

O game 1301

Chapter 1301 - Heading to the seventh floor!

Obviously.

Daoist Wild Ambition no longer wanted to delay.

They needed to resolve Mo Yuan's matter as soon as possible and then leave.

After all, the two biggest tasks of this trip to Mo Yuan had been completed, so there was not much point in them staying here.

The first was the one the Old Director was responsible for, which was to find the higher-level virtual reality game pod.

As for the second.

It was the mission Daoist Wild Ambition and Lin Tianhao received, to find the Old Director and the others.

Now that the Old Director and the others had left, their core mission here was considered complete.

However.

“The road ahead will be even more difficult. Bureau Chief Zuo, you and Old Man Blind Swordsman, Wang Chongfeng, leave first. Also, Venerable Dragon-Tiger, you have only just completed body refinement, and your physique is still in the rising stage, you can also leave first.”

When mentioning Wang Chongfeng, Daoist Wild Ambition hesitated a little.

Mainly because Wang Chongfeng's own combat power was not strong, but he could continuously materialize one-time summon cards from Ragnarok, and his auxiliary role was still quite significant.

But Daoist Wild Ambition only hesitated for a moment before deciding to let Wang Chongfeng leave together.

Wang Chongfeng's existence could help Dragon Country stabilize the current situation.

After all, the Eagle Country had launched such a decapitation operation this time, and Dragon Country's combat power had suffered a lot.

Especially the mid-to-high-level martial artists, the losses were the greatest.

Wang Chongfeng's manifestation ability, each manifestation of a one-time summon card, was equivalent to Dragon Country having one more one-time mid-to-high-level martial artist.

This was still very meaningful.

No one present knew what dangers they would encounter going to the seventh level of Mo Yuan.

But one thing was certain.

That was that the danger of the seventh level of Mo Yuan would definitely be more dangerous than the sixth level.

They were already having such a difficult time walking through this sixth level of Mo Yuan, it was really hard to say what they would encounter going to the seventh level.

“Okay.”

Zuo Tianyang nodded, he also knew that with his strength, there were very few places where he could help if he went to the seventh level of Mo Yuan.

However.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger shook his head and said:

“I haven’t fully absorbed the Yin-Yang Double Dragon Blood and your Yin-Yang Dual Extremes power yet. Fighting can help me quickly absorb these energies and strengthen my physique.”

“If I leave now, I may not be able to find a suitable opponent outside.”

Having said that.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger paused slightly before continuing to say:

“Moreover.”

“I have also gained something in this instance, and my strength has improved further.”

Hearing this.

Daoist Wild Ambition nodded and said:

“Venerable Dragon-Tiger, you have your own judgment, I still trust you on this point.”

“Since you’ve decided to stay, then stay.”

Zuo Tianyang and the other three left, Zhang Linglong was gone, and Digging Mouse and Venerable Dragon-Tiger’s two subordinates had not come out yet.

Now only Lin Tianhao, Daoist Wild Ambition, Venerable Dragon-Tiger, Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue, and Hei Xiaomeng, these three people and two corpses, were left here.

Hei Xiaomeng basically knew the general situation of this sixth level of Mo Yuan, and she could ask the Ethereal Female Demon about the places she didn't know.

Hei Xiaomeng herself knew how to go to the seventh level.

Under Hei Xiaomeng's leadership, Lin Tianhao and the others passed through a misty tunnel.

After coming out of the misty tunnel, a huge canyon appeared in front of them.

This canyon was filled with black mist, making it impossible to see the situation below the canyon.

In this regard, it was similar to the situation of the Black Pool.

"Did the Old Director say anything about the situation here?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Daoist Wild Ambition shook his head and said:

"He didn't say anything about this, he only focused on the situation of the Mad King."

Having said that.

Daoist Wild Ambition did not continue speaking, but used the means of secret voice transmission.

"The Mad King is a relatively all-around existence, he has dual forms."

“The first form is extremely fast and possesses super healing abilities. Even a severed hand or a pierced heart cannot kill him, and he can recover quickly.”

“The second form is the ultimate strength and defense. The Old Director’s description is that, in terms of defense, it may be even better than the Black Demon, and the strength is even more outrageous, you cannot directly take any of his attacks, otherwise you will suffer heavy damage.”

Having said that.

Daoist Wild Ambition paused slightly before continuing to say:

“Moreover, the Old Director also said that he suspected that this Mad King had a third form.”

“That is, speed, recovery, strength, and defense are all very high.”

“The only thing to be thankful for is that the Mad King seems to have no skills, therefore, as long as you pay attention, it is entirely possible to escape when facing the Mad King.”

“Of course.”

“You cannot let the Mad King use his possible third form.”

“If he uses his third form, then it will really be impossible for even immortals to save you.”

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but gasp.

Defense is only stronger than the Black Demon, and strength is even above the Black Demon.

Isn't this a proper Black Demon 2.0 version?

If he also possesses powerful speed and recovery, then it may really be as the Old Director said, impossible for even immortals to save you.

“I don’t think there’s too much to worry about.”

Venerable Dragon-Tiger also transmitted his voice secretly.

“Even if there really is a third form, it’s just an enhanced version of the Black Demon.”

“Our current strength is fully capable of killing the opponent.”

Lin Tianhao frowned and also transmitted his voice.

“Don’t ignore the recovery. According to the Old Director, this Mad King’s recovery ability is insanely good.”

“If he also possesses speed, strength, and defense above the Black Demon.”

“It won’t be easy for us to deal with him.”

Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue smiled and transmitted his voice:

“Not necessarily, the Black Demon’s nuclear radiation, plus the corpse energy of me and Hei Xiaomeng, this Mad King may not be able to withstand it.”

Lin Tianhao stopped talking, no matter what, he needed to fight this Mad King.

Let him be strong, the gentle breeze caresses the mountain!

Lin Tianhao had encountered so many strong people along the way, he didn't believe he couldn't get past this Mad King hurdle.

“Going down from here, we can reach the seventh level.”

“According to what I know, there is a group of Shadow Wall Lizards below, and they crawl on the rock walls very quickly.”

“Being attacked by these demonized lizardmen may cause you to fall off the cliff.”

Having said that.

Hei Xiaomeng grinned, “But you don’t have to worry, I’ll scout the way.”

When the words fell.

Hei Xiaomeng manifested her true form and rushed downwards.

Lin Tianhao, Daoist Wild Ambition, Venerable Dragon-Tiger and the others followed closely behind.

Waves of enlightenment poured in, Hei Xiaomeng opened the way in front, relying on her Demonic Bone Corpse Dragon body, these demonized lizardmen were like paper paste under her dragon claws, breaking with a touch.

Lin Tianhao and the others didn't need to do anything in the back, and they could get waves of enlightenment.

Chapter 1302 - I just want to make a hole!

Before long.

Lin Tianhao and the others landed.

After landing, Lin Tianhao immediately observed his surroundings.

Here.

There was no black mist, and his vision was immediately restored, giving Lin Tianhao the illusion that this layer might be simpler.

The ground was soft and collapsed, as if he were in a swamp.

Lin Tianhao had no doubt that if he exerted a little force on his feet, he would sink into it.

All around.

Lin Tianhao saw small shrubs.

The leaves of these shrubs were black and red, as if there was blood about to dry up in the leaves, and wisps of fishy stench were transmitted into Lin Tianhao's nose.

He couldn't find the source of the smell, it seemed that this seventh layer was filled with such a smell.

"I don't know much about this seventh layer, we have to explore the road ahead together," Hei Xiaomeng said.

Lin Tianhao looked at these small shrubs, similar to these shrubs, which are everywhere in this seventh layer.

And above.

Lin Tianhao couldn't see the rock formations either, what he could see was a layer of black mist.

As for whether there were rock formations above the black mist, Lin Tianhao was not very clear, because he couldn't see it.

But Lin Tianhao felt.

If there are demonized creatures hidden in the black mist above, and they launch a sneak attack on them from above, it may still cause trouble for them.

As for killing them, that is unlikely.

After all, Lin Tianhao and the others are not idle people, even if the first form of the Mad King sneaks up on them from above, it is difficult for them to be directly killed.

After shuttling through the bushes for five or six minutes, a stone tablet appeared in front.

Three traditional Chinese characters are engraved on the stone tablet: Madhouse.

Lin Tianhao looked forward along the stone tablet, and could see the outline of a building in the darkness in the distance, where there seemed to be some houses.

The distance was still a bit far, and Lin Tianhao couldn't see it too clearly.

Several people crossed the boundary line of the lunatic asylum stone tablet, and just came over.

Lin Tianhao felt that his emotions were affected by some kind of force.

Lin Tianhao suppressed this emotional influence and turned his gaze to the other people.

The states of Taoist Wild Ambition and Venerable Dragon Tiger were the same as if nothing had happened.

Corpse Ancestor Tianyue and Hei Xiaomeng frowned.

As the group continued to move forward, the power that made people crazy also increased.

Hei Xiaomeng clenched and loosened her fists, then clenched them again.

Her neck was a little unnaturally crooked, and her whole person's emotions looked extremely wrong.

"I...I want to fight, I want to kill people, I want to smash everything here."

Hei Xiaomeng's voice trembled a little.

It could be heard that she was already suppressing her emotions.

Lin Tianhao frowned, and many crazy thoughts came to his mind.

For example...

The six scars on the top of Venerable Dragon Tiger's head, what if I drilled through the skull with an electric drill and planted grass on it?

Wouldn't it be a green grassland on the top of his head?

Taoist Wild Ambition's physique is not good. If he finds the right angle and punches Taoist Wild Ambition in the face, how many circles can Taoist Wild Ambition's head turn on his neck?

Also...

How much force is needed to make Taoist Wild Ambition's head spin, but his body remains motionless?

And.

What needs to be done to make Taoist Wild Ambition's head turn more circles on his neck, and his head won't fall off because of the broken flesh and bones?

In addition.

Hei Mo's arm has been broken for some time. If you cut off one of Hei Xiaomeng's arms and attach it to Hei Mo's broken arm, will Hei Mo's attack power be stronger if he has a dragon claw?

As for Corpse Ancestor Tianyue...

If Corpse Ancestor Tianyue is tied up and glutinous rice is continuously sprinkled on her body, will Corpse Ancestor Tianyue's body keep crackling like setting off firecrackers?

After all, Lin Tianhao knew that glutinous rice could restrain zombies. When glutinous rice is sprinkled on zombies, it will crackle.

...

Crazy ideas appeared in Lin Tianhao's mind one by one.

Lin Tianhao was already trying his best to suppress these thoughts, otherwise he might really put them into action.

That stone tablet!!

Madhouse!!

"There is a big problem with this place."

Taoist Wild Ambition frowned and said, "My emotions have also been affected. Shouldn't your condition be worse?"

"Amitabha!!"

Venerable Dragon Tiger recited a Buddhist chant, and golden light spread out from his body.

Lin Tianhao's emotions improved a little, but the crazy thoughts in his heart never dissipated.

Even.

He has already conceived a new plan in his mind.

If you attack Taoist Wild Ambition, with Taoist Wild Ambition's physical strength, his head will only turn a dozen circles at most.

But if you attack Venerable Dragon Tiger, then Venerable Dragon Tiger's head may turn more than fifty circles on his neck!!

So.

From a viewing perspective, attacking Venerable Dragon Tiger would be better.

In addition.

Lin Tianhao also had an idea.

If he was attacked like this, how many circles would his head be able to turn on his neck?

Besides.

At which circle would his head turn before he died?

If the head is spinning in circles on the neck, what would the sight be like?

Why don't...try it...

Why don't...try it!!

The thoughts became more and more crazy, and Lin Tianhao wanted to suppress these strange thoughts in his heart.

But no matter how he tried to suppress them, it was useless.

These thoughts in his head lingered and even wanted to occupy all the thoughts in his heart.

"Purifying Heart Mantra!"

Taoist Wild Ambition chanted a spell, and silver-white waves rippled out. Lin Tianhao's crazy emotions were finally soothed.

At least.

He only wants to make holes in Venerable Dragon Tiger's head now.

"Are we still going?"

Corpse Ancestor Tianyue's voice was almost squeezed out from between her teeth. If it weren't for Taoist Wild Ambition's Purifying Heart Mantra, she would have already put some of the thoughts in her heart into action.

"Old Bureau Chief, didn't you really say anything about the problem here?" Lin Tianhao gritted his teeth and said.

The ability to interfere with emotions here is too strong. If the Old Bureau Chief had passed through here, there was no reason why he wouldn't have told them.

Just.

The Old Bureau Chief's message was transmitted through Twilight of the Gods.

There should be no problem with the message, but why...

Taoist Wild Ambition's face was also very ugly, but Venerable Dragon Tiger thought of something and said:

"Wild Ambition, did the Old Bureau Chief tell you the news through Twilight of the Gods, or through someone else?"

Venerable Dragon Tiger asked.

Obviously.

He was already a little suspicious of the Old Bureau Chief.

Chapter 1303 - The neck is twisted into a knot!

Daoist Ambition's expression changed drastically as he realized the problem.

"The old Director hasn't logged into the game; the message came from Blade."

The moment Daoist Ambition said this, he realized the issue.

"There might be a copycat on the seventh floor as well, and this copycat is likely an upgraded version of the one on the sixth floor."

"The one who went out might not be the real old Director!!"

"Retreat!!"

Daoist Ambition shouted, his face extremely grim. They were actually being manipulated to this extent.

"We must immediately notify headquarters. If this old Director is a fake, there will be big problems!!"

However.

Just as Daoist Ambition was about to retreat, a low whisper suddenly sounded.

"Bugs, eat brains... bugs, eat brains..."

Accompanying the voice, a large number of bizarre bugs appeared on the ground.

Some of these bugs were flying, some were crawling, and they charged toward Lin Tianhao and the others in massive numbers.

"Moo——"

Blackie Meng let out an angry roar, and the dragon's roar caused the bugs to pause for a moment.

But it was only for that moment, and then...

The bugs once again charged frantically toward Lin Tianhao and the others.

Blackie Meng opened her mouth and spewed out a mouthful of dragon flames.

Lin Tianhao, however, didn't use dragon flames because he had already noticed the person who was making the sound.

It was a mad woman, and these bugs were pouring out of her body.

“Black Demon!!”

Lin Tianhao summoned the Black Demon and charged toward the woman.

“Show mercy!!”

Daoist Ambition shouted.

Lin Tianhao had already recognized that this mad woman was none other than the Six-Fingered Witch!!

He didn't know if this was a copycat Six-Fingered Witch or the real one.

Normally speaking.

Copycats were Mo Yuan's creations and shouldn't be driven mad.

Of course.

It couldn't be ruled out that the copycat was pretending to be the Six-Fingered Witch, deliberately acting so insane to make them believe it.

“Understood.”

Lin Tianhao only wanted to change the direction of the bugs by attacking the Six-Fingered Witch.

However.

Just as the Black Demon was about to approach the Six-Fingered Witch, a pair of butterfly wings suddenly unfolded behind her.

The colorful butterfly wings fluttered violently, and her body flew backward.

“Human-Gu Fusion!!”

Daoist Ambition's expression changed drastically. “The Six-Fingered Witch is really crazy; how could she choose Human-Gu Fusion!!”

Lin Tianhao didn't care too much and continued to control the Black Demon to charge forward.

He was surrounded by lightning, and wherever he passed, a large number of Gu worms were killed.

Daoist Ambition wielded a golden whip, assisting the Black Demon from a distance.

But the moment Daoist Ambition rushed out, a strong mental shockwave attacked Lin Tianhao and the others.

This mental shockwave was colorless and odorless, and could only be detected with mental perception.

But by the time Lin Tianhao felt this mental shockwave, it was too late to dodge.

Lin Tianhao's mind went blank for a moment.

In that instant, he felt like he had been hit by a large truck, and his body flew backward uncontrollably.

Fortunately, his physique was now exceptionally strong, so he didn't suffer much damage.

“Zhang Linglong!!”

Lin Tianhao looked at the figure who attacked him.

Zhang Linglong had indeed left first, but here she had become a madman.

Speaking of which...

Was the Mad King also born under similar circumstances?

As Lin Tianhao thought this, he didn't resist, but ran toward the direction of the "Madhouse" stone tablet.

He ran while resisting Zhang Linglong's attacks.

However.

When Lin Tianhao returned to the location of the "Madhouse" stone tablet, his mad thoughts didn't disappear.

Lin Tianhao vaguely realized something, but because his mind was filled with various mad thoughts.

In addition to facing Zhang Linglong's attacks, he couldn't grasp it at all.

“Have you hit enough!!”

Seemingly losing the effect of Daoist Ambition's mind-clearing incantation, Lin Tianhao's mad emotions became somewhat uncontrollable.

“Bang——”

Lin Tianhao punched Zhang Linglong in the face.

Then...

As Lin Tianhao had expected, as long as he controlled the strength, the opponent's body wouldn't move, but their head would spin on their body!!

Zhang Linglong's head spun more than a dozen times on her neck, and the flesh and bones finally couldn't withstand it, and her head fell off her neck.

“Unfortunately, too bad, it actually failed!!”

The madness in Lin Tianhao's eyes grew stronger.

“I need a new test subject!!”

“This time, the head can't fall off the neck again.”

“Right.”

“Control the strength.”

Lin Tianhao's face was twisted, looking extremely terrifying.

He looked at the Dragon-Tiger Venerable in the distance.

“Can't... didn't bring a drill, poking with fingers should be very painful!!”

Then.

Lin Tianhao looked at Daoist Ambition again, “This one is good; he should have been my target.”

“Fourteen turns should be no problem; no, can't fail, control the strength, thirteen turns will do.”

Lin Tianhao's mind was filled with such thoughts, and there was no room for other thoughts.

“Amitabha!!”

A Buddhist sound exploded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

Lin Tianhao's body froze, and the mad thoughts quickly dissipated in the process.

Looking at Zhang Linglong, whose head had fallen to the ground and whose neck was twisted into a mess, Lin Tianhao opened his mouth, but ultimately said nothing.

Should he revive her?

Forget it!

She's already crazy!

Moreover.

Lin Tianhao himself might go crazy at any time.

If he revived Zhang Linglong and he punched her neck into a mess again, what would he do?

There's no need to die several times if dying once can solve the problem.

This thing that drives people crazy should be able to attach to people's bodies; otherwise, there's no reason why he would still go crazy after returning to the stone tablet of the "Madhouse."

Thinking like this.

Lin Tianhao's whole body was wrapped in flames.

In the next instant.

The crazy thoughts in Lin Tianhao's mind indeed began to dissipate.

Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up, and a smile appeared on his face.

It really works!!

The existence of dragon flames is very special; it can burn most substances in the world.

Lin Tianhao did the same, and used dragon flames to burn Blackie Meng and Corpse Ancestor Tianyue.

Blackie Meng and Corpse Ancestor Tianyue also returned to normal.

At this time.

Daoist Ambition and the Black Demon joined forces and finally solved the Six-Fingered Witch.

The Six-Fingered Witch was indeed powerful after Human-Gu Fusion, and Daoist Ambition had no choice but to go all out, first killing the Six-Fingered Witch, and then finding a way to revive her.

Chapter 1304 - News from the mountain people!

The group reunited, and seeing that Lin Tianhao, Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue, and Hei Xiaomeng had all returned to normal, both the Taoist with Ambition and Venerable Dragon-Tiger realized the problem.

“Amitabha!”

Golden runes flowed across Venerable Dragon-Tiger's body.

“Snow Emperor, give me a burn too.”

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and spat out Dragon Flames.

After the flames subsided, Venerable Dragon-Tiger's body didn't change much.

Lin Tianhao was slightly surprised. Although he had greatly controlled the power of his Dragon Flames, based on the combat power Venerable Dragon-Tiger had displayed before, even if he didn't die, he should have at least lost a layer of skin.

Not only Lin Tianhao, but even the Taoist with Ambition and Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue were somewhat surprised.

“Amitabha.”

Venerable Dragon-Tiger chanted a Buddhist prayer.

“I had some gains in the instance dungeon, a slight improvement.”

The Taoist with Ambition wanted to say something but stopped. Was that called a slight improvement?

“You bald donkey, your opportunities are truly extraordinary,” the Taoist with Ambition exclaimed.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger smiled and said:

“What about you?”

The Taoist with Ambition spread his hands. “Taoism emphasizes self-cultivation and nurturing one's nature. Mental state is what Taoism values most. These few madness factors can't affect me.”

“Stop pretending.”

Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue glanced at the Taoist with Ambition. “You used lightning to solve it, just admit it. Stop talking about mental state.”

“Cough cough!”

The Taoist with Ambition coughed twice. “My mental state is still a very important aspect.”

Lin Tianhao looked at the two corpses on the ground and said:

“What about these two?”

The Taoist with Ambition raised his eyebrows. “What about them? Burn them.”

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. Although the old director had passed on a message through the Twilight of the Gods, saying that the Six-Fingered Witch had already died, seeing the Six-Fingered Witch was unbelievable.

But still.

Venerable Dragon-Tiger chanted a Buddhist prayer and explained:

“Just now, the Taoist with Ambition and I joined forces to help the Six-Fingered Witch and Zhang Linglong recover briefly.”

“But they still pretended not to have recovered and continued to attack us, which means they are just replicas.”

With a wave of his hand, Lin Tianhao burned the bodies of Zhang Linglong and the Six-Fingered Witch to ashes.

After doing this, Lin Tianhao looked ahead and said:

“Based on the situation here, there should be something that can attach to us and make our emotions go crazy. This is also the reason why we were so crazy just now.”

“Before, I roughly observed the situation of the asylum ahead. There is a small building in the front, about five stories high, and two buildings in the back, eight stories high.”

“There seems to be another building at the very back, but it is relatively short, and I can't see it completely.”

After listening to Lin Tianhao's words.

The Taoist with Ambition couldn't help but nod and said:

“There should be an ancient building in the back, only three stories high.”

“Currently, I can cover my body with flames to pass through. Taoist with Ambition has lightning, what about you?”

Hei Xiaomeng grinned. “Hehe, I can also cover my body with flames.”

Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue frowned. She could withstand Dragon Flames.

But withstanding it for ten seconds and withstanding it for ten minutes were two completely different concepts.

With her strength, withstanding it for a few minutes was no problem, but if it was for dozens of minutes, that wouldn't work.

As for Venerable Dragon-Tiger, his expression had already collapsed.

“I have secret Buddhist techniques that can keep me as awake as possible, but if we continue to move forward and the maddening aura becomes stronger and stronger, then I can't go.”

“I'm not good either,” Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue said.

“Especially if we fight, and you can't use Dragon Flames to take care of us, it will be even more troublesome.”

The Taoist with Ambition waved his hand. "You guys discuss first, I'm going to contact Blade."

The old director who went out was likely a fake, and this matter was no small matter. It needed to be passed back as soon as possible.

After a while.

The Taoist with Ambition exited the Twilight of the Gods, his expression somewhat solemn, and said:

"Things are a bit troublesome, we might have been tricked."

"What's wrong?" Venerable Dragon-Tiger asked.

"The guy who went out is indeed not the old director, because the higher-ups have contacted the mountain people, and the news they got from the mountain people is that no one can get out from the seventh and eighth floors."

"Moreover."

"The news from the mountain people is that the people who came in dare not go to the ninth floor anymore."

"What about the Mad King?" Lin Tianhao asked.

This was his mission target. If the Mad King was killed by someone else, it would be even more troublesome.

"The Mad King can be resurrected, Snow Emperor, you don't have to worry about that."

“However.”

“The basic situation of the Mad King is similar to the information passed on by that fake old director.”

“The only difference is this maddening aura.”

“The mountain people have immortal secret techniques to protect their bodies and are not affected. In this situation, only the three of us can deal with the Mad King.”

The Taoist with Ambition's expression was solemn.

Lin Tianhao asked:

“Since the mountain people have already reached the eighth floor, have they encountered the old director?”

“No.”

The Taoist with Ambition shook his head. “However, each floor of this Mò Yuān has nine different spaces. It's normal not to encounter them.”

At this point.

The Taoist with Ambition paused slightly before continuing to say:

“There is another possibility, which is that the old director has already gone to the ninth floor.”

“However.”

“The probability of this is very, very low.”

The Taoist with Ambition's face had been very ugly, because he didn't say another possibility.

That was that the old director was already dead!

"We can't control the matters outside now, let's think about how to deal with the Mad King," Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue said.

Lin Tianhao spread his hands and said:

"Things have come to this, what else is there to say?"

"You and Venerable Dragon-Tiger can't go now, so only me, the Taoist with Ambition, and Hei Xiaomeng can go together."

"Is there a chance of winning?" Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue asked.

Lin Tianhao shook his head. "No."

"However, this is no longer a matter of whether there is a chance of winning, but that we have no choice."

After speaking.

Lin Tianhao looked at the Taoist with Ambition and Hei Xiaomeng.

"What do you say?"

"Fight!!"

The Taoist with Ambition was very certain.

“Even if you don't go, I will definitely go. If the Mad King doesn't die, my heart will not be at peace!!”

A fierce light flashed in Hei Xiaomeng's eyes, and killing intent flowed in her eyes.

The Mad King trapped her in the Black Pool, which can be said to have ruined her.

If she hadn't met Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue and been refined into a Demon Bone Corpse Dragon, she would probably still be trapped in the Black Pool, and then one day, be killed by a passing expert.

Accurately speaking.

If it hadn't been for Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue and Lin Tianhao last time, that mountain person, Chu Landu, would probably have killed her.

She wouldn't have been able to live to this day.

She was grateful to Corpse Ancestor Tian Yue, but she hated the Mad King even more.

Now that she had a chance, she naturally wanted to kill the Mad King.

Lin Tianhao stepped forward.

“If that's the case, then... Kill!!”

Lin Tianhao summoned the Black Demon and, together with the Taoist with Ambition and Hei Xiaomeng, walked towards the asylum.

Chapter 1305 - NPC from Ragnarok!

Lin Tianhao was bathed in flames, yet his emotions remained calm.

Daoist Ambition was enveloped in lightning, while Hei Xiaomeng was similarly surrounded by flames.

As for Hei Mo,

he wasn't even conscious, so his emotions naturally couldn't be affected.

This time, the four of them arrived at the entrance of the asylum relatively smoothly.

The asylum wasn't too large. The iron gate at the entrance was five to six meters high, entwined with barbed wire, as if to prevent the inmates from escaping.

Above the iron gate,

three locks secured it, seemingly telling those who arrived here that it was dangerous inside and entry was forbidden.

Hei Mo leaped up and landed inside the asylum.

Due to the force of his landing, Hei Mo's feet slightly sank into the swamp.

"This building is also built on a swamp?" Lin Tianhao frowned slightly.

Hei Mo spun around and leaped lightly, reducing his landing speed this time, and steadily landed on the ground ahead.

Lin Tianhao, Daoist Ambition, and Hei Xiaomeng didn't break the gate, but instead jumped over it.

Arriving in front of the five-story building, Lin Tianhao saw the sign above.

Ninety-five.

Looking up,

there was another sign on the second floor: Ninety-six.

Then ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine!

These obvious signs, in a normal building, should represent... floors!

But if these really represent floors, does that mean there are ninety-four floors beneath this asylum?

Lin Tianhao felt that was unlikely.

Stepping towards the floor marked "Ninety-five," Lin Tianhao's perspective made it clear that this was the first floor.

After this mean-spirited voice subsided, a calm voice followed.

"Isn't this what you wanted? Admit it, you're happy too."

The sharp voice sounded again:

"Your life should have your own choices. Kill him, once and for all."

"You can't kill him. If you kill him, all your efforts will be in vain."

The sharp and calm voices seemed to be dissuading someone.

“Enough!!”

A low roar came, “I don’t need you to tell me what to do!!”

Lin Tianhao and Daoist Ambition exchanged glances.

Although the tones of the three voices were completely different, Lin Tianhao could tell that it was the voice of one person.

Split personality?

Looking through the window, Lin Tianhao looked into the room where the voices came from.

In the room, there was a young woman who looked to be in her early twenties. Her hair was yellow and split, and her face was very pale, but the exposed part of her neck was a dull yellow.

Hmm.

The makeup was a bit heavy, and she didn't apply it to her neck, making it look like her body belonged to one person, and her head was pieced on later.

She was the only one in the room, and it was indeed just her speaking.

Dissociative identity disorder.

Each unit had two apartments per floor, so the two units had four apartments.

There were five floors here, meaning that this building probably housed twenty such 'lunatics'.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. This asylum was likely the Mad King's base camp.

"According to the information from the Mountain Man, this asylum might not be the Mad King's territory. The Mad King should just be one of the lunatics imprisoned in the asylum."

"The Mountain Man encountered three opponents in the asylum. These opponents seemed to be lunatics randomly released from the asylum for a breather." Daoist Ambition said.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. Before he could say anything, the woman in the room suddenly leaned against the window, staring intently at Lin Tianhao and the others.

"I see you, I see you!!"

A strange smile appeared on the woman's face, "You... I seem to have seen you somewhere?"

"Where is it? Where is it?"

At this point,

the woman's voice suddenly became sharp.

"You don't even know that? You were killed by him. It's him, he killed you. Now is the perfect opportunity."

"Kill him, avenge, avenge!!"

After the sharp voice faded, the calm voice sounded.

"He deserves to die, he killed your whole family, he deserves to die!!"

Listening to the woman's words, Lin Tianhao couldn't help but frown slightly.

For no other reason than that he also found the woman somewhat familiar.

Maybe it was because of the makeup.

In addition to her current attire and slightly manic appearance, and the location of this Mo Yuan, Lin Tianhao didn't pay too much attention to it.

But now,

after the woman said these words, Lin Tianhao actually recognized her.

“Anna Ziling!!”

Lin Tianhao's pupils suddenly shrank. This woman was Anna Ziling!

In Gods' Twilight, when he first went to the Land of Chaos, the twin-tailed loli he met on the road!!

At this time, Anna Ziling's attire and temperament had undergone earth-shattering changes, so Lin Tianhao didn't recognize her at first.

“Do you recognize me?”

Anna Ziling revealed an extremely cold smile on her face.

“We just wanted to seal you, but what about you? How many people have you killed?”

“The entire Land of Chaos is a river of blood, you!!”

“You deserve to die!!”

After saying that,

Anna Ziling roared at Lin Tianhao, and then wanted to break the glass and rush out of the room.

But her body hit the glass and was bounced back by an invisible force.

“Why are you here?”

Lin Tianhao wasn't angry because of Anna Ziling's roar, but instead was full of doubt.

“Snow Emperor, do you know her?” Daoist Ambition was a little surprised.

After all, this was Mo Yuan, how could Lin Tianhao know someone from the seventh floor of Mo Yuan?

Lin Tianhao nodded lightly, “Her name is Anna Ziling. She's an NPC I killed in Gods' Twilight.”

“NPC?”

Anna Ziling stared at Lin Tianhao fiercely and roared:

“Snow Emperor, do you think that NPCs aren't people, and that NPCs can be killed by you at will?!”

“We are also people, we are also people with flesh and blood and feelings!!”

“Just because we slightly hindered you, you slaughtered cities and exterminated clans, you... you are a demon!!”

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly and said:

"I never regret what I've done. The survival of the fittest, the big fish eats the small fish, the small fish eats the shrimp. Besides, didn't you want to seal me and obliterate me?"

"If I wasn't strong, I would have been the one sealed!"

Chapter 1306 - Ragnarok and Blue Star!

With that said.

Lin Tianhao paused slightly, looking at Anna Ziling with some suspicion, and said:

"I'm very curious, why are you here?"

In Twilight of the Gods, adventurers can be resurrected without limit. Although Anna Ziling is not an adventurer, Lin Tianhao is not too surprised that she can be resurrected.

What really made Lin Tianhao feel incredible was.

Why would Anna Ziling appear here!!!

Moyuan, seventh floor, Madhouse!!

Someone from Twilight of the Gods appeared in this place. This... is really unbelievable!!

Could it be that.

A crack has appeared between Twilight of the Gods and the real world, and the two worlds can communicate through the crack, and even synchronize attributes!!

If that's the case, it would be too outrageous.

"Want to know? Dream on!!"

Anna Ziling said with a teasing smile:

"If you have the ability, come in. As long as you come in, I will tell you the reason."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly. This Anna Ziling was a Black Iron level small BOSS in Twilight of the Gods, and her overall combat power was not too strong.

Lin Tianhao roughly estimated that even if Anna Ziling perfectly manifested his attributes in Twilight of the Gods, he would still be able to deal with her.

It's just.

Anna Ziling's invitation for him to go in seemed to be based on confidence.

Lin Tianhao didn't need to take such a risk.

"If you don't tell me, I can investigate it myself," Lin Tianhao said.

"Are you scared?!"

Anna Ziling sneered playfully, "The dignified Snow Emperor is actually afraid."

"It seems that you are only confident because you can be resurrected infinitely in Twilight of the Gods."

Lin Tianhao remained unmoved, and even Hei Xiaomeng was a little surprised.

"You are young and promising, and she said that to you, and you are really indifferent?"

Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"There are many young and promising people, but how many can survive to the end?"

With that said.

Lin Tianhao changed the subject and said extremely seriously:

"This Anna Ziling comes from Twilight of the Gods. It cannot be ruled out that there may be a crack connecting Twilight of the Gods here. We must be more careful next."

Daoist Yexin frowned, "Is it possible that this Anna Ziling is fake? Deliberately misleading us."

"I don't know."

Lin Tianhao shook his head. He really couldn't judge whether Anna Ziling was real or fake.

"But I didn't recognize her at first. It was what she said that made me recognize her identity."

"Moreover."

"I'm even about to forget about Anna Ziling. Even if it's a hallucination or a copy, it shouldn't be her."

Lin Tianhao's impression of Anna Ziling was not deep.

Even if it was a hallucination, wouldn't Princess Leona, Xiudeli Baiyun, or other NPCs that he had a deeper impression of be better?

Lin Tianhao walked to the window of the room on the left side of Anna Ziling and looked inside.

Looking in from here, Lin Tianhao saw an old man, and the old man was playing chess.

Sitting opposite him was himself.

It's just that the old man opposite him had a illusory body.

Seeming to notice that Lin Tianhao was looking at him, the two old men, one real and one illusory, looked in the direction of Lin Tianhao at the same time.

After seeing Lin Tianhao, the illusory old man disappeared instantly.

"It's been a long time since a newcomer has come here, young man, how about coming in and playing chess with me?"

Lin Tianhao shook his head and retreated.

These people seemed to be imprisoned in their corresponding rooms.

"Let's go directly to find the Mad King. After finding the Mad King, we can find a way to leave," Lin Tianhao said to Daoist Yexin and Hei Xiaomeng.

The situation here is getting more and more wrong.

The three of them passed through the small building and prepared to walk forward.

Even so.

The three of them were very vigilant, because if there were no accidents, they should be blocked.

After all, in a building, isn't there even a lookout?

However.

Facts have proved that there really isn't.

Behind this small building, there are two taller buildings. Lin Tianhao and the others came in from the left side of the small building, so they walked directly to the left side of the small building.

The high-rise building on the left is wider and larger than the small building, and there is only one unit with two households on each floor.

The area of these two households is very large.

Lin Tianhao leaned over and saw a woman 蹲\蹲\蹲\ on the window at first glance.

This woman didn't look very old, but there was a bit of charm between her brows.

She stared straight at Lin Tianhao and said:

"Young master."

While speaking, she stretched out her hand, as if hoping that Lin Tianhao could give her a hand.

Lin Tianhao frowned. This madhouse was more like a prison. These people were all imprisoned here.

"We don't seem to be familiar with each other," Lin Tianhao said.

He didn't leave directly, because he still wanted to understand the situation of this madhouse.

If what he saw before was really Anna Ziling, then there might be more secrets on the seventh floor of Moyuan.

"People are naturally unfamiliar with each other. Only by contacting more can they become more familiar."

"What is this place?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The woman was not surprised that Lin Tianhao would have such an answer.

"Here, the madhouse, didn't you see it when you came in?"

"So, are you crazy?" Lin Tianhao asked again.

The woman shook her head and said:

"Do I look like a madman to you?"

"Then why are you here?"

"I offended someone. Someone didn't want me to go out, so I was sent here."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said:

"Looking at it this way, you are a poor person."

"Of course I'm poor, so, are you willing to help me?"

"Help you? What can I get? And what will I lose?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Lin Tianhao pondered slightly and said slowly:

"What do you want?"

"I was sent here instead of being killed. I can give you a lot of things."

"Resurrection coins, skills, supernatural powers, secret techniques, equipment?"

"Pet eggs?"

Lin Tianhao shook his head. These things seemed to be good, but except for resurrection coins, they were basically useless to him.

"This is not in Twilight of the Gods. Even if you give me these things, it's useless."

The woman shook her head and said:

"Who told you this is not in Twilight of the Gods?"

"You, confused, the Galaxy World is not just one world?"

"Blue Star and Twilight of the Gods are both part of the Galaxy World, like two different continents. They have always existed with each other, it's just that you don't know it yourself."

Chapter 1307 - Fatal crying, the five internal organs are failing!

Lin Tianhao didn't refute, but said:

"You're right, but the Twilight of the Gods and Blue Star belong to the same world, but not the same space, and the rules between them are also different."

The Twilight of the Gods can be understood as a parallel space to Blue Star, a parallel space that is countless times larger than Blue Star.

Just the vast continent alone has an area equivalent to twenty-nine Blue Stars!!

That's the entire land area!!

Most of Blue Star is ocean, and the actual land is very small.

But the vast continent is almost equal to twenty-nine Blue Stars.

"The space is different, and the rules are different, but do you think the Twilight of the Gods is real, or is Blue Star real?"

Lin Tianhao was silent and did not answer.

The Twilight of the Gods is more like a game world, so naturally Blue Star is more real.

"Do you think that Blue Star should be more real?"

"But what I want to tell you is that the Twilight of the Gods should be the real one."

"The fact that you can improve by killing monsters is just drawing power from the monsters."

"Moreover, the power you can draw is less than one ten-thousandth of the monster's own power."

"As for more of the monster's power, it all goes into other people's bodies."

Lin Tianhao frowned at the woman. If what the woman said was true, it seemed to be the case.

His normal attack could plunder health, but the amount of health he could plunder was definitely not as much as the monster's own health.

Like the Red-Eyed Rabbit that Lin Tianhao killed at the beginning, a Red-Eyed Rabbit had one hundred health points, but it was almost impossible for Lin Tianhao to plunder one hundred health points from the Red-Eyed Rabbit.

Because his normal attack couldn't possibly only cause one point of damage.

Moreover.

Even if he plundered one hundred health points from the Red-Eyed Rabbit, the Red-Eyed Rabbit still had other attributes.

"But monsters can keep refreshing," Lin Tianhao said.

The woman nodded and said:

"Monsters can be refreshed, but what about NPCs?"

That's all I have to say.

The woman waved her hand, "I've said enough. Some things, you need to figure out yourself."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said:

"So, you still haven't explained clearly, what exactly is this place?"

The woman smiled, "An insane asylum. However, those imprisoned here may be the most sober people in this world."

Hearing this.

A trace of displeasure flashed across the woman's face, and she said:

"I'm not wrong."

"The world is like this. Only a very few people are sober. Others either blindly follow the crowd or are trapped by those rules and regulations for their entire lives."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Saying so much, all I see is a self-righteous fellow."

"A truly sober person should not be trapped here, but should use everything they know to achieve themselves step by step, to climb to higher places, to become the strongest."

"You are trapped here, which means you are foolish, because smart people know how to protect themselves."

The woman's expression became even more unsightly. Before she could say anything, Lin Tianhao said with a smile:

"Your tail is showing."

Hearing this.

Behind the woman, a thick snake tail coiled up.

"It has indeed stood up, because it's time for me to stretch my legs."

"If reason doesn't work, I also know a little bit of martial arts."

As soon as she finished speaking.

This woman actually passed directly through the window and the wall, and instantly came in front of Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao spat out a mouthful of dragon flame, and the gatekeeper's spear swept out while his figure retreated.

At this time.

The woman's entire body was exposed to Lin Tianhao's sight.

This was a monster with a human head and a snake body.

Her snake body twisted, and in an instant, she had already killed her way to Lin Tianhao.

"Bang—"

Hei Xiaomeng rushed out from Lin Tianhao's side and threw a punch.

The woman smiled contemptuously and raised her palm to meet it.

"An ant trying to shake a tree, overestimating yourself!"

However.

The moment this punch landed, Lin Tianhao thought this woman was going to suffer.

Don't look at Hei Xiaomeng as just a little loli now, her true form is the Demon Bone Corpse Dragon, and her strength should not be underestimated.

But the woman actually took Hei Xiaomeng's punch.

"This kind of power, your main body is a bit strong," the woman said with a slight surprise.

"But that's all."

The woman exerted force on her palm, and actually shook Hei Xiaomeng back.

At the moment the woman shook Hei Xiaomeng back, a golden whip wrapped around the woman.

It was none other than the ambitious Taoist priest who made the move.

"Bang—"

The woman's body shook, and the golden whip shattered inch by inch.

The ambitious Taoist priest was stunned for a moment. This woman was a bit too strong.

Lin Tianhao's attack arrived at the moment the golden whip shattered.

The tip of the gatekeeper's spear pointed directly at the woman's eyebrows and stabbed.

The woman frowned slightly. The scene that followed surprised Lin Tianhao.

Because the woman's head actually split open from the middle of her eyebrows, revealing sharp fangs. At the same time, the split head also avoided Lin Tianhao's spear.

Lin Tianhao's reaction speed was also fast enough. At the moment the woman's head split open, a bomb had already been thrown out.

Under Lin Tianhao's control of the mechanical master, the bomb was detonated by Lin Tianhao as soon as it approached the woman.

"Boom—"

With a loud noise, followed by the "Da da da" sound of gunfire.

Lin Tianhao's two Gatling guns spewed out flames and shot dense bullets at the woman.

"Ying—"

A sharp cry of a baby erupted from the woman's split head.

Lin Tianhao only felt his hair stand on end, and the blood in his body actually stopped flowing in this cry.

With the blood in his whole body stopping flowing, and all his organs lacking oxygen, Lin Tianhao only felt his body uncomfortable.

"Pfft—"

Lin Tianhao spat out a mouthful of blood, and his internal organs actually showed different degrees of decline at this moment.

The ambitious Taoist priest also spat out a mouthful of blood, and his body staggered back. Although the ambitious Taoist priest didn't speak, Lin Tianhao could still feel that his condition was very bad.

At this time.

The woman's condition was not very good either. Although the Gatling's bullets could not directly penetrate her body, they still created wounds on her body.

At the same time.

The previous attack seemed to have consumed a lot of her energy. At this time, her split head was drooping, and her hideous face showed obvious weakness.

"Bang—"

Hei Xiaomeng's condition can be said to be the best of the few.

She arrived in an instant and punched the woman.

The woman raised her hand to block, but just as she blocked Hei Xiaomeng's attack, the woman's body was punched away from the side by Hei Mo.

Chapter 1309 - Kill the Mad King, Iron-skinned and Iron-boned!

Black Demon!!!

Completely gone!!!

Lin Tianhao felt anger in his heart, but even more so, shock and horror!!!

If severing his arm before was some kind of method that greatly depleted his own resources,

Then what about now?

Everyone present was extremely clear about the Black Demon's power.

Especially the Black Demon's terrifying physique, among those present, probably only Hei Xiaomeng's physique could contend with it.

But even so,

The Black Demon's body was directly blown apart by this Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

This... ... it's just too unbelievable!!

How could he be so strong!!

“Are you surprised by just this?”

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven looked at Lin Tianhao with interest, “We demon race Great Sages don’t have as many matters as those immortal gods and spirit race Great Sages.”

“If it were any other Great Sage, with a single sentence of ‘A Great Sage cannot be insulted’, you would all have to die.”

With that said,

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven's gaze fell on Hei Xiaomeng.

“Don’t think of me as so despicable. The main reason I want to keep this little black dragon is because I feel like I haven’t seen a dark-attribute magic bone corpse dragon in a long time.”

“If she goes astray, it would be a real pity.”

Lin Tianhao wanted to say something but stopped.

In fact, the Great Sage Equaling Heaven didn't need to explain so much.

If it were any other time, Lin Tianhao would definitely feel that the Great Sage Equaling Heaven's explanation was a sign of a guilty conscience.

But the Great Sage Equaling Heaven's attack just now was too strong, so strong that Lin Tianhao couldn't find a reason to doubt it.

Putting aside everything else,

What if the sword light from the Great Sage Equaling Heaven earlier had struck his head instead of his arm? What would have happened?

What would the outcome be if this attack against the Black Demon landed on Taoist Wildheart?

He died too suddenly.

Moreover,

Because of the Black Demon's special nature, Lin Tianhao was unsure whether a resurrection coin could revive the Black Demon.

The Black Demon could be considered a mechanical lifeform, but after all, he no longer has a head. Mechanical items can be considered, but Lin Tianhao wasn't sure if he was still a mechanical lifeform.

Hei Xiaomeng glared at the Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

“You are very strong, perhaps you really are some Great Sage-level figure, but you must kill the Mad King first.”

Hearing this,

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven smiled and said:

“If I help you kill the Mad King, would you be willing to stay?”

Hei Xiaomeng stared at the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, unsure whether to agree or not for a moment.

But after a moment's thought,

If the Great Sage Equaling Heaven could help her kill the Mad King, then his strength would be beyond doubt.

“Alright!”

After a brief hesitation, Hei Xiaomeng nodded and agreed.

“As you wish, as long as you can help us kill the Mad King, I will stay.”

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven nodded. He turned to look at the small building behind the Madhouse and said loudly:

“Mad King, come out!”

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven's voice was deep and resonated in all directions.

A tall, handsome middle-aged man with fair skin walked out.

His gaze swept over Lin Tianhao, Hei Xiaomeng, and the others, eventually settling on the Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

“Great Sage Equaling Heaven, isn't what you're doing not in accordance with the rules?”

“What rules or no rules? Can't you revive? Just die a few more times.”

The Mad King opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but Lin Tianhao raised his hand, “I have a mission, should I go first?”

Hei Xiaomeng didn't say anything. The killing intent around her was gradually increasing.

Lin Tianhao had already made his move. The Gatekeeper's spear pierced towards the Mad King's heart.

“Puchi...”

The Mad King's heart was pierced by Lin Tianhao.

But he didn't die. In his first form, the Mad King's recovery ability was extremely strong, even to the point of being able to survive decapitation.

“Puchi puchi puchi...”

Lin Tianhao went all out. The Gatekeeper's spear turned into afterimages, frantically piercing through the Mad King's body.

Lin Tianhao's attack was also very decisive. The spear struck frantically, turning the Mad King's body into a hornet's nest in an instant.

Then, the power in the spear exploded, forcibly destroying the Mad King's body.

The Mad King's body exploded. To ensure nothing went wrong, Lin Tianhao opened his mouth and spewed out dragon flames, burning the Mad King's flesh until it sizzled and smoked.

A feeling of enlightenment washed over him, and Lin Tianhao's physique was once again enhanced.

“Ding, congratulations, you have completed the mission: Kill the Mad King.”

“Ding, you have obtained Resurrection Coin +20.”

“Ding, you have obtained the Gene Ambidexterity.”

“Ding, you have obtained the Divine Ability: Copper Skin Iron Bones.”

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

This was just the mission reward, not the reward from looting the corpse.

The reward from looting the corpse of an existence at the Mad King's level shouldn't be too bad either.

This mission.

Was completed too easily.

Just because of a single sentence from the Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

Could this Great Sage Equaling Heaven really be on the same level as the Monkey King?

If the Great Sage Equaling Heaven is really that powerful, then what exactly is this Mo Yuan?

Moreover.

Listening to what the Great Sage Equaling Heaven said earlier, he himself seems to be a demon, so what is his true form?

While Lin Tianhao was pondering these things, he also began to loot the corpse.

“Ding, you have obtained Resurrection Coin +20.”

“Ding, you have obtained Gene Core +1.”

The Resurrection Coins obtained from looting the corpse were quite a few, but this Gene Core also seems to be something used to enhance gene levels.

Lin Tianhao began to check his gains this time.

Gene Ambidexterity: Cannot be started up.

Learning Requirements: Limited to Lin Tianhao (Snow Emperor) only.

Effect: When you actively release it, you can enhance or activate the genes of a target unit.

Consumption: 10000 Mana.

Cooldown: 24 hours.

Proficiency: Cannot be starred up.

“Ding, learn?”

“Learn.”

Lin Tianhao chose to learn this Gene Ambidexterity without hesitation.

Judging from this description, the effect of this Gene Ambidexterity is likely equivalent to a gene item.

Consuming 10,000 mana is a small problem for the current Lin Tianhao.

Next is the Divine Ability, Copper Skin Iron Bones.

Copper Skin Iron Bones: First-Grade Divine Ability.

Learning Requirements: None.

Effect: Enhances the defense of your muscles, bones, and skin, allowing your resistance to strikes to be significantly improved.

Consumption: None.

Cooldown: None.

Proficiency: 0/100 (Increasing proficiency is calculated based on withstanding attacks. As proficiency increases, in addition to star level increases, the grade of the divine ability will also increase. The grade of the divine ability is equivalent to the star level.)

“Ding, learn?”

“Learn!!”

Lin Tianhao didn't hesitate at all and chose to learn without hesitation.

This is Copper Skin Iron Bones?

Don't be ridiculous!!

This is definitely a super invincible great divine ability!!

Lin Tianhao knew.

He had struck it rich and obtained a hidden divine ability.

This divine ability is called Copper Skin Iron Bones, but the effect is completely different from Copper Skin Iron Bones.

This is simply who knows how many times stronger Copper Skin Iron Bones has been enhanced.

Chapter 1310 - Preserve the bloodline for the demon clan!

The grade of Divine Abilities can be increased along with the star rating of the Divine Ability.

What does this mean?

Normally, when a Divine Ability is upgraded from one star to two stars, its power might increase by three or four times. For more powerful ones, it might increase by seven or eight times, or even ten times or more.

But!

If this Divine Ability is upgraded from one star to two stars, and its grade also increases from first grade to second grade, then its power can increase by at least twenty times or more, and in many cases, even fifty times or more.

Judging from this situation, this skill is truly far beyond ordinary.

Upgrading it once increases it by dozens of times, and upgrading it again increases it by dozens of times on the basis of those dozens of times.

Suppose upgrading it once is thirty times, and upgrading it a second time means increasing it by thirty times on the basis of those thirty times. How much is that?

Nine hundred times!

Upgrading it three times, twenty-seven thousand times!

Upgrading it four times, eight hundred and ten thousand times!

You can tell how outrageous this is with just a little calculation.

If it normally increases by five times, upgrading it once is five times, twice is twenty-five times, and three times is only one hundred and twenty-five times, and four times is six hundred and twenty-five times.

One is eight hundred and ten thousand times, and the other is six hundred and twenty-five times.

How big is the difference in amplification between the two?

Therefore.

When Lin Tianhao saw the skill description of the Copper Skin Iron Bones, he realized how terrifying this skill was.

If he keeps upgrading the Copper Skin Iron Bones, even gods probably won't be able to hurt him later on.

After learning the Copper Skin Iron Bones, Lin Tianhao could clearly feel that his bones, muscles, and skin had been improved to a certain extent, and his defense had become stronger.

"It seems like you've gained a lot."

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven looked at Lin Tianhao with interest.

"You should thank Little Black Dragon. If it weren't for him, I wouldn't have allowed you to kill the Mad King like this."

"Because."

"This is really against the rules."

Lin Tianhao looked at the Great Sage Equaling Heaven with a complicated expression.

He didn't know whether he should hate the Great Sage Equaling Heaven or be grateful to him.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven destroyed the Black Demon, but helped him kill the Mad King.

"I should indeed thank Little Black Dragon," Lin Tianhao said.

"We are a team, there's no need to be like this," Hei Xiaomeng said.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven smiled and said:

"But now, you and I are a team."

Hei Xiaomeng stared at the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, "Since I promised you, I won't leave."

"However..."

"I am still very curious, what do you want to keep me here for?"

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven looked at Hei Xiaomeng meaningfully.

"The Great Era of Contention is coming. This time, the Human Race is supreme, and that existence has blessed the Human Race with karma and luck."

"Our Demon Race has become the target of slaughter, becoming the stepping stone for the Human Race's growth."

"This is not good, very, very not good."

"I don't expect to compete with the Heavenly Dao's luck, let alone contend with that one."

"All I can do is try my best to preserve our own strength."

Hei Xiaomeng pointed to herself and said:

"Just me?"

"Of course not just you. I hope that all the Demon Race with potential can live."

At this point.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven's gaze fell on Lin Tianhao.

"I can feel that you also possess Dragon Race bloodline, how about staying?"

"I'll stay? Do you dare let me stay?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven laughed and said:

"What wouldn't I dare?"

"You are a Human Race, and you possess Dragon Race bloodline, perhaps you can become a variable."

"Maybe one day, you can save our Demon Race from fire and water."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said:

"Then you should befriend me."

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven nodded, then shook his head and said:

"You have potential, but it's just potential after all. It's not worth me lowering my status to show you goodwill."

At this point.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven changed the subject and continued:

"Besides, haven't I already shown you goodwill just now?"

"If it were someone else, you wouldn't just have a broken arm, but would be... directly erased."

Lin Tianhao hesitated, cutting off his arm counts as showing goodwill?

This is some goddamn goodwill.

"I definitely won't stay. I still have a lot of my own things to do."

"You can also enter the Twilight of the Gods here. With me here, you are safe, at least safer than outside."

"You only need to wait peacefully until the Great Era of Contention arrives, or you can live here until you have enough foundation to go to the wider God Realm."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes and asked:

"I am very curious, why don't you go to the God Realm?"

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven sighed, "Because of an agreement, I have to guard this madhouse."

"And me being here can also preserve some bloodlines of our Demon Race. When the opportunity for our Demon Race comes one day, these bloodlines will be of great use."

Lin Tianhao couldn't judge the truth of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven's words.

He has now completed two hidden missions and can leave.

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao bluntly asked:

"I want to know, how can I leave Mò Yuān now?"

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven was slightly surprised.

"You have already reached the seventh level of Mò Yuān, don't you want to continue going down?"

"I don't want to."

Lin Tianhao replied very firmly, "I have already met a strong person like you here. If I continue to move forward, what will be the result?"

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven smiled and said:

"You shouldn't count me in. If it weren't for this Little Black Dragon, you wouldn't have seen me at all."

"There are rules here, which are usually not easily broken."

"But you broke them."

Lin Tianhao said very casually:

"I had an arm cut off, and my puppet was also destroyed by you."

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven smiled and said:

"But didn't you get more?"

"If you hadn't appeared, I might have been able to get these too," Lin Tianhao said.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven did not refute and said:

"What you said is not wrong either. The three levels of Mò Yuān are one entity. If you want to leave, you can only go to the ninth level of Mò Yuān."

At this point.

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven looked at Lin Tianhao meaningfully:

"Therefore."

"I still hope you can consider my suggestion."

"Just stay here and wait for the Great Era of Contention to come. At that time, it will be easy for you to leave Mò Yuān."

Lin Tianhao frowned and looked at the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, saying:

"But I still want to try. If I have to go to the ninth level to leave, then I will go!"

The Great Sage Equaling Heaven nodded, "Everyone has their own aspirations, I won't force you. You solved the Mad King. Within three hours, as long as you pass through the last house, you will be able to go to the eighth level."

"Thank you, I still have two friends outside, so I will take my leave first."

Lin Tianhao came to the Black Demon's side and directly used a revival coin.

But the revival coin did not disappear in Lin Tianhao's hand.

This means that... the Black Demon cannot be revived with a revival coin.
