

NPC Become 621

Chapter 621: Deep Moon Island?(I)

Owl was speechless.

If there was one person who was the closest and the fastest to pull in an NPC, it would definitely be his brother-in-law. After all, they were all family!

Although the taciturn young man in front of him didn't seem to have this realization.

When Vivian and the little wolf pup exited the Celestial Sakura Space, Owl was anxious and wanted to ask them what had happened.

Outsiders might not have noticed the process of the Sakura Shrine recognizing its master, but as a former member of the Yae Shrine, Owl noticed it in an instant.

This feeling was like even if the family was in decline, they still had hundreds of years of inheritance. How could they casually give all these assets to an outsider!!

In Owl's heart, even if her elder sister was asleep, the master of the shrine was still her elder sister. Now, the master had changed. The new master was not a fox demon, but a human girl.

No one would be able to accept this.

However, before Owl could get close, Celestial Sakura reacted first. Perhaps sensing Owl's hostility towards Vivian, Celestial Sakura immediately separated several branches and blocked the young man.

It seemed that if Owl took another step closer to Vivian, the sakura branches would not be polite to him.

In Shen Ying's eyes, it was as if she was an outsider of Orogami Shrine.

Fortunately, Vivian quickly communicated with the soul sprout in Celestial Sakura's body, and the branches that blocked the young man's way retreated. After this incident, Owl calmed down and recognized reality.

"That..."

"You don't have to say anymore!" Owl thought Vivian was going to explain and interrupted her.

"The process is no longer important. The truth is that since Shen Ying has acknowledged you, our Eightfold Clan will no longer have any objections. Just now... I'm sorry. I couldn't control my emotions for a moment."

I've been observing the changes on Cherry Tree Island for the past few days. To be honest, I'm getting more and more confused about your identity. I don't understand where you got so many foreigners with immortal bodies. Most of them are willing to work hard for Cherry Tree Island and fight tirelessly..."

At the end of his sentence, Owl smiled bitterly and self-deprecatingly.

Heh, perhaps this is also the reason why Shen Ying abandoned my sister and chose you. Indeed, compared to my sister who sealed herself and couldn't do anything, or me, the jinx of the eight-fold clan, you..." It's more suitable for this position."

Just as Owl was about to carry his luggage and leave, Vivian called out to him.

The young man turned his head with a little frustration and unwillingness, frowning at the little girl opposite him.

It was obvious that in Owl's heart, he was not as open-minded and open-minded as what he had said just now.

" I know that the Yae Shrine holds an unimaginable place in your heart, so I promise you that the name of the shrine will never change. In addition, please allow me to make another slightly excessive request...Can you please delay a little longer and stay on Sakura Island with me...Help this island return to its original appearance?"

"Wha... What did you say?" Owl was stunned by the little girl's words.

He could still understand the first half of it, and keeping the name of Yaegi

Shrine was considered that Kamizakura did not misjudge the person, but the second half..

"Don't tell me you... Do you still want to save this island?" Owl looked at him as if he was looking at a fool.

"Eh? Or else?"

Vivian asked in confusion.

"The foundation of the Yaegi Shrine is the sakura. Conversely, as long as there are sakura, it will be the Yaegi Shrine. Now that you have obtained the recognition of the sakura, all you need to do is to let the sakura sprout seeds, and you can find another prosperous island to plant them. Isn't this much easier than reopening an island that has been riddled with holes and abandoned for a hundred years?"

"Even if you really do it and make Sakuragi Island return to its former prosperity, don't forget that my sister, the former owner of the shrine, Sakura will also unseal herself and wake up. At that time, aren't you afraid that my sister will compete with you for the shrine?"

Owl's fast and intense words carried a sense of "why are you so stupid".

It was only after he finished speaking that the very straightforward young man suddenly reacted. Oh no, did he say too much?

However, since things had already come to this, Owl still braced himself and continued speaking. It could be said that he was stubborn, or that he was the stubborn pride of their race...

"I remember you once said that the reason why you came to my sister was to enter the Abyssal Sea. If that's the case, then you should choose a new place to build a shrine. Because my sister's way of entering the Abyssal Sea was also through the divine cherry blossoms. Through the wish power accumulated by people worshipping the shrine, she opened a passage to the Abyssal Sea.

"In other words, now that you have obtained the approval of Shen Ying, there is no need for you to wake up your sister. You can open the gate to the Abyssal Sea by yourself.

"So... Do you understand? If you understand, then quickly take your outlanders and leave this cursed island. All the disasters and bad luck here are caused by our eight-fold clan. You don't have to pay our debts.

To be fair.

Hearing Owl's words, the little wolf cub was a little tempted. Liao Zixuan didn't expect the sapling of the divine cherry blossom to have such a hidden ability that allowed it to move at will. He also didn't know that the key to opening the Abyssal Sea Gate wasn't some special secret technique of the fox demon clan, but the wish power of the people. Using the divine cherry blossom as a medium to open it, the divine cherry blossom was the key..

Chapter 622: Deep Moon Island?(I)

Indeed, as Owl said, Vivian no longer needed to be obsessed with Sakuragi

Island. The most important thing to do now was to quickly flip through the Thousand Islands map and choose the most suitable new island to develop a shrine.

However, the wolf cub was too lazy to even open the map and pretend.

Because he was very sure.

There was no use for it at all.

The reason why Vivian was Vivian was because the little girl had extraordinary persistence in certain things, just like now.

“So... Can you stay and help me restore Sakuragi Island? “There was no extra expression, no extra tone, not even an extra word.

Vivian stared at the young man on the opposite side and repeated what she had just said.

“You!”

Owl was speechless.

At first, he was a little angry and wanted to say something, but then, when the young man looked into the clear and firm eyes of the little girl, Owl finally fell silent.

A few seconds later.

Humph.

The young man snorted coldly and turned his face away. He crossed his arms and looked elsewhere. All these small actions were naturally to pave the way for his subsequent words.

“Since even an outsider like you didn’t give up on this island, how could I, the Eight Owl, abandon my hometown! Moreover...Humph! Don’t forget that you promised me that you would bring me to the Flame Domain to find my sister. Before that, I naturally won’t let you leave my sight.

Err...

If it was possible, the wolf cub really wanted to make a " wipe sweat.jpg " emoji.

Liao Zixuan's evaluation of this was...

So, were all Fallen God NPCs all tsundere?

"Thank you, Owl! I'm sure Liz will be very happy to know that she has a brother like you?"

Of course, Vivian was beaming with joy after hearing Owl's reply. The little girl smiled sweetly when she heard Owl's words.

Then, he looked at the young man opposite him.

The little wolf cub vaguely remembered that when they first met, this young man from the Blood Clan of Green Maple was still maintaining a cold and taciturn image, but now...

Humph!

After another cold snort, the young man took out a blood bead from nowhere and threw it to Vivian, telling her to crush the bead when she needed him.

He had just said that he would not let Vivian out of his sight, but now it seemed like he was going to run away and not stay in front of the little girl for even a second.

Even before he left, he did not forget to say something stubborn. "But I'm warning you, I'm very busy. If there's nothing urgent, don't bother me."

Looking at Owl, who was a fox, but ran faster than a rabbit, the little wolf cub could not help but sigh.

Vivian, you're really worthy of your name!

The little wolf cub seemed to have foreseen that the "Earth-Pushing Princess

, who would terrify all the NPCs in Fallen Gods, was gradually revealing the tip of her terrifying iceberg.

Although he was complaining, the little wolf cub's subordinate...But he didn't hear it under his claws.

When Owl agreed to Vivian's request, the little wolf cub's [Position Assignment] automatically showed up as an option for Owl.

An evil smile appeared on the wolf cub's face.

Since you've agreed, I'll decide how to use you in the future!

What 'don't disturb me if there's nothing urgent' thing?

The little wolf cub expressed that he was a tsundere!

Owl was indeed an NPC from the fourth major version of the "Green Maple" Kingdom that had not even finished appearing in his previous life. Just this Level 52 was enough to make the wolf cubs laugh.

Judging from Owl's character, the wolf cub didn't think much before appointing Owl to the position of a military officer.

[Ding, the new name has been customized successfully. The position of a military officer has been changed to "General "J

[Ding, you have successfully appointed 'Owl' as the general of the Yae Shrine and the Yae Army. The fixed reward for the appointment is: All members in the faction gain experience points by 5%]

[Ding, due to the characteristics of " Owl ", your Yaegi Shrine has received additional bonuses: All members in the faction's skill proficiency increase efficiency +7%]

[Ding, due to the characteristics of the " Owl ", the items in the " Faction Shop " in your Yae Shrine have been updated...] woc!

Owl!

As expected of brother-in-law!

Just the additional proficiency bonus was enough to surprise the wolf cubs. Although the value did not seem high, it should be known that this benefited the entire camp.

Unexpectedly, Owl had more than one characteristic!

The little wolf cub quickly opened the list of the faction shop. It was originally empty, but now a new item had appeared.

[Breath of Blood] [Type: Skill Book (Purple)]

[Enhancer: Owl]

[Effect: After learning, when you enter battle, you will slowly recover your HP.

The recovery rate is 1% of your maximum HP (increases with skill proficiency).

The effect will automatically disappear after you leave battle.]

[Method of Obtaining: After accumulating a certain amount of contribution points, talk to " General " Owl]

Good fellow!

The little wolf cub could see the potential of this skill at a glance, especially on Sakuragi Island. This kind of monster had a "curse" mechanism that could make players lose HP continuously in battle. The effect of Blood Breath was invincible! It was unknown how much more endurance it had increased.

Even if the environment on Sakuragi Island wasn't as extreme, players who had this skill in the early stages would be able to save a lot of HP..

Chapter 623: Deep Moon Island?(I)

The most considerate thing was that it was passive. There was no need to operate it, and it was comfortable and comfortable. This was definitely a god-like pioneering skill!

Sorry, brother-in-law!

Just from this skill alone, the little wolf cub knew that Owl was going to be busy. 996 probably did not run away. A huge number of players were waiting to learn skills from him!

At the same time, after this Level 52 NPC joined the faction, although his score on the World Rating did not increase, his score on the Local Rating soared from D-to C+!

The total number of members that the faction could accommodate had also directly expanded to 50,000!

However...

Of course, the wolf cubs 'appetite was not limited to this.

After all, there were at least hundreds of thousands of players on Sakuragi

How could a mere 50,000 yuan be enough?

He had to expand it again and again!

Owl wasn't the only NPC on the island.

The evil witch mother-in-law...

We're coming!

At the same time, on the other side of the Thousand Islands.

It was different from the lightning and thunder on Sakuragi Island.

As the center of the main city, the Moon Island was peaceful with birds chirping and flowers blooming...

However, this was only the surface.

Just like how old sailors knew that they couldn't be careless when facing a calm sea, because there might be some turbulent undercurrents hidden below.

One of the Three Executors of the Thousand Islands.

The society follows.

Inside the Sakai family, the room that originally belonged to Sakai Risa was now sitting on a futon. It was another man, her younger brother, Sakai Yosuke.

After Vivian and her team successfully solved the case of the imprisoned girl, the Grand Fudge Law Enforcement was swift and decisive. Rakshasa Kujyo took over the internal affairs and personally took over. Many of the executive officers from Winter who called themselves " apostles " were arrested and sent to Prison Mountain.

Keisuke, who was originally in Prison Mountain, was also liberated. He reunited with his daughter who was captured in the name of a witch and regained his power.

At this point, the Thousand Island Three Pursuing the Second of the's 'could be considered to have returned to the right track from the original puppet state, but only the Society Pursuing...

He didn't know if he should praise Sakai's foresight or his luck.

After he had successfully taken over the throne, he had immediately distanced himself from Winter. The power of the " Apostle " Executor had not had the time to brainwash him into a puppet regime before he was wiped out by Vivian.

In this way, Sakai Yousuke succeeded in his position and maintained his legitimacy. In addition, Sakai Risa was not willing to return to the Moon Abyss Island, and the Water God was still in a deep sleep. Even the Kujo Robe could not do anything to him.

However, Sakai Yosuke wasn't having a good time either. Although Kukujo

Raya couldn't do anything to him on the surface, she was secretly working with Kensei. Both sides had been suppressing the society and forcing Sakai Yosuke to abdicate.

Right now, this young family head was pacing back and forth in his study room, thinking of a countermeasure.

Originally, the three powers of the Thousand Islands were separated and balanced each other. Now that two of them had joined forces to attack him, Sakai Yousuke had to find a fourth force to unite with and borrow to resist.

In the end, on the chopping board of Sakai's desk, he racked his brains to come up with a way to turn the tide. The key to breaking the situation was written on it.

It was also the fourth force that he had been searching for, the one that he thought didn't exist.

Foreigner!

Chapter 624: Not Even Dogs Would Go to the Moon Abyss Island!(2)

There was a time difference between the Thousand Islands Three Enforcement Organization's control over the players.

Those players who entered the game without pinching people at the beginning of the game had no time to react because they had successfully infiltrated into the Thousand Islands.

As the largest island, there were naturally many players who had not been sent to Sakuragi Island.

Even though the Grand Supreme Court had been searching for the outlanders who had escaped the net, as time passed and due to public opinion, the matter was left undecided. They turned a blind eye to the outlanders on the island.

Sakai Yousuke was the biggest contributor to this, and he was the real mastermind behind it.

It was he who used the public opinion of the society to arouse the sympathy of the citizens for the outlanders. In addition, he was also a humanist. It was during the Divine Wizard election that the outlanders were finally saved.

By the way, the Divine Wizard election, which was supposed to last a month, was postponed indefinitely because of the various incidents in the Thousand Islands.

This was another major factor that allowed Sakai to keep his position.

As the core of the previous " God of Witchcraft election ", Sakai Yosuke's sentence, " Changing the commander at the last minute is a big taboo. You can investigate me, but please let me successfully complete this election " was enough to shut everyone's mouth.

As long as the Divine Wizard Selection was not over, the Six Paths Robe would not be able to track him down.

Of course.

It wasn't as if they didn't have any means to counter it.

Holding the Divine Wizard Selection required money and manpower. The remaining two sects should have contributed to it, but now they were blocked and deliberately targeted.

Sakai Yosuke couldn't get the money from Kandou Pursuit, so he asked for manpower from the Grand Fudge Pursuit, but the answer he got was no one.

It was almost obvious that he had already laid his cards on the table. He was deliberately letting the society follow him so that he, Sakai Yousuke, would not be able to continue holding the Divine Wizard election.

In this way, the Six Paths Robe would have a sufficient excuse to use Sakai Yousuke's lack of ability as an excuse to take down this treacherous official who was also colluding with foreign forces.

Luo Sha's idea was good.

If not for the sudden appearance of the stranger, perhaps Sakai Yousuke could only wait for death without any solution.

Unfortunately, as a military official, Luo Sha's sense of the changes in the situation was not as strong as Sakai's.

Thump... Thump!

There was a knock on the door from outside the study. Sakai, who was pacing, silently and quickly put away the scroll on the desk about how to make use of the foreigner before calling the person outside the door in.

Soon...

A player with the ID "Ka, Hei Yu" above his head appeared in the room.

If the little wolf cub was present, he would definitely be amazed. This ID was very famous in his previous life. The famous Guild Master of the Ka Guild, Black Feather, had the title of "Feather Emperor" in the forum for a long time.

In his previous life, when Fallen God 1.0 was released, the Ka guild relied on the sponsor club behind them and their already famous reputation in the industry to quickly occupy the throne of the number one guild. Their overall strength was far behind the guilds behind them, and the major guilds were once shrouded in fear of being dominated by Ka.

This phenomenon lasted until the end of version 1.0. Due to the large size of Fallen God and the fact that it was becoming more and more out of the industry, it attracted all kinds of demons and ghosts. After the arrival of the big shots, Ka gradually became unable to do as it wished and could not monopolize the industry. Later on, it was revealed that the management was chaotic and the higher-ups were not human. It was then gradually eliminated by the times.

But now, God Fall, which should have only been released at the end of Version

1.0, had become much more popular because of a young lady in the closed beta. This could be seen from the number of players in the open beta. Therefore, even PA felt a lot of pressure. There were many more competitors than in his previous life, and Bufan had a guild club that was similar to his size.

Of course, the most ridiculous thing was...

Under the flapping of the butterfly wings, the PA guild leader in front of him,

Hei Yu, actually chose to stake everything. He was no longer born in the Flame Domain like in his previous life. Instead, he chose to make the Thousand Islands the birthplace of the entire PA guild.

There were many reasons for this. Perhaps it was because the Flame Domain was too popular. One did not need to look to know that the competition was fierce and cruel. Or perhaps he had unintentionally been inspired by the post on the forum, "The Most Handsome Little Wolf".

Anyway...

Currently, Hei Yu was extremely excited in his heart. He also felt that his decision back then was extremely wise and correct.

Because there was no doubt.

He had made the right bet!

At this moment, the fact that he, Hei Yu, could appear in the study room of one of the most powerful people in the Thousand Islands, the head of the society, was the most powerful evidence.

"Lord Yosuke, the mission you gave me has been completed. "Hei Yu suppressed the excitement in his heart. In the dialog box in front of him, he chose to submit the mission to the NPC.

In reality, he handed the reports to Sakai Yosuke.

Sakai Yosuke looked through each of them and nodded. He looked at the stranger in front of him with admiration and satisfaction.

It was normal for the natives to be wary of the players in the beginning, and Sakai Yosuke was the same. However, he was forced into a desperate situation and tried his best. In the end, he became the first NPC in Thousand Islands to take the initiative to contact the players.

This contact was not important. Sakai Yosuke instantly sensed the endless potential of these foreigners..

Chapter 625: Not Even Dogs Would Go to the Moon Abyss Island!(2)

Take the current situation for example.

Sakai Yosuke secretly observed and selected a leader from the foreigners to be his subordinate. Then, he tentatively assigned him to do some simple things.

To his surprise, no matter what he said, these foreigners were very obedient and did not complain. Most importantly, they never disobeyed Fengyang. After accepting the commission, they would definitely complete the task thoroughly before reporting to him.

Looking at the report in front of him...

Clean up the venue, organize the election goods, purchase fireworks, and maintain the security of the witch's tour... Even if they were warriors, they might not have the speed and execution of the outlanders.

And most importantly...

Even if Sakai Yosuke looked up from the report, he could feel the expectant and passionate gaze of the stranger on the opposite side, as if he was telling him to quickly hand over a more difficult and important commission to him.

Yosuke Sakai had seen workaholics before, but he had never seen a workaholic like a foreigner. He did not seem to know fatigue and was still full of energy even if he was only paid a low salary!

Strength!

This was the power that he, Sakai Yosuke, urgently needed!

As long as he had control over the outlanders, even if he was targeted by the remaining two, he would not have to worry about not being able to hold the Divine Wizard election. Let's see what the Six Paths Robe has to say then.

Even...

A sinister look flashed across Sakai's eyes. After experiencing the power of a foreigner, a bold idea began to grow wildly in his heart.

Anyway, you guys were the ones who targeted me first, so... Don't blame me for retaliating!

' Mister Hei Yu, over this period of time, you and your foreign companions have proven to me and to all of the citizens of the Moon Abyss Island that you are not as dangerous as what the Great Fudoji and the Kanding Fudoji described you to be. You are people who need to be on guard. I'm deeply sorry for what happened to you..

Sakai Yosuke pretended to comfort him, and Hei Yu, who was opposite him, waved his hand very cooperatively.

"No, no, no. If it weren't for Lord Yosuke's support, we would have been captured by the Grand Fuxi Priest and sent to Sakuragi Island. We wouldn't be able to move freely on Deep Moon Island like we are now.

[Ding, Sakai Yosuke's favorability towards you +10]

NICE!

Hei Yu secretly rejoiced in his heart. At the same time, he curled his lips slightly. As expected, the character settings of these main storyline NPCs were very simple. A few compliments would increase their favorability.

Yes, in Hei Yu's eyes, Sakai Yousuke had long become what he thought was the true main storyline NPC of Thousand Islands.

Even though the forums had been discussing about the fox-faced witch recently, Hei Yu was very disdainful about it. No matter how powerful the fox-faced witch was, could she be compared to the head of the society in front of him?

Moreover, judging from the storyline, the players were first treated unfairly.

Then, with the help of this person, they managed to gain a foothold in the Lunar Abyss Island and were even in charge of matters related to the selection of the Divine Wizard.

Hei Yu had specially investigated before. The Divine Wizard Selection was an absolute grand ceremony in the Thousand Islands. It was only held once every ten years. Now that they had coincidentally encountered it, for an experienced player like him, this setting was just short of writing the word "main storyline".

Moreover, from the looks of it, other than holding the Divine Wizard Selection, there seemed to be another hidden agenda...A spy?

Through this half-moon, Hei Yu also faintly discovered the undercurrent between the She and the other two.

As expected.

“Mister Hei Yu, I believe that with your intelligence, you must have noticed that something is wrong with our Thousand Islands. I originally did not want to tell you this because you are clearly travelers who have drifted here. I should not have given you such a heavy mission, but..

“Sigh, I really have no other choice now. For the future of the Thousand Islands, Mr. Hei Yu, I beg you to accept this commission!”

This heavy tone, this helpless and sorrowful expression...

It’s coming, it’s coming!

The big one was coming!

As Sakai Yosuke had expected, the stranger did not show the slightest fear after hearing his words. Instead, he was extremely excited.

Sakai Yosuke believed that the Six Paths Robe would discover the power of the stranger sooner or later, so he had to be the first to do so...

“It’s like this. Not long ago, I discovered that a foreign force is invading and nibbling away at the interior of our Thousand Islands...”

Sakai Yosuke began to tell the players what had happened on the Thousand Islands.

Of course, it was a slightly modified version.

On the other side, Hei Yu immediately focused his attention and became extremely attentive. He was listening very carefully. After all, he had been leading the guild for so long. It was finally time for the “main storyline”.

Just like that, Hei Yu learned from the main storyline NPC, Sakai Yosuke, that the current Grand Fujiwara and Kanding Generals had been infiltrated and controlled by foreign forces, and their ultimate goal was to stop the Divine Wizard Selection.

They used evil tricks to put the water god into a deep sleep, and then joined forces to completely destroy the last struggling society. They wanted to turn it into a puppet of a foreign power like them.

She Xingxing was originally fighting one against two and was on the verge of collapse. Just as he was about to collapse, the classic good thing was that the outlanders, which were the players, appeared, which was why there was a turning point.

In the end, whether they could defeat the remaining two Executors who were controlled and help Thousand Islands tide over this crisis would all depend on the players!

Chapter 626: Not Even Dogs Would Go to the Moon Abyss Island!(3)

[Ding! The current leader of the society, Sakai Yosuke, has issued an A-rank mission to you: J [Accept?]

[Hint: Once you accept this mission, you will be forced to join the faction 'Society Execution'. Please choose carefully...]

Without even thinking.

Hei Yu immediately accepted!

The system notification was more like a temptation to him. After all, this was joining a faction! And it was a behemoth like the Society of Justice, one of the Three Courts of the Thousand Islands!

He knew at a glance that this was the main storyline, the official faction of the righteous faction. He had actually joined it so easily and even obtained a position. It was simply too profitable!

Yes, it was.

The moment Hei Yu accepted it, another notification from the system sounded. [Ding, you have successfully joined the faction " Society Pursuer

[Ding, due to your outstanding performance, you have received the attention of Sakai Yosuke. You have been promoted to the position: [Outlander General Manager]

[Ding, your current mission status has been updated.]

Hei Yu hurriedly opened the mission panel and realized that the A-rank mission [For the Thousand Islands] had entered a phase. A new branch mission was flashing below.

[Gather strength!]

[Mission Introduction: In order to defeat the Grand Fujikuru and the Kanding Prefect and allow the selection of the Divine Wizard to proceed smoothly, the strength of the outlanders on Moondeep Island alone is not enough. Therefore, Sakai Yosuke hopes that you can leave for another island where a large number of outlanders are gathered...] Sakuragi Island]

"This..." Hei Yu held his breath after reading the mission description.

"Lord Yosuke, you mean..."

"That's right. Thanks to your hard work, the reputation of the outlanders has been turned around in the Moondeep Island. It's time to bring your fellow countrymen back. I appoint you as the outlander commander. I'll arrange for five ships to be lent to you.

[Ding! [Quest target updated...]

[Current mission objective: Assist in transporting 1000 players from Sakuragi

Island back to Moondeep Island.]

[Reward: Activate Faction Shop]

“Yes! Lord Yosuke, I promise to complete the mission!”

‘Yes.’”

“Please, mister Hei Yu. The hope of the Thousand Islands...We’ll be counting on you!”

After lovingly sending off this excited stranger whose face was flushed red, Sakai Yosuke’s righteous expression disappeared.

What replaced it was a sneer.

After all, Sakai Sakai did not believe that there were other influential figures in the Thousand Islands who could come into contact with these silly foreigners earlier than him.

Now, the Six Paths Gauze Robe probably still thought that victory was in its grasp, right? Little did he know that he had already planted the wrong guidance in the minds of the foreigners. This seed would take root and sprout in the future, and then completely help him...Control the Thousand-island!

To achieve this ultimate goal, it was naturally not enough to rely on the few foreigners on the Moon Abyss Island. That was why Sakai Yosuke had set his sights on Sakuragi Island.

He had to thank the Six Paths Gauze Robe and that...If it weren’t for the fact that they had abused the outlanders and sent them to a godforsaken place like Sakura Island, Sakai Sakai Yosuke might not be confident that he could successfully get all the outlanders to join his camp.

But now...

Humph.

Yosuke Sakai was confident. After all, anyone with a normal brain would be able to survive on the cursed island, which was filled with thunderstorms and disasters, and the prosperous and beautiful Moondeep Island, as well as the great patron of the society.

Even a fool would know which one to choose, right?

Chapter 627: Deep Moon Island?(3)

Ta ga, koutouwa lu!

“I refuse!”

On Sakuragi Island, in front of Sakai Risa’s temporary hut, the woman crossed her arms and turned her face to the side.

After successfully getting Owl into the guild, the only NPC left on the island was this one. However, when Vivian and the wolf cubs came to the door and explained what had happened, they thought the process would be much smoother than Owl’s, but Sakai Risa unexpectedly refused.

Furthermore, this rejection was not the usual tsundere style. From her expression, Sakai Risa really had the feeling that she would rather die than accept it.

Lu Zi, who was beside him, sighed and helped to explain.

It’s like this, Miss Vivian. The reason why Lord Risa is so resistant isn’t that she doesn’t want to help you, but actually... I’m scared.”

“Damn... Are you afraid?” Not only was Vivian confused, but so was the wolf cub.

You’re the Thousand-faced Witch Bella! What could make you afraid?

“Do you remember before, uh... Did the mysterious appearance of the island’s Orc Slate? It just recorded a lot, hmm...In the legends, there was an image of an evil witch, like... She is very similar to Lady Risa.”

Now, most of the outlanders on the island have already familiarized themselves with those stories. That’s why Lady Risa is unwilling to help you out because she’s afraid that the outlanders will cough...Mistaking Lady Risa for the evil witch in the story had led to a conflict and backfired. ”

It was difficult for Roko, because in her eyes, these slates were all made by Vivian, so she had to think twice before saying anything. She could not directly blame the little girl for creating such a bad image of the family head.

After the explanation, Vivian looked enlightened and then glared at the wolf cub in her arms.

The wolf cubs were even more speechless.

Especially when he saw Sakai Risa’s face. Although she didn’t express it clearly, he could still see the grievance of a little girl, as if she had been let down by a scumbag man.

Lady Risa, you don’t have to worry about this. Believe me, the foreigners are very easy to talk to. I took the initiative to confess to them that I was the one who brought them to Sakuragi Island, but not only did the foreigners not hate me, they worked even harder to improve the island.

“Besides, the story on the stone slab is fictional. You have a clear conscience, so there’s no need to worry about strangers.”

After Vivian said that, both Risa and Roko looked surprised. They did not expect that the little girl would reveal the truth to the stranger even though she had a perfect person like the fox-faced witch.

He did not expect that even though he was facing the danger of his character collapsing, from Vivian’s words, it seemed that he was even more welcomed by the foreigners. In that case...

Then...

Should she try it too?

Bella relied on her clones from all over the Nine Kingdoms. It could be said that among all the natives, she was the one who understood the potential of the foreigners the most. Therefore, how could she not be tempted by the opportunity to show her face in front of the foreigners?

But Bella, out of caution, still decided to test it out first, if it's true, as Vivian said, I won't be hated by strangers, that it's not too late to officially join.

"Eh? Look, it's a new type of monster!"

"F * ck, it's actually a humanoid monster! "

"Where did the curse distort this time? Come on! My threshold has already been raised a lot. I'm not afraid of any more deformed or mutated monsters... Wait, wait, the location of its mutation

"So big... So white...Damn it! You actually designed such an evil mutated monster. Planning, planning you...More monsters like this!

"Are you guys crazy from farming monsters? This was obviously not a monster, but an NPC! A new NPC!"

For the sake of careful consideration, Sakai Risa brought Ruko along and specially chose a place where there were few players to appear. However, the sensational impact it caused still shocked the two of them.

Up until now, the only living NPC that the players had encountered on Sakuragi Island was the fox-faced witch. Now that two more living NPCs had appeared, how could the players not be excited?

Because they were so rare and rare, the players subconsciously began to guess their identities. Almost all the players 'understanding of Sakuragi Island came from the mysterious tablet.

So naturally...

“Wait, do you still remember the evil witch that the fox-faced witch went to

“Now that you mention it, it seems a little...”

” The stone tablet said that there was a human slave girl beside the witch. Look, there was also a servant standing beside her.

“The case has been solved! As expected! Therefore, the historical figures on the mysterious slate would actually reappear one by one, right?”

Sakai Risa caught the whispers of the players one by one. Bella sighed in her heart. It was just as she had thought. Because of the stone tablet of that stinky wolf, her identity as an evil witch could not escape.

The players who had realized this were originally excited to rush over and talk to the new NPC to see what new storyline could be triggered, but they suddenly stopped and hesitated.

Based on the storyline of the slates, the Evil Witch was undoubtedly a villain. At the very least, she was a chaotic neutral character.. If they rushed over rashly, what if the other party was a red-named NPC?
