

NPC Become 541

Chapter 541: The Fireworks Are Here!

A person dressed in dark brown religious attire lit a few candles on a small altar in the room. It seemed to be an activation ceremony.

Soon after, an extremely terrifying aura quietly descended in the room along with a flash of darkness at the altar.

“Apostle...” My lord!”

The disciple saw a figure covered in a cloak floating on the altar. His voice was very excited and trembling. He knelt down, full of respect and obedience.

“What is it?” The cloaked figure spoke hoarsely. His voice was sharp and thin, and it would make one’s hair stand on end.

“Lord Apostle, according to the plan tonight, we will brainwash the daughter of the important officer. Please give her a soul fragment!”

“Not bad.” Facing the disciple’s report, the shadow nodded as if it was giving affirmation.

Then, the shadow stretched out a withered hand from the cloak. It was clearly just a soul shadow summoned by the altar, but it magically affected reality. A small crystal fragment that emitted an evil aura was placed on the altar by the shadow, and the same fragment appeared in reality.

“Many, many thanks to the Lord Apostle for his gift! “When the believers saw the fragment, their faces were filled with obsession and fanaticism.

“I will do it myself. After I have brainwashed the daughter of the high official, I will be able to infiltrate the officers. In this way, the three officers on the Thousand Islands will all listen to the apostle and work for him!”

It was obviously a very normal flattery, but it attracted a cold glance from the cloaked shadow. Just this gaze alone made the believer who was kneeling on the ground tremble in fear. He buried his head deep into the ground and trembled, not knowing what he had done wrong to make the apostle angry.

Remember, we serve the supreme Ice Empress. Everything we have is given to us by the Empress. If you don't differentiate between primary and secondary...”

“Yes, sir! This subordinate deserves to die, this subordinate is ignorant!” The disciples knelt on the ground and kowtowed in fear.

“Alright, my lady's plan in the Flame Domain has already failed. Although the Flame Domain is a small place, it has still embarrassed the Empress.

Therefore, our Thousand Islands will not allow it to fail again, understand?”

“I, I understand! However, now that all three of them have been taken in, that Moon Abyss Palace Officer is still as the Empress expected, shutting himself in and turning a blind eye. There is no possibility of failure! As long as we wait until the time is ripe at the Abyssal Sea...”

The disciple spoke with full confidence. He really did not know how he could lose under such an absolute advantage.

“Don't be so certain. Don't forget that although we can control the Divine Wizard Selection with the help of the Three Principles, there's another existence on the Thousand Islands. Even if we don't pass the selection, we can still come and get it from the Abyssal Sea.”

“You... You mean...The first generation Divine Magus, the one from Sakuragi disciple asked carefully.

Don't worry, Lord Apostle. We've been paying attention to the news over there. Thanks to Lord Apostle's scheme many years ago, the first generation God Wizard completely sealed her heart and fell into a deep sleep. Unless we can untie the knot in her heart, she will never come out to disturb us. And the so-called knot..." Humph, all the files related to Sakuragi Island back then have been secretly destroyed by us. Even if someone wanted to investigate, there was no way at all. The only person involved in the disaster back then was the brother of the Divine Wizard. The rest were all dead. "

"In short, keep an eye on Sakuragi Island. Don't be careless. This is the biggest threat to us on the Thousand Islands, other than Water God.

"Yes." Although the disciple appeared very serious on the surface, he did not think much of it in his heart. He felt that the apostle was thinking too much.

"Alright, it's almost time. I still have something to do in Guili. If there's nothing else, then let's leave it at that. "

"Lord Apostle, don't worry! I wish Daren all the best in Guili and a prosperous martial arts fate! "

Chapter 542: Destiny Is Here!(I)

"Bring her in! "

An order came out from the leader's room. A moment later, a young girl with her hands tied was escorted to the door of the room.

"You may leave." The leader waved at his subordinates.

After the soldier left, only the two of them were left in the room.

"Woo... Wuuuu..." The girl twisted her body with anger and uneasiness, glaring at the leader of the believers. She seemed to want to say something, but unfortunately, she could only whimper because of the tape.

The leader seemed to enjoy the process. He did not touch the girl immediately. Instead, he walked to the door and locked it from the inside.

After doing all this, he slowly walked up to the girl.

“Kaho, you didn’t expect this, did you? Do you still recognize me? Back then, it was your father who caused my Nishitani family to go to jail. Who would have thought that things would change with the passage of time? Now, it’s your turn to be played by me, hahaha!!

The leader of the believers took off her hood as she spoke, revealing a withered, skeletal, and dismal face. From the outline of her face, one could vaguely recognize that she should be a beautiful woman.

” When I was in the most despair, it was the ‘Apostle’ who saved me from suicide and gave me a new life, giving me the power to take revenge on you and your daughter! Now, it was time for me to repay the favor of the Apostle.

“Don’t worry, I won’t kill you...Hehehe, how can I let you off so easily? Next, I will use the ability that the Lord gave me to destroy your spirit and make you completely become a servant who only knows how to listen to us. After that, I will let you personally execute your father in prison. After your father dies, you can take over the position of that old thing and serve the Lord Apostle!

The leader of the believers stared at the girl with hatred and viciousness. When she saw the intense anger in the girl’s eyes because of her words, the leader’s lips curled into a smug smile.

Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of something and used her wrinkled hands to caress the girl’s smooth and tender face.

‘ Oh, I almost forgot. Kaho, you still have a beautiful body like mine. It would be a waste to not use it. With my current appearance, I don’t have the right to offer my body to the apostle, but you’re different...” Hehe, hehehe...”

“You look like you want to talk? That’s right. If it wasn’t for your useless rage before you died, then this revenge would be too meaningless. Let me hear what you have to say.

As the leader of the believers spoke, he reached out and took off the tape that was covering the girl's mouth, as if he was playing with his prey.

But to her surprise, when Kaho finally managed to speak, her first words weren't curses or begging for mercy. Instead, they were...

"Apostle? Why haven't I heard of it in the Thousand Islands? However, no matter how well-known the traitors were, they would still be eliminated by Lord Gong Si one by one!

"You!"

Kaho's words successfully angered the Ruler, because she had touched on the most sensitive nerve of the Ruler. She even forgot that the apostle had warned her not to reveal too much information about the organization.

Kaho's words "traitor" had completely occupied this leader's mind. She clearly had an almost obsessive love for the "apostle." A woman who was half a step into madness would never allow anyone to insult the person she admired in the slightest.

"Hmph, you rotten bitch, you're just a frog at the bottom of a well! What do you know? The apostle came from the distant Winter, and he was one of the most important executives of the "Top Three" Sequence under the supreme Ice Queen. In the plans of the apostle and the Queen, what was a Thousand Islands? Our real goal is nine...

Her voice came to an abrupt halt, as if she had just reacted. The leader of the believers glanced at Kaho with a cold gaze. She knew that she had said too much. Even if the person in front of her was about to die, she shouldn't have said all this.

Without wasting any more time, the leader took out the crystal shard that the "Apostle" had given to her.

If you swallow this, not only will your will be trapped in the darkness, but it'll also be like a bomb in your stomach. There's no way to take it out. As long as I cast the corresponding spell, you'll be reduced to ashes in the blink of an eye. Kaho, this is your retribution!

It was clearly a very scary thing to say, but Kaori's face did not show the fear that she had imagined. Instead, Kaori's face was calm.

"Lord Bai, I'm sorry. I can only find out so much." The girl with her hands tied suddenly spoke.

Before the leader could react, the door that she had locked suddenly opened from the outside, and a figure flashed in.

"You are!" The leader's eyes widened in shock. She immediately recognized this person as the soldier who had escorted Kaho in earlier.

However, before she could react, the leader felt a huge force coming from her abdomen. Then, she flew out and smashed into the wall with a muffled bang. Her body fell to the ground and fainted.

"I'm sorry for letting you take a risk.."

Chapter 543: Destiny Is Here!(I)

"It's okay. If it weren't for Lord Bai, I might have really..." Kaho wanted to say something, but she hesitated. When she thought about the ending that the leader of the believers had mentioned, Kaho felt a chill run down her spine.

After knocking out the leader with a single punch, Liao Zixuan untied Kaho. This was what they had agreed upon. Liao Zixuan wanted to get more information from the leader through Kaho. After all, according to the script, this kind of moment where the enemy was only one step away from success was usually the place where the enemy's psychological defense was the weakest.

Unfortunately, after taking such a huge risk, he only obtained information from the leader that the Apostle was an Upper Three Sequence.

At present, it seemed that this organization was his biggest enemy other than [Fallen Abyss]. If he counted carefully, including the "Apostle" executive of Thousand Islands, he and Vivian had already met two.

The code names are "Madam" and "Doctor".

The former seemed to have been eliminated by them, while the latter was the leader of the Witch Experiment. If there was really a sequence of executive officers, then Liao Zixuan felt that the "lady" should be very late, and the "doctor" was relatively likely to be in the "top three" ranks.

"Lord Bai, what's next?" Kaho was a little nervous as she looked at the mysterious young man beside her who seemed to be deep in thought.

"Oh, just wait here for a while."

"Wait... Wait for a while?" Kaho was a little confused by Liao Zixuan's reply.

From the fact that the other party was willing to cooperate with him just now, it could be seen that this woman was very brave and courageous. Therefore, Liao Zixuan still had a good impression of this daughter of a high official.

He gestured for Kaho to cover her ears. Although Kaho was still in a confused state, she instinctively followed his instructions. Perhaps it was only after a few blinks of the eye that she heard...

Boom!

Boom!

Deafening explosions rang out in the manor at night. After Liao Zixuan was done, he informed Xin Yan through the Flaming Feather. Xin Yan immediately lit up the fireworks that had been set up.

Judging from the current situation, Nagano Miyako was indeed powerful. If they did not know beforehand, no one would think that these were just the effects of fireworks, but a real explosion.

Kaho's reaction was enough to tell that she was extremely shocked. For a moment, she even thought that Liao Zixuan was some secret high-ranking officer of the Great Fuxi Society that she didn't know about.

After all, only the Grand Priest could launch an attack of this scale.

The villa was soon in chaos because of the fireworks explosion, but Liao Zixuan knew that this was just a delaying tactic. In order to buy more time for Vivian's rescue, he chose to set fire to the leader's house.

In the end, Liao Zixuan held Kaho and the unconscious leader in his hands and jumped out of the room that was already on fire, heading towards the meeting point.

White Collar Mine.

"Xiao Hei!" Vivian was nervous and worried. When she saw the black wolf with two people in its mouth, her heart finally relaxed.

Mei Ji, who was beside him, also looked relieved and sat on the ground. From her exhausted appearance, it could be seen that even if there were fireworks and fire to attract the fire, her spells should have been used during the rescue process. As an Astrologer, her combat ability was still lacking...Roughly?

Only now did Kaho finally understand that the person who had organized this rescue operation wasn't some Daxi practitioner from Lunar Abyss Island. It was actually just a few little girls and a...Wolves?

When she saw Liao Zixuan transform from a human into a black wolf, she almost fainted from fear.

"That Xiao Hei, there was a small accident in the middle of the year..." While Vivian was whispering to Black Wolf, she glanced into the mine.

When Hei Lang looked over, a familiar purple-haired figure slowly walked out of the mine.

This was...

Why are you always there, hey!

Liao Zixuan looked at the familiar cold and stern face. Wasn't it the number one general of the Great Fu Sect, Six Paths Robe?

"Xiao Hei, don't be nervous. General Luo Sha doesn't have any hostility towards us. He even helped us a lot!" Vivian saw Black Wolf tense up and quickly comforted him.

"Is he the mastermind?" Luo Sha looked at the leader.

Kaho was the first one to step forward and tell Luo Sha everything that had happened, including her imprisonment in the manor. She also told Luo Sha about how she had used the Three Pursuing Powers to gain control of the Thousand-island Sect and what kind of conspiracy she was plotting in the Divine Wizard selection and the Abyssal Sea.

She was going to bring the leader of the disciples to see Gong Si immediately.

At this time, the leader who was knocked out by Zixuan also woke up slowly.

When she first saw the Six Paths Silk Robe, she knew that things had gone wrong and that it was over. She revealed a crazed expression. It was obvious that she was preparing to repeat what she had done last week.

"Hehe...Robe...I didn't expect you to dare to act on your own. I've really underestimated you. I thought you would always swallow your anger. As long as Gong Si doesn't give the order, you won't care about us..."

In fact, the leader was right. From many of Zhou Mu's experiences, it could be seen that although Luo Sha was a member of the righteous camp, he lacked autonomy. Every time he appeared, he had to do something with Vivian before Luo Sha could find an excuse to intervene.

"Do you think that this is the end? Hahaha! He was too naive! The apostle's plan is perfect, and no one can stop it. Even if I fail, I won't let you guys have it easy!

"I'll let you guys be blown up into ashes together with me, hahaha..."

For the Apostle!!"

As the leader of the believers laughed maniacally, he shouted the self-revealing line in Liao Zixuan's memory. However, this time, the scene fell into silence. A full three or four seconds passed, but there was no movement at all.

' For the Apostle Lord! The leader of the believers roared again in disbelief.

The dim light that ignited the magic once again bloomed from her chest, but unfortunately, nothing happened this time.

"Why..." Why didn't it explode? How could you transport those girls far away in such a short time? As long as they are still on White Wing Island, I should be able to turn them into bombs. Impossible! You guys... How did you..."

It was the voice of the Six Paths Gauze that extinguished the last hope of the leader of the disciples.

"So, this is why you put them in the Sha looked at Vivian with a complicated expression.

This reminded the leader. She suddenly remembered that when the Six Paths Robe first came out, it came out of the mine, and in the mine on White Plume Island...

“Damn it! Damn it! Why are you guys so lucky? Damn it, damn it!!” The leader of the believers gritted his teeth furiously.

She naturally understood that it was the White Plume Mine that had isolated her magic signal, allowing the girls to be safe and sound. However, the leader thought that Vivian and the others had been lucky enough to place the girls in the mine. What she did not know was that her last card of mutual destruction had long been seen.

“If you have anything else to say, say it in front of Lord Gong Si.” Luo Sha put the magic sealing handcuffs on the leader and turned to Vivian and the others.

“As the main participants in this matter, you will also follow me to meet Gong Si.”

It was obvious that the Six Daos had tried to speak to Vivian in a gentler tone. They wanted to make it clear that they only needed the little girl’s help in the investigation, not to blame her.

However, Vivian and Black Wolf looked at each other and shook their heads at Luo Sha.

There was no need for them to travel to Moon Abyss Island by boat. There was a simpler and more convenient way to meet Gong Si.

Six Paths Robe was confused. She thought Vivian did not trust her and was about to lower her tone. However, as an astrologer girl, Maggie immediately understood what Vivian meant and showed an excited expression.

Is it coming, is it coming!

Mei Ji’s attitude towards the Water God Palace went from fear to anger, and finally to urgency. It was a wonderful feeling, as if she was getting closer and closer to a goal that even she herself was not clear about.

Finally...

When the scorching flames rose from Vivian's body, the black wolf's body also began to grow. After the aura of the witch and the forbidden monster erupted on White Plume Island...

A familiar blue-haired witch appeared in the air..

Chapter 544: Destiny Is Here!(2)

"Lord Gong Si!" The Six Paths Robe was the first to kneel before the Witch.

The leader of the disciples who was detained by Luo Sha revealed an extremely shocked expression at Gong Si in the air because she could not believe that this existence actually...Walking out of the Moon Abyss Society?

The " apostle " had promised her that no matter what they did in the Thousand Islands, the palace guard would turn a blind eye to it. Moreover, the source of this news was the Queen. The Queen had mentioned that the current Water God was incomplete. Before the missing part was repaired, it was no different from a doll.

How could the leader of the believers not be shocked when a puppet suddenly walked out with its own consciousness?

However, the leader suddenly understood something. The blue-haired witch's target wasn't her. Instead, from the moment she appeared, Gong Si's gaze had never left the foreign girl and the black wolf beside her.

"You are..."

Gong Si spoke, but Liao Zixuan was already answering the blue-haired witch.

" The variable of fate, a person who should not exist in this world, an existence that needs to be eliminated, the messenger of my sister, the original holder of the Water God's Chain, the messenger of Orochi... Oh, there was also the biggest whistle-breaker of the 1,000 Islands! "

“Sir Gong Si, before you judge us, aren’t you going to take a look at this person first? And listen to your subordinate’s report?”

Liao Zixuan’s words finally made the blue-haired witch look at the remaining people around her.

As for Kaho and Rokasaya of the Six Paths, they were the subordinates of the Water God, and they immediately reported everything that had happened to the blue-haired witch.

As for the leader of the believers, his face was completely ashen. He had even given up on struggling. The main premise of all their activities in the Thousand Islands was that the Water God had been isolated. However, if the Water God really walked out, then...

Sigh...

A sigh sounded in everyone’s hearts.

“I still underestimated you.” The blue-haired witch said to Liao Zixuan and the little girl. There was a hint of self-blame in her voice.

However, the direction of her self-reproach was obviously not because of the chaos in the Thousand Islands caused by her inaction, not because of the innocent girls who were imprisoned for experiments, not because of the years of shady dealings in the Divine Wizard election, but...

“If I’m not wrong, you should have hired people to spread the information here to the thousands of people in advance.

Liao Zixuan was certain that the Water God’s doppelganger was right.

He had me people from Zhao Jie’s factory spread the news to the villages on White Wing Island. He had also secretly sent someone to inform the young military officer and the people of the Thousand Islands on Moon Abyss Island.

Liao Zixuan thought that he could make Gong Si compromise by coercing the public opinion, but the truth was... It wasn't the blue-haired witch who had underestimated them, it was they who had underestimated this person.

"In just a few days, you are actually able to spread the fate that I have painstakingly maintained for a hundred years like a plague, causing it to deviate from the right path..

He painstakingly maintained...A hundred years of fate?

What the Water God said next shocked not only Vivian and the others, but even the leader of the believers was stunned.

This was because the first person the blue-haired witch was going to tell was the leader of the believers.

"Back then, your father was constantly hinted at by someone using a mental manipulation method, causing him to take bribes and violate the law. He gave the evidence to your opponent, which led to the destruction of your family and the position of the Lord of Enforcement.

" That person used the same method in prison, hinting at the jailer to kill all your relatives. When the controlled jailer was about to become like you, the last flame of hope, he would appear as your savior and take you away, transforming and hinting at you.

In the end, under the trend of your heart of revenge and gratitude, you don't have to exert too much mental control on you. You will be used by him for decades."

Kaho and the leader of the believers couldn't accept the revelation of this old secret.

"Impossible! You... You lied to me!" The leader shook his head frantically. Anyone could tell who the Water God was referring to.

It was clearly Kaho and the others who plotted to frame and kill Father in order to gain power. They were even afraid that we would come back for revenge, so they went on to ruthlessly kill our clan in prison. It was clearly Kaho...It's Kaho and the others!"

The Ruler sobbed as she spoke. No matter who told her the truth, she could choose not to believe it. However, it was from this blue-haired witch. As a god, she had no reason to lie to her.

So, so...

"Lord Apostle, why...Why did you..." The leader of the believers had a complete breakdown. Her spiritual support had been completely destroyed by the blue-haired witch's words.

On the other side, whether it was Liao Zixuan or the little girl, as well as everyone present, they all felt a chill in their hearts.

This was because the blue-haired witch's words seemed to be revealing the truth, but in reality, they conveyed another meaning.

She was actually...He knew everything.

"Why? You are revered by us as the supreme Gong Si. My father and all the people of the Three Pursuers have great admiration and respect for you.. Why... If you want to watch all of this happen, why don't you stop it!!! You, you are our god!!

Chapter 545: Fate Is Here!(2)

The leader of the believers cried and screamed at the Water God's doppelganger, but all she got was the blue-haired witch's indifferent and heartless reply.

"Because this is your destiny."

However, perhaps the last sentence of the leader, "You are our god," had touched the blue-haired witch. After a rare look of struggle appeared on her face, she added,

"Because this is..." The one that can make the survivors of the Thousand Islands have a future. In order to achieve that future, no matter if it's you or all of you, you can't interfere with everyone's destiny. Otherwise..." It will become what it is now, causing the orbit to begin to deviate and tilt, causing us to leave the end of the plan."

I've already made a promise that I will never interfere in anything else. However, this time, I cannot watch you send the Thousand Islands into the unknown. Therefore, before the trajectory is deviated to an irreversible point, I want to..."

" I'll correct you guys!

This was the last bit of mercy the blue-haired witch showed them. Then, a Starry Sea Compass filled with a mysterious aura appeared in the witch's hand.

The moment the compass appeared, the entire night sky changed color. It was as if the sky had turned into a deep blue ocean, and more and more shining stars flickered within.

"Heaven's will cannot be defied. Let me send you back to your established destiny. Heaven's will...It's decided."

It was this move again. Liao Zixuan was extremely familiar with it. From his footsteps, his body began to turn into specks of starlight that were about to disappear.

This time, he and Vivian weren't the only ones whose bodies had disappeared.

Liao Zixuan also noticed that the imprisoned girls in the mine, as well as Kaho, had been chosen by the blue-haired witch as targets for " correction."

In order to prevent Liao Zixuan's backup plan from taking effect, the Water God's clone actually chose...He chose to destroy the evidence! Or rather, it was to let these imprisoned girls go ahead of time. Their fate of "silent death" was already there.

"Gong Si...Lord Gong Si, you!" Six Paths Luo Sha was the only one who hadn't disappeared, but what could she do?

If one were to say that the leader of the believers was the one whose spiritual support had collapsed, then the Robe of Samsara's current state was actually similar to the leader's. She watched in disbelief as Kaho was about to disappear into nothingness under the power of the blue-haired witch. Of course, what was even more terrifying was that even her memories of Kaho seemed to be about to disappear as well.

This was what the Water God meant by 'correction.'

Ha...

Hehe...

Liao Zixuan felt a little self-deprecating and depressed. This was the first time he felt so helpless. If a game had a way to clear it, he could redo it as many times as he wanted. However, if the game didn't have a way to clear it, then no matter how many times he reloaded, it would be in vain.

That was the feeling that the Water God gave Liao Xuan.

This made him suddenly feel that all his previous efforts were nothing but a joke in front of the blue-haired witch.

Speaking of which...

They had only just arrived in the second country and had just walked out of the novice village's Flame Domain. In the end, they had to directly go against the Water God? It was just like how the warriors who had just left the Novice Village would come up to fight the Demon King.

Which bastard designed this game?

The only thing Liao Zixuan could do now was to mock him.

However, at this moment.

The voice of a certain girl that Liao Zixuan had almost forgotten for a long time finally sounded in his mind again.

[Stupid brother...]

" You taught me to defeat magic with magic. Since I want to fight against the gods, I naturally have to... God!"

' Mayu has been waiting for this moment for a long time. Now... It's time!"

Before Liao Zixuan could react, Mei Wu's voice had already sounded in another person's mind.

[Is there still no awakening?]

"Then let Meow help you again."

The snake-shaped girl's illusory figure appeared behind Mei Ji. This was someone who was also present and had not been affected by " Destiny's Will."

Immediately after, the snake-shadow girl blurred and revealed her true form as a large dark green snake. The moment the snake appeared, everyone's hearts throbbed. This was because every scale on the snake's body was actually shining with light. If one looked carefully, they would discover that it was actually like a small world.

Each scale on the World Devouring Snake's body represented the possibility of a world. All of them combined to create her "infinite" authority.

Although Meow's current ability did not allow him to do more, he could still reflect the scene on her scales in someone's mind.

Astrology girl Mei Ji only felt her vision blur, and countless images appeared in her mind like a slide show.

The first to appear was the female apothecary. Many bottles, jars, and herbs were placed in front of her.

"I tried this yesterday, and I tried this the day before yesterday. It should be today's turn..." The female pharmacist said as she mixed the medicinal ingredients and reagents on the table according to the ratio and drank them in one go.

However, after a few minutes, she broke out in a cold sweat with a pained expression on her face. Her limbs kept trembling. After a long while, the female pharmacist's pale face finally slowed down.

"This won't do either...Damn it! These two types of drugs were clearly able to alleviate the symptoms!"

Because of the strange illness caused by the popular drink among the villagers, the female pharmacist had tried many formulas in hopes of making an antidote, but without exception, she failed. Moreover, the mixture of herbs might have made the originally non-toxic medicine become like the one that almost killed her.

Even so, the female apothecary did not give up. While she traveled to various villages every day to see a doctor, she did not forget to advise the other villagers not to buy that drink again. When they returned home tired, they would still have to carry out the night test to improve the medicine.

Finally, after several weeks of hard work, the female apothecary finally succeeded in finding the first batch of effective medicine. However, before she could be happy, the door of her dilapidated house was forcefully pushed open. Three or four local warriors who practiced the ritual of exorcism kidnapped the female apothecary like a prisoner. The result of her hard work was violently smashed to the ground by the warriors. The glass shattered into pieces and the medicine spilled all over the ground.

The scene changed. This time, it was Kondo Naosuke, the young military official.

‘ I said you guys were transferred out of my team, why did you come back!’? “On a field, the military officer looked angrily at the soldiers below.

“Get lost, all of you get lost!”

However, under his orders, the soldiers who had been absolutely obedient to him all moved.

“You guys...’

“Lord Naosuke! We don’t want to leave you, no matter what you want to do, we... We all want to follow you!”

“Bastard! You all have families. Have you ever thought about what your families and parents will do if you fail?? What would happen to your wives and children??

Kondo Naosuke had been building up his resistance, but he knew the risks of what he was doing, so he kept sending out his soldiers who had families and prospects.

However, what annoyed the military official was that these soldiers, who had made him proud in the past, were now all disobeying orders.

‘ Master Naosuke, even if I die, my parents will know that I’m dying for the future of the Thousand Islands. They will accept it. My children will know that their father is trying to change the fate of the Thousand Islands. They will definitely be proud of it.

“A bunch of bastards.” In fact, when Kondo Naosuke saw the determination in the soldiers ‘eyes, he knew that it was useless to say anything more. He pretended to leave angrily, but in fact, his fists were tightly clenched in his sleeves.

Not only for Kaori, for Kurisu, but also for these brothers who are willing to risk their lives with him, he, Kondo Naosuke, are all... He couldn't fail or retreat!

The scene changed again, and they arrived at the core area of the Grand Fuxing

Hall. In a dignified and majestic room, a purple-haired woman was shooting at a target..

Chapter 546: Destiny (Part 2)

The bullseye was already severely damaged and was almost pierced through, but the purple-haired woman still ignored it. She continued to pull the bow and shoot like a robot.

It was as if what shot out from her hands were not arrows, but some kind of suppressed emotion in her heart. As for the target, it was not the target, but a barrier that the Six Paths Silk Robe could not break through.

Dong dong dong...

Someone knocked on the door.

"Enter." The Six Paths Gauze Robe said expressionlessly. He did not stop shooting arrows.

The person who came in was a secret agent from the Luo Clan. He squatted down and said in a deep voice,

Lord Luo Sha, Naosuke has made some moves. He has secretly changed the prison guards on Prison Mountain and transferred his own men over. I also found out that Kondo Naosuke has deployed his men on White Plume Island. The daughter of Lord Keisuke, who is in charge of the investigation, is locked up there, Judging from Naosuke's appearance, he is preparing to launch an attack soon.

“Lord Luo Sha, should we...?”

The purple-haired woman didn't reply to the spy's question. She continued to shoot arrows, but this time, Luo Sha's arm exerted a little force, and her fingers gripped the arrow's tail tightly. Purple light flickered in her eyes.

After a swoosh was heard...

weng!

This time, the arrow shot out from Six Paths directly pierced through the bullseye. It was so powerful that it directly shattered the already tattered target into pieces. If one looked closely, one could see traces of lightning elements surging in the air.

The secret agent was shocked by this movement. He knew that his general had been shooting behind closed doors. He had asked Luo Sha many times if he needed to change the target, but Luo Sha shook his head every time.

Miraculously, no matter how broken the target was, Lord Luo Sha seemed to be able to accurately control the strength of the arrow every time, so that it would not fall.

But this time...

It seemed that Lord Luo Sha was really angry. It was no wonder. Kondo Naosuke had been nurtured and supported by Lord Luo Sha. He could be said to be the most valued assistant. In the end, he wanted the officers and soldiers to use him for personal reasons. He even planned to break into the prison.

However...

What caused the subordinate's imagination to come to an abrupt halt was that he actually saw a smile on the purple-haired woman's face. Although it was very faint and difficult to notice without careful observation, it was precisely because Lord Luo Shan was always expressionless that any slight change would be very eye-catching.

Secretly transfer a portion of the Moon Abyss Warriors from the Great Fu Sect to the manor on White Plume Island to hide the gods and wait for orders. As for the prison guards on Prison Mountain... 'Speed up the review. Forget it, I'll skip the review process. If he wants to change, I'll just let him change.'"

"This..."

The secret agent was stunned because the instructions given by the Six Paths Robe were clearly..

so...

"This subordinate will obey."

The images kept changing. Some were of the old man and Kaho in Prison Mountain, some were of the imprisoned girls, and some were of the seriously ill villagers on White Plume Island...

Through Meowu's "infinite" ability, everyone's fate was shown to Meowu. This was the end of their tragic ending, and some of them were trying to "resist" their fate. Now, with Vivian and the wolf cubs, everyone's fate had changed.

Then, if someone said that they wanted to return this hard-won change to the original point.

A blue halo suddenly burst out from the astrology girl's chest. Liao Zixuan was no stranger to such a light. There was even an example in front of them.

The blue-haired witch suddenly turned her head to look at Mei Ji's position. Just like the previous few Zhou Mu, it was as if this Water God clone would subconsciously ignore Mei Ji's existence until Mei Ji took the initiative to make a move.

“Mei Ji, you...” Vivian, who was the closest to the astrologer girl, did not care about the starlight on her body. She was shocked by Maggie.

Because the astrological hat that covered Meiji’s hair fell off, her long and shiny blue hair swept down like a waterfall. Her eyes turned from light blue to deep and mysterious like the starry sky. The aura of justice from the girl’s entire body changed rapidly.

If Vivian had to describe the feeling that the girl beside her gave her, she was simply a replica of a blue-haired witch.

However, the former had short hair while the latter had long hair.

Of course, apart from the difference in appearance, the inside was even more different. The mystery that the blue-haired witch gave people was a sense of danger, but Maggie seemed to encourage people to take risks and explore.

Mei Ji took out the Starry Sea Compass that was identical to the one in the blue-haired witch’s hand. She took a deep breath and looked straight at Gong Si, who was also staring at her.

“Old hag, I don’t care what kind of future you see, but what I want to say is, what’s the point of creating a future by taking away the present? You want to return our fate to the beginning, but I... No!”

“If you think that fate has decided, then I’ll tell you...I prefer the path I’m on now. It’s not a path that’s decided by the heavens, so I want to... Set it down!”

As Mei Ji waved her arms, an extremely majestic aura of destiny erupted from her body. At the same time, the voice of the astrologer girl rang out..

Chapter 547: Destiny (2)

“Give me...This is my fate!”

The sea of stars on the compass in Mei Ji's hand began to expand infinitely. The starry sky that had been changed by the blue-haired witch was now replaced by the stars reflected by Mei Ji.

If one looked closely, they would see the female apothecary, Kaho, the young military official, the Six Paths Robe, the Astorokis, and White-feathered Island...Each star corresponded to the fate that Meow had shown to her with the snake scales.

Liao Zixuan and the little girl lowered their heads to look at their feet. Their bodies, which had been disappearing under the blue-haired witch's starlight, suddenly stopped.

This was not the end. Immediately after, many light spots floated out from the surroundings of everyone under the starry sky that belonged to Mei Ji. They began to turn around and enter their bodies on their own accord.

The entire process was like a flashback.

Under the starlight, the lower half of his body that had disappeared was rapidly coming back. It was as if they were existences that had been erased but were fixed by Mei Ji.

"This, this is..." Robe of Six Paths, Kaho, and the others were all at a loss. Vivian and the others were no different.

The only one who understood what was going on was the Water God's incarnation, the blue-haired witch.

Even though she still maintained a stoic expression, through the woman's long and thin eyelashes that were constantly trembling, one could still capture the true intense emotions in her heart.

"So, you are the one behind all of this..." Finally, the blue-haired witch spoke.

She spoke to the current Mei Ji as if she was an acquaintance.

From her tone, she could feel that many of the mysteries in Gong Si's heart had been solved at this moment. For example, why could she not find Liao Zixuan and Vivian no matter how hard she tried? Why could the power of a man and a wolf have such a great impact on fate? And why... They seemed to be able to predict everything.

The source of all this...

"Hmph, old woman, you finally remember Ji looked at the Water God Palace Bureau with her head held high.

However, the condition of her body was the complete opposite of the girl's tone.

It was not hard to see that although Mei Ji had reversed the Water God's ability, the price she paid was also huge. Her entire body became more and more blurry and transparent, like a moon in the water. Although she could reflect the full moon high above, it was not real and would eventually disappear from the world.

'Mei Ji!?' Vivian was so anxious that she could not help but touch Maggie, but the touch from her fingertips was no longer normal human skin.

Now, the astrologer girl gave the little girl the feeling that she had touched a ball...Water. A girl who was completely formed from water. This process was still accelerating. In a few breaths, they would not even be able to see Mei Ji's appearance clearly.

"Is this your decision? Flor?" The blue-haired witch quietly watched the entire process of Mei Ji's body collapsing, and she uttered another name of Mei Ji.

That should have been the blue-haired witch's own name. She was Gong Si of the Thousand Islands Lunar Abyss Society, one of the Nine Gods, Water God Floria.

"Old woman, back then...The one who created me...The goal...Could it be...Wasn't it just to be like...

Today...What?" Mei Ji's voice had already become intermittent.

"That was the worst decision I made back then.

"Heh...Hehe...Was that so? I think...Back then, you...

Want to compare with the present, you want to compare. More... Smart... More like a...God..."

After Meji spoke to the Blue Witch, she ignored her and left the last bit of time she had to Vivian and the wolf cubs.

"I'm sorry... Vivian... I was too afraid of death...That was why he had been sealing himself. All his memories...

Otherwise, you won't have to... He had worked so hard...The Thousand Islands would not have become...Now..."

"But you...Don't worry... Although Meiji did not exist after that...However, she will no longer exist..."

There was no need to ask to know that Maggie was referring to the blue-haired witch. However, Vivian still did not understand, or was unwilling to accept it.

Although she and Maggie had not known each other for a long time, they had gone through life and death together many times. In Vivian's heart, she had long regarded this proud but poor girl as an important partner in the Thousand Islands. But now, she was told that Maggie was going to die saving them...

On the other hand, Mei Ji, who was on the side of the astrologer girl, saw that the little girl was about to cry. She wanted to squeeze out a smile on her face, but unfortunately, she could not even do this. This was because because the girl's entire body was almost a translucent water person. She no longer had the aura of a human and had become a dense water element.

Maggie could only shake her head at Vivian.

Don't be sad, because the truth is not what the little girl thought. She did not say why she died, but ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

"Next, you will see the real...Flora...The real Water God...It was truly...!..."

After Meggie said those words to Vivian and Liao Zixuan, she could no longer maintain her human form and turned into a crystal clear drop of water..

Chapter 548: Destiny (3)

At the same time, Liao Zixuan looked at the blue-haired witch. He actually saw a hint of relief and relaxation on the face of Gong Si, who had always been expressionless. He could even see a faint worry on her face. It was a kind of worry for the future.

In less than a breath's time, the water droplet that symbolized Mei Ji began to emit a blue glow. Correspondingly, the blue-haired witch's chest also emitted a similar glow.

The two of them were like magnets that attracted each other, causing the water droplet to fly into the blue-haired witch's chest and fuse into the body of the Water God's incarnation.

Crack!

Time seemed to have paused at this moment.

The blue-haired witch closed her eyes tightly, and her breathing quickened. She frowned slightly, as if two forces were constantly colliding in her body.

The situation on Water God's side was reflected in the real world. It could be described as terrifying. Not only on White Wing Island, but on all the islands on the Thousand Islands, the sky turned gloomy at an extremely fast speed. Then, there was a strong wind and heavy rain.

Fortunately, the disaster came and went quickly. Perhaps it was because the collision of the blue-haired witch's powers had ended just as the people woke up from their dreams. They did not say who had destroyed who, but they had fused into one through this method.

Finally, the warden of the Moon Abyss Society opened her eyes again. This time, the blue-haired witch gave Liao Zixuan a feeling that, although it was less mysterious, it was more...The temperature.

"Then, first of all..." Gong Si muttered softly to himself. If it was the blue-haired witch from before, she would never do such a thing.

The astrolabe appeared in her hand. With a simple tap of her finger, the storm that enveloped the Thousand Islands came to an abrupt end, and the world returned to its original state.

"And then..."

The blue-haired witch put away her astrolabe and took out a "royal coin" in her hand. The so-called royal coin was a kind of coin often used by the witches of the Thousand Islands. They strung up strips of paper or cloth to offer to the gods and hung them on a straight pillar. They were folded into a number of zigzags and were usually used to exorcise evil spirits.

The blue-haired witch shook the coin gently, and an invisible ripple of water spread out. When the ripple touched the leader of the believers, her emaciated and withered body, which had been transformed by the apostle, was quickly restored to its original appearance. However, of course, a water ring shackle appeared between her hands at the same time.

The ripples didn't stop there. They continued to travel deeper into the White Plume Mine where Liao Zixuan had placed the imprisoned girls. The White Plume Ore, which was known as the Absolute Anti-Magic, was like an ordinary stone in front of the blue-haired witch's ripples. It couldn't stop them at all.

The ripples easily penetrated into the bodies of the girls in the mine. Then, a cracking sound came from the girls' bodies. The last time they were heard, it was when the magic stones in the girls' bodies were detonated. However, this time, although the magic stones had also shattered, the girls were still safe and sound. They didn't even feel anything. They were at a loss as to what had happened.

"Yes, the last thing is..." After doing all this, the witch finally shifted her gaze to Vivian and Liao Zixuan.

Liao Zixuan only felt a brilliant blue glow from Gong Si's eyes, covering his entire vision. When Liao Zixuan came back to his senses, the scene around him and the little girl beside him had completely changed. It was no longer White-feathered Island, but a blue ocean, and they were standing on the surface of the sea..

Chapter 549: The Real Water God

This scene...

Liao Zixuan felt a sense of familiarity from the bottom of his heart. Back when he was in the Flame Domain, Fire God Alice was also like this. In a moment of dizziness, she moved them to another place alone.

Then next...

Liao Zixuan's guess was right. In the next second, there were waves on the sea in front of them. Soon, the waves spiraled up, and a figure formed by the sea appeared in front of them.

"Mei...Mei Ji?" Vivian cried out in surprise when she saw him.

She was about to walk over quickly, but unfortunately, after a few steps, as the distance between them shortened, the unfamiliar feeling from the other party made the little girl stop in her tracks.

"I'm sorry. I thought I could communicate better with you if I appeared as your friend, but now it seems... That doesn't seem to be the case."

'Maggie' saw the disappointment in Vivian's eyes. She shook her head and apologized.

Then, the body of "Maggie" changed again. Finally, she chose to use Aqua Florca, which appeared in the form of a blue-haired witch, and greeted Vivian and the wolf cubs in a friendly manner.

"Hello, travelers from the Flame Region. You are also my sister's emissary.

We...We finally meet."

"I know that you all have many questions now, so I've dragged you all here. Next, I'll try my best to help you answer as much as possible. Just treat it as... It's a greeting gift from me, right?"

"Let me think, where should I start from...Hmm, let's start with Mei Ji, whom you care about the most.

The blue-haired witch spoke again after a moment of silence.

'From Mei Ji, all of you should have some understanding of me. I can pry into fate and foresee the future. Many, many years ago, I had foreseen a turmoil that was about to occur on the Thousand Islands. If I did not stop it, it would eventually turn into a cruel war. Hence, I wanted to secretly intervene and eliminate the source of the chaos. From there, I would change fate and allow the Thousand Islands to continue to be peaceful, just like...As I have done many times."

"However, this time..." Liao Zixuan saw that the blue-haired witch's eyelashes were drooping and her voice was much softer. After a pause, she let out a deep sigh.

"At that time, I had indeed changed the fate of the war by stopping the chaos. However, what followed was a new misfortune that was several times more terrifying than the war...I can't tell you the details of that year. I can only tell you that the Abyssal Sea was born at that time."

The Abyssal Sea hid the evil power of the Fallen Abyss. Liao Zixuan, who knew the plot of the game, knew very well that war might cause rivers of blood and countless families to be destroyed. However, compared to war, the Fallen Abyss brought destruction and misery.

Wars would end one day, but Fallen Abyss 'expansion would not.

From this point of view, the Water God had indeed brought a more serious disaster to the Thousand Islands.

"It's funny, isn't it? Gods make mistakes too, and after some gods make mistakes, they'll act like children, not daring to face it and running far away in fear."

The blue-haired witch shook her head in self-mockery and continued,"

The value of the game is too low. After we paid an extremely heavy price to suppress and seal the Abyssal Sea, I fell into deep self-doubt and didn't dare to do anything to fate. I began to hate all uncertainty."

In the end, in order to ensure that I wouldn't make the same mistake again, that I wouldn't be unable to help but interfere with fate and attract an even greater disaster, I decided to seal my emotions and become a true Guardian.

But at the last moment, it should be said that...Fortunately?"

"Because if I really did that, there would be no turning back, so I hesitated and secretly left myself a way out, and that was Maggie.

Finally, the astrological girl's name appeared in the story. In the past, Liao Zixuan, Vivian, and even Maggie herself thought that she was the disciple of the Water God. However, they did not expect the girl's identity to be... An escape route?

" I didn't seal my emotions. Instead, I used another method to extract these emotions and created another me that was purely composed of emotions, which was Mei Ji. As for the me that was separated from my emotions, I continued to play the role of the Moon Palace Secretary.

However, the subsequent developments still exceeded my original expectations. After becoming Gong Si, in order to strictly follow my original philosophy of eliminating all uncertainties, I actually wanted to capture and imprison Mei Ji to prevent her from fusing back. As a result, Mei Ji could only continue to hide and escape. She even took the initiative to seal her memories to hinder Gong Si's perception.

"Originally, I hoped to see both sides supervise each other, but in the end, it evolved into...In short, since the game had appeared, it seemed that Mei Ji had won.

This result was a little unexpected for Water God Floria, and she sighed with emotion.

"Mei Ji cleverly chose to get close to you and secretly worked with the future heir of the Yamata. In the end, she successfully completed the fusion step by step without being detected by Gong Si.

To Water God, it didn't matter which outcome it was, because she was still her.

For Liao Zixuan, the biggest puzzle in his heart had finally been solved.. Why didn't the blue-haired witch, one of the Nine Gods, know about the snake-shadow girl's ability? Did he not retain any memories in his many cycles? Wasn't this too much for a god?

Chapter 550: The Real Water God (2)

Now Liao Zixuan understood. It turned out that...This was actually a battle between the two "selves" of the Water God. They were just in the middle, uh... A worker?

Although it was a little depressing to think about it, and it didn't sound very good, it had to be said that this was definitely not a form of belittlement. In fact, it could even be written into a recruitment resume. It was a very colorful stroke!

Hmph, who doesn't start from the bottom? This is called accumulating experience!

"Ah, right, because it's quite important, I'm afraid I'll forget later, so I'm reminding you now. "Water God, who was halfway through his sentence, seemed to have recalled something.

The blue-haired witch suddenly pulled a long face and said with a serious expression, ”

Because of Mei Ji’s disappearance, after you walk out of here, you no longer have the ability to start over after death. In other words, if you die, you’re really dead. You must pay attention to this. Don’t get used to it because of what you’ve experienced during this period of time.

“No matter what, you must, must...Cherish your life.” The blue-haired witch murmured, as if she was reminding them, but also as if she was talking to someone far away.

The scene suddenly fell into silence. The Water God seemed to be reminiscing about something, while Vivian was still focused on Meggy’s disappearance. She had an obsession, so it was up to Liao Zixuan to speak at this time.

“Lord Water God, can you send us to the Abyssal Sea now? Also, do you know anything about Ann on the Astorokis?”

For Liao Zixuan, the little girl would always be the first, so the first thing he couldn’t help but ask was about An.

Unfortunately, the Water God’s answer disappointed Liao Zixuan.

“Ann? “I’m sorry, I don’t know anything about her. It’s different from your cycle of death. The appearance of that person is completely led by the descendants of the eight-branched. ”

Snake-led? Did Water God mean that she had nothing to do with Ann’s incident?

Seeing Liao Zixuan’s confusion, Water God added,” I’m not the only one who knows about the forbidden monsters. No one among the Nine Gods can guarantee that they can fully understand them. This is also why you are called forbidden. ”

“Then please send us to the Abyssal Sea immediately! “Since the Water God didn’t know how to control the water, Liao Zixuan didn’t want to waste any more time. He went straight to the sea to find An.

But this time, Water God still shook his head.

“I’m sorry. Actually, this is also another reason why I pulled you all in. You are currently in my spiritual space. When you leave, you will realize that I have fallen into a deep sleep for a period of time because I have to adapt to my newly fused body. Although I really want to help you, but...” Liao Zixuan was speechless.

The blue-haired witch blinked at him in embarrassment.

“However...” She suddenly changed her tone.

“Actually, you can reach the Abyssal Sea without relying on me. In fact, she is the monster who knows the Abyssal Sea the best. She knows it better than me. Even the method to enter the Abyssal Sea was invented by her.

Demons...She was...

Liao Zixuan had already figured out who the Water God was referring to from the few keywords in the Water Myths. The blue-haired witch’s next words were as expected.

“My next suggestion to you is to head to Sakuragi Island and find my former relative...Sakura.”

‘ You’re all forbidden monsters, so you should have a lot of common topics to talk about. It’s also easy to get along with her. Sakura is also very easy to talk to, and her personality is much better than mine. However, uh... The only one who might have a little trouble, is the one who was involved in the disaster, is also a victim, so if you want to see her, it will take some effort.’

“However...” Seeing that Liao Zixuan was about to say something, Water God did not give Liao Zixuan a chance to speak at all. She rushed to finish her words.

“I believe you. You’ve even dealt with a god. Don’t tell me you can’t deal with a little fox?”

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Are you sure that the little bit you’re talking about isn’t a hundred million? And why did he feel that Water God was deliberately lying to them?

The blue-haired witch blinked innocently at Liao Zixuan.

From the current Water God, he could see a few shadows of Mei Ji.

“It’s about time. If we delay any longer, we won’t be able to divide...Cough cough, I’m sorry. I can feel the sleepiness rising in my body. It seems that our conversation can only end here.”

Then, the blue-haired witch waved her hand again. Liao Zixuan and Vivian felt their surroundings rapidly recede, and the scene on White Plume Island immediately reappeared.

“Good luck, I’m... He was looking forward to the day when the dice of fate would be rolled again. In the end...I’m still a gambler. I hope that the mistakes of the past will not repeat themselves today...”

As Water God’s final words echoed in his ears, Liao Zixuan, who had transformed back into a wolf cub, returned to the sight of the Six Paths Robe, Kaho, and the others with Vivian.

When he looked back at where the blue-haired witch had been, it was already empty.

Outside, the six robed women were about to go crazy. They were the ones who had been kept in the dark from the beginning to the end, so when they saw Vivian come back, they anxiously went up to ask.

After Vivian briefly explained that Lord Gong Si was going to fall into a deep sleep for a long time, panic, fear, and horror could be seen on the Six Paths Robe's face.

Fortunately, the little girl had explained countless times that Gong Si was only in a deep sleep. He was not abandoning them or the Thousand Islands. Only then did the general of the Great Fuxi Sect barely walk out of his daze.

Losing Gong Si, even if it was only temporary, was definitely a huge shock to the entire Three Courts of the Thousand-island Sect. The Six Paths Robe hurriedly brought Kaho back to the Moon Abyss Island. There was a huge stall waiting for them to deal with.

However, for Liao Zixuan and Xiao Maiden, it was much easier because the pressure from the Water God was no longer there. It meant that they no longer had to restrain their hands and feet, and they could use all their strength to their heart's content.

In the Thousand Islands, which was only the second country in the game storyline, wouldn't he be able to do whatever he wanted?

With that in mind, Vivian and the wolf cubs arrived at the island that the Water God had told them about, Sakuragi Island.

In fact, Vivian had already noticed the difference on the island before they even reached it. Almost no ship was willing to sail to the island, and it was only after the Six Paths Robe had specially sent a ship to the island.

When they approached the island, the little girl understood why. The sky of the entire island seemed to be covered by purple dark clouds and thunderstorms. Any ship that approached had to move forward in the violent wind, waves, lightning, and thunder. No wonder no civilian ship was willing to carry them.

In the eyes of the local residents of the Thousand Islands, Sakuragi Island was almost like a forbidden land.

Although the entire island exuded an ominous aura, and Vivian could feel the uncomfortable chill as soon as she stepped on it, in order to reach the Abyssal Sea, the man and wolf still headed for the most eye-catching peak on the island, where the thunderstorm was the densest. It was the former shrine on Sakuragi Island, the Yae Shrine.

When they arrived at the foot of the shrine, Vivian did not expect to see a figure sitting cross-legged in front of the shrine entrance in the rain.

It was... A local resident?

Vivian was surprised. She was worried about how to learn more about this place, but just as the little girl was about to approach and talk to him...

The little wolf cub suddenly stopped her.

That was because...

WTF!

Liao Zixuan's first instinct was to use [Detection] on someone who was obviously not a normal person.

The message he received was...

[Owl] [Level: LV52] [Race:

[Blood Breed]