

Online game 131

Chapter 131 - Ancient Town: Qiu Shuiru!

Before he could take a few steps, a ray of fire shot out from the magma on the side.

Lin Tianhao retreated, subconsciously avoiding the attack.

At the same time.

Health: 1000W / 1000W.

Attack: 59850.

Skills: Flame Ray, Mountain of Corpses and Sea of Fire, Heart Burning, Rolling Corpse Qi, Corpse Source of Fire Heaven, Heartless Corpse Poison, Nine Corpse Flame Shadows, Overlord Body, Berserk.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. The first one was actually a Bronze-level boss, and it was so perverted.

“Swish, swish, swish!”

Lin Tianhao’s feather arrows poured out.

In just over a second.

The Flame Zombie fell to the ground and died.

“It wasn’t instantly killed by me, commendable.”

Lin Tianhao didn’t know what to say. He basically one-shotted monsters recently.

A single basic attack exceeds 400,000 true damage, twenty arrows per second, and occasionally triggers the Reincarnation of Death and Heavenly Fire Meteor. Monsters are like paper in front of him.

Hell difficulty.

If it were an elite player like Han Xue Piao Piao, they would be killed upon entering, but Lin Tianhao can instantly kill the boss here.

The second, the third, the fourth...

Flame Zombies kept appearing, but Lin Tianhao still easily killed them.

These Flame Zombies didn't even have the ability to fight back before being killed by Lin Tianhao.

With his current damage, a Flame Zombie can only allow him to stack seventy-five points of health.

This is under the premise of not critting and not triggering the Reincarnation of Death and Heavenly Fire Meteor. Otherwise, he wouldn't even be able to stack seventy-five points of health.

After nine consecutive Flame Zombies, fortunately, Lin Tianhao did not trigger the Reincarnation of Death and Heavenly Fire Meteor, so he successfully stacked more than six hundred points of health.

Hmm!

Killing nine Bronze bosses under hell difficulty only stacked more than six hundred points of health.

Lin Tianhao understood in his heart that if he wanted to become stronger, acquiring the Book of Light and Darkness must be put on the agenda.

Because the probability of triggering the Reincarnation of Death and Heavenly Fire Meteor is low, but the probability of triggering Lightning Leap is very high.

Triggering it once means a large area of death.

In addition, he also has the passive skill of Double True Damage, which doubles his already outrageous damage.

These skills.

It's not that they are bad. On the contrary, in a real life-and-death battle, these skills can be described as fiercely powerful.

But if you look at it from the perspective of stacking health, these skills are slightly not so good, after all, they affect his speed of stacking health.

The next situation is the same as the Footprints of the Snow Corpse. Two Flame Zombies start appearing together.

But even if it is two Flame Zombies, it is harmless to Lin Tianhao.

They were killed by Lin Tianhao before they could even launch an attack.

It was still nine groups of two Flame Zombies, and Lin Tianhao's health increased by more than ten thousand.

This increase in health is negligible.

Afterward.

In front of him, Lin Tianhao saw an ancient town.

The ancient town has black bricks and blue tiles, quaint and antique, with pavilions, terraces, and towers, carved dragons and painted phoenixes. An ancient aura assaults the senses.

This ancient town is different from modern antique buildings. It is a truly ancient building.

After Lin Tianhao stepped into the ancient town, he found that the continuous health loss above his head disappeared.

He looked around, but there was no one.

Walking on the streets of the ancient town, the surroundings were quiet and a little scary. It seemed that there was no one here.

Lin Tianhao frowned. The structure of this dungeon is very similar to the Footprints of the Snow Corpse.

Logically speaking, there should be NPCs here as well.

After turning around.

Lin Tianhao had an understanding of this ancient town, but indeed, he didn't see anyone.

"Could it be that there is no one here?"

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to continue forward, he suddenly heard the sound of a zither...

Following the sound of the zither, Lin Tianhao saw a woman in a thin green dress playing the zither on a pavilion.

She wore light makeup and was breathtakingly beautiful.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He was just about to say something.

The green-clothed woman's rhythm of plucking the zither strings remained unchanged, but the zither music actually transformed into a sharp blade and flew towards Lin Tianhao.

"Swish!"

Lin Tianhao's feather arrow pierced through the air and collided with the blade formed by the zither music.

The two forces exploded in the air, unaffected.

The green-clothed woman's expression did not change because of Lin Tianhao's attack. Her zither music continuously transformed into swords and blades, attacking Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao's feather arrows continuously pierced through the air, blocking all of the green-clothed woman's attacks.

The zither music gradually became rapid.

The number of swords and blades increased, and Lin Tianhao's feather arrows also continuously pierced through the air. As the frequency of the zither music increased, the speed of Lin Tianhao's feather arrows also became faster and faster.

After a moment.

The zither music stopped abruptly.

The green-clothed woman stood up, bowed to Lin Tianhao, "Little girl, Qiu Shui Ru, greets Young Master. Young Master's archery skills are truly superb."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally, "Girl, are you the only one in this ancient town?"

The green-clothed woman shook her head, "Of course not, it's just that with Young Master's strength, you can only see me alone."

"Oh?"

"What good is it to see you?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The green-clothed woman lightly raised her eyebrows, waved her hands, and her outer garment slipped off, revealing her snow-white skin.

"Young Master's arrows were very good just now. I wonder if Young Master would be willing to enter the little girl's boudoir and give her some pointers on archery?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned. This green-clothed woman was beautiful, even comparable to some popular female stars.

She, she is seducing me to commit a crime.

But is doing this kind of thing in the game considered a crime?

Probably not, just treat it as finding a temporary girlfriend.

The premise is.

That this green-clothed woman has no problems.

But obviously impossible.

In this kind of place, a woman throws herself into your arms. Is it possible to say there's no problem?

"My archery skills are passed down from my ancestors and are not easily passed on to others. If you really want to learn, you can let me see if your heart and mind are big enough, otherwise it will be difficult to teach you."

Qiu Shui Ru frowned, "Look here?"

"Is that not okay?"

Lin Tianhao grinned.

Qiu Shui Ru frowned, obviously seeing that Lin Tianhao was not taking the bait.

"Does Young Master look down on the little girl so much? Then the little girl can only ask Young Master to die."

Lin Tianhao took a step forward and shouted angrily: "Bold monster, you dare to play tricks in front of me, quickly show your true form."

Qiu Shui Ru's expression changed, "You do have some skill, to actually be able to see that I am not human."

"Originally, I just wanted to absorb a little of your Yang energy and let you leave, but now it seems that I can't let you go."

As soon as the words fell.

Qiu Shui Ru's jade hand lightly stroked the ancient zither. The zither music carried wisps of Yin-cold aura. Hearing it in Lin Tianhao's ears, it caused earth-shattering changes to occur around Lin Tianhao.

He was in a high position, with hundreds of officials below him submitting.

“Long live the Emperor! Long live, long long live!”

Foreign envoys arrived, bringing nine beauties from the Western Regions and various rare treasures.

Lin Tianhao was immersed in the scene, as if these were really given to him.

The nine beauties from the Western Regions were all beautiful and moving, with hot figures, proficient in playing, singing, and dancing...

Chapter 132 - Young scholar!

Besides the nine great beauties, the exotic treasures from the Western Regions were even more extraordinary.

God-Slaying Whip, Immortal Execution Sword, Sea-Stabilizing Divine Needle, Eastern Emperor Bell...

Each one was an incredible divine artifact, and all of these were tributes from the Western Regions.

Lin Tianhao coldly watched all of this.

“Human greed is nothing more than wealth, power, and beauty. Now that these things are placed before you, I don’t believe none of them will tempt you.”

“As long as you are tempted, then don’t even think about escaping my Moonlit Zither Realm.”

Qiu Shui Ru had absolute confidence in her illusion. She had even imagined the scene of Lin Tianhao’s mind being eroded by the illusion.

However,

Lin Tianhao looked at the beauty before him, raised his hand to grab her neck, and then mercilessly killed her.

“Not interested in women?”

Qiu Shui Ru was slightly surprised. After all, Lin Tianhao looked like a lecherous person, so how could he not be interested in women?

“Even if he’s not interested in women, so what? There’s still money and power.”

But what Lin Tianhao did next shocked her again.

He raised his hand and shattered those divine artifacts with an arrow.

Then,

he killed every single official in the court, leaving none alive.

Qiu Shui Ru’s expression was gloomy, and her rhythm of playing the zither became faster and faster.

“Even if you don’t care about wealth, power, and beauty, so what? You still can’t escape my illusion.”

Qiu Shui Ru didn’t care, because anyone who wasn’t an idiot knew that they were trapped in an illusion.

People with strong wills would resist these things in the illusion.

However,

if it was only useful to resist these things, then breaking her illusion would be too easy.

However,

just as Qiu Shui Ru was preparing to watch Lin Tianhao make a fool of himself, Lin Tianhao raised the longbow in his hand.

The direction of the arrow was not aimed at Qiu Shui Ru, which made Qiu Shui Ru even more complacent.

“咻!”

The arrow pierced through the air.

Qiu Shui Ru put on a show of watching the drama, but she was dumbfounded in the next moment.

Because Lin Tianhao's arrow actually turned in mid-air, flying towards her face in an arc.

“-400010.”

A huge damage number popped up from Qiu Shui Ru's head.

“How is it? Surprised? Unexpected?”

Lin Tianhao's gaze fell on Qiu Shui Ru.

Qiu Shui Ru's face showed an unbelievable expression, “You broke my illusion?”

“How is this possible?!”

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally, “A mere illusion, not worth mentioning.”

He possessed the Immaculate Eye, which could see through all illusions. Even though Qiu Shui Ru’s illusion was not bad, it was not enough to confuse Lin Tianhao’s Immaculate Eye.

“Hmph, if illusions are useless against you, then let me show you the true strength of my Demonic Zither Ghost Woman.”

Qiu Shui Ru snorted coldly and began to pluck the zither strings frantically.

The zither music transformed into surging dragon and tiger phantoms, charging towards Lin Tianhao with an extremely strong sense of oppression.

Lin Tianhao’s eyes narrowed.

Five arrows fired simultaneously!

A hundred arrows per second!

“So fierce...”

Qiu Shui Ru’s expression was a little unsightly. Hundreds of arrows collided with her attack.

Fine beads of sweat seeped out, wetting her hair and her thin gauze clothing.

Lin Tianhao frowned, and the arrows continued to pour out.

In the next moment.

Heavenly Fire Meteor was triggered.

Thousands of fireballs fell from the sky, directly giving Qiu Shui Ru a fiery baptism.

Qiu Shui Ru was already having some difficulty parrying, and now she was bombarded by Heavenly Fire Meteor, making it even more difficult to deal with.

“Stop, I can’t take it anymore!”

Qiu Shui Ru roared, “Where did you come from, you monster? How can you be so fierce?!”

Lin Tianhao’s lips curled up, “I have even more fierce things, do you want to try it?”

Qiu Shui Ru’s face was gloomy, “Enough, I don’t want to argue with you anymore, what is your purpose in coming here?”

Lin Tianhao looked around, “Of course I came for benefits. I think the zither in your hand is not bad, why don’t you give it to me.”

“You’re dreaming.”

“Since you won’t give it, then I can only take it myself.”

Qiu Shui Ru bit her silver teeth tightly and glared at Lin Tianhao, “If you kill people here, you will be severely punished.”

“Oh?”

“Are you a person?”

Lin Tianhao asked in return.

Qiu Shui Ru raised her eyebrows, obviously not expecting Lin Tianhao to be so difficult to deal with.

“You should be here to find the former residence of the Drought Demon, you shouldn’t stay here.”

“Originally, I didn’t want to stay here, but who asked me to like your zither?”

As he said that, Lin Tianhao raised the longbow in his hand, “Hand over the Demonic Zither, and I will spare you from death.”

“She just said, here, you can’t kill people.”

Just as Lin Tianhao was preparing to attack again, a refined and gentle voice came.

Then, a young scholar with a folding fan in his hand, a pale face, and a look of serious kidney deficiency stepped forward.

Lin Tianhao frowned, “I want to kill her, do you have a problem with that?”

If he didn’t have the Infinite Resurrection skill, Lin Tianhao might have been more low-key.

But now, he wants to be low-key, but his strength doesn’t allow it!

“Young man, do you know that a tree that is too tall attracts the wind, and a person who is too arrogant invites disaster.”

The young scholar said indifferently, his tone was calm, but it carried an unspeakable sense of oppression.

“You said I’m young, don’t you know about youthful arrogance?”

Lin Tianhao’s lips curled up, revealing a faint smile.

The young scholar sighed, “I used to be very arrogant too, until one day, I came here.”

“It doesn’t matter anymore, it’s normal to be arrogant when you’re so powerful at such a young age. I’ll beat you down a few more times, and you naturally won’t be so arrogant.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

The young scholar pinched his fingers into a sword gesture, and a flying sword flew out from behind him.

“咻!”

The flying sword arrived in front of Lin Tianhao in the blink of an eye.

Lin Tianhao leaned back, wanting to avoid the attack of the flying sword.

But the flying sword seemed to have eyes, turning a corner and flying towards him again.

Lin Tianhao didn’t dodge, he also wanted to see how powerful the young scholar’s attack was.

The flying sword passed through his body.

-999999!!

An extremely terrifying damage number popped up from Lin Tianhao's head.

One sword.

Nearly a million damage!!

Terrifying indeed!!

After Lin Tianhao took this sword head-on, the arrows in his hand poured out.

It was still five arrows fired simultaneously, a hundred arrows per second.

The young scholar's expression was as usual. He pinched his fingers, and nine flying swords surrounded him. The arrows that approached him were all shattered by the flying swords. Not a single arrow could hurt him.

At the same time.

His flying sword once again attacked Lin Tianhao in mid-air.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed. The power of this young scholar was somewhat beyond his imagination.

The flying sword was like it had a positioning device installed. No matter how Lin Tianhao dodged, the flying sword could lock onto him.

But Lin Tianhao didn't care. While he was dodging, the arrows were still pouring out.

Chapter 133 - The ancient oriental country: Sunset Town!

Although Lin Tianhao's arrows were fast and accurate, they still couldn't break through the young scholar's nine-sword defense.

The young scholar looked at Lin Tianhao with a calm expression, even abandoning his attack, simply watching Lin Tianhao with amusement.

His posture suggested he was treating Lin Tianhao like a clown.

After a full three minutes, Lin Tianhao still hadn't broken through the nine-sword defense.

Moreover,

he triggered the Heavenly Fire Meteor multiple times, but it was still ineffective.

Furthermore,

because Lin Tianhao's attacks didn't cause substantial damage to the young scholar, he didn't accumulate any health points during those three minutes.

His super-god-level talent required normal attacks to cause damage to a living being to accumulate health points.

Lin Tianhao stopped attacking, frowning as he looked at the young scholar.

The young scholar smiled calmly, "Young man, how is it? Your proud attacks can't even touch me."

Although the nine-sword defense was powerful, the durability of his flying swords was limited.

With a powerful sword control technique, he might be able to slow down the rate at which the flying swords' durability decreased.

However, Lin Tianhao's arrows carried a high amount of true damage, and even for someone like the young scholar, the durability of his flying swords was still continuously decreasing.

"Swish, swish, swish!!"

Lin Tianhao attacked again, wanting to see how long the young scholar's flying swords could last.

"Still not giving up?"

The young scholar remained unfazed, not caring about Lin Tianhao's attacks.

Lin Tianhao's hundred arrows per second still couldn't break through the young scholar's nine-sword defense.

Moreover,

judging from the probability of triggering Heavenly Fire Meteor, the young scholar's luck attribute should be much higher than his.

After all, with a one percent probability, he could only trigger it three or four times per minute.

Besides this, there might also be level suppression.

In Twilight of the Gods, there was no explicit damage reduction from level suppression, but Lin Tianhao knew that level suppression always existed.

It just wasn't reflected in attack and defense, but rather in the suppression of probability and control.

For example, a control skill could control an opponent for one second, but if the enemy unit was ten levels higher than the person casting the control skill, then the control effect might only last for 0.5 seconds, or even less.

Similarly,

probability was also the same.

For example, Lin Tianhao's Heavenly Fire Meteor had a one percent trigger probability, but if he attacked an opponent with a higher level than himself, the probability might only be 0.5 percent, or even lower.

It's just that this difference wouldn't be directly displayed on the attribute panel.

This was something that players gradually figured out in the mid-game.

Because at first, everyone thought that only the luck attribute affected the probability.

But after fighting more battles, they slowly discovered that there was also level suppression.

Lin Tianhao was currently level fifty, at the critical point of the second job change.

Even if this young scholar had level suppression, it shouldn't be too outrageous.

After all, the upper limit of the Starry Kingdom was the second job change; it couldn't be ruled out that a very few special existences might have broken through the limit of the second job change, but in the end, it was only a very small number of people.

After figuring this out, Lin Tianhao wasn't discouraged and continued to output damage frantically.

After a while,

the young scholar smiled.

"Young man, good idea, actually trying to use attacks to reduce the durability of my weapon, thereby achieving the goal of defeating me?"

Having said that,

the young scholar grinned, "In that case, I'll let you see what despair is!"

Lin Tianhao frowned, wondering if the young scholar was about to make a killing move?

He saw the young scholar raise his hand and lightly say, "Swords, come!!"

As soon as he finished speaking, flying swords flew out from behind him one after another; in the blink of an eye, thousands of flying swords were suspended above the sky.

The young scholar looked at Lin Tianhao playfully and said, "Young man, how is it? Do you think your little plan is useful?"

Lin Tianhao gasped, thinking that the young scholar was very strong, but he didn't expect him to be so outrageous.

"Young man, you must remember that there are people beyond people, and there are heavens beyond heavens."

Lin Tianhao smiled helplessly, "I was presumptuous."

"But what exactly is this place? You shouldn't be monsters from a dungeon."

If this young scholar was a monster from a dungeon, then it would be almost impossible for anyone to defeat him.

Before the second job change, who could win?

He had already accumulated more than six million health points, and he couldn't even knock off a drop of his blood.

Unless he continued to accumulate, ten million definitely wouldn't work; fifty million? Or would one hundred million health points be useful?

"This is the frontier town of the ancient Eastern Kingdom, Sunset Town."

"Ancient Eastern Kingdom? Frontier town?"

Lin Tianhao twitched the corner of his mouth and couldn't help but ask, "Are you the legendary hidden experts?"

Hearing this,

the young scholar smiled wryly and shook his head, "Our Sunset Town does have a hidden expert, but it's not me; I've only achieved a small degree of cultivation, which is considered powerful in this Sunset Town."

"But looking at the entire ancient Eastern Kingdom, I'm like an ant."

"The ancient Eastern Kingdom, so terrifying?" Lin Tianhao gasped.

The young scholar nodded and said, "That's natural; in the ancient Eastern Kingdom, there are countless experts who control laws and move mountains and seas."

Lin Tianhao frowned, not believing that the young scholar was lying.

Since he wasn't lying, did that mean that the experts of the ancient Eastern Kingdom were much stronger than those of the Western world?

"If that's the case, then why did the ancient Eastern Kingdom fall into slumber?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The young scholar narrowed his eyes and shook his head, "I don't know; this is something I can't access."

"To be precise, below the gods, there are not many people who can explain it clearly."

"Because the decision for the ancient Eastern Kingdom to fall into slumber was a decision between the gods, not something we mortals could influence."

Lin Tianhao frowned, "Then what is this...?"

"Not long ago, the power of the Lord of the Mortal Palace began to recover, and our Sunset Town followed suit."

"However, because the general trend is irresistible, we can only rely on this former residence of the Drought Demon to hide."

Lin Tianhao was somewhat surprised, "So, originally you weren't here?"

"Yes."

"Then what about the Drought Demon? After I released her, I always wanted to meet her."

Hearing this,

the young scholar shook his head, "I don't know; her former residence is in front of you; if you want to see her, perhaps you can go ahead and take a look; maybe you can have unexpected gains."

Lin Tianhao bowed, "Senior, this junior has always wanted to help the ancient Eastern Kingdom recover; I wonder if Senior can help this junior a little."

The young scholar raised his eyebrows, "Want benefits?"

Chapter 134 - Goodbye drought!

Lin Tianhao nodded with an awkward smile, "It's too difficult, too difficult for me alone to revive the ancient Eastern kingdom."

"Perhaps."

The young scholar nodded, "You must first prove your ability to me. Come back after you clear this instance, and I will give you some benefits."

"No problem."

Lin Tianhao cupped his fist in salute and turned to leave.

Passing through Sunset Town, there were still magma pools everywhere.

Lin Tianhao walked among them, continuing to lose health.

-100000.

-100000.

... ..

Losing over 100,000 health points per second had a very direct impact on Lin Tianhao.

Yet Lin Tianhao didn't care at all.

He hadn't walked far when...

...a monster with red fur all over its body rushed out of the magma.

Red-haired Fire Corpse (Silver): Level 50.

Health: 60,000,000 / 60,000,000.

Attack: 69692.

Skills: Lava Burst, Flame Ghost Claw, Blazing Body, Rebirth in Flames, Flame Scorch, Flame Origin, Super Armor, Berserk.

A bit fierce.

With 60 million health and nearly 70,000 attack power, these stats were quite terrifying.

But for Lin Tianhao, it was just so-so.

The health was indeed high, but the attack power wasn't great.

Judging from the skills, this red-haired fire corpse should be a magic-type monster.

As soon as the monster appeared, a ball of flame rose within Lin Tianhao's chest.

-99999.

-99999.

... ..

Huge damage numbers appeared, which was considered high damage to Lin Tianhao.

But Lin Tianhao remained unmoved, and his feathered arrows flew.

With Lin Tianhao's current life-steal ability, this bit of damage was insignificant to him.

The red-haired fire corpse was very fast, able to avoid some of Lin Tianhao's attacks.

Twenty normal attacks per second, each dealing 400,000+ damage, was over 8 million+ damage per second.

And in reality, it was more than that, because occasionally it would trigger critical hits and the passive effect of the Eye of Frost, dealing extremely high damage.

Thus,

The actual damage per second started at ten million.

This was without triggering Heavenly Fire Meteor and Cycle of Death. If either of these two effects were triggered, the red-haired fire corpse could be easily killed.

One, two, three... ..

Killing the red-haired fire corpse was still effortless. Lin Tianhao easily swept through the red-haired fire corpses.

"If the situation here is similar to the Snow Corpse Ruins, then there must be something that can solve this continuous health loss."

Lin Tianhao thought to himself, but so far, he hadn't triggered this reward.

He probably didn't fully trigger the reward in Sunset Town.

Of course,

This was just Lin Tianhao's guess.

Because in the Snow Corpse Ruins, you couldn't leave the instance after dying, while in this Drought Demon's Residence, you would leave the instance directly after dying.

From this point of view, the difficulty was actually less than that of the Snow Corpse's Tracks.

Withdrawing his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao continued forward.

After defeating the red-haired fire corpse, Lin Tianhao's health slightly increased by more than 7,000 points. It wasn't much, but it was better than nothing.

Continuing forward.

Ahead, the ancient town was gone.

Instead, there was a shrine.

This shrine was dilapidated, as if it had been maliciously smashed, turning it into its current state.

From the broken shrine plaque, Lin Tianhao saw a word: God!

Lin Tianhao flipped through the broken shrine plaque again and finally pieced together the name of the shrine.

"Drought God's Shrine!"

Drought God?

Lin Tianhao had learned about this before. The Drought God was Huangdi's daughter, Drought Demon!

Also known as Nüba.

Lin Tianhao entered the Drought God's Shrine. The inside had been smashed beyond recognition, and the statue in the middle was only a stone base.

Lin Tianhao wandered around the Drought God's Shrine but didn't find anything.

Well.

If there was anything, it was that he wouldn't lose health here.

Huangdi's daughter was known as one of the Ten Ancient Demon Gods and contributed a lot to the war between Huangdi and Chiyao.

There was no problem with erecting a shrine to worship her.

But why was the shrine smashed?

Could it be like the Mortal Palace he encountered before, where a player received a quest that ultimately led to its destruction?

But that wasn't right either.

After all, who else could get here besides himself at this stage?

Withdrawing his thoughts.

After confirming that there was nothing to gain here, Lin Tianhao continued forward.

Surprisingly, there was no continuous health loss ahead, because there was no more lava. Instead, there was... snow.

In this instance, there was actually a place covered in ice and snow.

Although Lin Tianhao was surprised, he didn't care too much. He continued forward, wanting to see what was ahead.

Only.

When he stepped into this icy world.

Lin Tianhao realized something was wrong.

Because the Drought God's Shrine behind him had disappeared, and everything around him was an icy world.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, activated his Immaculate Eye, wanting to see through the situation here.

However.

He failed.

His Immaculate Eye couldn't see through the illusion here.

"Interesting."

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and fired an arrow.

The feathered arrow pierced the sky, flying thousands of meters away before disappearing.

"Swish, swish, swish!"

Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows continued to pierce the air. He wanted to ensure that he was walking in a straight line.

If he relied on intuition to walk, it would be easy to go astray and then circle around in this icy world.

But Lin Tianhao connected the feathered arrows into a line. He followed the direction the arrows were flying in, so he wouldn't go wrong.

Thus,

It was only a matter of time before he got out.

Five minutes.

Ten minutes.

Twenty minutes... ..

Lin Tianhao clearly felt that the surrounding chill had decreased a lot.

Ahead.

"You are very smart."

Just then, a calm voice came.

Lin Tianhao looked back.

Appearing before him was a woman dressed in green.

??? : ???

Health: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Everything was question marks again. Lin Tianhao couldn't help but frown.

"You are... .."

The woman in green suddenly changed her form, her whole body enveloped in flames.

"Drought Demon!"

Lin Tianhao, who had personally released the Drought Demon, naturally recognized her at a glance.

The Drought Demon regained her appearance as a woman in green, looking at Lin Tianhao very calmly.

"It's only been a few days, and we meet again."

Lin Tianhao smiled wryly, "I didn't expect that this instance would actually have your real body here."

The Drought Demon's real body far exceeded the limits of the second class advancement. It was almost impossible for him to deal with.

"No, this is not my real body."

The Drought Demon shook her head, "This is just a clone of mine."

"I know what you've been doing lately, wanting to revive the ancient Eastern kingdom."

"However, I don't want you to succeed."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, "Why?"

Chapter 135 - Protective flying sword!

"If the ancient Eastern kingdom revives, it will inevitably bear the brunt and face divine punishment."

“When the great calamity arrives, the ancient Eastern kingdom, slumbering in sleep, might be able to survive.”

Hearing these words,

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Senior, you are mistaken."

“The great calamity you speak of, is it the invasion of extraterrestrial civilizations, or the suppression of the Western gods?”

Ba Drought was somewhat surprised, "You know quite a lot, it's both, I suppose."

“Then do you think that if the ancient Eastern kingdom remains dormant, they won't attack it?”

Ba Drought was silent.

Lin Tianhao continued, "When the great calamity arrives, we shouldn't pray for the pity of others, but should instead unleash all of our strength to fight back."

“Regardless of the outcome, no regrets!”

“No regrets...”

Ba Drought muttered to herself, a smile squeezing onto her face.

“What a fine 'no regrets,' you're merely doing it for your own benefit, why bother speaking so grandly.”

“Benefit? Perhaps, because I know that I must try my best to become stronger, only in this way can I cope with future troubles.”

“With power in one's own hands, one can have a say in some matters.”

Ba Drought smiled slightly and said, "Snow Emperor, your personality is very much to my liking. But do you know what the ancient Eastern kingdom will face first if it revives?"

“The Star Kingdom?”

Ba Drought nodded, "Sort of, but the Star Kingdom is just a small place, easily destroyed. The real trouble is the Western forces it represents.”

“The West has cultivated for many years, they will not allow the ancient Eastern kingdom to revive.”

“So what? Since there will be a battle eventually, then let it be,” Lin Tianhao said.

Ba Drought smiled noncommittally, "It seems you haven't understood what I mean."

“Right now, you can thrive in the Star Kingdom because the blessing of the Ice and Snow Goddess has deceived them.”

“But this deception won't last long, they will soon know that you killed the remnant soul of the Ice and Snow Goddess, and they will also know your desire to revive the ancient Eastern kingdom.”

“When that time comes, how will they treat you?”

“If you had done that, you wouldn't have the strength you have today.”

Lin Tianhao spread his hands, "Similarly, I wouldn't have the trouble I have today either.”

Ba Drought nodded, "Snow Emperor, you are truly interesting. I admire you, but my experiences have taught me not to trust anyone easily, so you won't get any benefits from me.”

Hearing this,

Lin Tianhao didn't care.

"I don't need your help, but I want to slay a god. Do you know of any leads to gods in a state similar to the Ice and Snow Goddess?"

Whether it was the God Conferment Board or the God Slayer Mark, both required slaying a god.

"Slay a god?"

Ba Drought was taken aback.

"You certainly have ideas, but it's not like there aren't any cases like the Ice and Snow Goddess, but you can't access them right now."

"But I can in the future, right?" Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

"The God of Slaughter, who proved his path through killing, having slaughtered nine gods in pursuit of the highest path, was ultimately severely wounded and sealed by several God-Kings joining forces."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up, "Where is he?"

"Moon Wheel Empire, Sea of Corpses and Blood."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He naturally knew about the Moon Wheel Empire.

After players completed their second job change, they could enter the next large map, which were the Empires.

There were three Empires in total: the Moon Wheel Empire, the Vast Empire, and the Xitu Empire.

Not only would players from the Dragon Country server enter these three Empires, but all players worldwide would enter them.

That would be the true golden age of players.

Of course.

It was also from that time onwards that battles began to break out frequently between players.

Because in reality, some countries had old feuds, and in reality, wars did not break out for the sake of peace.

But in the game, there were not so many concerns.

Lin Tianhao remembered.

In the previous life's national war, the scale was large, with over ten million players participating. The devastation was indescribable.

"In my previous life, I wasn't strong, and was just cannon fodder in the national war, but in this life..."

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself, his eyes gradually filled with murderous intent.

"Thinking about something?"

Ba Drought asked.

Lin Tianhao smiled, "It's nothing, just thinking about killing some people."

"Oh, then go kill them. Don't keep it in your heart, it's uncomfortable."

Lin Tianhao regained his thoughts, "But how do you clear this dungeon? It's not by defeating you, right?"

"Originally, you only needed to find my former residence, but since you released me, simply seeing me counts as clearing the dungeon."

"I see."

Lin Tianhao checked, and sure enough, the dungeon was already in a cleared state.

"Your team has cleared Ba Drought's former residence, a server-wide announcement is about to be made. Hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement: Congratulations to players Snow Emperor and Han Xue Piao Piao for completing the first clear of Ba Drought's former residence. Special announcement, hoping that all players will continue to work hard."

... ..

"Ding, you have obtained Equipment +99."

"Ding, you have obtained Skill Book +62."

"Ding, you have obtained Free Attribute Points +100."

“Ding, you have obtained...”

... ..

Lin Tianhao obtained a large number of rewards in one breath, but he was not in a hurry to leave.

Because he still wanted to go back and see what rewards the young scholar could give him.

“Senior, I'll take my leave first.”

Lin Tianhao had actually thought about asking to bind Ba Drought with the Fetter Red Rope, but he ultimately gave up.

Ba Drought had just said that she would not give him any benefits.

Lin Tianhao naturally didn't bother to make a fool of himself.

Returning to Sunset Town.

The young scholar was drinking tea in Sunset Town.

Seeing Lin Tianhao return, a smile appeared on his face.

“Snow Emperor, not bad. Ba Drought actually let you pass the dungeon.”

Lin Tianhao was stunned.

He had actually thought before that the real difficulty of this dungeon was Ba Drought.

If Ba Drought wasn't willing to come out and meet him, then he wouldn't have been able to clear the dungeon at all.

“Senior, I wonder what I can get?” Lin Tianhao asked straight to the point.

The young scholar raised his eyebrows, flipped his palm, and a flying sword only as long as an index finger appeared in his palm.

Lin Tianhao took the flying sword, and the attributes of the flying sword appeared in front of Lin Tianhao.

Protective Flying Sword: Gold.

Equipping Requirements: Level 50 All Classes (Does not occupy main weapon slot).

Effect: Once activated, it can automatically block attacks from the surroundings, lasting for one hour, cooldown time of two hours.

Wear Resistance: 100.

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. This seemed to be the young scholar's Nine Swords defense method. How much attack could a flying sword block?

No matter what, this was also an additional life-saving weapon, and it didn't occupy the main weapon slot. He could protect himself while outputting damage.

“Thank you, Senior.” Lin Tianhao cupped his hands in a salute.

Chapter 136 - Kill Queen Fiodinyu!

The young scholar waved his hand, "Go, I hope you can go further and further."

Lin Tianhao nodded, took a step, and left this instance.

Coming out of the instance.

Hanxue Piaopiao was outside, and when she saw Lin Tianhao coming out, she trotted up.

"Snow Emperor, you are too fierce, you actually cleared it."

Lin Tianhao smiled faintly, "It's just a piece of cake."

Lin Tianhao's harvest this time was not bad, in addition to the free attribute points, the equipment and skills were also good.

However, the equipment and skill books dropped from these monsters are not very helpful to Lin Tianhao.

Most of the skill values are related to attack power and spell power, but Lin Tianhao's two attributes can be ignored.

As for equipment.

His Ninefold Longbow can choose a replacement, but there is no longbow in the former residence of Drought Demon, so it cannot be replaced. As for other equipment, it can improve Lin Tianhao, but it is not very big.

It can only be used as equipment reserve and used when needed.

"If you have nothing to do here, I'll leave first."

Lin Tianhao doesn't have any tasks that he can do directly now.

Can only wait.

Wait until the task of King Abra is completed.

Today is the fifth day, and in two days, the task of King Abra will be completed.

But at this moment.

The whole server announcement sounded.

"Full server announcement, Queen Fioding Yu has rebelled and intends to assassinate the king. She has now escaped from Tianxing City. A reward order is hereby issued: Kill Queen Fioding Yu."

... ..

The whole server announcement reward task rushed out, and Lin Tianhao checked the task as soon as possible.

"Full Server Reward: Queen Fioding Yu intends to assassinate the king, and a reward task is hereby issued."

"Task Requirement: Kill Queen Fioding Yu."

"Task Penalty: None."

"Task Reward: Free attribute points + 500, gold suit of this profession + 1."

Lin Tianhao was moved.

This reward is not bad, five hundred free attribute points... If Monkey gets it, it would be even better.

But can Monkey's current strength kill Queen Fioding Yu?

The answer is almost impossible.

Although Lin Tianhao helped him obtain very high attributes before, it is still very difficult to deal with Queen Fioding Yu.

But.

If Monkey can't do it, he can.

Of course.

Compared to killing Queen Fioding Yu, Lin Tianhao wants to get the pre-quest scroll of the Gods' Blessing in Queen Fioding Yu's hands even more.

The premise is that he needs to find Queen Fioding Yu.

Walking out of the Berserker Territory.

Lin Tianhao found that the Berserker Territory had already begun to gather people.

In Twilight of the Gods, the necessity of cultivating a peak player is very important.

It can be seen from the Snow Emperor.

A peak player can easily snowball.

Lin Tianhao also began to act.

Since Queen Fioding Yu has already moved, she is very likely to go to the Netherworld.

After all, Queen Fioding Yu has always been in contact with the Nether Race.

Lin Tianhao quickened his pace and rushed towards the entrance of the Netherworld.

When he was about to arrive at the entrance of the Netherworld, Lin Tianhao saw a figure in a mess.

He is none other than.

It is Queen Fioding Yu.

Queen Fioding Yu also saw Lin Tianhao, she couldn't help frowning, "Snow Emperor."

"Hmph, did you take the reward task to kill me?"

Lin Tianhao smiled meaningfully and said: "Yes, and no, I am here more to get the pre-quest scroll of the Gods' Blessing in your hand."

Queen Fioding Yu frowned, "Sure enough, you are different from other players, you covet bigger things."

"I can give you the pre-quest scroll of the Gods' Blessing, and even let you kill me and get the reward."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly. When the benefits are big enough, it means that the difficulty factor is also very big.

"What are your requirements?"

"Kill King Abra within half a month."

Lin Tianhao changed his face, "Are you so sure that I can kill King Abra?"

"Not sure, but if you can't kill King Abra, then no one can kill him."

Queen Fioding Yu threw out the quest scroll.

"Task Requirement: Kill King Abra within half a month."

"Task Penalty: You will be punished by God, and the experience points required for upgrading will be multiplied by ten times in the future."

"Task Reward: Free attribute points + 1000, Nether Longbow + 1, Blessing of the Gods + 1."

"Accept or not?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, this reward is very good.

"As long as you accept this task, I can let you kill me."

Lin Tianhao only pondered slightly, then nodded and agreed.

"Okay, I accept your task."

He dared to accept it, naturally he had a certain degree of certainty.

Not only that.

He is not afraid of this task penalty.

Perhaps the experience points required for upgrading are increased by ten times, which is outrageous for other players.

But it doesn't matter to Lin Tianhao.

He himself does not have a high demand for level, and besides, it is easy for him to upgrade.

Multiplying it by ten times is nothing to him.

Therefore, he is not worried about this task failing.

Seeing Lin Tianhao accepting the task, Queen Fioding Yu showed a satisfied smile.

"You can kill me now and get the reward."

Lin Tianhao was slightly surprised. He didn't expect that Queen Fioding Yu would really be willing to sacrifice herself.

"You have already escaped here. If you insist on entering the Netherworld, I may not be able to stop you."

Queen Fioding Yu smiled miserably, "I have no value now. Even if I return to the Netherworld, I will not end well. Therefore, it is better to improve your strength as much as possible."

A smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face, "Queen is righteous, in that case, I will respectfully send the Queen to heaven."

The voice fell.

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and poured out feather arrows.

Queen Fioding Yu did not resist, but Lin Tianhao still spent ten seconds to kill Queen Fioding Yu.

"Ding, you killed Queen Fioding Yu, a server-wide announcement is about to be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Full server announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for killing Queen Fioding Yu, reward free attribute points + 100, special equipment + 1, hereby announce, I hope the majority of players will make persistent efforts."

... ..

The sound of the full server announcement sounded, and Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

Actually rewarded special equipment.

Lin Tianhao is very clear that even the gold-level suits like Kuangzhan Daofeng are just transitional things, and they will be eliminated after a certain stage.

But special equipment is likely to be used for a lifetime!

Chapter 137 - A young beauty!

Lucky Bracelet: Special.

Wearing Requirement: None.

Effect: Luck +10.

Durability: 100.

Very simple attributes.

Seeing these attributes, Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

Because the number of times he triggers probabilistic events is very low, a big factor is his insufficient luck attribute.

But this item can actually add ten points of luck in one go.

Does this mean that the trigger probability of skills like Skyfire Meteor and Cycle of Death can be improved?

Previously, even if Lin Tianhao had a 1% chance, the actual trigger probability was still very, very low.

If it was said that in the Snow Corpse's Ruins, because he was level one, and the bosses in the dungeon were all level fifty, the level suppression caused the trigger probability to be low, that was still understandable.

But this time in the Drought Demon's Old Residence, his level was also fifty, but the trigger probability was still very low.

It can only be said that it was better than the Snow Corpse's Ruins, but not by much.

Now that this Lucky Bracelet can add ten points of luck in one go, doesn't that mean that the trigger probability of his Cycle of Death and Skyfire Meteor will be greatly increased?

Thinking of this.

Lin Tianhao chose a wild monster area nearby to try it out.

"As expected, my luck attribute is very low."

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself, because when he completed the Old Village Chief's quest, he also gained Luck +1.

Including the Lucky Bracelet's boost, he now has an additional eleven points of luck attribute.

But even so, his luck attribute is actually not as good as wild monsters!!

This... is too outrageous.

This Lucky Bracelet is definitely a good thing, but Lin Tianhao doesn't plan to wear it now.

The trigger probability of Skyfire Meteor and Cycle of Death is too high, which would instead affect his stacking of health points.

It would be just right to wear it when dealing with strong opponents like King Abra.

At the same time.

Lin Tianhao found that the bounty rewards had been automatically distributed.

Free attribute points increased by five hundred points, allowing Lin Tianhao's accumulated free attribute points to reach 2865.

If he were to level up, he would have to level up over five hundred levels to get so many free attribute points.

This is only given to him; if so many free attribute points were given to Monkey, then Monkey's attributes could really be considered soaring.

Retracting his thoughts, Lin Tianhao began to check the golden set he had obtained.

Green Shadow Set: Gold.

Wearing Requirement: Level 10 Archer.

When he saw this, Lin Tianhao had several question marks above his head.

King Abra, did he know that he was the one who got the bounty, and was deliberately playing him?

He is already level fifty, yet he is given a level 10 golden set.

This is really too much!

Green Shadow Set: Gold.

Wearing Requirement: Level 10 Archer.

Effect 1: Attack Power +9999.

Effect 2: Critical Strike +50%.

Effect 3: Health Points +150000.

Effect 4: Mana +15000.

Effect 5: Armor Penetration +15%.

Effect 6: Movement Speed +5.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly.

This is targeting him.

And so obviously targeting him.

Does he need attack power? Does he need critical strike? Does he need armor penetration?

Six attributes, three useless.

The most outrageous thing is that a golden-level archer set doesn't add attack speed?

Is this reasonable?

"King Abra, if I don't kill you, I won't be surnamed Xue."

Lin Tianhao directly gave up wearing this set of equipment.

Of course.

He still put on the two golden rings that added mana, allowing his mana to break through two thousand.

With these two thousand mana, his current demand for mana is basically enough.

After handling the matters at hand, Lin Tianhao spent one hundred gold coins to buy a full-server loudspeaker.

"Full-server loudspeaker, Qingqing, I like shredded pork with garlic sauce and sweet and sour pork ribs, not afraid of cavities, add my friend if you see this."

"Full-server loudspeaker, Qingqing, I like shredded pork with garlic sauce and sweet and sour pork ribs, not afraid of cavities, add my friend if you see this."

... ..

Lin Tianhao wanted to find a way to contact Lin Qingqing, and this is the only way he can do it now.

However.

It has been a while since the full-server loudspeaker was used, and no one has come to add Lin Tianhao as a friend.

It shouldn't be like this.

Lin Qingqing's game pod does indeed show that it is logged in.

This shows that Lin Qingqing has entered the game, but why hasn't she added herself as a friend?

Lin Tianhao doesn't know, but he is not in a hurry for these one or two days, and can continue to communicate with Lin Qingqing later.

Returning to the Blackwater Lake Dragon Turtle dungeon, Lin Tianhao prepared to continue stacking health points.

But he had just arrived here when a figure appeared in front of him, blocking his way.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "What do you want from me?"

Hearing this.

The man standing in front of Lin Tianhao smiled and said, "Snow Emperor, are you interested in becoming the new king of our Starry Kingdom?"

Lin Tianhao was slightly surprised, "Kelson Luo, you are the Prime Minister of the Starry Kingdom, yet you are asking me if I want to be the King of the Starry Kingdom."

Kelson Luo's expression was serious, not like he was joking.

"The Starry Kingdom, King Abra has limited ability; after being in power for so long, the Starry Kingdom's national power has decreased rather than increased."

"Now he even wants to occupy the throne of the Starry Kingdom and not let go."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said, "The three princesses, Qing Fuyun, let's not talk about her for now, but the eldest princess, Di Xuejian, and the third princess, Lei Ouna, all have lofty ambitions and want to lead the Starry Kingdom to advance."

"How easy is it to lead the Starry Kingdom to advance? Although they have ambition, they don't have the ability."

"If they were sensible, they should find a strong person for the Starry Kingdom, and they should serve the strong well to strengthen the country's power."

"In my opinion, you are that strong person."

Kelson Luo's expression was serious, "With your ability, you can completely marry the three princesses and take charge of the Starry Kingdom."

"I know that you Easterners have an old saying, 'Wake up to wield power over the world, lie drunk on the lap of a beauty,' what do you think?"

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally, "It's hard for me to believe you when you say these things in just a few words."

Kelson Luo clapped his hands, and immediately two young girls with good figures and appearances walked out.

One is pure and beautiful, and the other has a somewhat youthful beauty; although they lack the nobility of Di Xuejian and Lei Ouna, they are also quite good.

"These two are my daughters; if Lord Snow Emperor is willing to take charge of the Starry Kingdom, they will both become Lord Snow Emperor's maids."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. In a country with a noble system like the Starry Kingdom, maids are similar to slaves; they can do whatever their master asks them to do.

In his previous life, Lin Tianhao knew that some people with perverse tastes would spend money to buy maids and then use them to satisfy their evil tastes.

Because some heavy-handed behaviors, even if you spend money in real life, no one would be willing to do them.

But the game world is different; as long as they are slaves, no matter how excessive you play, it's okay!

Chapter 138 - God-level hidden profession: Buddhist monk!

And that's exactly why.

In the previous life, many small websites had a lot of short videos that harmed teenagers.

"I am a gentleman, don't even think about seducing me with your beauty."

Lin Tianhao's answer was righteous and stern.

However, what he was thinking in his heart was that these two daughters of yours are indeed not bad, but compared to the bunny-eared girls, fox-eared girls, cat-eared girls, etc. of the beastman race, there is still a certain gap.

If he really wanted to satisfy his kidney's needs, why would he need these two women? A sprinkle of gold coins, and they would serve him until his soul drifted to the heavens.

As for the three princesses...

It seems that training the princesses to be obedient maids is not bad.

However, Lin Tianhao has experienced countless life and death situations and is very clear that lust is a knife above one's head.

What he wants is to become stronger.

As long as he becomes stronger, what kind of woman can't he get?

"Lord Snow Emperor, I never thought of seducing you, I am just expressing my sincerity."

Lin Tianhao grinned, "If you want to express your sincerity, then give me the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing in your hand."

Prime Minister Kesenluo was a little surprised, but quickly calmed down.

"Okay, I can give you the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing now, but the task is for you to become the king of the Star Kingdom."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, "If that's the case, I can't accept it, or rather, one pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing is not enough."

"Lord Snow Emperor, I only have one."

"You only have one, but Marshal Luolin Muyuan also has one, doesn't he?"

Prime Minister Kesenluo nodded, "I still need to discuss this with the Grand Marshal."

"Grand Marshal, come out since you're here."

Lin Tianhao looked in one direction.

Hearing this.

Marshal Luolin Muyuan walked out unhurriedly.

"I have always heard that Snow Emperor is extraordinary, and now it seems that it is indeed the case."

After saying this.

Marshal Luolin Muyuan threw a quest scroll to Lin Tianhao.

"As you wish, I and Kesenluo will give you the pre-quest scrolls for the Gods' Blessing."

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up, and a smile appeared on his face.

He took the quest scroll.

"Quest Requirement: Become the king of the Star Kingdom within one month."

"Quest Penalty: None."

"Quest Reward: Gods' Blessing +1."

The reason why the Grand Marshal and the Prime Minister are willing to let Lin Tianhao become the king of the Star Kingdom.

In addition to the ability Lin Tianhao himself has shown, there is also a very important thing.

That is, they all believe that Lin Tianhao released the Ice Snow Goddess, and the Ice Snow Goddess is about to revive and return.

Including King Yabula, the most excessive thing he did was the ban on Lin Tianhao, but he never really made a killing move against Lin Tianhao.

All of these can explain the problem.

However.

If they knew that the Ice Snow Goddess died in his hands, I wonder what they would think.

"Since you are so sincere, then I will agree to you."

Lin Tianhao's expression was indifferent, he had no reason to refuse the two pre-quest scrolls for the Gods' Blessing.

Not only that.

If he becomes the king of the Star Kingdom, the benefits he can get are immeasurable.

The simplest thing is that he can easily do what the Black Robe leader wants to establish a regime in the Star Kingdom.

Now he has obtained the blessings of five Eastern gods: Empress Houtu, God of Wealth, Old Man of the Moon, God of Fire Zhurong, and Supreme Lord Lao.

According to the conditions for reviving the ancient Eastern country, he needs to obtain the blessings of ten Eastern gods.

Currently, he has five pre-quest tasks for the Gods' Blessing hanging on him, namely the task given to him by Luolin Muyuan to not interfere in the kingdom's struggle for seven days.

The second is the one given to him by Leona, to help plan the overthrow of King Yabula.

The third is the task given to him by Queen Fiodina, to kill King Yabula.

The fourth and fifth are the ones just obtained, to become the king of the Star Kingdom.

If there are no accidents, he will be able to obtain five Gods' Blessings.

If the five Gods' Blessings are all blessings from Eastern gods, and there are no repetitions.

Then he will be able to revive the ancient Eastern country.

Of course, Lin Tianhao doesn't mind having more of the Gods' Blessing.

According to Lin Tianhao's understanding, both Qing Fuyun and King Yabula have pre-quest scrolls for the Gods' Blessing in their hands.

The pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing that Luolin Muyuan gave last time should be his own, not King Yabula's.

So King Yabula should still have a pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing in his hand.

Just.

He shouldn't have much of a chance with the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing in King Yabula's hand.

Because according to Lin Tianhao's speculation, King Yabula will soon know about his killing of the Ice Snow Goddess, or may even already know.

What about Qing Fuyun?

Lin Tianhao just killed Queen Fiodina, and it was even announced to the whole server, it seems very difficult to get Qing Fuyun to hand over the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing.

The fastest way he can do it now is to become the king of the Star Kingdom.

Obtaining the pre-quest scroll for the Gods' Blessing in Qing Fuyun's hand as the king is the most hopeful.

After sending away Kesenluo and Luolin Muyuan, Lin Tianhao began to prepare for the next thing.

But just at this moment, a voice suddenly came.

"Amitabha."

Hearing this, Lin Tianhao couldn't help but look up.

He saw that the person speaking was a kind-faced monk.

It was really a monk wearing a cassock and with a shaved head.

"Divine Hidden Profession, Buddhist Monk!"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, the other party did not hide his nickname, Lin Tianhao could see his nickname: Puto Tianlong.

Puto Tianlong.

A well-known monk in the previous life, he was originally a Buddhist master in reality, and he was proficient in all seventy-two unique skills of Buddhism.

Relying on the seventy-two unique skills of Buddhism, he was able to easily achieve cross-level battles in the game.

Not only that.

He was also among the first batch of people to obtain a divine hidden profession.

Buddhist Monk, this is his hidden profession, the specific effect is unknown, and his talent has not been revealed to the public either.

It is only known that he is very strong, he can perform many Buddhist supernatural powers, and they are very powerful.

Puto Tianlong was slightly surprised when he heard Lin Tianhao's words.

"Benefactor is indeed not simple, he can see my divine hidden profession at a glance."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Master Puto, what can I do for you?"

He didn't know how to evaluate Puto Tianlong.

It is said that Taoists seek good fortune and avoid misfortune, but in Lin Tianhao's opinion, Puto Tianlong can be said to have brought the four words of seeking good fortune and avoiding misfortune to the fullest.

He runs faster than anyone else when there are benefits, and he also runs faster than anyone else when there is danger.

If you want to say he did bad things, he doesn't seem to have done anything, and he has also saved some people when he is absolutely sure.

But it is his extreme pursuit of good fortune and avoidance of misfortune that makes many people have a bad impression of him.

Chapter 139 - It doesn't matter, I'll do it!

However, Lin Tianhao didn't think that Potala Tianlong's actions were wrong.

He wasn't a sanctimonious fool; seeking good fortune and avoiding disaster was the most correct approach.

Sometimes, living is the most important thing.

In the situation of the Great Cataclysm, saving those you are absolutely sure you can save is fine, but if it requires taking risks, is there anything wrong with not saving them?

The answer is obvious: no!

In the words of a small-time gangster Lin Tianhao knew in his previous life: "You're not my son, why should I save you?"

In fact, compared to Potala Tianlong, Lin Tianhao hated those who were full of benevolence and morality, but when real danger came, they would run away themselves.

Even betraying the people around them to save their own lives.

Although Potala Tianlong sought good fortune and avoided disaster, he never did evil; he just didn't want to take risks easily.

"Amitabha."

Potala Tianlong chanted a Buddhist prayer to Lin Tianhao, "Snow Emperor, you should be the most powerful in our server now. I want to ask you to help me with a mission."

Lin Tianhao didn't agree immediately but asked, "What benefits will I get?"

Potala Tianlong didn't care about Lin Tianhao's words but took out a card.

When Lin Tianhao saw that card, his breathing couldn't help but quicken.

"This is a card I obtained by chance. I believe you will be interested."

Saying that, Potala Tianlong requested to add Lin Tianhao as a friend.

After Lin Tianhao agreed, Potala Tianlong sent the card's information to Lin Tianhao.

Second Job Transfer Card: Special.

Usage Requirements: Players who currently only have one main job.

Lin Tianhao was a little excited. He never dreamed that someone could obtain such a perverted thing at this stage.

Dual Class!

How terrifying!

Lin Tianhao remembered that in his previous life, only a very small number of people had dual classes, and they were really ridiculously strong.

Dual class means you can change to two hidden classes, gain the characteristics of two classes, and switch between melee and ranged combat.

Not only that.

Dual class leveling up grants 10 free attribute points.

There will naturally be an advantage.

"What mission do you want me to help you with?" Lin Tianhao asked.

He really couldn't refuse this reward.

It could even be said that this thing was much better than the Blessing of the Gods.

He is currently an archer and can completely change to a melee class.

Such as a knight, or a berserker, shield warrior, assassin, etc.

Being able to have one more choice, and then becoming proficient in switching between dual classes, combat will be very brutal.

Potala Tianlong directly sent him his mission requirements.

"Mission Requirement: Transcend 100,000 undead within one month (all humanoid life forms, including players, NPCs, elves, orcs, etc., after death).".

"Current Progress: 108 / 100000."

"Mission Penalty: None."

Potala Tianlong didn't release the mission's introductory information and rewards.

It was probably because he didn't want Lin Tianhao to see the mission rewards.

"Transcend 100,000 undead? Why are you looking for me?"

Potala Tianlong smiled bitterly, "Without anyone's help, where am I going to transcend these 100,000 undead?"

Lin Tianhao's lips curled up, "I guess I know now that you want me to help you kill them, and then you transcend them?"

"Amitabha, although this is not kind, it is, after all, a game, so this shouldn't exist."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "It doesn't exist. I accept your request."

Kill 100,000 people?

It seemed a bit cruel, but Lin Tianhao didn't hesitate.

Kill players?

This should be the fastest.

After all, most players are just weak chickens now, and Lin Tianhao isn't afraid of 100,000 people.

Just.

Is it appropriate to massacre like this?

Killing 100,000 players will cause 100,000 players to lose levels, which will still have some impact on the game's progress in the Dragon Kingdom.

In that case.

Then the best choice is to provoke a war between the Demon Cave and the Star Kingdom. This way, not to mention killing 100,000, killing 200,000 is possible.

"I'll plan it out. Wait a few days."

Potala Tianlong smiled slightly and nodded, "Okay."

He didn't ask any more questions, nor was he worried that wasting a few days would affect the progress.

Lin Tianhao smiled on his face. This was really good.

He has many missions now, but in reality, there is only one purpose.

They are all centered around the throne of the Star Kingdom.

But now he is limited by Lorraine 牧野's mission and needs to wait two more days before he can take action.

"Monkey, you and Fatty pay more attention to the movements of the Star Kingdom's royal family. Send me any news as soon as possible."

Lin Tianhao sent a message to Monkey and then prepared to enter the dungeon.

But he didn't expect Monkey to reply immediately.

"Fatty and I just received a very strange mission. It was issued by Princess Tissian, and the mission requirement is for us to help the Demon Cave attack Blackwind City."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. It seemed that Tissian and the others had already begun to act.

"Well, then do your best to take down Blackwind City."

Lin Tianhao said.

"Okay."

Retracting his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao re-entered the dungeon, and he began to stack health points.

Now his efficiency in stacking health points is getting lower and lower, mainly because the damage is too high. An arrow can kill ordinary monsters in seconds.

If lightning jump or meteor shower is triggered, then a large area will die directly.

But being able to stack a little is a little. In the blink of an eye, a day passed.

Lin Tianhao's health increased by 200,000, reaching 6.87 million.

Monkey relayed the news that Blackwind City was in a stalemate with the Demon Cave. King Abraham was furious and sent the Heavenly Star City's city guards to assist Blackwind City.

The last day.

Lin Tianhao was still at ease farming monsters, but Monkey's message was transmitted again.

"Tissian colluded with the Demon Cave and intended to rebel. She was discovered by King Abraham, and now King Abraham is wanted to arrest Tissian."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. This was interesting.

Tissian was exposed now. It seemed that King Abraham was not easy to deal with.

Of course.

It can't be ruled out that King Abraham wanted to tear his face apart.

But Lin Tianhao couldn't intervene now, he could only continue to farm monsters.

On this last day, Lin Tianhao stacked another 190,000 health points, and his total health points broke through the 7 million mark, reaching 7.06 million.

Lin Tianhao's health increase meant that Zhou Xiaopang's health was also increasing.

On this last day.

Monkey sent Lin Tianhao a blockbuster message.

Tissian is dead!!

Lin Tianhao was very surprised.

After all, Tissian had deep roots in the Star Kingdom, but she died so easily.

"Okay, I understand."

Lin Tianhao came out of the dungeon.

As soon as he came out, he saw Leona with a worried look on her face.

"Snow Emperor, Tissian is dead, and I'm next."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. He always felt that Tissian's death was too sudden.

"It doesn't matter, I will take action."

Chapter 140 - Hou Tu blesses: City God Temple!

Now the restrictions on him had ended, and he had successfully completed the Lorraine Plains' Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll.

"What are you going to do?"

"Assist the Demon Cave in establishing a regime, lure out King Abra, and kill King Abra!"

Lin Tianhao said calmly.

Leona couldn't help but gasp when she heard this.

Lin Tianhao's idea was a bit crazy.

"Why assist the Demon Cave in establishing a regime?" Leona asked her question.

Lin Tianhao naturally couldn't say it was because of the Black Robe Leader's mission.

"Although I am powerful, I cannot fight against an army of thousands on my own. Moreover, if King Abra hides in the palace, it will be almost impossible for me to kill him."

"But if you want to lure King Abra out, ordinary bait won't work."

"If the Demon Cave establishes a regime, King Abra will definitely come out. After all, when a country has a second regime, if he doesn't show up, his people will not agree."

Leona frowned. She still felt there was a problem.

But she couldn't quite put her finger on what the problem was.

Because she felt that what Lin Tianhao said seemed to make sense.

After seeing Leona off.

Lin Tianhao had now completed the Lorraine Plains mission, obtained one hundred free attribute points, and also obtained a Gods' Blessing.

Now Lin Tianhao's free attribute points had reached 2965 points.

"Use the Gods' Blessing."

"Ding, you have obtained the Gods' Blessing..."

"Ding, Mother Earth is bestowing a blessing upon you..."

Lin Tianhao was stunned. Mother Earth again?

This was a bit of a headache.

The reason was none other than that he had already received two of Mother Earth's blessings, and receiving another would only be a repetition.

It wouldn't speed up the progress.

"Ding, you have obtained the City God Temple."

Lin Tianhao was stunned. City God Temple?

What was this?

A temple?

Durability: Indestructible.

Lin Tianhao: ???

Unknown effect?

Was this a mistake?

What was the use of this thing?

In Eastern mythology, Mother Earth is a saint. Whether it's death reincarnation or the Book of Life and Death, they are quite perverted.

In the legends of the Netherworld, this City God Temple seems to be the temple of the City God.

Could it be for collecting incense?

To know the specific use of the City God Temple, he could only know the use of the City God Temple after it was built.

However, Lin Tianhao did not have a territory now, so this City God Temple could not be used for the time being.

After putting away the City God Temple, Lin Tianhao went to the Demon Cave.

He found the Black Robe Leader.

"Snow Emperor, you have finally come." The Black Robe Leader seemed to have been waiting for Lin Tianhao.

"I can lead you to attack the city." Lin Tianhao said indifferently.

The Black Robe Leader's eyes lit up, "That's great. I will now mobilize the army and be ready to move at any time."

"I have a request." Lin Tianhao said.

"What request?"

"I want your disguise robe."

Hearing this.

The Black Robe Leader frowned, "This was not in the previous agreement."

"I can't expose my identity. Your disguise robe is the best choice."

The Black Robe Leader smiled, "Aren't you joking? Among the adventurers, who has damage as outrageous as yours?"

"As long as you take action, whether you have a disguise robe or not, you will be exposed."

Lin Tianhao smiled indifferently, "Those who know are the higher-ups, but ordinary people may not know my identity."

"Moreover, I am just giving them a possibility of acceptance. After all, I still need to clear my identity later."

The Black Robe Leader narrowed his eyes, staring at Lin Tianhao.

He seemed to have guessed something and couldn't help but ask: "You wouldn't want to be conferred the title of War God of the Star Kingdom, would you?!"

"Help us establish a regime, get my reward, and then help the Star Kingdom solve us. By then, you can also get the Star Kingdom's reward."

Speaking of this, the Black Robe Leader couldn't help but sneer.

"Snow Emperor, you are really scheming. Are you using the lives of our Demon Cave warriors as sacrifices for you to obtain rewards?!"

Lin Tianhao helplessly touched his nose, "Am I so unbearable in your heart?"

"Yes."

The Black Robe Leader answered very simply.

Lin Tianhao didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He didn't seem to have done anything that angered the heavens and caused resentment. Why was he being targeted like this?

"The Star Kingdom is just my starting point. There is a more vast and boundless world behind. I won't waste too much energy here."

The Black Robe Leader snorted coldly, "But I know that you don't mind getting as many benefits as possible here."

Lin Tianhao spread his hands, "We are partners now. How can you speculate about me like this?"

"Okay, as long as you are willing to add a little more to the mission scroll, I can unconditionally believe you."

Lin Tianhao frowned, "Black Robe, aren't you being a bit greedy?"

"It's not that I'm being greedy, but that you, Snow Emperor, are really hard for me to fully trust."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, "What other conditions do you want to add?"

"Kill King Abra."

The Black Robe Leader stared at Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao thought to himself: Just this? Isn't this my mission?

But what Lin Tianhao thought in his heart was this, but after hearing this, Lin Tianhao's first reaction was:

"You're dreaming!!"

"Kill King Abra? What do you think King Abra is? Is he so easy to kill?"

The Black Robe Leader smiled and said, "Besides this, it's really hard for me to believe you."

Lin Tianhao pondered for a while, pretending to be deep in thought.

After a short while.

Lin Tianhao slowly said, "It's not impossible, but..."

"But what?"

"You have to add money!!"

The Black Robe Leader laughed heartily, "Okay, as long as you are willing to add this, I can add money for you."

"Killing King Abra is not a small task. The reward you offer must match the task."

The Black Robe Leader nodded. He raised his hand and flipped it over, and a golden leaf appeared in his palm.

Lin Tianhao frowned, "What is this?"

He really didn't know it. After all, there were too many items in Twilight of the Gods, and he didn't know much about them.

"A leaf from the Tree of Knowledge."

The Tree of Knowledge?!

Lin Tianhao's pupils shrank suddenly, "Isn't that something from legends?"

Lin Tianhao had heard of the Tree of Knowledge, but even in his previous life, the Tree of Knowledge was just something from legends.

"That's right, it is indeed something from legends. The entire Star Kingdom doesn't have it, and I brought this one out from the Holy Land of the Vast Empire."

Lin Tianhao was shocked and subconsciously asked, "Are you from the Vast Infinity Palace?"
