Chapter 601: Gift Equipment, True Flame Witch (1)

Immediately after, Shadow Hounds emerged from the void one after another. It was as if they had been lying in ambush here for a long time. When the number of players reached a certain level, they finally appeared.

He was here!

It wasn't just the streamer and the audience in the live streaming room. Many of the Thousand Islands players in the stadium seemed to be surrounded by the monsters, but in reality, their faces were filled with ecstasy and excitement.

Because this meant that their guess was right. The story of the past...It really reappeared!

To put it in a more "game" term, it was... They had finally triggered the plot!

"Everyone, go!" "Charge, duck!" "For Witch Sister!"

"Kill them!"

The players had a strong understanding of the situation. Without a doubt, this was the first stage of the plot. It was like clearing the monsters before fighting the BOSS before moving on to the next stage.

The players who had been waiting for a long time rushed forward. Although these Shadow Hounds were all above Level 10, similar to when they had wiped out the guilds that had occupied the Class Change Stone Tablet, this time, the players did not show a one-sided situation. Instead, they were in a heated battle with these Shadow Hounds, who were much higher level than them.

This was not only because of the excitement in their hearts, but also because the number of players was several times that of the monsters. More importantly, the players had the cooperation of their classes.

Back then, the guilds that dominated the stele were all single-class players, but now...

Shua!

With a flash of his sword, the mutt, who was mixed in the battlefield, began to use the Sword Drawing Technique and slashed at the Shadow Hound. At the same time, a magic light flashed from his teammate behind him. An Armor Breaking Spell weakened the monster just right. Combined with the mutt's attack, it actually dealt several times more damage than before!

After Shadow Hound felt pain, it wanted to retaliate with a claw attack to stun the big dog. However, who knew that there would suddenly be an angry roar from the side.

The effect of the skill, Roar of Challenge, had been triggered, forcibly attracting the Shadow Hound's aggro, forcing it to turn its head and land its claws on a player who had already taken a defensive stance.

With the cooperation of the professionals, in just a few minutes, a level 10 Shadow Hound was successfully killed by the big dog.

Similar scenes were happening all over the battlefield.

It was said that laymen watched the show, while professionals watched the show. Most of the players who came to the Flame Domain with the mentality of watching the melons were shocked by the combat strength of the Thousand Islands players and the popularity of almost all of them being professionals.

The other places were not like the other places. There was a Class Change Stone Stele, and the only requirement for players was their level. In other places, players not only needed to find a mentor, but they also had to complete a series of Class Change Quests, hand in materials and tools, and pay a large Class Change fee.

Therefore, in terms of the number of professionals, the Thousand Islands had more players than the Flame Domain!

If one were to look deeper, they would be the professionals. The trio in Charm Bar looked at each other and could see the same disbelief in each other's eyes.

They didn't really care about the number of professionals. After all, they only lacked some in the early stages. Later on, all the players would definitely be professionals.

What really surprised Luo Chen was the cooperation between the Thousand Islands players and their excellent combat skills.

Luo Chen calculated in his heart. Even the elite members of the Stellar Tower were only at the average level of the players from the Thousand Islands. These elite members of the Stellar Tower would rank among the top players of the Flame Domain.

"This is what is often said...Was there a difference between greenhouse flowers and wild flowers?" Big Watermelon looked at the live broadcast screen and couldn't help but shake his head.

They had already experienced the environment of Sakuragi Island through the first half of the livestream. It was like heaven and earth compared to the Flame Domain. The Thousand Islands players had been living in such harsh conditions every day for the past half a month. Although it was tough, there was no doubt that their combat awareness and control far exceeded that of the other players from the other four countries.

But of course, in terms of weapon equipment and inventory...Let alone the Flame Domain, even the Green Maple players who only knew how to play cards every day could crush the Thousand Islands players.

After all, the Thousand Islands players were still wearing the pitiful beginner equipment set that the system had given them. At the same time, they could not even find half a bottle of potion on their bodies. If they did not learn anything, they could only rely on the professional healers to carry them.

But even so...

He couldn't rest easy anymore.

He also had to call on the Flame Domain players to hurry up and level up and kill monsters...

Long Road secretly became vigilant.

With the current situation in the Flame Domain and the Thousand Islands, they might really fight when they opened up international travel in the future. Originally, Long Man Man thought that they would be bullying the Thousand Islands players with their eyes closed, but now he realized that if the two sides really fought, it was not certain who would win!

The players of the Flame Field were like rich kids born with a silver spoon in their mouths. They could buy excellent weapons and armor everywhere. They had opened countless item stores and had a wide variety of items. As a result, the battle process of the players of the Flame Field was often very easy. They basically did not need to operate much..

Chapter 602: Gift Equipment, True Flame Witch (1)

Meanwhile, Thousand Islands was like an orphan without parents. They did not have any extra resources, but they worked hard and made their way here step by step. Oh, no, they almost forgot about their fox-faced witch. That Thousand Islands player was at most a single-parent family. Their old NPC mother raised them little by little.

He had thought that it would be a script of rich brother versus poor boy.

However...

Following that, the following scene appeared.

What he had never imagined was that the players from Thousand Islands, whom he thought were "poor kids", were not actually supported by some poor mother who lived frugally.

Instead...

It was...

Was it the mother of a f * cking domineering CEO??

“Whoosh...” There’s still no second stage?”

“It should be soon. Look, the number of Shadow Hounds around us is decreasing!

“Brothers, work harder!

The little wolf cub watched the battle from afar. Not only did the Thousand Islands players’ combat strength exceed the imagination of the players from the four countries, but even the little wolf cub, who was one of the instigators behind the scenes, was a little surprised.

He did not plan for any plot phase at all. He only wanted Vivian to climb up after the players were beaten up by the Shadow Hound.

However, who would have thought that not only did the players survive, but they also successfully eliminated the Shadow Hound!

In that case, he could only...I let you appear in advance.

The little wolf cub jumped to the ground. The Shadow Beast King behind him finally could not suppress the instinctive urge brought by the curse. Its figure flashed, and when it appeared again...

His huge body, which was four to five times larger than an ordinary Shadow Hound, appeared in the center of the battlefield with a thick purple mist.

“Yes... It’s that BOSS from back then!”

It’s phase two, phase two!”

“What do we say now? Was he trying to weaken its HP to a certain extent, or something else?”

“Are there three more stages?”

At first, the players thought that there would be three stages, where they would focus their fire on the Shadow Beast King. However, the players soon realized that they were wrong. In the face of an absolute level gap, no matter how many of them there were, no matter how well they cooperated, it was useless.

At this stage, the Shadow Beast King, which had reached level 25, was not a fatal BOSS that players could touch. They could not even break through the BOSS ‘defense. The big dog’s most proud Sword Draw slashed at the Beast King, but it only received a very mocking single-digit damage.

“Umbrella...

“Shh! Don’t say anything, the crucial plot was coming! ”

Sunny Day Umbrella Without Knife interrupted his assistant and looked around nervously and expectantly. Many other Thousand Islands players did the same. Everyone had the same premonition.

Fox-faced Witch..

It was about to appear!

On the other side.

Whoosh!

“Xinyan, are you ready?”

On a high slope where she could overlook the battle, Vivian’s mood was a little... Happy.

It was not because of her later appearance, but because she had witnessed the outlanders who had been chased by the weakest floating thunder beast and cried to the heavens and earth. Now, they had grown to their current state. Vivian was really happy that her efforts had not been in vain.

The outlander had already done very well. Next...Leave it to her!

Just as the little girl put on the fox mask and was about to jump down from the high slope...

All of a sudden.

Vivian was stunned.

Because she saw that in front of her eyes, there was a faint red shadow that looked exactly like her, dressed like a fox-faced witch. She did not know when it suddenly appeared, but it also seemed to have been waiting for a long time.

Before Vivian could react...

The pale red shadow turned into a stream of light and flew into Vivian’s body.

At this moment.

The game system notification that belonged to “ Vivian ” began to sound crazily in the wolf cub’s mind.

Chapter 603: Gift Equipment-True Flame Witch (Part 2)

Weng!

Crimson true flames shot into the sky. At this moment, the layers of purple clouds that represented the power of the curse that enveloped Sakuragi Island seemed to retreat. Some of them were even burned red by the true flames.

The players were all attracted by the strange phenomenon. They stopped their battle and looked in the direction of the source.

What followed was a series of shouts. "Look over there!"

It's, it's the fox-faced witch!!" "The cinematic is here! It's finally a CG animation!"

"Sister Witch, what a grand show!"

Vivian's body floated into the air involuntarily. The true flame beam that had soared into the sky gradually retracted, and the witch's dress on the little girl changed.

Ritual Equipment " strength is low, Witch's clothes are inconvenient to move, cuffs, skirt, all wrapped by the shadow of true flame, and so on, a second later, the red warrior armor replaced it.

Of course, it was not the heavy armor type. On the contrary, there were not many red armors, and they still retained most of the original witch costume design.

The armor was only on a few of the more critical parts, such as the forearm, elbow... It was tightly attached to her skin. While protecting her, she pursued lightness to the greatest extent. The wooden clogs on her feet had long disappeared, and a brand new red boot wrapped around her calves.

Other than that, there was another change that could not be ignored. There was a scarlet saber at the waist of the witch's robe. Although it had not been unsheathed, it was already emitting a demonic red glow, making people feel cold.

The little sparrow, Xin Yan, had a stunned look on her face as she circled around the young lady who looked completely different.

As a forbidden fire monster, she could not do anything to Vivian's True Flame. The last time this happened was when she was attacked by the wolf cubs 'Dark Flame.

"This... What is this..." As for Vivian, she still could not understand the changes in her body.

Instead, the first thing that reacted to this was the power of the curse that pervaded Sakuragi Island.

Boom!

Whoosh!

Thunder roared and rain poured down.

The true flame that had broken through the dark clouds earlier seemed to have greatly stimulated the curse on Sakuragi Island, producing a violent stress reaction.

In the blink of an eye, the dark purple clouds in this area became thicker and thicker. They were so dense that they covered the entire sky without leaving any gaps. The dense purple flowed in the sky, so thick that it seemed like it was about to drip down.

Shua! Shua! Shua!

Some broke out from the surface, some were transformed by giant rocks, and some were condensed by rain. The island's curse seemed to have its own consciousness, and mutated monsters were created one after another.

In just a few breaths of time, they had completely surrounded the Scarlet Armored Witch Maiden in mid-air, letting out dangerous roars.

"Not good!"

"We are... Shouldn't we do something?"

Just as the players were subconsciously sweating for the fox-faced witch, the red figure in the air moved.

To be precise, it was not Vivian's own consciousness that controlled it, but her body, which moved on its own.

Clang!

No matter how chaotic the scene was, the crisp sound of a saber being drawn could still be heard by everyone present.

The demon sword was unsheathed, and Vivian's body fell back to the ground. She spread her legs and placed the demon sword on the side of her head with both hands. Her movements were skillful, and it did not seem like it was her first time using a tachi.

” The first move of the Flowing Fire Saber Technique...”

[Innocent]

This time, only Vivian could hear his muttering. Or rather, she was talking to herself.

Vivian closed her eyes uncontrollably, but not only did it not make the little girl lose her sense of sight, but it also made her enter a state of emptiness. Even the abnormalities that happened to her were forgotten by the little girl, and her mind was only focused on the battle.

The harsh environmental noise under the influence of the curse, whether it was thunder or rain, all disappeared at this moment.

Following that, the aberrant monsters that surrounded her were surrounded by the power of true flames in the dark world after she closed her eyes. One after another, the outline of their crimson shadows was outlined.

When Vivian opened her eyes again, the monsters seemed to have been marked. No matter how many there were, no matter how dazzling they were, none of them could escape Vivian’s perception.

When the aberrant monsters saw that the little girl had landed, they immediately launched an attack. One of the rotten meat worms, which was the leader, opened its sharp, ring-shaped mouth and bit Vivian.

At the same time, she muttered to herself. The lips of the little girl under the mask moved slightly.

“The second form...[Sunset Steps]”

Before he could finish his sentence, Vivian stepped back with her red boots. Her movement was so fast that it left a faint shadow in the air, easily avoiding the bite of the flesh worm.

If that was the case, it was not a retreat for the sake of advancing. What was truly amazing was the scene that followed. Vivian held the demon sword in both hands, and the enchantment pattern engraved on it instantly glowed brightly.

At this moment, the flow of time between the two sides seemed to have become different. Vivian was sped up several times, while the flesh worm monster seemed to be slowed down several times.

The effect of the two was as if time had stopped in the world of the flesh worm monster. It could only watch as Vivian's demon sword cut its body into two without any resistance..

Chapter 604: The Witch of True Flame (Part 2)

puchi!

There was no scene of blood and flesh flying because these aberrations were not living creatures at all. They were just the mimicry of curses. After being removed by Vivian, they turned into purple mist and dissipated into the air.

With the 'Two-in-a-Flesh' swordsmanship alone, Vivian was able to easily cleanse the aberrant monsters one by one, and the monsters could not even touch the corner of her witch's dress.

While the players who had already entered a cinematic state were cheering for the cold and elegant Scarlet Armored Witch among the monsters, the ground suddenly shook.

Thump!

Thump! Thump!

It turned out to be the previous BOSS, the Shadow Beast King. It seemed to have been possessed by the cursed will. After seeing that the small monsters could not do anything to Vivian, it finally came out to fight.

Its four thick limbs ran on the ground, which was the source of the earthquake that the players felt. In the blink of an eye, the Shadow Beast King closed the distance and began its final sprint. Its giant body jumped high and pounced straight at Vivian among the monsters.

From the perspective of the players, the Scarlet Armored Witch seemed to be too focused on the battle at hand. She did not notice the sneak attack of the Shadow Beast King and exposed her defenseless back to the opponent. What was worse was that the Witch's Magic Sword was still in Slash mode. She could not free herself to defend.

"Be careful, Wu..." Many anxious players exclaimed, but before they could finish, they stopped abruptly.

That was because...

"The third move of the Flowing Fire Saber Technique..." Vivian's lips moved slightly, and the whisper that only she could hear sounded again.

It was only at this moment that the little girl seemed to have realized something. The other party seemed to be...Teach her?

Not sure.

But as expected, Vivian's body moved again.

Facing the Shadow Beast King's attack from high above, the Scarlet Armored Witch did not turn back. She did not even prepare to use the demon blade in her hand. However, her original posture of holding the demon blade with both hands changed quietly. She freed her other hand and reached for the waist of her witch costume.

Clang!

Another unsheathing sound was heard!

He didn't know when, but at his waist, which originally only had a scabbard, there was another slightly shorter scabbard hidden.

The dagger that had appeared in Vivian's left hand and borrowed the momentum of a sudden turn to not only block but also repel the Shadow Beast King was from this.

'Backfire' was a saber technique that was designed to break the reversal in one blow when the enemy was at a disadvantage. It also fell into Vivian's ears at this moment.

However, it would be a big mistake to think that this was all there was to Backfire.

Vivian had no choice but to continue fighting with dual weapons and did not retract her short sword.

The Shadow Beast King's movement technique was just as its name suggested. It was extremely strange, and with the blessing of the curse fog, it could attack from anywhere. Its sharp claws were extremely fast, and if one was not careful, they might be torn to pieces.

The two sides seemed to have fallen into a state of anxiety. However, from the looks of it, the Scarlet Armored Witch was clearly on the defensive side. She used her saber and sword to defend against the Shadow Beast King's attacks.

However, only the little girl herself knew her true situation.

From an outsider's point of view, it was a change that only Vivian herself could notice. After she blocked the Shadow Beast King's attack, the red color on her sword and saber became brighter.

Passively or actively allowing oneself to enter an adverse situation, and then taking the opportunity to accumulate strength in each attack, paving the way for the "last move" of the Flowing Fire Saber Technique, was the true meaning of "Backfire".

Finally.

When the red accumulated on her blade and sword finally reached a critical point, it would explode and spill out if she did not release it, and she would hurt herself instead. Vivian seemed to have practiced it thousands of times and easily seized the moment.

Thus, the last move of the Flowing Fire Saber Technique...

“Gale”

The Scarlet Armored Witch changed her attack, leaping up and slashing. Thick fire elements poured out from her saber and sword. The saber light and sword shadow were exactly like the name of this move, fierce as fire and fast as wind.

In the previous few moves, the players could at least capture the movements of the Red-armored Witch, but in the last move, no matter how hard the players tried, they could not see Vivian’s sword at all.

All the players could see was the afterimage of the sword and sword in the air under the effect of the violent fire element explosion. The Shadow Beast King and Vivian were obviously two different sizes, but the Boss was sent flying.

Alright... So strong...

Under the great contrast, other than being dumbfounded, the players did not make any unnecessary movements.

On the other side.

It was like a last gasp or a life-and-death struggle.

After getting up, the Shadow Beast King began to roar towards the sky. Following that, a scene that caused one’s sanity value to drop crazily began to appear. The mutated monsters that were originally there began to charge towards the Shadow Beast King like crazy under the roar of the Shadow Beast King.

They did not collide with the Shadow Beast King. Instead, under the power of the curse, they fused with the Shadow Beast King. During this period, the Shadow Beast King let out a sorrowful whimper. Even if it lost its mind, it still felt pain instinctively. This was equivalent to completely modifying its body..

Chapter 605: The Witch of True Flame (Part 2)

But pain was pain, but the change was still obvious. The two burning marks on the wolf's face were from the " Gale " attack, and now they were completely repaired at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Following that, one after another, lumps of flesh began to bulge and expand from its body. The parts that shouldn't belong to its limbs began to grow out of the lumps crazily.

After absorbing enough mutated monsters, the Shadow Beast King was no longer what it used to be.

It had the limbs of a vicious dog, but its mouthpart was in the shape of a worm. On its back, there were slimy tentacles.

Not only did its appearance change, but its overall aura was also increasing at an astonishing speed. On the players 'interface, even the BOSS's name had changed to [Curse Collection]. Its level had also doubled from its original level of 25. It had reached a terrifying level 50 that the players did not even dare to imagine!!

The monster that had turned into a mountain of flesh was now aiming its bloodthirsty and vicious eyes at its only target, the Scarlet Armored Witch.

And facing this cursed collective...

The sigh seemed to come from the Scarlet Armored Witch, but it also seemed to come from somewhere even further away.

But there was no doubt.

The next request was definitely not from Vivian.

“Little fellow...”

“Can I borrow your power for a while?”

Vivian knew that the owner of the voice behind her was probably the real shadow of the red-armored witch that had just merged into her body. It was also the other party who had been assisting her body and performing one move after another.

The current situation was urgent. The ‘little fellow’ that the other party was referring to was Xin Yan. Meanwhile, Little Sparrow was at a loss and could not tell who was who.

After a moment of hesitation, Vivian nodded in agreement, and her body moved again.

A portion of the forbidden power in Xin Yan’s body was extracted and poured into the demon blade in her hand. The demon blade that seemed to be nothing more than that during the previous battle was like a greedy beast that was finally satisfied after absorbing Xin Yan’s power. It was about to bare its fangs. “Forbidden Profundity...[Instant Shadow. Hellfire Calamity Formation ”

With the last word, Vivian merged with the demon sword in her hand at an extremely fast speed. She turned into a red sword shadow and passed through the body of the curse-fused monster.

The process of watching it once seemed too fast. Not only the players, but even the curse fusion body did not react in time. But should he say that he was unlucky or lucky?

This process was not just once, but nine times!

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Because it was too fast, it was as if there were nine Scarlet Armored Magi in the players 'field of vision.

When she passed through the curse fusion body for the ninth time, all the saber light phantoms disappeared, and the Scarlet Armored Witch returned to her original position.

However, this time, she had her back to the monster and did not even bother to look at it.

Because she knew that there was no need to.

The Scarlet Armored Witch slightly raised her head.

He murmured.

"The path to the Yellow Springs has been opened for you.

Rest in peace."

Clang!

Accompanying his words was the sound of the saber being sheathed.

At some point, the scabbard that was originally on her waist appeared in Vivian's hand. She held it horizontally in front of her chest and retracted the scarlet demon sword. Or was it a seal?

No matter how strong its self-healing ability was, the sword shadow array was like a meat grinder, mercilessly destroying every part of its body.

In the end...

Boom!

The Level-50 Cursed Assembly did not even have the chance to resist before it fell to the ground. All the mutated monsters formed by the curse were burned to ashes by the Hellfire and dissipated into the air..

Level 1.]

[Ding...]

A series of system notifications from Vivian sounded in the wolf cub's mind. To be honest, this scenario was completely beyond Liao Zixuan's expectations.

First of all, after the little girl's " True Flame Witch " costume was removed, the curse power on Sakuragi Island seemed to have lost its target and returned to its original appearance. It was no longer violent.

The thick purple curtain in the sky gradually faded, and the rumbling thunder in his ears was no longer so dense. The torrential rain became smaller and smaller until it finally stopped completely.

The wolf cub heaved a sigh of relief. Otherwise, if another Level 50 fusion monster appeared, it would be troublesome.

He quickly checked Vivian's condition and found nothing unusual. Instead, he was pleasantly surprised.

The first thing that surprised the little wolf cub the most was that the experience points from the level 50 monster fusion really fell on the little girl, allowing her to level up two times in a row and reach level 42.

Secondly, although the "gift" and the "demon sword" had disappeared, the skills that the system had mentioned as "temporary" had been retained and appeared in Vivian's skill bar!

Although it was a pity, all the skill proficiency had been reset and returned to the initial state of Level 1.

However, the wolf cubs knew that they could not be greedy.

Judging from the demonstration of the "Red Armor Witch" using the little girl's body, no matter which of these skills were used, they would definitely be fought over crazily. In Gui Li's words, they were all first-class peerless martial arts!

To be able to learn all of them was already a huge profit!

The little wolf cub couldn't help but sigh. That mysterious fighting lady was really a good person!

Yes, if Liao Zixuan still couldn't tell that his little girl had hired a substitute fighter, then he, this little wolf cub, could be killed in one go.

However, even though he wanted to run to Vivian and ask her what had happened, the wolf cub had no choice but to endure. Because someone else was even more anxious than him!

After a short delay, I've been executed

In the live broadcast room in front of Long Road's screen, the bullet comments exploded.

Even though he had set the highest level of the bullet screen, it still could not block the dense comments from the excited audience in the live broadcast room.

[holy shittttt! Oh my god! [Oh my god!]

[What the hell? Killing a Level 50 Boss in one move?? ? ?

[Witch Sister!]

[What happened? What happened?]

[I'll give Uncle Yi a f * cking cent for this CG animation! No one would object to it being the most handsome cinematic so far, right?)

[Fox Witch, I want to give birth to monkeys for you!!!)

[Sob... Why wasn't I present? I could only watch the live broadcast. I'm furious!

Furious! [Anger!]

The long road is long.

He couldn't help but want to follow up with a bullet comment saying " He'S indeed handsome but after hesitating for a moment, he finally deleted those words.

It could only be said that this was his last bit of stubbornness.

Luo Chen and A Big Watermelon were the same. After the battle with the Fox-faced Witch, the three of them fell silent.

This was also how most of the viewers from the Flame Domain looked in the live streaming room.

They had originally been waiting to see if the mysterious NPC, the fox-faced witch, who the Thousand Islands players had been bragging about for a long time, was really a good person. However, after this battle, they realized a terrifying fact.

The Thousand Islands players were not exaggerating. Instead...Too conservative.

This was no longer a question of whether he was a bull or a horse. It was a question of whether he was a dragon or a phoenix. A gorgeous entrance, cool moves, and a shocking instant kill at the end.

With this set of combination punches, everyone had to admit that in the past half a month since the open beta, no NPC from any country could reach the height of the Fox-faced Witch.

“You guys...Don’t you feel a sense of familiarity?” Out of the three of them, it was the first to sigh and speak.

The remaining big watermelon instantly nodded in understanding. As for the long road ahead, he stubbornly refused to admit it. However, he knew very well what Luo Chen meant by “familiar ‘

The same battle.

Similarly, he stood out among the many NPCs and showed a crushing posture.

And the same...

[Help! I suddenly regret choosing the Flame Domain to start the game.) [Does anyone know where to buy a ticket to Thousand Islands?]

C++! Back then, when I saw how miserable Thousand Islands was on the forum, I rejected the Southern Cross fleet's long-distance mission. Now, I feel like a clown!

[Is there a second batch of the Southern Cross fleet? I don't want to stay in

Guili anymore. I want to go to Thousand Islands too!]

[Live as a Thousand-island Cultivator, die as a Witch Soul!]

Similarly, he had single-handedly relied on the NPC's personal charm to raise the impression and popularity of the player community in his home country.

The public beta players might not have experienced it before, but the old players in the closed beta were all too familiar with it..

Chapter 607: Flame Domain's Players with a Greater Sense of Danger!_2

This was because during the closed beta, there was such a very similar NPC. That was the terrifying little girl who had once dominated the entire closed beta plot, flooded almost the entire forum, and had a very high level of discussion. Under her subsequent influence, the " Flame Domain " where she was located became the default " novice village " in the server...Or rather, the Witch.

Vivian.

This was also why Luo Chen had blurted out a sense of familiarity.

Although the current fox-faced witch was not as exaggerated as Vivian in the closed beta, everyone knew that it was only a matter of time after she showed off her skills this time.

After all, based on the current information, the fox-faced witch definitely did not disappear after showing off. Such a high-quality NPC must have something following her, and the ups and downs of the plot were waiting for the players.

This meant that if nothing unexpected happened, the fox-faced witch would likely surpass or even replace Vivian's position as the plot unfolded. After all, the number of players in the open beta was not on the same level as the closed beta.

As for Vivian's story, the public beta players would at most pass it on by word of mouth, but the fox-faced witch, the public beta players, especially the players of Thousand Islands, had experienced it personally!

No!

This can't go on!

No matter if it was Long Road, Luo Chen, or Big Watermelon, they were no longer as relaxed as when they first started watching the live broadcast. On the contrary, they were all frowning and were alarmed by the Thousand Islands.

After all, the three of them were the leaders of the Flame Domain's players. They naturally thought further than ordinary players, and their interests were bound to the Flame Domain.

Currently, the conflict between the Thousand Islands and the Flame Domain was very difficult to resolve.

Even if there was no conflict, their Flame Domain was publicly recognized as the number one boss in the server. However, now, their neighbor, who was usually at the bottom and looked down on, suddenly turned around and wanted to compete with them for the boss position. How could they tolerate that?

so...

Their Flame Domain had to hurry up and take out their own super popular NPC!

It was not the kind that could only become popular in the Fire Domain. At the very least, it had to be an NPC like the fox-faced witch who relied on CG animation to fight or plot to become a hot topic outside the circle!

Never underestimate the power of an NPC.

After all, there were new players entering Fallen God's trap at all times. These were supposed to be the new blood that the Flame Domain had absorbed. It was very likely that after learning about the Fox-faced Witch through various channels, they had immediately transferred to the Thousand Islands to be born.

In the early stages of the game, when the players had yet to have the ability to travel across countries, this would gradually shorten the gap in power between the Flame Domain and the Thousand Islands.

To put it more realistically, at their level, Big Watermelon was still fine as he was considered an unspecialized player. On the other hand, Long Road and Dust Fall had both started their own guilds. It could be said that they had already taken the game as their own career.

The number of players in the Flame Field was equivalent to the size of the market. The countless industrial chains involved...Playing with them, sparring with them, trading items, selling products, and participating in professional competitions...There were too many benefits.

In the end, the Thousand Islands had to take a piece of the cake. Of course, they were not happy.

Therefore, it was still the same sentence.

He had to use NPCs to fight against NPCs!

It wasn't like Flame Domain didn't have NPCs with such potential.

So...

Vivian, oh Vivian!

Our Lady Demoness, Miss Demoness, where did you run off to!

"Hey, don't look, go, go, go, go!" Long Walk turned off the live broadcast and walked out of the tavern.

It was a classic old saying.

It was worse to see others make money than to lose money.

If he had the time, he might as well send a few video studios under his banner to create more second creations about Vivian to maintain the popularity of his willful NPC.

At the same time, in another bar in Fire Code City.

"Aiya, kid, I thought you were quite smart and had a bright future. I didn't expect you to work under Lady Liz so soon.

"It's all thanks to my previous work experience with Lord Teddy...Let me toast you again!"

Bi Weirong smiled as she continued to pour more wine for Teddy, while she quietly turned off the live broadcast on Sakuragi Island.

As a staunch supporter of Vivian like Long Road Man, Bi Wei Rong also felt the crisis.

She had originally planned to take things one step at a time, but after today's live broadcast, Bi Weirong decided that she couldn't wait any longer. She had to take a gamble.

Previously, she had used her Detective profession to come into contact with Baron Teddy in the open beta and learned about the hidden plot of Xu's closed beta. However, just as she wanted to continue investigating, Teddy stopped her

Fortunately...

Bi Weirong glanced at her mission panel. It was a very eye-catching mission with an SS mark at the top.

[Novice and veteran]

During this closed beta period, after being rejected by Teddy, there was a bright future and a new super hidden mission was triggered. Bi Wei Rong did not expect that she would be brought here after the open beta!

Under the guidance of this mission, Bi Weirong had not done anything in the past half a month since the open beta. She had only focused on her investigation, which had allowed her to understand the closed beta plot more and more thoroughly.

However, the deeper the investigation went, the more surprised Bi Weirong became. This was because all the clues would eventually be linked to a certain character.

This character was not Vivian, who was well-known in the closed beta.

On the other hand, it was another NPC that only appeared briefly in the players' eyes.

White!

The only time the players had seen this mysterious NPC was in the story of "

Brave Climbing Fire God Tower.”

Back then, when the Fallen Abyss army was at the city gates and everyone was at a loss for what to do, it was this mysterious NPC who appeared and guided Harvey and Chris to lead the players to the top of the Fire God Tower. They woke up Archbishop Maggie, whose mind had been corroded by the Fallen Abyss, and stopped the Fallen Abyss Teleportation Gate.

However, after that, this mysterious NPC disappeared and never appeared again. Many players had long forgotten about this character, and Bi Wei Rong was one of them.

However, after the public beta, Bi Wei Rong’s investigation revealed that whether it was the treasure thieves ‘big change of blood, Baron Teddy’s explosion, or even the current hot topic of the Flame Domain, Countess Liz, or the mysterious person named “ Shirley,” there was a shadow of “ Bai ” behind them!

As the saying went, there was no trace of him in the martial arts world, but it was all his legends.

Bi Wei Rong spent the entire night combing through the character relationship map. She was shocked to find that almost all the famous NPCs in the Flame Domain could not escape the relationship with this “White”. Even...Even her Vivian was the same!

Following this clue, when she cleverly impersonated herself and claimed that she was also a subordinate of “ White,” she immediately gained the favorable impression of many NPCs.

This was also why she could easily become a member of the Countess ‘camp, which countless players wanted to join.

It was also why Baron Teddy, who had previously rejected her, could now drink and chat with her like a colleague.

Phew...

Taking a deep breath, although Bi Wei Rong was also very interested in "White her main goal at the moment was to figure out Vivian's movements.

Therefore...

"Speaking of which, Lord Teddy, you said that Lord Bai and Commander Harvey have a good relationship. You even lent Lord Bai your precious necklace...I was lucky enough to see that necklace a few times. It was really beautiful."

"So... Do you know what that necklace is Weirong was slightly nervous as she sneaked into her hands under the table.

After entering the Countess's camp, Bi Wei Rong received a very vague information that Vivian's whereabouts were related to a necklace.

She immediately thought of Harvey, so she came over to try to find a breakthrough.

The name of the necklace necklace? The drunk Teddy shook his head and thought for a while.

"It seems to be called something...Water God's Chains? I don't remember too clearly either. Only you girls like these fancy things. We don't pay attention to them. Burp..."

Bi Wei Rong Rong did not pay much attention to the girl mentioned by Teddy. No matter how the players disguised themselves, these NPCs could accurately determine their gender.

Her focus was on the name of the necklace that she had gotten from Teddy.

Bi Wei Rong Rong's pupils instantly contracted.

Water God's Chains...

Water God...Chain?

An absurd possibility appeared in Bi Wei Rong Rong's mind.

No, it can't be!

Chapter 608: The Wind Bows the Seeds of the Story, Time Makes It Germinate

Huala Huala

The calm sea surface suddenly had a sudden rise and fall, and the rolling waves approached from afar.

On the route from Gui Li to the Thousand Islands, a small fleet of about five or six ships was sailing on the sea.

One of them was the largest sailboat at the head of the fleet.

A few seagulls were resting on the mast, but unexpectedly, they suddenly heard a strange monkey cry from below, which immediately scared the seagulls and they ran away in fright.

"Wuhu! Take off! Brothers, we're going to be rich! Hahahaha!"

"I just saw a bullet comment from another brother of mine in the live-stream. I'm dying of laughter. Back then, I was kind enough to pull him onto Big Sis's boat, but when he heard that we were going to Thousand Islands, he immediately stood me up. Now, he's sending me a crazy number of private messages, asking if we can turn around and come back to pick him up."

"Eh? Me too, me too. After the fox-faced witch's cinematic was released, it felt like even we were adults!"

“This wave, this wave, we are in the atmosphere!

“OHHHH!”

It wasn't the cries of monkeys, but the Guili players on the Northern Cross fleet. Due to the characteristics of the players, no matter where they were, they would be the first to know about any major events that happened in this world.

As the first NPC with CG animation in the server, the players of Gui Li were filled with anticipation. They wished that they could reach the Thousand Islands in the next second.

“Hey! All of you, be quiet!” Suddenly, the cabin door was opened. A young girl in a sailor's uniform was looking at the players who had fallen ill with a displeased expression.

As for the reason why he was unhappy, it was very simple.

These foreigners always looked at her with a gaze that could not be understood, but they said strange things that made her feel angry.

For example, things like “ The officials really know too much ” or “ They know that we have nothing to do at sea, so they specially sent us welfare characters. I'm really crying to death!”” What ‘sailor suit Saigo!’..

“Alright, alright, Molly. It's good for young people to be energetic. I think they're quite good like this. They're very energetic! Haha!”

Behind the sailor girl named “ Jasmine “, another tall, one-eyed woman appeared. The players who had originally planned to tease Jasmine became much more obedient after seeing this woman.

“Hello, Big Sister!” The players greeted him in unison.

Nan waved her hand and leaned against the door, asking the players casually, ”

“What’s wrong? From the looks of it, it seems like something good has happened?”

“This...”

The few Guili players looked at each other, not knowing how to explain this to their boss.

One of them, whose ID was called “Yu Gege”, was smarter. He stood up and said, “It’s like this, Big Sister. We’re about to reach the Thousand Islands, so I told them a few legends about the Thousand Islands. These people were a little too excited as they listened.

“Oh? I didn’t expect you to be a storyteller? What kind of legend is it? Tell me about it. “Nan raised an eyebrow and revealed a curious expression.

“Alright, Big Sister, the legend...”

Just like that, under the banner of storytelling, Fish Pigeon secretly tested the words “ Sakuragi Island ” and “ Fox-faced Witch ” to Big Sister.

If the purpose of their trip was really related to this, the big sister would definitely have a reaction after hearing the keywords.

The other Gui Li players on the ship also instantly understood, their faces filled with anticipation.

Unfortunately, Nan only gave a few comments about Sakuragi Island after listening.

“Sakuragi Island...I’ve been to this place when I was young, but how should I put it...It can be said to be one of the most dangerous islands I’ve ever seen. ”

” As for the fox-masked witch in your story...”

“I’m sorry, I really don’t know. “Nan thought for a while and shook her head at the players who were hoping to get more information.

What?

How could this be...

Could it be that the fox-faced witch had only appeared recently?

The players were guessing in private, and Fish Pigeon finally couldn’t hold it in anymore and continued to ask,”

“Big sis, speaking of which, what are we going to the Thousand Islands for this time?”,

“This...

Nan hesitated for a moment. Although Zhao Yu ‘er had reminded her not to trust strangers too much, in Nan’s heart, anyone who went out to sea together was considered a brother.

“We’re going to the Thousand Islands to look for my good friend’s father and do some business. We’ll probably only stay for a few days. We’ll return as soon as we find him.”

“As for Sakura Island’s...”

“Sister Nan!” Looking at the one-eyed woman beside him, who seemed to have been intrigued by the story of the stranger just now, Molly, who was the assistant beside him, could not help but remind her.

[Sigh, alright, I also know my priorities...] So as you can see, I’m sorry, but our plan this time doesn’t include Sakuragi Island. ” Nan shrugged helplessly.

“Ah...” The players wailed after hearing this.

“Sister Nan, the wind mound over here...” From outside the cabin came the cries of the sailors on the other ships for help.

The one-eyed woman patted the players on the shoulder and comforted them that she would definitely go out to sea again if there was a chance next time. After bringing the players to explore Sakuragi Island, she left the cabin.

“Looks like our mission is not connected to the main storyline of the Thousand Islands...” After Big Sister left, Yu Gege sighed. Although she was a little disappointed, she had gained something.

Basically, everyone had tacitly agreed that the fox-faced witch of Sakuragi Island was the main storyline of the Thousand Islands..

Chapter 609: The Wind Brings the Seeds of a Story, and Time Makes It Germinate

After adjusting their mood, the players on the ship quickly began to guess who the friend Big Sister was talking about was.

After all, in this special period, they could still hire a fleet and travel so far across the country just to pick up a father?

This was too big a scene.

No matter what.

Yu Gege opened the forum and prepared to update the latest mission information on her own post...

Speaking of which, this post had gained quite a number of favorites recently. Even the famous "Most Handsome Little Wolf" on the forum had his post as a favorite. This gave him a great motivation to update.

Green Maple.

Fire Inn.

It was different from other countries.

Green Maple was the most well-known. The chain stores were full of fire taverns in various cities. Their main focus was not on alcohol, nor was it on the edge. After all, if these were compared to the other one, they were all low-class.

Cards!

That's right, this could be said to be Green Maple's largest travel record card camp! It was a gathering of the best card players from all over Maple to compete and spar in the tavern!

Ever since the open beta testing began, with the influx of large numbers of players, the Fire Tavern's liveliness had reached its peak.

At first, the local aborigines didn't care about these outlanders. However, later on, when the outlanders used their poor cards to accumulate, they could all fantasize and form all kinds of flashy sets of cards.

In just half a month, not only did the foreign players get used to it quickly, but they also fought back and forth with them. The local players of Green Maple finally recognized the players and started to get serious.

The Furnace Tavern, which was already full, was now even more full day and night.

Ring, ring, ring...

He pushed open the wooden door of the tavern.

“Come in and find a girl to sit with! “Every time they entered, the Green Maple players could hear the friendly greetings from the tavern owner.

Speaking of Lady Tavern Owner, the rapid rise of the Green Maple players in the “ Ji Xing Card World ” was definitely related to this NPC.

She was one of the few NPC who could open a card shop for players. Not only was there a large number of them, but there was also a lot of rare and precious travel tablets from other countries.

However, recently, the Green Maple players had started to love and hate this Lady Boss.

It was unknown who was the smart one, but it seemed to have taught the lady boss a mechanism called ‘card draw’ on their home planet, Blue Planet.

As a result, the Lady Boss changed from selling cards with a fixed price to selling card packs with a fixed price. Each pack had five cards, and the quality of the cards was completely random.

Although the efficiency of the players obtaining ordinary cards had greatly increased, the difficulty of obtaining a special card had increased countless times.

And more and more uncomfortable, all the players find that they can’t control themselves, hand, but they can save enough, one pack, money, after, immediately, gambling dogs, upper body, can’t help but buy one pack cards, at one moment, climax, after, after, endless emptiness, regret, this and so on, ceaselessly.

From the Lady Boss’s increasingly flirtatious smile and friendly attitude towards the players, he knew that he had earned a lot.

But of course.

The few Green Maple players who entered the door this time did not go straight to the Lady Boss to buy cards. Their gazes fell on a tavern surrounded by many spectators. Two people were sparring with each other.

One of them was a slightly famous oil player in Green Maple. His ID was My Soul, and he was affectionately addressed by the players as Teacher Soul, Soul

Treasure.

The player opposite her was also an acquaintance of the players.

A dark green cloak and hat, a small and exquisite harp placed by the table, and long legs wrapped in white stockings...Cough, in short, he was dressed like a standard bard. The Green Maple players were no strangers to him, and some of them even gnashed their teeth.

“Come on, Hun ‘er!”

“Teacher Soul, let these NPCs understand what it means to be a pay-to-win player!

“Although... I think this one is going to be a goner.”

“Indeed, that stinky bard has already filled the entire arena. What exactly is Teacher Soul doing!”

On the mini mahjong table, the bards ‘side was filled with monsters. Although they did not look very strong, with an average of three attacks and three health, they had the advantage in numbers. In one round, they were enough to take down the players on the other side.

Just as the audience was sweating for Teacher Hun, unexpectedly, Teacher Hun suddenly smiled, because he had actually been waiting for this moment.

Teacher Soul took a glance. The bard had chosen to go all out and bet all his cards because he was anxious to put pressure on the stage. Now that he had no cards left in his hand, he decisively put up the family heirloom card that he had endured for a long time and spent a sky-high price to obtain.

“My turn!”

“Summon! Legendary-level card-[Vivian of Fire Code City]!”

The golden glow effect of the Legendary Card blinded the surrounding audience. Even the other card players in the Fire Tavern were alarmed.

A legendary card was extremely rare. If it was the latest legendary card, it would be worth thousands of gold. Once it was used, it would attract the envy and desire of others.

[Fire Code City’s Vivian]

This was the latest Legendary Card released by the association to commemorate the battle between Fire Code City and Fallen Abyss. It was undoubtedly one of them..

Chapter 610: The Wind Brings the Seeds of a Story, and Time Makes It Germinate

A virtual avatar in cotton clothes appeared from the card and floated in the air. If one looked closely, they would find that it was exactly the same as Vivian who was floating in the air of Fire Code City.

“May the beauty of the world meet you.”

The Virtual Minion opened its mouth and spoke in a light voice. This was something that only cards above epic-level could do. The appearance of the Virtual Minion came with its own lines and sound effects.

Immediately after , the card’s effect was activated. First, he released Battle Roar, Arcane Bullet Screen.

The virtual avatar raised its arm and countless Mathematical Olympiad Missiles flew out, dealing 3 points of damage to all enemy followers. This was not the end.

A black wolf with 5 HP and 5 ATK appeared beside the Virtual Minion. This was the second card effect, Summon Little Black!

In the end, he could only say that it was indeed a legendary card. It even had a halo effect that gave all his characters +1/+1 attributes.

“F * ck,,F * ck!”

” Is this a f * cking legendary card? Encore? This is too abnormal!”

“No wonder Teacher Hun was so calm. So he had such a killer move.”

“I remember that this card is only available in the latest expansion pack, First Appearance of Fallen Abyss, right? The soul treasure was too powerful. How many bags did he have to buy to get it!”

“Oil guy is awesome! Let this stinking singer bleed a lot!

The spectating gamers were all excited , because this might be the first time the gamers won a game against the bard!

That’s right, up until now, the records of the players on the forum in the Green Maple section had been shamed by this bard.

Looking at the bard’s expression, he seemed a little helpless.

He only had the chance to draw one card. To solve a BlackWolf that had already become 6/6 in size under the enhancement of the halo, it was a little

One card, do you think you can kill me with one card?

Just as the party involved was also very excited, he saw the bard finally touch his next card.

And then,,.

“Oh... Hehe, looks like my luck is pretty good.”

Impossible!

Teacher Soul’s heart skipped a beat when he saw the other party’s happy expression. However, he had already studied the cards. None of the current cards could perfectly remove his legendary card,[Vivian of Fire Code City].

That’s right! The other party must be scaring him, scaring,,.

“My turn!”

“Summon...Legendary-level Card-[Fox-faced Witch of Sakuragi Island]!”

‘me blood-red cherry blossoms fell from the card, and a red-armored witch appeared on the card. She held a tachi in her hand, looking cold and domineering.

The path to the Yellow Springs...I’ve already turned on for you.

Before Teacher Soul and the audience could react, the first Battle Roar effect was activated after the sound effect of the card’s appearance ended.

The traveling poet waved his finger. After confirming the target, the Scarlet Armored Witch's virtual avatar drew her tachi and slashed Teacher Soul eight times in a row with an extremely fast blade shadow.

[Forbid Esoteric Skill— — —

What was that?

He actually didn't understand the situation and directly slapped his face?

Then he clearly still had four points of health left. It was impossible to kill him at all?

In the next moment.

A familiar black wolf appeared behind the Scarlet Armored Witch.

The second Battle Roar effect of the card was activated.

'This... This is!' Teacher Hun's eyes widened in disbelief.

(Coordinated attack, Little Black!] Summons Little Black to deal 5 damage to any target!

Teacher Soul could only watch helplessly as his card hero character was pierced through by the black wolf's sharp claws, torn into pieces, and then exploded.

The black wolf even gave him a disdainful look as if mocking him before disappearing.

"Hu! That was close, but it seemed like... I won this time!" The bard pretended to wipe his forehead.

"It's not fair! You... You're cheating! Where did you get this card? Why didn't I know about it?!"

My Soul was anxious. She pointed at the [Fox-faced Witch Witch of Sakuragi Island] card and questioned it. The other players also wanted to make a scene.

“Eh? Don’t you know about the fox-faced witch?”

In the end, it was the bard who asked the indignant gamers around him.

The Green Maple players were stunned. They knew a thing or two about the Thousand Islands, but the live broadcast had just ended, and you took out such a card. You, you...

“Green Maple is a country of wind after all. No matter what happens in any corner of the world, as long as there is wind, the wind will naturally bring the seeds of the story to us.

The bard explained with a smile.

“But, but what was your last coordinated attack? Everyone knew that Little Black was a special effect exclusive to Vivian. Why would a fox-faced witch like you have soul asked again.

The surrounding players expressed their agreement after hearing this. They had tolerated the first special effect of the fox-faced witch, but the second one was really..,Everyone was waiting for the bard to give an answer.

Unfortunately.

This time, the bard activated Riddler mode.

“Don’t worry, I still have the second half of my previous sentence. The wind brings the seeds of the story, and time makes them sprout. So, let’s wait and see, hehe.”

“Hey! Hey, what do you mean? Don’t leave!”

I’ll accept this money for the wine. I wish everyone a happy time...Hey!”

Facing the players’ questions, the bard only picked up the money bag that belonged to him and laughed.

When the players came back to their senses, they only felt a gust of wind. The bards were nowhere to be seen.

Damn it!

Many Green Maple players opened the forum one after another. They must report this terrible situation of NPCs cheating to the officials!

At the same time, they finally realized that they could no longer just play cards every day. They had to start paying attention to the events happening in other countries because they might be closely related to the future trend and sales of cards.

Naturally, the first person that the Green Maple players paid close attention to was the Fox-faced Witch of the Thousand Islands..
