

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 32

"Hey, it's more exciting to do it in an open area, but I bet someone like you won't be able to understand it." With that, Lu Xunchang's eyes fell on Ye Moxuan's lap.

Hearing that, Xiao Su raised his eyebrows and was about to lash out furiously when Ye Moxuan replied in a cold voice with his usual calm expression on his face, "I really can't understand it. Even if I want to have sex, I will only have sex with pure women. I don't like having sex with non-virgins."

Shen Qi, who was hiding behind the leaves, was speechless.

This ahole, does he know that I'm here? Is this why he's saying these things deliberately to hurt me?

Hearing this, Lu Xunchang was not irritated by Ye Moxuan's words, and instead he smiled. "Actually, I really want to know whether Young Master Ye even has the ability to do it? How can you talk about non-virgins if you've never even done it before?"

Xiao Su gritted his teeth. "Are you gay?"

Hearing his question, Lu Xunchang was very confused.

"Well, I thought you'd be gay since you keep asking questions like this. If not, why else would you keep on questioning Young Master Ye this way?"

00:00/00:00

What? Lu Xunchang looked dumbfounded. I just wanted to mock Ye Moxuan's disability and incompetence. When did I ever say that I was gay? This assistant is really annoying!

Hearing this, Shen Qi was even more speechless. It had never crossed her mind that Xiao Su would be so dirty-minded.

"The words of Young Master Ye's assistant are intriguing, indeed." Lu Xunchang came back to his senses after a moment and began to lash back.

He was truly the master of insults; all of his clapbacks were on point.

Now it was Xiao Su's turn to be speechless.

By then, Lu Xunchang had already shifted his gaze to Ye Moxuan's face. "Young Master Ye, if I had known that you would come to the banquet, I would've visited you first."

Hearing this, Ye Moxuan's eyes were calm and indifferent. "That's not necessary."

Meanwhile, Shen Qi listened from a distance. It was dark, and she was wearing a dress tonight. She had already stood here for quite some time, so she had attracted a lot of mosquitoes. At this moment, her calf was itchy due to mosquito bites, and before long, she couldn't bear it anymore and reached out her hands to scratch the red bumps.

However, she had to bend over to scratch it, and she would make noise if she did so.

She would be noticed if she made any sounds.

Thinking of this, Shen Qi didn't dare to bend down at all, and could only forcibly endure the itchiness.

But not long after, she couldn't stand the itchiness anymore, and so she bent down to scratch her calves. By doing so, she accidentally touched a leaf and made some noise.

The smile on Lu Xunchang's lips faded, and he took two steps in her direction. "Who is there?"

Shen Qi was too scared to move.

Ye Moxuan's eyes were still as cold as ever. "It must've been the wind. There is no need for President Lu to make such a fuss, right?"

Hearing this, Lu Xunchang's stopped in his tracks. "Is it really due to wind? Or is there someone who Young Master Ye wants to protect?"

Ye Moxuan didn't say a word, and though there was a calm look in his eyes, a hostile aura was emanating from his body.

"I'm really interested to know who Young Master Ye is so keen to protect."

As the two confronted each other, the aura from Ye Moxuan's body made Lu Xunchang sneer. After all, he was Ye Moxuan. After a while, Lu Xunchang parted his lips. "I have heard that Young Master Ye is an extraordinary man, and I truly agree with that statement after meeting you today. I have to go on a date with my beautiful lover now, so I'll be leaving first."

"Suit yourself."

When Lu Xunchang left, Shen Qi was already at her limit due to the fact that she had maintained her original posture for ages now. Now, she had to wait for Ye Moxuan to leave as well.

However, Ye Moxuan showed no tendency to leave at all after she waited a while.

She then waited even longer, and when Shen Qi couldn't bear it anymore, she finally heard Ye Moxuan speak.

"Are you planning to continue acting like an ostrich there?"

Hearing this, Shen Qi was startled and fell to the ground with a thud.

"Who is there?" Xiao Su's eyes widened as he rushed over, finding Shen Qi. "Why are you here?"

By then, Shen Qi's limbs were already too stiff, so she simply sat against the tree and placed the cup in her hand on top of the leaves. Then, she gently rubbed her calf that was bitten by mosquitoes, and gave Xiao Su a helpless look.

It suddenly dawned on Xiao Su. "So you were the one Lu Xunchang was talking about earlier?"

Ye Moxuan pushed his wheelchair over and stared at her, who was sitting on the ground, condescendingly. "Get up."

Although Shen Qi was uncomfortable and reluctant to do so, she still stood up.

"I asked you to find President Lu. Why did you hide here and watch them have sex?"

What? Shen Qi's eyes widened as her fair cheeks flushed red. He actually knew! Doesn't that mean that he was also watching them just now?

Thinking of this, Shen Qi subconsciously said, "W-Were you watching them by the side too?"

Ye Moxuan narrowed his eyes. "So you're admitting to it, huh?"

Hearing that, Shen Qi came back to her senses and waved her hand quickly. "No, no. I didn't mean to peek, but when I found him, they were already... I was afraid of being discovered by him, so I hid behind the big tree for a while. I never thought they would actually be so..."

... bold!

They actually did it outside the crowded banquet hall!

"Are you sure this happened by accident? Or did you plan this? Didn't you already research and know his situation and behavior beforehand? Or..." Ye Moxuan's eyes suddenly sharpened, and his voice sounded grim. "Were you aiming at Lu Xunchang as your next target?"

After hearing this, Shen Qi finally understood what Ye Moxuan's words meant.

After all, he always thought that she was a promiscuous woman who wanted to seduce every man. Plus, Lu Xunchang had a great character and was from a decent family. Thus, Ye Moxuan thought that she was targeting him.

When she finally figured it out, all color drained from her reddened face as her lips turned pale.

"I know you look down on me, but can you stop insulting me? I too have my dignity!"

"Really? How much do you think your dignity is worth?" Ye Moxuan relentlessly stomped on her pride under his feet.

Hearing this, Shen Qi's eyes widened.

It's unbelievable that this man could treat her so horribly. He ridiculed her privately, but he would stand up for her in front of others to give face to her.

Just what kind of person is he?

Thinking of what happened before, Shen Qi decided to bear with him this time. Hence, she bit her lower lip without saying another word.

"Xiao Su, let's go," Ye Moxuan instructed in a cold voice, thereupon Xiao Su nodded before going forward to push Ye Moxuan away.

Seeing that they were leaving, Shen Qi stepped forward to follow them.

"Stop following me."

His words made Shen Qi stop in her tracks, and she could only watch Ye Moxuan leave in front of her.

After a while, Shen Qi caught up with him, just in time to see his car driving away.

I guess I'm left behind again. Shen Qi didn't know if she should laugh or cry at this moment.

She wanted to cry because she might have to walk back again; she didn't carry her wallet with her, and there was no extra cash in her phone.

I'm such a failure!

Thinking of this, Shen Qi bit her lower lip and stubbornly raised her head to look at the shining starry sky. Her eyes were moist, as if a certain something was about to flow out!

"Shen Qi, don't cry. It's just a small matter. You will have to face... many more challenges in the future!"

Screech! Suddenly, a blue Bentley stopped in front of her.

The window rolled down, revealing Lu Xunchang's handsome eyes.

"Get in the car, will you? I'll give you a ride."

Seeing Lu Xunchang, Shen Qi remembered the scene she had seen outside the banquet hall before. Out of embarrassment, her eyes dodged his. "N-No thanks."

Hearing this, a playful look emerged in Lu Xunchang's eyes.

"Are you sure?"
