#22 - Chapter 22 Wang San and Wang Si!

The damage from Thorns Aura continued to whittle down Lin Tianhao's health.

The reason was simple: his health was dropping rapidly.

Each arrow, even if it wasn't a critical hit, caused Lin Tianhao to lose around six hundred health points.

However, Lin Tianhao was no longer the main damage dealer; his primary role was crowd control.

Archers can be main DPS, but sometimes when the situation gets out of control, they need to focus on crowd control.

Like now.

Lin Tianhao used his Stringing Arrow Technique to constantly interrupt Wang San and Wang Si's attack rhythm, disrupting their skill casting.

He was single-handedly holding back two people.

This created an excellent damage-dealing environment for Elfus.

Seeing Lin Tianhao controlling two enemies at once, Shadow Kill felt a bit numb.

If he initially thought Lin Tianhao could kill him because of his stats, and that he could compete with Lin Tianhao by relying on his top-notch combat skills, recent events had made Shadow Kill deeply realize one thing.

Lin Tianhao's combat skills were above his own.

In Shadow Kill's mind, he had some guesses about Lin Tianhao's identity.

Looking at the Dragon Kingdom, there was only one group that could be stronger than them in combat skills!

Ancient Martial Artists!

These people were similar to the martial arts masters of the past, and he even knew that some of them had cultivated inner strength, which was very terrifying.

Their combat skills were also extremely powerful. In their war division, there were several instructors who were Ancient Martial Artists.

They were existences that could completely suppress and beat down a special operations team with their own strength.

Now, in Shadow Kill's mind, Lin Tianhao was such a powerful and unparalleled Ancient Martial Artist.

The battle continued.

Restricted by Lin Tianhao's superb crowd control, Wang San and Wang Si's health was rapidly decreasing.

Not only that, Lin Tianhao was also deliberately maintaining his health, keeping his health in a relatively safe state.

Because in Lin Tianhao's calculations, after killing Wang San and Wang Si, he still had to kill Elfus.

Finally.

Then, the law of the previous life was likely true.

That is, level ten monsters and NPCs in the novice village do not have the skills of Super Armor and Berserk.

However, at this time, Elfus's health bar had only dropped by thirty percent, which made Lin Tianhao quite dissatisfied.

He began to pull towards the back of Elfus, for no other reason than Wang San and Wang Si's death throes would definitely target him.

Sure enough.

After their health dropped to five percent, Wang San and Wang Si began to frantically charge towards Lin Tianhao.

They charged up with a determination to kill Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao did a donkey roll and hid behind Elfus.

Elfus didn't think much about it, only assuming that Lin Tianhao was trying to protect himself.

Facing the low-health Wang San and Wang Si, Elfus was not afraid, and the three fought together again.

Lin Tianhao canceled his team with Shadow Kill because he was afraid that the team would cause Wang Blacksmith or the old village chief to discover something.

It's better to be more cautious about this kind of thing.

Just as Wang San was about to be killed, Lin Tianhao interrupted Elfus's attack with an arrow.

"Sorry, misfired."

Lin Tianhao explained, and then the second arrow was already shot.

Stringing Arrow Technique!

Critical hit!

-2518!

"Ding, you have killed the novice village boss Wang San, a server-wide announcement is about to be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"Hide."

Lin Tianhao didn't want Wang Blacksmith to know that he killed his disciple, otherwise the gold coins he had paid before would be wasted.

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Hidden Nickname for completing the first kill of Wang San, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Hidden Nickname for completing the first kill of Wang San, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

.....

As soon as this server-wide announcement came out, many people were dumbfounded.

What's the situation?

Wang San?

This looks like a lackey's name.

Before they could finish their shock, another system prompt sounded.

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Hidden Nickname for completing the first kill of Wang Si, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Hidden Nickname for completing the first kill of Wang Si, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Wang San? Wang Si? Damn, aren't these names of two lackeys? They would actually be judged as bosses and make a server-wide announcement?"

"Wait, I seem to know who these Wang San and Wang Si are, the two disciples of the novice village Wang Blacksmith."

"Damn, it seems to be true. Wang Si helped me repair the abrasion resistance of my weapon when I was fighting stone beetles."

.....

Wang San and Wang Si were not unknown people in the novice village.

Many players would go to the blacksmith shop to repair their weapon's abrasion resistance when it decreased.

Wang San and Wang Si were mainly responsible for repairing weapon abrasion resistance.

"Really fucked the dog, Wang San and Wang Si are bosses?"

Novice Village, Blacksmith Shop!

Wang Blacksmith looked gloomy.

He naturally heard the server-wide announcement.

"Who is it?"

"Could it be that the old village chief sent experts over to kill Wang San and Wang Si?"

The reason why Lin Tianhao wanted to cancel the team was because of the server-wide announcement.

If he was in a team, it would be easy to reveal his secrets.

"Shadow Kill!"

Lin Tianhao called out to Shadow Kill.

Before, Lin Tianhao deliberately shot Elfus with an arrow to find out if Elfus also had Thorns Aura.

The answer was no!

"Swish!"

Shadow Kill was already prepared, and he used Throat Cut!

-195.

Bleeding...

-26.

-26.

Elfus's face changed, "What are you doing?"

"Whoosh!"

Responding to Elfus was a sharp arrow.

Critical hit!

-2526.

A huge damage number appeared.

Lin Tianhao's attacks followed closely.

Elfus was shocked and angry. He never thought that the adventurer who had just helped him fight would attack him without saying a word.

"Ding, you have received Elfus's curse, damage taken +10%."

Lin Tianhao's expression remained unchanged, and his feather arrows continued to be fired, accurately interrupting Elfus's attacks.

When fighting Wang San and Wang Si, Lin Tianhao had already understood Elfus's combat rhythm.

Now.

Elfus's attack rhythm was forcibly interrupted by Lin Tianhao.

An attack frequency of three arrows per second left Elfus with no power to fight back.

No Thorns Aura.

No Super Armor and Berserk.

Elfus was a living target in front of Lin Tianhao.

"Whoosh!"

Lin Tianhao shot another arrow.

This arrow finally knocked Elfus into the air.

Then, the next step is endless airborne.

Seeing Lin Tianhao use this superb airborne technique again.

Shadow Kill was dumbfounded.

Lin Tianhao's combat skills were really perverted.

"Shadow Kill, you come to finish him off, remember to hide your nickname."

Lin Tianhao said.

He definitely couldn't kill Elfus, otherwise, when submitting the task of killing ten novice village bosses, the village chief might discover something.

"Okay."
