

O game 103

Chapter 103 – Monkey's talent!

In just fifteen seconds, the Bronze-grade Two-Headed Demon Wolf King had fallen.

A complete and utter stomp, no pressure at all.

"Ding, your team has achieved the first clear of [Mutated Demon Wolves]. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you wish to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to players Snow Emperor, Invincible Fatty for achieving the first clear of [Mutated Demon Wolves]. Special announcement, may all players continue to work hard!!"

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to players Snow Emperor, Invincible Fatty for achieving the first clear of [Mutated Demon Wolves]. Special announcement, may all players continue to work hard!!"

.....

At this moment.

Berserker Blade, who was leading a team to clear the normal difficulty, had a drastic change in expression.

"Snow Emperor cleared it already? How is that possible? Could it be that he didn't choose Hell difficulty this time?"

After the first clear of a dungeon, there's also a record board, mainly recording the time of the first clear for each difficulty.

The shortest clear time will be engraved on the stone tablet in front of the dungeon entrance, increasing exposure.

These guilds actually like to farm dungeon records in order to increase the guild's popularity.

However.

The only dungeons they can currently farm are the normal and hard difficulty dungeons. Even the nightmare difficulty dungeons are difficult for them to clear.

Moreover.

They also have to consider the clear time, because only the shortest time will be on the leaderboard.

On this point.

Lin Tianhao didn't actually put much pressure on them.

After all, they mainly farm dungeons from level ten to thirty.

Lin Tianhao hasn't ventured into these dungeons.

On the dungeon clear record, there were two names.

Snow Emperor, Invincible Fatty.

Difficulty... Hell!!

Berserker Blade and the others gasped when they saw this.

"Blade, bro, this... this..."

Berserker Blade's pupils kept dilating, because he saw the final clear time.

In the clear time section, it was clearly... fifty-six seconds!!

Damn it!!

A billion grass mud horses galloped through Berserker Blade's heart.

Lin Tianhao had previously achieved first clears of some dungeons, but the time spent was usually several minutes, or even longer.

But this time.

Facing a level fifty Hell difficulty dungeon, he actually cleared it in fifty-six seconds.

"Could it be because of this Invincible Fatty?"

Berserker Blade's expression was a little solemn.

"Find someone to contact this Invincible Fatty later and see if there's a possibility of recruiting him."

At this time.

Lin Tianhao and Zhou Xiaopang had already finished looting the corpses and left the dungeon.

"Brother Hao, you're too awesome."

Lin Tianhao smiled. This time, he got another fifty free attribute points for clearing the dungeon first.

Now the accumulated free attribute points have reached one thousand two hundred.

Lin Tianhao smiled and took out a Saint-grade talent awakening stone from his arms.

"Fatty, give this talent awakening stone to Monkey."

Monkey's talent is also Saint-grade. As long as he awakens it, he will be very strong.

Lin Tianhao remembered Monkey's talent from his previous life.

Moral, Intellectual, Physical, Aesthetic: Cannot be upgraded.

Effect 1: The free attribute points you obtain are uniformly multiplied by five (including free attribute points obtained before awakening the talent).

Effect 2: Your free attribute points added to any attribute can improve all regular attributes (health, mana, armor, magic resistance, attack, magic power, attack speed, movement speed, physical penetration, magic penetration, and the free attribute points already added before awakening the talent can still trigger this effect).

The two effects are actually not bad.

It's much stronger than that game CEO's talent of getting twenty-five free attribute points per level.

Although effect 1 seems to be getting twenty-five free attribute points per level, it's not limited to leveling up.

For example, doing quests and getting achievements will multiply the free attribute points obtained by five.

Like Lin Tianhao getting fifty free attribute points for clearing the dungeon first this time, if it were him, it would be two hundred and fifty free attribute points.

In addition to this.

Effect 2 is also quite awesome, equivalent to adding one free attribute point and all ten basic attributes will increase.

In other words.

One free attribute point is used as ten.

Plus the five-fold bonus, the final actual benefit is as high as fifty times.

Monkey's talent is very powerful, and because of the balanced attributes, he doesn't have any obvious shortcomings.

It's really like the name of the talent, moral, intellectual, physical, aesthetic, all-round development.

The power of this talent lies in the free attribute points.

Relying solely on the free attribute points from leveling up is actually not that strong.

But if you can get a lot of free attribute points through quests and achievements like Lin Tianhao, then you can definitely take off.

"Fatty, there are many quests that I can't take you and Monkey to do. You have strong attributes now, so you can take Monkey to grab the first clear of dungeons."

To fully realize Monkey's talent, you must find a way to get more free attribute points.

In Gods' Twilight, there are many ways to get free attribute points, and there are many quests.

Of course, it's generally not like Lin Tianhao rewarding fifty, one hundred, or even three or five hundred.

It's usually one to ten points, and only a few can reward dozens or hundreds of free attribute points.

"Okay, Brother Hao."

After Lin Tianhao explained to Zhou Xiaopang, Lin Tianhao began to plan to kill the Klinfeith Bird.

The strength of the Klinfeith Bird is unknown to Lin Tianhao.

Moreover.

Once he falls out with the Klinfeith Bird and fails to kill it, it will be difficult for him to kill it again if the Klinfeith Bird hides in the palace and doesn't come out.

Not only that.

He actually needs an excuse to get the Klinfeith Bird to come out now.

What excuse?

Lin Tianhao had an answer after a little thought.

"Blackwind Stronghold!"

According to the information Lin Tianhao had learned before, Blackwind Stronghold is the Queen's force.

If he attacks Blackwind Stronghold, the Queen will definitely send the Klinfeith Bird over.

With a decision.

Lin Tianhao came to Blackwind Stronghold again.

Blackwind Stronghold is only a level thirty dungeon. Lin Tianhao's current attributes are much stronger than before.

After arriving at Blackwind Stronghold, what surprised Lin Tianhao was that someone was already attacking Blackwind Stronghold.

Dream Chaser Yanxue?

Lin Tianhao saw the person leading the team, someone from the Dream Chaser Guild.

Their team had more than thirty people, led by Dream Chaser Yanxue, and most of the members were only level twenty-one or twenty-two.

But they had all completed their first job change and were fully equipped.

They were able to handle the ordinary bandits outside with ease.

However.

When elite-level bandits appeared, these people from the Dream Chaser Guild were a little difficult to deal with.
