

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#10 - Chapter 10 opens the dungeon, Twisted Jungle!

Logging in again.

This time, Lin Tianhao didn't go to the level 10 monster area, but walked towards the steep cliff behind the novice village.

In the novice village, besides regular monsters, there is also a hidden dungeon.

The reward for the first clear of this hidden dungeon is very generous.

He strode over here.

There are no monsters here, and it's a cliff, so naturally no players will come here.

In his previous life, it was only a week after the game started that someone accidentally opened this dungeon.

The conditions for opening this dungeon are also very simple.

That is to kill a treant here.

There are many big trees in this vicinity.

Among these big trees, one of them is a treant.

At first glance, if you don't pay attention, you won't notice it at all.

"Found you."

Disguised Treant (Normal): Level 10.

Health: 2100 / 2100.

Attack: 32.

Skill: Disguise.

"Ding, you killed a Disguised Treant, experience +43."

"Ding, because you killed a hidden monster in the novice village, the hidden dungeon in the novice village, [Twisted Jungle], is about to open."

"Ding, you are the first player to open the dungeon, a server-wide announcement will be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Xue Di for successfully opening the hidden dungeon [Twisted Jungle] in the novice village. They are the first player in the entire server to open the dungeon. A special reward of +10 free attribute points, +10 gold coins, and +1 Black Iron equipment. We hope that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Xue Di for successfully opening the hidden dungeon [Twisted Jungle] in the novice village. They are the first player in the entire server to open the dungeon. A special reward of +10 free attribute points, +10 gold coins, and +1 Black Iron equipment. We hope that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

.....

As the server-wide announcement rang out, the Twisted Jungle dungeon appeared in all novice villages.

Lin Tianhao added all ten free attribute points to attack speed.

Then his eyes fell on the rewarded Black Iron weapon.

Jungle Longbow: Black Iron.

Equipment Requirement: None, Archer class.

Effect 1: Attack +65.

Effect 2: Health +500.

Effect 3: Lifesteal +2%.

Durability: 100.

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead. Another terrible weapon.

Attack speed, attack speed, attack speed!!

Can't I get a weapon that increases attack speed?

Truly a tragic life!

While Lin Tianhao was checking the attributes, the players were in an uproar.

Especially the players who had already left the novice village, immediately regretted it.

"Damn it, the novice village has a dungeon? If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have left the novice village no matter what."

"Hehe, luckily I leveled up slowly, I can go and farm the dungeon."

"The first clear of the dungeon should have high rewards, is anyone forming a team? Chasing Dreams Guild is recruiting powerful tanks."

.....

Lin Tianhao had already arrived at the entrance of the dungeon at this time.

The difficulty levels of Twilight of the Gods dungeons are divided into Simple, Difficult, Nightmare, and Hell.

The higher the difficulty of the first clear of the level 10 Twisted Jungle, the more rewards there will naturally be.

"It's you, Hell level."

"Ding, reminder, it is not recommended to enter the Hell level dungeon alone, are you sure?"

"Confirm!"

The difficulty coefficient of the Hell level dungeon is indeed very high, but is Lin Tianhao afraid?

Wealth comes from danger!

His current attributes do not actually allow him to solo the Hell level dungeon.

However, Lin Tianhao also has the top-level skills from his previous life.

As soon as he entered the dungeon, Lin Tianhao saw a large number of twisted treants in front of him.

Twisted Treant (Elite): Level 10.

Health: 8500.

Attack: 129.

Skills: Resurrection, Vine Rotation, Thorns Entanglement.

Also an elite-level Twisted Treant, but its attributes are much higher than the elite-level treant Lin Tianhao had farmed before.

"Whoosh!"

Critical Hit!

-1812.

At the same time, lightning jumped out, dealing damage to the surrounding twisted treants.

-362!

-362!

.....

The damage value is very high. With every arrow of Lin Tianhao being a critical hit, a treant only needs five arrows.

Moreover, because Lightning Leap has been upgraded to two stars, the damage and range of the leaping lightning, as well as the number of targets, are also greater.

"Ding, you killed an elite-level Twisted Treant, experience +351."

Killing a monster above your level, plus it's a dungeon monster.

This experience is still quite generous.

Lin Tianhao relies on the increased distance of his normal attacks to always maintain a safe distance from these twisted treants, preventing them from attacking him.

Especially the Thorns Entanglement skill, once hit, the control effect it brings has the greatest impact on him.

"Ding, you have leveled up to level 8, free attribute points +5."

Leveled up, still adding all of them to attack speed.

At the same time, the first level of the dungeon has been cleared.

Passing through the light gate in front, Lin Tianhao arrived at the second level of the dungeon.

As soon as he entered, dozens of twisted treants walked towards him.

Not only that, Lin Tianhao also saw ten Treant Chieftains here.

Treant Chieftain (Elite): Level 10.

Health: 35280.

Attack: 412.

Skills: Thorns Entanglement, Resurrection, Vine Rotation, Frenzied Whipping.

One more skill, but the attributes are much higher than the elite-level Twisted Treant.

Whoosh!!

Lin Tianhao is still using simple and unadorned attacks.

Constantly pulling these treants.

Trying to stay out of their Thorns Entanglement attack range as much as possible.

For this point, he really has to thank the Normal Attack Amplification skill.

It is precisely because of this skill that his normal attack distance is farther, giving him enough conditions to pull these treants.

However, movement speed is ultimately a weakness.

Three Treant Chieftains simultaneously launched Thorns Entanglement at Lin Tianhao.

-823.

-821.

-823.

Huge damage numbers appeared one after another, and Lin Tianhao was also imprisoned.

Lin Tianhao secretly thought it was bad, and sure enough.

The next attacks were continuous.

-123.

-421.

-423.

.....

Damage numbers appeared one after another, and before Lin Tianhao could break free from control, a new Thorns Entanglement came again.

In just two seconds.

Lin Tianhao lost a full 13,000 health.

The only fortunate thing is that the intelligence of the twisted treants is not high. They use whatever skills they have.

In addition, the twisted treants behind him were not close enough to attack Lin Tianhao.

Otherwise, just now, Lin Tianhao would have been controlled to death by their connected controls.

"No control removal skills, too bad."

"Movement speed is too low."

Lin Tianhao thought to himself, and immediately moved to open the distance the moment the control ended.

At the same time, a feather arrow interrupted a Treant Chieftain who was casting a spell.

"Huff~"

Exhaling a mouthful of turbid air, it was really thrilling just now.

With a little carelessness, he might have been killed here.

Losing a level is a small matter. If someone else snatches the first clear of the dungeon, he will really regret it.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

.....

Lin Tianhao's spirit was highly concentrated. Before, he wanted to deal more damage, but now, he had to move to dodge skills.

He also had to interrupt the Treant Chieftain's skills, and he had to keep an eye on all directions.
