#24 - Chapter 24 Ambitious Taoist Priest, Immaculate Eyes!

Lin Tianhao was emotionally agitated.

Having been reborn, he dreamed of changing everything.

But now, he couldn't even save his own sister.

The doctor shook his head, "We've tried our best. Although a large amount of blood clots have been removed, the clots that entered the cerebellum have already eroded it. The best outcome would be a vegetative state, and she could die at any time."

Lin Tianhao felt a chill in his heart, "Can I see my sister?"

"Go in, but remember to control your emotions," the doctor sighed.

Lin Tianhao entered the operating room.

There were still a few medical staff doing post-operative work inside.

Looking at his sister on the hospital bed, Lin Tianhao's fingers were trembling slightly.

"In the end, can't I change anything?"

Lin Tianhao gritted his teeth.

He was not willing to accept this outcome.

"My condolences."

A medical staff member shook his head at Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao endured his grief and walked to the hospital bed. He had experienced countless life-and-death situations in his previous life.

His mind had long been hardened.

But today.

Seeing his sister about to leave him again, this feeling of despair and powerlessness made him unable to restrain the grief in his heart, and tears welled up in his eyes.

"Why!!"

"Why on earth!!"

"You old thief of the heavens, why do you treat me like this!!"

Lin Tianhao clenched his fists. He hated his own powerlessness.

"She might still be saved."

Just then, a childish voice sounded.

Immediately afterward, a young Taoist priest, who looked only seventeen or eighteen years old, appeared at the entrance of the operating room.

Lin Tianhao was a little excited, and he turned to look over.

"Save her, please save my sister."

Lin Tianhao turned around excitedly, as if he had grabbed the last straw.

"I don't have complete confidence either," the young Taoist said.

"Then what about your master? Does he have a way?"

Lin Tianhao was emotionally agitated. Seeing that the young Taoist was so young, he guessed that there must be a Taoist master behind him.

"My master is dead."

The young Taoist shook his head.

Lin Tianhao gritted his teeth, "Okay, please save my sister. If you can save her, I will definitely repay your great kindness."

The young Taoist smiled, "Meeting is fate, I'll give it a try."

The young Taoist walked to the hospital bed.

What the young Taoist was showing now was very similar to the legendary Inner Strength experts.

The young Taoist raised his hand, and his palm with the silvery-white glow gently stroked Lin Qingqing's forehead.

The glow gradually penetrated into Lin Qingqing's head, and Lin Qingqing's complexion began to gradually improve at this time.

Lin Tianhao was pleasantly surprised. After a while, the young Taoist withdrew his hand.

He wiped the sweat from his forehead, "Your sister's life will not be in danger, but she will still end up in a vegetative state."

Having said that, the young Taoist sighed, "In the end, this poor Taoist's cultivation is not enough."

"What is the Taoist priest's name?" Lin Tianhao was very grateful.

Even if she was only in a vegetative state, it was much better than before.

"This poor Taoist is Zhang Ye, and my Taoist name is Yexin."

Lin Tianhao twitched his lips, "Taoist Zhang, thank you for saving my sister. There is still 100,000 yuan in this card, I will give it all to you."

Zhang Ye shook his head, "That's too much. Give me 10,000 yuan, and I can buy a game pod."

"Game pod? Taoist Zhang also wants to play Twilight of the Gods?"

Zhang Ye nodded, "Yes, this poor Taoist observed the celestial phenomena at night and found that Twilight of the Gods contains opportunities, which may help me break through the shackles and reach that legendary realm."

Lin Tianhao was surprised. Zhang Ye could even figure this out, so it was worth making friends with him.

However, his current situation in the game cannot be known to too many people in reality, otherwise, it will easily lead to problems.

In his previous life, there were cases of high-level players being kidnapped or even killed offline.

Now that the game attributes have not yet materialized, he still needs to be careful.

"You have done me such a great favor by saving my sister. Even 100,000 yuan is too little. Taoist Zhang should keep more money with you, so it will be more convenient in the future."

Lin Tianhao put the bank card in Taoist Zhang's hand, "The password is 157988."

Zhang Ye smiled cheerfully, "Okay, then thank you very much."

After exchanging a few words with Zhang Ye, he left.

Now that his sister was no longer in serious danger, she still needed to recuperate in the hospital for a few days to recover as soon as possible.

After arranging his sister's affairs properly, Lin Tianhao returned to his rented house and entered the game again.

This time, he was delayed for more than three hours, and the game progress was slowed down.

But Lin Tianhao didn't think there was anything wrong with it.

Next, the confrontation between Wang the Blacksmith and the old village chief was about to become sharper.

The NPCs in Novice Village are different from monsters. They will not respawn after death.

Lin Tianhao looked at the fact that he had already hunted five bosses. What was he going to do with the old village chief's subsequent quest?

If he continued to hunt NPCs, he could do it with his strength.

But Lin Tianhao didn't intend to do that, because it was really easy to play with fire and burn himself, attracting the attention of the old village chief and preventing him from completing the subsequent quests normally.

But currently, he was reluctant to give up the old village chief's quest.

After thinking about it, Lin Tianhao finally chose to start hunting bosses from the level 5 monster area.

From level 5 to level 9, there are five bosses. Submitting the quest after hunting these five bosses may reduce the quest reward, but this is also the safest approach.

No sooner said than done.

Lin Tianhao started farming from the level 5 monster area.

All the way to level 9, he hunted five Novice Village bosses.

Including the Novice Village bosses he had hunted before, Lin Tianhao had hunted ten Novice Village bosses, and he could go to the old village chief to submit the quest.

Novice Village, the village chief's small courtyard.

When Lin Tianhao arrived here, many players were submitting their village exit quests.

At the current time node, ordinary players have already reached level 10 one after another. If it weren't for the fact that some people were still farming the Twisted Jungle, there would be even more people gathered here.

After they left.

Lin Tianhao came to the old village chief.

"Old village chief, I have already hunted ten bosses."

Lin Tianhao submitted the quest.

The old village chief nodded in surprise, "Not bad, Xue Di, I was right about you."

"Ding, you have completed the old village chief's quest."

"Quest reward: Gold coins +20, Free attribute points +20, Luck +1, Immaculate Eye +1."

Immaculate Eye: Special equipment.

Equipment requirements: None.

Effect: Able to pierce through the night, illusions, and have a large field of vision in the mist.

Durability: 100.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. This piece of equipment did not indicate a level and belonged to special equipment.

With this effect, it is definitely an essential skill for archers.

Currently, the game night actually still has a certain degree of visibility.

But after the Great Cataclysm comes, the degree of visibility will be greatly reduced, and that will be the real night.

Some powerful adventurers themselves were killed by monsters from the Alete star system in the night because they did not have enough night vision ability.
