

#12 - Chapter 12: First pass of the dungeon, the dead tree comes back to life!

Lin Tianhao would not underestimate his opponent just because the boss only had one skill.

The more this was the case, the harder the boss would be to deal with.

"Shu!"

Lin Tianhao took the initiative.

-785.

There was no critical hit, but the damage was still acceptable.

However, in the next instant.

Lin Tianhao knew how terrifying this Nine-Headed Hydra Tree was.

-1355.

-1355.

Two vines struck him in succession, knocking off more than two thousand of his health.

This was truly outrageous!

Moreover, Lin Tianhao discovered a problem: the vines of this Nine-Headed Hydra Tree seemed to encompass the entire level. In other words, it was impossible for him to dodge the normal attacks by moving.

He continued to attack the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree.

The Nine-Headed Hydra Tree's vines struck again, and Lin Tianhao immediately rolled to dodge.

"Dodged it."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. As he had expected, the vine attacks could be dodged.

Now that he could dodge, killing this Nine-Headed Hydra Tree was only a matter of time.

However, for safety's sake, Lin Tianhao switched to the Jungle Longbow.

The Jungle Longbow could increase health and had life steal.

It was difficult for him to fully restore his health relying on the Rejuvenation skill effect.

Therefore, life steal became particularly crucial.

After all, the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree had too many vines, and each normal attack was launched by a different vine.

Although he could dodge with his reaction speed, it was still somewhat unrealistic to dodge 100% of the attacks.

After all, he had not added any points to his movement speed.

+50.

+16.

+16.

Lin Tianhao's health began to slowly recover, and he was also looking for the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree's weakness.

Every monster has a weakness.

Attacking the weak point would increase the chance of a critical hit.

Even if his critical hit rate was only 1% from the Savage Boots after he switched weapons.

As long as the weak point strikes were accurate enough, he could still land consecutive critical hits.

"Found it."

Lin Tianhao actually didn't know about the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree in his previous life.

Because at that time, he was diligently leveling up and farming gold, and he went to the main city on the second day.

Later, when this dungeon was opened, some people tried the Hell difficulty, but at that time, no players in the novice village could pass it.

In addition, as the game progressed, dungeons of level 15 and 20 continued to appear, and players were not so enthusiastic about this novice village dungeon.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao had also heard of this Nine-Headed Hydra Tree for the first time.

"Shu!"

Another arrow, Lin Tianhao was still kiting and positioning.

It was really positioning to the extreme, even normal attacks had to be dodged!

"Found it."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. Behind the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree, he actually saw nine blood-red vines.

Each of those nine blood-red vines had a dark red head.

At this time, one head was facing Lin Tianhao, revealing a charming smile.

"Shu!"

Critical hit!

-1574.

A bright red critical hit damage appeared, which made Lin Tianhao a little excited.

Now that he found the weak point, his attacks would be much easier next.

"Shu!"

"Shu!"

...

The sound of arrows piercing the air was endless. The blood-red vines controlled the heads to dodge, but Lin Tianhao's experience was so rich.

In his opinion, this way of swaying and dodging was just a decoration.

Critical hit!

Critical hit!

Another critical hit!

This was the outrageous part of weak point attacks. Even a 1% critical hit rate could deal high critical hit damage.

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up. Critical hits not only dealt high damage, but also increased his life steal.

After finding the solution, Lin Tianhao consumed the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree's health at a rate of two arrows per second.

Finally, the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree's health was reduced to 10%.

It was about to enter the execution line.

But in the next instant.

A green light emanated from the Nine-Headed Hydra Tree, and its health actually directly recovered from 10% to full health.

Lin Tianhao: ???

He was a little depressed.

He really couldn't be blamed for this. What kind of godly skill was this?

How could there be such an outrageous thing?!

This was the novice village! He wasn't fighting some level 200 world boss! This was just a level 10 Bronze boss.

Why?!

Although a million grass mud horses galloped through his heart.

Lin Tianhao still didn't plan to give up like this and chose to continue attacking.

With the previous experience, Lin Tianhao was now familiar with the road.

Fifteen minutes later!

"Ding, you have killed the Bronze-level Nine-Headed Hydra Tree, experience +31280."

"Ding, you have completed the first clear of the Twisted Jungle dungeon, a server-wide announcement will be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Xue Di for completing the first clear of the Twisted Jungle, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Xue Di for completing the first clear of the Twisted Jungle, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

...

This sudden server-wide announcement left many players who were still fighting in the dungeon dumbfounded.

"Damn, it's that Xue Di again. He cleared the dungeon solo? How is that possible?"

"Solo boss, solo dungeon, could this person have awakened a talent in the novice village?"

"I think it might be some hidden class. Even if it's a talent, which 1-star talent can be so awesome?"

...

There were many players discussing, and many guild players were pounding their chests and stomping their feet.

The rewards for the first dungeon clear were undoubtedly generous.

"Ding, you have completed the Hell-level Twisted Jungle first clear, rewards are being calculated..."

"Ding, you have obtained the Black Iron-level Treant Set +1."

"Ding, you have obtained Skill Book +13."

"Ding, you have obtained Treant Heart +4."

"Ding, you have obtained Elite-level Equipment +35."

"Ding, you have obtained Gold Coins +350."

"Ding, you have obtained Free Attribute Points +50."

"Ding, you have obtained Quest Scroll +1."

...

A series of system prompts made Lin Tianhao dizzy.

These rewards are awesome.

The Black Iron-level Treant Set, except for the main weapon, Lin Tianhao could use everything else. Especially since he got the first clear, there were no level restrictions and he could use them directly.

However, this set of equipment was most suitable for shield warriors, and it looked a little awkward on him.

There were thirty-two pieces of Elite-level equipment and three pieces of Bronze-level equipment. Lin Tianhao glanced at them and found that they were basically tank equipment, which were better than nothing when he equipped them.

When his gaze fell on the skill books.

Lin Tianhao suddenly became interested.

Because he saw that skill: Withered Wood Thrives in Spring!

Withered Wood Thrives in Spring (Passive Skill): 1 star.

Effect: When your health drops to 10%, you will immediately restore 10% of your health.

Cooldown: 24 hours.

Consumption: None.

Proficiency: 0/10 (This proficiency calculation method is to sacrifice skill books. Each skill book sacrificed will grant 1 point of proficiency. Some special skills may grant multiple points of proficiency.)
