

O game 1201

Chapter 1201 - Palace, guard!

Lin Tianhao didn't say anything more.

The resurrection coins ahead should be of higher and higher grade, provided they can get them.

This time, Lin Tianhao didn't get a resurrection coin for solving the giant man-eating flower, which was a bit of a pity.

The group followed the open space forward, and a tall, black-gray door appeared in front of them.

This black-gray door was over thirty meters high and no less than twenty meters wide.

In this kind of place, it was still very visually impactful.

However.

Lin Tianhao and the others' gazes were fixed on the front of the black-gray door.

There was a figure in front of the black-gray door.

The figure stood in the darkness, making it impossible to see his gaze clearly.

But Lin Tianhao could still feel that the guy in front of him should be very strong.

Looking from a distance, Lin Tianhao could feel an extremely strong sense of oppression.

"It's been a long time since I've encountered such a strong sword cultivator."

The Blind Swordsman walked out with his twin swords, and his aura was also rising steadily.

"In this day and age, it is a privilege to be able to meet such an evenly matched opponent."

As soon as he finished speaking.

The Blind Swordsman's body turned into a blur, and in the blink of an eye, he had already rushed to the front of that figure.

"Clang clang clang——"

In the blink of an eye.

The Blind Swordsman had collided with that figure dozens of times.

Both of their swords were very fast.

"Clang——"

With another loud noise, the Blind Swordsman was actually forced back by that figure.

Seeing this scene.

Lin Tianhao also took out his harpoon, as he didn't have any particularly handy weapons.

He could only make do with this harpoon.

"No need, I'll do it."

The Blind Swordsman raised his hand to stop Lin Tianhao and the others who were preparing to attack.

"If he were in his prime, I wouldn't be a match, but he only has one arm, so I still have a 30% chance of winning."

As soon as he finished speaking.

The Blind Swordsman charged up again.

Lin Tianhao also saw clearly the appearance of the person fighting the Blind Swordsman.

This was a middle-aged man with a blank expression. His right arm was gone, and he held a black heavy sword in his left hand, beating the Blind Swordsman back repeatedly.

"Holding a heavy sword, yet able to suppress the Blind Swordsman who wields twin swords, this guy is quite strong," Wang Chongfeng said.

Hearing this.

Zuo Tianyang shook his head and said:

"Sometimes, wielding twin swords doesn't necessarily make you stronger."

As soon as he finished speaking.

The Blind Swordsman stabilized his figure and put away one of his long swords.

"Good, wonderful!!"

The Blind Swordsman laughed loudly, "This is the fight I've been waiting for!!"

The Blind Swordsman and the figure continued to collide, and the two fought fiercely.

Lin Tianhao watched silently, the Blind Swordsman becoming more and more courageous as he fought.

But based on the current situation, it was unlikely that the Blind Swordsman would defeat this guy.

This should still be the fifth level of Mo Yuan, is the intensity already so high?

This kind of high-intensity collision was destined not to last long.

In less than fifteen minutes, the Blind Swordsman and the one-armed swordsman separated.

The Blind Swordsman's breathing was a bit heavy.

The Blind Swordsman smiled wryly and said:

"Let's go together."

Lin Tianhao, the Carefree Taoist, and Zuo Tianyang attacked together.

The one-armed middle-aged man had also consumed a lot of energy when fighting the Blind Swordsman.

Now that Lin Tianhao, the Carefree Taoist, and Zuo Tianyang attacked together, the one-armed middle-aged man quickly couldn't hold on.

In the end, he was hit in the head by the Carefree Taoist's Palm Thunder, and the one-armed swordsman died on the spot.

"Xue Di, look at my luck."

The Carefree Taoist had three more resurrection coins in his hand.

These were exactly what he had looted from the one-armed swordsman's corpse.

Lin Tianhao smiled awkwardly and didn't say anything.

Wang Chongfeng looked at the Carefree Taoist with a look of anticipation.

Obviously.

He really wanted to know if there were any higher-grade resurrection coins among these three resurrection coins.

"These three, two are for seven days, and one is for three months!!"

The Carefree Taoist knew what Wang Chongfeng was thinking and said bluntly.

After hearing the Carefree Taoist's words, an excited look appeared on Wang Chongfeng's face.

"Good, good, that's great!!"

"Let's go, this is already the fifth level. Once we clear the sixth level, we should be able to choose to leave Mo Yuan," Zuo Tianyang said.

They had already reached this point. If they couldn't find Old Bureau Chief and the others on the sixth level either, then Old Bureau Chief and the others might have already left Mo Yuan.

Moreover.

After this time, they really needed to leave Mo Yuan first.

Whether it was Ye Zhenlong's or Wang Chongfeng's matter, they needed to deal with it.

Ye Zhenlong needed to accept the investigation, and Wang Chongfeng's words also needed to be verified.

Actually.

If what Wang Chongfeng said was true, then whether or not they went to the lower three levels of Mo Yuan wouldn't be that important.

After all, the original intention of their exploration of Mo Yuan was to materialize the game pod and resurrection coins.

Now that they had obtained the resurrection coins, Wang Chongfeng could replace the materialized game pod.

There was no longer much point in continuing to explore Mo Yuan.

But the only good news was that they hadn't spent much time here in Mo Yuan.

From entering Mo Yuan today until now, even including the time they were trapped in Aolong Village at the beginning, it had only been a little over a day.

"Can't open it!!"

Groundhog and Wang Chongfeng pushed the black-gray door, but the result was... they couldn't open it.

The previous doors actually had mechanisms as well.

But because of Black Demon, they directly forced the door open.

After all, the explosive power of nuclear power would not be a problem even if it directly blasted the door into pieces.

Missing Black Demon!!

Zuo Tianyang formed a hand seal, and a large number of tiny black ants crawled out of his body and surged towards the black door.

These black ants entered the back of the black-gray door through the door缝.

After about thirty seconds, Lin Tianhao heard a rumbling sound.

After the loud noise.

Zuo Tianyang stepped forward and successfully pushed open the heavy stone door.

The stone door was pushed open, and behind the stone door, a long corridor appeared.

This corridor was resplendent and magnificent, sloping downwards at a forty-five-degree angle.

The entire corridor had the style of an ancient Egyptian palace, with a bit of mystery.

Lin Tianhao and the others stepped into here, and at the end of this corridor was a magnificent palace gate.

The gate of this palace was open, but in front of the gate, there were two giant guards wearing golden armor and over ten meters tall.

These two giant guards held long spears and stood there motionless, looking like sculptures.

But everyone present could see that in this kind of place, two giant guards looked problematic no matter how you looked at them.

"I'll do it!"

Wang Chongfeng had two launchers in his hand, and two steel bullets flew out of the launchers, flying towards the two golden giant guards.

When the steel bullets were about to hit the two golden giant guards, the two golden giant guards moved as expected.

The two golden giant guards attacked almost simultaneously, blocking the steel bullets.

"Boom——"

Chapter 1202 - Adaptability and learning ability!

The grenade instantly exploded, sending countless tiny steel balls flying towards the two golden giant guards.

The blind swordsman held his sword with both hands, instantly slashing at the ankles of the golden giant guards.

Above.

The numerous tiny steel balls failed to even penetrate the golden giant guards' defenses.

The blind swordsman's longsword only left a tiny sword mark on the golden giant guards' golden war boots, without harming them in the slightest.

Lin Tianhao frowned. He also rushed forward, dragon flames erupting from his hands, flying towards the crotches of the golden giant guards.

As the saying goes, attack their weak points for twice the effect with half the effort!

The two golden giant guards were originally preparing to attack the blind swordsman, but upon seeing Lin Tianhao's sudden dragon flame attack, they immediately turned to defend their midsections.

However.

This was exactly the effect Lin Tianhao wanted, because he needed to buy time for Taoist Yexin.

Taoist Yexin leaped up from the side rear, thunder rumbling in his palms.

Two palm lightning strikes hit the heads of the two golden giant guards respectively.

The powerful thunder force shocked the two golden giant guards, causing them to tremble all over.

But they only trembled for a few seconds before the two golden giant guards adapted to the power of thunder, wielding their long spears and attacking Taoist Yexin.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed slightly. Was this the power of adaptation?

Because Taoist Yexin was still continuously outputting the power of thunder, but the impact on the two golden giant guards was becoming smaller and smaller.

"How can this be!"

Taoist Yexin's expression changed slightly. He also noticed that the two golden giant guards were gradually adapting to his power of thunder.

Lin Tianhao's dragon flames once again swept towards the golden giant guards.

If these two golden giant guards could adapt to Taoist Yexin's power of thunder, then could it be said that they could also adapt to his dragon flame attacks?

After all, both belonged to attribute attacks!

Facts proved.

Just as Lin Tianhao had expected, the two golden giant guards gradually adapted after the dragon flames attacked for less than five seconds.

The damage that the dragon flames could cause to them was rapidly decreasing.

Upon seeing this scene.

Lin Tianhao realized that these guys could probably only be dealt with using physical attacks.

At this time, the importance of Black Magician was highlighted.

Black Magician's physical attacks were definitely top-notch.

"Whoosh—"

A rocket flew out, but it was knocked away by the golden giant guard with his spear.

Although the rocket still exploded in mid-air, the damage it caused to the golden giant guard was minimal.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, and a hint of solemnity appeared on his face.

"Attack together."

Taoist Yexin also saw the power of these golden giant guards. The iron hammer he had obtained from the Gravity Blacksmith earlier fell into his hands.

"Besides thunder magic, this humble Taoist also knows a little about hammer techniques!!"

As soon as he finished speaking.

"Come on!!"

Taoist Yexin transformed into a stream of light, instantly colliding with a golden giant guard.

"Clang—"

A loud noise.

Taoist Yexin staggered back, and the golden giant guard's figure couldn't help but stagnate slightly.

Lin Tianhao was slightly surprised, because the size of these two golden giant guards determined that their strength would not be weak.

But Taoist Yexin was only slightly at a disadvantage, which was already very strong.

After all, the power that Taoist Yexin had shown before was more of the magic type.

Physical strength, this was the first time Lin Tianhao had seen it so directly.

"Clang clang clang—"

Taoist Yexin charged up again.

With each collision, the power of the iron hammer in his hand could increase by a few points.

"Overlapping Cloud Hammer Technique?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly. This Overlapping Cloud Hammer Technique was similar to what Taoist Yexin was showing now.

Its essence was to become more and more courageous in battle!

What Taoist Yexin was using should not be the Overlapping Cloud Hammer Technique, but another more brilliant hammer technique.

Its effect was more powerful and terrifying than the Overlapping Cloud Hammer Technique.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. A yin-yang fish pattern slowly appeared behind Taoist Yexin.

Two yin-yang fish, one black and one white, swam behind Taoist Yexin.

Yin is for borrowing strength, and yang is for striking strength.

Borrowing strength to strike strength, becoming more and more courageous in battle.

However.

The reaction of this golden giant guard who fought against Taoist Yexin next completely exceeded Lin Tianhao's expectations.

Between the waving of his spear, he was also borrowing strength to strike strength.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed slightly.

This is... on-site learning?

If this was the case, then these two golden giant guards were a bit too strong.

They could adapt to elemental attacks, and they could also learn other people's combat skills, and their own attributes were so strong. Under normal circumstances, who could beat them?

Just looking at it, Lin Tianhao couldn't help but feel a chill down his spine.

These two guys were too outrageous.

The blind swordsman and Zuo Tianyang joined forces at this time, surrounding the other golden giant guard.

The blind swordsman went from top to bottom, sword energy crisscrossing, frantically outputting.

He was looking for the golden giant guard's weakness.

Lin Tianhao was also looking for the weaknesses of these two golden giant guards.

Mainly.

The various abilities of these two golden giant guards were too comprehensive.

Taoist Yexin couldn't even deal with one golden giant guard.

If other people came, they would basically be giving away free kills.

But there shouldn't be such powerful beings here.

Thinking of this.

Lin Tianhao sensed something. His figure turned into an afterimage and rushed towards the palace in front.

These two golden giant guards were obviously guarding the gate of this palace.

Now the palace gate was open. What would happen if he could rush into the palace in front?

"Force your way in!!"

Lin Tianhao whispered, conveying his intentions to the others.

The two golden giant guards discovered that Lin Tianhao was going to force his way in, but they were temporarily held back and couldn't stop Lin Tianhao in time.

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to rush into the palace, a golden giant guard tried his best, and his spear pierced towards Lin Tianhao's back.

Under this situation.

If Lin Tianhao continued to rush forward, there would only be one result.

That was to have his body pierced by the golden giant guard's spear, directly getting a cool and refreshing feeling, with his heart soaring.

At the critical moment.

Lin Tianhao dodged the golden giant guard's spear attack to the limit, but he also lost the opportunity to rush into the palace.

Because the golden giant guard's spear swept across and directly forced Lin Tianhao back.

"It seems that we don't need to defeat these two golden giant guards, we just need to rush in."

Zuo Tianyang breathed a sigh of relief. The combat power shown by this golden giant guard just now really worried him.

He and the blind swordsman could only barely hold back one golden giant guard. This combat power was so strong that it was simply outrageous!!

Chapter 1203 - One-time summon card!

Especially that.

When Zuo Tianyang saw that even Taoist Yexin was fighting the golden giant guards to a draw, he was completely numb.

He knew Taoist Yexin very well, and to be able to push Taoist Yexin to this point, it could only be said that these golden giant guards were indeed terrifying.

Now that Lin Tianhao had found a solution, Zuo Tianyang breathed a sigh of relief.

The two golden giant guards also noticed Lin Tianhao's intention, and they stopped fighting and retreated, blocking the palace gate.

Judging from their appearance, they had one attitude: they would not allow Lin Tianhao and the others to enter.

"I'll do it."

Digging Rat flashed, and his body disappeared.

Digging skill!!

He wanted to go through the ground.

"Don't!!"

Lin Tianhao's expression changed drastically. He could feel that if Digging Rat went over like this, it would definitely be ominous.

But before Lin Tianhao could finish speaking, the golden giant guard on the left had already thrust out his spear like lightning.

"Clang—"

Taoist Yexin knew the golden giant guard's purpose, and instantly attacked, using the powerful impact of his hammer to knock away the spear.

But Taoist Yexin could only block the spear of one golden giant guard.

The golden giant guard on the right did not hesitate to attack after seeing Taoist Yexin make his move.

The spear was thrust towards the ground, but anyone with a brain would know that this guy's target was the Digging Rat underground.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath, his expression becoming extremely solemn.

Old Man Blind Sword also attacked.

“Clang clang—”

Both swords slashed at the spear at the same time, but the spear only vibrated slightly, without deviating from its direction, and continued to stab towards the ground.

“Clang—”

Old Man Blind Sword let out a low shout, slashing down with both swords at the same time.

This time.

He finally managed to deflect the spear slightly.

The golden giant guard on the left couldn't help but snort angrily at this scene, raising his right leg and stomping heavily on the ground.

“Boom—”

With a loud bang, the ground shook.

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but gasp, the powerful force sending the Digging Rat flying out from underground.

“Damn it, these two guys are ridiculously strong.”

Digging Rat staggered back, his insides churning, and his throat felt sweet as he spat out a mouthful of blood.

The golden giant guard on the left had injured Digging Rat with his strength alone.

But even so.

Lin Tianhao still felt a lot of pressure.

“Let’s go together, Digging Rat, we’ll hold them off, you find a chance to go in.” Taoist Yexin said solemnly.

In the current situation, they had to get someone into the palace first.

“Wang Chongfeng, don’t tell me you only have a few steel balls, let me see your real stuff!!”

Hearing this.

Wang Chongfeng smiled helplessly and said:

“Got it.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

Three cards appeared in Wang Chongfeng's hand.

These three cards flew into the air, and with a flash of light, a Prairie Wolf King, a Bloodthirsty Wild Boar King, and a Blood Tyrant Bear King appeared at the same time.

“I’ve really shown all my cards this time. All of the disposable summon cards are bronze-level summon beasts. They should be able to barely hold off these two golden giant guards.”

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

Disposable summon cards are relatively rare in Twilight of the Gods.

Generally, you can only get this kind of thing by clearing some special dungeons or doing quests.

Ordinary adventurers usually don't have much to do with this kind of thing.

Moreover.

The monsters summoned by this kind of disposable summon card are generally not too strong.

Bronze level is already considered good.

The three bronze-level BOSS roared and rushed towards the two golden giant guards.

“Charge!!”

Although these three bronze-level BOSS looked imposing, everyone present could feel it.

These guys shouldn't be that strong.

At least.

Judging from their aura, there was a relatively obvious gap between them and the golden giant guards.

Therefore...

They had to seize this fleeting opportunity, otherwise they would really have no chance to pass.

However.

This Wang Chongfeng is really an actor, he actually hid such good things and didn't take them out.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but smile self-deprecatingly.

He should have thought of it long ago.

That giant woman was so strong, and Wang Chongfeng was the only one facing that giant woman.

The fact that he was able to solve that giant woman and come out was already worth pondering.

Obviously.

He didn't pay attention to this question, but Taoist Yexin did.

Moreover.

Lin Tianhao now believed even more in Wang Chongfeng's claim that he could manifest things from Twilight of the Gods.

Because the three disposable summon cards that Wang Chongfeng was using now were clearly not products of Moyuan.

The production of disposable summon cards is likely related to the dungeon itself.

It is rare to say.

If the dungeon is an underwater dungeon, the disposable summon cards rewarded would all be land-based.

This Moyuan belongs to the underwater dungeon, and theoretically, there shouldn't be so many land-based disposable summon cards.

So where did Wang Chongming get these disposable summon cards?

Could it be that he also discovered another offline dungeon?

Lin Tianhao's thoughts flashed by, and at this time, Lin Tianhao had already rushed to the entrance of the palace.

The method of the three bronze-level BOSS desperately holding off the two golden giant guards was very effective.

But here comes the problem.

Not everyone can get through.

Wang Chongfeng was blocked.

Taoist Yexin, Lin Tianhao, and Zuo Tianyang were all strong enough to withstand it.

Although Digging Rat's personal strength was not too strong, he had the awesome means of Digging Rat after all.

He couldn't break through on his own before, but in this situation, it wouldn't be a big problem for Digging Rat to kill his way through.

However.

Wang Chongfeng was in trouble, his own strength was not enough, and he relied entirely on the things he manifested from Twilight of the Gods.

This was not enough.

At this moment.

Taoist Yexin attacked.

A golden whip flew out, wrapped around Wang Chongfeng's waist, and dragged Wang Chongfeng in.

No matter what.

They were able to enter this palace, and Wang Chongfeng's three bronze-level BOSS all made great contributions.

Although they were disposable summons and their existence time was limited, Wang Chongfeng's contribution could not be ignored.

When Wang Chongfeng entered the palace, everyone else came in.

“Roar—”

Seeing that Lin Tianhao and the others had all rushed into the palace, the two golden giant guards roared, and their combat power seemed to have soared in an instant, easily solving the three bronze-level summons.

“Not good.” Lin Tianhao's expression changed slightly.

Chapter 1204 - Wang Chongfeng's defense is broken!

Originally, Lin Tianhao thought that these two golden giant guards wouldn't chase into the palace.

But looking at the current situation, he was oversimplifying things; it seemed they would chase in.

“Run!!”

Zuo Tianyang shouted and turned to run.

However,

after running only a few steps,

Lin Tianhao discovered that the two golden giant guards didn't seem to be chasing in.

They were indeed very angry, but they were just raging impotently outside the palace.

“They can't come in, don't run anymore,” Lin Tianhao said.

This was also their first time in this palace; it was magnificent and extremely luxurious, but whether it was always like this was hard to say.

Everyone stopped.

In this unknown situation, running for their lives could be extremely fatal if new dangers emerged.

“Roar roar roar— —”

The two golden giant guards roared continuously, but they never intended to come in.

Wang Chongfeng couldn't help but raise a middle finger.

“Damn it, you son of a bitch, I knew you couldn't come in, otherwise my three bronze-level disposable summon cards would have been wasted.”

These disposable summon cards were generally useless in the current Twilight of the Gods stage.

But in reality, such disposable summon cards could be used as divine artifacts.

With these disposable summon cards, they could kill gods and Buddhas alike.

In the end, three cards, a full three cards, were wasted here.

“They can't come in, let's check the situation here first,” Daoist Ambition said in a deep voice.

On the throne was a sword, and tied to the hilt of the sword was a rope, and tied to the rope were revival coins.

“Eleven...”

“Twelve...”

“Thirteen...”

... ..

“Seventeen!!”

“A full seventeen revival coins!!!”

Wang Chongfeng could barely contain his excitement; he wanted to rush up and grab the revival coins.

But reason told him that he couldn't do that.

Before, in Aolong Village, just one revival coin had created a nested trap for them.

He was really afraid that if he rushed over, before he even got close to the revival coins, he would enter another nested trap.

“Hold hands, let's go together, Bureau Chief Zuo, use marching ants to explore the way.”

“Okay!”

Zuo Tianyang released his marching ants, and the marching ants rushed towards the throne ahead.

As expected, without any suspense, the marching ants disappeared when they approached the throne.

As expected!

But everyone still looked at each other.

“It's not a big problem, we were able to resolve the nested trap by walking separately before, now that we are working together, even if it's a nested trap, it's just a piece of cake.”

Zuo Tianyang comforted.

Lin Tianhao also felt that there was nothing to worry about.

So many revival coins, they couldn't just not take them!

Even if there was danger, Lin Tianhao felt that he should be able to handle it.

After all, there were so many people, they had withstood the golden giant guards, could they encounter something even more perverted than them?

Thinking like this,

Lin Tianhao became calm.

Lin Tianhao, Daoist Ambition, Zuo Tianyang and others all held hands, forming a line, and walked forward.

When everyone reached the place where the marching ants had disappeared, they all stopped at the same time.

“Improvise.”

“Okay.”

Everyone stepped into it together.

The next moment,

the surrounding scene underwent earth-shattering changes.

Then,

everyone was dumbfounded.

“Roar roar roar—”

The roars of the two golden giant guards came.

“Fuck, you mother!”

Seeing this scene, Wang Chongfeng cursed on the spot.

Lin Tianhao could only say that the cursing was very vulgar.

But it didn't seem to be of any use.

Because the two golden giant guards had already noticed them.

The two golden giant guards didn't take action; they guarded the gate tightly, obviously worried that Lin Tianhao and others would rush into the palace again.

“It's a pain in the ass, the person who designed this level must have had their whole family die, otherwise they wouldn't have such a novel idea.”

Wang Chongfeng's emotions calmed down slightly, but he was still cursing.

He used three bronze-level disposable summon cards to allow everyone to enter the palace ahead.

And then?

In the end, they came out as soon as they went in.

"Wait, Bureau Chief Zuo..."

"Your marching ants appeared outside the palace, can't you sense it?"

Zuo Tianyang smiled awkwardly and said:

"You might not believe it if I say it, but at such a close distance, I really didn't sense it."

Daoist Ambition nodded and said seriously:

"That's right, there is a strong suppression of our perception here."

"After we entered the palace, this suppression became even stranger; we couldn't perceive anything outside the palace."

Old Man Blind Sword took a deep breath and said seriously:

"Now is not the time to talk about these things; we should study how we should fight these two golden giant guards?"

“Judging from the previous exchanges, the strength of these two golden giant guards is completely above us.”

“Fighting head-on is not wise; if we don't fight head-on, we can only force our way in, but forcing our way in is useless, because we will still be teleported out.”

Lin Tianhao thought slightly and said seriously:

“Based on the current situation, there are probably two possibilities.”

“The first is that these golden giant guards have weaknesses, or rather, relatively fatal weaknesses.”

“It's just that we haven't found them yet; in theory, these two golden giant guards can be easily dealt with.”

Having said that,

Lin Tianhao paused slightly before continuing:

“The second.”

“Is that in the palace ahead, there is something that can restrain these two golden giant guards.”

Wang Chongfeng took a deep breath and said:

“Saying so much, isn't it still a matter of having no choice?”

“We must fight, and we must enter.”

Lin Tianhao slowly got up, stretched his muscles and bones, and said:

“Ambition, you block one, and I'll use the other one to test him and see if I can find the weakness on his body.”

Daoist Ambition wasn't surprised; Lin Tianhao had obtained the Dragon Clan inheritance before, and his strength had been greatly improved.

However, Daoist Ambition saw Lin Tianhao's strength, but he didn't say it.

Now that Lin Tianhao wanted to show it, he also wanted to see how strong Lin Tianhao, who had obtained the Dragon Clan inheritance, really was!!

After all,

the strength of the Dragon Clan has never been just that Dragon Flame!!

Whether it's supernatural powers, secret techniques, or physical strength, they are not something ordinary people can contend with.

“Go.”

Daoist Ambition took the lead and rushed up.

Lin Tianhao followed closely behind, rushing towards the golden giant guard on the right.

In that instant, Lin Tianhao's arms transformed into dragon claws.

Chapter 1205 - The gatekeeper's spear!

In the next instant.

Lin Tianhao's body disappeared directly from the spot, and a sonic boom was even heard in the air.

“This...”

“I heard that you need to move faster than the speed of sound to have this kind of sonic boom.”

Wang Chongfeng widened his eyes, his face full of disbelief.

“Xue Di is already so fierce in the Snowfall game, and he's still so fierce in reality. Could it be that he, like me, can manifest things from the Twilight of the Gods in advance?”

Zuo Tianyang looked serious. He wasn't too surprised. After all, he saw that Lin Tianhao possessed the bloodline of the Dragon race, so he wanted to quietly help Lin Tianhao awaken his Dragon race bloodline.

“According to research, the Twilight of the Gods is a real game. The talents in the Twilight of the Gods are a true reflection of the adventurer's own real life.”

Having said that.

Zuo Tianyang paused slightly.

“According to the data we obtained from the military, most of their talents are traceable.”

“Xue Di's talent in the Twilight of the Gods is at least double God-tier, so his bloodline in reality should be extremely terrifying.”

Hearing what Zuo Tianyang said, Wang Chongfeng didn't say anything more.

Because the battle had already begun.

The Taoist Priest of Ambition, holding a large iron hammer, fought back and forth with the golden giant guard on the left.

At this time, Lin Tianhao's hands transformed into dragon claws, and each attack could leave hideous scars on the armor of the golden giant guard.

But it only damaged the armor of the golden giant guard and could not harm the foundation of the golden giant guard.

After trying a circle, Lin Tianhao began to attack at a fixed point.

Each of his attacks landed on the abdomen of the golden giant guard.

Soon.

A gap was punched out in the abdomen of the golden giant guard by Lin Tianhao.

Finally.

Lin Tianhao saw the flesh and blood on the golden giant guard's armor.

It was flesh and blood like a sarcoma. Lin Tianhao rushed over again at supersonic speed, and his dragon claws directly tore the sarcoma.

“Puchi—”

Not big.

But the foul-smelling filth began to flow wildly.

With just such a small wound, the golden giant guard fell to the ground, wailing constantly.

"I see."

A smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

"These two golden giant guards are indeed very strong, but the flesh and blood under their armor is extremely fragile. As long as they are slightly injured, it is fatal."

After figuring this out.

Lin Tianhao's body turned into a shadow and instantly came to the front of the golden giant guard on the left.

Following the method just now, Lin Tianhao did not spend much effort to successfully defeat the golden giant guard on the left.

Two bursts of enlightenment poured in, and Lin Tianhao's strength was improved again.

The range that his Mechanical Overlord could control finally broke through 20,000 meters at this time.

Except for the first time he obtained the Dragon race inheritance, Lin Tianhao had a huge increase.

The further he went, the more difficult it became for Lin Tianhao to increase the range of his Mechanical Overlord.

20,000 meters, this is already very good!!

The two golden giant guards crashed down, and fine beads of sweat appeared on Lin Tianhao's forehead.

If it weren't for the two bursts of enlightenment that had just poured in, he would probably have had to find a place to lie down.

Maintaining the supersonic speed and the dragon claw form with both hands at high intensity consumed a lot of Lin Tianhao's energy.

“Senior Ambition, you can touch the corpse.” Lin Tianhao said.

Lin Tianhao no longer had any hope for his luck.

Although the weaknesses of these two golden giant guards were obvious.

Undoubtedly, their combat power was also very strong.

Not to mention anything else.

At least the Taoist Priest of Ambition should find it difficult to do this.

After all, after his hands transformed into dragon claws, those dragon claws could be said to be indestructible.

The golden armor that the Old Man with the Blind Sword could only leave a little bit of damage on, Lin Tianhao could easily tear apart.

The Taoist Priest of Ambition nodded and directly stepped forward to touch the corpse.

When the corpse was touched, there was a silver spear and a golden cloak.

Both were equipment.

“This spear should be more powerful than the harpoon you use.”

The Taoist Priest of Ambition directly threw the spear to Lin Tianhao.

“The stats of this cloak are not bad, you can take a look.”

Saying that.

The Taoist Priest of Ambition also handed the cloak to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao checked the two pieces of equipment.

Gatekeeper's Spear: Silver.

Requirements: Warrior, Jobless.

Effect 1: Attack Power + 92153.

Effect 2: Health Points + 10 million.

Effect 3: Evasion + 2%.

Effect 4: When you use a spear to block an enemy's attack, the spear will dissipate a certain amount of impact.

Effect 5: When you kill a lifeform with this spear, there is a very low chance of dropping a resurrection coin.

Durability: 100.

When Lin Tianhao saw the first four effects of this Gatekeeper's Spear.

He didn't feel anything.

As a silver weapon, the first four effects were normal.

But the fifth effect, was that an effect that a silver weapon could have?

Not kidding.

With just the fifth effect, this [Gatekeeper's Spear] could be considered a slightly trashy artifact!!

Now this [Gatekeeper's Spear] is not very helpful to Lin Tianhao.

After all, with Lin Tianhao's luck, the probability of dropping a resurrection coin using this [Gatekeeper's Spear] is very low.

But what if.

After the Twilight of the Gods merges with reality, he gives this equipment to his younger sister Lin Qingqing?

What would be the result if his younger sister, with her heaven-defying luck, had this [Gatekeeper's Spear] in her hand?

It's terrifying to think about.

Especially.

After the Twilight of the Gods merges with reality, resurrection coins are the most top-notch hard currency.

It's no exaggeration to say that one resurrection coin can be exchanged for a set of Ninth Revolution high-grade equipment.

A few more, and you can even exchange for an artifact!!

After all.

After the Twilight of the Gods merges with reality, no one can guarantee that they won't die.

At this time.

Resurrection coins are very necessary.

But it's also laughable.

In the previous life, a large number of resurrection coins were controlled by a very small number of people, leading to the fall of some obviously strong people who did not have resurrection coins to revive them.

And those who held a large number of resurrection coins lived in the safest secret realms and rarely came out to participate in battles.

Some people even used resurrection coins as a certificate of allegiance to please the A'lait Star System, just to be able to join the A'lait Star System!!

If it weren't for these people.

Blue Star would have developed in the Twilight of the Gods for five years, not to say that it could completely compete with the A'lait Star System, but at least it wouldn't be beaten without any ability to fight back as soon as it came.

Returning to his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao directly put away this [Gatekeeper's Spear].

"It's too wasteful for me to use it. I know who I should give it to."

Chapter 1206 - Bone-dissolving palm!

Lin Tianhao's words had barely faded.

Zuo Tianyang and Taoist Yexin seemed to sense something, both turning towards the fallen golden giant guard.

Lin Tianhao followed their gaze.

They saw two illusory golden giant guards rising from within the massive body of the fallen golden giant guard!

"This is... their souls!!"

Wang Chongfeng exclaimed in shock.

"It can't be this absurd, can it? Even with their bodies destroyed, their souls still rise to block us!!"

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes; this wasn't uncommon in most high-level dungeons.

Generally speaking.

The characteristics of physical monsters and soul monsters are different.

“Senior Yexin, use Palm Thunder!” Lin Tianhao reminded.

Physical monsters can adapt to elemental attacks, but soul monsters might not be able to.

Especially lightning magic, which is particularly effective against souls, would have a more pronounced effect.

“Boom boom—”

Two Palm Thunder blasts erupted from Taoist Yexin's palms.

The lightning struck the souls of the two golden giant guards.

As Lin Tianhao predicted, the souls of both golden giant guards dimmed slightly.

Seeing this, Taoist Yexin increased the output of lightning.

Each enlightenment could provide them with significant recovery.

Otherwise, even Taoist Yexin wouldn't be able to withstand such intense combat.

As the lightning surged, the souls of the two golden giant guards became increasingly illusory, eventually dissipating completely.

Two more enlightenments surged forth; this time, the souls of the golden giant guards were purely there to provide experience points.

The person who designed this level probably worried about encountering someone like the Black Demon, whose physique was unreasonably strong.

If they broke the bodies of the two golden giant guards right away, the level would be meaningless.

The golden giant guards were meant to block mages, while the souls were meant to block physical powerhouses.

It was just a pity.

That they didn't appear simultaneously, so their effectiveness was limited.

“Taoist Yexin, you should loot the corpses.” Lin Tianhao said.

As he spoke.

Lin Tianhao took out the cloak he had obtained earlier.

Equip Requirement: None.

Effect 1: Movement Speed +8.

Effect 2: Attack Speed +3.

Effect 3: Tenacity +10%.

Effect 4: Your underwater movement speed +50%.

Effect 5: When you use the Gatekeeper's Spear to kill a lifeform, there is a very low chance of dropping a revival coin.

Durability: 100.

This [Gatekeeper's Cloak] was also just a silver piece of equipment.

But like the [Gatekeeper's Spear], it had a very low chance of dropping revival coins.

Judging from this.

Shouldn't there be other Gatekeeper equipment?

And all of them have a very low chance of dropping revival coins?

If a complete set of Gatekeeper equipment had this effect.

Could he farm this set of equipment, equip it on his sister, and then slaughter monsters to drop revival coins in large quantities?

With just a little thought.

Lin Tianhao knew that his idea had a very, very high probability of success.

“Senior Yexin, what did you get from looting the corpses? Are there any of the stats from the previous two pieces of equipment?” Lin Tianhao asked.

Taoist Yexin smiled slightly, obviously knowing what stats Lin Tianhao wanted.

“They're all yours.”

Taoist Yexin tossed the two pieces of equipment he had just obtained to Lin Tianhao.

One piece of equipment was a pair of shoulder pads, and the other was a pair of boots.

Lin Tianhao briefly examined the effects of these two pieces of equipment.

Silver equipment; the first four effects weren't worth paying attention to, just regular silver equipment stats.

The values were slightly higher, probably because of the equipment's level.

The equipment level couldn't be seen, so the values alone didn't reveal much.

After all.

The stat effects of level fifty silver equipment and level five hundred silver equipment were vastly different.

However.

The fifth effect of both pieces of equipment was that there was a very low chance of dropping revival coins.

Of course.

The prerequisite was the same.

That is, only creatures killed with the Gatekeeper's Spear had a very low chance of dropping revival coins.

One piece of equipment is very low, what about four pieces of equipment?

What about a set?

What about set effects?

Just thinking about it, Lin Tianhao had the idea of farming a complete set of Gatekeeper equipment.

What would it be like to have a complete set of Gatekeeper equipment?

“Let's go, seventeen revival coins.” Lin Tianhao smiled.

There were still a full seventeen revival coins on the throne in this palace.

But just as Lin Tianhao and the others entered the palace.

A bald young man had already reached the throne directly in front of the palace.

“Hehe, thank you.”

The guy grinned, grabbed the sword, and ran away.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed; they had finally solved the golden giant guards, and this guy actually wanted to steal his victory, which was simply intolerable.

“咻——”

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and a flame throwing knife was released.

This was another way to control Dragon Flame.

Condensing Dragon Flame into a weapon for combat was equally powerful.

The bald young man sensed Lin Tianhao's attack, let out a strange cry, and actually turned around to rush towards Lin Tianhao's Dragon Flame throwing knife.

But Lin Tianhao knew with just one glance that this bald young man rushing back wasn't the real body, but an avatar.

“Moving earth on the head of Tai Sui, you probably don't know how to write the word 'death'!!”

The moment Lin Tianhao made his move, Taoist Yexin also made his move.

His whole body was enveloped in lightning, and his speed was like lightning, instantly blocking the bald young man's path.

The bald young man was slightly startled, but facing Yexin, who suddenly blocked his way, he wasn't afraid.

Instead, he raised his hand and slapped towards Taoist Yexin.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes; this guy was a bit strange.

Normally, seeing Taoist Yexin appear so abruptly, one would dodge.

But he wasn't afraid at all and directly attacked.

Taoist Yexin snorted coldly, “Bone-Melting Palm?”

The moment the words fell.

Taoist Yexin also slapped out a palm.

Both were bold and skillful, attacking simultaneously without giving way.

“嘭——”

The palms of the two collided, and a powerful shockwave swept in all directions.

The bald young man flew straight out, spitting out a mouthful of blood in the air.

“Using the Bone-Melting Palm in front of me, aren't you looking down on me a bit.”

Taoist Yexin smiled contemptuously, looking at the bald young man who had been knocked away, and asked:

“Who taught you the Bone-Melting Palm?”

The bald young man coughed up a mouthful of blood and questioned coldly:

“I should be asking you that, how do you know the Bone-Melting Palm and have cultivated it to this level!!”

Chapter 1207 - Ouyang Songxue!

"How could I know the Bone-Melting Palm?"

Even Daoist Wild Ambition couldn't help but wonder.

"The true Bone-Melting Palm was lost over two hundred years ago. Later, my master researched and created his own Bone-Melting Palm after slaughtering a thousand people."

"In this world, I should be the only one who knows the Bone-Melting Palm now."

Hearing this.

The bald youth angrily said:

"Bullshit, I am the orthodox successor of the Bone-Melting Palm. Who told you the Bone-Melting Palm was lost over two hundred years ago?"

"Orthodox your ass!!"

Daoist Wild Ambition directly cursed.

"The Bone-Melting Palm created by my master is different from the true Bone-Melting Palm."

"The Bone-Melting Palm you just used was created by my master, so shut your mouth!!"

Lin Tianhao facepalmed.

Daoist Wild Ambition's temper was truly top-notch.

When he started scolding someone, he didn't hold back at all.

The bald youth coldly snorted, "You speak so confidently, but who knows if what you're saying is true or false."

"I'll give you the resurrection coins, can you let me go?"

The bald youth looked at Lin Tianhao and angrily said:

"Then what do you want? Don't tell me you want to kill me?"

"You are all from the 749 Bureau, affiliated with the government. I just robbed some things. Even according to the laws of the Dragon Kingdom, the most I'll get is a fine and a few days in jail."

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

"You've hit the nail on the head."

"Robbing is subject to a fine, usually based on the value of the stolen goods."

"You robbed seventeen resurrection coins and a precious sword. I'll be merciful and reduce the fine a little."

"I'll fine you... ten resurrection coins!!"

"What?!!"

The bald youth immediately wanted to burst into curses.

He really wanted to say, why don't you just rob me instead!!

Ten resurrection coins!!

Selling him wouldn't be worth ten resurrection coins!!

No.

He's so strong, he should be worth a lot.

"You're asking for the moon!!"

The bald youth angrily said:

"Ten? Are you crazy for resurrection coins? Do you really think resurrection coins are as cheap as cabbage? Just saying whatever comes to mind."

Lin Tianhao spread his hands and said:

"You said you wanted a fine, and I'm agreeing with you. And is ten a lot? Not at all!"

"What do you call this? Blaming me for fining you too much because you're poor."

"That's right, if you weren't poor, you wouldn't be doing this kind of robbery."

"You—"

The bald youth was so angry.

"Since you don't have resurrection coins to pay the fine, then I won't say anything more."

"Then you'll stay here and work to pay off the debt. Senior Wild Ambition, plant a curse seal on him. If he doesn't listen, just kill him!!"

Lin Tianhao didn't care about the bald youth's darkened face. With every word, he clearly arranged everything for the bald youth.

"You brat, don't push your luck too far!!"

"Slap—"

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and slapped the bald youth in the face.

"You dare to say I'm pushing my luck when you're robbing people? I think I'm being too gentle with you, not hurting you enough."

The bald youth's breathing quickened, and he said through gritted teeth:

"You brat, you're insulting me too much. I challenge you to a duel, do you dare!!"

"Slap—"

Lin Tianhao slapped the bald youth in the face again.

"Are you stupid or am I stupid? We have more people, why should we duel you?"

"Or, you duel all of us alone, do you dare? If you don't dare, you're a coward, and you shouldn't say anything!!"

"You—" The bald youth was so angry that his breathing became rapid.

He had never imagined that there would be such a shameless person.

Simply... simply too shameless.

"What you, you, looking at your cowardly appearance, how dare you rob us when you don't even dare to single-handedly challenge all of us."

"I'll give you a number, ten resurrection coins, or sell your life to us for ten years, choose one."

At this point.

Without waiting for the bald youth to choose, Lin Tianhao said:

"I almost forgot, you coward is also a poor wretch, you don't have ten resurrection coins, so sell your life to us for ten years!!"

Everyone present looked at each other.

Lin Tianhao was... not being reasonable at all.

Opening his mouth and demanding the other party to be a coolie for ten years.

"Senior Wild Ambition, apply the curse seal, it's settled then."

Bald Youth: "? ? ?"

No!!

I haven't said anything yet, and I have to be a coolie for ten years, are you kidding me.

"By the way, let me remind you, we are conducting a fair and just law enforcement, if you resist law enforcement, we can execute you on the spot!!"

As soon as the words fell.

Lin Tianhao already had a Gatling gun in his hand.

The Gatling gun's muzzle was aimed at the bald youth's forehead. As long as the bald youth dared to move, he would dare to use the Gatling gun to blow up the other party's head.

Daoist Wild Ambition didn't waste any words and directly cast the curse seal.

The curse seal enveloped the other party and soon planted the curse seal on the bald youth.

"Now, just obediently listen. If you don't listen, don't cooperate, then I'm sorry, you'll either wish you were dead, or your soul will be scattered!!"

The bald youth wanted to cry but had no tears.

He had been lying low for so long, and finally encountered someone who solved the golden giant guard.

But he didn't expect that he not only didn't get the resurrection coins, but also put himself in it.

"What's your name, why did you come here?" Lin Tianhao asked directly.

The bald youth hesitated for a moment, but still said:

"My name is Ouyang Songxue, I was hired to come here, and then, I discovered that there were resurrection coins here, so I left the team and acted alone."

"I know what you want to ask, the person who hired me came from the western part of the Dragon Kingdom, from a Western sect. That person is very strong, and I only found an opportunity to leave."

Hearing this.

Daoist Wild Ambition was a little puzzled, "You're already here, then where are they?"

"I don't know."

Ouyang Songxue shook his head, "They disappeared as if they had evaporated from the world, disappearing inexplicably."

"But."

"The leader of that major sect said that this Mo Yuan should be a multi-directional copy. Everyone may take a different path."

"A variable every three floors, a square every variable."

"That is to say, from the upper three floors to the middle three floors, there are actually nine passages, and the nine passages will evolve into twenty-seven different middle three floors."

"Each floor has nine spaces, and the nine spaces are connected, but it is not easy to reach them. Under normal circumstances, they will be led to the lower floors."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly.

What Ouyang Songxue said was still a bit complicated.

But Lin Tianhao was still able to understand it. Multi-path copies are relatively rare, but they are not non-existent.

"That major sect expert can know so much?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Ouyang Songxue spread his hands and said helplessly:

"I'm not too sure about the specifics, but I guess it should be related to the scepter in his hand. I can see that the scepter in his hand is made of people."

Chapter 1208 - The Sword of the Lone King!

When Ambition Taoist and Zuo Tianyang and the others from the 749 Bureau heard this, they both remained calm.

They knew some secrets about the Western Great Sect.

Things are better now.

Especially before the Dragon Kingdom completely controlled that land, human lives there were worth less than livestock.

This may sound exaggerated, but it's the truth.

Even though that Western Great Sect outwardly promoted a very good image.

Preaching salvation and universal deliverance!

But in reality, many of their secrets, once known, would inspire fear.

Even.

Some people once called that Great Sect's holy land a gateway to hell!

Although this is an exaggeration, it shows how bad it was.

Lin Tianhao, having lived two lives, looked a little strange when he heard this.

He naturally knew some of the things that Great Sect had done.

Even now, one cannot easily talk about the issues of that Great Sect.

If millions of people believe, then it is a true god of salvation!

Although that Great Sect has its bad points, its strengths cannot be ignored.

Just like what Ouyang Songxue just said, the foundation of this Great Sect is extremely strong.

You can point out its flaws, but you cannot deny its power!

"Aren't you afraid that they will come after you when you get out of here? After all, with their power, it's easy to deal with you," Lin Tianhao said.

Ouyang Songxue chuckled and said:

"I may be afraid in my heart, but I have to be bold. With great courage comes great achievement. I was also afraid when I robbed you of your resurrection coins, but does that mean I shouldn't do things because I'm afraid?"

"I still have to do it. What if I succeed? That's seventeen resurrection coins."

"The key is that these seventeen resurrection coins are only worthy of this sword, so how extraordinary must this sword be."

Lin Tianhao chuckled and said calmly:

"Your idea is good, successfully turning yourself into a coolie."

At this point.

Lin Tianhao changed the subject and continued to ask:

"Were you hiding in this palace before?"

"No."

"It was that person, the Ambition Senior you mentioned, who snuck in when he was about to deal with the souls of those two golden giant guards."

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. With so many of them, Ouyang Songxue was actually able to sneak in under their noses.

"Don't be surprised. This is also the work of that Great Sect expert. The thing he gave me can temporarily become invisible and hide my aura."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile, "No wonder it's a Great Sect, the foundation is really extraordinary."

Ambition Taoist stared at Ouyang Songxue and asked:

"You haven't told me yet, where did you learn your Bone Melting Palm from?"

"My grandfather passed it on to my father, and my father passed it on to me. Is there a problem if I say it's a family heirloom?"

"My grandfather is ninety years old. How old is your master, fifty? Sixty?"

Hearing Ouyang Songxue's words, the expressions of the others present were a little strange.

After all, Ambition Taoist is already in his nineties, and his master is even more like a god.

Anyone who knows a little about Ambition Taoist would not say such a thing.

A strange smile appeared on Ambition Taoist's face. He already had some guesses in his mind.

His master created the Bone Melting Palm on the battlefield.

And calculating the time, there was a possibility that his master and Ouyang Songxue's grandfather met on the battlefield.

His master created the Bone Melting Palm and taught it to the young people around him. This was not impossible.

Although his master didn't say it, he never held back.

If he encountered someone suitable for learning the Bone Melting Palm, he would pass it on without considering them as disciples. The probability of this was very high.

"Alright, I know,"

Ambition Taoist didn't say much, "You follow us, don't cause trouble. I don't want to kill you, but that doesn't mean I won't kill you!"

Hearing this.

Ouyang Songxue instantly gained confidence.

"I knew that our family's Bone Melting Palm was the orthodox one. Now that you've discovered the orthodox one, aren't you embarrassed?"

"But seeing that you also know the Bone Melting Palm, you should have some connection with our family."

"Alright."

Zuo Tianyang chuckled aside:

"Senior Ambition is older than your grandfather, and his master is even more like a god."

"Calculating the time, Senior Ambition's master should have taught the Bone Melting Palm to your grandfather on the battlefield."

Hearing Zuo Tianyang's words.

Ouyang Songxue stood there dumbfounded.

"How is that possible?!"

"He looks about the same age as me. Are you telling me he's older than my grandfather?"

Zuo Tianyang said very seriously:

"Whether you believe it or not, that's how it is. Otherwise, why do you think we all call him Senior?"

"His strength is one aspect, but his seniority is the key."

At this point.

Zuo Tianyang changed the subject and asked:

"Since you know that we are from the 749 Bureau, don't you know about him?"

"Didn't the Great Sect expert who brought you in tell you the precautions?"

Ouyang Songxue said seriously:

"He told me. He said that the blind cripple cannot be provoked, the six-fingered green-eyed person cannot be provoked, and the two who play with thunder and hold seals are the most untouchable."

"I saw that he should be the blind one. I didn't see a cripple among you, and I didn't see six fingers, but your left eye is green, so you must be the one he was talking about."

Zuo Tianyang nodded and smiled:

"What you said is not bad, but you know that the green-eyed person cannot be provoked, and I call him Senior. Guess who he is?"

"No need to guess, I saw it from the beginning."

Ouyang Songxue said helplessly:

"Controlling thunder may not necessarily be cultivated. What if it's a mutation?"

"Isn't there a saying? Rich people rely on technology, poor people rely on mutation!"

Drill Rat couldn't help but give Ouyang Songxue a thumbs up and said:

"You are bold. Knowing that there are three people here that you can't provoke, you still dare to rob us of our things."

"Alright."

Ambition Taoist waved his hand, "Let's go."

After speaking.

Ambition Taoist picked up the sword on the ground and checked its attributes.

After reading the sword's attributes, Ambition Taoist couldn't help but frown.

"What's wrong?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Ambition Taoist handed the sword to Lin Tianhao, "Take a look, this sword is evil."

Lin Tianhao took the sword and checked its attributes.

Lonely King Sword: Special.

Wearing Requirements: None.

Effect: Sacrifice to the heavens with the same race, and your magic power will be boundless. Every time you kill a member of your own race, your basic attributes will be slightly improved. The more of your own race you kill, the stronger you become, and the greater the improvement.

Kill all of your own race, and I will be the Lonely King!!

Kill all of your own race, and I will be invincible in the world!!

Wear Resistance: Indestructible.

Lin Tianhao's expression was a little strange. No wonder Ambition Taoist said this Lonely King Sword was evil!!

Chapter 1209 - Lord Dragon and Tiger!

Undeniably, this Lonely King Sword is truly strange!!

Kill all my kin, and I become the Lonely King?

Kill all my kin, and I become invincible?

Wait!

Lin Tianhao suddenly thought of a question.

Previously, Zheng Gumei had said that the people of Aolong Village had abducted many women, only to have them bear children.

But all the children born were thrown into the ancient well.

Could this be related to the Lonely King Sword?

Someone in Aolong Village obtained the Lonely King Sword and killed their kin to improve themselves!!

If that's the case...

Then, could the destruction of Aolong Village also be related to this Lonely King Sword?

The person who possessed this Lonely King Sword ultimately lost control and killed everyone in Aolong Village to improve themselves.

Then.

After killing the villagers of Aolong Village, due to Mo Yuan's influence, they discovered some uncontrollable changes.

The villagers of Aolong Village became guardians of Mo Yuan, and the person who possessed the Lonely King Sword disappeared, leaving the Lonely King Sword here.

This conjecture is likely to be true.

"Wang Chongfeng, do you recognize this thing?"

Lin Tianhao looked at Wang Chongfeng.

Wang Chongfeng was stunned for a moment and subconsciously asked:

"This thing, could it be related to our Aolong Village?"

"You guessed it, it should be related."

Lin Tianhao said.

Wang Chongfeng shook his head and replied very seriously:

"Then I might have to disappoint you, I don't recognize this thing."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. If Wang Chongfeng hadn't lied before, the probability of him recognizing this Lonely King Sword was indeed very low.

Moreover.

Regarding the Lonely King Sword, Lin Tianhao was just guessing.

"Senior Yexin, you should keep this thing."

The Lonely King Sword was too strange, although Lin Tianhao wanted to keep it by his side.

But Lin Tianhao knew his own nature.

If he encountered some people who deserved to die, he would most likely use the Lonely King Sword.

But once you start killing people with the Lonely King Sword, it becomes addictive.

Just imagine.

You hold the Lonely King Sword, and you only need to thrust out one sword to kill a member of your clan, and you can become stronger.

What would you do?

People with weak minds, getting this thing, is definitely not a good thing.

It's easy to be led astray by this Lonely King Sword, lightly becoming demonized, and heavily being controlled by the Lonely King Sword, becoming a monster who only knows how to kill is possible.

Daoist Yexin was a little surprised.

After all, anyone who knows a little about the Snow Emperor in the Twilight of the Gods knows that greed is synonymous with the Snow Emperor.

This Lonely King Sword is a divine weapon!!

But Lin Tianhao gave the Lonely King Sword to him so easily. Could it be that Lin Tianhao's age can also see the problem with this Lonely King Sword?

"Senior Yexin, even if it's you, if you can avoid using this Lonely King Sword, it's better not to use it."

Lin Tianhao reminded very seriously.

Although Daoist Yexin's character is trustworthy, the effect of this Lonely King Sword is really not something that just anyone can withstand.

He didn't want Daoist Yexin to go crazy with the Lonely King Sword one day and he had to step in to clean up the mess.

After all.

Lin Tianhao is grateful to Daoist Yexin, respects him, and treats Daoist Yexin as his teammate.

"I understand."

Daoist Yexin nodded solemnly, "I will be cautious and will never use this evil sword unless absolutely necessary."

The Lonely King Sword is too mild to call it an evil sword.

This is a thorough demon sword.

I also don't know.

How could such a thing appear in this Mo Yuan.

Lin Tianhao and Daoist Yexin's conversation made Zuo Tianyang, Wang Chongfeng and others very curious.

"What exactly is the effect of this treasure sword that can make you all so cautious?"

Ouyang Songxue hesitated to speak.

He naturally knew the effect of this Lonely King Sword, after all, he was the first person to get the Lonely King Sword.

"Divine weapon!!"

In the end.

Ouyang Songxue only uttered these two words.

"Whether you believe it or not, in my opinion, this treasure sword is a top-notch divine weapon."

Daoist Yexin glared at Ouyang Songxue and scolded:

"Some things can be said, some things cannot be said."

"Hahaha, Yexin, you can't deprive others of their right to speak, can you?"

Just at this moment.

A loud laugh came.

Immediately afterwards.

Three people were seen walking over.

The person in the lead was wide and fat, holding a golden bone scepter inlaid with gold.

It's a monk!

On his left was a tall, thin middle-aged man, wearing a suit, sunglasses, and holding an umbrella.

And the person on the right was an extremely enchanting woman. In this kind of place, this woman was actually walking barefoot.

A pair of snow-white jade feet were in contact with this cold ground, which was particularly eye-catching.

The fat monk walked over and continued before Daoist Yexin could respond:

"Divine weapon, this poor monk also wants to observe it. I wonder if Yexin can do me the honor of letting this poor monk take a look?"

"No."

Daoist Yexin refused very decisively.

"I heard from Ouyang Songxue before that people from a major sect have come. I was curious who came, but I didn't expect it to be you, Snake Cat Monk."

Hearing this.

The fat monk waved his hand and said:

"Yexin, you are already an old man, why are you still giving people nicknames?"

"I am called Venerable Dragon Tiger, not Snake Cat Monk."

Daoist Yexin smiled contemptuously, "Venerable Dragon Tiger?"

"You are really not ashamed at all. What, are you a combination of Arhat Taming Dragon and Arhat Subduing Tiger?"

"No, that underestimates you. Two Arhats combined are not as good as Venerable, don't you think!!"

At this point.

Daoist Yexin paused slightly before continuing:

"You are a great god among the gods. How can my trivial things catch your eye."

Venerable Dragon Tiger chuckled, "Yexin, your mouth hasn't changed at all. Everyone can be considered old friends, won't you even give me this face?"

"Stop!"

Daoist Yexin raised his hand and waved, "It's not that I'm not giving you face, it's that you don't have any face with me at all!"

Hearing Daoist Yexin's words.

Venerable Dragon Tiger still didn't change his expression and said:

"Alright, if you're not willing to let this poor monk see it, this poor monk won't force you."

At this point.

Venerable Dragon Tiger changed the subject and asked:

"But Yexin, why are you treating me like this, but I see that you often cooperate with Potala Heavenly Dragon in the Twilight of the Gods."

"You don't seem to be so disgusted with us."

Daoist Yexin grinned and said:

"I'm not disgusted with Buddhism, but it's different with you. In my opinion, you are not worthy."

A flash of anger flashed in Venerable Dragon Tiger's eyes, but it was quickly suppressed again.

"Alas, I originally wanted to talk to you about the Six-Fingered Witch, after all, I see that her current situation is not very good and I was going to take you to save her."

"Seeing this posture, you hate me so much, you shouldn't bother to listen to the news I brought, right?!"

Chapter 1210 - The six-fingered witch who seals the town!

Vexation Daoist's expression changed slightly, but he wasn't anxious. He just said in a deep voice:

"Don't you often say that saving a life is better than building a seven-story pagoda? What? Could it be that a strong figure like you would refuse to save someone in distress?"

Hearing this.

Dragon-Tiger Venerable waved his hand and smiled:

"Vexation, I'm not refusing to save anyone. Didn't I come here to join forces with you to save Six-Fingered Witch?"

"But I just wanted to see the treasured sword you just obtained, and you treat me like this."

"I'm just looking, I don't want the sword in your hand, why are you so hostile?"

Dragon-Tiger Venerable's words sounded high-sounding, but everyone present could hear it.

This was a blatant threat!!

If Vexation Daoist didn't compromise, then Dragon-Tiger Venerable probably wouldn't say anything.

But even if Vexation Daoist compromised, it was still hard to say whether what Dragon-Tiger Venerable said was true or false.

After all, Six-Fingered Witch was acting together with Old Bureau Chief of the 749 Bureau.

If Six-Fingered Witch was in trouble, wouldn't Old Bureau Chief of the 749 Bureau save her?

But Vexation Daoist didn't dare to gamble!!

If what Dragon-Tiger Venerable said was true, then Six-Fingered Witch might really die!

Especially since.

They had previously seen a skeleton with six fingers under the man-eating flower.

Although it hadn't been confirmed yet, Zuo Tianyang already suspected that it was the corpse of Six-Fingered Witch.

"Alright, saving people is paramount. After saving Six-Fingered Witch, I'll take out the treasured sword for everyone to observe together."

Vexation Daoist wasn't stupid either. He used the phrase "saving people is paramount" to deflect the issue.

Dragon-Tiger Venerable chuckled, "Saving people is important, but we also need to pay attention to methods, don't we? Vexation, you have a divine weapon, so of course you have no fear of anything. This humble monk wants to cooperate with you, so shouldn't I first understand the attributes of the divine weapon in your hand?"

Vexation Daoist's expression darkened.

The moment he saw the Lonely King Sword's attributes, Dragon-Tiger Venerable's pupils shrank. He stared at Vexation Daoist for a while.

"Vexation, this kind of demonic sword should be destroyed."

Vexation Daoist chuckled, "Destroyed?"

"Didn't you see the indestructible attribute on it?"

Dragon-Tiger Venerable frowned slightly. Before he could say anything, Vexation Daoist said:

"Shouldn't you take us to find Six-Fingered Witch now?"

Although Vexation Daoist didn't like Dragon-Tiger Venerable, he still didn't think that Dragon-Tiger Venerable would joke with him on such a matter.

"Let's go."

Dragon-Tiger Venerable didn't say anything more and directly led the way.

"This is the fifth level of Mo Yuan. Each of the middle three levels of Mo Yuan has nine spaces. When I encountered Six-Fingered Witch, it was in the previous space."

"She should have been plotted against and become a substitute."

Hearing this.

Vexation Daoist couldn't help but frown. If Six-Fingered Witch became a substitute, then it would really be a bit troublesome.

Substitutes weren't uncommon in the 749 Bureau.

Because after the founding of the country, animals were not allowed to become spirits.

This was suppressed by the great fortune of the country!

But even so, there would still be some mountain spirits and wild monsters that would gain power.

These mountain spirits and wild monsters that had gained power were usually suppressed.

And some powerful mountain spirits and wild monsters would use the method of substitutes.

That was to replace themselves with other living beings to get themselves out of the seal.

Especially targeting people!

Because many seals didn't pose a threat to people. People could freely enter and exit the sealed land.

Those who have watched Uncle Ying's movies all know that things like zombies can be immobilized with talismans, and ghosts can be sealed with pottery jars.

But regardless of the talisman that immobilizes the zombie or the talisman that seals the ghost, ordinary people can easily destroy them.

The sealing methods used to seal those mountain spirits and wild monsters are actually not much different.

Because what is usually sealed is not the body, but [Qi].

The body can be destroyed, but the [Qi] that these mountain spirits and wild monsters have absorbed from the essence of the sun and moon for many years is extremely difficult to destroy.

This is also why many mountain spirits and wild monsters are sealed, rather than obliterated.

The most well-known of these is the Dragon Locking Well.

Many people think that the chains of the Dragon Locking Well are used to bind the dragon's body.

But in reality, this is not the case.

Most of the chains are used to lock the dragon's [Qi].

If someone who understands will find that in some deep mountains and old forests, some rocks will gradually evolve into the appearance of animals.

This is actually a manifestation of [Qi] attaching to the mountain rocks and then absorbing the essence of the sun and moon, beginning to re-form the climate.

"Six-Fingered Witch shouldn't make this kind of mistake, right?" Blind Swordsman Old Man said in a deep voice.

After all, the substitute seal is little known to others.

But Six-Fingered Witch is a core member of the 749 Bureau after all.

This kind of mistake shouldn't happen.

"This is Mo Yuan after all. The things designed are interlocked. Didn't we also suffer a loss here from the golden giant guard?"

"If Six-Fingered Witch is careless, it is still possible that something will go wrong."

Dragon-Tiger Venerable led the way in front, and the group passed through a deep tunnel.

This tunnel was layered on top of each other, like a misplaced maze.

The entrance to the tunnel was extremely hidden. Lin Tian and the others didn't even notice it when they came.

Following Dragon-Tiger Venerable and the others for a while, the front suddenly opened up, revealing a long stone chamber.

This stone chamber was about the size of a basketball court. In the middle of the stone chamber, there were three stone pillars, and a large number of black vines were wrapped around the stone pillars.

In the middle of the stone pillars, a young woman in Miao clothes was sitting cross-legged.

She had delicate features and her eyes were closed. She looked as if she had already entered a meditative state.

Zuo Tianyang's expression darkened and he took the lead to walk up.

But Vexation Daoist raised his hand to stop him, "Army ants scout the way!"

Regardless of whether the person in the middle of the three stone pillars was Six-Fingered Witch, they needed to be cautious.

Zuo Tianyang nodded and immediately released army ants, which swarmed towards Six-Fingered Witch's direction.

Six-Fingered Witch remained motionless with her eyes closed.

It seemed that.

In the middle of the three stone pillars, it was impossible to sense the situation outside the stone pillars.

Those three stone pillars were where the seal was located.

The army ants arrived in front of the three stone pillars very smoothly, and there were no problems.

Then.

Under Zuo Tianyang's control, the army ants entered the stone pillars.

As soon as they entered the area surrounded by the three stone pillars, the bodies of these army ants exploded directly.

"What an overbearing seal!!"

Vexation Daoist's expression darkened and he stepped forward.

After all, the army ants were fine before they reached the three stone pillars.

And it seemed that because the army ants had entered the stone pillars, Six-Fingered Witch in the stone pillars finally opened her eyes.
