

Online game 111

Chapter 111 - The loudspeakers of all servers are shaking the entire network!

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I did kill Greylor Linsen, but I was played by the people of the Starry Kingdom."

"That's what you deserve. There aren't many good people in the Starry Kingdom."

The black-robed leader said coldly.

"I'm not here to talk about that. You wanted to rescue Greylor Linsen before, presumably not because of some so-called faith, right?"

The black-robed leader's aura subtly changed, "You're not very smart. Whether it is or isn't, you're making me unhappy by saying that."

"Can your emotions be swayed by a few words? If so, then I can only say I've come to the wrong person."

Hearing this.

The black-robed leader asked, "Speak, what exactly are you here for?"

"I'm going to attack a main city, with my initial target being Blackwind City."

Lin Tianhao's voice was calm, but it made an expression of disbelief appear on the black-robed leader's face.

"You're not only foolish, but also a madman."

There was a hint of mockery in the black-robed leader's voice, "Even we Nightstalkers don't dare to attack a main city. What ability do you have to dare to attack a main city?"

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said, "Whether you believe it or not is your business. However, I will attack a main city, that's for sure."

"I'm just here to inform you."

"You need the help of us Nightstalkers?"

"No."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Whether you help me or not, I will attack a main city. I'm telling you this just to give you a chance."

"Give us a chance? Adventurer, has your foolishness given you such arrogance?"

As soon as the words fell, the black-robed leader's body turned into black smoke. When he condensed again, he had already appeared behind Lin Tianhao and struck Lin Tianhao with a palm.

-31080.

A huge damage number appeared. The black-robed man's normal attack took away over 30,000 of his health.

It was already very high.

But the black-robed man was very shocked.

Because he discovered.

Lin Tianhao's health only decreased by a tiny bit.

Less than one percent health loss.

Not only that.

Numbers representing health recovery popped up above Lin Tianhao's head.

+6216.

+10000.

+1000.

+2000.

"You must take down Blackwind City," said the black-robed leader.

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up. He had achieved the core purpose of his visit to the Demon Cave.

As for what he had to do next, it was to attack Blackwind City.

Thinking like this.

Lin Tianhao directly opened ten full-server trumpets.

"Full-server trumpet, I, Snow Emperor, am about to attack Blackwind City. Blackwind City players, please evacuate within half an hour, or face death."

"Full-server trumpet, I, Snow Emperor, am about to attack Blackwind City. Blackwind City players, please evacuate within half an hour, or face death."

... ..

Lin Tianhao was not afraid of the Starry Kingdom people knowing and taking precautions.

Because.

It didn't matter.

Before, he was worried about being imprisoned, but now he could choose to resurrect in place or resurrect in the novice village.

Therefore.

He was not afraid of confronting the Starry Kingdom at all.

But Lin Tianhao's full-server trumpet shocked all the players in the Starry Kingdom.

"What did I hear? Snow Emperor is going to attack Blackwind City. Is he crazy or am I crazy?"

"This must be a hallucination. A player attacking a main city? Isn't that courting death?"

"There's a good show to watch. Snow Emperor shouldn't be doing this without a reason. He's going against the heavens."

... ..

In the group chat Lin Tianhao created, messages started popping up like crazy.

Berserker Blades: ???

Asura Yize: ???

Startling Dreamfrost: ???!!

Floating Divine Wolf: @Snow Emperor, Snow Emperor, you're going to fight a main city head-on. That's a bit crazy.

Asura Yize: I've ordered everyone in the Asura Guild to evacuate and wait to eat melons [watch the show].

Lin Tianhao glanced at the group and just replied faintly.

"Evacuate as soon as possible."

Berserker Blades: 1.

Startling Dreamfrost: 1.

Floating Divine Wolf: 1.

... ..

It wasn't just them.

The forum of Twilight of the Gods directly exploded.

Countless players began to speak freely and discuss whether Snow Emperor would really attack Blackwind City.

The result of their discussion was only one.

Snow Emperor's popularity didn't need to be hyped up with such inferior methods.

So... ..

Snow Emperor was really preparing to attack Blackwind City.

"Shocking, after failing to flirt with the princess, Snow Emperor actually wants to do something untoward to the City Lord of Blackwind City!!"

"Amazing, Snow Emperor and the City Lord of Blackwind City are actually one attacker and one receiver!!!"

"Yuanfang, Snow Emperor is attacking Blackwind City. What do you think?"

... ..

Various posts began to dominate the charts.

It was no longer limited to the game. Major forums, browsers, and short video platforms all featured videos of Snow Emperor attacking Blackwind City.

In just twenty minutes.

These messages had already exploded across the entire internet, and everyone was looking forward to it.

Looking forward to Snow Emperor attacking Blackwind City.

Regardless of the outcome of this battle.

A player daring to challenge a main city was extremely rare.

One person against one city!!

Just this courage shocked many people.

... ..

At the same time.

The fact that Lin Tianhao was going to attack Blackwind City not only shocked the players.

Blackwind City, City Lord's Mansion.

City Lord Butte Yars heard the voice of the full-server trumpet and angrily slapped the desk.

"This Snow Emperor is too lawless. He wants to attack my Blackwind City with just one sentence. What does he think Blackwind City is?"

Standing in front of Butte Yars was a withered old man.

He trembled and said, "City Lord, he's just a clown, not worth mentioning."

Butte Yars frowned slightly, "A clown? I don't think so!"

"Although I don't know what exactly happened between him and Princess Tissot, the fact that he killed the nine Silver Generals of the Waugh family is true."

"We must not be careless and underestimate the enemy. Now is the critical moment of the succession to the throne. We can't afford to drop the ball at this juncture."

The old man nodded respectfully, "Yes, I understand."

... ..

Tianxing City, Marshal's Mansion.

Grand Marshal Lorein Muyuan heard the full-server trumpet and looked a little surprised, then a smile appeared on his face.

"Kersonro, our opportunity seems to have come."

Chapter 112 - Attack Black Wind City!

A middle-aged man walked out from behind the screen.

This person was none other than Prime Minister Crosson.

If there were outsiders present, they would definitely be very shocked.

Because Grand Marshal Lorraine Muyuan and Crosson had always been at odds, they had always been enemies to the outside world, and the two had been fighting for many years.

How could these two people possibly come together?

"After planning for so long, there is finally some progress. Perhaps Abel himself would not have imagined that his original intention to restrict Xue Di's behavior has now become an opportunity for Xue Di to counterattack."

"I just don't know how far Xue Di can go."

Hearing this.

Grand Marshal Lorraine Muyuan's lips curled up, revealing a faint smile.

"How far Xue Di can go, isn't that up to you and me?"

One-third of the civil officials in Blackwind City are your students, right?"

"Coincidentally, my foundation in Blackwind City is even stronger. Half of the military generals are my people."

At this point.

Crosson and Lorraine Muyuan smiled in unison.

"Hahaha, since that's the case, then let's help Xue Di. Next, let's see what Abel is going to do."

.....

After Lin Tianhao released the server-wide broadcast, he didn't pay attention to other things.

He came all the way to the gate of Blackwind City.

At this time.

Many players gathered near Blackwind City.

Xue Di.

In the eyes of many players, he is already the strongest player in Twilight of the Gods.

Of course.

This is only limited to the Dragon Kingdom's server.

In other countries' servers, there are also some amazing players, so it is difficult to compare.

This Berserker was none other than Monkey.

Nickname: Monkey of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

Lin Tianhao glanced at them and whispered: "Don't come, stay away from me. After I take down Blackwind City, the Nightstalkers of the Demon Cave will most likely take action. At that time, it will evolve into a national war."

"Fatty, you assist Monkey in killing more Nightstalkers, there should be attribute point rewards."

Lin Tianhao knew very well that his attack on Blackwind City would likely trigger the national war between the Star Kingdom and the Demon Cave in advance.

"Ah!"

"Then are we going to be against you, Brother Hao?" Monkey asked.

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I guess so, but you don't have to worry about me, and I won't worry about you either. You find opportunities to kill more Nightstalkers."

"Fatty, you let Monkey kill more Nightstalkers. He gets the highest return from killing Nightstalkers and getting free attribute points."

Zhou Xiaopang and Monkey both knew Lin Tianhao's thoughts, but they were still a little worried.

"Don't worry about me, I have my own plans for attacking Blackwind City."

"Okay, Brother Hao, give us a shout if anything happens."

Lin Tianhao nodded and asked, "Where's Glasses?"

"He's in a bit of trouble, trapped in some secret realm and can't get out."

Lin Tianhao frowned. This didn't happen in his previous life.

Could it be that the butterfly effect was caused by his rebirth?

But since his rebirth, he hasn't had any contact with Glasses, so how could he affect Glasses?

Could it be because he destroyed the novice village and released the Drought Demon, causing the game's trajectory to change, thereby changing Glasses's game trajectory.

"Okay, I'm going to make a move, you two be smart."

"Understood."

Lin Tianhao stepped out, the focus of everyone's attention.

Everyone held their breath and watched Lin Tianhao.

They all wanted to see how far Lin Tianhao could go.

In the direction of Blackwind City, the city guards were already on high alert, and a battle was about to break out.

"Xue Di."

On the Blackwind City wall.

A middle-aged man looked at Lin Tianhao with a cold expression.

"Attacking the main city is an act of great rebellion. Leave now, and there is still room for maneuver. Otherwise, you cannot bear the consequences of provoking the Star Kingdom."

"咻！！"

An arrow pierced through the air.

Lin Tianhao hit the middle-aged man's forehead with an arrow from a super long distance.

Critical hit!!

-421080.

A huge damage number appeared, and many people present gasped.

"An arrow with 420,000+ damage, is this Xue Di?

"Damn, I... what can I say? I risked my life to grind a set of level 15 elite equipment, and completed two quests that rewarded free attribute points. Now my attack power is barely over two thousand."

"You're good to have two thousand, I'm level seventeen, and my attack power is one thousand five. We're both archers, why is the difference so big?"

.....

The players were shocked.

Lin Tianhao remained unmoved.

As soon as he fired his first arrow, he began to frantically unleash arrows.

"Ding, you have killed a Blackwind City city guard. Since you have not changed jobs, you cannot obtain experience points for the time being."

"Ding, you have killed a Blackwind City city guard. Since you have not changed jobs, you cannot obtain experience points for the time being."

.....

System prompts sounded one after another.

Lin Tianhao's battle with Blackwind City officially began!

"Full city announcement, due to player Xue Di maliciously attacking Blackwind City, Blackwind City is now issuing a bounty mission to kill Xue Di."

This bounty mission appeared quickly, and many people received this mission.

"Bounty Mission: Kill Xue Di."

"Mission Requirements: Kill Xue Di 10 times."

"Mission Penalty: None."

"Mission Reward: Each kill grants +100 free attribute points and a set of level 20 Black Iron equipment +1."

This mission excited many players as soon as it appeared.

One hundred free attribute points is equivalent to leveling up to level twenty normally.

There is also a set of level 20 Black Iron equipment, which is very good for players at this stage.

Just.

No one dared to act rashly this time.

After all, the scene of Lin Tianhao dealing 420,000 damage with one arrow was still in front of them. Some of them did want to take action.

But in the current situation, it is entirely possible to wait for Blackwind City to counterattack before taking action.

At this time.

On the Blackwind City tower, the city guards began to counterattack.

Their arrows densely covered the area. It is almost impossible to rely on movement to dodge this large-scale arrow attack.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao directly gave up resisting.

The city guards of the main city are basically level 50, and their attack power is generally not less than 5,000.

Lin Tianhao's armor and magic resistance can almost be ignored now. In addition, the city guards themselves have a certain penetration, so the damage caused to Lin Tianhao is basically true damage.

-5012.

-5019.

-5111.

.....

One damage number after another appeared above Lin Tianhao's head. Just one volley of arrows hit Lin Tianhao with dozens of arrows, taking away one-tenth of Lin Tianhao's health bar.

But the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor was activated, and Lin Tianhao recovered more than 70,000 health points.

Immediately afterwards, Lin Tianhao's arrows landed on the city guards, and in the blink of an eye, Lin Tianhao had recovered to full health.

Chapter 113 - Black Wind City activates the city defense formation!

The Bloodthirsty Necklace grants 1% of maximum health as lifesteal.

Currently, Lin Tianhao's health exceeds 3.5 million, so a single auto-attack heals him for 35,000.

With Lin Tianhao's current attack speed of 20, he can heal for 700,000+ per second.

The city guards' attacks are negligible to Lin Tianhao, but Lin Tianhao's attacks on the city guards are terrifying.

In less than a minute, over a hundred city guards have already died.

The surrounding players who were eager to try their luck gradually calmed down.

It is said that riches are found in danger.

But they also need to consider how great the risk factor actually is.

As it stands, if they dare to attack Lin Tianhao, the outcome is without suspense; they will die a very miserable death.

Blackwind City.

City Lord Butte Yasi looked gloomy. He had thought Lin Tianhao might be strong, but he never imagined that Lin Tianhao would be this powerful.

"Send in the priests and mages! Also, go and invite the martial artist Brulink, and have him lead the martial artists to attack Xue Di."

"In addition, go and invite the priests and formation masters to give me a comprehensive, no-dead-angle attack on Xue Di. I don't believe he's really that outrageous."

Butte Yasi's arrangements were quick. He also took Lin Tianhao seriously enough. This action was almost an all-out effort.

Lin Tianhao saw the appearance of priests and mages and began to retreat.

The appearance of priests and mages meant that there might be some strong crowd control.

His Purification Jade Pendant is strong, but if the enemy has a sufficient number, it could still pose a threat to him.

"This Xue Di also knows to retreat? I thought he was really not afraid of death. Send the order, archers provide suppressing fire, shield warriors leave the city to besiege, and assist Brulink in killing Xue Di."

... ..

Lin Tianhao saw the shield warriors who appeared because of his retreat, as well as the martial artists hidden among the shield warriors, and a sneer appeared on his face.

"Butte Yasi, you've been fooled."

Lin Tianhao continued to retreat, feigning weakness.

After waiting for these shield warriors to get within a certain distance, he unhesitatingly attacked.

Five arrows at once, a hundred arrows per second.

Attack speed and lethality instantly maxed out, Lin Tianhao's arrows poured out like a storm.

Critical hit!

Lightning jump!

Slow down!

Reincarnation of Death!

... ..

Various skill effects appeared. Even shield warriors covered in flesh fell instantly before Lin Tianhao.

What can really threaten Lin Tianhao are not ranged classes, but melee.

He has 85% crowd control immunity.

But so what?

If a hundred shield warriors line up to taunt him, knock him into the air, give him a savage charge, and stun him, even 85% crowd control immunity can still be controlled to the point of immobility.

Moreover, in addition to the shield warriors having control skills, the truly tricky ones are the martial artists.

The shortcomings of martial artists are obvious: short attack range, and even the skills are not many ranged attacks.

Apart from this, the martial artist's health bar is only slightly better than archers and mages; in other words, they are fragile!

Martial artists also have a very strong point, which is continuous control.

Once you get close, they can control you to the point where you doubt your life.

It's similar to when Lin Tianhao fought the old village chief in the novice village.

He also had the Purification Jade Pendant, although the crowd control immunity at that time was only 80%.

But in front of the old village chief, he still had no chance to resist.

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao's retreat was a trick.

He wanted to lure the shield warriors and martial artists over. As long as the shield warriors and martial artists were dealt with, then the next step would be much easier.

Because of the slowing effect of the Ice Order, coupled with the freezing effect of the Ice Goddess's Eye of Ice.

Once these shield warriors come out, don't try to escape.

Lin Tianhao gave them a wave of what is called "calling the shots"!!

Archers "calling the shots" on the battlefield, bluntly speaking, is a bit like modern snipers sniping important enemy figures.

Such as machine gunners, anti-aircraft gunners, commanders, etc.

On the battlefield of Twilight of the Gods, there is also this saying of calling the shots.

For example, in guild wars, first "call the shots" on the opponent's priests, high-burst mages, commanders, important guild members, etc.

And Lin Tianhao's current calling the shots are all martial artists.

There are about fifty martial artists hidden in the ranks of the shield warriors. Lin Tianhao's arrows seem to have eyes, accurately hitting these martial artists inside the shield warriors.

"This... is too terrifying!!"

Berserker Blade couldn't help but gasp, "This archery is much stronger than those so-called archery champions."

Shooting the Sky was also in the crowd, and his archery was also outstanding.

But seeing Lin Tianhao firing five arrows at once, and still being able to accurately "call the shots", he couldn't help but gasp.

"This archery, I would believe it if you said the old master was playing me."

Lin Tianhao's archery was tempered in life and death.

After the Great Cataclysm came, Lin Tianhao fought at high intensity almost every day.

Otherwise, even if his talent was heaven-defying, without high-intensity life-and-death battles, he would not have been able to hone such archery skills.

"Xue Di, all of us have probably underestimated his skill."

Astonishing Dream Frost's voice trembled. She had also seen some very powerful operations.

But archery like Lin Tianhao's really made her feel incredible.

This is no longer taking the enemy general's head from the midst of an army, but a hundred arrows in a second, each arrow calling the shots.

Terrifying!

The players who originally wanted to attack Lin Tianhao were now a little scared.

Xue Di is too terrifying!!

Of course.

"Whoosh whoosh whoosh!!"

Lin Tianhao's arrows continued to break through the air, and martial artists fell one by one.

After the martial artists were almost dead, the remaining shield warriors had no chance of survival.

After all, the slowing effect of the Ice Order plus Lin Tianhao's terrifying damage made it impossible to escape Lin Tianhao's attack range.

And what's interesting is.

Because Lin Tianhao had just opened the distance, the city guards on the city wall were unable to attack him.

"Activate the city defense array."

Blackwind City Lord Butte Yasi roared in some panic.

In less than fifteen minutes of fighting.

He had completely collapsed.

Lin Tianhao's power made him a little frightened.

Especially when he saw that the surrounding onlookers did not take action, he knew that there was no chance.

Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up, and a faint smile appeared on his face.

He did not continue to attack, but sent a message to Berserker Blade.

"Blade, lend me your territory, I want my brother to kill me ten times."

"Okay."

Berserker Blade was stunned for a moment, but still nodded in agreement.

Lin Tianhao sent a message to Monkey, asking him and Zhou Xiaopang to go to Berserker's territory.

Arriving at Berserker's territory, Lin Tianhao took off all his equipment, "Monkey, come kill me."

Monkey was a little confused, and then he knew the reason, "You want me to take the Blackwind City bounty reward."

"That's right."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile, "Don't let the fertile water flow into other people's fields, kill me ten times, a thousand free attribute points."

Chapter 114 - Xue Di, are you still human?

"Okay."

The Monkey only hesitated slightly before nodding in agreement.

Then.

He began to attack Lin Tianhao.

Critical Hit!

-5847.

-5839.

... ..

One damage number after another appeared above Lin Tianhao's head.

Because Lin Tianhao wasn't resisting, most of the attacks were able to crit.

But even if Lin Tianhao wasn't wearing equipment, the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor and the Revival skill's health regeneration were guaranteed.

And with the Dry Wood Rejuvenation's low health regeneration, it would be a fight for the Monkey to kill him.

But it wasn't as difficult as imagined, because the Monkey was now level twenty, and with his talent's ability, his attack speed had been increased by at least five hundred points.

Plus equipment, and having joined Lin Tianhao's guild, and in order to allow him to quickly kill himself, Lin Tianhao also had him join the Berserker Blade's territory, his attack speed was now over 7.5!!

Thus, the damage he could deal in one second could exceed forty thousand.

Even after deducting the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor and Revival's recovery, it could still make Lin Tianhao lose about thirty thousand health.

And that was just in one second.

One minute was one million eight hundred thousand.

In less than two minutes, Lin Tianhao would be killed.

Because he wasn't wearing the Tears of the Goddess of Life, his health had decreased by twenty percent, and was less than three million.

Killing him ten times wouldn't even take twenty minutes.

After all, Dry Wood Rejuvenation would only trigger once, and it would only take less than a minute to get rid of the health it restored.

So.

Don't think Lin Tianhao is too invincible.

Once he was suppressed by a chain of controls, there was a high probability he would be killed.

It's just that Lin Tianhao had always been careful and cautious in battle, plus his positioning and combat awareness were only higher than the Star Kingdom's NPCs, which allowed him to remain invincible.

Of course.

There was also a very crucial issue.

"Brother Hao, I, Monkey, will remember your kindness. Your death is worth it."

The Monkey's talent, the reward for free attribute points was five times, which meant that killing Lin Tianhao ten times would actually give him five thousand free attribute points.

And his balanced enhancement talent allowed his five thousand free attribute points to have the effect of fifty thousand free attribute points.

After adding all five thousand free attribute points, the Monkey's attributes underwent earth-shattering changes.

Attack increased by ten thousand, health increased by one hundred thousand, mana increased by twenty-five thousand, and attack speed increased by 19.3, reaching a terrifying 26.8!!

At this stage.

No one's attack speed should be as outrageous as the Monkey's.

Not only attack speed, but also movement speed, armor, magic resistance, magic penetration, and physical penetration, all of these attributes had undergone earth-shattering changes.

After all, just this one reward, if he leveled up normally, he would need to level up two hundred times to get so many rewards.

"Brother Hao, I simply love you to death."

The Monkey rushed up and gave Lin Tianhao a bear hug.

Berserker Blade then asked from the side: "Snow Emperor, were you just doing unlimited resurrection in place with a penalty?"

"Yes."

Lin Tianhao nodded, just now when the Monkey killed him, he chose to resurrect in place after three seconds.

"Pervert."

Berserker Blade couldn't help but complain.

"Monkey of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, are you interested in cooperating? How about you give me the Black Iron set you got this time?"

The Monkey didn't answer immediately, but instead locked his gaze on Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao smiled, "You can keep it for yourself, or sell it if you don't need it."

The Monkey of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven nodded, "Brother Hao, these are all yours, and the money from selling them is all yours."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "I don't lack that little bit, I'll leave first if there's nothing else."

This time, after he came out of the Blackwind City's city protecting formation, he didn't continue to attack Blackwind City, besides wanting to help the Monkey.

There were also two very important reasons.

The first was that he wanted to confuse the Star Kingdom's people, to make them think that he had no way to break the city protecting formation, thereby making them lower their guard.

The second was that he needed to get all the forces moving.

This time, the attack on Blackwind City had a great impact on the Star Kingdom, and they would definitely take action.

And what Lin Tianhao wanted was not just a city like Blackwind City, nor would he simply vent his anger.

What he wanted was to take this opportunity to earn even more things.

Next, he just needed to wait.

Wait for someone to come and find him.

After leaving Berserker Blade's territory.

Lin Tianhao went straight to Blackwater Lake and started farming the Dragon Turtle dungeon.

Currently, the rewards this dungeon could give were minimal.

The reason why Lin Tianhao still came here to farm was just because the monsters here had relatively higher health bars, which allowed him to stack his health a few more times.

... ..

The forum of Twilight of the Gods.

At this time, it had completely exploded.

Lin Tianhao single-handedly fought against Blackwind City, causing Blackwind City to be defeated and abandon its armor, and ultimately had to activate the city protecting formation.

Especially since many people had recorded videos at the time, this immediately made the entire internet boil again.

Great Rice Empire player: Fake, this must be fake, these people from Dragon Country have no ability, they only know how to brag, an ordinary attack dealing 420,000 damage, is that possible? Even if he has a whole set of gold equipment, it's impossible to have such high damage.

Korean Country player: One person fighting a city, the gimmick is very good, but I want to declare here that Snow Emperor is a person from our Korean Country, he's just temporarily playing professionally in Dragon Country, besides the players from our Korean Country, which other country's players can be so powerful.

Sakura Country player: I've seen a lot of Sakura anti-Japanese dramas from Dragon Country, and I'm already very familiar with the Dragon Country people's tricks, an arrow dealing 420,000 damage, a hundred arrows per second? Even our Emperor doesn't have such power, how could there be such a powerful player.

... ..

This time.

Lin Tianhao fighting a city single-handedly can be said to have directly become popular abroad, and players from various countries are expressing their opinions.

Besides Korean Country thinking that Snow Emperor is from their country, most other people think this is fake.

After all, in their opinion, whether it's an arrow dealing 420,000 damage or a hundred arrows per second, it's too outrageous.

And at this time.

Who is the most uncomfortable player?

Without a doubt, Game Bro!

Before, Game Bro belittled Lin Tianhao for the sake of popularity, and this time his comment section was once again flooded.

All kinds of teasing and sarcasm came, and the key was that he couldn't refute it.

In fact, he originally thought that with his five times free attribute points talent, he would definitely be able to soar into the sky in the future and catch up with Snow Emperor.

But recently.

He increasingly felt that the gap between him and Snow Emperor was huge.

Especially this time.

Lin Tianhao's arrow dealing 420,000 damage, a hundred arrows per second, precise sniping operation came out.

He was completely desperate.

"Snow Emperor, are you still human?!"

Chapter 115 - The game between each other!

While the entire network was in shock, the Star-Moon Kingdom itself was not calm either.

Although Blackwind City was not taken down this time, its losses were considerable.

The combined number of dead city guards and fighters was close to a thousand.

This wasn't a state of war, and a major city like Blackwind City only had five or six thousand troops.

Yet, in less than fifteen minutes of fighting Lin Tianhao, they lost a thousand.

Blackwind City, City Lord's Mansion.

Buteya Si looked gloomy and said to the old man behind him, "Has the message been sent? When will reinforcements be dispatched?"

The old man behind Buteya Si shook his head. "City Lord, the message has been sent, but we have not yet received a reply."

"It's an urgent matter, and they still haven't replied. Don't they know that keeping the city defense formation active consumes energy crystals?"

Buteya Si gritted his teeth and roared, then took out a sound transmission talisman. "I'll personally report the situation here to the Prime Minister."

Buteya Si activated the sound transmission talisman, and after a while, an impatient voice came from the other end.

"Buteya Si, you have a lot of nerve, daring to disturb the Prime Minister's rest!!"

"Chief Steward Kur, I don't want to either, but the current situation is too tricky, and I have no choice."

"Hmph, didn't that Snow Emperor already retreat? Just an adventurer, why make such a fuss? Handle it yourself. The Prime Minister has high hopes for you, and he has absolute trust in you. He believes you can solve this small and insignificant adventurer, Snow Emperor."

"City Lord Buteya Si, good luck!!"

With the last sentence, the sound transmission talisman was cut off.

Looking at the disconnected sound transmission talisman, Buteya Si's hands trembled with anger.

"Small and insignificant adventurer?"

He almost laughed out of anger at these words.

What do you mean by a small and insignificant adventurer?

That's completely an adventurer who's ridiculously strong.

"City Lord, I have another good news here," the old man said.

"Oh?"

Buteya Si was immediately interested and asked, "What good news?"

"We offered a reward for Snow Emperor, and someone completed it, killing Snow Emperor ten times."

Buteya Si frowned. "Is this good news? Can't you use your brain?"

"It's obvious that Snow Emperor deliberately asked his friends to kill him, and the rewards went into Snow Emperor's friend's hands."

Buteya Si's breathing began to fluctuate violently.

He really felt like he was going to be angered to death here today.

However.

The old man shook his head and said, "City Lord, this is good news."

Buteya Si was taken aback and looked at the old man strangely. "This? Good news? Tell me, why is this good news."

The old man smiled mysteriously and said, "City Lord, we can now close the city defense formation. As long as someone completes the reward, we will issue a new reward one hour later. Black iron equipment doesn't matter, we have plenty. We can give a little less free attribute points, controlling each reward within one hundred points."

"What do you mean?"

Buteya Si was a little confused.

"It's very simple. If the rewards keep coming, Snow Emperor won't easily attack us. On the contrary, the ones who will be anxious will be the King and the others."

"Why?"

Buteya Si felt a little confused, but he still felt that there was a problem here, but he couldn't say exactly where the problem was.

"What is the root cause of Snow Emperor's attack on Blackwind City? The King's ban, so what is the essence of his attack on Blackwind City? Targeting the King."

"We are constantly rewarding, to put it bluntly, we are constantly sending free attribute points and equipment to Snow Emperor."

"After Snow Emperor and his friends have free attribute points and equipment, they will become stronger. After they become stronger, they may not attack our Blackwind City again. If they are strong enough, they should go to attack Sky Star City."

Buteya Si felt a chill down his spine when he heard the old man's analysis. This calculation is so vicious!

"But what if Snow Emperor attacks us again?" Buteya Si asked.

The old man grinned and said, "It's very simple. Reward evolution scrolls for equipment, holy-grade talent awakening stones. City Lord, you still have two, right? Gold-grade main weapons, necklaces, and rings, reward them all?"

"What?!"

Buteya Si was shocked. "Isn't this fostering a tiger to breed trouble? And if we do this, what if Snow Emperor just keeps exploiting me?"

The old man smiled and said, "That's why I said if Snow Emperor attacks again, you should reward all the good things you have."

"Snow Emperor can achieve today's achievements, and he is obviously a smart person. He naturally understands the truth."

"If this is the case, then he will most likely start frantically exploiting, constantly attacking other main cities, and finally become stronger and stronger, until he threatens Sky Star City."

Buteya Si nodded heavily, his eyes also becoming grim.

"Hmph, the King created the trouble himself, but he still hides it and doesn't want to solve it. In that case, let's throw this trouble to him."

Seeing Buteya Si agree, a look of successful conspiracy flashed in the old man's eyes.

"Full city announcement, due to player Snow Emperor's malicious attack on Blackwind City, causing great losses to Blackwind City, Blackwind City is now issuing a reward mission to kill Snow Emperor."

.....

The full city announcement sounded. Although there are no players in Blackwind City now, players near Blackwind City can receive this reward.

Because the division of the main city is not simply just the city. The wild area belonging to the city also belongs to the scope of Blackwind City.

It's similar to a county town in the real world. It's not just the city that is the county town. The nearby suburbs and rural areas all belong to the county town.

And the appearance of this reward mission made many people feel a little confused.

"Reward Mission: Kill Snow Emperor."

"Mission Requirements: Kill Snow Emperor 2 times."

"Mission Penalty: None."

"Mission Reward: Each kill grants Free Attribute Points +50, level 25 Black Iron Set +1."

Compared to the previous reward mission, the number of kills is lower, the rewarded free attribute points are lower, but the equipment is better.

Level 25 black iron equipment is needed even by the top players at this stage.

Merely.

Despite seeing the reward, there are not many people who really have ulterior motives.

After all, Lin Tianhao's combat power is there for all to see.

Fighting a city alone.

These players of theirs still have self-awareness.

Dominating Guild.

Dominating the World looked at the reward mission, his gaze sweeping over the man and woman beside him.

"How confident do you think we are in killing Snow Emperor?"

Chapter 116 - Psychological game!

Hearing this.

Du Ba Yanyan, who was beside him, pondered for a moment before saying, "Less than thirty percent."

"Last time we fought Xue Di, his resilience caused us to suffer a loss. Now, his resilience is likely even higher."

After all, tasks that reward free attribute points aren't so clear, but these dungeon records are clear.

... ..

Lin Tianhao was currently farming the Blackwater Lake Dragon Turtle, and he cleared it once again.

His health had increased by more than three thousand points.

This was because he slightly adjusted his attack rhythm.

Otherwise.

It would be lower!

The damage was too high, and the efficiency of stacking health also decreased.

However.

Lin Tianhao thought of something interesting.

That was Dragon Gall!

He had obtained the old drunkard's wine gourd back in the novice village, which said that adding natural treasures to it and drinking the wine could bring unexpected benefits.

It's just that Lin Tianhao's game pace has been too fast during this period, so he had left this wine gourd behind.

Now is a good opportunity to test the wine gourd's effect.

One, two, three...

Lin Tianhao threw in ten Dragon Galls in one go, and began to look forward to it.

What kind of reward could be obtained from soaking Dragon Gall in wine.

Wine Gourd: Automatically brewing wine...

Current progress: 1%...

Lin Tianhao glanced at it. He estimated that it would take at least half an hour for the brewing to finish.

In that case, he could clear the Blackwater Lake Dragon Turtle dungeon a few more times and stack a little more health.

But at this moment, a figure walked over and soon appeared in front of Lin Tianhao.

The person who came was none other than Princess Leona.

"Xue Di."

Princess Leona felt a sense of vicissitude when she met Lin Tianhao again.

"Is our previous agreement still valid?"

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally, "I originally thought I could control the overall situation, but I overlooked your father, Abraham's, intelligence."

"He treated me like a pawn, how ridiculous!"

Leona didn't know if Lin Tianhao was mocking her father, Abraham, or mocking himself with this ridiculous comment.

But that didn't matter anymore.

After all, since Leona had come, she naturally had something to say to Lin Tianhao.

"Di Xuejian can't get out of the palace altar now. Her health is constantly dropping, and only the palace altar can save her."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "I don't like beating around the bush. Just say what you want."

"A profit-seeking guy, is it useful to be straightforward in front of you?"

Leona took out a scroll, "This is a quest scroll, the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing. I heard Di Xuejian say that you are looking for this thing."

"And then?"

"This thing is yours now."

Leona directly handed the quest scroll to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao took the quest scroll and checked the quest on it.

"King Abraham of the Starry Kingdom doesn't want to abdicate the throne. He schemed to prevent Di Xuejian from leaving the palace altar. Di Xuejian hopes that you can contain King Abraham."

"Quest requirements: Stop attacking Di Xuejian and use the lock-health method on King Abraham of the Starry Kingdom until King Abraham is killed."

"Quest penalty: Unknown."

"Quest reward: Gods' Blessing + 1, Free Attribute Points + 1000."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, "This is Di Xuejian's pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing?"

Leona nodded, "That's right. Although I agreed to cooperate with Di Xuejian, such a valuable thing must be given to her by herself."

"Letting Di Xuejian go and killing King Abraham, the risk is very high, and the attack method is also required, which is even more outrageous."

Lin Tianhao didn't immediately accept the quest.

It was true that he needed the Gods' Blessing very much, but the risk was still a bit too great for him.

In other words.

His input and gain were not proportional.

"It is indeed a bit difficult, so she also gave a thousand free attribute points, which I believe will be very helpful to you."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said, "Can you tell me why you chose to cooperate with Di Xuejian?"

"Don't say any nonsense about King Abraham not wanting to abdicate. I believe you have already seen it and have been prepared for it."

Leona nodded, "I need someone to fish. In the Starry Kingdom, we are not the only ones eyeing the throne."

"We are all women in this generation, and some foreign ministers have long been tempted."

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment, "If you want me to help, why don't you add your pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing?"

"That won't work."

Leona shook her head, "But it's up to you. I'm just running errands for Di Xuejian. The quest scroll has already been given to you. Whether you accept it or not is up to you."

Lin Tianhao directly threw the quest scroll back.

"I won't accept it."

He needed the Gods' Blessing very much.

It was related to the revival of the ancient Eastern country.

He was gambling.

Because if he accepted Di Xuejian's quest, it would let Leona know that he had a great need for the Gods' Blessing, and he would even dare to accept such an absurd quest as killing Abraham.

Leona couldn't help but frown when she saw Lin Tianhao throw the quest scroll back.

"Killing Abraham, what a joke. In the Starry Kingdom, who dares to say they can kill Abraham? This quest is simply unscientific."

Leona pondered for a moment. She stared at Lin Tianhao for a while before saying slowly:

"Really not accepting it?"

"I won't accept it."

"I'm leaving if you don't accept it."

"Go ahead, I'll farm some dungeons."

After speaking, Lin Tianhao turned around and walked towards the Blackwater Lake Dragon Turtle dungeon.

This was a psychological game, and he had to gamble.

Otherwise, if he accepted such an outrageous quest from Di Xuejian today, Leona might give him a similar outrageous quest tomorrow.

But.

Until Lin Tianhao entered the dungeon, Leona didn't stop him.

Could it be that he gambled wrong?

Lin Tianhao frowned, but he didn't think much about it.

He cleared it in less than five minutes.

But.

At the entrance of the dungeon, he saw Leona again.

Leona smiled at Lin Tianhao and said, "Xue Di, you won."

Chapter 117 - Attack Black Wind City again!

While speaking.

Leona tossed the quest scroll to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao took the quest scroll and found that the quest on it had changed.

"King Abel of the Starry Kingdom does not want to abdicate and plotted to prevent Tissot from leaving the palace altar. Tissot hopes you can restrain King Abel."

"Quest Requirements: Stop attacking Tissot and use the lock-HP method on King Abel of the Starry Kingdom for three consecutive days. If King Abel dies within three days, it will still count as completing the quest."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: Blessing of the Gods +1, Free Attribute Points +100."

The quest changed from killing King Abel to only needing to attack with the Book of Life and Death for three days.

However, the reward of free attribute points decreased from one thousand to one hundred.

"Okay, I'll take this quest."

Lin Tianhao accepted the quest without hesitation, then erased Tissot's name from the Book of Life and Death and wrote King Abel of the Starry Kingdom's name.

Palace Altar.

Tissot realized that her HP loss had stopped and finally breathed a sigh of relief.

But on the other side.

In the main hall of the palace, Abel, who was dealing with government affairs, frowned as damage numbers began to appear above his head.

"Heh heh, Snow Emperor, can't you sit still?"

With his HP recovery ability, even without relying on the palace altar, Lin Tianhao would still be unable to kill him using the HP loss from the Book of Life and Death.

"Your Majesty, the Snow Emperor's actions are a provocation to your authority. It is necessary to teach him a lesson."

A warrior wearing golden armor with sharp eyes walked out from behind Abel.

"Luo Lin Muye, there's no rush to attack the Snow Emperor. What do you think about the Blackwind City matter?"

Luo Lin Muye pondered for a moment, "The Snow Emperor is very strong. Burt Yas is probably not his match."

"However, I recently discovered that my brother and Prime Minister Ke Senluo seem to want to stir up trouble in Blackwind City."

King Abel smiled indifferently, seemingly not surprised at all.

"Could it be the Hard difficulty?"

Luo Lin Muye said subconsciously.

Because normally speaking, given the difficulty of the Snow Corpse Ruins dungeon, being able to pass the Easy mode is already very difficult.

Hard mode, Luo Lin Muye felt that he was already thinking highly of the Snow Emperor.

"No, he cleared it on Hell mode."

King Abel did not beat around the bush, but directly stated the difficulty level of the dungeon that Lin Tianhao cleared.

"What?!"

Luo Lin Muye simply couldn't believe his ears.

The Hell mode Snow Corpse Ruins, he shuddered just thinking about it.

"Being able to clear the Hell mode Snow Corpse Ruins, I am also very surprised, but you should know what this means?"

Luo Lin Muye widened his eyes, seemingly thinking of something incredible.

"Only Hell mode can release the main body of our God. The great Ice and Snow Goddess is about to descend upon the world!!"

Luo Lin Muye's hands trembled with excitement, and he knelt down devoutly.

"Congratulations to our God for breaking free. Our God is eternal, the Starry Kingdom is eternal!"

King Abel waved his hand, "You should understand now where my confidence to dare to reshuffle lies, right?"

... ..

Blackwater Lake.

Lin Tianhao smoothly obtained what he wanted, and a smile couldn't help but appear on his face.

"Princess Leona, what about your quest scroll for the Blessing of the Gods? Why don't you give it to me as well?"

Princess Leona grinned, "Snow Emperor, I will give it to you when I have the chance."

Lin Tianhao spread his hands, watching Leona leave.

After Leona left, Lin Tianhao took out the wine gourd.

Brewing Progress: 99%... ...

Brewing Successful!!

Lin Tianhao opened the wine bottle, smelled it, and the aroma of wine wafted over. This was much worse than the wine he drank in his previous life, but it was still okay for a sip.

Why is it the previous life?

Because Lin Tianhao doesn't drink baijiu at all at this stage. His motto is one and a half jin of beer, and cocktails can be poured at will.

As for baijiu... ...

Not a drop!

However, after the Great Cataclysm, after experiencing the tempering of life and death, he realized that baijiu is a good thing.

What was he drinking before?

Especially after the Great Cataclysm, the raw materials for brewing wine are all heavenly treasures. Even Wuliangye is brewed from spiritual grains, and the taste is much better.

Taking a small sip.

Lin Tianhao immediately felt refreshed.

"Ding, you have obtained the special buff Scorching. Your attacks can cause scorching damage to the target, losing 100 HP per second, lasting for 5 seconds, stacking up to six times. This buff lasts for one minute."

Lin Tianhao smacked his lips. This wine is so-so, and what he got was only a temporary buff, trash!

Of course.

That is, Lin Tianhao would think it was trash. Any combat class would be smiling from ear to ear if they got it.

One attack stacks once, and six attacks stack six times.

In other words, as long as after six attacks, the HP loss per second from this buff alone can reach six hundred.

The duration is one minute, and theoretically, it can knock off more than 30,000 HP from the opponent.

And the current HP of tank classes is about that much, or even lower.

Putting away the wine gourd, Lin Tianhao sent a message to Monkey.

As the saying goes, even a mosquito's leg is meat. Although the reward for this bounty is not much, it will be different after it gets into Monkey's hands.

Monkey ran over very excitedly. His current attributes can kill Lin Tianhao even faster.

It was done in a few minutes.

He smoothly obtained one hundred free attribute points, which is five hundred after the talent amplification, and after balanced allocation, that is five thousand.

Such an attribute increase can definitely be described as terrifying.

After completing the bounty, Lin Tianhao went to Blackwind City again.

There was no way around it.

The Black-robed Leader's quest was to break through Blackwind City, and Lin Tianhao was still thinking about getting the Black-robed Leader's reward.

Arriving at Blackwind City again, the City Lord of Blackwind City, Burt Yas, was not so panicked this time.

Because in his opinion, he had already thought of a countermeasure.

That is a huge bounty!

"Shoo shoo shoo!!"

Lin Tianhao was not a person who liked to waste words, so after arriving, he directly sent a rain of arrows towards Blackwind City.

"City-wide announcement, due to the player Snow Emperor maliciously attacking Blackwind City, Blackwind City is now issuing a bounty quest to kill Snow Emperor."

... ..

Bounty quests appeared again, and the players were already used to it. Not counting this time, Lin Tianhao had already been put on bounty twice before for attacking Blackwind City.

Only.

When these players saw the reward for this bounty, they couldn't sit still anymore.

"Holy crap... ..."

Chapter 118 - There are always players looking for death!

"Holy crap... What am I seeing? Golden weapons, Saint-grade talent awakening stones, a full set of Bronze-grade armor. The Blackwind City Lord is panicking!"

At this moment,

the players near Blackwind City were going crazy.

"Bounty Mission: Kill Snow Emperor."

"Mission Requirement: Kill Snow Emperor 10 times."

"Mission Penalty: None."

"Mission Reward: For each kill, gain +50 free attribute points, Bronze-grade armor +1. The first three kills will receive a Golden equipment piece or a Saint-grade talent awakening stone."

Although the free attribute point reward wasn't as good as last time, the Bronze-grade armor, Golden equipment, and Saint-grade talent awakening stones were all incredibly powerful items at this stage.

Even though many people knew that Lin Tianhao's current strength was very strong and not to be trifled with easily, the benefits offered were too great.

“As the saying goes, fortune favors the bold. The daring thrive, the timid starve.”

Dominating the Heavens clenched his fists. This bounty from the Blackwind City Lord was simply too tempting.

“As a person, you always have to take a gamble. According to our observations, the Snow Emperor's resistance isn't that high. As long as we connect our combos well enough, it's possible to kill him.”

Dominating Ambition was also tempted.

“Offending the Snow Emperor, at worst, we lose a level. But if we succeed, the benefits...”

Dominating the Heavens was already starting to fantasize.

Beside him, Dominating Allure raised her jade hand and said softly, "Brothers, aren't you overlooking a very important thing?"

“Why did the Snow Emperor attack Blackwind City?”

“Because of the King's decree.”

“That's right. If we offend the Snow Emperor, he won't even give the King face. Do you think the Snow Emperor will only make us lose one level?”

“Actually, whether we succeed or not, we'll eventually be killed by the Snow Emperor until we're traumatized. Don't doubt my words, one arrow is enough for the Snow Emperor to kill us.”

Dominating the Heavens and Dominating Ambition's moods became heavy.

They couldn't deny Dominating Allure's words.

If the Snow Emperor was so vengeful, whether they succeeded or not, the ending wouldn't be good.

“So, we don't take action?”

Dominating the Heavens was still somewhat unwilling, as such an opportunity was rare.

Dominating Allure shook her head. “Not everyone will be as rational as us. There will always be irrational people who attack the Snow Emperor.”

“We just need to reap the benefits.”

... ..

Blackwind City.

Lin Tianhao's output made the Blackwind City Lord tremble with fear.

Lin Tianhao stopped attacking.

However, it wasn't because of his city's protective array, but because some ignorant fellows couldn't help but want to cause trouble for Lin Tianhao.

“Snow Emperor, forgive us for the offense. Blame the Blackwind City Lord for giving too much.”

The speaker was a short player who had hidden his nickname.

After saying this, he entered stealth mode.

Lin Tianhao shook his head. These people were too naive.

“Swish!”

Lin Tianhao began to attack because he knew that the assassins near him were definitely more than just the player who had spoken.

Five arrows fired simultaneously!

An assassin was hit by Lin Tianhao's arrow and died on the spot.

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth rose, revealing a faint smile on his face.

Five arrows fired simultaneously, launching indiscriminate attacks.

Under the barrage of Lin Tianhao's arrows, those assassins in stealth mode died before they could even get close.

As for why they were still hit in stealth mode...

Prediction! Based on his own position, predict the most likely positions the assassins would attack from.

Then, a hundred arrows per second!

Even with only a five percent hit rate, five assassins would be killed every second.

Moreover, the closer they got to Lin Tianhao, the greater the chance of being killed.

“Monster!!”

Shura Yize couldn't help but complain, “We can't afford to offend him, we can't afford to offend him. All you little brats, stay put! Absolutely no attacking the Snow Emperor without my orders.”

Not only Shura Yize, but also the managers of the major guilds issued the same instructions.

Snow Emperor.

Solo players could be provoked, but their guilds couldn't.

Otherwise, if they offended the Snow Emperor to the death, their guilds wouldn't have a good time in the future.

Only solo players.

In fact, the scale was still not small.

But in less than five minutes, these solo players were defeated by Lin Tianhao.

Without systematic attacks, Lin Tianhao also had Lightning Leap, a range-based damage skill. In front of Lin Tianhao, they were really just there to deliver themselves.

“Scavengers.”

Shura Yize smiled and gave an order, “Send in the gold farming team, don't send the elite team.”

“Yes.”

Lin Tianhao killed so many players, they dropped a lot of equipment.

Scavengers.

A relatively special existence in Twilight of the Gods.

Generally, Explorers also serve as Scavengers.

The major guilds want to understand the wild maps, explore hidden maps, dungeons, and even trigger quests in the main city.

The main thing is to let the assassins explore.

Lin Tianhao just glanced at these scavengers and didn't care too much.

Originally, he was prepared to break through Blackwind City in one go.

But now he hesitated.

Blackwind City offered so many things to put a bounty on him. Does that mean that other main cities might also offer very high rewards to put a bounty on him?

If so, then he could carry out wool-gathering to the end.

Gathering more wool to help Monkey and Zhou Xiaopang was completely feasible.

Their talents were both Saint-grade. Normally speaking, their achievements wouldn't be low, but they wouldn't be particularly outrageous either.

But what if Lin Tianhao helped?

Take Zhou Xiaopang, for example.

If he bound to other people, it would be a blessing if his health increased by 100,000.

The same goes for Monkey.

Without Lin Tianhao, he would have to level up to 200 for the previous 1,100 free attribute points.

And after helping Monkey improve, Zhou Xiaopang could bind to Monkey.

Monkey's health might not be as good as Lin Tianhao's, but his dual resistance was also evenly improved.

This would also be of great help to Zhou Xiaopang.

Thinking like this,

Lin Tianhao withdrew.

He first removed the bounty on himself. As for the method, naturally, he let Monkey take it.

Killing ten times, another 500 free attribute points, ten sets of Bronze-grade armor, a Golden-grade ring, and two Saint-grade talent awakening stones.

Wonderful.

Adding the previous 1,100 free attribute points, Lin Tianhao had gathered 1,600 free attribute points for Monkey in Blackwind City.

“Next, it's you, Icewind City.”

Lin Tianhao's mouth curled up. He wanted to try if he could unlock so many bounties in Icewind City as well.

“All-server broadcast, I, Snow Emperor, will attack Icewind City in fifteen minutes. Please Icewind City players leave on their own, otherwise, they will be killed without mercy.”

... ..

The all-server broadcast sounded, making many players in Icewind City very dissatisfied.

If it was attacking Blackwind City, many people were watching the fun.

But now that they were attacking Icewind City, they had already passed the excitement of watching the fun and only felt that the Snow Emperor was affecting them from doing quests.

Chapter 119 - Five hundred thousand gold coins, that's a bargain for you!

“Snow Emperor really doesn't treat us ordinary players as human beings. No matter what, if Snow Emperor wants to attack Icewind City, he must come up with an explanation.”

“Exactly! He's so capable, why doesn't he go attack Celestial Star City? To put it bluntly, isn't he just bullying the weak and afraid of the strong? Trash!!”

“Being in the same server as Snow Emperor is really unlucky. I was halfway through my class advancement quest. Go, go, go to hell!”

... ..

Snow Emperor's actions caused many people in the city to complain.

After all, no matter what, Lin Tianhao's siege affected many ordinary players.

But Lin Tianhao didn't care and continued to do his own thing.

After arriving at Icewind City, Lin Tianhao began the attack without hesitation.

Arrows pierced the sky.

Icewind City didn't form any effective resistance.

"As expected."

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth rose, and a smile appeared on his face.

He could see that there was internal strife within the Starfall Kingdom, and someone wanted him to stir up the waters of the Starfall Kingdom.

Because whether it was Blackwind City or this Icewind City, none of the truly powerful people had appeared.

The most direct reason was that someone wanted him to make things big.

"City-wide announcement! Due to player Snow Emperor's malicious attack on Icewind City, Icewind City is now issuing a bounty mission to kill Snow Emperor."

... ..

Just like when attacking Blackwind City, the bounty arrived as scheduled.

These main city NPCs are not fools. They probably already know that the benefits of the bounty on him go into the hands of their own people.

But they still tirelessly issue bounties on him.

Is this a bounty?

This is giving him benefits!!

It's just that...

It seems that the people of these main cities can't wait for him to become even more powerful.

What was the cause of his siege this time?

In other words...

The real purpose of the people behind the scenes is to target King Abel.

Who could it be?

The probability of Leona is very low. She doesn't have the ability to influence these main cities.

Since it's not Leona, then it's Qing Fuyun or Di Xuejian.

One relies on Queen Fiodina, and the other is the eldest princess. Both have strong strength and deep foundations.

No matter which of the two it is, they cannot be underestimated.

But...

According to what Lin Tianhao knew, the power of the princess would not be delegated to the local level, that is, their power center should be within the royal capital, Celestial Star City.

The people who can directly influence the main cities are civil and military officials.

And who are the people who manage the civil and military officials?

Prime Minister Kesenluo and Grand Marshal Lorin Muyuan!

“Could it be these two are playing tricks behind the scenes?”

Lin Tianhao thought to himself.

As for the fact that Kesenluo and Lorin Muyuan have always been at odds, he also knew, but he didn't care.

Because if the benefits are sufficient, it is entirely possible for them to cooperate.

The ending didn't change much.

Until the Icewind City's city protection array was activated, Lin Tianhao didn't encounter any strong resistance.

Seeing the Icewind City's city protection array activated, Lin Tianhao gave up the attack.

The bounty on him should be realized.

Still the same.

Let Monkey take action to kill him and maximize the rewards.

Still in Blade's Edge Territory, Monkey completed all the bounty missions on Lin Tianhao.

The Blackwind City bounty had 500 free attribute points, and the Icewind City bounty had 1,000 free attribute points.

This time, Monkey obtained 1,500 free attribute points in one go.

With the talent bonus, Monkey's actual attribute point gain was as high as 75,000 points.

This time alone, his health increased by 150,000.

Armor, magic resistance, attack, spell power, attack speed, and other attributes were all comprehensively improved.

Lin Tianhao suddenly thought of a hidden class that was very suitable for Monkey.

Magic Warrior General!

A hidden class that, after class advancement, becomes a dual magic and martial cultivator, so that Monkey's spell power and attack can be utilized.

Magic Warrior General is only rated as Heaven-rank in the evaluation of hidden classes, not even Saint-rank.

This is because it has a big flaw, that is, it needs high attack and high spell power at the same time, otherwise the damage dealt by the skills belonging to the Magic Warrior General will not be particularly high.

But most warriors take the attack power route. Who would use precious free attribute points to add to spell power?

But this class, if placed on Monkey, can definitely exert a level no weaker than a Saint-rank hidden class, or even higher.

At least...

In terms of suitability, Monkey is the highest.

Lin Tianhao thought slightly, and information about the hidden class of Magic Warrior General appeared in his mind.

He doesn't know all the guides, but he does know the trigger clues for the hidden class of Magic Warrior General.

"Monkey, I came into contact with a mission before, you can try it."

Lin Tianhao sent the pre-quest trigger conditions for the hidden class advancement of Magic Warrior General to Monkey.

Monkey of course agreed happily, "Okay, no problem."

While agreeing, Monkey had a light blue ring in his hand.

"Brother Hao, this is for you."

Spring Ring: Gold.

Equipment Requirement: Level 25 All Classes.

Attribute 1: Spell Power + 3999.

Attribute 2: Spell Penetration + 10%.

Attribute 3: Spell Vamp + 5%.

Attribute 4: Reduces magic resistance of all enemy units within fifty meters by 50 points.

Attribute 5: Health + 10000.

Attribute 6: Mana + 20000.

Lin Tianhao glanced at the golden equipment rewarded this time.

“It's useless to me.”

Lin Tianhao shook his head. Of all the attributes inside, only the last two attributes are a little useful to him.

But the previous attributes are not of much help to Lin Tianhao.

“Golden ring, it's a pity it's not a warrior class, what a pity.”

“Why not auction it? This equipment is still very valuable at this stage.”

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I'll ask Berserker Blade."

Saying that...

Lin Tianhao sent the attributes of the Spring Ring to Berserker Blade.

Berserker Blade sent a message directly after seeing the attributes of the Spring Ring.

"What do you say?"

"We're all acquaintances, 500,000 gold coins, a bargain for you."

"Okay."

Berserker Blade didn't hesitate.

Level 25 equipment that all classes can wear is quite powerful.

The most important thing is that mages are very weak in the early stage, relying entirely on equipment.

Mages need spell power, need mana, and the most outrageous thing is that they also need skill levels.

No matter how good the skill is, if it only has one star, the power it can exert is quite limited.

To level up skills, you need mana.

Now the gold coins that the mages of their Berserker Guild spend on buying mana potions every day is a terrifying number.

Otherwise, how could they only have more than ten million gold coins with their size.

After completing the transaction with Berserker Blade, Monkey gave Lin Tianhao two more Saint-grade talent awakening stones.

Just after getting the Saint-grade talent awakening stone, Berserker Blade sent a message.

Chapter 120 - Negotiations with Lorraine Makino!

“Snow Emperor, you should be able to get two Saint-grade Talent Awakening Stones and ten sets of bronze equipment this time...”

Lin Tianhao knew what Berserker Blade was thinking as soon as he saw the message.

“A set of bronze equipment costs 200,000 gold coins. The Saint-grade Talent Awakening Stones are not for sale at the moment.”

Equipment is just a transitional thing. If Lin Tianhao wants good equipment, he can farm it later.

As for the Saint-grade Talent Awakening Stones, that’s definitely not possible.

He will need them to win over some experts when he establishes his territory in the future.

To fight against the Arait Star System after the Great Cataclysm, he can’t do it alone. He needs his own territory and his own power.

“Okay.”

Berserker Blade didn’t say much and completed the transaction with Lin Tianhao directly.

“I wonder how much change this life will bring because of me.”

After completing the transaction with Berserker Blade, a smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

In his previous life, the meat shields that Fatty was bound to were decent, but only decent. In addition, they could only inherit health, armor, and magic resistance, which led to Fatty's strength being somewhat lacking, and his tankiness was only so-so.

As for Monkey.

He was also miserable.

In his previous life, Monkey had obtained some extra free attribute points besides leveling up, but not many. Most of them were a few points or a dozen or twenty points from a quest.

Lin Tianhao is like a butterfly with the power of time, flapping its wings and changing the trajectories of some people.

Of course.

There is a big victim here.

Goudao Wangu!

He was originally the first person to watch the promotional video, but now, Lin Tianhao has intercepted it.

This has resulted in his God-grade talent not being awakened yet.

However.

Goudao Wangu must be won over. If there is a God-grade Talent Awakening Stone in the future, Lin Tianhao will also consider Goudao Wangu.

Although Goudao Wangu is very cautious, his character is not a problem. He has a very firm position in the face of major issues.

I still remember when fighting against the Arait Star System in his previous life, Goudao Wangu contributed a lot.

Bringing his thoughts back.

Lin Tianhao began to prepare for what was coming next.

He had already exploited Bingxue City once. If Bingxue City was like Heifeng City, there would definitely be more rewards waiting for him.

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao decided to attack Bingxue City again.

However.

Before he arrived at Bingxue City, a person appeared in front of him.

Lin Tianhao had some impression of this person.

“Grand Marshal?”

When he said the three words “Grand Marshal”, Lin Tianhao’s heart instantly jumped to his throat, and he tightened his longbow, preparing to fight at any time.

“Snow Emperor, don’t be so nervous. I am not the Grand Marshal. I am his younger brother, Lorein Muye.”

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He knew some of the personnel within the Star Kingdom.

But he didn’t have a deep impression of this Lorein Muye.

It seemed that there was such a person in the Star Kingdom, but his presence was very low.

“Are you here to encircle and suppress me?” Lin Tianhao asked.

Lorein Muye shook his head, “No, you misunderstood. I am not here to encircle and suppress you. I am here just to talk to you.”

“Representing the Grand Marshal? Or representing the King?”

“The King.”

Lorein Muye said seriously: “You may have misunderstood the King’s ban.”

“Misunderstood what? Isn’t the content written on the ban clear enough?” Lin Tianhao asked back.

“Alas, the King just doesn’t want you to participate in the battle for the throne. As long as the battle for the throne ends, the ban will naturally be lifted.”

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally, “So what? Should he have said those things in the ban?”

“Have you seen the content of the ban? Is that what a King should do?”

Lorein Muye's expression was a little strange. Obviously, he knew the content of the ban.

"The King only issued the ban, but did not specifically request the content of the ban. That content was made by the people under Prime Minister Locke Senro."

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth rose. Sure enough, it was similar to what he thought.

The content of that ban was aimed at angering him.

Prime Minister Locke Senro had planned it long ago. The key is that this plan should not only have this one link.

"And then?"

"Snow Emperor, you have been fooled, but in any case, the ban was issued by the King. The King asked me to talk to you."

While speaking.

Lorein Muye took out a scroll.

"This thing should be very helpful to you."

"Prelude Quest Scroll for the Blessing of the Gods."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that he would come into contact with this thing as soon as he arrived.

It seems that King Abraham still understands him.

“Because you attacked the main city, affecting the internal affairs of the Star Kingdom, Lorein Muye hopes that you can stop.”

“Quest Requirement: Snow Emperor will no longer participate in the internal affairs of the Star Kingdom, lasting for seven days.”

“Quest Penalty: Unknown.”

“Quest Reward: Free Attribute Points + 100, Blessing of the Gods + 1.”

Seven days...

This doesn't seem like a long time, but if seven days pass, then the battle for the throne of the Star Kingdom may have already ended.

“I can accept this quest, but I also have a request.”

Lorein Muye nodded, seemingly not surprised that Lin Tianhao would make a request.

“First, the attack on the King will not end for the time being. The duration is tentatively set, which is related to another quest of mine.”

Lorein Muye's expression was a little unsightly, but he still nodded and said: “No problem.”

“Second, I have a great influence among the adventurers. If this attack on the main city ends like this, it will have a great impact on my reputation.”

“What else do you want?!!”

Lorein Muye's expression was gloomy. He had vaguely guessed something.

“I want to attack Heifeng City, and I want to capture it!”

“That’s impossible!”

Lorein Muye rejected it almost without thinking.

“Heifeng City is the main city of the Star Kingdom. It is impossible for you to say that you can break through it.”

Lin Tianhao did not back down, shrugged his shoulders indifferently, “That won’t work. Heifeng City must be broken through, otherwise I, Snow Emperor, can’t afford to lose that face.”

Of course.

Lin Tianhao can’t afford to lose that face, but this is the Black Robe Leader’s quest.

Therefore, he must break through Heifeng City.

“I can’t make the decision on this matter. Wait for me for a few minutes.”

Lorein Muye walked aside, apparently to contact King Abraham.

After a while, Lorein Muye came over. He said solemnly:

“The King said that he can agree to your attack on Heifeng City, but you also need to agree to a few conditions.”
