haired girl could complete his request for fireworks. He was secretly happy. It was considered half a success.

However, the next step was actually the most difficult. He had to ingeniously convince the other party to be willing to do this with him. After all, what he was going to do next was almost the same as a terrorist in the eyes of outsiders.

Liao Zixuan secretly prepared a script and was about to clear his throat to speak..

“Then let’s hurry up! I can see that Mr. White is very anxious about this order.

He must be using it soon, right?”

As the orange-haired girl spoke, she began to rummage through the store. After a while, she came out with a full suitcase. Not only was it filled with tools for her to make fireworks, but there was also a small portion of clothes and daily necessities..

Chapter 540: The Fireworks Are Here!

Ah, this...

Looking at Nagano Miyako. who was fully armed and ready to set off at any time in less than five minutes, it was Liao Zixuan's turn not to.

"Miss Miyako, you're... Did you agree?" Liao Zixuan could not help but ask again.

"Why don't you confirm the use of these strange fireworks? Also, you've been working late for a long time, and now you've been given such a heavy task. Can your body eat it? Besides, Kasumi Akiko said that it's the time when the number of fireworks orders for the Divine Wizard Selection is the highest. I've taken up so much of your time. "

Liao Zixuan's series of questions were actually what he had considered in advance. He had to convince Xia Qiuzi's sister, but what Liao Zixuan didn't expect was that he didn't use any of them.

Pfft...

However, his words only made Nagano Miyako laugh.

"Actually, I was a little worried at first, but after Mr. Male Lead asked this question, I don't know why, but I suddenly feel a lot more at ease!

"This is the first time I've seen my little sister so enthusiastic and excited about someone other than me. You might not know this, but she has always been staying at home and doesn't like to communicate with strangers. So, you can't understand how happy I was when I saw my little sister bring you to our Shop !

“Just based on your relationship with my sister, no matter what kind of request you make, I will definitely do my best to help you! Moreover...Well, this could be considered as an obsession. “The orange-haired woman scratched her head in embarrassment.

“Actually, I’ve been reading my little sister’s light novels. Her biggest problem is that there are no male characters in her novels, and you actually allowed her to break this limitation! Therefore, I believe that since it is the male protagonist’s request, then we, as supporting characters, naturally have to do our best to help. Isn’t that what is written in novels, right, Qiuzi?” Liao Zixuan was speechless.

What she said seemed to make sense, causing even he to be speechless.

It could only be said that one family did not want to enter the same family.

Liao Zixuan felt that he really couldn’t deal with this pair of sisters.

As for Xia Qiuzi, she was looking for a hole to hide in, her attention was all on her sister, who had been secretly reading her own light novel!

Then wouldn’t every book of hers have a character named Sese who was based on her sister and herself?!!

“Aiya! You guys should go, I... I suddenly feel that I won’t go with you guys.

That...That’s right! I have to stay and look after the shop!”

Xia Qiuzi pushed her sister and Liao Zixuan out with a red face. Very quickly, she closed the door with a bang and never came out again.

In short.

Although the process was a little complicated, whether it was Uncle Zhao Jie's side or the Nagano sisters' side, Liao Zixuan's goal was achieved, and the time was much earlier than expected.

Liao Zixuan couldn't teleport directly to Vivian because he had to bring along Miyako. Fortunately, with Zhao Jie's connections, Liao Zixuan could easily get a fast ship from Moondeep Island to Whiteplume Island.

When he met up with Vivian, they arrived at the White Plume Island stronghold and the village near the mine. The sun had not even set yet.

He handed Zhao Jie's letter to the little girl and instructed Vivian to quietly gather the workers who were originally unemployed and waiting for their families back to the mine. However, their work was no longer mining. Instead, under Nagano Miyako's lead, they went to make special fireworks.

Liao Zixuan didn't need to worry about the raw materials for the fireworks. Thanks to Yosuke Sakai's smuggling, Liao Zixuan had a lot of the most important saltpeter. As for the remaining scraps, it shouldn't be difficult to find substitutes from the original workshop in the mine.

When the production was completed, it was Xinyan's turn to make his appearance. She was allowed to fly into the manor with these in her mouth.

Every fuse was attached with Xinyan's flame seedlings. With a thought from Xinyan, she could ignite them all and create a magic version of a remote-controlled bomb. This little trick of using fire was a piece of cake for the mighty Tinder Phoenix.

As for being discovered...Who would notice a small sparrow in the middle of the night?

Xinyan:

"Ji! Ji ji!"

After the wolf cub pressed down the dissatisfied sparrow with its paw, it continued to send a message to the little girl.

He had borrowed the mine to make explosive fireworks as a side effect. His main purpose was to obtain the White Plume Stone, which was a special ore on White Plume Island. As the raw material of the original Demon Sealing Cuffs on Prison Mountain, it had a very high magic blocking ability.

In other words, as long as the imprisoned girls were arranged into the depths of the mine, even if the enemy used self-destruct magic that controlled the mind, it would be useless if the magic could not be transmitted to the girls.

After revealing his plan to Vivian and Meggie, the two sides split into two groups. The wolf cub was responsible for sneaking into the villa to save Kaho, the daughter of the high official who was appointed as the chief officer, while the little girl and her group were responsible for the two tasks mentioned above.

After creating fireworks and using explosions to create chaos, he rescued the girls imprisoned in the villa and arranged for them to enter the White Plume Mine.
