Chapter 611: An Epic Quest from the Fox-Faced Witch

The wind created by the flapping Of the butterfly's wings was quietly blowing to every corner Of the world.

But on the other side.

Little Butterfly, who still knew nothing about this, was currently in a dilemma that belonged only to her.

After the curse fusion was destroyed, the " Witch of True Flame " costume was forcibly removed, and the witch costume returned to its original state. Vivian finally regained control of her body.

However, in the end, as if she was about to leave, the voice of the Red-armored Witch once again echoed in Vivian's mind, leaving four words intermittently.

"Eighth level...Shrine..."

Although she did not say anything else, Vivian understood what she meant. She hoped that she could go to this place.

However, the little girl did not have much time to think, because the situation that was about to get out of control was Vivian's biggest headache.

Dong dong dong!

The ground trembled slightly again.

But this time, it was not a new cursed monster. Instead, the Thousand Islands players were rushing toward Vivian at a rapid speed.

The little girl, who had remained calm when facing the Fallen Abyss soldiers, was shocked by the current scene.

If Vivian had not quickly activated a transparent magic barrier with a five-meter radius around her, she would have been drowned by the players.

However, even though the " air wall " blocked them, the enthusiasm of the players did not diminish at all. Everyone surrounded Vivian and looked at the fox-faced witch in the middle with anticipation.

Excluding the players who were shouting in excitement, most of them were waiting for the fox-faced witch to speak.

Vivian was obviously aware of this. She had to say something now, but it was the first time in her life that so many pairs of eyes were staring at her. The little girl's palm in the witch's sleeve had long been changing shape because of nervousness.

Sob, sob, sob...

Little Black..

Help, help!

Vivian cried in her heart, but she knew that Blackie would not appear because this was her trial and the Fox-faced Witch's... The responsibility.

At the thought of this...

Vivian took a deep breath. It was as if there was an inexplicable force pouring out from the depths of her heart, relieving her overly nervous body and letting the little girl relax in front of the players.

'That..."

Finally, the fox-faced witch who had been silent for a while finally spoke.

In an instant, the originally noisy scene suddenly quieted down. Every player fell silent at the same time, waiting for the fox-faced witch's next words. [Foreigners from the distant unknown country, wandering and traveling, in the battle just now, the courage you showed surprised me, and your heroic battle made me admire you!]

(I never thought that the prophecy that had been forgotten for hundreds of years would come true. Outsiders, I can be sure that you are the saviors mentioned in the prophecy who can save Sakuragi Island and even the entire

Thousand Islands!]

(Please forgive my rudeness here, but for the sake of Sakuragi Island, for the sake of the home that I love and protect, I beg you to help me remove the evil curse on this land and save this...The dying island!

At the beginning, he first named the player's identity and then praised him.

In the middle, it hinted that the quest itself had a great background, which raised the players' expectations. Then, it gave the players another one, which sounded very high and mighty, and instantly filled the sense of responsibility of the Savior title.

Finally, he had to first sell his tragic character and create the image of a tragic hero. When the players' emotions were stirred up and they felt sympathetic and duty-bound, he would then use the title of "savior" to create a coordinated effect. Then, he would be able to see the true picture!

Savior?

A worker!

This was the trilogy that the wolf cubs had prepared for Vivian.

Liao Zixuan also knew that he could not spoil the situation. He had already achieved his goal by making Vivian willing to show up in front of the players. He had to take it step by step to become a Legendary NPC. There was no hurry. He could guess that with his little girl's personality, there was a high chance that she would make an appearance and then nothing else. Her mind was blank and she could not say anything.

After all, Vivian's predecessor was not like Liz, who was a noble lady. She had long been familiar with such a high-profile occasion. There was no need for him to teach her. She was even more familiar with ordering others around. She was an Old capitalist.

The little girl in Vivian's heart still had the shadow of a village girl.

So the above was the lines that the wolf cubs had written for Vivian to prevent such a situation.

What the little girl needed to do now was to read the words one by one to the players.

In fact, that was indeed the case.

The night before, Vivian had already repeated the lines that Blackie had taught her countless times. She knew that she was clumsy, so she worked hard to make up for it.

So...

Now was the time to test the results.

She couldn't disappoint Little Black.

He couldn't let down the efforts that Blackie had put in behind his back.

So...

‘That...’

He had already memorized it thoroughly and could even recite it backwards..

Chapter 612: An Epic Mission from the Fox Witch Girl

Every word that Little Black taught her clearly appeared in her mind, but for some reason, she just... It was...

It was as if something was stuck in his throat, and he could not utter a single syllable.

In the eyes of the players at this moment, the fox-faced witch was silent for some reason. Everyone looked at each other, but no one could figure out what was wrong with the NPC in front of them.

Yes, what exactly happened?

The little sparrow beside the fox-faced witch was also very anxious.

Xin Yan could not help but use his beak to secretly poke Vivian.

However, only the little girl herself knew what she was feeling right now.

Say... He couldn't say it.

Yes, it was.

It wasn't because she was too nervous or shy to say it.

It was because the little girl realized that this was not what she wanted to say.

This was not what the Fox Witch, who she was playing, wanted to say.

Then...

What did she want to say?

What would a real Fox-faced Witch say?

Vivian already had an answer in her heart.

I'm sorry, Little Black...

However, at this moment, she really wanted to pour out these thoughts!

Hence, just as the players were about to lose their patience and wonder if they had to take the initiative to communicate with the fox-faced witch to trigger the plot..

Finally!

"I'm sorry."

The fox-faced witch spoke.

The moment he spoke, all the players were stunned.

S-sorry?

The fox-faced witch was apologizing to them?

What did he mean?

What apology?

Didn't the fox-faced witch come to save them?

Before the players could be lost for too long, the fox-faced witch's voice sounded.

"Actually, the person behind the scenes who allowed all of you to come to this devastated Woeful Island and instigated all of this..."

"It's me."

Once she made up her mind, Vivian would not hesitate.

"Because you are the saviors in the prophecy, the only hope to save this dying island. So, when the Three Executors were still discussing how to deal with you, I took the initiative to suggest that I send you here through the hands of the Three Executors."

' I originally thought that you would be like the saviors in the fairy tale as the prophecy said. You would be able to easily exorcise the evil and lift the curse that has been on the island for thousands of years. However, after observing in secret for a few days, I realized...I was wrong. Reality isn't as simple as a fairy tale. You guys didn't show the power I expected. It's even weaker than I imagined. "

In this short half a month, I've seen all of you die time and time again. You might think that being undying is a powerful ability, but in my eyes... "Not dying is more like a curse. I have witnessed your

He spat out the last three words forcefully.

Whoosh!

The little girl let out a long breath again.

Vivian said all the words in her mind, and her body felt inexplicably relaxed.

There was no falsehood in these words. They were all true feelings that she had personally experienced. However, perhaps because she had memorized the script that Black had given her too many times, she could not help but incorporate many scenes from the script as she spoke.

However, it was almost the same. She felt that she had conveyed what Vivian wanted to say to the stranger.

However, it was like the reaction of many impulsive decisions.

In Vivian's heart, she felt regret and disgust.

Sigh...

If that was the case, the foreigners who knew the truth would definitely hate him, right?

The image of the fox-faced witch that Little Black had spent so much effort to get her to perform should have been completely ruined by her.

Without the help of the foreigners, Sakuragi Island could not lift the curse. They could not see the forbidden monster of nature, the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox of the Yae Shrine.

Without that person's help, they would not be able to enter the Abyssal Sea, find Ann, or retrieve the Water God's Chains.

Wu... S-Sorry, Little Black...

I'm sorry, An...

I'm sorry, Fire God Alice...

As expected, he still couldn't do anything...

The little girl noticed that after hearing her words, the foreigners around her were all silent. They didn't even look at her anymore. Instead, they lowered their heads. They were probably disappointed in her, right?

Those people were waving their fingers in the air. They were probably making some disdainful gestures at her, right?

These conclusions could be judged from the expressions of the strangers.

From Vivian's point of view, the outlanders were either dumbfounded or their eyes widened. Some even fainted. It should be... You can't accept such a cruel truth, right?

Wuuuu...

Just as Vivian was staring at her toes, her head, which was wearing a fox mask, also hung low in frustration.

What the little girl didn't know was that the strange behavior of the foreigners below the stage had nothing to do with what she had just said.

Instead, the moment she finished speaking, a very clear and pleasant "Ding!" sounded. "It was extremely related.

Because, after Vivian said that, what immediately jumped out in front of all the players was...

[Ding! [You have received an Epic Quest from the " Fox-faced Witch "- Survive

Do you accept it?])

[Live on!]

[Mission Introduction: In the battle just now, the witch who saved you from the cursed aberrations and has always been your only spiritual pillar on this Disaster Island, the witch who silently helped you from behind, has now revealed the truth to you. Everything that you have suffered is actually from her...]

[It turns out that the witch mistook you for saviors and thought that you were the people in the prophecy. However, when reality arrived and she realized that you did not show any ability to be saviors, the witch began to regret and suffer.

She believed that she had misinterpreted the prophecy and put you in danger. Now, the witch has expressed her wish to you. She no longer hopes that you can save Sakuragi Island, but hopes that you can...Survive!]

[Do you want to accept this kindness? Should he forgive the witch for what she had done? And... 'Is it true that you are not the savior as the witch said? You are not the person in the prophecy...' All these choices are in your hands.]

[Mission Hint: This is a long-term mission. The mission reward depends on the completion of each stage.]

[Mission Hint: Your choices, performance, and additional performance in each stage will have different effects on the subsequent stages. You will also receive hidden rewards. Please be careful!

[Current Mission Stage: 1]

[Current mission objective Survive as much as possible]

[Mission Reward: For every day you survive without any deaths, you will be rewarded with 500 experience points at midnight the next day.]

Chapter 613: What Large-scale PUA Scene?

Anger.

This was the first thought that appeared in the hearts of almost all the players after they saw the quest that the fox-faced witch had given them.

Furious! Furious! Furious!

However, it was not what the little girl thought. The outlanders were angry at the fox-faced witch's selfish behavior of putting them in danger.

Vivian felt guilty about this point, but in the eyes of the players, it was nothing.

On the contrary, the other 'truth' that the little girl inadvertently brought along was the biggest culprit that angered the players.

In the crowd.

The dog took a few deep breaths, trying to calm its emotions.

However, even though he had closed the introduction, the harsh words and harsh words still lingered in front of his eyes. The witch 'mistakenly' saw you as her saviors.

You've shown 'no' talent at all.

It is precisely because of your 'weak' that you witches feel 'pained' and 'regretful' for dragging you into the vortex.

The big mutt looked around, tossing and turning.

He read it over and over again and finally saw the words in the mission. It turned out that there were only four words written in the entire mission.

That was...

[You guys are too weak!]

Together with the name of the mission,[Live Live!])

The big mutt felt that it was so dazzling.

In his chest, there seemed to be a flame that was about to spread to his entire body.

When had players ever been bullied like this?

They were known as the Fourth Calamity. When did they become worthy of living?

It turned out that the fox-faced witch had always treated them as her saviviors, as her peerless heroes. However, it was their weakness that disappointed her.

It was because they did not have the power to protect the Witch, Sakuragi Island, and their beloved NPCs.

It hurt!

It was too painful!

A memory that had been forgotten by the big mutt and had long since died was evoked because of this, and it began to stab him.

That was when Mutt was in high school. At that time, going to college was out of reach for the children in the countryside. The other children around him were afraid of college. Other parents did not expect their children to become college students at all. Only Mutt's mother had always believed that Mutt was smart and would definitely be able to get into college. Therefore, she did not hesitate to take a loan to enroll Mutt in the best tutoring class and hire the best teacher. However, at that time, he was too playful. And because of the various hints from the surrounding students, he ended up regretfully failing.

The big mutt would never forget the smile that his mother forced out when she found out about the results.

This twisted bitterness rushed up to his throat and finally turned into a suffocating feeling, suffocating in his heart. Where was the charm of the game?

It could make up for his regrets.

Even if it was just an illusion.

However, it could still move people.

There were always people who had similar experiences as the big dog in reality. They either failed to live up to expectations or were looked down upon by others. The mission from the fox-faced witch made them recall that feeling of grievance.

If they couldn't get it back in real life, would they have to do the same in the game?

The answer, of course, was... NO!

Woeful Island, right?

A mere curse of a few hundred years?

They were going to save this island! Not only did they have to save him, but they also had to save him beautifully. They had to save him so that the fox-faced witch would look at him in a different light. They had to save him so that he was worthy of their title as the fourth Calamity! After setting this goal, the players realized something.

How exactly should he save her?

How could he remove the island's curse?

When the anxious players wanted to ask the fox-faced witch again, they realized that she had disappeared after leaving this mission.

It turned out that under Xinyan's urging, Vivian had already used the teleportation portal to leave.

The little sparrow's reason was that she was worried that the "angry" foreigners would start to lose control and go berserk, even attacking her sister for revenge.

Vivian also felt that they needed to give the foreigners some time to calm down.

In addition, she also had to know that she did not follow the script and was willful. She had to quickly regroup with Black, stand at attention and get beaten up, apologize, and discuss other ways to deal with it.

But what the little girl didn't know was...

Under her series of coincidental operations, a cruel and inhumane monster extinction plan on Sakuragi Island began.

“Don’t look at me as a wolf...”The intelligence of wolf cubs is unimaginable.” Somewhere on Sakuragi Island, a wolf cub was humming a tune as he strolled leisurely.

Of course, in the ears of outsiders, all they heard was the sound of the “Awoo!”.

None of this mattered.

The important thing was that the wolf cubs had confirmed with their own eyes that Vivian had successfully made contact with the players as the fox-faced witch.

Although he hid far away to avoid suspicion and could not hear the conversation between the little girl and the players, Liao Zixuan did not panic at all because he had already prepared a speech for his little girl. As long as he read it, there would be no problem.

What was that?

What if Vivian came up with something new?

Humph!

What a joke.

First of all, and most importantly, his little girl was so obedient and obedient. She was also determined to carry out the words of his little wolf strategist like an imperial edict, so Liao Zixuan was very relieved.

Secondly, just in case, the little wolf cub also paid attention to the expressions of the players below the stage after the conversation with the fox-faced witch..

Chapter 614: What Large-scale Puma Scene (2)

From the classic finger movement, it was obvious that he had received a quest from the fox-faced witch, just as the little wolf cub had expected.

The only thing that was a little unexpected was that Liao Zixuan did not expect that the mission document he casually wrote seemed to be very popular among the players.

All of them gritted their teeth and rubbed their fists. Some of the players seemed to be too excited, and their expressions were a little... Distorted?

“Go to hell, monster!”

A heart-wrenching roar came from beside the wolf cub, scaring him.

He saw a player with red eyes stabbing at him with a short sword. It was obvious that he thought he was a monster on the island.

Unfortunately, this player’s strength was not proportional to his aura. He was only a pitiful level 3. The novice sword slashed at the wolf cub’s body and was immediately sent flying. The reaction force caused this player to fall heavily.

Just as the wolf cub was about to finish off this unlucky child with one paw...

After entering the battle, the system must have recognized this seemingly harmless wolf cub. The monster’s name was actually a series of question marks, and it was in the danger level, which was the blood red color that symbolized “extremely fatal.” Therefore, it knew the huge difference between the two sides.

“Don’t! Don’t kill me!” With a thud, the player actually knelt down in front of the wolf cub.

This time, the little wolf cub could not be dealt with.

Liao Zixuan wouldn't be surprised if it was a native of the Fallen God world who did this, but who were you? You were a foreigner, a player, the terrifying fourth catastrophe!

Which player would beg for mercy from a monster?

Alright, although there was.

But...

"Sob... I, I can't die. I promised Sister Witch that I would live. I can't die! Please let me go!"

The player in front of the wolf cub suddenly began to tear up and sob at the wolf cub with snot and tears.

What?

What the hell?

What did he mean by promising Sister Witch to live?

Just as the wolf cub was confused, perhaps because the monster in front of him really did not attack him anymore, the player did not stop crying. Instead, he cried even harder as if his defense had been broken.

"Why...I just want to be looked up to by the witch...I just want to prove to Sister Witch that I'm not that useless! I can also be your savior, but why can't I do it? I can't do anything...Ah!"

“I don’t want Sister Witch to suffer because of me anymore. I want to pull myself together! Run, run! Live, live! As long as I live, I can gain experience points and become stronger. You, just you wait. I will definitely come back to punish you. I will definitely make Sister Witch look at me in a new light.!! ” Just like that.

The little wolf cub looked at the player who seemed to have suddenly lit up with a face full of question marks. He ran further and further away until he disappeared from sight.

At first, the wolf cub did not realize the seriousness of the problem and thought that it had encountered some abnormal player.

However, when he encountered a second, a third...The seventeenth scene was exactly the same...

They were all red-eyed players. They did not even let go of such a cute little wolf cub like him. They even ran over to kill him to gain experience points. Then, they also found out that this little wolf cub was a hidden BOSS and began to cry bitterly, begging him to spare their lives and not kill them...

It was only at this moment that Liao Zixuan finally realized...There seemed to be something wrong with the players on Sakuragi Island!

In the past, even when players had conflicts with Flame Domain and both sides started competing against each other, they had never been as crazy as they were now. They had a strong desire to level up.

Sakuragi Island had quite a number of wolf cubs that looked like them. They were probably underage monsters with low levels and gave very little EXP. They could be seen as cursed small animals in the environment. In the past, players would never touch them. However, from what the wolf cubs had just experienced, it could be seen that the players were not even willing to let go of the mosquito meat.

What surprised the wolf cubs even more was that the high-level players could still explain it because the death penalty gradually increased. However, even the low-level players, who basically did not have any death penalty, were all afraid of death. It was as if they were not players who could revive indefinitely, but real natives.

On one hand, he was afraid of death, but on the other hand, he was extremely eager to fight, to increase his level, to... Prove yourself?

What drugs were the players on?

Was the mission document he gave Vivian really that powerful?

Unable to make a decision, the little wolf cub quickly logged into the game forum.

This doesn't go up, doesn't know, this doesn't go up, is scared.

[I'm sorry, Sister Witch! I was killed by a monster because I was greedy for a first saber. I couldn't keep our promise to live on. I'm in so much pain and regret!!)

[Record post, this is the 17th monster I've killed. Sister Witch, do you see it? Did you see that? I will return to you as a strong person without dying, so that you will no longer be disappointed in me!

[Where did the fox-faced witch go? She won't come looking for us again, right?

I'm so scared, so scared...]

[I was wrong. I won't slack off anymore. Sister Witch, come back quickly.. I'll definitely farm monsters well in the future and won't slack off anymore!

Chapter 615: What Large-scale PUA Scene (3)

This was...

F * ck!

If the little wolf cub had not gone out to take a look at the forum again and indeed saw the words " Fallen God " written on it, the little wolf cub would have thought that he had walked into some large-scale PUA scene.

In the past, I could always see posts of posts about the Flame Domain and scolding each other, but they had all disappeared. What replaced them were posts about self-reflection, self-blame, and striving for success.

It was not difficult to find the source.

The little wolf cub quickly replayed the video in the forum and listened to what the little girl said to the players at that time, as well as the corresponding trigger... What the f * ck! Epic Quest! Liao Zixuan was speechless.

The little wolf cub in front of the screen could not help but fall silent.

From his point of view, he could naturally understand why Vivian had given up the script he had given her to say those words.

However, Liao Zixuan could also understand how deeply the players misunderstood the little girl's words. Their focus was completely different.

He spoke his mind.

The little wolf cub imagined that he was a player at the scene and could not help but clench his fists.

So this wave...

He was playing hard to get this time. His rank was much higher than his old routine mission script!

The " rank " here really wasn't a metaphor for wolf cubs.

It could be seen from the missions that the system had given to the players.

To be honest, Liao Zixuan was stunned when he first saw that it was "Epic". It should be known that this was a mission that had jumped out of the "Alphabet Rating" and belonged to the highest level of rare.

According to Liao Zixuan's imagination, his original mission would at most reach SS-level. This should be the current limit of the mission that the little girl could issue.

However, who would have thought that with Vivian's true feelings, it would surpass double S, or even triple S, and become a real main storyline mission! Even the little wolf cubs did not know the principle behind it, but... It just happened.

Unlike the Thousand Islands Forum, where the players were still in an environment where the fox-faced witch "PUA" was the most common post, the forums of other countries had long exploded. This was especially true for the players of the Flame Field.

One was unacceptable.

Why?

This was how valuable an Epic Quest was. 500 EXP a day did not seem like much at first glance, but it was still divided into levels. For Vivian and the wolf cubs, it was naturally not enough.

However, for the players from Thousand Islands who were below Level 10, this was definitely a huge gift.

It took a total of 970 EXP to level up from Level 1 to Level 5, and killing a monster that players could currently come into contact with would give about 20-50 EXP. Even if the highest EXP was 50, players would still have to kill 20 monsters to level up to Level 5 without a class.

But now, as long as he accepted this Epic Quest, even if he had to lie down and do nothing, as long as he did not die, he could directly level up to Level 5 in two days and learn a class.

Of course, the level system of Fallen God was that the higher the level, the more EXP required. For players who were already level 10 and above, 500 EXP was not that much.

However, this quest would undoubtedly be of great help to the Thousand Islands players. Just thinking about how all the players on Sakuragi Island would become the first in the five countries in two days, with all of them being professionals and having the highest average level, the little wolf cub felt terrified.

What was even more terrifying was that this was only the most ordinary reward for the first phase of the epic mission [Survive].

What made the little wolf cub even more flustered was that the appearance of this mission had nothing to do with him, the "golden finger"! It was all Vivian's doing!

Right at this moment...

It was as if it was for the occasion.

Not far away, a certain little girl finally followed her senses and regrouped with the wolf cubs.

But now, Vivian thought that she had made a mistake. so her fingers were intertwined and she lowered her head, not daring to look at her wolf cub.

Even a certain little sparrow was afraid of being scolded because of her negligence in "supervising" her job, so she hid in the witch costume's sleeve and shivered.

Finally.

Seeing that Blackie seemed to have noticed it too, Vivian knew that she could not hide from it.. She gritted her teeth, put on a sad face, and made a sound of guilt...

Chapter 616: The Celestial Sakura 's Master, Faction Model Activated!(I)

“Xiao, Xiao Hei...” Vivian said as she habitually went to hug the wolf cubs. The first step to passing the test was to eliminate the sense of distance between them.

But this time, the wolf cub seemed to have expected it. It twisted its butt and dodged the little girl's hand, letting Vivian miss. Then, it turned its head to the other side, not looking at the little girl.

Seeing this, Vivian did not give up. Obviously, she was mentally prepared. She hugged him again and activated her skill at the same time. Her voice became softer.

“We've been apart for so long, I... I want you, I want you, I want you, I want you, I want you

The little girl had learned this style from strangers. In order to save her wolf cubs, Vivian had gone all out. After saying that, she pursed her lips, her cheeks burning.

The little sparrow that had already flown out of her sleeve onto her shoulder covered her eyes with her wings, as if she couldn't see anything.

Sigh...

Vivian had already used her trump card. The wolf cub finally turned his head and sighed helplessly at the little girl.

But Vivian was wrong.

Instead of saying that Liao Zixuan was angry, it was better to say that his heart was sour. If he had to compare it, it was like a silly girl who had only been with him for a few months had unexpectedly surpassed him...Roughly?

Of course, the most infuriating thing was...

This silly girl was completely ignorant about this.

“Sob... Little Black...She knew she was wrong...I won't dare next time, I won't dare...

Seeing that the trick just now seemed to be quite effective, Vivian immediately followed up the victory. She pretended to wipe her tears, but in fact, she secretly observed the wolf cub's reaction through the gap between her fingertips.

It was not until the wolf cub could not stand it anymore and waved its little paw at Vivian, indicating that it was okay, that the little girl smiled through her tears and happily picked up the wolf cub, finally returning to normal.

“I knew that you would definitely forgive me, Xiao Hei...mua!

This kiss had spread throughout the entire Midsummer, and many NPCs and players would shout that humans were inferior to wolves.

Anyway...

The little wolf cub did not mention the players first. Instead, he asked the little girl to tell him what happened to the Red Armored Witch first. After Vivian described the situation in detail, the little wolf cub could not help but ponder.

Liao Zixuan's first guess of the Scarlet Armored Witch's identity was naturally the forbidden demon sleeping on Sakuragi Island, the Nine-Tailed Fox called ‘ Sakura ‘.

Moreover, the mysterious voice of the red-armored witch that Vivian mentioned at the end mentioned the name of the Yaejo Shrine in her mind. She wanted the little girl to go there, which proved the connection between the two.

In that case...

“Eh? Are we going there now? But...” Vivian hesitated when she heard that the wolf cubs were going to leave immediately. It seemed that she still felt bad about going to the outlanders.

The little wolf cub gave him a reassuring look.

Vivian had underestimated the players’ imagination. There were a lot of analysis posts about her epic mission on the forum.

The players noticed that there was also a hidden reward for the first stage of “Survive”. The condition for the hidden reward was very likely related to the second prompt value, which was the number of cursed aberrations killed by the players during this period.

Then, the so-called plot...

In the end, the players managed to come to a consensus on the Fox-faced Witch’s quest.

In other words, surviving was the most basic thing.

If they wanted to obtain the hidden reward, they had to ensure that they survived. Under the premise of not dying once, they had to kill as many cursed aberrations as possible to change the fox-faced witch’s impression of them as “weak.”

This was indeed the case.

As the mission presenter, the wolf cub could see the players’ expressions. “It was actually a leaderboard.

From top to bottom, it was divided into five grades.

During the first stage, the number of cursed aberrations killed reached the top

0.2%, top 2%, top 7%, top 17%, and the lowest 35% among all players.

Perhaps because there were too few players who had received the mission, it was not displayed. When Vivian reappeared in front of the players and continued to issue the mission, the ranking should be able to appear in front of the public.

The little wolf cub looked at the rewards on the list. The first tier of rewards, other than tens of thousands of experience points, a random rare skill book, reputation points, and other miscellaneous rewards, even the little wolf cub was envious of the fact that it could provide a hidden class change path. Female players can choose to change their class to the hidden class [Battle

Witch]

Male players were [God's Servant Guards].

Whether it was in terms of initial attributes or potential, hidden classes were superior to ordinary basic classes, not to mention their exclusive additional skills. When others were still riding bicycles, there was now a chance for you to drive a car...

As expected of an Epic Quest.

It was only the first stage, yet he had casually released the hidden profession reward that was treated as the final treasure of other missions. The little wolf cub could imagine how crazy the players would be.

But at the same time, he was even more curious.

With Vivian's NPC abilities, she would definitely not be able to do this. So, this epic mission was...

That was also why he had put aside the players and told Vivian to hurry to the Yae Shrine.

The little wolf cub had a premonition that it was going to be the next one.

Seeing that Blackie did not care about the stranger at all, Vivian finally stopped being conflicted and focused on the journey..

Chapter 617: The Celestial Sakura's Master, Faction Model Activated!(I)

After a while, they arrived at the foot of the familiar shrine mountain.

Vivian did not know if it was her imagination, but she felt that there were fewer purple thunderstorms at the top of Mount Shrine compared to when they first came.

A young man was still sitting cross-legged in front of the shrine at the foot of the mountain.

However, unlike the first time, when he sensed Vivian's arrival, he immediately turned around and entered the shrine. This time, the young man opened his eyes and spoke to Vivian.

"You guys...Have you figured it out? Although Owl was expressionless, it could be seen from his subtle movements that he was not surprised by this result.

This vampire from Green Maple was also Liz's brother. He also had the mysterious identity of an eighth heir. Obviously, he thought that Vivian had come to the shrine to find him.

"Since you've thought it through, then bring me to the Flame Domain to find my little sister. "

As Owl spoke, he prepared to stand up from the entrance of the shrine. However, who would have thought that in the next moment, this expressionless young man, who was originally a man of few words and had a very cold personality, would suddenly widen his eyes and reveal an extremely shocked expression on his face, as if he had seen something extremely unbelievable. Even his movement of standing up froze in midair.

That was because...

“Xiao Hei! I, I actually managed to enter the shrine!”

Vivian stepped into the shrine in front of Owl and under the young man’s gaze. The absolute shrine enchantment that was supposed to block all outsiders seemed to have been ignored by the little girl and became ineffective.

“This... How is this possible?” Owl exclaimed.

His first reaction was that the barrier had failed. However, the power of the barrier came from her sister. If the barrier failed, it meant...

Fortunately, after Owl hurriedly checked several times, he finally let out a long sigh.

The barrier was still operating as usual, and Owl realized that he was too nervous. If the barrier really disappeared, then the first to suffer would definitely be Cherry Tree Island. It would not be as peaceful as it was now.

Then...

Since the problem was not with the barrier, there was only one possibility.

Owl locked his eyes on Vivian.

“Who exactly are you...How did you do it?”

“Hiss! Wait a minute, why is there, why is there...”

At first, the young man was interrogative. As he got closer to Vivian, his expression changed again. Owl could feel the aura of " kinsmen " from the little girl.

Vivian and the wolf cubs all thought that Owl was referring to her sister, Sakura.

However, he did not expect that...

Owl's next words stunned them.

"This aura...Sister? No! Father? That was not right either..."

This was, was...Lord Ancestor! You, you!" The young man stuttered so much that he could not even speak properly.

The ancestor here was clearly not referring to the ancestor of the Blood Race, but his ancestor as a fox demon.

"First...Ancestors?"

While Vivian was still confused, Owl seemed to be too incredulous and agitated. He quickly stepped forward, wanting to grab the little girl's hand and examine it carefully.

Owl's behavior naturally caused the wolf cubs to be dissatisfied, but before the wolf cubs could make a move, Vivian's subconscious reaction took the lead.

Before the little girl could react, her body reflexively made a step backward.

Although the description seemed very ordinary, the red afterimage in that instant, as well as the moment when Owl felt that Vivian was avoiding his hand, the flow of time in his body seemed to have stopped. Owl was shocked again.

Because this was...

“[Sunset Steps]?!” Owl blurted out this move that he was all too familiar with.

The young man did not get close to Vivian. Instead, he retreated a few steps as if he was looking at a monster and distanced himself from the little girl.

Dusk Stomp was the second move of the secret Fireflow Saber Technique that belonged to the eighth-tier clan.

Not only did this require bloodline, but it also required extremely high comprehension. Even he had only comprehended the first move, “No Thoughts”, and could not learn the second move, “Dusk Steps”. Now, it had actually appeared on this human girl, and it was even used by her as if she was eating and drinking. Even if the power was not that strong, how could Owl not feel... Fear.

There was a moment.

When Vivian used “Kasumi Step”, Owl suddenly thought that the one standing in front of him was the legendary great ancestor who built the Yaegi Shrine and established the fox demon race into the ranks of “forbidden monsters.”

“That... Calm down first. Actually, I don’t know what happened to me. I came to the shrine this time because I wanted to ask you for advice.

It’s like this, not long ago...”

Owl finally calmed down under Vivian’s comforting words. He did not say a word and listened quietly to the little girl’s story about the Red Armored Witch.

Unfortunately, Owl shook his head under Vivian’s expectant gaze.

"I don't know about the shrine maiden you're talking about, but if she really gave you a hint to come to the Yae Shrine, it should only be to let you... They headed to that place.

"That place?" Vivian asked.

"Yes."

Owl nodded with a complicated expression. After hesitating for a moment, he finally turned around and walked into the depths of the shrine, letting the little girl behind him follow..

Chapter 618: The Celestial Sakura's Master, Faction Model Activated!(I)

Just like that, they climbed to the end of the shrine mountain step by step. Finally, what appeared in front of Vivian was actually a...

Cherry tree?

To be precise, it was an unimaginably huge cherry tree.

It grew in the deepest part of the shrine. The surrounding shrine rooms and facilities were like toys compared to this cherry tree.

Its roots were incomparably thick and bottomless, as if the entire shrine mountain had been trampled by the roots to the bottom.

Vivian even had the illusion that it was not the sakura that grew on the shrine mountain, but that the shrine mountain was formed by the sakura.

However, it was this one that had lived for hundreds of years...Even the thousand-year-old divine tree is now withering and withering, saying that the cherry blossom tree cannot be seen, even if it is a piece of cherry blossom, all the branches are bare, like a dry riverbed, looking carefully, still can find countless tiny cracks on the surface.

“This cherry blossom has always been the absolute lifeline of our Yaegi Shrine. The previous owners of the shrine had to obtain the approval of the cherry blossom before they could inherit the throne. It was said that this cherry blossom was planted by our ancestor back then, and it has unparalleled significance to our Yaegi Clan.”

“However, after the incident with sister back then...” Owl clenched his fists and fell silent.

Vivian also noticed that in front of the cherry tree, there was a statue of a fox as tall as two people.

Owl didn't say anything, but from his expression, he could tell that this stone statue was the other forbidden demon of the Thousand Islands, the Nine-Tailed Fox, Sakura, who had sealed herself and fallen into a deep sleep.

However, what made the little girl feel strange was that although their race was clearly called the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox, from the fox stone statue in front of them, it was clearly... Eight tails?

I'm also not clear but from me, I'm up, I'm all the fox demon clans are all eight tails, I'm also the eight shrine, the origin of the name.

Owl read Vivian's confusion and explained. Then, as if he was touched by the scene, he stared at the stone statue in front of the divine cherry blossom and did not speak anymore.

Now that they were here, Vivian did not back down.

And from the bottom of her heart, she also felt a faint calling

It was Shen Ying.

Hence, after the little girl gave the wolf cub a look, she put him and Xin Yan down and walked towards the Celestial Cherry Blossoms alone.

The closer Vivian got, the stronger the calling of the Sakura Goddess became...Not only that, but it also weakened a little.

In its place.

It was a question from Shen Ying.

It was like seeing a figure that looked very similar to an old friend from afar, but as the figure got closer and closer, it realized that things were still the same and the person was not the one it had expected.

Finally, when Vivian was only three steps away from Sakura Goddess, even the dying Sakura Goddess became restless.

When the little girl took her first step, she transformed into all kinds of small animals as her eyes. However, when she saw Vivian's witch costume and the fox mask on her waist, all the illusionary animals in her way made way.

When she took the second step, the creatures that were summoned by the sakura were no longer small animals, but all kinds of terrifying monsters on the island. They were ferocious and cruel, wanting to pounce on the little girl and tear her apart. As a response, Vivian closed her eyes and used the first move of the Flowing Fire Blade Technique, "No Thoughts", to slow down her pace. No matter how the sakura demons tried to interfere, they could not stop her at all.

The second step was also taken.

Finally, there was only one last step left, and this time...

The Celestial Sakura no longer tested Vivian.

Instead...

[Ding! [You have been forced to accept the emergency mission " Revival of the

Celestial Cherry Blossoms

All the players on Cherry Tree Island, no matter what they were doing, heard the system notification.

When the players hurriedly opened it, they realized that there was no mission description, no mission notification, and no mission reward. There was only a short dialog box.

[Are you willing to contribute 500 experience points to the Fox-faced

Witch?])

[Yes/No]

[Mission Time Limit: 5...] 4...)

500 experience points.

In the past, many players on Sakuragi Island would have hesitated to give the Fox-faced Witch such a huge amount of EXP, even if they had a good impression of her. There was also a large group of players who were unsure if they could even afford the 500 EXP.

This quest only gave the player a short 5 seconds, which meant that he could only rely on his subconscious, and there was no time to accumulate experience.

However, things were different now.

I can't guarantee everything.

However, it could be said that 90% of the players did not hesitate and directly chose [Yes].

Beams of light that players could not see rose from all over Sakuragi Island and flew straight to the center of the island, where the Sakura Shrine was located.

A single beam of light might be very weak, but with the massive number of players, when countless beams were added together...

Emerald sprouts grew out of the withered sakura branches. One of the branches closest to Vivian began to germinate and bloom. Finally, the pink sakura petals fluttered and fell into Vivian's palm.

At this moment...

Compared to the last time when the Scarlet Armored Witch appeared, the system notifications that were even crazier began to bombard the little wolf cub's mind.

[Ding! [You have successfully completed the first phase of the mission, "

Revival of the Celestial Cherry Blossoms "]

[Ding! [You have received the approval of the God of Cherry]

[Ding! You have become the new successor of the Yae Shrine.]

[Ding! [You have issued a mission: " Live!"] You have reached the second stage of unlocking. Do you want to unlock it now?)

[Ding! [You have obtained a new hidden profession-[Witch]. Do you wish to change your profession?]
Warning, once you change your class, your original class will disappear.]

[Ding, you have unlocked the faction model. Please name your faction...]

[Ding, your organization's stronghold has been updated. Current territory:

Sakuragi Island]

[Ding, your Legend Rating has increased by 3 points.]

[Ding, you....]

Chapter 619: Celestial Cherry recognized its Master, Faction Model Activated!(2)

His scalp went numb.

The system notification rang for a full minute before it ended. Looking at the interface pop-ups that looked like nesting dolls, the little wolf cub quickly looked at them one by one.

The first one to bear the brunt was a notification that he had completed the first phase of the mission [Revival of the Celestial Cherry].

When he clicked on the details of this mission, it was different from other ordinary missions. The little wolf cub instantly felt his vision blur. When he came back to his senses, he found that his consciousness seemed to have arrived in a new strange space.

Not only the wolf cubs, but Vivian also appeared in this space.

"This place is..."

The little girl looked around. The rest of the space was dark and chaotic. She couldn't even see her fingers.

However, right in front of them, there was a small green sprout that was like a firefly, emitting a faint light in the darkness.

Vivian unconsciously approached and squatted down to observe carefully.

Although the tender shoot looked fragile and small, it made people afraid that a gust of wind would blow it over.

However, its tough and tenacious figure that broke out of the quagmire of this dark space gave people a feeling that it was completely different from its appearance... Powerful.

When the little girl could not help but reach out and carefully fiddle with the branches of the tender shoot, the tender shoot seemed to have a spirit. Its trunk bent slightly, as if it was leaning against Vivian's fingers and letting her touch it.

This time, the little wolf cub didn't have to cast the detection again. The seedling's interface automatically popped up in the form of a mission.

[God Sakura]

[Current growth rate: 14%(seedling stage)]

[Target growth rate required for the next stage of evolution: 21%]

[This growth rate can provide ability: Sakura Leaf]

(Note 1: Legend has it that it was planted by the first Nine-Tailed Fox. The first cherry tree on this island was bestowed with the power to ward off evil and guard an area.)

(Note 2: However, as time went by, after the drastic change at the Yae Shrine, the Sakura Shrine absorbed too many negative negative thoughts, but could no longer receive the power of will from the people who worshipped and worshipped it. Eventually, the balance was broken, and the Sakura Shrine began to rapidly wither and age, on the verge of extinction.)

The objective of the mission to revive the sapling was to nurture the sapling. When the sapling reached different stages, the corresponding mission rewards would be given.

But it seemed that the mission reward might not be very useful for Vivian, but from another perspective...

Under Vivian's touch, the seedling of the dark space began to grow and finally stopped at the height of two fingers. Then, a leaf of the seedling quietly fell off and fell into the little girl's palm.

[Sakura's Young Leaf] [Type: Special Item (Limited to the Sakuragi Island area, can be reused)] [Rarity: Rare (Blue)]

[Effect: When you hold the Sakura Leaf, the aura of the leaf will cover you for two hours, making you no longer the target of the "Vine Whisker". Even if you accidentally touch it, Thunder Sakura will not strike you with lightning again, except for active attacks.]

[Cooldown Time: 9 hours]

(The leaves of the sapling of the divine cherry blossom have a magical power. Even the cursed and deformed thunder cherry blossoms on the island will not harm their divine cherry blossom.)

The leaf was not a real leaf, but an illusion. Vivian was holding the real thing in her hand. As long as the little girl wanted it, she could give it out as much as she wanted.

For players of their level, the attacks of the Thunder Cherry were not worth mentioning. However, the players were different. They had to focus at all times. Even when they were farming monsters, they had to be careful of their feet. They did not want to step on the vines and cause lightning to strike.

No matter what the Fox-faced Witch did, she couldn't help the players. However, who would have thought that a small sprout could easily resolve this problem?

Although it was only two hours, it would undoubtedly greatly increase the players' farming speed. It would also improve the players' gaming experience and reduce the torture of being struck by lightning.

Compared to the previous rewards that could strengthen an individual's strength, this reward might not be very effective on a single person, but it could produce a qualitative change in a group.

so...

The little wolf cub immediately realized that the mission of "Revival of the Celestial Sakura" was very likely to complement the new NPC ability that

Vivian had obtained, which was "Faction Forces"

Speaking of faction forces...

The wolf cub's claws trembled slightly, unable to hide the excitement in his heart. He never expected that Vivian would be able to unlock the NPC system in such a short time.

In the past, no matter how influential Vivian was and how popular she was among the players, it was too inefficient to rely on the wolf cubs to harvest the leeks. He still lacked a more formal and systematic way to truly "cash in" the popularity.

Moreover, in the past half a month, Vivian's shortcomings had also appeared. It was not just a little girl, but most ordinary NPCs were like this.

As long as the frequency of him appearing in front of the players decreased slightly, his popularity and fame would also decrease.

Never underestimate the players' forgetfulness.

Liao Zixuan was too clear about what this group of people were. Today, he kept saying that XXX was the only love he would protect in his life. In the end, the next day, after seeing a new role, he would turn around and call them husband and wife..

Chapter 620: Celestial Cherry recognized its Master, Faction Model Activated!(2)

Just like Vivian and the fox-faced witch.

After the battle video of the cinematic "Red Armor Witch" was leaked, there were definitely a large number of Vivian's fans. They did not betray Vivian, but at least they had given a part of their hearts to the fox-faced witch. Therefore, there was no gender difference when it came to pig trotters. All players were the same.

So what could an NPC do to keep players here?

At the very least, Liao Zixuan concluded that there had to be a faction of his own!

Then, he would let the players join in, and the two sides would be bound together!

In this way, even if the NPCs did not show up and did not do anything, the players would still feel at home. It was as if they had fallen leaves and returned to their roots. This cohesiveness was much better than just shouting on the forum!

Liao Zixuan still remembered why Chris, Damir, and Harvey were able to become one of the top NPCs in the Flame Domain and leave a deep impression on the players.

It was because Chris was backed by the Treasure Thief Group, Damir was from the Fire God Cult, and Harvey was from the Fire Order Knights. Each of them had their own faction system and countless players under them. Naturally, no matter how few plots they had, the players would support them.

Liao Zixuan could help Vivian improve quickly in terms of strength, but he couldn't do it quickly in terms of faction power.

After all, from a certain perspective, it could be said that it was purely a comparison of background, which was the plot background.

Liz's strength was much weaker than Vivian's, but it was because she was the Earl's daughter... Now that she had become the first Countess of Fire Code City, Liao Zixuan saw from the Flame Field players 'forums that although Liz herself did not know, her faction system had already been opened to the players.

However, Vivian's background... Little village girl.

A poor man stands out.

However, it was different now.

If anyone dared to call Vivian a village girl again, the wolf cub would be the first to spit at them.

Please call us Vivian from now on, the current successor of the Yaei Shrine, the Island Lord of Sakuragi Island, the supreme witch!!

Err... It seemed that the last title was still tentative, but the first two couldn't escape.

The wolf cubs opened Vivian's new " Faction Forces " system. [Force Name: ??? (Unnamed. If abandoned, default name: Yaei Shrine)]

[Number of Strongholds: 1]

[Territory: Sakuragi Island (Extremely damaged)]

[Founder: Vivienne, the Witch of the Fox Face] [Total Camp Members: 1 (Commander without a team)]

[Territory Rating: D-(At least there's an island)]

[Faction World Rating: E+(Congratulations, your faction has defeated 7% of the factions on the continent, but it has not reached the point where you can enter the Adventurer's Association. Please continue to work hard!)]

(General comment: Possesses great potential and might become the second most powerful force on the Thousand Islands, second only to the Moon Abyss Society. However, all of this is based on the premise that the curse that enshrouds Sakuragi Island can be removed.)

Wuhu!

Take off!

After seeing the real template, the little wolf cub was completely relieved.

It was a fact that Vivian had really inherited the power of the Yae Shrine camp.

Judging from the three trials of the Celestial Cherry Blossoms, the successor had to meet a specific set of clothing requirements. They also had to inherit the skills that symbolized the fox demon lineage, and finally...

Alright then.

In fact, Liao Zixuan had no clue about the light spots that had gathered from the island and flew into the divine cherry tree, but they should be one of the key elements. The little girl had accidentally fulfilled the conditions.

Damn it!

Was this the aura of a protagonist?

Looking at the little girl who was still confused about why her little wolf cub was laughing so crazily for no reason, Liao Zixuan strongly condemned her in his heart!

Back to the faction template.

The ranking of a force was mainly determined by three aspects.

The first was the number of settlement areas, as well as the area and prosperity.

The second was the total size of the faction, the number of members, the average strength rating, high-end combat power, and so on.

The third was a hidden attribute that could not be reflected by data, which was faction influence. It was similar to the legend of personal attributes.

Now that the little girl had just received the recognition of the Sakura Shrine and inherited the power of the Yae Shrine camp, she was naturally alone.

However, with the huge power area of Sakuragi Island, she still received a D-rating in the local area.

Of course, the above was just a simplified version of the Faction System.

When the wolf cub really opened the [Details] button, it could be said that it was full of choices. After all, the “faction” system could be said to be the most complicated among the NPC models.

Liao Zixuan first picked a few of the items he was most concerned about, such as the current [Position Assignment] column. [Undetermined First-level Executive (Finance): None] (Current Adjutant bonus:

[Undetermined First-class Cadre (Military): None] (Current Adjutant bonus:

[Undetermined First-class Cadre (Discipline): None]

[To be determined...]

(All positions can have a chance to customize their names. If you give up, you will automatically use the positions of the positions in the Yae Shrine.)

Of course, a large army could not just have a single commander. A precise machine needed different parts to work together in addition to the engine.

The positions were basically based on the various fields required by the faction. According to the faction rating, the positions in each field could be set up.

After appointing a cadre, one would receive a basic bonus. At the same time, according to the cadre’s own specialty (if any), one would receive an additional bonus in the area under the jurisdiction of the current position.

Therefore, it could be seen that the appointment of officers, especially senior officers, was very important.

The little wolf cub first tried to appoint him as the “military” commander, but the result showed that he could not appoint his contracted beast, which made Liao Zixuan angry for a while.

Fortunately, there were almost no other restrictions. Other than NPCs, even players could be employed.

After browsing through the [Position Assignment], the little wolf cub immediately clicked on the [Faction Mission] module.

Compared to the NPCs who issued missions to the players in the past, the faction was like a gun for a cannon. Not only was the limit much higher, but the most important point was that Vivian did not need to appear in front of the players to issue missions one by one. As long as the players joined the faction, they could automatically receive missions.

This was definitely a huge increase in efficiency.

The [Faction Mission] was further divided into two parts: "External" and "Internal".

The epic mission "Survive" that Vivian had issued was automatically classified by the system into the "Internal" mission column.

The "external" mission was naturally to send faction members out to cause trouble. It was the most obvious way to increase the influence of the faction.

At present, the Yae Shrine clearly could not use the external missions. Their primary goal was to quickly restore their own island.

Why did the little wolf cub say that the mission [Revival of the Celestial Cherry Blossoms] was specifically meant to pave the way for the current faction?

Although there was only one stage reward for the Celestial Sakura, the little wolf cub made a bold guess. Combined with the origin of the Celestial Sakura, there was a high probability that it would be beneficial to the players and better remove the curse on the island.

Therefore, the plan for the next step became clear.

They would expand the size of the faction and recruit more players. Then, they would increase the growth rate of the Celestial Sakura and obtain the rewards of the higher stages of the Celestial Sakura.

The higher the stage of the Celestial Sakura, the more efficient it would be for the players to remove the curse. The faster the curse was removed, the higher the growth rate of the Celestial Sakura.

This cycle repeated itself and entered a virtuous cycle.

It wouldn't take long for Cherry Tree Island to be restored to its original state, and the curse would disappear completely.

Now that he had decided on a strategy, he had to hurry up and take action!

According to the plan, they had to increase their faction rating first before they could expand the scale limit. Then, how could they increase it the fastest?

The answer was naturally one.

Recruiting NPCs!

The wolf cub opened his notebook and began to count the number of workers he could recruit on Sakuragi Island...Cough cough, glorious senior cadre!
