

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#19 - Chapter 19 Blacksmith Wang's Mission!

However.

Either of these two, when singled out, is quite outrageous.

Moreover, with Lin Tianhao's understanding of the game.

It's very likely there's a third quest scroll.

And the requirement for the third quest scroll is likely to be killing the Drought Demon!

If that's the case, then he can carry out three tasks simultaneously.

First, destroy the novice village, then release the Drought Demon, and then kill the Drought Demon.

Of course, this third task is just Lin Tianhao's own speculation.

Currently, Lin Tianhao can't complete any of the tasks.

Therefore, he doesn't plan to accept them for now.

He'll wait until he completes the old village chief's advancement task.

He has already hunted three of the novice village's ten bosses: the Hydra-cypress, the Twisted Treant King, and the Yellow-skinned Weasel.

So next.....

He'll go hunt some other bosses.

Monsters from level three to ten all have bosses. If Lin Tianhao hunts like this, he can hunt six more.

However, still aiming to hunt higher-level bosses whenever possible, Lin Tianhao doesn't plan to farm those small bosses.

He wants to farm some other hidden bosses in the novice village, but with his current stats, it's still a drop in the bucket.

Therefore, he needs to first raise his level to ten.

And also upgrade his talent, Hand of Heavenly Punishment, to three stars.

Currently, he's not far from level ten in terms of experience points, but there's still a considerable distance to reach three stars for Hand of Heavenly Punishment.

One hundred thousand normal attacks, that still requires a very long time of normal attacking.

Still at the respawn point for level ten Twisted Treants.

There aren't many players here. Level nine players don't level up here, and most players who reach level ten have gone to try farming dungeons.

“Whoosh!”

A feather arrow cuts through the air, critical hit damage.

-2288.

A huge damage number appears. This ordinary Twisted Treant couldn't withstand even one of Lin Tianhao's normal attacks and fell at Lin Tianhao's hands.

Lightning Jump is triggered.

More than a dozen Twisted Treants are pulled over.

The result is without any suspense. One arrow per Twisted Treant, and the attracted Twisted Treants are quickly dealt with.

This high-frequency monster farming speed might be good for ordinary people.

But for Lin Tianhao, it's a bit lacking.

The reason is simple.

He needs to stack his maximum health through normal attacks.

This arrow kills them instantly, and he has no way to do a few more normal attacks.

After farming Twisted Treants here for more than ten minutes, Lin Tianhao's health hasn't increased much.

But his experience points have met the conditions for leveling up.

“Ding, you have leveled up to level 10, free attribute points +5.”

“Ding, you have met the level requirement to leave the novice village. You can leave the novice village after accepting the departure quest from the old village chief.”

Lin Tianhao ignored this departure quest.

He added all five free attribute points to movement speed this time.

With enough movement speed, it's easier for him to kite monsters.

If he has to do the task of hunting novice village NPCs later, movement speed is still very necessary.

With the addition of five free attribute points, Lin Tianhao's movement speed increased by 0.5, a bit of a drop in the bucket.

Next, he has to consider hunting the fourth boss.

Moreover, Lin Tianhao already has his own ideas.

The hidden bosses in the novice village are not limited to just the wandering poet.

Secretly wooing players in the novice village, Lin Tianhao had Zhou Xiaopang do the blacksmith shop's tasks, one of which was to accept the blacksmith shop's wooing.

The last step of the blacksmith shop's quest is to help Wang the blacksmith defeat the old village chief.

Supporting the birth of a new village chief in the novice village, the reward for this task will be very generous.

It was because of this task that Lin Tianhao saw the feasibility of completing the task of destroying the novice village.

Whether it's helping the old village chief wipe out Wang the blacksmith's faction, or helping Wang the blacksmith wipe out the old village chief's faction.

The novice village will undergo a major reshuffle, reducing many NPCs.

Especially if they fight to the point of mutual destruction, that would be even more interesting.

He can completely reap the benefits.

However, he has accepted the old village chief's follow-up quest to hunt 10 bosses.

In order for this task to be completed, it seems that only Wang the blacksmith can die.

However, before that, he needs to freeload from Wang the blacksmith first.

Returning to the novice village, Lin Tianhao first went to the tavern, bought two bottles of the most expensive spirits, and then came to the blacksmith shop.

Wang the blacksmith saw the spirits in Lin Tianhao's hand and asked with a smile:
"Adventurer, what do you want to do?"

Lin Tianhao placed the two bottles of spirits in front of Wang the blacksmith.

"I heard that Wang the blacksmith is the strongest blacksmith in the world, and I want to ask Wang the blacksmith to forge the strongest weapon in the world for me."

Wang the blacksmith was immediately a little flattered by Lin Tianhao's praise.

"Hehe, keep it low-key, keep it low-key, it's enough to know it, no need to say it out loud."

Saying that, Wang the blacksmith quietly put away the two bottles of spirits.

"This forging of weapons definitely requires money. For the strongest weapon, it depends on whether you give enough gold coins."

Lin Tianhao took out all the gold coins on his body and threw them in front of Wang the blacksmith.

"Is it enough?"

Wang the blacksmith's eyes went straight. This is the novice village. He has been a blacksmith for so many years, and this is the first time he has seen so many gold coins.

"Enough, enough."

"It's just that having gold coins is not enough. I also need ten bronze-grade equipment, fifty black iron-grade equipment, and two hundred elite-grade equipment as raw materials."

"Ding, Wang the blacksmith has issued a quest to you."

"Quest requirements: Ten bronze-grade equipment, fifty black iron-grade equipment, two hundred elite-grade equipment."

"Quest penalty: The gold coins and spirits you paid will not be refunded."

"Quest reward: You will receive a golden longbow with no equip requirement."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. He originally thought it would only be silver-grade, but he didn't expect it to be gold-grade. This is awesome.

“Okay, I will definitely collect these things as soon as possible.”

If it were other players, collecting so much equipment would definitely be more difficult than ascending to heaven.

But for Lin Tianhao, he only needs to clear the hell-level difficulty of the Twisted Treant a few more times.

After accepting the quest.

Lin Tianhao went to the Twisted Jungle again.

Without the slightest hesitation, he directly chose hell-level difficulty and began his solo farming journey.

Two and a half hours later!

Lin Tianhao looked at the equipment in his backpack, and a satisfied smile appeared on his face.

Wang the blacksmith's quest, completed!

Golden weapon!

And it is said that this weapon is also a customized grade.

With this customized weapon with no equip requirement, coupled with his Hand of Heavenly Punishment talent, his next growth rate can definitely be described as terrifying!

“Wang the blacksmith, I have already collected everything you need.”

Lin Tianhao came to the blacksmith shop again.
