

O game 1211

Chapter 1211 - Jiujiu is so mad!

Lin Tianhao also looked over.

The Six-Fingered Witch's eyes were bright and deep, but with a little more weariness.

“Six-Fingered.”

Zuo Tianyang called out.

The Six-Fingered Witch took a deep breath, and said with a wry smile:

“It’s so good to see you here.”

Zuo Tianyang gritted his teeth and asked:

“What’s going on? Where’s Old Bureau Chief?”

The Six-Fingered Witch said helplessly:

“Old Bureau Chief lured away that old guy from the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect. Cripple and the others went to find a way to save me. The fifth level of this Ink Abyss isn't particularly dangerous, but the key is that too many people have come.”

“We also discovered people from the mountains. The situation in this Ink Abyss is completely out of our control.”

Hearing these words.

Taoist Yexin's expression became extremely serious.

"You said people from the mountains are here?"

Venerable Longhu's expression was very solemn.

When he heard about the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect, he only frowned slightly, but when he heard about people from the mountains, he became somewhat unnatural.

"I have no reason to lie to you. People from the mountains are here, but I don't know the specific reason."

Lin Tianhao was confused by what he heard.

He knew about the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect, a force similar to Bureau 749 in Sakura Country, and it was extremely powerful.

They had launched several actions against the Dragon Country cultivation world, and even tried to steal the Dragon Country's national fortune.

There were even rumors that.

Bureau 749 was established to target the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect.

Because the homonym of 749 Bureau is 'Qi Si Jiu Ju' (piss off the Nine Chrysanthemums).

Of course.

Lin Tianhao didn't know much about Bureau 749 in his previous life, and he didn't know if the name came from this.

However, the old fellow from the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect was worth the Old Bureau Chief of Bureau 749 taking action, so his combat power should not be underestimated.

Venerable Longhu pondered slightly and said:

“I was invited by Yexin to save you, but I don’t quite understand your situation.”

“What was originally sealed in your position?”

The Six-Fingered Witch pondered slightly and said:

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. The simplest way to rescue the Six-Fingered Witch was to find the monkey and replace the Six-Fingered Witch with it.

“Speaking of which, can a disposable summon be used to replace her?” Wang Chongfeng suddenly asked.

Hearing this.

Taoist Yexin’s eyes lit up and he said:

“It should be possible, but I need to test the strength of this formation. A powerful enough summon is needed to replace her.”

After speaking.

Taoist Yexin formed a hand seal, and a golden whip extended towards the stone pillar.

Soon.

The golden whip extended into the interior of the stone pillar.

As soon as the golden whip extended into the interior of the stone pillar, crackling sounds were transmitted.

Taoist Yexin frowned slightly, and the golden light continued to output.

The crackling sound became even louder, but the golden whip was still spreading towards the Six-Fingered Witch.

“Pa—”

At this moment.

The vines on the left stone pillar instantly lashed out, scattering Taoist Yexin’s golden whip.

Seeing this scene.

Taoist Yexin’s expression changed drastically, and even Venerable Longhu beside him had a sinking expression.

A vine scattered Taoist Yexin’s golden whip, so the power of this vine should not be underestimated.

The most important thing is.

There are still so many vines on the three stone pillars that haven’t moved.

If all those vines moved, even if Taoist Yexin went all out, he might not be able to withstand it.

Venerable Longhu frowned and said:

“It seems that we can only go find that monkey.”

“It would be extremely difficult for us to forcibly open a gap in this level of sealing.”

Taoist Yexin looked at Wang Chongfeng and said:

“Do you have a Platinum-level disposable summoned beast?”

“If you do, maybe we can give it a try.”

“Ah—”

Wang Chongfeng was dumbfounded.

“Platinum-level...”

“Senior Yexin, can we not joke around? Don’t even mention whether I have one or not, even if I did, I would think that finding the monkey is more appropriate.”

Hearing this.

Taoist Yexin’s eyes lit up, “You really have one.”

The corner of Wang Chongfeng’s mouth twitched and he said:

“I do have one, but I still think it’s a bit of a waste. I’ll accompany you to find the monkey.”

Before Taoist Yexin could answer, Venerable Longhu said:

“You’re thinking too simply.”

“In such a powerful sealing place, the monkey’s strength is so great that our probability of catching it back is minimal.”

Wang Chongfeng was still a little hesitant.

This was a Platinum-level disposable summoned beast, once used, it would be gone.

“I’ll give you the resurrection coin you want.”

Taoist Yexin directly threw out a resurrection coin.

There were high-level resurrection coins on Lonely King Sword.

Not only were there three months’ worth, but there were even six months’ worth.

One of them had even reached a year!!

As long as the death time did not exceed one year, that resurrection coin could be used to resurrect.

However.

What Taoist Yexin gave Wang Chongfeng was a six-month resurrection coin, which was completely enough for Wang Chongfeng.

Even if he delayed some more time in this Ink Abyss, it would be completely enough to use when he went out.

Seeing the resurrection coin that Taoist Yexin took out, Wang Chongfeng hesitated slightly and said:

“Okay, given Senior Yexin’s influence in the Twilight of the Gods, I must give you this face!!”

While speaking.

Wang Chongfeng took out a silver-white shimmering card.

“You guys get ready.”

“Okay.”

Taoist Yexin nodded and looked at Venerable Longhu, saying solemnly:

“Next, please help Venerable Longhu.”

Venerable Longhu smiled slightly, “Aren’t you calling me Snake Cat Monk anymore?”

“Don’t worry, saving a life is better than building a seven-story pagoda, so I will naturally take action.”

Hearing their conversation, Wang Chongfeng reluctantly chose to use the disposable summoning card.

When the disposable summoning card was used, a tall brown bear appeared in front of Lin Tianhao and the others.

“Venerable Longhu, take action.”

There were many people here who understood the sealing formation, but there were not many who had the ability to influence the sealing place in front of them.

Venerable Longhu and Taoist Yexin took action at the same time, each using their own methods to attack the direction where the stone pillar was located.

This time.

A barrier actually appeared in front of the stone pillar, and a gap was slowly torn open in the barrier.

“Wang Chongfeng!”

Taoist Yexin shouted in a low voice.

Wang Chongfeng immediately understood and used his means to rush towards the torn gap.

The Six-Fingered Witch, at the moment the big brown bear rushed in, brushed past the big brown bear and rushed out of the barrier.

The Six-Fingered Witch was finally out!

Everyone present showed a smile, only Wang Chongfeng was a little unhappy.

“Thanks.”

Taoist Yexin said to Venerable Longhu.

“And you, thanks!”

Taoist Yexin looked at Wang Chongfeng again.

Wang Chongfeng pouted and said:

“Since it’s been used, it’s been used. After entering the Twilight of the Gods later, a few big shots can take me along.”

Chapter 1212 - Considering the previous life, it’s terrifying to think about it!

“Good, good,” Venerable Dragon Tiger said with a slight smile. “Little brother, where did you get this one-time use summoning card?”

Upon hearing this.

Taoist Yexin stepped in front of Wang Chongfeng, “Don't get any ideas about him, he is one of us from the 749 Bureau.”

Seeing this.

Venerable Dragon Tiger smiled slightly and said very naturally:

“Yexin, no need to be so nervous, I wouldn't stoop to snatching people from you.”

“I'm just curious, possessing a platinum-level one-time use summoning card at this stage, if used in the struggles between major countries, it would be extremely terrifying.”

Taoist Yexin waved his hand and said:

“Let's not think about the struggles between major countries for now, let's focus on figuring out how to get out of the Moyuan alive.”

Venerable Dragon Tiger shook his head and said:

“Yexin, why be so self-deprecating? With our strength, even if we go to the lower three levels of the Moyuan, we have the ability to retreat unscathed.”

Taoist Yexin smiled noncommittally and said:

“I don't have your confidence.”

At this point.

Taoist Yexin changed the subject and continued:

“You've heard it too, the people from the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect have arrived, and people from the mountains have also come. Do you want to cooperate?”

Venerable Dragon Tiger nodded, “That's exactly what I was thinking.”

“The Moyuan is now filled with experts, and the danger is not only from the Moyuan itself, but also from the people who have entered the Moyuan.”

Listening to their conversation, Lin Tianhao asked with some confusion:

“Senior Yexin, I've heard of the Nine Chrysanthemum Sect, but who are these people from the mountains?”

The information Lin Tianhao knew was already considerable.

But to be honest.

Lin Tianhao really didn't know who these so-called people from the mountains were.

To be able to make the experts from the Western sects and Taoist Yexin treat them with such caution and gravity.

Taoist Yexin's expression became serious, "A group of ancient Qi Refiners, who, in order to pursue higher realms, have been searching for places with abundant spiritual energy in the deep mountains and old forests for a long time. Therefore, we also call them people from the mountains."

Lin Tianhao was secretly shocked, these so-called ancient Qi Refiners, aren't they the legendary cultivators!

In his previous life, Lin Tianhao had never heard of any news about these ancient Qi Refiners.

It's possible that they are always in the deep mountains and old forests, and there's no news about them.

But if they are cultivators, it's possible that they could deduce the variable of the Twilight of the Gods.

Furthermore, considering the probability of the Twilight of the Gods talent, people who can cultivate are likely to have good physiques and awaken powerful talents.

In addition to the combat skills of cultivators, these ancient Qi Refiners should not be unknown figures.

If that's the case, does that mean that some of the more famous adventurers he knows might be ancient Qi Refiners?

After all, in his previous life, Lin Tianhao had never heard of Taoist Yexin, but Taoist Yexin was a veteran figure in the 749 Bureau.

In that instant.

Lin Tianhao thought of a relatively distant event.

That was more than a year after the Twilight of the Gods had begun, there was a post saying that many of the top 500 on the Twilight of the Gods level rankings had stopped leveling up for a long time, as if they weren't playing Twilight of the Gods anymore.

At the time, some people didn't pay too much attention to it. Some people thought that these people had become ordinary, and some people thought that these people had gone to develop offline, but no one paid too much attention.

After all, in his previous life, there were no heaven-defying adventurers like Lin Tianhao, and the people of the Alete star system had always been hidden in the shadows.

And the top 500 on the level rankings were actually replaced relatively quickly.

If others worked a little harder, they might be able to squeeze out other people on the level rankings.

At this time, someone said that some of the top 500 people had stopped leveling up, so naturally not many people would care.

After all.

If you're not good enough, being squeezed off the level rankings is not a strange thing.

Even after being reborn.

Lin Tianhao hadn't taken this matter to heart.

But calculating the time, it seemed that the time when Taoist Yexin and the others entered the Moyuan was very similar to the time when those top 500 people stopped leveling up.

Plus, so many experts had come to the Moyuan, so it seemed that everything could be explained.

There is great terror below the Moyuan!!

In his previous life, Taoist Yexin most likely fell in the Moyuan!!

That's why Taoist Yexin was unknown in his previous life.

Otherwise, with Taoist Yexin's strength and foundation, even if he started slower in the early stages, he should never have been an unknown figure.

Now.

It seems that everything can be explained.

If that's the case.

Then it's really chilling to think about.

Looking at the seals on these three stone pillars, how strong would the monkey that escaped from the seal have to be to be sealed in this kind of place.

And this.

Is only the fifth level of the Moyuan.

“Senior Yexin, regardless of whether we can find Old Bureau Chief, we must leave the sixth level.”

Lin Tianhao said very seriously.

The more he thought about it, the more uneasy Lin Tianhao felt.

Perhaps because of his arrival, some of the processes in this Moyuan had a butterfly effect.

But Lin Tianhao didn't think he was much stronger than Taoist Yexin.

Taoist Yexin would have been stuck in the Moyuan in his previous life, Lin Tianhao wouldn't be so arrogant as to think that he could retreat unscathed.

Especially this place, the Moyuan, is too strange.

To put it bluntly.

Even if he had resurrection in place, if he died in the Moyuan and was eaten by monsters, it would take a very, very long time to resurrect.

And even if he resurrected, if Taoist Yexin and the others were stuck here, it would be very difficult for him to leave the Moyuan.

He had worked hard in the Twilight of the Gods to achieve his current achievements.

Lin Tianhao would never allow himself to have an accident in this Moyuan.

Moreover.

His gains in the Moyuan this time were already great enough.

After hearing Lin Tianhao's words, Taoist Yexin frowned slightly and didn't think there was anything wrong.

If he were Lin Tianhao, he most likely wouldn't have chosen to come to the Moyuan for this trip.

Lin Tianhao's willingness to go down to the Moyuan was already a courage that many people couldn't compare to.

After all.

Lin Tianhao's current life in the Twilight of the Gods might not be any worse.

"Okay, I respect your decision. When we get to the sixth level, you can leave when you can get out."

"Also, Zuo Ju, take Wang Chongfeng with you and leave together." Taoist Yexin said.

Lin Tianhao's expression sank, Taoist Yexin's words were already very clear.

That is, he will not leave.

"Senior Yexin!!"

Lin Tianhao's tone became heavier.

"I'm not saying that I'm leaving alone, but that we're leaving together!!"

Taoist Yexin was silent.

Lin Tianhao continued:

"Senior Yexin, do you believe in intuition?"

"My intuition tells me that if we continue to stay in the Moyuan, we may be stuck in the Moyuan forever."

Lin Tianhao said extremely seriously, which made Taoist Yexin stunned.

Chapter 1213 - The long corridor, the sound of the piano!

Daoist Wild Ambition hadn't expected Lin Tianhao to suddenly become so serious.

Especially with Lin Tianhao's earnest demeanor, Daoist Wild Ambition felt a certain pressure.

As for intuition...

Daoist Wild Ambition believed in it.

Especially Lin Tianhao's intuition, he believed in it even more.

"Preserving our strength as much as possible is the most important thing."

"We are currently on the fifth level of Mo Yuan, and we need to reach the sixth level to leave."

"Perhaps we can find Old Bureau Chief and the others on the sixth level of Mo Yuan, but if we can't find them, then give up!!"

Seeing Daoist Wild Ambition taking Lin Tianhao's words so seriously, Venerable Dragon Tiger couldn't help but ask:

"Wild Ambition, what is this one called?"

Daoist Wild Ambition didn't hide anything and said bluntly:

"Snow Emperor."

"Snow Emperor?!"

Venerable Dragon Tiger was taken aback and couldn't help but say:

"Snow Emperor, with your strength, you should be developing well in the Twilight of the Gods, what are you doing here?"

In Venerable Dragon Tiger's opinion, Mo Yuan was unknown, and Lin Tianhao coming to Mo Yuan was too risky.

Daoist Wild Ambition smiled wryly and said:

"There are some reasons that made it necessary for Snow Emperor to come."

"But after entering Mo Yuan, we discovered that things were somewhat out of control."

Venerable Dragon Tiger nodded solemnly:

"He is the Snow Emperor, he shouldn't have come. Don't even mention the sixth level, he should have left on the third level."

It was Lin Tianhao who had taken the initiative to propose coming to the middle three levels. Otherwise, Daoist Wild Ambition would have had Lin Tianhao leave when they were on the upper three levels.

Now that Lin Tianhao had taken the initiative to propose leaving, this was not a bad thing for him, but a great thing.

"Alright, if it's escorting Snow Emperor, I'm more than happy to do it."

Venerable Dragon Tiger gave Lin Tianhao a friendly smile.

But in Lin Tianhao's eyes, he always felt that Venerable Dragon Tiger's smile was a little too hypocritical.

But now was not the time to consider this. The sooner they could leave Mo Yuan, the better.

Now with Venerable Dragon Tiger and the other two, plus the Six-Fingered Witch they had just rescued, Lin Tianhao's party had expanded quite a bit.

Daoist Wild Ambition and Venerable Dragon Tiger led the way.

And Venerable Dragon Tiger seemed to be more familiar with Mo Yuan than Daoist Wild Ambition.

"The pool of water ahead is the passage to the sixth level."

Venerable Dragon Tiger led Lin Tianhao and the others to a circular stone chamber.

In the center of the stone chamber, there was a pool of water.

The pool water was black, like ink.

At first glance, it gave people the feeling that there were unknown and terrifying creatures underwater.

"We have to go underwater?" Ouyang Songxue frowned.

This pitch-black water looked extremely unsafe no matter how you looked at it.

Whether you could come back up after going down was really hard to say.

Venerable Dragon Tiger smiled and said:

"That's why I've been staying on this fifth level and haven't gone down."

"This place looks very dangerous, it's too easy for something to happen if you go down."

Daoist Wild Ambition said unhappily:

"Then why were you so confident before that you would go to the lower three levels of Mo Yuan?"

"Hehe, what's there to be afraid of?"

"This monk is still confident in his own strength, I just wanted to get as many benefits as possible on the fifth level."

"Then who goes down first?"

They weren't afraid of the water, they were afraid of encountering something underwater.

Especially considering the situation that Mo Yuan had shown before, it wouldn't make sense if there wasn't something underwater.

"Didn't you say that there are nine spaces on the fifth level of Mo Yuan? Are there no passages to go down in the other spaces?"

Venerable Dragon Tiger smiled slightly, "I've been to five of them, and only this one has a passage to go down."

"Then what about the place where we killed the golden giant guardians before? Could there be a passage to go down?"

"Then let's go back and take a look."

"According to calculations, those two golden giant guardians shouldn't have respawned yet."

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao actually wanted to wait for those two golden giant guardians to respawn.

"Speaking of which, if those two golden giant guardians respawn, will the Lonely King Sword respawn?"

"No."

Venerable Dragon Tiger answered very firmly.

At this point.

He paused slightly before continuing:

"Although the Lonely King Sword won't respawn, resurrection coins will respawn."

"But I estimate that there will be at most nine resurrection coins, and the quality will not be as good as the previous resurrection coins."

Daoist Wild Ambition's eyes lit up.

Nine!!

Even if they weren't as good as the original resurrection coins, they were still good.

At least there were enough of them.

Moreover.

Lin Tianhao had already found a way to deal with the golden giant guardians.

He and Lin Tianhao could join forces.

Lin Tianhao would deal with the golden giant guardian's body, and he would deal with the golden giant guardian's soul body, wouldn't that be a win-win situation?

"Then let's go to the Golden Palace. If we can go to the sixth level through the Golden Palace, then we'll go to the sixth level."

"If not, then we'll wait for the golden giant guardians to respawn, and we'll farm another wave of golden giant guardians."

"Okay."

Lin Tianhao was the first to agree.

For no other reason.

He himself wanted to farm the golden giant guardians.

After all, the gatekeeper's equipment dropped by the golden giant guardians had too strong an effect to drop resurrection coins.

Venerable Dragon Tiger nodded, "I have no problem either, I've been on the fifth level for so long anyway, I don't mind waiting another day."

The others naturally had no objections either.

It didn't matter if they had objections, they could just act alone, it wasn't impossible to go find the Soul Reaping Envoy without them.

On this fifth level of Mo Yuan, it was difficult to even survive without some ability.

Venerable Dragon Tiger was indeed very familiar with this fifth level, and under his leadership, the group quickly arrived in front of the Golden Palace.

The golden giant guardians hadn't respawned, and they directly stepped into the Golden Palace.

Looking around.

This Golden Palace seemed to have a back hall, behind the throne.

Lin Tianhao and the others walked towards the back of the throne together.

Everything went smoothly.

Behind the throne was a long corridor.

The corridor was adorned with thumb-sized night-luminescent pearls, illuminating the corridor.

Daoist Wild Ambition took the lead in stepping onto the corridor.

Just as he stepped onto the corridor, Daoist Wild Ambition raised his hand to signal everyone to stop.

"Did you hear the sound of a zither?"

"No," Venerable Dragon Tiger replied.

As he spoke.

He stepped onto the corridor, then retreated, then stepped on again, then retreated again.

After repeating this several times.

Venerable Dragon Tiger's face showed surprise.

"That's interesting, as long as you step onto this corridor, you will hear the desolate sound of the zither, but it disappears when you come down."

Chapter 1214 - The thunder roars!

Lin Tianhao also stepped onto the long corridor.

The result did indeed surprise Lin Tianhao.

On this long corridor, he heard the extremely desolate sound of a zither.

Just listening to the zither music, Lin Tianhao's emotions were involuntarily affected.

A sense of desolation and loneliness surged into his heart.

Daoist Yexin, however, was calm and composed, and he spoke to remind him:

"Snow Emperor, this zither music can affect people's minds. Stay closer to me. If there is a situation, I might be able to protect you."

The others all looked at each other.

They had not yet stepped onto the long corridor, so they could not hear the desolate zither music.

But they were all very curious.

They wanted to step onto the long corridor and listen to the zither music.

Daoist Yexin took the lead with Lin Tianhao.

A faint golden light surrounded his body, and the golden light, like a liquid, flowed towards Lin Tianhao's body, enveloping Lin Tianhao as well.

After the others stepped onto the long corridor, their emotions were somewhat unnatural.

The influence of this desolate zither music on their emotions could not be ignored.

"Amitabha!!"

At this moment.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger uttered a Buddhist proclamation.

This Buddhist proclamation seemed to explode in everyone's minds, allowing those affected by the zither music to recover a lot.

"Esteemed benefactors, it's better to be careful and not be disturbed by this zither music."

"Thank you, Senior."

Ouyang Songxue, Groundhog, and others all expressed their thanks, quickened their pace, and followed behind Lin Tianhao and Daoist Yexin.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger led his people behind, one in front and one behind Daoist Yexin, both tacitly protecting the safety of the team.

In the front.

Lin Tianhao and Daoist Yexin reached the end of the long corridor, and a rockery appeared in front of them, with the sound of trickling water coming from above.

The person playing the zither seemed to sense the presence of outsiders, and the zither music changed from desolate to hurried.

Just listening to the zither music made people feel as if they were on a chaotic battlefield, with countless soldiers charging and killing.

And they...

were just insignificant members of these soldiers.

"Scatter!!"

Daoist Yexin shouted in a low voice, thunderous and deafening.

"Hiding your head and showing your tail, relying on this little sonic trick to hurt people, aren't you afraid of being laughed at?"

"Bang bang bang——"

Along with Daoist Yexin's angry shout, the sound of zither strings breaking came from afar.

Daoist Yexin had actually used his angry shout, empowered with the power of thunder, to break the other party's zither strings.

"Your Thunderous Voice is getting more and more powerful."

Venerable Dragon-Tiger smiled.

As soon as he rushed to the back of the rockery, the zither music stopped abruptly.

At the same time.

A large amount of black hair spread out from behind the rockery.

This black hair wrapped around Venerable Dragon-Tiger.

Seeing this scene.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger slammed the Zen staff into the ground, "Buddha's Light Shines Everywhere!"

Rays of Buddha's light shot out, and when the black hair came into contact with the Buddha's light, it all turned into black smoke and dissipated into the void.

Behind the rockery.

A woman with a pale face and wearing a long red dress slowly floated up.

Her eyes were suspended, as if she were the ghost in a red dress in a TV series.

The difference is.

The hair on her head was very thick and extended for tens of meters, like one black tentacle after another.

"The Lonely King Palace's sacred ground, trespassers die!!"

The red-dressed, long-haired woman had a ferocious face, and between her open mouth, two sharp zombie teeth were revealed.

"Amitabha!"

Venerable Dragon-Tiger said a Buddhist proclamation, "You evil creature, wreaking havoc in this Lonely King Palace, today this monk will eliminate harm for the people!"

As soon as the voice fell.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger chanted Buddhist sounds, and these Buddhist sounds turned into Buddhist incantations, killing the red-dressed, long-haired woman.

The red-dressed, long-haired woman snorted coldly, "Shut up, I hate people chanting sutras the most."

The red-dressed, long-haired woman's long hair continued to grow, covering Venerable Dragon-Tiger.

These Buddhist incantations continued to oscillate and open the black long hair, but the black long hair could grow infinitely, becoming more and more numerous and denser.

The surroundings of these Buddhist sounds quickly showed a decline and could not be blocked at all.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger's face changed slightly, holding the Zen staff in front of him, and between his hands pinching the tactics, a black tiger phantom emerged from behind Venerable Dragon-Tiger.

Along with Venerable Dragon-Tiger pointing out with one hand, the black tiger phantom pounced on the red-dressed, long-haired woman.

At first, the black tiger could fight with the black long hair of the red-dressed, long-haired woman, but soon the black long hair entangled the black tiger.

The black tiger turned to ashes in a whimper.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, hair?

This is a good feeling!

Thinking of this.

He raised his hand and shot out a ball of dragon flames.

The dragon flame instantly ignited the black long hair.

The flames spread along the black long hair towards the red-dressed, long-haired woman.

The red-dressed, long-haired woman's face changed, and she immediately cut off her black hair, which saved her from disaster.

Otherwise, just now, it would have been enough to burn them into bald heads.

"Dragon Flame?!"

The red-dressed, long-haired woman looked at Lin Tianhao solemnly and questioned:

"We people from the Lonely King Palace have never interfered with your Dragon Palace people, what do you mean by this?"

"Could it be that you want to provoke a war between the Lonely King Palace and the Dragon Palace?!"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly and said:

"How many people are there in your Lonely King Palace? Are you qualified to fight our Dragon Palace?"

Lin Tianhao directly followed her words.

Since the other party thought he was from the Dragon Palace, he could pretend to be a tiger.

Hearing this.

The red-dressed, long-haired woman snorted coldly, "What a big dog's guts!!"

"Our Lonely King Palace is indeed not as good as before, but how much heritage is left in your Dragon Palace to guard that broken place?"

"If you really fight our Lonely King Palace, can your Dragon Palace handle it?"

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and said:

"I didn't want to fight you, but wasn't it you who started first?"

The red-dressed, long-haired woman couldn't help but roar angrily when she heard this:

"Get out!!"

"You trespassed into the sacred ground of the Lonely King Palace, and you still have the nerve to say that I started first."

"Leave now, and I won't hold you accountable. If you stay here, then fight!!"

"This is not the Dragon Palace, I'm not afraid of you!"

Daoist Yexin stepped forward and said with a smile:

"Why waste your breath with her, kill her, and everything will be solved."

Hearing this.

The red-dressed, long-haired woman laughed in anger.

"Good good good, very good, very good!!"

"Come to my Lonely King Palace's sacred ground and want to kill me, are you really not taking our Lonely King Palace seriously?"

After the words fell.

The red-dressed, long-haired woman stopped talking nonsense and shot again, heading straight for Daoist Yexin.

This time, the red-dressed, long-haired woman shot again, and her speed instantly increased to an extremely terrifying level.

In just a moment, she had already arrived in front of Daoist Yexin.

"Boom——"

Chapter 1215 - Angry Vajra: The legendary realm!

"Bang——"

A muffled sound.

Daoist Yexin used a golden light shield to block the sudden palm strike from the red-clothed, long-haired woman.

"Ka——"

As the palm landed, fine cracks appeared on Daoist Yexin's golden light shield.

This one palm was enough to show how terrifying this red-clothed, long-haired woman was.

This fellow is a bit too strong.

Daoist Yexin was also slightly startled and retreated.

Because a large amount of black gas poured in from the cracked golden light shield, sweeping towards Daoist Yexin.

While retreating, Daoist Yexin struck out with a palm, a palm carrying terrifying lightning, causing the red-clothed, long-haired woman to sneer.

She didn't increase her power, and just charged straight towards Daoist Yexin.

Daoist Yexin's expression changed slightly, and his lightning fell even faster.

But when the lightning landed on the red-clothed, long-haired woman, she wasn't affected in the slightest.

That's right.

Even the golden giant guards at the door could adapt to his lightning power, so it wasn't surprising that other fellows inside this Lonely King Palace could be immune to his lightning attacks.

Daoist Yexin immediately performed a Tai Chi move, pushing away the red-clothed, long-haired woman's open palm while striking towards her face.

The red-clothed, long-haired woman raised her other hand, and in an instant, sharp, slender fingernails grew out, flashing with a cold light, and grabbed at Daoist Yexin's palm.

Daoist Yexin lowered his palm, striking towards the red-clothed, long-haired woman's chest.

“You lecherous scoundrel!!”

The red-clothed, long-haired woman spat, retreating, but at the instant her head flicked, her long hair lashed out like a Five Thunder Lightning Whip, striking towards Daoist Yexin's cheek.

If this palm landed, Daoist Yexin's skull would be pierced with five holes by the red-clothed, long-haired woman's fingertips.

Daoist Yexin bit the tip of his tongue, spitting out a mouthful of blood.

The tongue-tip blood of a virgin for over ninety years, the lethality of this attack against evil spirits is beyond doubt.

The blood arrow condensed from the purest yang power of the tongue-tip blood had not even attacked the red-clothed, long-haired woman yet, but it had already caused the hair behind her to begin to turn into ashes.

The red-clothed, long-haired woman's expression changed drastically, and she didn't dare to be negligent, her figure turning into an afterimage, rapidly retreating towards the direction of the artificial mountain.

All of this sounds slow, but it only happened in the space of a few breaths.

Even people like Wang Chongfeng didn't clearly see the specific details of the exchange between Daoist Yexin and the red-clothed, long-haired woman.

He only noticed that Daoist Yexin and the red-clothed, long-haired woman exchanged blows for an instant, and then the red-clothed woman was forced back.

Lin Tianhao did see it clearly, but he also had to admire Daoist Yexin's on-the-spot reaction ability.

He could also bite the tip of his tongue and spit out a mouthful of blood now.

But at that instant, he might not have been able to react and perform such an operation.

“Have you forgotten that there's still me!”

The Dragon-Tiger Venerable, seeing the red-clothed, long-haired woman retreating, had already swung his Zen staff and smashed it towards the red-clothed, long-haired woman.

It was as if the red-clothed, long-haired woman had eyes on her back, and a large amount of black hair instantly entangled the Dragon-Tiger Venerable's Zen staff.

But the Dragon-Tiger Venerable's Zen staff had Buddha light flashing on it, and the black hair turned into ashes in an instant.

The Zen staff still struck down, but because of the obstruction of the black hair, the red-clothed, long-haired woman had time to react and easily avoided this attack from the Dragon-Tiger Venerable.

“A bunch of old men ganging up on a woman, you really have the nerve!!”

The red-clothed, long-haired woman landed on the artificial mountain, looking at Lin Tianhao and Daoist Yexin and the others with anger.

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

“I have thick skin, I have the nerve.”

“You—”

The red-clothed, long-haired woman looked at Lin Tianhao angrily and scolded:

“I really didn't expect that the proud Dragon Clan would actually say such a thing, it's simply shameless!!”

Lin Tianhao spread his hands and said:

“Stop talking nonsense, we've already started fighting, how can we let it go without beating you to death!!”

As soon as he finished speaking.

Lin Tianhao struck out with both palms at the same time, dragon flames surging endlessly within his palms.

“You're going too far!!”

The red-clothed, long-haired woman shouted angrily, and an ancient zither fell into her hands.

She raised her hand and plucked the strings, the sound of the zither resounding in the Lonely King Palace.

Lin Tianhao's attacking movements paused slightly, because it was as if a bolt of lightning had fallen in his mind, a huge electric current stimulating his entire brain.

But it was only an instant of electric current, and a cool force surged out from the dragon ball in Lin Tianhao's body, instantly restoring Lin Tianhao.

The dragon flames in Lin Tianhao's palms were still pushed out at this instant.

Seeing this scene.

The red-clothed, long-haired woman's expression changed slightly.

She obviously didn't expect that Lin Tianhao would recover so quickly, which was more troublesome than she had imagined.

Facing Lin Tianhao's dragon flames, she actually struck out with both palms, separating Lin Tianhao's dragon flames.

Lin Tianhao's expression sank.

Like the golden giant guards outside, this red-clothed, long-haired woman was also able to be immune to his dragon flame attacks.

The battle has reached a stalemate here.

Although Lin Tianhao, Daoist Yexin, and the Dragon-Tiger Venerable hadn't used their full strength.

It was obvious that this red-clothed, long-haired woman was stronger than the two golden giant guards outside.

If they really fought with all their strength, they might have a chance of winning, but the consumption would also be very high.

Under such circumstances, engaging in such a high-consumption battle was not a wise move.

“Seeing your appearance, you don't seem to want to fight anymore, let's stop here, leave the Lonely King Palace, and I'll pretend nothing happened.”

This red-clothed, long-haired woman could be considered to be good at observing words and expressions, seeing the thoughts of Lin Tianhao and the others from their expressions.

“Amitabha!”

The Dragon-Tiger Venerable chanted a Buddhist prayer.

“It is the duty of this humble monk to eliminate harm for the people.”

“Today, even at the cost of some cultivation, I will suppress and kill you here.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

The Dragon-Tiger Venerable gave a light shout, “Fierce Vajra, Dragon-Taming Arhat, Tiger-Subduing Arhat!”

Along with the Dragon-Tiger Venerable's voice, a phantom of a Fierce Vajra appeared behind the Dragon-Tiger Venerable.

Not only the Fierce Vajra, but on the left was also a Dragon-Taming Arhat stepping on a white dragon, and on the right was a Tiger-Subduing Arhat standing on the back of a black tiger.

The three great Dharma forms were displayed at the same time, and the Dragon-Tiger Venerable's entire aura also underwent earth-shattering changes.

Seeing this scene.

Daoist Yexin couldn't help but be shocked, and an unbelievable look appeared on his face.

“Dragon-Tiger Venerable, you... you've hidden it too deeply!!”

“You... could it be that you have already taken that step and reached that legendary realm?!!”

Chapter 1216 - Zuo Tianyang is possessed!

Lin Tianhao had already guessed something from what Taoist Yexin said.

The legendary realm?!

The value of this sentence was simply too high.

This meant that:

Venerable Longhu had already reached a realm that none of them had ever reached!!

Lin Tianhao knew that Taoist Yexin should be a Grandmaster, and most likely only one step away from the next realm.

Now that Taoist Yexin said this, could it be that Venerable Longhu had already surpassed the Grandmaster realm and reached the next realm after Grandmaster?

What came after Grandmaster?

Lin Tianhao didn't dare to imagine.

Only a true Celestial Phenomenon Realm can condense such a Celestial Phenomenon.

Of course.

If it's just entering the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, generally only one Celestial Phenomenon can be condensed.

But what was Venerable Longhu doing?

He condensed three Celestial Phenomena in one breath, which meant that Venerable Longhu had already traveled a distance on the path of the Celestial Phenomenon Realm.

"In the realm of martial arts, one either advances or retreats. Since the Twilight of the Gods began to descend, certain changes have occurred in this world."

With the three great Celestial Phenomena fighting the red-clothed, long-haired woman, Venerable Longhu didn't even need to take action and could still chat from the side.

"You fought in the Twilight of the Gods and missed some opportunities, but I think your choice was the right one."

"My little bit of luck is not worth mentioning compared to the opportunities in the Twilight of the Gods!"

At this time.

The red-clothed, long-haired woman was already being beaten back repeatedly.

Taoist Yexin said with slight envy:

"Anyway, I still envy you, Celestial Phenomenon Realm, after all, it is the realm we have been pursuing for so long."

"You've arrived, but I haven't. How can you tell me not to be envious?"

Hearing this.

Venerable Longhu smiled slightly and said, "Don't say such things. After leaving Mo Yuan, you should also be able to reach such a realm."

Taoist Yexin smiled and did not refute.

Because he could also feel it himself.

If all goes well.

He wouldn't even need to wait until he left here.

With further gains, he might be able to take that step in Mo Yuan.

In the time it took for Venerable Longhu and Taoist Yexin to talk, the three great Celestial Phenomena finally defeated the red-clothed, long-haired woman.

At this time, the red-clothed, long-haired woman was panting and lying on the ground, covered in wounds, with her red dress torn in many places, and she was in a state of extreme disarray.

"It's over!"

Venerable Longhu raised his hand and pressed down.

In an instant.

The three great Celestial Phenomena fell at the same time, giving the red-clothed, long-haired woman a fatal blow.

After the red-clothed, long-haired woman was killed, Lin Tianhao once again felt an enlightenment.

This had already become commonplace for Lin Tianhao.

Now, Lin Tianhao was more concerned about what they could get after solving this red-clothed, long-haired woman.

"The zither!"

Zuo Tianyang stepped out and took the zither that the red-clothed, long-haired woman had left behind in his hand.

"Be careful!!"

Lin Tianhao struck out with a palm, wanting to interrupt Zuo Tianyang.

But Zuo Tianyang's movements were too fast, and he had already taken the ancient zither in his hand.

In an instant.

Black gas gushed out from the ancient zither, enveloping Zuo Tianyang.

Seeing this, Taoist Yexin's hand was covered with golden light, and he pointed towards Zuo Tianyang's brow.

But Zuo Tianyang's figure instantly retreated and landed on the artificial mountain.

"A man's body is just awkward!!"

Zuo Tianyang's mouth made a non-male, non-female voice.

Just by listening, one could tell that the speaker was no longer Taoist Yexin, but the red-clothed, long-haired woman who had already been killed.

This red-clothed, long-haired woman was the same as the golden giant guard at the door.

After her body was defeated, her soul would still come out.

It's just that.

Because the red-clothed, long-haired woman was killed by the Celestial Phenomenon, it gave her soul the opportunity to hide in the ancient zither.

And Zuo Tianyang taking the ancient zither gave the red-clothed, long-haired woman's soul a chance to take advantage of, and her soul entered Zuo Tianyang's body.

On the artificial mountain.

Zuo Tianyang, controlled by the red-clothed, long-haired woman, raised his palm and rebuked:

"Hmph, don't you like ganging up on people?"

"I'm going to smash this guy's head now. So many of you beat me, and I can still kill one of you. I can be considered not to have lost."

Hearing this.

Taoist Yexin's face was gloomy, and the expressions of Drill Rat and Old Blind Swordsman and others were not good.

"What do you want?" Taoist Yexin asked in a deep voice.

"What do I want?"

[Zuo Tianyang]'s face showed a cold smile, and he rebuked:

"You broke into the holy land of our Lonely King Palace and shouted and killed me. Now you come and ask me what I want?"

"I want you to kneel down and kowtow to apologize to me. Will you kneel?!"

Taoist Yexin's face sank and he said:

"If you kill him, you will also die. There is no need for everyone to go to extremes."

[Zuo Tianyang] snorted coldly, and seemed to be influenced by the red-clothed, long-haired woman.
[Zuo Tianyang]'s nails also lengthened instantly.

The sharp fingertips directly pierced into [Zuo Tianyang]'s neck skin, and some blood flowed out.

"Will you... kneel or not!!"

Taoist Yexin's expression was extremely ugly. No one had ever been able to push him to this point.

"If I kneel, will you let him go?" Taoist Yexin asked.

"You have no right to bargain with me."

[Zuo Tianyang] said coldly.

Taoist Yexin chuckled and said:

"No, I have the right to bargain with you."

As he spoke.

Taoist Yexin already had a Resurrection Coin in his hand.

"Kill him."

"If you kill him, we will kill you again. In this way, I will only spend a Resurrection Coin."

[Zuo Tianyang]'s expression changed slightly, and he said sternly:

"You guys really don't have any feelings at all. In this situation, you don't think about saving your teammates, but you actually let me kill him."

"Amitabha."

Venerable Longhu said a Buddhist chant and said:

"Since it has been decided to use the Resurrection Coin, then there is nothing to say. Just fight."

[Zuo Tianyang]'s face changed again and again. These people all seemed to have status and position.

Why were they so unreasonable one by one, fighting at every turn? Was there something wrong?

As soon as he finished speaking.

Venerable Longhu took action again.

[Zuo Tianyang] roared angrily and also killed him.

His soul was simply vulnerable in front of the top experts of the Daoist and Buddhist schools.

Taoist Yexin directly gave a baptism of thunder, directly letting the red-clothed, long-haired woman know what it means to be cool from the heart and fly high!

He was directly beaten to the point of being scattered.

Good news.

Zuo Tianyang was not dead and was still alive, so he didn't need a Resurrection Coin.

Bad news.

Zuo Tianyang seemed to have injured his vitality, and the whole person was relatively weak.

"This woman's possession method is a bit too domineering!!"

Chapter 1217 - Red eyes!

Zuo Tianyang couldn't help but complain as he finally recovered.

His strength was not weak.

When he felt the woman in red with long hair trying to possess him, he had already started to resist.

The result was...

His resistance was useless, and his body was easily controlled by the soul of the woman in red with long hair.

A great humiliation!!

He, the current director of the esteemed 749 Bureau, was actually possessed by a woman.

If this were to spread, where would he put his face?

"This zither..."

Ouyang Songxue looked at the zither on the ground.

Having learned from Zuo Tianyang's experience, everyone was now hesitant to touch the zither.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger picked up the zither and, after examining its attributes, a strange smile appeared on his face.

"Quest item."

Daoist Wild Ambition opened his mouth, but ultimately said nothing.

Lin Tianhao accepted the zither, and its description immediately appeared before his eyes.

Zither of Experiment No. 4: Special.

Equip Requirement: None.

Effect: You can use different zither sounds to inflict different emotional effects on others. Full activation can cause temporary loss of focus.

(Note: This item is a zither left by a mysterious person near Experiment No. 4. If you can collect three or more pieces of equipment from the experiments, you will trigger hidden rewards and hidden quests.)

Durability: 100.

Lin Tianhao's expression was strange. The mysterious person's Experiment No. 4?

What was this?

Could it be that this woman in red with long hair was just an experiment?

According to the nature of the Gods' Twilight dungeon, the earlier the number, the more powerful they usually are.

This woman in red with long hair had already been dealt with by relying on Venerable Dragon-Tiger's Celestial Phenomenon power.

What about the previous No. 3, No. 2, and even No. 1?

Could it be...

There are existences comparable to the Celestial Phenomenon Realm?

If that were the case, it would be truly troublesome.

Of course.

The most crucial thing was still this mysterious person.

What was their identity, and how strong would they be?

In addition to that.

What about the Lonely King of this Lonely King Palace?

And the Dragon Palace that the woman in red with long hair mentioned earlier.

The water in this Moyuan is too deep!

No one knew what they would encounter if they continued forward.

Daoist Wild Ambition quickly finished looting the corpse.

He obtained a skill book from the woman in red with long hair.

This skill book was practically free, because most of the skill books in the real world currently cannot be learned directly.

Besides the skill book, a scarlet eyeball also dropped from the woman in red with long hair's corpse.

After obtaining the scarlet eyeball, a hint of joy appeared on Daoist Wild Ambition's face.

"This place actually drops this kind of thing."

Hearing this.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger smiled slightly and said:

"Wild Ambition, I also contributed a lot, can I take a look?"

Daoist Wild Ambition hesitated slightly, but still threw the scarlet eyeball to Venerable Dragon-Tiger.

After examining the effects of the two items, Venerable Dragon-Tiger said with a smile:

"Amitabha!"

"This scarlet eyeball was dropped from the corpse, and I defeated this guy's body, so there shouldn't be a problem with me taking the items dropped from their body, right?"

“You defeated her soul, so the skill book is for you.”

Daoist Wild Ambition frowned slightly. This distribution plan didn’t seem to have any problems.

But anyone with eyes could tell that the scarlet eyeball was clearly better than the skill book.

Daoist Wild Ambition was not the kind of person to take advantage of others, and waved his hand, saying:

“Alright, the skill book is mine, and the eyeball is yours.”

Hearing this.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger opened his mouth and ate the scarlet eyeball in his hand.

Eating an eyeball raw!

Do these big shots like to eat these strange things raw?

When Daoist Wild Ambition ate the corpse maggots earlier, he didn’t hesitate at all.

“What about this zither?” Daoist Wild Ambition asked.

“Since it’s a quest item, let’s temporarily leave it with Snow Emperor. If Snow Emperor wants to leave early, they can leave the quest item behind, how about that?”

Daoist Wild Ambition had no objections, and naturally no one else had any objections either.

“Do we continue forward?” Ouyang Songxue suddenly asked.

Daoist Wild Ambition frowned slightly. He looked at the zither and obviously guessed many things.

Rushing over rashly would be mostly dangerous.

“Snow Emperor, what do you say?” Daoist Wild Ambition asked.

Lin Tianhao glanced at everyone and said solemnly:

“Can you guarantee that no matter what we encounter next, we can unite as one and overcome the difficulties together?”

Lin Tianhao knew.

If they encountered opponents again, relying on Daoist Wild Ambition or Venerable Dragon-Tiger would probably be difficult.

They needed everyone present to unite as one.

“That’s natural. Killing these monsters will benefit everyone, which will naturally unite us.”

Lin Tianhao nodded lightly and said very seriously:

“To be honest, among all of you, the only person I trust is Daoist Wild Ambition.”

“As for the others, I can’t guarantee what you will do when the benefits are great enough, or the danger is great enough.”

“But I hope you can guard your original intentions, because I have a premonition.”

“If we can’t leave here as soon as possible, all of us will die, all of us!!”

Lin Tianhao deduced some things through his memories from his previous life.

According to his previous life’s memories.

Daoist Wild Ambition was definitely doomed.

As for the others, Lin Tianhao didn’t know.

But he had to make things sound more serious.

“This...”

Wang Chongfeng’s expression changed drastically, and the expressions of the others also became somewhat unsightly.

“I know it’s hard for you to believe me when I say this, but this really might be our ending.”

“Therefore, we must unite and leave here as soon as possible.”

Daoist Wild Ambition and Zuo Tianyang exchanged glances.

The purpose of their trip was to find the old director of the 749 Bureau.

Now that they only had a little clue about the old director, they were unwilling to give up halfway.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger looked at Lin Tianhao with some uncertainty and asked:

“Does that include me?”

Clearly.

As a Celestial Phenomenon Realm expert, Venerable Dragon-Tiger still had great confidence in his strength.

Lin Tianhao nodded solemnly, “I said, everyone!”

Venerable Dragon-Tiger was silent. After a while, he said:

“So according to what you said, should we continue to explore this Lonely King Palace?”

Lin Tianhao pondered for a while and said:

“Explore!!”

Where could they go if they retreated now?

Continue to wander in this fifth floor, or go down to that black pool.

Putting aside everything else, he was a hundred times unwilling to go down to the black pool.

Chapter 1218 - Materialize items!

That black pool was as dark as ink, making it impossible to see anything, and the uncertainty of going down was too great.

Especially since.

The opponents on this fifth level were not ordinary.

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao planned to continue exploring.

Daoist Yexin pondered slightly and said:

“Why don't we wait a bit longer? Firstly, if Cripple and the others discover that Six Fingers has escaped, they will come looking for us.”

“Secondly, I want to kill the Golden Giant Guards a few more times. I can feel that I've touched the threshold of the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, just one step away.”

“Although I don't like Venerable Dragon-Tiger, he won't attack you. Our general direction is the same.”

“Amitabha.”

Venerable Dragon-Tiger chanted a Buddhist prayer and said with a smile:

“Snow Emperor, you can rest assured, I will also protect you, nothing will happen to you.”

Lin Tianhao nodded slightly, this was even better.

He had been here for more than a day, and he was still in the Ancient God Mystic Realm.

There was a high probability that there were Saint artifacts or Saint-level items in the territory of God-King Dongshuo.

He hadn't found these Saint-level items in God-King Dongshuo's territory yet, so it seemed good to take some time to go up and look for them.

With Venerable Dragon-Tiger here, Lin Tianhao didn't need to deal with the two Golden Giant Guards.

Which meant.

Before Daoist Yexin broke through to the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, he could stay in 'Twilight of the Gods'.

Although, due to the limited space in his storage ring, he only brought the game helmet and not nutritional meals.

Theoretically, he would need to log off to eat.

However.

The dragon pearl in Lin Tianhao's body meant that even if he didn't eat or drink, he would be fine.

Returning to the open space in front of the Golden Palace, Lin Tianhao took out the game helmet.

Daoist Yexin also took out a game helmet.

“Wang Chongfeng, now that we have time, you can manifest something from 'Twilight of the Gods'.”

Wang Chongfeng pondered slightly and said:

“It should be possible to manifest things now, but I don't have anything good to manifest at the moment.”

“That's easy, Mole, log in and have Blade trade some things to Wang Chongfeng.”

“What's your nickname?”

Wang Chongfeng smiled awkwardly and said: “Lord Feng of the F*ck-the-Sky Gang.”

Daoist Yexin: “.....”

Just with that nickname.

Daoist Yexin felt that Wang Chongfeng shouldn't have much to do with those bastards from Aolong Village.

The reason was simple.

Who with a bit of cunning would choose such a name?

However.

It was hard to say.

Maybe this was Wang Chongfeng's own disguise.

A chuunibyou (delusional) and well-known beginning, coupled with a grandfather-style naming method that looked very old-fashioned.

It looked like it was taken by a simple-minded, underdeveloped chuunibyou social awkward person.

After all.

Socially inept people wouldn't choose such a flamboyant name.

“Okay, I'll have Blade add you as a friend.”

Mole first logged into 'Twilight of the Gods' using the game helmet.

Lin Tianhao wasn't in a hurry either, he also wanted to see how Wang Chongfeng manifested things from 'Twilight of the Gods'.

In less than ten minutes, Mole logged off.

“Okay, Blade has added you as a friend, you log in and accept, and Blade will satisfy your needs as much as possible.”

“Alright.”

Wang Chongfeng didn't waste any words and logged into the game using the game helmet.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger looked at Daoist Yexin with an uncertain expression and couldn't help but say:

“He... ..can manifest things from 'Twilight of the Gods' now?”

To be honest.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger was really surprised.

Being able to manifest things from 'Twilight of the Gods' at this stage had too much impact.

To put it bluntly.

If enough things could be manifested, Dragon Country could completely unify the world before 'Twilight of the Gods' and reality merged!!

Just thinking about it sent chills down his spine.

“Not sure, he said he could, but he hasn't tried it yet.”

“Didn't you say he was from your 749 Bureau?”

“Listening to you, you only met him in Mo Yuan, right?” Venerable Dragon-Tiger said with a stern face.

Daoist Yexin smiled slightly and said: “I did meet him in Mo Yuan, but wasn't he recruited by me?”

As soon as he finished speaking, a spot of light appeared in front of Wang Chongfeng.

The spot of light grew larger and larger, and finally formed a light cluster that was exactly the same as the one that appeared after killing monsters in Mo Yuan.

Seeing this scene.

Daoist Yexin, Zuo Tianyang and the others revealed expressions of joy.

Because Wang Chongfeng being able to manifest things from 'Twilight of the Gods' was too significant for them.

If Snow Emperor was an invincible god of war after the fusion of 'Twilight of the Gods' and reality.

Then Wang Chongfeng's method could be a super weapon before the fusion of 'Twilight of the Gods' and reality.

This... ..was too terrifying!

In this instant.

Daoist Yexin and Zuo Tianyang both came up with an idea.

That was... ..to unify the world!!

Using the things in 'Twilight of the Gods' to cultivate super experts in batches.

Then simultaneously cut off all the nuclear weapons in the world... ..

The more Daoist Yexin thought about it, the more crazy he felt.

Not long after the light cluster formed, Wang Chongfeng logged off.

He looked at the light cluster in front of him and said with a smile:

“Hehe, I didn't lie to you, did I?”

As he spoke.

Wang Chongfeng grabbed the light beam.

When the light sphere disappeared, a card appeared in Wang Chongfeng's hand.

This card looked very ordinary on the surface, with nothing special about it.

“A one-time summon card?” Daoist Yexin asked.

Wang Chongfeng nodded and said:

“With our current situation, this kind of one-time summon card is definitely the most useful.”

“This is what Blade gave me, a level 2000 platinum-grade one-time summon card, which can summon a level 2000 platinum Icefield Wolf King.”

Daoist Yexin hesitated slightly and asked:

“Have you used experience packs before? Can they increase cultivation?”

“Yes!”

Wang Chongfeng gave a very affirmative answer.

“But it's not very useful, it's about the same as leveling up in 'Twilight of the Gods', it can comprehensively improve physical fitness and accumulate a little bit of internal energy.”

“Moreover, only leveling up will have this kind of improvement, not just using an experience pack will have this effect.”

At this point.

Wang Chongfeng grinned and said:

“It's still better here, every time you kill a monster, you can improve, and the effect is much better than using experience packs.”

Lin Tianhao had actually realized these problems as well.

The things in this Mo Yuan were too special.

Lin Tianhao had thought of this problem from the beginning.

If they could get experience points from killing these monsters, and then have a sudden enlightenment in a form similar to leveling up.

But it wouldn't be a sudden enlightenment every time they killed a monster, would it?

Most importantly.

The improvement brought by each sudden enlightenment was indeed not small.

Chapter 1219 - Back to the game: Green-faced Beast!

Mo Yuan holds a great secret.

Resurrection coins were extremely precious even ten years into his previous life, but the number of resurrection coins here is simply too high!!

Under normal circumstances, painstakingly clearing a dungeon might yield two or three resurrection coins, and that would be something to brag about for a long time.

But here in Mo Yuan.

You can casually find a dozen or more resurrection coins.

So far, Lin Tianhao and his group have obtained more than twenty resurrection coins.

And that doesn't even include the resurrection coins obtained by Dragon-Tiger Venerable and the others.

If you count them all, they've obtained even more resurrection coins.

Especially since.

Azure Fang Ghoull Fiend is still by Lin Tianhao's side.

Re-entering Twilight of the Gods.

As Lin Tianhao expected, he was fine, and Azure Fang Ghoull Fiend was guarding him.

Seeing Lin Tianhao open his eyes, Azure Fang Ghoull Fiend immediately smiled and said:

"Master, you're back."

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and looked around. He was still in the territory of the Eastern Shuo God-King.

Everywhere was ruins. Lin Tianhao looked at Azure Fang Ghoull Fiend and asked:

"During the time I was offline, did anything special happen here?"

Hearing this.

Azure Fang Ghoull Fiend waved his hand and said:

"Nothing really. Some Blood Eaters came to take a look, but they stayed far away. They were probably curious about you killing the Eastern Shuo God-King and the others, but they didn't dare to get close."

Lin Tianhao nodded lightly.

The soul origins with sin value here are becoming fewer and fewer. Looking around, Lin Tianhao couldn't see a single one.

This is not good news.

Furthermore.

Lin Tianhao also really wants to obtain the things that might exist on the Eastern Shuo God-King's territory.

The things that can leave behind soul origins are the most crucial.

It's just.

Lin Tianhao had already searched before, but he couldn't find them.

"Master, I have a plan that might help us find the treasure that left behind these soul origins."

Clearly.

Azure Fang Ghouls hadn't been idle for the past day or so, and was still planning for Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and asked curiously:

"What method?"

"Capture a few Blood Eaters and kill them here to study their soul origins."

"Perhaps after killing them, we can figure out how these soul origins are trapped here."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up and he said:

"You really are... a good person!!"

"I just wonder what your fellow Blood Eaters would think if they knew what you were thinking."

Hearing this.

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend waved his hand and said:

"What they think is their business, what does it have to do with me?"

"There are very few true friends among us Blood Eaters."

"We all need a lot of bloodstones, so we naturally have a competitive relationship."

"Good."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile and asked: "Who do you think is suitable to find?"

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend said without hesitation:

"Find some weaker ones, so we can directly capture them, or even not need to capture them. If we threaten them a little, they will come."

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

"Very good."

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend led Lin Tianhao to a graveyard shrouded in mist.

The graveyard was not large, with only a few dozen tombstones scattered around.

After arriving here, Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend couldn't help but shout in a low voice:

"You Green-Faced Beasts, upon seeing my presence, why don't you quickly come out to greet me!!"

Along with Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend's roar, wisps of green smoke floated out from the graves.

These green smokes turned into small monsters with green faces and fangs, and thin limbs.

Lin Tianhao glanced over.

Green-Faced Beast (Platinum): Level 3125.

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

These Green-Faced Beasts are not products of Twilight of the Gods, and Lin Tianhao can only see their grade and level.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao thought of something and said:

"Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend, look at me, what attribute information of mine can you see?"

According to Lin Tianhao's estimation, Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend's level is higher than his, but theoretically.

The things that Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend can see should not be as much as he imagined.

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend subconsciously replied: "Level, I can't see anything else."

"This is because the master of your origin world has blessed you. Generally, outside, you can basically only see the level, and you can't see any other information."

"Of course."

"You can also sense aura, which is more mysterious. Generally, after reaching the seventh reincarnation, you will be much more sensitive to capturing aura."

Lin Tianhao understood in his heart, and those Green-Faced Beasts also kowtowed to Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend in unison.

"Greetings, Lord Azure Fang!!"

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend waved his hand and said:

"Come with me, I need your help with something."

Hearing this.

These dozen or so Green-Faced Beasts were somewhat hesitant.

"Hmm?"

"Is there a problem?"

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend's cold gaze swept over them.

Seeing this scene.

These dozen or so Green-Faced Beasts quickly said:

"No problem, no problem."

Only then did Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend nod in satisfaction and said:

"Let's go."

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but find it funny. Once, he was actually no different from these Green-Faced Beasts.

Being summoned and dismissed by these powerful people.

However.

His fate is slightly better than these Green-Faced Beasts.

After all, most of the things they did in their previous lives were to fight against the demons of Mo Yuan and the monsters of the Alett star system.

These Green-Faced Beasts are different, they were sold out by their own people!

Arriving at the territory of the Eastern Shuo God-King.

Looking at the ruins here, these Green-Faced Beasts were somewhat puzzled.

A Green-Faced Beast asked in a low voice:

"Lord Azure Fang, I heard that there is a super strong man here, who killed the Eastern Shuo God-King."

"You... you don't want us to investigate his news, do you?"

After all, the Eastern Shuo God-King and so many strong men who should have died in history were killed again.

Naturally, some people thought about sending them, these weak people

Hearing this, Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend shook his head and said:

"What are you talking about?"

"If you want you to inquire about news, you don't need to let you all come, right? Wouldn't it be enough to send one to inquire about news?"

Hearing this.

These Green-Faced Beasts breathed a sigh of relief.

"Hahaha, I knew that Lord Azure Fang wouldn't let us go to our deaths."

Azure Fang Ghoul Fiend grinned and said:

"No, no, no, I just said that I won't let you inquire about news, but I didn't say that I won't let you go to your deaths."

Upon hearing this.

The faces of these Green-Faced Beasts changed drastically.

The Green-Faced Beasts who were further behind turned around and ran without saying a word.

Seeing this scene.

Lin Tianhao grinned.

He didn't even need to summon the longbow, he directly activated Arrow From the Heart.

A large number of feather arrows flew towards these fleeing Green-Faced Beasts.

Chapter 1220 - Experiment and search for saint-level items!

"No, don't!!"

These Green-Faced Beasts instantly unfolded their domains, attempting to block Lin Tianhao's attack.

But to no avail!

Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows were guaranteed to hit.

These guys were fast, but the Greenfang Ghostfiend had already cut off their retreat.

“Since you're here, why run?!!”

These Platinum-grade Green-Faced Beasts above level 3000 were no match for Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows.

“Ding, congratulations, you have successfully killed a Green-Faced Beast, a server-wide announcement is about to be made, would you like to hide your name?”

Lin Tianhao didn't attack again, nor did he enslave the souls of these Green-Faced Beasts.

He wanted to see what changes would occur in the origin of these Green-Faced Beasts' souls.

They were dead, but the sin value on their bodies still floated in the void.

Lin Tianhao knew that this was the origin of their souls.

Lin Tianhao observed the sin value he could see, so as to judge the movement of the origin of these Green-Faced Beasts' souls.

However.

To Lin Tianhao's disappointment, these soul origins didn't move at all.

These soul origins stood in place, motionless, showing no problems.

On the other side.

The remaining Green-Faced Beasts looked at the Greenfang Ghostfiend with horror.

“Lord Greenfang, we are all blood eaters, all of the same race.”

“Why!!”

“Why help a human to slaughter us?”

The Greenfang Ghostfiend smiled slightly and said:

“This is my lord, I am just following orders.”

“You shouldn't blame me, blame your own weakness and incompetence!!”

“In this world, weakness is the original sin, just like you used to eat people.”

The expressions of the Greenfang Ghostfiends became extremely solemn, they gritted their teeth one by one, their expressions extremely sinister.

They didn't understand, they didn't understand, what was going on!

“Lord, how is it?” The Greenfang Ghostfiend ignored these Green-Faced Beasts and looked respectfully at Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly and said:

“Things are more complicated than I thought, let's try another place.”

“Okay.”

The Greenfang Ghostfiend's hands glowed with dark light, turning into dark light chains, binding the remaining Green-Faced Beasts.

These Green-Faced Beasts wanted to resist, but it was useless.

The difference in strength between them and the Greenfang Ghostfiend was too great.

Next.

Lin Tianhao kept switching positions to kill these Green-Faced Beasts.

The results were the same.

After these Green-Faced Beasts were killed, their soul origins remained in place, without leaving or moving.

Could it be that within the territory of this East Shuo Divine King, there is something that can fix their soul origins, preventing them from moving?

Lin Tianhao already had a guess in his mind.

If that's the case.

Then this thing is likely to affect the surroundings in units.

Then.

As long as the maximum distance is tested, and then the center point is taken, you can know what that thing is likely to be.

Thinking like this.

Lin Tianhao walked towards the periphery of the East Shuo Divine King's territory.

After walking out of the East Shuo Divine King's territory, Lin Tianhao walked another kilometer, and then killed a Green-Faced Beast.

After the Green-Faced Beast died, Lin Tianhao couldn't see the sin value anymore, indicating that its soul origin was not here.

Thus.

Lin Tianhao directly enslaved its soul.

After doing this, Lin Tianhao entered the East Shuo Divine King's territory and killed the undead of this Green-Faced Beast.

The sin value appeared.

Thus.

It also proved that this place has entered the range of that thing's imprisonment of the soul origin.

However.

This was just the beginning.

Lin Tianhao continued to test within the East Shuo Divine King's territory.

The remaining Green-Faced Beasts quickly died.

Even if Lin Tianhao enslaved their souls and made them die a second time, he still hadn't gotten the accurate answer he wanted.

He needed to find a center point.

Because the range of this kind of radiation imprisonment is generally a radius of so many meters or kilometers.

As long as he keeps testing in the marginal areas, and then connects the points tested in these marginal areas, he can form a square.

And the middle of this square will be the center of this radiating circular range.

Thus.

Lin Tianhao will be able to find the Saint-level item that is affecting this place.

The Greenfang Ghostfiend quickly brought more than a dozen Green-Faced Beasts.

Lin Tianhao can only say, Greenfang Ghostfiend, well done!!

Attacking his own race, he is not soft-hearted at all!!

With these Green-Faced Beasts, Lin Tianhao conducted edge testing again.

After killing all these dozen Green-Faced Beasts, Lin Tianhao already knew the center he was looking for.

In fact, before he finished killing them, Lin Tianhao already roughly knew the center he was looking for.

But these Green-Faced Beasts who came to his door, he would be a fool not to kill them.

Killing these Green-Faced Beasts, he can make the points he seeks for the center more accurate.

Simultaneously.

He can also leave a little more soul origin here.

This way.

Whether he can find this Saint-level item or not, he can kill these soul origins to stack his health points.

Running towards the center he had calculated.

This place, like other territories of the East Shuo Divine King, is a ruin.

Standing on this ruin, he still didn't find anything.

Between raising his hand.

Lin Tianhao used his powerful mental power to control these ruins to float in the air.

The ruins were cleaned up bit by bit, and Lin Tianhao observed each ruin with his naked eyes.

Even if it was the size of a little finger, Lin Tianhao didn't let it go.

Because Lin Tianhao knew.

Saint-level items cannot be observed with his divine sense, but can only be observed with the naked eye.

The Greenfang Ghostfiend was not stupid, he was also helping Lin Tianhao observe the things inside these ruins.

Pieces of ruins were piled up by Lin Tianhao to the open space in the distance.

Even after he had finished observing, Lin Tianhao still didn't give up.

“Black Heaven Pride!”

Lin Tianhao shouted softly and called out Black Heaven Pride.

“You check a second time, see if there is anything suspicious in these ruins.”

“Greenfang Ghostfiend, you check a third time, and I will review it again.”

Lin Tianhao wanted to ensure that there would be no mistakes.

Judging from the current situation, the Saint-level item is likely to be here.

At least.

Based on Lin Tianhao's understanding of the Twilight of the Gods in both his previous and present lives, this is the case, and there should be no mistake.

Lin Tianhao's expression was serious, and all the ruins under his feet had been checked by him.

The result is... nothing was found.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath and re-examined according to the previous plan, but still didn't find anything.

“Next, I will conduct a second experiment, which may require some experimental subjects.” Lin Tianhao said.

Hearing this.

The Greenfang Ghostfiend said directly:

“Lord, wait a moment, I'll be right back.”
