

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#20 - Chapter 20 Opposing Mission!

The blacksmith Wang was very surprised.

He glanced at Lin Tianhao meaningfully, a thoughtful expression on his face.

"Alright, give me the materials, and you can come back for your weapon in ten hours."

Lin Tianhao handed over all the equipment required by the task to the blacksmith Wang.

"Ding, you have completed the task of the blacksmith Wang, experience points + 9085. Since you have not left the novice village yet, you cannot gain experience points, and the experience points are voided."

Lin Tianhao didn't feel anything about it, he already knew this in his previous life.

"Adventurer, I see that you have extraordinary talent. If you can find three more items, I might be able to help you upgrade your gold-grade weapon to platinum-grade."

Lin Tianhao was very surprised. Gold-grade weapons were already far superior to what players at this stage had, let alone platinum-grade.

However, he could roughly guess what the next task would be.

"I wonder what those items are?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"My apprentice, Elfuth, stole a valuable ore. I have already sent two other apprentices to chase after him. If you can assist my two apprentices in retrieving it, I am willing to use that ore to forge your weapon."

"Ding, the blacksmith Wang has issued you a task: Retrieve the stolen Iceflame Magic Ore."

"Task requirements: Retrieve the Iceflame Magic Ore, or deal at least 20% of Elfuth's health in the battle to assist in the siege of Elfuth."

"Task penalty: None."

"Task reward: Unknown."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. Sure enough, the conflict task between the blacksmith Wang and the old village chief had begun.

This so-called apprentice rebellion was actually someone arranged by the old village chief to be by the blacksmith Wang's side. After being discovered by the blacksmith Wang, he stole the ore and fled.

On the surface, the blacksmith Wang and the old village chief had not yet fallen out, so Elfuth could only flee into the wild.

If other players were lucky, they might receive a task from the old village chief to protect Elfuth.

"Okay, blacksmith Wang, I will try my best. I wonder where Elfuth is?"

"My two apprentices chased him into the mine to the east. That rat Elfuth must be hiding in some corner of the mine."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. The mine to the east.

That seemed to be the territory of the level 8 monster, Stone Beetle.

In his previous life, Lin Tianhao had never heard of any strategy for this Stone Beetle mine.

Maybe there was one, but it just hadn't been revealed.

Twilight of the Gods had many settings such as hidden maps, hidden bosses, secret realms, and cave dwellings.

Although Lin Tianhao knew some of them, it was only a very small part.

After all, most people kept their opportunities secret, and not many people were willing to publicize their strategies.

The strategies that Lin Tianhao knew were mostly released by guilds or government consortiums after they had squeezed out all the profits.

Otherwise, it would be like the Yellow Weasel and the Twisted Treant, which would trigger a server-wide announcement once activated, and then people would find out the opening strategy.

"Okay, I will go to the mine to find Elfuth now."

Lin Tianhao left the novice village and headed to the mine.

At this moment.

A server-wide announcement rang out.

"Server-wide announcement: Congratulations to player Dream Chaser Yanxue for completing the first kill of the Water Turtle King. Special announcement, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement: Congratulations to player Dream Chaser Yanxue for completing the first kill of the Water Turtle King. Special announcement, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

The server-wide announcement of Dream Chaser Yanxue's first kill had just ended when another server-wide announcement appeared.

"Server-wide announcement: Congratulations to player Berserker Blades for being the first to obtain a hidden class. Special announcement, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement: Congratulations to player Berserker Blades for being the first to obtain a hidden class. Special announcement, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

Lin Tianhao sighed. It seemed that some things from his previous life had not changed.

Berserker Blades still got the hidden class so quickly.

What a pity.

Skills: Armor Break, Stone Shield.

Very simple two skills, but these two skills made many ordinary players complain.

Armor Break could reduce the durability of weapons. In the early stage when weapons were extremely scarce, this skill of the Stone Beetle was very headache.

Whoosh!

- 1200!

Lin Tianhao shot an arrow, and a Stone Beetle was instantly killed by Lin Tianhao.

After he finished farming the Twisted Jungle to collect equipment, his own health had already exceeded 50,000.

In addition to the blessing of more than 10,000 health brought by the Black Iron Treant set, he now had a total health of more than 60,000.

Even without calculating the attack power of the Thunderclap Bow, the true damage brought by health alone was enough to kill the Stone Beetle.

Dozens of Stone Beetles were all solved by Lin Tianhao in less than twenty seconds.

New Stone Beetles spawned, but Lin Tianhao completely ignored them and directly entered the mine.

According to Lin Tianhao's calculations, there should be three NPCs in this mine, or even more.

"Is it you?"

Just as he came in, a surprised voice sounded.

Lin Tianhao also looked at the speaker in surprise.

That assassin player, Shadow Kill!

"What? Here to grind monsters?"

Because of the repeated level drops, Shadow Kill was now only level five.

With his attributes and combat skills, it was easy to fight level 8 Stone Beetles beyond his level.

"No, I accepted a task."

"From the old village chief?"

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed, "Did the old village chief send you here to meet Elfuth?"

Shadow Kill was a little surprised, "You also accepted this task?"

"No, the task I accepted is the opposite of yours, but what is your task?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"My task is to get the Iceflame Magic Ore from Elfuth and send it back. If possible, I have to assist Elfuth in killing the two NPCs who are chasing him."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, a smile on his face.

"My task is to assist those two NPCs in killing Elfuth and retrieve the Iceflame Magic Ore."

Hearing this, Shadow Kill was a little surprised, "Opposing tasks?"

In previous games, there were actually very few tasks where players were opposed to each other.

"It's an opposing task, but we should still have a win-win method." Lin Tianhao already had an idea in his mind.

"What win-win method?"

"Kill all three NPCs." Lin Tianhao smiled.

Hearing this, Shadow Kill was taken aback.

"Wouldn't that be too risky?"

"As long as the operation is proper, it is entirely possible to do it, and we are not two against three, we will help Elfuth kill the two NPCs first, and then turn around and kill Elfuth."
