Chapter 551: Brother-in-law!(I)

Little Wolf Cub:

Was the current level free? They had just said that without the pressure of Water God, they could walk unhindered in the Thousand Islands with their strength. But now, they were being slapped in the face?

Opposite him.

The man seemed to have noticed Vivian's approach with the wolf cubs, but he did not even glance at them. It was as if he had been disturbed, so he got up from the ground and left. Without saying a word, he walked straight into the old society.

"Wait, please wait!" Seeing this, Vivian hurriedly wanted to chase after him. Judging from the man's behavior just now, the wolf cub seemed to be a neutral person, so she did not stop him.

However, to Vivian and the wolf cubs, the moment the little girl approached, it was as if there was a barrier that kept Vivian and the others outside. Vivian tried many times, but no matter which direction they came from, they would be bounced off by the barrier as soon as they tried to step into the shrine.

"Don't try. Although it's a long-abandoned shrine, the enchantment that used to be here is still preserved. After losing the controller and the frequent thunderstorms, the enchantment automatically turned into an alert state. If you're not someone who's identified by the enchantment as someone from the eight-story shrine, it's impossible for you to enter.

A languid, mature female voice sounded from not far away. Vivian turned around and looked at the little girl. She was stunned at first, but then she showed a surprised expression.

It was not because Vivian knew the woman who was talking to her, but because the woman behind her was probably a secretary.

"Lu... Miss Luzi?"

“Lady Lady Vivian, we meet again! It’s great to see you safe and sound! “It was a familiar face and voice. Luzi was the first person the little girl had met on the Thousand Islands.

Because of the series of events that had happened before, they were forced to separate. Vivian did not expect to meet again here.

As for Roko and the others, before the incident with the Water God ended, their memories about the little girl were temporarily swallowed by the snake. After successfully resolving the threat of the Water God, these memories about Vivian naturally returned.

“Why are you...Ah! No! Lu Zi, are you okay? I remember that at the port, you were...”

“It’s a long story. It’s all thanks to Lady Vivian who discovered Yosuke’s conspiracy in advance and transferred the things that were framed away, which saved us from prison. Instead, we were sent to work on this Sakuragi Island.”

“Speaking of which, Lady Vivian, I heard that you even persuaded Lord Gong Si.

I’m really impressed. I can’t believe what you did...”

“Cough, cough, cough!”

Vivian and Roko started chatting away, and the more they talked, the merrier they got. Someone who was the first to speak but seemed to have been ignored finally could not help but cough in dissatisfaction.

It was only then that the interrupted Luzi reacted and quickly took a step back.

“Lady Vivian, let me introduce you. This is the head of the family I serve, Lady Risa of the Sakai family.”

Wine...Risa Sakai?

Vivian had heard this name many times before.

First, when she was in the Flame Domain, Fire God Alice had told her that there was such a person in the Thousand Islands who could provide her with help.

And now, the little girl had finally met this big shot who had been providing her with convenience behind her back..

“Risa...Sir, hello! Nice to meet you. I’m Vivian. Please take care of me! I’ve received a lot of care from you before. I’m really grateful to you.”

Vivian had been in Thousand Islands for some time now, so she had learned some local manners.

While the little girl greeted him, she nervously sized up the woman opposite her.

Not to mention anything else, just the mature aura that the other party emitted...For example, the chest area that made it difficult for the woman to look away at first glance, or the button. He was almost stuffed! For example, was this really the size that a human could reach? It was enough to make Vivian admit her defeat. The young and inexperienced girl admitted defeat, and her heart was filled with strong respect.

Compared to Vivian, the little wolf cub was much calmer. It was not only because he was knowledgeable, but also because Sakai Risa, the avatar of the Witch Bella in the Thousand Islands, was an old acquaintance of the players in the previous life.

The Poison Mouth and Giant Boobs section of the game had the soul of a witch inside. It was a full buff buff. It was definitely one of the NPCs in Thousand Islands that could arouse the interest of players. She was almost stripped naked inside and out, in all sorts of ways.

“Humph.” Sakai Risa did not respond to Vivian’s greeting. She just snorted, as if she was taking revenge on Vivian for ignoring her.

“Ah, this...’

When she saw the little girl’s pleading eyes, Lu Zi immediately translated, “Lady Risa means that she’s happy to see you too.

“Is that so? That was great! However, what you said just now, and now...Ah, wait a minute, could it be that you deliberately...”

“Humnh. You’re overthinking it. We were just bored and came out to take a stroll. In the end, we found out that an idiot was doing something stupid in front of the shrine and couldn’t stand it anymore. “Before Vivian could finish, Sakai Risa immediately explained..

Chapter 552: Brother-in-law (1)

“This... Is that so...” Vivian blushed and felt awkward. It seemed that she was overthinking things.

However, at this moment, the translator, Lu Zi, spoke again.

” Actually, what Master Risa meant was that she was very concerned about your movements. When she learned that you were coming to Sakuragi Island, she immediately stopped the idea of going back to settle scores with Sakai Yousuke. She even expected that you would definitely come to the shrine as soon as you landed on the island, so she specially asked me to wait here with her...”

“Luzi! ”

An ear-piercing sound rang out.

“If you don’t know how to translate, then don’t translate!” Sakai Risa was very angry and glared at the administrative officer beside her.

Sakai Risa complained that her legs were sore, but in reality, her footsteps were lighter and more refreshing than anyone else's. The woman looked satisfied and left with Roko.

"Lady Risa, why are you still...Why do you have to make things difficult for Lady Vivian..."

"Hmph, what do you know? This isn't making things difficult, this is education!

If you want to obtain something, you have to pay the corresponding price. Moreover..."

Don't you know how difficult it is to make that dead man at the foot of the shrine open his mouth?" Sakai Risa said confidently. We've tried to communicate with him many times, but we've been rejected every time. It's all because I had an idea recently and revealed my identity as the island master that I finally managed to talk to him a little. I found out that he's a descendant of the Yae Shrine and came to visit on the way from abroad. The most important thing is that he'll be leaving in a few days. "

"If that little girl were to ask herself, she probably wouldn't be able to get a single word even if everyone else left! "

"If I really helped Vivian so much, what's wrong with letting her massage my legs?"

"Moreover..." Sakai Risa pursed her lips. "How many people want to rub my legs and feet?"

Lu Zi was speechless.

She originally wanted to retort, but after glancing at the person beside her, those fair and round long legs, those exquisite and beautiful jade feet...

"Lady Risa, please mind your words. "Lu Zi could only say helplessly.

Aiya, alright, alright. It's not easy for you to stop pretending in the club every day. Lu Zi, don't pretend to be serious. When you're traveling, you have to act like you're traveling. "

Obviously, Vivian felt that she could get such important information by doing such a simple job. Lady Risa was really too good to her!

Besides, the little girl wanted to thank Risa. Besides, Risa was obviously much older than her and was about to become her mother. The little girl did not think that there was anything to be humiliated or embarrassed about. It was normal for a junior to give an elder a massage in Vivian's village.

However, what Vivian thought was one thing, but what the wolf cubs thought was another.

What a joke!

The wolf cub knew Sakai Risa's true identity and also saw through the Witch Bella's true evil interests. He would definitely not allow his little girl to be teased like this!?

In the end, what they really needed was not Sakai Risa, but the mysterious man in front of the shrine.

From Sakai Risa's confidence that Vivian would come to beg her, and the man's cold attitude that they had seen with their own eyes, the wolf cubs knew that if they were stupid enough to ask others directly, they would probably never get anything out of them. In that case...

Humph.

"Xiao Hei, what did you say? They want us to go now...Adventurer Association?" When she heard the telepathic message from her wolf cub, Vivian showed a very confused expression.

Through the game's "Detection" skill, Liao Zixuan had obtained a very decisive piece of information about the man named "Owl", which was his race.

Blood Clan!

Liao Zixuan did not know why the Blood Clan, who should have only appeared in the game of his previous life, would appear on the Thousand Islands. He also did not know why a Blood Clan was connected to the Yae Shrine.

However, since the other party was a member of the Blood Clan, Liao Zixuan definitely had a way to make the other party speak. At the very least, he would not ignore them anymore.

“Xiao Hei, you, you mean...Liz?”

After the wolf cub explained everything, Vivian was not stupid and immediately reacted.

That’s right!

Because if they were talking about the Blood Clan, wasn’t the daughter of the Earl in the Flame Domain one of them?? Furthermore, Liao Zixuan was very certain that Liz’s mother’s bloodline must be extremely high, which made Liz also possess an extremely high level of Blood Race bloodline.

It must be known that the Blood Race was one of the races that valued the bloodline class the most. Whenever a high-level Blood Race appeared, the lower-level Blood Race would be suppressed and controlled unconditionally.

Liao Zixuan’s current plan was to rely on the Adventurer’s Associations all over the world to contact Liz in the Flame Domain and ask Liz to send them a small bottle of blood essence. Blood essence was equivalent to an identity card for the Blood Race. After they obtained Liz’s blood essence, they would go to Owl and obtain information. Wouldn’t it be easy?

The only possibility was that the other party’s bloodline suppressed Liz, or was on the same level as Liz.

But just thinking about it, he knew how it was possible.

Liz’s mother was at least a Prince, or even a Ruler-level. Above Ruler-level was the peak of the Progenitor level.

The nobler the bloodline, the harder it was to give birth to children. The conditions for children to awaken their bloodline were also stricter. This could be seen from Liz.

Back then, this young lady's awakening depended on drinking the blood of the wolf cubs, which were taboo monsters!

If he wanted to have the same bloodline as Liz, he would have to at least drink the blood of a forbidden monster, right? However, how could there be any forbidden demons in this damn place?

Chapter 554: Brother-in-law (3)

Flame Domain.

Fire Code City.

"Phew The golden-haired noble lady let out a long sigh of relief. She stretched lazily on the chair and finally got up from the pile of documents on the table that was almost as high as a hill.

"Thank you for your hard work, Earl."

"However, since this morning, you have been in the study for more than ten hours. For the sake of your health, I suggest you go and rest as soon as possible.

A silver-haired maid stood beside the desk. As she spoke, she handed over a cup of coffee that she had prepared earlier.

"Sigh... Elena, you can call me Liz when there's no one around. "The blonde girl took the maid's coffee with a helpless look on her face.

But the maid shook her head.

"Which servant would call their master by his name?"

“Alright, alright. How about this? You can still call me Young Miss like before, right? The Earl felt that they were too distant. “The golden-haired girl took a step back.

Unfortunately, the maid still shook her head and said,“ You have now taken over the Sisre Family and become the youngest of the new generation in Fire Code City. You are also the first Countess in history. The title of Lady is outdated. ”

“I don’t care! Now that Vivian has gone to the Thousand Islands with her little wolf, you’re the only friend I have left. If you continue to call me that, will you really bear to?”

“Alright, alright, Young Miss.” Under the blonde girl’s tough attitude and emotional card, the maid finally relented.

However, Elena couldn’t help but correct him,”

“Young miss, you seem to have forgotten about Lady Xue Li at the God Splitting Lake. She is also one of your friends. If young miss really feels lonely, do you need me to invite her...

Before the maid could finish her sentence, the blonde girl seemed to have been provoked. Her entire body trembled and she almost lost her grip on the coffee in her hand.

“Her? Friends? Alina, is there a serious misunderstanding? How did you know that we are friends? Love... Cough, more like an enemy!”

“No, don’t mention that woman to me. Every time I think of her, I get a headache. She’s like a bottomless pit all day long, constantly asking me for this funding, that funding! All kinds of bills under her name were sent to the Castle of the Earl every day!

Liz gritted her teeth. The Sisre family was indeed powerful, but because of the death of the earl, the family was severely divided. Although Liz had inherited her father’s position in name, she did not have much real power, let alone the family’s assets.

This wasn't much money to begin with, and it wasn't even enough for Liz to rebuild her family. She couldn't wait to split a copper coin in half. In the end, she had to split a large sum of money to Cher every day. How could Liz not feel heartache?

"Lady Shirley is a demonic creature. If she wants to move around in human society, there's nothing she can do about it. Moreover, Lady Shirley is also carrying out the mission that Lord Bai gave her. I've carefully looked at the bills every time. They're basically for the mission.

The maid consoled, while Liz snorted.

"Hmph, of course I know that. Otherwise, why would I always have to squeeze it out of my teeth and give it to her when I'm still short of money?"

Before Vivian and the wolf cubs brought the Water God's Chains back from the Thousand Islands, the fall of the Fire God would continue to affect the entire Flame Domain, causing more and more people to be infected by the fall. Some of them would even become spiritually corrupted slaves like Count Sisl.

Before Liao Zixuan left the Flame Domain, he gave Xue Li the task of secretly gathering information about these "festered Eldest Miss, this is today's newspaper. The Archbishop of the Fire God Sect, Damir, has used magic to find signs of a new Fallen Abyss in many second and third-tier towns in the Flame Domain this week. Now, the entire knight regiment is in shock, and the Knight Commander, Sir Harvey, has personally led the regiment out."

"Is that so? I didn't expect it to come so quickly..." Liz frowned slightly. One could see the worry for the future in the young girl's brows.

Everyone thought that the disaster in Fire Code City was over, but only those who followed Vivian knew that the battle in Fire Code City was just the beginning. What the Fire Domain was about to face was an even more severe challenge.

For this...

“How’s the layout of the novice village coming along?” Liz asked the maid. She had learned this strange new term from Liao Zixuan.

Xue Li had a mission from Liao Zixuan, and Countess Liz, who had a higher position and power, naturally wouldn’t be idle.

” We have used all our resources to build the base. According to Miss Da’s instructions, we have built the Red Flame Town as the hub. All the rebuilt lower villages are mostly planned to be near the Starfire Forest. It will take less than ten minutes to reach the periphery of the forest.

” As for the distribution of equipment in each village, we have also strictly followed the requirements of the young miss. There must be a weapon shop, a defensive equipment shop, a prop shop, a blacksmith shop...We will recruit professionals from all over Fire Code City and distribute them to the villages. We will strive to ensure that every village has at least three professional mentors..

The maid’s report paused for a moment.

“According to the response, many people don’t understand why the young miss wants to build so many villages with so much fanfare. Now that many villages have been built, almost all of them are empty because we don’t have that many people to live in.”

In addition, for the sake of the future, several of the Cecil family’s collateral relatives unanimously agreed that the Eldest Miss’s arrangements for each village are too luxurious. Ordinary villagers don’t need the above-mentioned shops in their daily lives. As for the professional instructors...Naive. It would be good if one in ten ordinary villagers could learn it.

“From the looks of it...Many shop owners have sent us requests to shorten the duration of the contract, and the job instructors we hired have mostly complained and planned to leave as soon as the contract period ended.

In the eyes of many of the Fire Code City nobles, Liz's actions of recruiting more people and expanding the village were akin to throwing money crazily. Although many of the nobles did not express it on the surface, they were actually mocking her in their hearts, lamenting that Liz was too young and everything was too idealistic.

But in reality...

"Young miss, we're betting a lot. If a new batch of foreigners doesn't appear in half a month, we..."

"I believe in Bai." The simple words that came out of the golden-haired girl's mouth made the maid speechless.

This was because Elena knew that Bai's position in their hearts was unshakable. Since Bai had told them to make such preparations, the young miss would definitely not spare any effort.

This was also the reason why Liz worked hard for more than ten hours a day.

It was fortunate that the girl had a special constitution and was a vampire. Otherwise, no matter how capable she was, she would not be able to withstand such a huge workload.

"Let's not talk about this anymore. How's Vivian? Any news?" Liz's words seemed to have reminded Elena. The maid quickly said,

"The Adventurer's Association has just sent someone over. They said that Vivian has left a message for you. They need you to personally go and receive it.

"What? Why didn't you say something so important earlier? Hurry up and prepare your clothes. We're going out!"

After glaring at the maid, Liz hurriedly ran to the bedroom to look for her clothes. When the camera turned again, Liz and the maid had already arrived at the second floor of the Adventurer's Association in Fire Code City.

The second floor was a VIP room. Even if Liz was a Countess, she was not qualified to come up. However, because Vivian was a platinum badge holder of the association, all information was encrypted and protected. The receptionist on the second floor invited Liz into the room. There was a magic crystal ball inside.

When Liz placed her hand on it, the crystal ball sensed the girl's aura and began to glow. It played a video stored in it in front of them.

"Vivian, and...Xiao Hei!" With the appearance of the figure in the image, Liz was especially excited and excited.

But soon, when she saw the scene behind the little girl and the others, the lightning and thunder on Sakuragi Island, Liz's originally happy mood turned nervous and worried.

Fortunately, in order not to worry Liz, Vivian did not tell her about their encounter on the Astorokis or their encounter with the Water God on the upper layer of the Thousand Islands. The little girl only said that everything was going well on their side, but they encountered a little difficulty. They needed Liz to provide her blood essence and send it over through the teleportation circle of the association.

Because it was a one-sided video, Liz could only watch and not communicate. No matter how worried she was, she was in a different country. It was impossible for Liz to abandon such a big business like Fire Code City and take a boat to the Flame Region alone.

Therefore, even though Vivian had mentioned in the video that only a few drops of blood essence were needed to fill the small bottle, Liz still gritted her teeth and gave herself a big bloodbleed. She dripped ten drops in one go before sealing the bottle.

At that time, it was the maid, Elina, who was quick to react and quickly supported LIZ so that the young mss, whose 11mt)s were weak, (lid not tall.

Every drop of blood essence of the Blood Breeds was very precious. If one drop was missing, it might take several weeks to replenish it. Therefore, it was obvious how much sacrifice Liz had made without saying a word.

However, if it was for Vivian, for the wolf cubs, for...Even if the person she liked drained her of blood, Liz would not even blink.

The dark red blood in the crystal bottle emitted a faint glow. If one looked closely, the blood seemed to be alive. It was constantly flowing and rotating in the bottle with a slight degree.

After she put the bottle of her blood essence into the special teleportation circle of the Adventurer Association, Lissy paid the fee. Under the operation of the association staff, a white light flashed. When she came back to her senses, the crystal bottle in the teleportation circle had disappeared.

Thousand Islands.

Sakuragi Island.

“To the stars and the sea, welcome to the Adventurer’s Association. “A familiar voice, a familiar face, and a familiar line.

If it wasn’t for the little wolf cub reminding Vivian, she would never have thought that there would be a member of the Adventurer’s Association on Sakuragi Island, a cursed island that was almost uninhabited..

Chapter 556: Brother-in-law (3)

In response, the staff of the association said that they were all magic puppets, so they could easily adapt to any environment and provide convenience and help to adventurers in every corner of the world. This was also the original intention and reason for the establishment of the association.

“Miss Vivian, we have received the items from Fire Code City. Please accept them.

It was a similar magic crystal ball that was used to verify identity. When Vivian put her hand on it, the crystal ball flashed and shattered. The storage circle inside was activated. A few seconds later, a bottle containing Liz’s blood essence appeared in Vivian’s hand.

“Good, so powerful, Little Black!” This was the first time Vivian had experienced and enjoyed the convenience of a platinum badge since she became a platinum badge holder.

It had only been less than half a day since they had borrowed the association to send a message to Liz, and they had already obtained what they wanted.

The little wolf cub sighed. It might not have felt this way when it was a player, but now that it had become a native, the Adventurer’s Association was indeed worthy of being the strongest neutral force in Fallen God.

It was a wise decision to let Vivian complete the certification in the Adventurer’s Association. From this, it could be seen that if they wanted to travel around the nine countries in the future, they would definitely need the Adventurer’s Association. With such a powerful communication network, no third party in the nine countries could do it.

The little wolf cub looked at the crystal bottle and felt his heart ache. At the same time, he was also quite touched. Of course, he could tell that the amount of blood essence inside was far greater than what they had mentioned to Liz.

It was obvious that Liz was afraid that they wouldn’t have enough, so she deliberately added a few more drops.

He would make it up to her when he returned to the Flame Domain!

Let Liz suck as much as she wants!

Compared to other races, it was too easy for the Blood Clan to nourish their bodies. They just had to suck blood. The purer and rarer the blood, the more nutritious it would be for the Blood Clan.

The wolf cubs were ready to face Liz, who had transformed into Juicester, when they returned.

Therefore, he had to quickly end his journey to the Thousand Islands before that!

After getting the blood essence bottle, Vivian and the wolf cub did not delay for a moment and set off again to the foot of the Eighth Level Abandoned Society.

Because of the previous incident, the mysterious man from the Blood Clan had already entered the shrine, but the wolf cub was not afraid. He and Vivian opened the bottle of blood essence and began to wait nervously and quietly. Crash...

The heavy rain continued to fall over the shrine. At first, Vivian was worried that the smell of Liz's blood essence would be diluted by the rain, or what if the mysterious man was too far away.

However, reality proved that the little girl was overthinking.

The sensitivity of vampires to the blood essence of their own kind might be like sharks in the deep sea. As long as there was a little bit of it, they would be able to smell it and swim over, not to mention that it was Liz's blood essence that had bled so much.

It had probably been less than ten seconds since they opened the bottle cap. Vivian and the wolf cubs felt a powerful aura spreading from the abandoned shrine mountain, and then rushed to the foot of the mountain at an extremely fast speed.

"Who are you?!"

This was the first thing the man named Owl said when he met them and stared at them.

And the second sentence was...

"Why do you have...My sister's blood essence?"

Chapter 557: It's Time to Welcome a New Era! 1

Liz's...Brother?

That was Vivian's first reaction.

As for the wolf cubs...

Brother-in-law?

Liao Zixuan had thought of many possibilities, but he had never expected such an outcome.

“Eh? You’re Liz’s...”

Before the little girl could finish her words of surprise, she was interrupted.

“Liz? What Liz? Answer my question, where did you get this bottle of man frowned and his tone became stronger.

Because of his nervous expression, his movements were hurried, causing the hood that originally covered his face to fall off, revealing a pale face.

His nose bridge was tall and straight, and his eyes were slightly deep. He clearly had the face of a Thousand Islands person, but the style of clothing under the cloak was incompatible with the Thousand Islands.

Seeing that the man did not know the name of the girl, Vivian’s joy was temporarily suppressed. After a moment of silence, she said,

“Don’t be anxious. We don’t have any ill intentions. This bottle of blood was given to us by a Blood Tribe friend we know. She said that if we meet someone from the Blood Tribe, as long as we take out this bottle of blood, the other party will help you. That’s why...”

The crowd fell silent.

It wasn’t hard to tell that the little girl’s words had indeed calmed the man down from his impulsiveness.

Especially when he heard Vivian mention that the blood in the bottle was her friend, the man restrained his sharp aura.

“Now, take me to see your friend.

“What’s wrong?” The man frowned as he looked at Vivian and the wolf beside her.

“Before that, shouldn’t you first prove that you and my friend are indeed...Brother and sister?” The little girl couldn’t help but remind him,

Owl hesitated for a moment. He wanted to say something, but he felt that it was too troublesome and was prepared to do it directly. After all, he used to be like this. If he could use his hands, he would never use his mouth.

But the current situation...

If what the other party said was true, then it was impossible for this little girl and his newly-born sister, whom he had never met, to be just friends.

After all, as a member of the Blood Clan, how could Owl not know how important blood essence was to the Blood Clan? Moreover, at their level of the “ancestral bloodline”, every drop of blood essence was incomparably precious. Since his sister was willing to pay such a huge price, this little girl must be extremely important to his sister.

In that case...

Owl closed his eyes and took a deep breath. When he opened them again, he took out a small knife from his belt and cut his arm.

Puchi!

A long bloody wound appeared on her arm. Just as Vivian was completely confused, she suddenly saw that the crystal bottle in her hand, which was filled with the blood essence of Lissy, began to move.

The blood that was originally flowing at a weak frequency was like a magnet attracted by a magnet when the man's arm wound appeared. Both of them emitted a similar dark red glow.

When the man took another step forward, Vivian saw the blood essence in the bottle in her hand brighten up. When the man took another step back, the blood essence dimmed.

There was no need to say anything more.

The wound on the man's arm squirmed and healed itself in the blink of an eye. As the wound disappeared, the blood essence in the bottle returned to its original appearance.

"Now, can you take me to my sister?"

"Are you trying to test my patience?" The man's eyelids twitched.

He looked at Vivian and the wolf cub, who were still, and the veins on his forehead popped out.

"No, no, no, this... "Liszt's brother, although we really want to bring you there, there are two problems. First, Liszt is currently in the Flame Domain and not within the Thousand Islands. Second,..."

"We have something very important to do right now. We need to enter this shrine on Sakuragi Island and find a shaman named 'Sakura', so we can't get away.

After Vivian finished speaking, she blinked her eyes quietly. The wolf cub beside her secretly gave the little girl a thumbs up. Her little girl had finally learned some of his true teachings.

Without leaving any trace, they naturally expressed their needs to the man. As expected.

When Owl first heard that his younger sister was in the Flame Domain, he silently nodded in his heart because his mother had also told him to go to the Flame Domain to look for his new younger sister. The only other information was that the younger sister was the son of his mother and a former Earl of Fire Code City.

Owl couldn't guarantee that his sister would still be in Fire Code City. If she wasn't there, even though the Flame Domain was at the bottom of the Nine Nations, it was still a country after all. It was so large that even with the secret techniques of the Blood Race, Owl couldn't say how long it would take him to find his sister. Even if he added in the information he had just obtained, his sister's name was...Liz.

Therefore, since he could coincidentally meet two people who knew his sister, Owl would definitely not let go of this opportunity to save a lot of time.

But the problem was...

"Although I don't know what you want to do, but... Give up. The Sakura you're looking for, she's already... He's dead."

Owl shook his head at Vivian.

"Dead? Impossible. If that's the case, Lord Water God won't let us come over. "Vivian did not believe it..

Chapter 558: It's Time to Welcome a New Era! 2

"Water...Water God?"

"That's right. In fact, in order to enter the Abyssal Sea, we went to that Gong Si for help. The reason why we appeared on Sakuragi Island was also Lord Gong Si's intention.

When Vivian mentioned the name of the Water God, Owl fell silent again.

But soon, he laughed coldly. His laughter was filled with sarcasm and mockery.

“If it wasn’t for the Water God, my sister wouldn’t have sealed herself and Sakuragi Island wouldn’t have become like this! As for me, how could I...”

The more he spoke, the more Owl’s chest heaved up and down. His eyes flickered with memories as he clenched his fists. His entire body emitted a sense of oppression that made it difficult for people to breathe.

Vivian and the wolf cub looked at each other. Their attention was naturally on...

Sis?

Wasn’t the identity of the man previously Liz’s brother? Why was there another one now...Sister?

Moreover, if they combined the context and situation, the sister that the man was talking about could not be the one they were looking for...Sakura?

Wait a minute!

According to the information they had obtained from the Water God, Sakura was at least a thousand - year-old figure from the Thousand Islands. Didn’t that mean that the man in front of them might look like he was about 30 years old, but his true age was also...

Longevity wasn’t difficult for the Blood Clansmen, but there was a limit. They had to be at least Ruler-level to calculate their lifespan in units of a hundred years. However, at Level 52, the man had clearly just reached the threshold of a Prince.

In addition, if the man and Sakura were really siblings, wouldn’t that prove that the other party was also once...A forbidden monster? No, at least there was no problem with demons.

This was because the vampires could transform into any race and become a member or servant of the vampires, but the prerequisite was that the other party’s bloodline ability was lower than their own.

Just like in the Flame Domain, Liz was able to turn Elena into a blood slave by biting her, thus breaking free from mental control. Liz had also bitten the little wolf cubs, but nothing happened to them because the bloodline of forbidden monsters was almost impossible to suppress and transform.

Therefore, if this man named "Owa" was really both Lissy's older brother and Sakura's younger brother, there could only be one possibility for such a bizarre identity.

That person...Liz's mysterious vampire mother!

From Count Sisre's words, the little wolf cub and the others knew that Liz's mother was an elegant woman who traveled the world and showed mercy everywhere. She had even been to the Flame Domain. There was indeed no reason for Liz's mother not to visit the Thousand Islands next door.

And the man that Lilith's mother had taken a fancy to was probably...Owl and Sakura's father?

"It seems that you know more than I thought." Owl read the strange expression on Vivian's face.

"That's right. Back then, our father couldn't resist the temptation of my mother. He clearly knew that it was a forbidden love, but he still let my mother give birth to me.

"Since I've touched the taboo, I have to be prepared to suffer the punishment of heaven. Retribution will come soon, because not long after I was born, my sister... I've awakened."

Since you have a forbidden monster by your side, you should know very well that only one forbidden monster is allowed to exist in the same race. Therefore, my sister's awakening means..."

Owl stared at the wolf cub next to Vivian. No wonder he had been addressing the little girl as "you" since the beginning.

After pausing for a few seconds, Owl shifted his gaze to the peak of the shrine that was shrouded in thunderstorms.

‘ We all thought that father’s death was the end, but the true calamity had only just begun. Soon, my body began to show symptoms. It was an evil power that should never have existed, and it even alarmed the arrival of that Gong Si. ’

“Originally, killing me could have solved all the problems. However, because of my father’s death, my sister has been living in pain and guilt all day long. Therefore, as for me, the only family left...She used her forbidden blood in exchange for my awakening. It wasn’t as a forbidden demon, but as a part of my mother’s ancestral bloodline.”

“The Water God agreed to my sister’s ridiculous actions, so after that...”

Owl’s face was filled with pain and sorrow, so much so that he could not continue to talk about the process of that year. He only told Vivian the results.

“Why do I want you to give up? It’s because my sister’s heart has died like this island that was buried with us. Unless you can revive Sakuragi Island and return it to its former glory, no matter how hard you try, my sister’s self-seal will never be broken.

This was the first time in many years that Owl, who was a man of few words, had said so much. His original intention was to make Vivian give up, but who knew...

“So that’s how it is..Alright, I understand now. Are you saying that the only way we can see Sakura is to rebuild this island?”

Looking at the serious Vivian, Owl confirmed several times that she was not joking. He frowned and said,”

“You... Could she be the illegitimate daughter of one of the three masters?”

“Illegitimate...Illegitimate daughter? Eh? No, it’s not.” Vivian was confused by the sudden question..

Chapter 559: It’s Time to Welcome a New Era!_3

However, the little girl did not know that Owl was actually more confused than her.

In Owl's opinion, anyone who could boast about rebuilding an island in such a casual tone must be at least a very powerful person. There were only three officials left in the Thousand Islands. From the looks of it, Vivian was not a native of the Thousand Islands, which was why Owl asked if she was an illegitimate daughter. "Then are you the daughter of a foreign noble family?"

"No, that's not it."

"Then you, you...Do you know what you are saying? Rebuilding an island requires at least ten thousand units of labor force. Even the combined strength of the three Supreme Dao Practitioners would not be able to restore the prosperity of an island in a short period of time. Besides, haven't you seen the endless thunderstorms on Sakuragi Island? If you don't calm the lightning first, even staying on the island will be extremely dangerous. You..."

"Then may I ask, how can we quell the thunderstorm? "Vivian was like a curious baby. She did not care about the difficulty of the matter, but only wanted to find a way.

Owl didn't want to say it at first because he knew that it was useless. However, he saw no perfunctory look in the little girl's eyes. She was really listening, so he still said it.

"You... The thunderstorm was formed because there was a cursed item called the Thunder Beast on the island. Only by eliminating all the Thunder Beasts could the thunderstorm on Sakuragi Island calm down."

"It doesn't sound difficult?"

"Hmph, not difficult? Do you think I haven't tried? But let me tell you, it's almost impossible! Thunder Beasts had no fixed form. They could transform into all kinds of demonic forms to exist. Not only were their numbers terrifying, they could be said to be distributed throughout the entire island. They were also a curse because of their nature. Legend had it that they were once related to the Thunder God.

Therefore, Thunder Beasts would not really die. They would soon be reborn. They had to be continuously eliminated to contain them. Just by relying on one's strength... Unless you have reached the level of the Water Deity, otherwise, it is simply impossible.

I've calculated that the only way to remove the curse is to have the Great Fu Practitioner of the Thousand Islands gather all the warriors on Sakuragi Island and have them work for weeks without rest to eliminate the Thunder Beast. This doesn't even count the casualties of the warriors fighting the Thunder Beast. Only then will the Thunder Beast be eradicated and the curse quelled." Phew...

Instead of saying that Owl was explaining to Vivian, it was more like Owl was convincing himself to stop thinking about the Thousand Islands. Now he was the future prince of the Blood Clan of Green Maple. His former sister and homeland could no longer be returned.

So, do you understand now? If you want to rebuild Sakuragi Island, not only do you need the military strength of the Grand Fu-Enforcement Officer, but you also need the manpower of the Society Enforcement Officer. Finally, you also need the financial support of the Kanding-Enforcement Officer. You must gather all the power of the Three Enforcement Officers, which is almost all the power of the Thousand Islands, in order to save this island.

"Do you understand now? If you understand, then follow me to the Flame Domain and bring me to my sister!"

As Owl had expected, the little girl opposite him fell silent.

He must have been struck by reality, or perhaps he had finally realized the difference between his ideals and reality. Just like him back then. He thought that after he went to Green Maple to learn from his mother and inherit the true power of the Blood Clan, he could redeem everything. However, in the end, he realized that he was not just a little bit lacking. Many a time, unless an individual's strength really reached a certain level, it was really too limited.

However, what Owl did not know was that Vivian was actually secretly communicating with her wolf cubs. "Little... Little Black, can we really do it?"

Could it work?

Haha.

The little wolf cub glanced at the countdown to Fallen God's open beta, which was less than a week away. The little wolf cub used his little paws to give Vivian an image of an ojbk gesture.

My Lord, when is the time to..... It was time to welcome a new era!

After Zhou Lei clicked on the notification option that appeared in front of his vision, he immediately turned into a god's perspective. Then, as if his entire body was scanned, a virtual character that looked exactly like him appeared in front of him in the blink of an eye.

"F * ck! This degree of restoration is awesome!" At this scene, Cho Lei clicked his tongue in wonder.

As a middle-aged man who wasn't interested in games, the most he played on the Internet was an online card game like Fight the Landlord. The launch of Fallen God was so big that many of his old friends even skipped the game today. Zhou Lei was curious. He gritted his teeth and spent a lot of money to buy a helmet from a scalper. He planned to give it a try and see how powerful Fallen God was to make so many people look forward to it.

As soon as he logged in and started creating his character, Zhou Lei's interest was immediately piqued.

The virtual self in front of him was no longer wearing modern clothes. Instead, he was wearing a tight leather armor. There were many scratches on the corners of the leather armor, as if he had been through a lot of hardships. The lower half of his body was wearing long pants that had also been worn out by the wind and rain. Many parts of the pants were tattered. In the character's hand was a rusty iron sword, and on his feet was a pair of leather boots.

Just by creating the character, Zhou Lei felt as if he had really left his boring life and was reborn into a new magical world full of swords and magic.

The only thing that Zhou Lei felt a little regretful about was that even with the tight leather armor, the belly of the character model would still be revealed. It was really not very beautiful.

And to be honest, although the sense of immersion would increase if he played the game with his real appearance, Zhou Lei still felt that it was a little...He felt a little embarrassed.

Ding!

[Hint: Other than the fixed gender, you can freely adjust your character model. If you don't want to reveal your privacy, you can also choose a random model to play the game.]

F * ck!

Could this game read minds? This was too considerate!

With the help of the system prompt, Zhou Lei found sub-modules such as [Body Shape Modification] and [Face Blurring]. He also understood that [Random Model] meant that the system would automatically generate a character for him.

If it was Zhou Lei who was just giving it a try a few minutes ago, he would probably not hesitate to ignore so many things and just randomly choose one. But now...

An hour later.

Haha, so I'm this handsome!

Looking at the 1.8-meter-tall swordsman in front of him who no longer had a big belly and had bright eyes, Zhou Lei nodded in satisfaction. In fact, he wanted to pinch it a little more, but unfortunately, the system had a limit. If he chose to use the model, the adjustment range could not exceed 30%.

Zhou Lei couldn't wait to experience this new body.

Four options popped up in front of Zhou Lei: Fire Country [Fire Domain], Water Country [Thousand Islands], Rock Country [Return Separation], Wind Country [Green Maple], and finally Ice Country [Winter].

Zhou Lei was stumped. Fortunately, when he heard his friends talking about

Fallen Gods, he remembered that they always mentioned the word Flame Domain. At that time, Zhou Lei did not know what it meant, but now he decisively chose the most familiar word. [You have chosen your birth location: Flame Domain]

[Ding, you have been assigned to the Flame Domain-Fire Code City-Red Flame

Town-Nuo Qi Village...] [Welcome to the world of Fallen God]

[I wish you... Happy game!]

A white light flashed by, and Zhou Lei felt his consciousness sinking. His vision sank into darkness, but soon, the scene before him became clear and bright again.

“F * ck!” Even though he had mentally prepared himself, Zhou Lei still couldn’t help but exclaim.

Sight, touch, hearing, smell...The information that came from his various senses made Zhou Lei unable to believe that he was in a virtual game. Regardless of whether it was the fresh air that came from his lungs, it was completely different from the steel forest. It was filled with the smell of fresh earth, or the breeze in the forest that brushed past his face. Even the slight friction that came from his skin against his clothes was so realistic that Zhou Lei felt that it was no different from reality.

“Excuse me, excuse me, Big Brother!” Before Zhou Lei could recover from the shock of the game, the voices of others came from behind him.

Zhou Lei focused his gaze and saw that it was a man who was dressed very similarly to him. He raised his head and looked at the top of the other party’s head. As expected, the words “ Melee Archmage ” were written in large letters. This was the symbol of a player like him.

This...Brother Combat God looked like he had just been “ born ” here. However, he seemed to have a very strong purpose. Unlike him, who was standing rooted to the ground and not knowing what to do. Instead, he walked in the direction of the village not far away.

“Brother, little brother, wait a moment!” Zhou Lei quickly caught up to the close-combat God.

“Since we were born nearby, why don’t we add each other as friends and form a party? In addition, when I saw you like this and your domineering nickname, I knew that you must be an expert! I don’t usually play games and don’t know much about anything.. Can you give me a few pointers?”
