

NPC Become 91

Chapter 91: Dead Chess and Breaking the Situation

The answer was obvious.

This was because there was no such thing as identity verification in the teleportation gate.

He and the others could directly teleport to Fire Code City through the portal, and the countless Fallen Abyss creatures in the Dreadclaw Forest, which was the Fallen Abyss's base camp, could do the same!

If the portal couldn't be stopped...

Then, after they left, all the Fallen Abyss creatures would follow them and use Red Flame Town as a springboard. They would not have to travel long distances to attack their base camp...Fire Code City!

Hiss...

Liao Zixuan, who was gradually clearing his mind, and the wolf cub gasped in Vivian's arms.

In that case...

It was much more ruthless to not interrupt the teleportation gate than to interrupt it in advance.

The former was full to the max, and he had only sold out the people of Red Flame Town.

But the latter...

The entire Fire Code City, the core city of the entire Flame Domain, was completely exposed to the claws of Fallen Abyss!

Could the Fire God do such a thing?

It seemed like...

It's really good!

To be precise, under the influence of Fallen Abyss 'will, the Fire God had unknowingly done such a thing to harm his own people.

' Uncle Harvey, I have a suggestion. Actually, compared to me, I think Vivian is more suitable to activate this teleportation stone!'"

' Don't judge her by her appearance. In fact, even I have to admit that Vivian's magic power is much purer than mine, and her talent in casting magic is far stronger than mine! "

Just as Liao Zixuan was frowning and thinking about his guess and how likely it was.

Who would have thought that Damir would suddenly mention the little girl at this moment?

"This..." Harvey and Mayor Thorin were hesitant at first.

The two of them looked at each other.

The construction of the portal was a very important matter. There could not be any mistakes. Damir and the others knew each other well and could be trusted, but Vivian...

However, Damir's next words made their eyes light up, and they were extremely tempted.

“Trust me, Uncle Harvey! If Vivian were to take my place, the construction of the portal would be half as fast!

Hurry up by half?

Harvey and Mayor Thorin’s hearts beat wildly when they heard that.

What kind of concept was this?

The two of them hoped that the portal could be activated as soon as possible. After all, Red Flame Town was under the threat of Fallen Abyss at all times.

Although it seemed that they could hold on for a long time, they could vaguely sense that this was because the true source of the evil power in the depths of the Dreadclaw Forest had yet to awaken.

Thus, Harvey and Thorin no longer hesitated. They decided to trust Damir and the little girl and bet on this.

“Vivian, you can... Hand it to you?”

As Damir’s last sentence fell.

In an instant, three pairs of eyes filled with anticipation shot towards the young girl.

“I...” Vivian clenched her fists as her blood boiled.

The young girl was one of them. If someone sincerely begged her, or if she could help everyone with her strength, the young girl would definitely agree without hesitation.

Liao Zixuan knew Vivian all too well.

Therefore, when Vivian was about to say "I can", the wolf cub immediately used his unique telepathy with the girl and forcefully intervened.

"Don't agree."

It was a very simple and straightforward word.

This made Vivian pause.

But soon, the girl adjusted herself and reacted quickly. She continued,

"I... I feel that for such an important mission, I... I'm afraid, I'm afraid

The little girl lowered her head and gripped the sides of her clothes with both hands, revealing a look of unconfidence. She used this method to express her rejection.

Although Vivian had many doubts in her heart, there was one thing that would never change-the girl's unconditional trust in her wolf cubs.

Vivian firmly believed that Blackie would never harm her. He must have his reasons for stopping her.

On the other side.

Seeing Vivian's expression, Damir was a little anxious and wanted to persuade the girl, but Harvey stopped him.

Although the commander of the Fire Code City's knights did not show much change on the surface, deep within his eyes, there was a deep sense of disappointment.

However, he did not blame Vivian too much.

After all, as Vivian said, not everyone could withstand the pressure of such an important mission.

“It’s okay, Vivian. We were too anxious and thoughtless.

“Damir, I think it’s better for you to activate the teleportation gate. After all, it was your mentor Maggie who specifically instructed me.

After Harvey finished speaking, Mayor Thorin also tried to persuade him, “Damir, don’t force Vivian.

“Alright then...Alright then.”

Damir was a little dejected, but seeing that everyone had said so, he did not insist.

Liao Zixuan finally heaved a sigh of relief.

What a joke.

He would never let Vivian touch such a sinkhole.

If the girl agreed, Vivian would be the first to be held accountable if something went wrong with the portal.

At present, the little girl who had yet to grow up did not have a strong background like Harvey and Damir, who caused such a huge disaster. Even if it was found that the problem was not Vivian, she would definitely be used as a scapegoat. If it was light, she would be exiled, and if it was serious, she would be tortured and lose her life.

Walking out of the meeting room, everyone started to get busy.

Damir went to activate the teleportation stone in a hurry, while Harvey and Thorin began to gather everyone, telling them about the plan to teleport and evacuate before dawn.

Only Vivian.

In the bustling Red Flame Town, the little girl carried the wolf cub to an empty corner.

“Xiao Hei, the matter just now...”

Vivian asked softly, but Liao Zixuan shook his head and did not say anything to the girl.

Because it was no exaggeration to say.

It was a dead chess piece.

Even though Liao Zixuan knew that there might be a problem with the portal, he could not let Vivian stop it. First of all, no one would believe such words coming from the girl’s mouth.

Secondly...

Alright, even if he interfered in secret and forcefully stopped Damir from activating the portal, it would still be fine.

What about them? What about everyone in Red Flame Town? Just like that, he became a victim of the Fire God’s traitor’s actions?

so...

Liao Zixuan took a deep breath.

Since Fallen Abyss wanted to play a big game, then he would play a big game too!

He could not change the direction that had already been set in the overall situation.

However, Liao Zixuan could interfere in the process and even see it as an opportunity to be used!

Put yourself in his shoes.

If he wanted to use the Vulcan God's portal to send his minions directly to Fire Code City, then he would definitely complete the construction of the portal in Crimson Flame Town!

In other words, as long as Damir did not activate the teleportation stone and the teleportation gate to Fire Code City did not open, even if the bone dragon at the source of the Fallen Abyss in the depths of the forest nest had finished absorbing Bella's soul, it would definitely not control all the creatures of the Fallen Abyss to launch a general attack on Red Flame Town!

After all, it was still waiting for the people in Crimson Flame Town to open the door for it. It was definitely not worth it to directly destroy Crimson Flame Town.

The will of Fallen Abyss was an entity that possessed an internal information network, just like the Zergs. They could share information quickly. It was impossible for the Dreadclaw Forest to not know what the Fallen Abyss forces in Fire Code City had done. It was definitely a conspiracy between the two parties.

Therefore, the teleportation gate had become their protective talisman.

And the opportunity that Liao Zixuan wanted to seize, the breaking point from the dead end, was here! This was also one of the reasons why he wanted to stop Vivian from accepting Damir's request.

Of course, it was better to activate the portal later.

This was the only way to buy him enough time, or rather, to buy enough time for the Players..

Chapter 92: The Blind Orirocks Box Restocked! 1

The wolf cub howled softly, and a black and white mutated wolf quickly walked out of the shadows. Vivian was shocked at first, but after careful identification, she recognized it as the Silver Earth Wolf that had been following Blackie.

“Let’s go to the Dreadclaw Forest! Hurry up!” The wolf cub left Vivian in Red Flame Town, then he climbed onto Shirley’s back and ordered her to walk towards the forest.

Although Liao Zixuan had thought so much in his mind before.

However, he still needed some evidence to verify his guess. He didn’t want to end up like a certain bone, fighting with the air. That would be ridiculous.

As for the evidence, it was very simple. As long as they arrived at the Dreadclaw Forest, Liao Zixuan would be able to immediately determine whether his guess was correct.

Under Liao Zixuan’s instructions, the black and white giant wolf turned into a blur and ran wildly in the wild.

Even though Xue Li’s size had increased, it didn’t affect her speed at all.

On the contrary, the Silver Earth Wolf was known for its speed. After evolving into the Fallen Flame Silver Wolf, not only did Xue Li’s attributes increase greatly, her speed also increased again. She also had a talent that even Liao Zi Xuan did not expect.

In other words, they would not be targeted by Fallen Abyss creatures.

When Xue Li finally brought them to the Dreadclaw Forest, the Fallen Abyss creatures around the forest seemed to ignore them, not attacking them like before.

This strange talent would definitely come in handy in the future, but at the moment, Liao Zixuan did not need it.

After the wolf cub jumped down from Xue Li's back, it lost Xue Li's aura to cover it up. Immediately, many Fallen Abyss creatures turned to look at him.

Their scarlet eyes made people shiver in the darkness.

However, this was the effect Liao Zixuan wanted.

Come on!

He hardened his heart.

The little wolf cub was not afraid at all. The fear here naturally did not refer to these ordinary Fallen Abyss creatures, but to what Liao Zixuan was going to do next.

Roar!

Holding his breath, Liao Zixuan no longer transformed into a small wolf cub, but a huge black wolf. He let out a long howl towards the sky towards the depths of the Dreadclaw Forest, where the Bone Dragon's nest was located.

At the same time, Liao Zixuan unleashed his soul power. A large amount of soul flames descended on the area where he was, purifying and burning the souls of all Fallen Abyss creatures.

Provoke.

A blatant provocation.

Liao Zixuan was sure that the Bone Dragon would definitely sense him after he had made such a huge formation. If it was based on its hatred towards him before, once he appeared again, it would definitely descend on the Fallen Abyss

'will in an attempt to destroy him.

Just like that, a second passed...Two seconds...

Half a minute passed, but nothing happened.

Liao Zixuan sighed.

He returned to his wolf cub form, his heart heavy.

It was obvious.

His guess was right. It was the worst case scenario.

There was only one reason why the Bone Dragon was so patient and indifferent to his actions. It was afraid that if it attacked with all its might, it would cause the entire Fallen Abyss creatures in the entire Dreadclaw Forest to riot, and then directly launch an attack on Red Flame Town in advance.

The Bone Dragon was waiting for the Teleportation Gate to be established. Just as Liao Zixuan had expected, it would not easily make a move before that. It would even deliberately restrict the Fallen Abyss creatures from wandering and interfering with Red Flame Town.

Then...

Since you're not going to make a move, then I won't be polite!

Why did Liao Zixuan only have 500 copies of the "raw gemstones" that sold so well before? It wasn't that he didn't want to make more, but that the Fallen Abyss Bone Dragon was watching him.

Previously, if he wanted to purify and recover the souls of the monsters in the Dreadclaw Forest, he had to change the location after each shot. Otherwise, the Bone Dragon would soon target him.

But now...

The wolf cub immediately went all out and began his journey of purifying and collecting the souls of the demons.

100... 500... 1000

There were countless demons in the Dreadclaw Forest, and the Orirocks that Liao Zixuan had condensed were increasing. When the number exceeded 1,000, he could clearly sense the anger coming from the depths of the forest.

However, the skeletal dragon was still unable to unleash its fury. It had to endure it for the sake of the greater attack that would follow.

Finally, after working for almost half the night, Liao Zixuan finally collected 1500 souls and made them all into raw gemstones before returning to Red Flame Town.

Red Flame Town.

Although it was night time, no one was sleepy. Not only the natives, but even the players were the same.

Harvey and Mayor Thorin also explained the portal plan to the outlanders, which made all the players excited.

This was obviously the main plot's progress. There was going to be a new plot soon!

Moreover, it seemed like...Would they be able to go directly to the Fire Code City that they had always dreamed of?

Just as the players were also clamoring to join in the fun, Liao Zixuan's arrival gave them another big gift.

The Orirocks that had been snatched up and many players were heartbroken that they did not manage to get were restocked again!

And this is the best way to get back to the game

There were 1500 of them!

At the same time, in order to match the sales of the raw gemstone blind box, Liao Zixuan also took advantage of the fact that Vivian had already passed midnight, which meant that it was the next day, and the NPC mission quota had been restored to full, so he issued a new S-level mission.

[Protect the portal!]

Mission Description: The long-awaited reinforcements from Fire Code City have finally arrived. We are only one step away from success. What you need to do is to clear all the Fallen Abyss creatures around Red Flame Town before the teleportation gate is activated at dawn to ensure the safety of the teleportation gate.

[Mission Target: Hunt Fallen Abyss Creatures]

[Mission Reward: 50,000 experience points]

(Remark 1: This mission is a personal prize pool mission. Every Fallen Abyss creature killed will increase the mission reward. The prize pool limit is 100,000 experience points.)

At this point, Liao Zixuan did not hold back anymore. He immediately filled up Vivian's NPC mission reward quota.

He only hoped that he could take advantage of the absolutely safe period of time to increase the strength of the players as much as possible. At the same time, he could also take back the wool from the players and strengthen himself.

But then again...

The little wolf cub stood on a high spot and watched. Under the stimulation of his mission, one by one, the players became liver kings and began to work hard for him to earn experience points.

The number of players in Red Flame Town was increasing by the hour, and there was a steady stream of players coming from other places in the Fire Code City.

Initially, Liao Zixuan thought that he would soon break through the 500 mark.

But now, after a rough estimation, it was probably just over 300. Compared to the original 204, it was only an increase of less than 100.

What was going on?

Sensing that something was wrong, Liao Zixuan immediately opened the player forum. This was the fastest way for him to understand the internal movements of the players.

After browsing for a while...

Immediately, he almost angered Liao Zixuan to death.

Because at such a critical moment, there were actually other NPCs who had begun to snatch people from him!

Chapter 93: Little Phoenix Walks Around Grand View Garden

After reading a few posts, Liao Zixuan gradually understood what had happened.

The cause was still Red Flame Town.

Logically speaking, the player army should not have entered the sights of the natives of Fallen Gods at this time. However, due to the flapping of the butterfly wings caused by himself and Vivian, Mayor Thorin had studied the player groups gathered in Red Flame Town in advance and sent the information he learned to Fire Code City.

And it was this letter from Mayor Thorin that caused the various forces in Fire Code City to begin to develop a strong interest in the players.

Liao Zixuan, through the discussions of the players on the forum and various strategy posts, roughly concluded that there were three forces competing with him for people.

The first one to take the lead was the Vulcan Cult.

As the Fire God was eroded by the Fallen Abyss, the Fire God Cult was the one who suffered the most.

Many high-level mages were unlucky enough to be infected with the poison of the Abyssal Fire, just like the one that had infected Vivian and her brother. Unless they were suppressed by the Purple Crystal Grass, the magic power in their bodies would be corroded and their strength would be greatly reduced.

The heavily injured Fire God's old man was still struggling with how to replenish his strength. At this moment, he had learned about the strange characteristics of the outlanders from Town Mayor Thorin's letter, so of course, he immediately recruited them.

What Liao Zixuan had been worried about happened.

Even though Vivian had gained the players' first impression of the little wolf and was considered the most popular NPC, she still had a weak foundation and was not as big as others.

The Fire God Cult's temptation to the players was extremely great. Firstly, after joining the Fire God Cult, they would be able to obtain permission to enter the city and be allowed to enter Fire Code City. Secondly, after reaching a certain amount of contribution points, they would be able to change their profession to " Mage " and browse the Fire God Cult's rich collection of books, obtaining the opportunity to learn all kinds of low-level [Skills].

At the same time, seeing that the Fire God Sect had taken action, the other forces also took action and extended olive branches to the foreigners.

This led to the other two parties mentioned by Liao Zixuan.

They were the Lords and nobles who held the most power in Fire Code City.

With the help of the nobles, the players could join the city guards and obtain the path to change their profession to Warrior. After completing the mission, they could obtain a generous additional monetary reward.

And...

It was the largest underground force, the Treasure Thief Group, which was in charge of all the underground activities in Fire Code City.

However, compared to the first two, the Treasure Thief Group was much more low-key and less attractive to the players. This was because they did not have any obvious benefits other than providing a path for the Thief profession.

In addition, Liao Zixuan even noticed that there was an expert player with the ID [Bi Wei Rong] on the forum who had specially written a guide post on how players should choose their faction.

This " Bi Wei Rong " compared the three forces with Vivian and made a ranking.

He placed the Fire God Sect in T1, Vivian in T2, the nobles in T3, and the last in line in T/+ was the Treasure Thief Group.

In response, many players questioned Vivian's position on the leaderboard. After all, Crimson Flame Town, where Vivian Vivian was from, had the most complete job transition routes and S-level missions with terrifying experience rewards. Even the main storyline was here.

However, the reason Bi Wei Rong gave was that the closed beta would erase all the hardware of the account, such as levels, items, equipment, etc., but skills could be preserved.

Therefore, the Fire God Sect, which had the fastest way to learn the most skills, was naturally ranked above Vivian.

According to Bi Wei Rong, everything that he had obtained from Vivian was only temporary. If he really wanted to prepare for the open beta in the future, he should seize the time to learn more [Skills] from the Fire God Cult.

Reading through the entire guide, the little wolf cub was furious. However, the key was that the other party's analysis was indeed reasonable.

The reason why the number of players in Red Flame Town had decreased was because of this guide. Many players who should have joined Vivian had been lured away.

Liao Zixuan gritted his teeth and memorized the ID of this guy called " Bi Wei Rong Rong ". Then he specially clicked on the other party's homepage to take a look and found that he was specialized in this kind of strategy, especially in character analysis.

Bi Wei Rong also made a notice. In the next issue, he would be analyzing the NPC Vivian who was popular in the closed beta.

After clicking on each of Bi Weirong's guides, the wolf cub closed the game forum.

Sigh...

Liao Zixuan sighed.

His original plan was to greedily grab the share of all the closed beta players, but it seemed that it was impossible now.

Obviously, as the players gradually became more familiar with this world, it was no longer enough to rely on Vivian alone to attract the players.

He had to hurry up and help the little girl build her own faction. Then, he would pull some awesome NPCs to work in his own faction!

Damir was actually not bad.

It was a pity that this fellow had yet to mature and inherit the Fire God's Heart. He could barely be considered a spare tire...

The wolf cub secretly calculated and made up his mind.

However, for now, he had to focus on this...

Liao Zixuan hadn't finished speaking in his heart, but when he inadvertently glanced at the system interface notification, the little wolf cub was stunned.

Just a few minutes ago, Vivian's history panel had these words. [You have received 10 favorable impression points from Xin Yan] [Your relationship with "Xinyan" has been upgraded to friendly.]

[You have learned the passive skill "Indestructible" - automatically triggered when your HP is below 20%, clearing all abnormal statuses and immediately recovering 50% HP.]

[You have received 10 favorable impression points from 'Xinyan'...]

[You...]

F * Ck... F * ck!

The wolf cub once again brought out his subway, old man, and mobile phone.

Xin Yan?

Then, that Forbidden Little Phoenix that was as famous as him??

What the hell?

What exactly...

What happened?

The loser eats the dust!

Let the time go back a little.

Previously, at the request of Archbishop Maggie, a simple one-way teleportation array was built between Fire Code City and Red Flame Town. Harvey had come here in this way.

Other than the supply team and curious Players, there was also a red-haired girl.

When Xin Yan walked out of the Teleportation Formation, the first thing he noticed was that there were many people.

It was no wonder.

Xin Yan had never had parents since he was young. This was the fate of the Phoenix Clan, or rather, all the Forbidden Demons. From the moment they hatched, they were all alone...A bird was sleeping in its nest.

The first person that Xin Yan came into contact with and spoke to was Fire God Alice. Back then, Fire God took her away from his nest and asked her to use her power to help repair his body.

Since then, Xin Yan had been staying in seclusion with the Fire God Alice's human incarnation, Archbishop Maggie, on the top floor of the Fire God Tower.

Hence, the fact that she was able to come out alone at this moment made everything new and interesting to Xinyan.

This was especially true for foreigners, who were also players.

It was the first time she had seen a human who could get along so well with a monster. In fact, they were as close as family.

Under the influence of the wolf cubs and Vivian, it was no exaggeration to say that more than half of the players in Red Flame Town were Summoners.

As a result, all sorts of strange monsters that came out of the " Orirocks " followed the players around. At one point, it was clearly a human town, but it was as if it was surrounded by a sea of monsters. This was a huge eye-opener for Xinyan.

After all, in Xin Yan's impression, even if demons and humans were not enemies, they were not friends.

But now...

Xin Yan watched as a few of the players who were playing pranks imitated the circus and stuck their heads into the bloody mouths of their monsters. The monsters looked helpless as they looked at the players as if they were looking at a fool. This amused Xin Yan.

Furthermore, she had seen a player summon a young monster with good potential. In just a few seconds, the strength of the young monster had soared. In the blink of an eye, it had turned from a young monster into a mature individual. It was impressive.

At the same time that Xin Yan was surprised and envious, he was also throwing a tantrum.

When the players were not paying attention, she made a face at the monster that had just been pulled to the maximum level by the players and was showing off its strength.

Instantly, the monster withered and hid behind the player, leaving the player confused.

At this point, it was as if Xinyan had opened up a whole new world and found a new source of entertainment.

She shuttled through Red Flame Town, sneakily scaring the monsters of the players from time to time. Then, she saw the monsters trembling and the players' confused faces hurriedly comforting their cubs. She was extremely happy.

However...

Not long after, the smile on Xinyan's face slowly faded away. She began to walk towards the dark place where there were few people, her aura filled with loneliness.

Actually, Xin Yan was quite envious of these demons.

At the very least, they were not alone. Although they were weak, they still trusted them as their companions.

As for himself...

The red-haired girl lowered her gaze.

As a forbidden monster, the noble and noble bloodline of the Rebirth of a Demon was an honor to Xin Yan. It was an honor to be proud of, but it was also a heavy shackle.

Not a single demon dared to stay by her side.

That was because any monster that met her gaze, just like the Summoned Beasts of the players, would instinctively be terrified and only want to escape due to the difference in bloodline.

She was indeed born with powerful strength through her bloodline.

But...

What was she going to use this forbidden power for? Compared to what she had lost, was it really worth it?

He shook his head.

She no longer thought about these things that made her happy.

Throwing all the distracting thoughts to the back of his mind, Xin Yan did not forget the true purpose of his visit to Red Flame Town.

Her main goal was to find the strange summoning that she could sense in the dark!

Chapter 94: A Country Maid Won 't Meet a Forbidden

Phoenix

Thus, the red-haired girl began to get closer and closer to the kitchen.

The fire can feel that it's not far away, this inconspicuous little house, her answer may be in the inside.

Thump! Thump!

Pu dong pu dong!

Standing at the entrance of the kitchen, Xinyan's heart began to beat faster and faster.

She had thought of many possibilities.

For example..

Perhaps there was a second forbidden monster like him in this world?

Or perhaps, there were her own kind?

Although she knew that the probability of this was very small and that it was probably just her wishful thinking...Alright then, when Xin Yan arrived at the kitchen door, he had already eliminated all these options in his heart.

After all, which forbidden monster would stay in such a place?

However, no matter how slim the hope was, Xin Yan was not willing to give up. She had to find out what was going on. This was also why she was so determined to come to Red Flame Town.

Phew...

Xin Yan took a deep breath.

When she spat it out again, a scorching breath involuntarily spread out from the girl's bright red lips, causing the surrounding temperature to rise by several degrees.

Then, the red-haired girl pushed open the kitchen door.

The first thing he saw was a plain country maid who was busy in the kitchen, as if she was cooking...Supper?

Next...

There was nothing else after that.

Xin Yan quickly scanned the entire kitchen.

Her powerful perception swept across everything in the kitchen... Other than the maid who was cooking and was surprised to see him enter.

Xinyan first ruled out the possibility that a country maid who was responsible for cooking would be the source of his summoning.

However, the result disappointed her.

Nothing.

There was nothing in the kitchen that was worth her attention.

How could this be...

Xin Yan did not give up and tried again. He searched every corner, but the result was the same.

No matter how stubborn and unwilling he was, he had to face reality.

No, no, no.

Perhaps it wasn't in this room, but outside?

Xin Yan was still trying to console himself.

Just as she pursed her lips in disappointment and was about to turn around and leave, Xinyan did not expect that the maid from the countryside, whom she had subconsciously ignored, would suddenly speak up.

"That..." Vivian hesitated for a long time and finally called out to the red-haired girl.

Then, the little girl wiped her cooking hand clean on her apron.

Then, Vivian scooped out a large bowl of meat soup from the pot she had just made. She jogged to Xinyan and blew on it before handing it to him.

"Are you hungry and looking for food?"

"Come, you're welcome. My culinary skills are quite good!" Vivian looked at the red-haired girl with a gentle gaze.

Then, he suddenly thought of something. Before Xinyan could recover from his shock, he quickly added,

“Remember not to drink too fast.”

Vivian thought of the red-haired girl in front of her as a villager who had lost her home because of the Fallen Abyss.

It was no wonder. Although Xinyan had misunderstood Vivian’s identity because of her attire, it was the same for Vivian.

Xin Yan had transformed into a human and did not care about her clothes at all. In fact, what she was wearing now was no different from what Vivian was wearing. It was the simplest cloth that symbolized the villagers.

“1...” Xin Yan looked at the meat soup in front of her and subconsciously wanted to reject it because she had never been used to eating human food.

However, for some reason, perhaps this was the first time someone had taken the initiative to talk to her. After hesitating for a moment, Xinyan took the meat soup and drank it in one gulp.

Mm...

It tasted awful.

The delicious meat soup that was sought after by the players and the wolf cubs was actually very difficult to swallow with Xin Yan’s taste buds, but she still gulped it down in front of Vivian.

Cough *

Cough cough *

Xinyan, who had finished a big bowl of disgusting meat soup, could not help but cough. Vivian, who was beside her, quickly went over to support her and patted her back gently.

As she patted him, she even spoke in a blaming tone.

“I already told you to slow down. Why are you so disobedient? Don’t be anxious. There’s still a lot in the pot. If you still want more, I’ll continue to scoop for you.”

“No, no, no. No need! Thank you.”

Xin Yan shook his head immediately. This bowl was already enough for her, and another bowl would be too much for her.

“That’s right...’

It was a coincidence.

Xin Yan did not know why she would suddenly want to talk to this country maid.

“Well, did you find anything here... Strange things? “Xinyan immediately regretted his words.

Even she couldn’t find it, so how could this country maid know?

However, to Xin Yan’s surprise, Vivian actually reacted after hearing her strange question. Subconsciously, she glanced at a corner of the kitchen.

This detail was immediately captured by Xinyan. This caused her heart that had been extinguished to reignite. Could there really be something hidden that even she could not discover?

Xin Yan quickly ran to where Vivian was looking at and found that it was still a pot of meat soup. It did not look like it was freshly made and had been there for some time.

“That, don’t! Don’t drink that!”

Vivian was shocked to see the red-haired girl running over without a word and quickly stopped her.

At that time, the little girl had witnessed the powerful power of this pot of meat soup together with her little wolf cubs.

However, the more Vivian said that, the more curious Xinyan became. Ignoring Vivian's advice, she scooped a spoonful and put it into her mouth.

Vivian was dumbfounded.

This is bad!

The little girl panicked and immediately blamed herself. She should have thrown this pot and the other poisoned meat soup she made earlier!

However...

After the red-haired girl drank it, her expression changed as if she had suffered a serious injury.

Immediately after, a scorching aura filled with vitality suddenly erupted from the red-haired girl's body.

If Liao Zixuan was present, he would definitely be able to see that the long HP bar above Xinyan's head had dropped drastically like an avalanche. Then, it rapidly recovered as if he was riding a roller coaster. Not only did it remove the debuff brought by the meat soup, but it also removed all the negative statuses on his entire body.

The force was so strong that it made the red-haired girl's entire body go limp, as if she was enjoying a hot spring bath. She let out an extremely comfortable moan as if she had been reborn.

The entire process happened in the blink of an eye. When Xinyan opened her eyes again, the expression on her face as she looked at the pot of strange meat soup had completely changed.

It was a look of incomparable fervor, as if he had discovered some peerless delicacy.

This was...

This was...

How could there be such delicious human food in this world!?

Chapter 95: Aren't You... Afraid of Me?? _1

"You... You..." Vivian looked at the red-haired girl with a dumbfounded expression.

"What's wrong?"

Xin Yan was initially puzzled by Vivian's appearance.

However, when she tried to recall, Xinyan vaguely remembered that this country maid had shouted at her not to drink the pot of meat soup just a second ago.

It was as if he suddenly realized something.

This is bad!

Xinyan's heart skipped a beat.

Even a magical beast that disliked human food could find it so delicious and even enjoy it. There was no doubt that this pot of meat soup was extremely rare and precious.

As for her, she had touched such a precious thing without the consent of others. It was indeed unreasonable, as if she was a robber.

“I-I’m sorry, but I only took a small sip. I should...Are you alright?”

Xinyan apologized with a faint tone.

The red-haired girl lowered her eyes, not daring to meet Vivian’s gaze.

At this moment, Xin Yan could imagine many possibilities. For example, the other party would blame him and demand compensation from him. Or perhaps, he would be even more ruthless and treat him as a greedy thief and call his guards over...

However...

The only thing that Xin Yan had not thought of was this possibility.

She waited for a long time but did not receive a response from the country maid opposite her. Instead, she suddenly felt a strange sensation on her body.

Vivian anxiously approached the girl and touched her left and right, especially the lower abdomen where she had eaten the meat soup. The little girl’s face was full of worry.

“You... What are you doing!”

Xin Yan was stunned for a second because this was the first time someone had touched her body. Her brain could not react in time.

But soon, the red-haired girl jumped back, crossed her arms, and looked at Vivian with an extremely guarded gaze.

“Well, you...Are you really okay? After eating that thing...” Even though Xinyan looked alive and kicking, Vivian was still very worried.

“What do you mean by that kind of thing? Your words make me feel like I’ve taken some kind of poison.”
“Xin Yan asked in confusion.

That was poison!

Vivian really wanted to say that.

However, her previous behavior had already caused a strong protest from the second personality in the mental space. Therefore, in order to take care of the feelings of the other personality, the little girl’s lips moved slightly but she still did not say anything.

“No... It’s fine. Since you like it, it’s fine...”

It was just a casual sentence.

However, what shocked Vivian was that the red-haired girl, who had been 80 feet away from her and had been on guard against her, suddenly had her eyes lit up after she said that. She instantly came closer.

“Really...Really?”

“Then can I have another bite? Just one bite!” Xin Yan held up a pale finger, fearing that Vivian would not believe him, and made a solemn promise.

At this moment, she seemed to have forgotten that Vivian was still touching her body.

Or rather...

If she could taste that peerless delicacy again, then... So what if Vivian touched her a few more times!

On the other side.

“Of course, that...Actually, it’s fine if you eat a few more mouthfuls.

Vivian saw that the red-haired girl was telling the truth. It had been a long time, and there was no discomfort. So, of course, she nodded.

The little girl even showed a happy expression and added,“”It would be best if we could eliminate all the other people! ”

It was definitely because the other her’s cooking skills had been recognized by others, not because someone had finally managed to get rid of this pot of meat soup.

However, Vivian found that her last sentence was a bit redundant.

Because after getting her permission, the red-haired girl in front of her was like a hungry ghost reincarnated. She did not care about her image at all and immediately picked up the big pot and poured it into her mouth.

Just one bite.

He ate a pot in one bite.

“Slow down, slow down, you’re choking.

Seeing the red-haired girl wolfing down the food, Vivian reached out her little hand worriedly and began to stroke the girl’s back.

Why did it feel like...

It was as if he was feeding on some small animal...

He quickly shook his head and threw away this dangerous thought. He must have been taking care of Little Black recently and had developed a habit.

Speaking of which, Xiaohei...

Perhaps this was telepathy.

Vivian saw that the red-haired girl was eating in a hurry. She looked exactly like Blackie. Just as she thought about it, the wolf cubs who were rushing to the little girl arrived at the kitchen door.

And then...

Coincidentally, Vivian's eyes met Liao Zixuan's.

In the next second.

snua!

Even Vivian did not understand what was going on, but the little girl panicked. This was the so-called body moving before the brain could react. Subconsciously, Vivian quickly pulled back the hand that she had used to stroke the red-haired girl's back.

You!

What are you trying to do with that guilty look of yours!

Liao Zixuan was speechless when he saw Vivian's flustered expression and the little girl's embarrassed and reserved look.

You don't really think I'll be jealous, do you?

"Eh? What's wrong?"

On the other side, Xinyan, who was enjoying his meal, suddenly felt that the gentle little hand that was gently caressing her back to help him eat had disappeared.

You know what? I'm a little nostalgic.

She even gave up on the delicious food in front of her and poked her head out of the pot to see what was wrong with Vivian. Why was she not touching her?

In the end, Xinyan only felt his vision blur.

Then, a black wolf cub appeared out of nowhere and jumped into the arms of the country maid. Then, it started to stare at him with a fierce gaze.

Xinyan could read the meaning of the word's meaning, as if he was saying, what are you doing! What else do you want from my Vivian? "That... His name is Xiao Hei, and he is my Summoned Beast."

Fortunately, Vivian quickly spoke up.

She was afraid that Little Black would scare the red-haired girl across from her. As she introduced him, she gently rubbed his belly as compensation. Her cub loved to be touched.

Alright, Little Black, don't ask for anyone else. Be good...

At this moment, Xinyan was extremely surprised after hearing Vivian's words.

In the beginning, she was still surprised that the person in front of her, who she had always thought was just a country maid in charge of cooking, was actually a Summoner.

However, very soon.

When Xin Yan came back to his senses, the red-haired girl suddenly widened her eyes and revealed an expression that was a hundred times more shocked than the previous second.

"You... You..."

Xin Yan stared at Vivian. No, to be precise, he was staring at the little girl's arms.

For a moment, she almost stuttered. It was only after three to four seconds that she seemed to recover.

Xin Yan immediately looked at Liao Zixuan in disbelief. She bared her teeth in the same way she did when she was in the midst of the Players 'Summoned Beasts. She also revealed her forbidden monster aura in an attempt to scare the little wolf cub.

But who knew that the little wolf cub would turn around and glare back at Xinyan.

Finally!

It was as if he had confirmed an unbelievable fact.

Xin Yan was trembling all over. She looked at the wolf cub in Vivian's arms, who was still showing a fierce expression at her, and asked in shock,"

“You...”

“Aren’t you afraid of me?”

Chapter 96: He’s Really the Kind, the Rare Kind...

Vivian was stunned by the red-haired girl’s question. She thought that Xinyan was talking to her.

“Why should I be afraid of you?” There was a big yellow question mark on the little girl’s head.

“No, no, no!”

“Aiya, I’m not referring to you. I’m referring to the monster in your arms! That little wolf cub!” Xinyan spoke very quickly. He stomped his feet and sounded very anxious.

However, Vivian did not understand.

The little girl first lowered her head to look at Little Black in her arms, then looked at the red-haired girl who had suddenly become very strange ever since Little Black appeared.

Vivian instantly became vigilant.

“Xiao Hei? What happened to Xiao Hei?”

“What’s wrong with him!” Seeing that Vivian still did not understand what he meant, Xinyan raised his voice and almost shouted out loud. Little Phoenix could not be blamed for this. She was really too excited.

Why?

This was because this was the first time she had seen so many demons since she was young! This was the first time a demonic creature had dared to look at her in the eye and even dared to be fierce after facing her face to face!

This feeling...

It was too wonderful!

Xinyan was so excited that he was about to cry. He was even more excited than when she had eaten such delicious food.

“He... It wasn’t a matter of what happened to him! He’s really the kind, the kind that’s rarely seen...”

Xinyan waved his hands in front of his chest, trying his best to express his intentions.

But before he could finish his sentence, Xinyan could no longer continue.

Because she didn’t know what to say.

She couldn’t possibly expose her identity as a forbidden monster. After all, it was the Fire God Auntie Alice who had specially instructed her.

But if she didn’t speak, how could she express to the little girl opposite her that the young monster in her arms could actually face a forbidden existence that stood at the top of the fire domain monsters, a real Torch Phoenix, and still not fall into a disadvantage. There was even no sign of its bloodline being suppressed.

The more anxious he was, the less he knew how to speak.

Xinyan stuttered for a long time before she finally gave up and requested Vivian to carry the wolf cubs.

As long as he allowed her to hug him and touch him a few times, he would definitely be able to understand what was going on with this little wolf cub!

But it was a pity.

When Xinyan mentioned that he wanted to hug Little Black, and his eyes were so passionate that he almost wrote the words " Let me touch you " on his face, Vivian's expression changed.

She knew it!

This red-haired girl must have taken a fancy to Little Black!

This was already the end of the line!

Perhaps the other nartv was also a Summoner!

How could that do!

Little Black belonged to her and would always be hers. No one could have any thoughts about Little Black!

As the saying went, the tables had turned.

Earlier, the little wolf cub had given Xinyan a look that said, "Don't get too close to my Vivian."

In the end, only a few minutes had passed.

It was Vivian's turn to immediately turn her body to the side and protect the wolf cub in her arms. Then, she gave Xin Yan a look that said, "Don't even think about hitting on Little Black!"

"It counts... Forget it. Little Black is shy with strangers. Besides, he seems very unhappy now. I'm afraid he will hurt you."

Vivian did not hesitate to find an excuse to refuse.

However, Xinyan grew even more anxious when she heard that. She waved her hands and said,

"It's okay, it's okay. I'm not afraid that he will hurt me. I'm actually quite popular with the demons, so... Just let me hug you for a while, just a while will

Xin Yan revealed the same expression as when she wanted to eat the meat soup. Then, she used her slender fingers to sign the word "one" in front of the little girl.

A moment?

Again?

I don't believe in your 'one'!

Vivian glanced at the pot of meat soup that was almost gone and shook her head firmly.

"No!" The little girl was very decisive.

Even at the same time, he revealed an angry expression.

"Well, I... I still have to prepare to cook. If you don't have anything else to do..." Vivian felt that rejection was not enough.

The little girl directly turned to the side and ordered the red-haired girl in front of her to leave.

“Ah? Then, then that’s good...” Xin Yan suppressed the curiosity in his heart.

She secretly warned herself not to be anxious. Anyway, the other party could not escape here. There would always be a chance.

So, she turned around helplessly and started to walk out.

However, he had only taken a few steps when Xinyan seemed to have recalled something and turned around again.

“Oh right, I’m Xinyan. What about you?”

They hadn’t told each other their names yet.

“My name is Vivian.”

“Oh... It’s nice to meet you. After a slight pause, the little girl added this sentence.

This was the polite language of the city people that she had learned from Damir.

However, this was not the case in Xinyan’s ears.

“I’m also very happy to know you! Vivian!” Xin Yan was touched by the young lady’s words of ‘nice to meet you’.

After all, she had been a big woman since she was young. Eh, why was it always this way since he was young? But indeed, it had been a long time since Xinyan had heard someone talk to him like this.

Soon after.

Liao Zixuan, oh no, Xuan Ziliao looked at Vivian as if she was a monster.

Good fellow!

What a good fellow!

So your summoning has a delay!

Vivian did not know who Liao Zixuan was. Xinyan thought that he had concealed his identity perfectly.

With his sharp eyes, he instantly recognized the red-haired girl the moment he saw her, not to mention that she didn't even change her name.

That Flame Domain was as famous as himself, the only two taboo-level demons...Xin Huo Phoenix, Xin Yan!

However, what made Liao Zixuan speechless and amazed was that Vivian could learn the ultimate skill that all players had dreamed of in his previous life.

[Indestructible]!

In his previous life, the players had concluded that everyone could learn the most powerful and heaven-defying skills in the nine countries of God Fall.

And it was precisely this little phoenix's [Indestructible] that could definitely rank in the top five in the [Flame Domain] version.

But at that time, Liao Zixuan clearly remembered that the players had to complete a series of complicated and tedious mission chains before they could learn this godly skill. Moreover, there was a quota limit.

In addition, the probability of receiving this quest was very low. After all, the probability of finding a super rare NPC like Little Phoenix was too low. One could only rely on luck to encounter it. No, just encountering it was not enough. It also depended on Little Phoenix's mood at that time and whether she was willing to give you this skill quest.

But now...

Liao Zixuan had never thought that even the players in his previous life would not realize that as long as he provided Xin Yan with cursed food and let Xin Yan trigger the passive [Indestructible], the players would be able to learn it secretly.

Hiss...

Wait a minute!

In that case!

All of a sudden, a bold idea gradually appeared in the little wolf cub's mind.. It was like a snowball that began to roll bigger and bigger!

Chapter 97: The Second Persona and the Played Little Phoenix

"Vivian, can you let the other you out Zixuan asked the little girl.

"The other me, the other me, is a 'gut'."

Vivian was stunned for a moment, and the girl was very surprised.

“Yes, there are some very important things that need her help. “The wolf cub nodded and said seriously.

“Oh, okay... Alright, I’ll give it a try!”

Seeing how persistent Blackie was, Vivian did not ask further. The little girl closed her eyes and went to the spiritual space to communicate with her second personality.

But not long after, Vivian opened her eyes with an awkward expression. It was obvious that things were not going well.

The other part of her did not like to take over the body, and it seemed... He had entered at the wrong time.

The young lady happened to bump into her other self who was sleeping on the bed. In the end, because of her indecent sleeping posture, she was completely seen by her. She flew into a rage out of humiliation.

After sending Blackie a look that told her to wait a little longer, the girl closed her eyes again.

This time, it took a long time.

After a few minutes, Vivian finally showed a faint smile on her face. Then, with her eyes still closed, she quickly gestured to Liao Zixuan.

It was as if he was saying, ‘I’ve called her over for you. After that, I’ll hand her over to you!’

Soon after.

When the girl opened her eyes for the second time...

The little girl's gentle and comfortable temperament had completely disappeared. Instead, it was replaced by a domineering and dark aura, like a sharp blade that was filled with coldness. It made people subconsciously feel afraid and want to stay away.

"Tell me, why are you looking for me?" The second personality was not friendly to Liao Zixuan. It could also be said that her tone was the same to everyone.

Oh, except for Vivian, the main body.

Liao Zixuan did not waste any more time when he saw the main character. There were some things he could not tell Vivian, but he could tell the second personality.

The reason for this was that Vivian was not very proficient in telepathy, which led to poor communication efficiency. However, the second personality was proficient in all skills, and telepathy was one of them.

As for the second reason...

The second personality was purer than the little girl. The pureness here meant that all her actions and goals would never be affected or interfered by the outside world. She would always put Vivian first.

This was what Liao Zixuan wanted.

Soon, the little wolf cub told the second personality about the current situation in Red Flame Town, as well as the teleportation gate plan from Fire Code City. It was highly likely that there would be a big problem.

At first, the second personality still had an impatient expression, but as Liao Zixuan continued to speak, the second personality's expression gradually became more solemn.

Wouldn't that be killing two birds with one stone?"

The second personality was eager to try, her eyes glowing red. The last sentence was actually the main point. She had long been unhappy with this young mage who had bad intentions towards Vivian.

However, the second personality soon became dejected, because she knew that if she really did that and left Red Flame Town, the main personality Vivian would never allow it.

“So, why did you ask me to come out? “The more the second personality thought about it, the more annoyed he became. He decided not to think about it and asked Liao Zixuan directly.

“Cook.” The little wolf cub used its small paw to point at the pot in the kitchen.

There was nothing he could do. It seemed like the second personality had really been sleeping the entire time. Liao Zixuan had no choice but to tell her about Xinyan again.

Along the way, he also had a plan on how to use this little phoenix to attract foreigners.

However, the second personality’s answer was unexpected.

“What? Do you want those foreigners to learn the same skills as girl was furious.

She immediately shook her head and refused.

“Impossible!”

“Vivian is the only one who knows such a powerful skill. How can those foreigners be like Vivian?!

The second personality had an expression that said, “All the good things must be enjoyed by Vivian alone.”

Good heavens.

Liao Zixuan had underestimated the second personality's affection for Vivian. Looking at the way he gritted his teeth, he did not want the little girl to suffer at all.

"Then what do you think we should do?" The little wolf cub helplessly spread its cute little paws.

The girl opposite him pondered for a moment.

Then, Vivian, who was under the second personality, began to show a different kind of excitement in her eyes, as if she had thought of a great idea.

"You just need to attract more foreigners from other places to work for Vivian, right?"

After the second personality asked for confirmation, the wolf cub nodded.

After getting the answer, the girl subconsciously licked her lips.

"Since that's the case, there's no need to really teach them skills. Or, let me properly train that little phoenix."

What?

Liao Zixuan was confused by the girl's words, but the second personality did not explain much to him. He only told him to come to the kitchen later and find out.

With a trusting attitude, the little wolf cub left this place to the girl. Then, he took advantage of this time to go to the Forest of Dreadclaw to purify a large wave of souls. At the same time, he checked the progress of the activation and construction of the teleportation gate in Damir..

Chapter 98: The Second Persona and the Played Little

Phoenix (2)

Liao Zixuan estimated that it was about time to go back. Just as he was about to go to the kitchen to see what the second personality was up to...

Before the wolf cub could push the door open and enter, he heard a loud sound coming from the kitchen...

Pa!

It was as if a slap had landed on a certain part of his body.

This made the little wolf cub's eyelids twitch.

What was going on?

A fight?

Liao Zixuan's heart skipped a beat, because there really was such a possibility!

The second personality had a bad temper. According to his previous life's impression, the little phoenix was also very arrogant and not to be trifled with. If the two of them did not get along...

Before Liao Zixuan could finish thinking, he heard another " pa " sound. This time, the applause was even louder than before! Liao Zixuan didn't hesitate anymore and quickly went in.

However...

The scene that appeared in front of the little wolf cub was similar to the kind of fight he had imagined...

Different?

The first thing he saw was Vivian, who was under the control of the second personality.

The young girl crossed her legs and sat on the kitchen counter with a cold and arrogant expression.

Not far away from the young lady was Xinyan, whose body was stiff as if he was in military training. His face was tense and flushed, and there was even a hint of joy in his expression.

“Again!” A delicate shout sounded.

The second personality noticed Liao Zixuan’s return, but she only took a glance before she stopped paying attention to him and continued to focus on Xinyan.

On the other hand, after receiving Vivian’s order, Xinyan could not wait to enjoy the various cursed foods that the second personality had personally cooked.

The effect was immediate.

In Liao Zixuan’s vision, after Xinyan ate the cursed food, his HP bar dropped rapidly. All sorts of debuffs came one after another, but in the next moment, they were all cleared and his HP bar was full.

The passive divine skill [Indestructible] was activated.

This was the reason why Xin Yan was so keen on these cursed foods.

It was just like how humans would always use various techniques to deceive their bodies, in order to make their bodies release adrenaline and become excited.

To Little Phoenix, there was nothing more satisfying than being reborn.

Every time she ate the cursed food, her body would be damaged and quickly repaired. This feeling of going back and forth was as if she was reborn. It was extremely stimulating and Xin Yan could not stop.

But...

Just as Xinyan was enjoying himself to the point of forgetting himself...

Another "Pa" sound was heard!

The second personality sat on the kitchen counter with her legs crossed. The young lady had a cold expression on her face. She mercilessly used her mana to form a virtual palm and slapped it at Xinyan's body.

"How many times have I told you to control your power? Otherwise, do you want an outsider to secretly learn your ability?"

"Let me tell you, those foreigners have a very strong learning ability. As long as you reveal a little more, they will immediately grasp it. Then, the identity you want to hide will be lost!"

"Again!"

It was the umpteenth time that Vivian had slapped him across the face. Xin Yan rubbed his butt, which was burning with pain, in grievance.

The little phoenix in human form had tears of humiliation in its eyes.

To be honest, Xin Yan still could not understand. It was the first time that he had a human food that he liked, and it was the first time that he had a human friend. These two happy things were stacked on top of each other, but...But...

Why did it become like this!!

At first, when Vivian took the initiative to look for her and said that she had specially prepared the kind of food that she liked, Little Phoenix was very happy.

In the end, when she was tricked into the kitchen by the second personality, Xinyan finally understood what a demon was.

Little Phoenix felt... He felt as if the girl opposite him had changed into a different person.

The other party first lured her with food, and then when she enjoyed it herself, Vivian suddenly revealed her true identity as a forbidden monster.

Xinyan was completely stunned and did not know what to do.

Later, Vivian told her the reason why she was exposed. It turned out that when she ate, her body emitted the healing power uncontrollably.

Vivian did not give Xinyan any time to react or think.

The young girl took advantage of the little phoenix's nervousness because of her identity being exposed and suggested that not only would she keep it a secret for her, but she would also help her solve this problem.

The little phoenix, who had just stepped into the mortal world, was no match for the black-bellied second personality.

In the midst of all this tugging and pulling, Xinyan was already extremely grateful when he heard that Vivian was willing to keep the secret of the forbidden monster for her.

Furthermore, the other party had even said that he would help him resolve the problem of his identity being easily exposed. Xinyan had immediately obeyed the second personality's every word.

In the end...

In the end, it evolved into what it was now.

Pa!

Every time Xinyan did not actively control the passive power of [Indestructible] after eating, the second personality would quickly give her a tight slap, forcing Xinyan to restrain and improve.

Pa! Pa!

Pa, pa, pa!

How should he describe this feeling? It was like standing posture during military training. If you relaxed a little, a whip would quickly come over.

However, the ruthless instructor was Vivian under the second personality, and the trembling training target was the poor little Phoenix.

In short, the wolf cubs were stunned.

However, it was true.

Under the relentless efforts of Xinyan and the second personality, Little Phoenix was actually trained to the point where it could suppress the passive power of [Indestructible] to the minimum.

In fact, on Liao Zixuan's System Interface, the skill that could be learned from Xinyan was no longer [Indestructible]. Instead, it was the inferior version of [Fortitude Recovery].

[Fortitude Recovery] will automatically trigger when your HP is lower than 20% and immediately recover 20% of your maximum HP. It will also increase your recovery ability by 100% for 5 seconds.

Compared to the [Indestructible], it had 30% less HP recovery and the most crucial thing was that it had lost all negative statuses.

It could be said that [Rejuvenation] was still a powerful skill for players to explore, but compared to the original [Indestructible] skill that Vivian had learned from Little Phoenix, it was far from it.

“Wei...Vivian, I did it! I can successfully control the power of my own!” Xin Yan had obviously noticed this as well.

Little Phoenix finally stopped crying and feeling ashamed. She became extremely excited!

Xinyan never thought that he would be able to achieve such great results in such a short period of time!

It must be known that this was also very important for Little Phoenix, but it was definitely not as simple as changing [Indestructible] to [Fortitude Recovery] in Liao Zixuan’s eyes.

Xin Yan could clearly feel that through this training session, her ability to control her bloodline power had increased by a large margin.

In the past, she could only use 60% of her strength at most, but now, it had jumped to 70%, or even 80%.

However...

It was just that the process was a little painful and humiliating.

But how should he put it...

Humiliation was humiliation, but Xinyan felt that the pain did not seem that painful. It was even a little...Vaguely enjoying it?

This was a joy that came from the increase in strength, but it also came from the awakening of some indescribable and strange XP. It was just that Xinyan had not discovered it yet.

In short, it was both painful and happy!

so...

“We still... Do you still want to continue?” Although Little Phoenix’s face was flushed red as he spoke, his expression was eager to try. There was a hint of anticipation in the depths of his eyes.

It could even be said that Vivian, who was sitting on the table with her legs crossed subconsciously, was ready to be beaten.

On the other side, the wolf cub had witnessed half of the entire process.

Liao Zixuan looked at the little phoenix who was being whipped by the second personality. It looked like it had been played badly. He suddenly felt a moment of silence and sighed in his heart.

Could this be the legendary..

They weren’t family. If they didn’t enter the same family, they would be a masochist!?

So you’re actually such a little phoenix!!

But no matter what, the first of the two things that he needed the second personality to do was at least completed smoothly, or even exceeded!

Then...

The second item.

The little wolf cub looked out of the kitchen window at the Teleport Portal that was almost half-completed thanks to the efforts of Damir and the NPCs who had hired the Players...

Chapter 99: Cannon Fodder NPCs Won't Give Villain Quests

"Coming, coming! Vivian's special food was finally here again!

"F * ck! Really?"

"I knew there would be more! I've saved so many raw gemstones, but I've been holding back from opening them. I've been waiting for this!

"Not good, I have to hurry over and queue up for a seat. Otherwise, there won't be any more seats later!

When Vivian came out of the kitchen with the food she had prepared, some sharp-eyed players saw it and immediately reacted, causing a commotion in Red Flame Town.

Because now everyone knew that as long as the food was made by Vivian, it would have a passive additional luck attribute temporarily increased.

It was also commonly known as...

Lucky!

Therefore, the players in Crimson Flame Town had developed a habit.

It was just like stacking buffs in battle, and when it came to drawing cards and other actions that depended on one's face, one had to bow to Vivian three times first, completely treating her as a living Buddha.

As soon as Vivian arrived at the meat soup distribution area, the players had already formed a long line, all of them looking forward to it.

Not only were there Summoners who bought and hoarded raw gemstones, but there were also players who were waiting to open the Blind Box. Even players with other unrelated professions wanted a piece of the pie so that their luck would change.

At the entrance of Red Flame Town.

After the big mutt received the news from the town's underlings, it rushed over.

But he was still a step too late.

The queue had just started, and the crowd had already formed a black mass. If they really started from the end of the queue, when it was their turn, it would be a problem if there were still people.

The big dog noticed this problem, and so did the other players who had rushed over.

However, at this time, a few servants came out of the kitchen with a few big pots. Then, under Vivian's instructions, they opened another queue.

This immediately made many players who came later overjoyed and quickly ran forward. The big dog was no exception. He even ran to the first place first.

However, when he opened the lid and saw the food inside, the dog was dumbfounded.

This was...

This was different from the Lucky Meat Soup from the other team. This pot was completely the cursed food that had sent him away when he wanted to steal food from the kitchen!

F * ck!

In an instant, the big mutt's face changed. He had a deep shadow of this pot of dark cuisine. Without thinking, he immediately ran far away.

The player behind the dog was confused. He realized that the pot of meat soup was very small, and the most special thing was that it was not free for free. It required experience experience points to buy.

In addition, he was like the big mutt back then. After using the system's 'detection' to investigate, he discovered that it was still of [Rare] grade, which made him even more excited.

Even though one bowl was worth 3000 experience points, which was six times the price of raw gemstones, he still gritted his teeth and bought two bowls.

In this regard, he has long experienced the great earth dog, used to look at the fool's eyes to look at these players who bought rare meat soup, and his heart is also a thief, and he doesn't intend to give a sound reminder, wanting these people to also experience their own miserable appearance.

Humph...

He knew that Vivian would never be so kind as to give them free meat soup. So, this was the point of cheating!

Ever since he experienced the equipment rental incident, the dog thought that he had finally seen Vivian's true colors. On the surface, she looked kind and gentle, but in fact, she was really dark inside!

At first, the dog was very happy to see a good show.

The first batch of players who bought the rare meat soup made by the second personality all fell to the ground within three seconds after drinking it, turning into white light.

The players were scared out of their wits, and they all retreated like big dogs.

However, not long after, there were always meticulous players who began to think about it. After all, this was too strange. They couldn't really spend money to suffer, right?

In the beginning, the players were still trying to figure out if this new meat soup had any special eating techniques. However, someone discovered that there was a red-haired NPC who kept wandering around the new meat soup, looking like they really wanted it but didn't have the money to buy it.

Hence, a rich player couldn't stand it anymore. Kindness realized...Uh, alright. Actually, although Xinyan's clothes were simple and crude, Little Phoenix's looks were there for all to see.

When you see a beautiful girl craving for a certain food, most normal men would think of three words: buy it for her!

Sigh, this detestable world that only cared about looks!

After that, things got out of hand. Everything started to develop according to the little wolf cub's script.

The players finally realized that the new Cursed Meat Soup had to be used with this red-haired NPC who had appeared out of nowhere!

Every time they handed a portion of meat soup to Little Phoenix, they would receive a certain amount of progress in learning the skill [Fortitude Recovery].

When the first player who successfully learned [Fortitude Recovery] proudly posted the introduction of this skill on the forum, it didn't take long for it to set off another wave of topics.

Those who had previously given up on Vivian and chose the Fire God Sect because of Bi Wei Rong's guide post regretted it and rushed to Red Flame Town.

Even Bi Wei Rong herself quickly revised the previous strategy post and directly promoted Vivian to the top of the list of NPCs worth relying on at this stage. She immediately gave up on the Fire God Cult and prepared to leave..

Chapter 100: The Cannon Fodder NPC Doesn't Announce the Villain Quest (2)

After all, just the [Fortitude Recovery] skill alone was enough to crush all the basic skills that players could learn at this stage.

To be able to bring such a perverse pioneering skill from the closed beta to the open beta, it could definitely be said that he had won far from the starting line.

Liao Zi Xuan, who was secretly observing, could not help but shake his head and sigh when he saw this scene. If the players knew that their current [Fortitude Recovery] was only a castrated version, he did not know what they would think.

Thanks to the Teleportation Portal Project, the Fire God Cult had built a simple Teleportation Portal from Fire Code City to Red Flame Town. Although it was only one-way, the players could still reach Red Flame Town at the speed of light in a few seconds.

Under the stimulation of [Fortitude Recovery], the number of players in Red Flame Town once again surged. At the same time, the experience points that went into the wolf cubs' pockets also surged.

One Cursed Meat Soup was worth 3000 EXP, and he needed 10 servings to completely master the [Fortitude Recovery] skill from Little Phoenix.

This also meant that every player who learned [Fortitude Recovery] could provide Liao Zixuan with 30,000 experience points.

As long as there were 100 players, no, if the experience points accumulated from selling raw gemstones were added...

The only thing the wolf cub needed to do was to buy enough time for the players. He estimated that by noon today, Liao Zixuan would be able to collect the 3,500,000 experience points he needed to enter the " growth period " from the players!

To be honest, this was definitely a huge advantage for the players. With just 30,000 experience points, they could learn this kind of pioneering skill, but did you think Liao Zixuan lost out? Of course not.

He looked at his rapidly increasing experience pool, and his mouth was about to bloom with laughter.

After all, the little wolf cubs and Vivian had practically cost nothing from the start.

The meat soup was made by the second personality, and the skill was obtained from Xinyan. Even the ingredients and kitchen utensils were obtained from the mayor's house.

However, did the second personality lose out? Even though the girl still had a disdainful expression on her face, anyone with discerning eyes could see that the second personality was still very proud of the fact that her food was so sought after, even if this was a subtle one.

As for Little Phoenix...

Xin Yan was overjoyed. She felt that Red Flame Town was much better than Fire Code City.

The people here were nice to listen to and they even gave her food very enthusiastically. They were all good people. She liked this place very much!

Towards the end, Xin Yan felt that it was not good for him to keep accepting gifts from others. Hence, he personally went into battle and followed the Players to the Dreadclaw Forest to kill monsters. Even though Little Phoenix had only used 10% to 20% of her strength, the Players were still shocked by Xin Yan's terrifying strength. Hence, they became even more enthusiastic towards Xin Yan and called him Big Sister. After all, who would not like a beautiful NPC girl to be their leader's thigh?

Therefore, the world where the system was injured and lost was achieved!

Oh, no, no.

At least there was one other person who was sad.

The big mutt wanted to give itself a big slap right now.

Back then, he clearly had the opportunity to steal a huge pot of Cursed Meat Soup for free. In the end, he was done for. Because he had died too many times, the big mutt did not have enough experience points to buy it. He could only stare blankly.

However, just as he was in a daze and felt that he had failed the entire closed beta, he walked alone to an empty corner and wanted to cry silently... "Tsk, look at you..." "You seem to be living a miserable life?" A familiar voice suddenly sounded behind the dog.

"Who is it?"

"Do you know that I'm not in a good mood right now..."

The big mutt turned its head in frustration. Anyone who was at a low point would feel angry when they heard someone talk to them like that.

However, the dog stopped halfway.

He widened his eyes. The big mutt would never have thought that the person opposite him would actually be...

Vivian?

Vivian was wearing a gray hood that covered most of her face in order not to attract attention. However, the dog could still recognize her at such a distance.

NO!

Was this really Vivian?

Even though the System had detected that the other party's name was "Vivian", whether it was her voice or her appearance, it was still a fact.

However, the Vivian in front of him was far from the usual Vivian in the big dogs impression.

The young girl under the hood in front of him emitted a cold aura.

Vivian smiled at him.

It seemed like she was mocking him, but it also seemed like she was pitying a little bug. It made people angry and unwilling, but soon, this anger was turned into fear by the extremely dangerous and strange aura emitted by the girl.

It was as if he was an ant that should be stepped on by the young girl. No matter what kind of expression the young girl showed him, it was only natural.

"You... You..." The big dog had never felt such a sense of oppression before. It could not even speak properly.

He was facing Vivian in his second personality, and for a moment, he completely forgot that this was just a game for him.

"Don't be nervous." The young girl chuckled softly when she saw the stranger's fear.

Then, she stopped playing around. The second personality restrained her oppressive aura.. She recalled the second thing Liao Zixuan had given her...
