#16 - Chapter 16 Breaking the Illusion!

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly.

Without even thinking, he knew this was an illusion.

Of course, if one's mind wasn't firm enough, they could be trapped within this illusion.

He had to stay true to himself and break the illusion.

Actually, there was a very simple method.

And that was... to use his imagination!

He had to associate the curvaceous, long-legged beauty in front of him with that over three-meter tall, hairy, and ferocious-looking weasel.

That way, he could perfectly explain the current situation.

Lin Tianhao looked at the curvaceous beauty again, involuntarily imagining the weasel preening and posing in front of him.

Ugh~

Lin Tianhao almost couldn't help but throw up. Just thinking about it made his stomach churn. It was too disgusting.

The curvaceous beauty was stunned by this scene.

"Could it be that this guy likes men?"

Immediately, the illusion shifted.

A handsome young man leaned against Lin Tianhao, dribbling a basketball with practiced, fluid movements, his body rising and falling rhythmically...

Ugh~

Lin Tianhao felt like the weasel was trying to humiliate him.

"Swish!"

An arrow pierced through the air, striking the soul in one shot.

"Awoo~"

The weasel instantly clamped its legs together, letting out a miserable cry.

This was an attack that wasn't very damaging, but extremely insulting.

Lin Tianhao knew that Shadow Kill was helping him draw aggro, trying to delay the weasel's invincibility time.

Sure enough, after letting out a miserable cry, the weasel turned around and chased after Shadow Kill.

"Swish!"

As it chased Shadow Kill, Lin Tianhao maxed out his attack speed, attacking without restraint.

Every arrow struck the back of its head, dealing high critical damage.

"Roar roar roar!!"

The weasel roared angrily.

It also knew that it was being played.

Seeing its remaining invincibility time, it unhesitatingly activated its Berserk skill.

Its speed suddenly increased.

Shadow Kill's reaction was already fast, but the weasel raised its hand and cast Soul Seize, instantly killing Shadow Kill.

Lin Tianhao facepalmed.

This was already Shadow Kill's third death today.

Twice he had killed him, and this third time, he was killed to save him.

After killing Shadow Kill, the weasel turned to look at Lin Tianhao, raising its hand and throwing a Soul Control spell at him.

Lin Tianhao only felt his soul stiffen, as a cold aura began to invade his soul.

In the next instant, he was gradually losing control of his body.

In this critical moment, Lin Tianhao switched equipment.

He switched the Thunderclap Bow for a shield.

If he couldn't withstand the next attack, he could be instantly killed.

Moreover, he was worried that the weasel would use Soul Control to make him harm himself, so a shield was clearly the best choice.

After controlling Lin Tianhao, the weasel immediately rushed towards him.

Then, it slapped out with its palm, heavily striking Lin Tianhao's helmet.

Critical Hit...

-1512!

A huge damage number appeared, followed by a storm of attacks raining down on Lin Tianhao.

"Swish!"

The weasel's claw tore through Lin Tianhao's throat, and another huge damage number appeared.

-1626.

Bleeding...

-300.

-300.

.....

This attack inflicted bleeding damage on Lin Tianhao.

And Lin Tianhao was now fighting with all his might, just to break free from the restraints as soon as possible.

But even so, Lin Tianhao lost a full twenty thousand health points before narrowly breaking free from Soul Control.

After breaking free from Soul Control, Lin Tianhao kicked the weasel's knee, using the momentum to do a backflip, avoiding the weasel's attack.

String-Twisting Arrow Technique!

"Swish!"

At this time, the weasel's invincibility finally ended, and Lin Tianhao's powerful String-Twisting Arrow flew towards the weasel's throat.

However, the weasel in its Berserk state had increased its speed considerably, actually catching Lin Tianhao's arrow with its palm.

Lin Tianhao was surprised, but he didn't panic.

Arrows flew out one after another.

Without invincibility, the difficulty of dealing with the weasel dropped in a straight line.

Lin Tianhao continuously fired arrows with the String-Twisting Arrow Technique. At first, the weasel could still block one or two.

But Lin Tianhao's attack angles became more and more tricky, and with just a slight mistake, the weasel was repeatedly knocked back by the huge impact force carried by the String-Twisting Arrow Technique.

"Now's the time."

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes. He fired another arrow, hitting the weasel's left leg. The weasel lost its balance and fell forward.

Then, Lin Tianhao's second arrow hit the weasel's forehead. The combined force caused the weasel to briefly float in the air.

"That's the effect I wanted."

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes. Now that the weasel was floating in the air, the next things would be much easier.

No invincibility.

The weasel simply couldn't come down under Lin Tianhao's floating techniques.

Not far away.

A player was walking towards this place.

He was currently live-streaming, saying with a smile, "Brothers, you should all be farming the Twisted Jungle, and you don't know that there's a bard here, right?"

"I guess this bard must have some amazing quest in his hands. As long as I can complete this quest, maybe I can be as powerful as the Snow Emperor."

As he spoke, Brother Hu, Jiangcheng Branch, walked towards Lin Tianhao.

However, he was stunned as soon as he arrived here.

"Holy crap, holy crap, holy crap, holy crap."

Because the live-stream screen was facing him, the live-stream viewers were a little confused by Brother Hu, Jiangcheng Branch's appearance.

"What did the streamer see? Could it be that players are having a real-life battle in the wild?"

"Hehe, the boss of a certain club here said that he wants to transfer his business to the game, but it seems that he needs to have his own shops or territory to do that kind of thing, otherwise he will be punished."

"Streamer, let us see quickly, is it a beast? Who is so beastly."

Brother Hu, Jiangcheng Branch, swallowed a few mouthfuls of saliva before aiming the live-stream camera at Lin Tianhao.

Then, the live-stream fell into a brief silence.

After a moment...

Holy crap, holy crap, holy crap...

Brother Hu, Jiangcheng Branch's live-stream was instantly filled with "holy crap".

"What did I see? That's a boss, right? It was actually beaten by that archer and can't come down in mid-air."

"I remember that archers have hit detection. I play archer, and sometimes my arrows go off course and don't hit the monsters. He's..."

"Mom asked me why I was watching the live-stream on my knees. She came to see it and knelt with me."

.....

The live-stream instantly boiled over. No way, they all saw Lin Tianhao's scene of making the weasel float infinitely through the String-Twisting Arrow Technique.

Just as Brother Hu, Jiangcheng Branch, was live-streaming with excitement, in the next instant, the screen turned black, and he died on the spot!

And behind him, an assassin appeared!
