

NPC Become 81

Chapter 81: New Students (Part 2)

The meat stew that Vivian made herself!

The clever gamers finally realized what the strange remark on the meat soup meant.

Good fellow!

Ancestral Master... Oh no, it was different when the grandmaster came

In an instant, the players looked at the meat soup in a different way.

all like hungry wolves, especially the players who had changed their pr to Summoner.

“Miss Vivian, give me some meat soup!”

“Me too!”

“There’s still me, there’s still me!”

“I want two servings!”

“F * ck, I still want two servings. How shameless, I... I’ve got three shares

The Summoner players went crazy, and the players who had changed classes were also dumbfounded. They did not think highly of Summoners because Summoners were too random and relied too much on their looks.

But now, if there was really something that could increase the chances of summoning elite monsters, or even...Summon elite monster!

That f * cking Summoner was simply ascending to the heavens in a single step, completely crushing the other classes until not even dregs were left!

“I knew it! I knew I should have chosen a summoner! With an NPC like Vivian in the shadows, how could there not be benefits for the Summoner class?” “I’m so stupid, so stupid...”

“It’s just a closed beta. What’s there to be afraid of? Just give up your original class and start all over again!

“Hiss! That seems to make sense. Brother, bring me alongP’ On the other side, the wolf cub beside Vivian was also dumbfounded.

This was...

This script doesn’t seem right, does it?

He had clearly said that he would rely on his own strength to turn the tide, and then successfully make the Summoner players counterattack, thus attracting other players to become Summoners?

Why was this...

Why was it already over before he even made a move?

The wolf cub looked at the group of players who had surrounded Vivian and were fighting for the meat soup and class change.

The girl shouted, "Don't worry, don't worry, everyone, don't fight over it. If it's not enough, I'll continue to cook." She smiled happily.

Vivian did not expect her stew to be so popular among the foreigners.

Sigh...

Forget it, forget it. Since the charcoal in the snow was gone, he would add icing on the cake.

Vivian was pleasantly surprised. It seemed that the little girl's heaven-defying luck had reached the point where even if others only touched a little, they could take off immediately.

However, Liao Zixuan wanted to carry out his plan at the same time.

First step.

Since he had chosen to use the blind box to cheat money...To filter the routes, the base number had to be large, but the threshold could not be high. After all, Big Head had to rely on selling blind boxes and unknowingly boil frogs in warm water.

So...

[Ding! Due to your outstanding performance in defending Red Flame Town,

Vivian's favorability towards you has increased by 5.]

The system notification sounded in the minds of all the players.

At first, the players didn't have much time to react, but soon, many players who had wanted to choose a new class revealed ecstatic expressions.

Why?

Originally, everyone had figured out that if they wanted to change to the Summoner class, they would need to consume 10 points of Vivian's favorability, which was 5000 experience points.

But now, Vivian had already given them 5 favorable impression points, which was equivalent to cutting the threshold of the summoner class by half. They only needed to spend 2500 points to complete it. This was within the acceptable range of many players.

However, this was not the end.

Liao Zixuan's real trump card was still at the back.

[Ding! Since you have always maintained a friendly relationship with Vivian, you have received a special gift from Vivian.]

[You have received five "Orirocks".]

All the players who had changed their profession to Summoner at the original price received compensation from Liao Zixuan.

This could appease them and make them feel that they had been wronged. At the same time, he could use this opportunity to let the players discover the "blind box" that he had carefully prepared.

I'm really a fucking genius!

'Fallen God' must be blind to not have me as the producer.

Oh, Fallen God was controlled by the AI. If there was no planning, then it was fine.

On the other side, the players were confused by Liao Zixuan's series of actions.

Many Summoner players quickly opened their backpacks to see what the "raw stone" item that Vivian had given them was.

He saw a shiny, shiny, and tempting small stone lying quietly in his backpack.

When the player opened the props panel.

[Origin Stone]

[Rarity: unknown]

[Description: The Stone of Destiny that connects dreams. The light of the original stone can allow fates that have no intersection to cross, connecting each other's dreams.]

[Effect: As the medium of the summoning ritual, it will communicate with the soul of the monster sleeping in the stone and summon the monster with 100% certainty.]

This was...

After looking at the big watermelon for a long time, he almost understood it. This was equivalent to...Five free card draws?

However, the difference from their previous summoning was that they had changed the card pool?

After figuring it out, the big watermelon immediately became excited.

After all, they were all veteran players. Everyone knew the difference between drawing a good pool and a poisonous pool.

With a sense of nervousness and excitement.

Big Watermelon placed the [Origin Stone] in the center of the summoning circle and then clicked the "Summon" button.

Liao Zixuan, who had been secretly observing the players, smiled strangely when he saw the big watermelon's actions.

He had a good impression of this person, and he was one of the players Liao

Zixuan wanted to nurture.

so...

Liao Zixuan secretly replaced the soul of the other demon in the raw stone in the big watermelon summoning array with the soul of the Silver Wolf he deliberately left behind.

At the next moment.

When the light of the summoning circle began to light up.

Shua!

The blue light that the players had never seen before in the Red Flame Town Square attracted everyone's attention in an instant.

White was Normal, Green was Elite, then Blue...Blue was...

Rare-grade?

This was indeed the case.

After the azure light faded.

On the Summoning Array in front of the big watermelon, a majestic Silver Wolf with its head raised high and its body as beautiful as the first snow appeared in everyone's field of vision.

This was...This was...

There was no need to use the "Detection" skill. Most players would not be unfamiliar with this Snow White Silver Wolf.

Because, this...Wasn't this the silver wolf that Vivian's summoned beast used to ride?

It was considered one of the best among the rare monsters.

Big... Silver Earth Wolf!

It was as if he could feel the shocked gazes of the surrounding players, or perhaps it was because he had a deep obsession in the depths of his soul that he wanted to vent.

The silver wolf raised its head high and howled.

The sound was endless.

Immediately after, its gaze passed through the layers of people and accurately found the direction of the wolf cubs.

The Silver Earth Wolf lowered its head, its eyes filled with gratitude.

This was its own choice.

That's right, Liao Zixuan promised to give it to them...

A new life!

Chapter 82: Non-Chief Players Won't Summon Lord-tier Monsters

It was boiling.

The players in the Red Flame Town Square were boiling with excitement.

Under Liao Zixuan's control and guidance, a Silver Earth Wolf with powerful attributes and an extremely eye-catching appearance ignited the hearts of all the players.

Orirocks!

The raw gemstone could actually produce a Rare-grade monster!

If an Elite monster could defeat a Warrior player of the same level as Shark, then a Rare monster with an explosive combat strength like the Silver Earth Wolf...

Invincible!

Big Watermelon relied on this Silver Earth Wolf alone to stand at the top of all the closed beta players in Red Flame Town.

The rest of the Summonmoner players who had also received compensation from Liao Xuan for the " Orirocks " came back to their senses.

All of them instantly stared at the five sparkling diamond-shaped stones in their backpacks with burning eyes.

What was the most exciting thing about playing games?

Farming monsters? pk? Look at the scorpion?

Wrong!

It was a card draw!

Luo Chen suppressed his excitement.

As expected of a high-end player, he was very shrewd. While many people could not help but use the Orirocks to summon, Fallout took the opportunity to continue queuing up with Vivian.

At this time, there was very little meat soup left. Fortunately, the appearance of the raw gemstone attracted the attention of a large number of players, which reduced the number of people in the queue. Luo Chen managed to grab the last piece of meat soup.

Gulp, gulp..

After drinking it in a very ceremonial manner, Fallout chanted Vivian's blessing in his heart. He even bowed in the direction of the girl a few times in an exaggerated manner. He was just short of burning incense.

” Those who believe in Vivian, rare!”

The shameless Fallout Thief shouted his summoning lines.

The wolf cub curled his lips in disdain. The soul of the monster in the Orirocks was fixed. It could not be changed from the moment you got it. What was the use of worshipping Vivian now?

After that.

Shua!

In the square of Red Flame Town, the blue color that represented ” Rare ‘ bloomed again.

“Those who believe in Vivian will be rare! “Luo Chen immediately jumped up and shouted excitedly.

Although the ” Rare ” monster this time wasn’t a Silver Earth Wolf, it was still a Rare. It was definitely a heaven-defying luck.

Liao Zixuan had been inspired by the Silver Earth Wolf’s soul along the way, and he had collected many souls of other monsters that had been purified by Fallen Abyss in the Dreadclaw Forest.

The first prize was, of course, the soul of the Silver Earth Wolf. Unfortunately, there were only ten of them. The second prize was the soul of a rare monster of other races. There were very few of them, only two.

In addition, Liao Zixuan took out two of the ten souls of the Silver Earth Wolves. One of them had been secretly used as a primer for the big watermelon. The other was more special. Let’s not talk about it for now. The rest were mixed up and placed into the raw stone. Even he himself did not know.

In other words, among the 500 raw gemstones that Liao Zixuan had prepared, the probability of drawing a rare gemstone was...2%! It wasn’t...

Did Vivian really have such great magic power?

Could it be that he could casually touch the luck of a little girl, or could he directly take off?

Many players who had already opened Orirocks but did not get any good monsters beat their chests and stomped their feet. They cursed themselves for being so impatient that they forgot to go to Vivian to get a bowl of meat soup first.

However, when they wanted to go and get it, it was already gone.

“F * ck!” The Long Road was one of them.

After he had blessed the five raw gemstones that Liao Zixuan had given him, there was still nothing good.

Fortunately, the players had also discovered that Vivian’s NPC shop also had this new product.

[Origin Stone] [Price: 500 experience points]

[Number: 405]

Liao Zixuan had set the price of the first batch of the stones as the same as the favorable impression points. It was a very cheap 500 experience points.

However, even though the unit price was cheap, once this thing was touched, it would be expensive.
“Give me ten!”

A Long Journey spent 5000 experience points to buy another 10 Orirocks. This time, he had almost used up all the experience points he had obtained from killing monsters in the morning.

By the way, unlike the natives like Vivian and the wolf cubs, there was a level limit for the players, especially during the closed beta.

Hence, most of the time, EXP was not only used to level up. It was also used in many other ways. It was more like a currency. Every player had a corresponding EXP pool to store EXP and distribute it as needed. It was not forced to be used to level up.

“Ten consecutive draws!” Long Road put the ten raw gemstones into the summoning array in a domineering manner. The summoning array erupted with a dazzling...

White Light

Even the wolf cubs who were eating melons beside him widened their eyes.

It was simply too heaven-defying!

Ten draws in a row, but the highest number of monsters did not even have an elite elite monster. In order to make the first batch of Orirocks have a good reputation, the number of elite monsters that Liao Zixuan put in was more than half of the total number.

As expected, it could be seen from the moment he attacked...

I’m old and deep, and I’m not a chieftain.

However, this wasn’t the most infuriating thing. The most infuriating thing was that a player with the nickname “ White Critical Strike ” on his head, who was at the back of the long road, also bought a raw stone with the attitude of trying.

Then...

“Wow!” Cries of surprise rang out.

Good fellow!

The sudden burst of blue light beside him almost blinded Long Road's eyes. Another Silver Earth Wolf was pulled out by this white critical hit.

' Well, this is the first time a newbie is playing. Ask the big shots about the one I drew...'

Before White Critical Hit could finish his question, he was drowned out by the angry players in the blink of an eye. There was only the sound of punching and kicking, as well as shouting, "Don't hit my face, don't hit my face."

The little wolf cub commented that it deserved it. He even specially stopped the Silver Earth Wolf from rescuing its master. The little wolf cub told the Silver Earth Wolf that this was a unique "celebration" for humans.

"Let's go! Let's go back to the forest and kill the Fallen Abyss Monsters!" The long road was out of sight and out of mind. With a wave of his hand, he vented all his resentment on Fallen Abyss.

There were many more players like this.

In order to buy more raw gemstones, everyone realized that their experience points were far from enough. They all returned to the battle.

This time, the players' enthusiasm for farming monsters soared countless times. They looked at the Fallen Abyss Creatures like wolves that had been hungry for more than ten days.

"Ten more!" The long journey back to Red Flame Town was a long one.

Then, he quickly left while cursing.

"Ten more!" The long road was full of scars, and once again returned to Red Flame Town.

Then, he left in exasperation.

“Again...”

This repeated five to six times until the sky turned dark. The long road was still long, but not even a single Silver Earth Wolf could be seen!

Even his lackey beside him advised,

“Boss, forget it. We can’t change our fate. At most, we can buy one from others at a high price!”

But Long Road still stubbornly shook his head.

He had a very strong sense of ritual, or rather, he was obsessed with cleanliness. He firmly believed that a companion like this must be summoned by himself to be the most emotional!

Therefore, no matter what game it was, Long Road would never buy an account, let alone sell it.

To him, the game was not just a string of data, but a real emotion.

When the initial craze passed and the sky darkened, Liao Zixuan’s raw gemstone inventory had also been emptied. In just one day, he had earned 250,000 experience points.

When the bonfire rose from the night sky, the long road and the group of followers who had been silently helping their boss despite their complaints came back to buy raw gemstones, they realized that there was only one left.

Long Road Man gritted his teeth and placed the last raw gemstone into the summoning array. His followers behind him did not dare to breathe loudly, praying that a miracle would happen.

Long Road was a top-notch player who was not resigned to his fate and was not willing to give up. He had long been famous in the circle of players in Red Flame Town.

Some mocked him, some called him a fool, and some pitied him, begging him to let him sell the goods.

Then, could a miracle happen?

The answer was...

Not really.

When the last raw gemstone lit up in the summoning array, the corresponding light was white.

“What a pity.”

“I remember that this person bought almost 100 raw gemstones, right?” “That’s why we have to stop the losses in time!”

“I told you long ago that Fei Qiu should just accept his fate. You still don’t believe me? Look at me. I only bought three raw gemstones and gambled for an Elite-grade gemstone before stopping.”

At night, the players in Red Flame Town sighed.

Long Road Man also lowered his head and sat beside the summoning array in a daze. His lackeys wanted to comfort him several times, but in the end, they really did not know what to say.

However...

What all the players did not know was that in the dark night, there were two pairs of eyes watching them.

“How is it? He killed at least a hundred Fallen Abyss creatures today. “And his obsession. Sigh, he’s just like you guys. He’s stubborn!”

“So, you...Acknowledge it?”

The little wolf cub floated in the air as if he was chatting with a friend. He was talking to a raw stone floating beside him.

Liao Zixuan had taken out two raw gemstones.

Firstly, it was to be used as a primer, and secondly...

The Earth Silver Wolf Tribe’s...

Soul of the Wolf King!

This could no longer be decided by fate and luck. Only by being recognized by it would it truly accept its new life.

The floating gemstone did not answer.

The raw gemstone could not make a sound anyway.

However...

The gemstone circled around the wolf cub one last time, as if expressing its gratitude and farewell. Then, like a meteor, it began to accelerate rapidly and fall down!

The raw gemstone that looked ordinary and no different from the other raw gemstones began to emit an incomparably dazzling light as it fell.

It wasn't white, green, or the blue color that symbolized " Rare ".

It was an extremely gorgeous purple color that exuded nobility and elegance, symbolizing the aura of a king.

Purple.

Lord -tier!

At this moment, all the Summoner players who had activated the Silver Earth Wolves noticed that the Silver Earth Wolves around them were all looking up at the sky.

The Orirocks that pierced through the darkness and turned into a purple meteor attracted the attention of all the players.

Oh, except for the long road.

He was still immersed in the deep sorrow of the dead.

However, the next second.

Boom!

The purple raw gemstone accurately fell into the summoning circle that had been extinguished for a long time.

And then, in the midst of the long road, he was dumbfounded.

Dazzling purple light shone brightly once again.

Waiting for all the light to fade away, after the fall of the world

[Ding, congratulations, you have successfully summoned a Lord-tier monster- -the Earth Wolf King]

Chapter 83: Little Black, What Is Your Dream? Tell Me! 1

Hiss...

He took a deep breath.

The long road was like a heart attack. His body fell straight back and he was about to fall. Fortunately, his underlings behind him rushed forward in time and quickly supported him.

“That person...You... Slap me.”

The long road was long, and he stared blankly at the tall and strong Wolf King in front of him. He muttered to his little brother who was supporting him.

His lackey asked weakly, “B-Boss, then I... Did you?”

“cho... u...”

Before he could finish his long journey of “whipping”, he felt a strong force, followed by a burning pain on his left cheek.

Pa!

Was it nice? It was a good face.

The lackey excitedly retracted his hand, his face revealing a look of unsatisfied satisfaction, as if he had finally taken revenge for the previous beating. He was even eager to see if his boss was awake and if he needed a second slap.

Unfortunately, what awaited him was a beating.

“Aiyo! Old... Boss, why did you hit me again! Stop hitting, stop kicking, didn't Boss tell me to whip you...Ah, it hurts!”

After beating up his underlings who were using their official position to take revenge, Long Road Man was completely awakened by this loud slap.

He foolishly smiled at the Earth Wolf King's crushing basic attribute panel, especially after entering the "Lord-tier", monsters would also obtain talent specialties.

For example, the Earth Wolf King's [Low-level Life Fortitude]

It directly increased his HP by 50%, as well as a certain amount of HP recovery efficiency. His already much higher HP was now even higher.

It could be said that having a specialty template or not was the difference between a soldier and a hero.

Although the overall value of the system was weaker than the real Earth Wolf King, it was not an exaggeration to say that this wolf king alone was enough to match the combat power of four or five players.

“B-Boss, how did you do it?”

“How did it become the Wolf King and your Summoned Beast after a meteor fell from the sky?”

The lackey beside him couldn't help but ask the same question as all the other players in Red Flame Town.

Why?

If you said that you had summoned it with heaven-defying luck, they would have accepted it. However, everyone clearly saw that you had already used up all your Orirocks and did not have any more summoning times.

"Is he cheating?"

"I heard that this b * tch's family seems to be quite rich. Do you think..."

"Did a pie really fall from the sky?"

"A complaint! I'm going to go to the forum to complain! How can others play with this?"

"Tie Feiqiu, who hasn't even opened a hundred raw raw gemstones without the Silver Wolf of the Earth, how can he get Purple?"

"Bug? There must be a bug. It would probably be reloaded and taken back in a while.

Soon, the players in Red Flame Town started whispering.

Soon, these words became more and more malicious.

Just like the old saying.

I feel worse watching others earn money than losing money myself!

Long Road Man's face turned red. He wanted to retort, but even he himself did not understand what was going on.

Even when the players finished talking, even Long Lu Man Man's heart wavered a little.

No, no, no. Could it really be a bug?

Was he going to be reloaded?

The long road was filled with sadness as he stroked the snow white wolf king that was already lying beside him. Looking at its beautiful curves, soft fur, and strong muscles, the longer he touched it, the more he couldn't bear to part with it.

It was the first time that he had a monster he liked, and it was the first time that he had broken away from the bad and entered Europe, but why did the two things combine to...

Fortunately, seeing that the situation was getting weirder and weirder, someone with a discerning eye finally stood up.

Even though they were full of jealousy and envy, Luo Chen still let everyone quiet down first, then cleared his throat and gave his analysis as a professional player.

"I don't think this is a BUG, but an ultimate hidden reward that we didn't realize.

What the hell?

Ultimate hidden reward?

The players obviously did not believe the explanation given by Luo Chen. Even Long Lu Man Man had an expression that said, "Good brother, don't help me wash up anymore."

This almost angered the dustmen to death.

However, Luo Chen soon showed the basis of his words.

“Don’t always pay attention to the data on the interface. Our game Fallen Gods focuses on realism, so sometimes, what’s really important and worthy of our deep thought is the descriptions and introductions that we didn’t care about the most in the past.

What was a description? It was the game system telling you what it was, its background, and its origins.

Most of the players would ignore this at a glance. What they really cared about was the actual effects and the strength of the attributes.

” The system’s introduction of the raw gemstone said that this is a type of stone that can intertwine fate and connect each other’s dreams.

“Then, I don’t know if everyone has noticed, but in the description of all the monsters that our raw gemstones have opened, there is always this. As he spoke, Luo Chen gave everyone another careful look.

Soon, the players exclaimed in surprise.

Because it was true.

[Remark 1: They suffered a lot of damage from the Fallen Abyss when they were alive. Even after they were reborn, the hatred for the Fallen Abyss that was imprinted in the depths of their souls did not disappear..]

Chapter 84: Little Black, What Is Your Dream? Tell Me! 2

At that time, everyone was paying attention to who had obtained a rare monster from the raw stone, who was lucky enough to summon the Silver Earth Wolf, and what the grade and attributes of the monster they had obtained were. No player would care about such an inconspicuous remark.

Even if someone did notice it, just like Luo Chen, he regretted not thinking about it deeply. He only glanced at it and then forgot about it.

But now, it seemed like he was the only one.

The real hint that the game gave them was hidden in such an inconspicuous description !

“Everyone knows that based on the current plot of the game, it is very likely that the entire Dreadclaw Forest has fallen into the hands of the Fallen Abyss, and the Fallen Abyss will corrupt all the monsters in it into monsters that are beyond recognition.

” Then, Vivian should be the main NPC in the plot to resist the power of the Fallen Abyss. Similarly, she is also a Summoner. So, I guess that the Orirocks in our hands are actually monsters from the Dreadclaw Forest. It is just that Vivian has liberated their souls from the Fallen Abyss and placed them into the Orirocks.

The more Luo Chen spoke, the more fluent he became, and the clearer his thoughts became.

It was as if he had opened up a new world. He continued to explain excitedly to the players in Red Flame Town,

” Therefore, this wolf king is the same. Its tribe was destroyed by Fallen Abyss.

This can be seen from the fact that everyone can summon other Silver Earth

Wolves from the raw gemstone. Therefore, its hatred and obsession towards Fallen Abyss must be the deepest. If we use the 'dream' in the introduction of the raw gemstone, this wolf king's dream must be to rebuild its tribe, and then... Destroy the Fallen Abyss!"

"So!" Finally, it was time to give the final conclusion. Luo Chen couldn't help but raise his voice.

In my opinion, this wolf king can't be summoned at all. It must fulfill two hidden conditions, which are the wolf king's dream. First, we need to buy all the raw stones in Vivian's shop so that all the Silver Earth Wolves can be reborn. "

"And the second is...

"The function of the raw gemstone is to connect to the dream. Among all the players who have bought the raw gemstone, whoever kills the most Fallen Abyss creatures and meets the Wolf King's dream of revenge on the Fallen Abyss will be recognized by the Wolf King!

"I think that if Long Road Man said that he was the second in the number of Fallen Abyss monsters killed, then no one here would dare to say that they were the first, right?"

Dust Fall glanced at the players in the Red Flame Town's plaza. The players who had been clamoring about bugs and cheats all lowered their heads subconsciously.

Indeed, they had been ridiculed because they had bought the most raw gemstones on a long journey and refused to accept their fate. They had been relying on killing Fallen Abyss monsters to earn experience points just to buy more raw gemstones.

On the other hand, Long Road's eyes were getting brighter and brighter. After Fallout finished speaking, his entire body trembled with excitement.

So it was like this!

It turned out that he had accidentally obtained the Wolf King's approval!

This was not a miracle at all.

This was...This is my own persistence and hard work in exchange for this!

But soon, the excitement and happiness from the long journey quickly disappeared, replaced by sadness and determination.

Once again, he caressed the Snow White Wolf King beside him. However, this time, he no longer paid attention to his physique, strength, or attributes. After Luo Chen's explanation, he seemed to have developed empathy with the wolf King.

He could imagine the despair, hatred, and anger he felt when his family, friends, and everything he cherished were destroyed by others.

"Don't worry."

After taking a deep breath, Man Man patted Wolf King's back like a good brother.

His eyes were filled with determination as he said seriously,

"From now on, you don't have to bear such a huge burden alone anymore because I'm here! I will definitely help you become stronger, stronger! Then, the two of us will be together."

"Overturn Fallen Abyss!"

"I'll call you 'Revenge.' With my name, it reminds you of the long road of revenge. However, no matter how long the road is, I will accompany you on it. "

The moment Long Road gave the Wolf King a name, the Earth Wolf King no longer lay down and stood up.

It used its head to nudge Long Walk and placed Long Walk on its back. It was as if the Wolf King had finally acknowledged its summoner.

He was also a companion who would accompany her for the rest of her life.

Roar!

Under the pitch-black night sky, the snow-white wolf king let out a long howl towards the sky. All the other Silver Earth Wolves also followed suit and howled together with their king.

At this moment, not only was the road long, but many players who were also Summoners were also affected by the atmosphere.

They understood that they were summoning beasts around them, and they were not a group of data, but a real, genuine, emotional, and obsessive-minded creature.

“Let’s go! I’m not sleeping tonight. I’m going to kill Fallen Abyss all night!

“Charge! Charge! Charge!”

“Sob sob sob, don’t cry, Wolf Baby. You’ve actually suffered so much, Mom... Mommy will avenge you!”

“Kill!

Not far away from the bonfire, the wolf cub was lying lazily on Shirley’s meaty belly. Feeling Shirley’s soft body, it wriggled restlessly..

Chapter 85: Little Black, What Is Your Dream? Tell Me!_3

Liao Zixuan could feel the admiration and admiration in the eyes of this little female wolf.

Xue Li's beautiful wolf eyes seemed to have a 'Is this also part of your plan? "In the shape of a small star.

To be honest, it was beyond Liao Zixuan's expectations to have such an impact.

He was surprised that Luo Chen could figure out his thoughts from the little details. He was also very pleased with his performance. He did not choose the wrong person and found a good home for Wolf King.

However, the only troublesome point was the point.

It was closed beta now, and the players would leave in less than ten days.

At the moment, if Liao Zixuan's memory was correct, the players would be deleted from their hardware such as level equipment and props. Although the professional software would be retained, Liao Zixuan was not sure if the summoned beasts were among them.

Forget it.

At most, he would help them when the time came.

Originally, Liao Zixuan had wanted to rely on a BUG. After the players disappeared, these summoned beasts would become similar to him, an existence between the players and the natives.

Then, when that time came, he would let Xue Li recruit these silver wolves and turn them into a powerful force that he could hide in the dark.

But...

If there were really players who could build a deep relationship with these wolves and try their best to retain the bond between them, Liao Zixuan would not mind helping them.

As for the players who didn't try hard to keep their Summoned Beasts.

Then I'm sorry.

Just as Liao Zixuan was thinking about this, a pair of small hands suddenly touched him.

It was Vivian.

The little girl seemed to be impressed by the players in the square. Although she was stupid and did not understand anything, she was still a village girl. However, this did not stop Vivian from being proud of Blackie.

But soon, the young girl became distressed again.

She also imitated the long walk and stroked the wolf cubs.

Then, Vivian leaned into Liao Zixuan's ear and quietly asked,"

"Xiao Hei, do you have any dreams? I... I will definitely help you achieve it and accompany you to the end!

The little girl mustered up her courage and determination when she said this.

She was sincerely helping Xiao Hei to fulfill his dream.

Unfortunately.

Liao Zixuan rolled his eyes at Vivian.

My dream?

My dream is to raise a silly girl like you into a legendary witch whose name will shake the world!

Seeing that Blackie was ignoring her, Vivian did not give up. She used her ultimate skill and shook the wolf cub's body in a coquettish tone.

"Tell me, Little Black! You must have a dream too, right? I really want to know!

What if...what if I can help?"

But Liao Zixuan was still indifferent.

Nonsense.

I'm sure you can help.

However...

If he had said it out loud, Vivian would not even have mentioned it. The second personality of "I like myself" in the girl's spiritual space would have rushed out on the spot and beaten him to death.

So, hmph.

I won't say it.

I want to play and slowly develop it!

Just as Liao Zixuan decided to turn Vivian, who was still full of curiosity and wanted to explore his dreams, over and over again..

Hmm?

The wolf cub suddenly stood up from Shirley's soft belly and looked towards the kitchen where Vivian had been.

Because he saw.

The night was dark, but Liao Zixuan could clearly see a figure looking around sneakily. After making sure that no one was paying attention, he slipped into the kitchen..

Chapter 86: Miss Vivian also wants to summon!(For Alliance Leader Limlu)

The dog carefully closed the kitchen door.

Then, after quickly looking around the kitchen, he finally seemed to have discovered something. Suddenly, his eyes lit up and he ran over with an excited expression.

After hearing the words of that expert player named Luo Chen, who was in the square.

Like many players, the dog had an epiphany.

However...

The things he had comprehended were different from the other players.

The mutt had fully comprehended the phrase, "Don't treat Fallen God as a game, treat it as a real world."

Then, Vivian's meat soup must have been made in the kitchen.

Since he had made so much, would there be any leftovers left in the kitchen?

Just as he thought of this, the big mutt immediately slapped his head and marveled at his genius.

Hence, while the players were clamoring to stay up late to continue killing monsters, he rushed to the Forest of Fearful Claw. The big dog took advantage of the chaos and bypassed the guards. Finally, he slipped into the kitchen!

Well, there were no guards guarding the kitchen at all. After all, no one would expect a thief to steal from the kitchen.

However, for the players, especially the Summoner players.

[Vivian's carefully prepared meat soup] was definitely the item that everyone wanted the most! Some people even spent a lot of money in the real world just to buy a bowl.

Not for anything else.

In order to get a little bit of the halo of the goddess of luck, the grandmaster blessed them with the ability to summon powerful monsters!

The big mutt was no exception!

By the way.

When Liao Zixuan's "Origin Stone" was introduced, it significantly increased the probability of Summoners dropping Elite-grade monsters, and even Rare-grade monsters.

Like the last straw that broke the camel's back, the Summoner class completely suppressed the other classes, especially the Warriors who had outstanding early combat strength.

After training for half a day, you realized that you were not as strong as the pet of another Summoner. Who could bear it?

The dog couldn't take it anymore.

So he abandoned the glory of a warrior.

Instead, he chose to give up his original profession and start all over again. He also changed his profession to become a glorious Summoner under Vivian! Furthermore, he used the last bit of experience he had to buy a raw gemstone!

"Whether or not we can make a comeback depends on this move!" The big mutt was excited.

According to the players' conclusion, the probability of summoning elite-level monsters after drinking Vivian's meat soup would skyrocket, which was why the big dog sneaked into the kitchen.

Meat soup!

As expected, there was still one pot left!

He saw that the pot of meat soup seemed to have only been touched by a small mouth, and then it was placed in the innermost corner. If not for the big mutt's sharp eyes, he really would not have noticed it.

What did this mean?

It meant that he had made the right bet!

Look at how well hidden it is, afraid that it will be found by others. If this isn't called a hidden item, then what is?

Sure enough, Fallen God was full of hidden rewards, just waiting to be discovered by those who were interested.

And he, the big mutt, was the second person with ulterior motives!

The first is a long road.

However, the big mutt did not care about Long Road at all. After all, the former was purely accidental, but he had deduced it with his wisdom!

It was clear who was higher and who was lower!

Unfortunately.

The big mutt did not know that his every move was being observed by the wolf cubs and Vivian.

"That is!"

Seeing that the dog was about to hide her meat soup, Vivian opened the lid and filled a big bowl. The little girl couldn't bear to stop him.

But at this time, the wolf cub covered Vivian's mouth and shook its head at the little girl with a playful look.

"Oh..

“Xiao Hei, how could you do this?”

“You... You’re so bad...” The young girl whispered and poked the wolf cub’s stomach.

After that.

Vivian and Liao Zixuan watched the movie with great interest and anticipation.

On the other side.

After the dog opened the lid, he hesitated.

This pot of meat soup seemed to be different from the one Vivian had sent them, both in terms of smell and appearance.

That’s why.

The mutt carefully looked at the item information panel given by the game system several times.

[Vivian’s Meat Soup]

[Rarity: Rare]

[Description: Vivian’s first attempt may be unique in this world. There will never be a second pot of meat soup.]

[Effect: ??]

(Remark 1: After being cooked by Vivian, you might be able to smell like a girl after drinking it.)

Apart from the words 'carefully prepared' missing from the item name, there were also three question marks in the effect column, which indicated that the effect was unknown.

The rest was simply too surprising for the big mutt.

It was actually even rarer than the rare grade...Rare grade!

Then, he looked at the description. It was unique in the world. There would not be a second pot!

Oh my god!

After being taught by Luo Chen, the dog now paid more attention to these descriptions.

He might really have a great opportunity this time!

Humph.

So what if the Earth Wolf King was a Lord-tier monster? After drinking this bowl of rare [Vivian's Meat Soup], he would definitely be able to summon a Lord -tier monster!

" Those who believe in Vivian, give me the lord!"

The big mutt dog lowered his voice and shouted out the slogan that was becoming more and more popular among the Summonmoner players in Red Flame Town.

Soon after.

Under Liao Zixuan's gaze as he looked at the warrior, and under Vivian's hesitant gaze, the big dog actually finished a big bowl in one breath.

One second, two seconds...

What the hell!

Someone could actually last three seconds under that kind of dark cuisine?

Unfortunately, the dog couldn't hold on.

Before the little wolf cub could count to three, the big mutt could no longer hold it in. It spat out everything it had swallowed and coughed violently. It lay on the ground like a dead dog.

[Ding! As you have consumed an unknown food, your HP has decreased by 90%. You will lose 1% of your maximum HP every second.]

[You have entered a near-death state. Please treat you in time.]

The dying dog was unwilling to give up just like that. With his last hope, he used his last bit of strength and used his last raw stone to summon.

Immediately after.

Shua!

The light of the summoning circle flickered in the dark kitchen.

Soon after.

Nothing.

That's right. It could be said that it was even more ridiculous than summoning sheep and animals on a long journey. The big mutt actually...

The summoning had failed!

Anger attacked his heart.

It was also possible that he had bled to death.

The dog's body turned into a white light and disappeared from the kitchen.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Vivian was speechless.

The second personality was speechless.

"Um, Vivian, are you interested in letting the other you show off your cooking skills again? I didn't mean anything else. I just wanted to give the Fallen Abyss monsters some food to eat.

In an instant, the temperature in the kitchen seemed to have dropped by several degrees.

"Alright, alright, Xiao Hei. Everyone has something they're not good at.

"Speaking of which..

Vivian walked to the spot where the dog had cast the summoning spell.

The little girl was bashful.

Then, as if he couldn't suppress the curiosity in his heart, he said to the wolf cub in his arms in a negotiating tone,"

Xiao Hei, look at me, as a summoner, I have never used summoning magic before.

Vivian looked aggrieved.

This was the truth.

The meticulous little girl was afraid that Blackie would be jealous, so she never summoned other demons.

However, his hands were really itchy.

so...

"Can I try it once? Just once! I promise!" Vivian clasped her hands together, begging for her wolf cub's consent.

Liao Zixuan was a little angry at first.

What did he mean?

Isn't it enough to have me! That was too greedy, Vivian!

But he quickly changed his mind.

Forget it.

As the saying goes, there must be a comparison in everything.

Why not let Vivian use the lowest level of summoning magic?

Only after summoning some trash monsters like cats and dogs would the girl realize how precious she was!

What was that?

What if Vivian summons another monster stronger than you?

Haha.

What a joke.

Putting aside whether Vivian had the ability or not, even if she was a little lucky, the highest level of monsters was the taboo level.

Liao Zixuan was already in an invincible position.

Even if the requirements were a little lower, there was only one Taboo-level expert left in the huge Flame Domain that could be on par with him.

What's wrong?

If Vivian could summon the phoenix here...

He, Liao Zixuan, would write his name backwards in the future!

“Come, come, come. Let’s try!” The wolf cub did not panic at all. He was very calm and agreed to Vivian.

After getting the wolf cub’s approval, the girl’s face immediately revealed an excited expression.

Vivian rubbed her hands nervously.

“Then... Then I’ll...

“It’s starting!”

Chapter 87: Archbishop Maggie

Fire Code City.

In the emergency meeting hall.

Bang!

Harvey, the commander of the knights, slammed the table angrily, causing the candlelight on the table to tremble.

“This is what you promised me, the mage troops?”

Harvey pointed at the few young men who were present. They all had blank expressions on their faces. They probably did not even know what he was going to do next.

Then, Harvey roared at Greco, one of the three archbishops of the Fire God

Cult, who was also sitting in the meeting hall,

“All of them are magic apprentices who haven’t even reached the first stage?”

“You expect me to rely on them to save the crisis of Red Flame Town and fight against the evil forces of the Dreadclaw Forest?”

Facing the burly commander who was reprimanding him.

Bishop Greco was not moved at all. He even took a sip of the black tea on the table.

“Sir Harvey, this is the greatest aid our Fire God Cult can give the knights.”

” The rest of us mages are at a critical juncture in our cultivation. Even as a bishop, I have no right to order them to give up the opportunity to break through and turn around to set off with you.”

After hearing Bishop Greco’s casual tone, Harvey immediately stood up.

“Let me ask you, is it more important to study your lousy magic or to protect the people of the Flame Domain? Have you all forgotten the teachings of the Fire God??

“Both are equally important, Sir. ”

“Moreover, the Fire God Statue didn’t react at all. In other words, the crisis this time might not be as serious as you described, Sir Harvey. I think that the strength of you and your soldiers is enough to deal with it. There’s no need for the Fire God Cult to take action.

Seeing that Harvey was about to continue arguing with him, Greco smiled and said,

“Sir Harvey, I think that if your close friend, Archbishop Maggie, could come out of her cultivation, she would definitely make the same decision as me, wouldn’t she?”

When the other party mentioned Bishop Maggie, Harvey felt like he was hit in the sore spot and was instantly speechless.

Greco’s meaning was obvious.

Even the highest authority of the Fire God Sect, your former lover, Archbishop Maggie, has taken the lead in cultivating in seclusion. She has not been involved in the world for several years.

This in itself more or less symbolized the Fire God Sect’s overall attitude.

Harvey returned to his seat in a sorry state.

He clenched his fists tightly, but in the end, he lowered his head and remained silent, unable to say anything.

However...

Just as Harvey was about to leave the meeting hall, a powerful pressure suddenly swept across the entire hall.

“What?” Sensing this aura, Bishop Greco’s expression instantly changed.

The mocking expression on his face disappeared without a trace.

On the other hand, Harvey’s burly commander was stunned for a moment, as if he could not believe it.

But then..

“Greco, go to the forbidden room and face the wall for a month. “A gentle and pleasant female voice rang out in the meeting hall.

However, such a soft voice seemed to carry an unquestionable majesty.

Bishop Greco, who had been so nonchalant with Harvey earlier, actually did not have the slightest thought of refuting him. He immediately agreed repeatedly with cold sweat dripping down his forehead.

It was only then that Harvey finally confirmed the owner of the voice.

“Ma...Maggie!” The strongest Knight Commander of Fire Code City almost burst into tears when he heard this voice.

‘ Harvey, come to Fire God’s Tower for a while. I’ll wait for you above.

After the pleasant female voice finished speaking, the powerful pressure that had covered the meeting hall disappeared.

“I heard that if Maggie comes out of seclusion, she will make the same choice as you?”

Before leaving for the Fire God Tower, he did not forget to mock Bishop Greco, who was sitting in his seat with a pale face.

When Harvey finally left, one of Greco’s deacons asked in fear,”

“Master... Lord Bishop, what should we do now? Archbishop Maggie, why did she suddenly...”

“Humph! Why are you panicking?” Bishop Greco gradually calmed down from his shock.

“We didn’t do anything wrong. It’s not like you don’t know that once we mages use too much magic power, it will cause the strange disease in our bodies to be unable to be suppressed and the symptoms will worsen.

“Alright, don’t think too much. In my opinion, even Archbishop Maggie’s body is probably the same as ours. She’s also infected with that strange disease. It’s possible that it’s even more serious than ours, and she fell ill earlier. Otherwise, with Archbishop’s personality, how could she have secluded herself for so long?”

Greco’s fingers continuously tapped on the table in the chamber.

Although he said that it was easy, his brows were still tightly knitted.

In the end, Greco also got up and prepared to leave, but before he left, he seemed to have remembered something and specially reminded him, “Let’s go back. Oh, right, while I’m in seclusion, I asked you to be in charge of recruiting foreigners.

“Yes, Bishop Greco.”

Fire God Tower.

On the top floor.

When Harvey came here again, the ancient gate that had been sealed for several years and was burning with flames at the top was now open for him.

When Harvey stepped in, the flaming door seemed to have sensed something and closed automatically.

“Tsk, being a mage really saves me a lot of trouble. I don’t even have to close the door myself.” Harvey turned around and smacked his lips..

Chapter 88: Archbishop Maggie

After Maggie finally came out of seclusion and took the initiative to see him, the commander of the knights was obviously in a good mood. He even had the time to tease her.

“Long time no see, Harvey.” The pleasant female voice that had appeared in the meeting hall earlier sounded again.

Following the voice, a beautiful woman in a gorgeous robe walked out of the inner room.

What was worth mentioning was that on the woman’s shoulder stood an equally luxurious and beautiful fiery red bird.

On the other side, Harvey, who was in the main hall, saw the woman in the archbishop’s robe come out. A few different emotions immediately appeared in the depths of his eyes.

However, he quickly covered it up and replied in a dissatisfied tone,

“Yeah, Maggie, it’s been a long time. It’s been so long... I almost couldn’t remember what you looked like.”

Just like many old lovers who had been separated for a long time, when they met again, they would always feel a little awkward.

As if he felt that he had gone a little too far, Harvey scratched his head and casually found a topic to ease the atmosphere. “What, after being in seclusion for so long, you have a hobby of raising birds?” It was originally just an awkward conversation.

To Harvey’s surprise, the little red bird on Maggie’s shoulder seemed to understand what he said and immediately became angry.

Before Harvey could react, the little bird opened its beak slightly, and then a wave of heat rushed over.

When he came back to his senses, he felt a chill on top of his head, as if something was missing.

“Xinyan, don’t mess around.”

“At Harvey’s age, it won’t be easy to grow hair again.

Maggie whispered to the fiery bird on her shoulder. It was not hard to hear the teasing in her voice, as if she was taking revenge for Harvey’s teasing of her at the beginning.

After hearing this, the mystical fiery bird seemed to be very reluctant, but it still obediently spat out another burst of flames. However, this time, the flames did not hurt Harvey at all. Instead, miraculously, Harvey’s bald head grew black hair again, and he returned to his original state.

“This... Maggie, you little... Uh, this devil was quite powerful.” Harvey almost said the word ‘bird’ , but he quickly changed it for his hair.

On the other hand, the bird-type monster raised its little bird head high, as if it did not care about Harvey’s praise. However, its spread wings still revealed its inner pride.

After such an exchange, the atmosphere was no longer awkward. Harvey and Maggie both regained their former feelings.

After they exchanged a glance and smiled, Harvey finally couldn’t hold back his emotions.

“Maggie, it’s good to see you again.”

Unfortunately, Harvey took a step forward to hug Maggie, but Maggie took a small step back and cleverly avoided him.

“Alright, the time I have to wake up is limited. Let’s talk about serious matters first.

Maggie didn’t give Harvey a chance to ask what he meant by “ limited time to wake up “. She reached out and grabbed at the air. Then, a stone engraved with runes appeared in Maggie’s hand.

“I already know about the Dreadclaw Forest. ”

“You did the right thing. This evil force is extraordinary. If we don’t handle it well, it might threaten the entire Fire Code City. However, you don’t have to worry, and you don’t have to gather any troops, because I will personally take action.

Harvey frowned when he heard that they shouldn’t gather the troops, but after Maggie said she would personally take action, he was surprised and relaxed. “It’s true...Is it so serious that you need to take action?”

After all, Maggie was a peak Rank-4 mage who had truly stepped into the Extraordinary realm. She could even temporarily borrow the power of the Fire God to reach the terrifying Rank-5 or even Rank-6. It would not be an exaggeration to say that she was the guardian of the entire Fire Code City.

Maggie shook her head at Harvey’s question. She didn’t say anything else and just handed the stone in her hand to Harvey.

“Take this teleportation stone.”

“Teleportation Stone?” Harvey played with it curiously.

“I’ll get the Fire God Cult’s mages to send you to Red Flame Town. Then, give this stone to Damir and let him use his magic power to activate it.

“The function of this Teleportation Stone is to connect Red Flame Town with me. Once the stone is activated, I can use this as a coordinate to open a large Teleportation Gate from Red Flame Town to Fire Code City.

“You can use the Teleportation Gate to easily evacuate all the people in Red Flame Town to the outside of Fire Code City.”

” Finally, after everyone has left, I’ll close the Teleportation Portal. I’ll personally descend into the Dreadclaw Forest and use the Fire God’s power to cast a supreme spell to completely burn all the evil in the forest.

Harvey’s eyes lit up as Maggie gradually explained her plan. In the end, the commander couldn’t help but slap his thigh.

“I’ll do it immediately!”

“Sometimes, even though I find you mages to be an eyesore, I have to admit that with the help of magic, solving problems is much easier.

Harvey’s original plan was to gather the troops and split them into two groups. One group would protect the refugees and retreat, while the other group would stop the evil forces and fight a protracted war..

Chapter 89: Archbishop Maggie 3

But now, Maggie’s plan was equivalent to driving a transport plane to transport all of her own people and then throwing a nuclear bomb inside. It was simple, brainless, and violent.

Technology changed life. Oh, no, it was magic that changed life.

Harvey resisted the urge to chat with Maggie for a while longer. After confirming some details, he immediately left the Fire God Tower to make preparations.

After Harvey left, Archbishop Maggie was once again left alone on the top floor of the Fire God Tower...

The beautiful woman who had been relaxed and dignified earlier seemed to be unable to hold it in any longer. Her body swayed as she covered her mouth and coughed violently.

When his hand moved away from his lips, he could see some black particles in Maggie's palm. In stark contrast to Maggie's jade-white skin, they instantly disappeared when they came into contact with the air.

"Aunt Alice, you... Are you alright?" A second clear voice of a young woman suddenly sounded in the room.

After Harvey left, the fiery red bird that was perched on Archbishop's shoulder suddenly blurred. It removed its disguise and turned into a beautiful phoenix that seemed to be burning with flames.

When the phoenix saw the strange change in Bishop Maggie's body, it immediately revealed an anxious expression.

Her body shook again, and she turned into a beautiful girl with long red hair.

She was about fifteen or sixteen years old, and she quickly supported Maggie. "It's fine, Xinyan. It's all thanks to you that I was able to wake up at the critical moment.

Maggie shook her head, and then quietly put her hand, which had been covered with black particles, behind her back.

"So, do you understand? What is the summoning you feel?"

"No, but I'm sure that the summoning feeling is not far from me. It's just... In Red Flame Town where you were talking!"

“Red Flame Town, huh...” After hearing the girl’s words, Maggie seemed to fall into a strange state. No one knew what she was thinking. “So, Aunt Alice, I... I also want to go to Red Flame Town.

The girl said to Maggie with determination.

‘Yes, but you must be careful. Also, do not look at others with your true body.

You know that if someone discovers the appearance of a forbidden demon...”

Before Maggie could finish her words, the red-haired girl pouted and replied confidently , “Don’t worry, Aunt Alice. I’ve entered the growth period. I promise that I’ll use my human form to go over and won’t cause trouble for Aunt Alice! No one will be able to recognize me!

“It’s just that...’

“Compared to me, I’m more worried about you, Aunt Alice. With your current human body, without my treatment, your illness...”

Maggie waved her hand and interrupted the red-haired girl.

“Don’t worry.”

Finally.

After receiving Maggie’s reply, the red-haired girl left the Fire God Tower with curiosity and anticipation for Red Flame Town.

Right now, Archbishop Maggie was the only one left.

“I have to... I have to quickly complete the inscription of the teleportation array...”

Maggie muttered to herself in the room.

“Focus...”

“Just like before...” Maggie didn’t know that when she said this, a dark light flashed in the depths of her eyes.

Then, terrifying magic power instantly surged out of Maggie’s body. The powerful airflow blew the archbishop’s robe on her body, revealing the contours of her body.

A complicated and profound teleportation array was gradually formed under Maggie’s little carving.

When the last magic rune was imprinted, Maggie seemed to have exhausted all her strength. With a bang, she fell unconscious. However, things were far from over.

Because...

From Maggie’s beautiful body, from Maggie’s flawless back, countless black particles began to gather, and finally condensed into a pair...

Black Hand.

Immediately after, the pair of pitch-black hands extended from Maggie’s back and began to control Maggie’s unconscious body.

He began to control Maggie and added some more to the Teleportation Portal that she had just finished carving...

There were additional strange lines..

Chapter 90: An Absurd Thought That Makes One Fear

“Ah, this...”

Vivian looked at the light that lit up and went out after she cast the summoning spell, and the summoning circle that was still empty.

The little girl immediately fell into confusion.

“Yes... Did it fail?” The girl quickly reacted, her expression somewhat dejected.

Originally, they were not panicking at all, but when Vivian really started summoning, they were still panicking. But now, he heaved a long sigh of relief.

Phew...

At the very least, Liao Zixuan’s name was preserved, and he no longer had to be Liao Zixuan.

It seemed that Xuan Ziliao was also surprisingly good?

Speaking of which, it seemed that even Vivian, who was known as the Lady of Fortune, had times when she failed. This made Liao Zixuan, who had always been a villain in his previous life, feel particularly comfortable.

This feeling was like seeing a roommate who had been barking and barking all the time suddenly drop dead.

In short.

Although he was secretly happy, the little wolf cub still pretended to be very regretful on the surface. He simply comforted the little girl and said something like, "Don't be sad. This was just an accident. It's enough that you have me." However, Vivian quickly adjusted her mood.

Just like Liao Zixuan said, the little girl only needed her wolf cub. She didn't care about other Summoned Beasts!

Just as they were about to leave the kitchen, the kitchen door was suddenly pushed open again. "Damen, a figure rushed in.

"Vivian! I finally found you. What are you doing in the kitchen so late at night?" Damir complained about the little girl while panting.

Soon after, Damien quickly led the girl out while Vivian was still talking.

"Quickly come with me. There's news from Fire Code City. Uncle Harvey came personally."

"Harvey, do you still remember Harvey? The person I mentioned to you before is our Fire Code City's Knight Regiment's Warrior Captain and Commander!"

Damir explained to Vivian as he led the way.

The little wolf cub in the young girl's arms instantly cheered Liao Zixuan up.

Fire Code City...

Was there finally movement?

Liao Zixuan could tell from the joy on Damir's face that it was good news. At least, it could solve the predicament of Red Flame Town.

But...

Having experienced the game's plot in his previous life, Liao Zixuan knew that Fire Code City had long been infiltrated by Fallen Abyss and that there were countless spies. Therefore, he still maintained a vigilant attitude.

Just like that.

After a while, they arrived at the guard camp of Red Flame Town.

When it saw the person inside, the little wolf cub immediately narrowed its eyes, revealing an expression of 'I knew it'.

Here, the mayor Sorin and another tall and burly middle-aged man with a mustache that showed the vicissitudes of life were discussing something enthusiastically. Even Liao Zixuan had to admit that he was very manly and was on par with him.

It was not until Damir brought Vivian into the house that the two of them turned their gazes over.

"Yo!" Harvey, who was in a good mood, whistled first and then looked at Vivian curiously.

It was as if she was amazed that Damir, a girl whose mind was filled with magic, could actually have other thoughts.

"Hello, I am Harvey, the current commander of the Knights of Fire.

"Ah... Hello, hello, my name is..."

Even though Damir had informed her beforehand, when such a big shot from Fire Code City stood in front of her and greeted her so warmly, Vivian was instantly extremely nervous and uneasy.

Fortunately, Harvey laughed and patted Vivian's shoulder in admiration.

"You don't have to say it anymore. I've heard of your name from Thorin and Damir. Vivian, on behalf of the entire Knight Order, I sincerely thank you for your contributions to Crimson Flame Town and the surrounding villages!

After Harvey finished speaking, the commander actually bowed seriously to Vivian, who was half a head shorter than him and still had a blank look on her face.

"No... It's nothing. It's all what I should do!" Vivian could not bear such a scene. The little girl was very flattered and quickly waved her hand.

"Speaking of which, this little..." Harvey's old habit of chatting awkwardly with people was back.

However, when Harvey was about to say the word "puppy", the painful experience with Maggie suddenly flashed through his mind.

Harvey suddenly had a PTSD for this combination of a human and a beast, especially when the beast looked very young.

He subconsciously touched his almost bald hair and quickly pulled back. "This little... Little wolf cubs are quite cute!"

Damir's heart almost stopped beating when he heard that. He felt relieved. After all, he had truly understood the consequences of making the wolf in Vivian's arms unhappy.

Vivian let out a long sigh and patted her flat chest.

As for Liao Zixuan.

The little wolf cub could only say that Harvey had saved his hair and eyebrows.

Harvey was the only one who felt his heart skip a beat when he saw the reactions of the people around him.

No way!

Was it another extraordinary monster like Maggie's red-haired bird, who had a bad temper and could understand human language?

Harvey was glad that he had learned his lesson and escaped death.

After a brief introduction, they exchanged pleasantries.

Harvey repeated the plan that he had discussed with Archbishop Maggie in the Fire God Tower.

Finally, he took out the teleportation stone that Maggie had given him and placed it in front of Damir.

"Damir, how is it? Can you do it?"

After the young genius mage used his magic power to sense the teleportation stone, he immediately patted his chest and promised.

"No problem! As expected of my teacher. She has already engraved all the runes and incantations on the stone. The only thing I need to do is to be in charge of injecting magic power and activating the magic on it."

"Once I activate the Teleportation Stone, Teacher will be able to use it as a medium to communicate with us and establish a Teleportation Gate. At that time, in less than an hour, everyone in Red Flame Town will be able to retreat safely and move to the vicinity of Fire Law City."

"It's simply a flawless plan! "Damir couldn't help but praise in the end.

After hearing Damir's affirmation, Harvey and Mayor Thorin were completely relieved, and smiles appeared on their faces.

Even Vivian understood what he meant. The little girl rubbed Blackie in her arms excitedly.

As for Liao Zixuan.

At first, he thought the same as everyone else in the room. At first glance, he felt that it was indeed a perfect plan.

However, Liao Zixuan's previous vigilance was effective at this time.

While the others were already organizing their manpower and preparing to build the portal, he was thinking about what he would do if he were Fallen Abyss and wanted to interfere with this plan.

First, the Teleportation Stone that Archbishop Maggie gave Damir was actually a big bomb that could wipe them all out?

Liao Zixuan quickly used the game system to cast a "detection" to check the teleportation stone. Fortunately, he was thinking too much. It was indeed a normal item, and it was indeed leading to the coordinates of Fire Code City.

Then the second possibility was that when they were halfway through the Teleportation Portal, Archbishop Maggie suddenly stopped?

Hiss...

It was indeed possible!

Liao Zixuan immediately made a defensive plan. After the portal was built, he would let the little girl in as soon as possible.

As for the third...

Alright, Liao Zixuan couldn't think of anything for the time being...

Wait... Wait a minute!

Suddenly, a thought flashed in the wolf cub's mind. It was an absurd idea that made one's heart tremble.

Liao Zixuan had been thinking about what would happen if the portal suddenly stopped or could not be established.

However...

If, he meant if, if the portal was not only successfully built, but also...It couldn't be interrupted!

1 lien...

What would happen?
