

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#1 - Chapter 1 Super God-level Talent: Hand of Heavenly Punishment!

"Bro Hao, wake up! The server for 'Twilight of the Gods' goes live at nine. If you keep sleeping, you'll miss the launch time!"

Twilight of the Gods?

Server launch?

Lin Tianhao suddenly opened his eyes, looking at the familiar yet unfamiliar surroundings.

"This is... Dream Chasing Club?!"

"Wait a minute!"

"Wasn't I schemed to death by that damned Wu Xiaodao when exploring the God's Ruins?"

"What's going on now?"

Lin Tianhao grabbed his phone, and the time displayed on it was shockingly May 20, 2032!

"I've been reborn! Reborn ten years ago, when 'Twilight of the Gods' had just launched!!"

Seeing Lin Tianhao's strong reaction, Zhou Xiaopang immediately tried to comfort him:

"Bro Hao, don't worry. We brothers will find a way to help you raise the money. Your sister will definitely be okay."

As his memories gradually cleared, Lin Tianhao suddenly remembered that at this time in his previous life, his sister was hit by a car, causing a blood clot in her brain.

The surgery would cost 300,000, but the driver fled the scene. There were no surveillance cameras in that area, and the police had been unable to find the culprit.

This 300,000 surgery fee fell on Lin Tianhao's shoulders.

Although Lin Tianhao's brothers were trying to help him find a solution, they only managed to raise 260,000, including loans.

Lin Tianhao knelt at the hospital, begging bitterly, but for the sake of 40,000, the hospital refused to perform the surgery, and his sister eventually died in the hospital bed.

Thinking of that lively and adorable figure, Lin Tianhao clenched his fists tightly.

"Sister, don't worry, this time, I will definitely save you!"

Lin Tianhao's eyes were firm. "Having lived again, I must change my fate and not let the tragedy repeat itself."

Looking at Zhou Xiaopang in front of him, Lin Tianhao suddenly smiled.

"Fatty, let's enter the game. Our destiny will be written by us!"

Seeing Lin Tianhao return to normal, Zhou Xiaopang breathed a sigh of relief, "Go for it, Bro Hao."

Entering the game pod, Lin Tianhao felt a lingering sense of injustice.

"Twilight of the Gods" was a cross-era virtual online game, claiming to be a second world jointly created by more than 100 countries around the world.

But having experienced the previous life, Lin Tianhao knew that this game was not created by so-called countries, but a God-making game created by the Galaxy Lord God using the power of the ancient gods of Earth.

The purpose was to prepare for the great cataclysm five years later.

Five years later, the Arlette star system would attack the Galaxy star system, and the cataclysm would begin.

Having experienced the great cataclysm, Lin Tianhao was very clear about how important it was to accumulate power in the game.

"In my previous life, I didn't awaken my talent until I died. In this life, I want to see what my talent actually is."

Lin Tianhao entered the character creation page. A gorgeous promotional video began to play. This was a promotional video that lasted eight hours and could not be fast-forwarded; it could only be skipped or watched normally.

In the previous life, almost all players who came in did not finish watching it and chose to skip it directly. After all, eight hours would create a big gap between them and others.

But Lin Tianhao did not skip the promotional video, because the first person to finish watching the promotional video would receive a God-level Talent Awakening Stone.

Talent was a special setting of "Twilight of the Gods."

Everyone's talent was different. According to level, it was divided into Yellow, Profound, Earth, Heaven, Saint, and God.

To awaken a talent, a Talent Awakening Stone was required.

In his previous life, those few who possessed God-level talents were all super powerhouses who dominated one side.

In this life, he would also awaken a God-level talent.

Coupled with his memories from his previous life, Lin Tianhao was confident that he could reach the pinnacle and defeat the Arlette star system!

Time passed by bit by bit. Finally, the long eight hours ended.

"Ding, congratulations, you are the first player to finish watching the 'Twilight of the Gods' promotional video. Reward: God-level Talent Awakening Stone +1."

As expected!

A satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face. In the next moment, he appeared in the character creation hall.

"Class, Archer. Nickname, Snow Emperor."

Lin Tianhao did not hesitate at all and directly said his choice from his previous life.

"Ding, class creation successful. You are about to enter Novice Village 10086."

In the next moment, Lin Tianhao appeared in Novice Village 10086.

Each novice village could accommodate ten thousand players. In other words, there were already more than 100 million players who had entered Twilight of the Gods, which showed the popularity of Twilight of the Gods.

Lin Tianhao walked to a deserted corner, took out the God-level Talent Awakening Stone, and silently chanted the awakening.

"Ding, due to your talent being too high, the God-level Talent Awakening Stone can only awaken part of your talent."

"Ding, you have awakened your talent, Hand of Divine Punishment."

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment. What was going on? His talent, even a God-level Awakening Stone, could only awaken part of it?

Surprised in his heart, Lin Tianhao immediately checked his talent.

Hand of Divine Punishment (Transcendent God-level): 1 Star

Effect 1: Each normal attack deals 1% of your maximum health as true damage.

Effect 2: Each normal attack permanently increases your maximum health by 1 point.

Proficiency: 0 / 1000.

(Note: Only damage dealt to living beings can stack health.)

Lin Tianhao was stunned on the spot. Transcendent God-level?

In his ten years of his previous life, he had never heard of the existence of Transcendent God-level.

Moreover, this talent was a little too perverted.

Permanently increase health points!!

After a brief shock, Lin Tianhao habitually pulled up his attribute panel.

Nickname: Snow Emperor.

Level: 1 (0 / 100).

Class: Archer.

HP: 100 / 100.

MP: 50 / 50.

Attack: 9. Magic Power: 5.

Armor: 3. Magic Resistance: 1.

Attack Speed: 0.63. Movement Speed: 3.1.

Physical Penetration: 0%. Magic Penetration: 0%.

Special Attributes: None.

Free Attributes: 0.

Luck: Hidden.

Talent: Hand of Divine Punishment (Transcendent God-level).

Skills: Rapid Shot (1 Star).

Equipment: Novice Longbow.

If it weren't for the Hand of Divine Punishment, this attribute page would be unremarkable.

However, because of the existence of the Hand of Divine Punishment, his plasticity was extremely terrifying.

"Level up first."

Lin Tianhao knew that he had wasted too much time.

Exiting the novice village, everywhere you looked were level 1 Red-Eyed Rabbits.

Red-Eyed Rabbit (Common): Level 1.

HP: 90 / 90.

Attack: 5.

Skills: None.

The attributes were average. As long as the controls weren't too bad, they could be hunted alone.

"Swoosh!"

Lin Tianhao shot out a feather arrow without hesitation.

-8.

At the same time, Lin Tianhao also discovered that his health had increased by one point.

With this talent, he was simply invincible!

Lin Tianhao hunted Red-Eyed Rabbits while stacking health.

His attack speed was currently slow. It took about 1.5 seconds to shoot a feather arrow, which was a bit unaccustomed for Lin Tianhao, whose attack speed had reached 13.5 in his previous life.

"Ding, you have killed a Red-Eyed Rabbit, experience +1."
