Chapter 261 - Battle of Two Gods: Thunder Dragon Devours Soul!

The morbid youth looked slightly surprised at this scene.

“It’s a bit beyond my expectations. It seems there are still experts in this chaotic place.”

Cosmo Abyss chuckled, “It’s me, stop with the nonsense.”

Lin Tianhao was stunned because Cosmo Abyss's voice had also turned into a woman's voice.

He now had three big question marks on his forehead.

Is the revival of the ancient Eastern kingdom so significant? Two gods are simultaneously breaking the rules.

Although it's just appearing here in the form of a wisp of remnant soul.

It still violates the rules of the Twilight of the Gods at this stage.

Otherwise, if the gods all played like this, it would soon evolve into a war of gods, possibly destroying the Twilight of the Gods.

“Mazu?”

The morbid youth frowned, looking at Cosmo Abyss in astonishment.

Two female gods possessing two male divine envoys, it looked somewhat comical.

However.

No matter how comical, Lin Tianhao couldn't laugh right now.

Although these two gods were not complete, their strength would definitely not be weak.

He had the trump card of the God of the Undead, but the God of the Undead consumed the Heart of Origin to remove the curse for him, and was now in an extremely weak state.

It was really hard to say who was stronger or weaker among the three.

“Dark Night Spirit God, retreat, neither of us has really made a move yet, the punishment for retreating now won't be too great.”

Mazu Niangniang advised, obviously, she was not very willing to fight.

The Great Era of Contention was approaching, and as gods, they all had the possibility of taking a step further.

If they were to fall asleep for tens of thousands of years because of taking action now, missing the Great Era of Contention, then they would really have no place to cry.

The Dark Night Spirit God shook her head, “I don't want to take action, but I have to, we all don't allow the revival of the ancient Eastern kingdom.”

“Moreover.”

“I have already made the worst plan for coming here this time.”

With that said.

The aura on the Dark Night Spirit God's body suddenly soared, and Lin Tianhao only felt a sinking feeling in his body, almost being crushed to his knees by this force.

“If you are a son of the East, straighten your back.”

Mazu Niangniang's voice came.

Lin Tianhao forcibly dragged his suppressed body to the side.

The battle of the two gods, this was no longer something a small character like him could participate in.

“Dark Night Domain!”

The Dark Night Spirit God snorted lightly, and the sky, which was originally clear and cloudless, suddenly darkened.

In the second-tier area, there was no such thing as night, and players could grind monsters non-stop for twenty-four hours.

But at this time, the sky was as dark as ink, and it was impossible to see your fingers in front of you, and a sense of oppression and panic began to spread to Lin Tianhao's heart.

This emotion was involuntary, a manifestation of the absolute suppression of mortals by gods.

The Godslayer mark was slightly hot, dispelling the oppression and panic in Lin Tianhao's heart.

“Alas, why does it have to be this way.”

Mazu Niangniang sighed faintly, “Sea God Domain!!”

The horizon.

Deep blue seawater came overwhelmingly, setting off thousands of miles of waves.

In the beginning, the God of the Undead used the Heart of Origin to curse him, and later, after being restored to his peak by the Fengshen List, he used the Heart of Origin to help him recover.

What is this called? This is called reaping what you sow!

“Speaking of which, sir, is there a possibility that you kill me again and let me be on the Fengshen List again, so that I can return to my peak state again.”

Lin Tianhao: ???

“If it could be like this, you would have been killed by me long ago.”

If you are killed after being on the Fengshen List, then you are really dead.

Moreover, the consumed quota on the Fengshen List will not be restored.

At this time.

Above the sky.

Half is dark as ink, and half is deep blue seawater.

If these two major domains collide together, the consequences would be disastrous.

“Die!”

The Dark Night Spirit God waved her hand, and endless darkness invaded towards Lin Tianhao.

To be precise.

Her goal was to kill Bitbaku.

“Wanting to kill someone in front of me, are you looking down on me too much.”

The seawater surged, forming a seawater罩zi, protecting Lin Tianhao and Bitbaku in the center.

Lin Tianhao took out the Kunlun Mirror, and while these two guys were fighting, he had to send Bitbaku away first.

“No, sir.”

The God of the Undead immediately dissuaded.

“Your Kunlun Mirror is just a god-given equipment, not a divine artifact, forcibly traversing this space blocked by the gods will definitely be damaged.”

Lin Tianhao frowned, “Is there a possibility that you use divine power to protect the Kunlun Mirror?”

“In my current situation, I can only reduce the damage to the Kunlun Mirror, and cannot prevent the Kunlun Mirror from being damaged.”

Lin Tianhao pondered for a while.

If he withdraws now, the Kunlun Mirror may be damaged.

If he doesn't withdraw.

He has to wait for Mazu Niangniang and the Dark Night Spirit God to decide the winner.

“Sir, you don’t need to worry, in terms of divine position, Mazu Niangniang is far superior to this Dark Night Spirit God, this Dark Night Spirit God is not the real Dark Night Goddess, but her daughter, and her divine position is not high.”

“What’s more, if they continue to fight like this, the rules of the Twilight of the Gods will not allow it, and they will all leave soon.”

Lin Tianhao was in the light罩.

Several times he felt an extremely terrifying force rushing towards the light罩, but unfortunately it was blocked.

“Rumble!!”

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao heard thunder outside.

Chaotic Land.

Opposite Zelian Island.

Zhumeng Yanxue finally got rid of the torment of the Book of Life and Death, and was preparing to ride her giant-winged purple bird to leave first.

Then.

She saw a scene that she would never forget.

On Zelian Island.

Half darkness, half seawater, terrifying and frightening to the extreme.

Just a glance from a distance made her shudder.

“What kind of existence took action? It can be so terrifying.”

Zhumeng Yanxue muttered to herself.

Suddenly.

She saw a purple thundercloud breaking through the darkness and seawater above the sky.

There were thunder dragons rolling in the thundercloud.

Suddenly.

Two thunder dragons roared and descended from the sky, illuminating the night and separating the seawater.

As for who the thunder dragon hit, she couldn't see clearly because the distance was too far.

However.

Lin Tianhao knew who the two thunder dragons hit.

Because when the thunder dragons fell.

Mazu Niangniang and the Dark Night Spirit God mobilized all their strength to resist.

The seawater罩zi around Lin Tianhao's body also disappeared, allowing Lin Tianhao to see the scene of the thunder dragon devouring the soul.

The two thunder dragons snatched out the remnant souls of Mazu Niangniang and the Dark Night Spirit God, and directly swallowed them in two bites.

The two people possessed by the remnant souls of the two gods trembled violently, and at the same time spat out a mouthful of blood, and their eyes gradually recovered clarity.

“It’s finally over, it’s a thousand times more painful than coming here!!” The morbid youth complained.

Chapter 262 - Hundreds of gods fight each other, Hongjun blesses!

Lin Tianhao's figure transformed into a blur, arriving before the sickly youth in the blink of an eye.

This wasn't teleportation.

It was purely due to the blessing of the God of Death domain from the God of the Undead, coupled with Lin Tianhao's own movement speed.

“Friend, do you have a Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll?”

The sickly youth grinned, “I do, but I don't want to give it to you.”

As soon as he spoke.

The sickly youth immediately crushed a pitch-black bead, and his entire body was instantly enveloped in darkness. The next moment, he disappeared without a trace.

Lin Tianhao was a little regretful, and his gaze fell on Kos Moya, "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine, just a little weak."

Kos Moya forced a smile, "You should go and take care of your own affairs, lest things get complicated."

"Understood."

Lin Tianhao used the Kunlun Mirror to bring Bitter Baku to the altar in Icewind City.

"Let's go."

Bitter Baku looked around warily, clearly worried that someone would suddenly jump out and try to kill him.

"Let's go, hurry up. If you dawdle any longer, something really bad might happen."

Bitter Baku nodded, and then entered the resurrection altar, choosing to go to the Vast Continent.

As the light flickered.

Bitter Baku's Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll mission was finally completed.

"Finally done!!"

Lin Tianhao stretched lazily, feeling refreshed, even the air he breathed seemed fragrant.

Of course.

Lin Tianhao wasn't in a hurry to use this Gods' Blessing.

He took a step and used the Kunlun Mirror to return to the Bitter family once more.

Zelian Baku was still here.

Lin Tianhao directly took out the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll that Zelian Baku had issued.

“Now, it's your turn.”

Lin Tianhao wanted to ensure that everything was foolproof.

Moreover, Lin Tianhao never refused good things like the Gods' Blessing.

Lin Tianhao's face darkened slightly, “I gave you a chance, yet you dare to insult me? Do you really think I wouldn't dare to kill you?”

“Kill me then. If I, Zelian Baku, even frown, I wouldn't be a man.”

Lin Tianhao picked at his ear and suddenly said, “I've actually discovered a problem. In your Land of Chaos, apart from Blood Crow City, it seems that there are no brothels anywhere else.”

“Brothels?”

Zelian Baku was stunned, “I don't know what you're talking about.”

“Moreover, there are even fewer women in your Land of Chaos.”

Lin Tianhao initially noticed that there were few priests in the Land of Chaos.

Only then did he discover.

Not only were there few priests in the Land of Chaos, but there were also few women.

Thinking about the situation in the Land of Chaos, he roughly understood.

In such a chaotic place, the fate of ordinary women was predictable.

Those women either died or left, so naturally, few remained.

As for Blood Crow City, it was probably because of Abel, the noble from the Star Kingdom.

Moreover, it seemed that it had only been opened recently because Abel was raising funds after the Star Kingdom was destroyed.

“What are you saying all this for?”

Zelian Baku asked in a deep voice, “Even if the Land of Chaos is lacking women, I won't be.”

Lin Tianhao chuckled, “I won't argue with you about that. Wait a moment, I'm going to try it out.”

Saying that.

Lin Tianhao took out the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll that Bitter Baku had given him.

“Use the Gods' Blessing.”

“Ding, the Gods are bestowing blessings upon you...”

Lin Tianhao's breathing quickened.

He was only one Eastern God's blessing away.

千萬千萬 do not have problems.

No Western Gods, no repeated Eastern Gods, it must be a new Eastern God!!

However.

The more nervous Lin Tianhao became, the more the Gods' Blessing stalled, and there were no subsequent prompts.

“What's going on? Before, it would directly prompt that a certain God is bestowing blessings upon me, but why is it suddenly gone now?”

Lin Tianhao panicked a little. This was a critical moment, how could the Gods' Blessing stall like this?

“Master, I sense some very ancient power.”

The voice of the God of the Undead echoed in Lin Tianhao's mind.

Before Lin Tianhao could respond, a muffled sound suddenly came from the sky.

A dark red beam of light gathered in the sky, and it looked like it was about to fall towards Lin Tianhao.

But in the next moment.

A deep blue beam of light appeared, blocking the fall of the dark red beam of light.

The two beams of light were constantly clashing in the sky, seemingly vying for who would bestow the blessing upon Lin Tianhao.

At this moment.

New beams of light appeared one after another.

Four beams, five beams, six beams...

More and more beams of light appeared, and the entire sky became colorful.

These beams of light were mutually restrained, seemingly vying for the qualification to fall.

The phenomenon in the sky alarmed many people, including players and native NPCs.

Zelian City.

Kos Moyo looked at the sky with a deep gaze, his expression extremely solemn.

“A hundred Gods vying, how many years has it been since such a scene appeared? In the past, it was generally only when those peerless geniuses, rare to see in ten thousand years, were born that such a scene would appear.”

Deep Sea Basin.

In the depths of the ocean, there is an island floating in the water.

Poseidon Island.

On Poseidon Island, a phantom figure looked up at the sky.

“This...”

“In the end, I still couldn't stop the Ice Emperor? If that's the case, even at the cost of consuming the power of the source, I must send out a blessing. If it can fall on the Ice Emperor, it can also delay the Ice Emperor's revival of the ancient Eastern kingdom.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

This phantom figure grabbed his left pinky finger, and with a snap, he forcibly broke it off.

“Go, in the name of Poseidon, the Sea God, bless the Ice Emperor!”

Above the sky.

Another beam of light came crashing down, this belonged to him, Poseidon, the Sea God.

But Poseidon's beam of light was only average among the many beams.

All the beams of light were constantly vying and intertwined, all wanting to fall.

Between the lines, it seemed that two factions had formed, mutually restraining and colliding.

...

Bitter Family.

Lin Tianhao looked at the colorful collisions in the sky, and for a moment, he didn't know what to say.

“There are several very ancient powers, including ancient Eastern Gods and ancient Western Gods.”

The God of the Undead's shocked voice came.

Lin Tianhao's expression was solemn, and he asked, gritting his teeth, “Are the Eastern and Western Gods fighting against each other?”

“Yes.”

The God of the Undead nodded, “They are going all out. I don't know which side will win in the end.”

“It must be our ancient Eastern Gods!” Lin Tianhao said firmly.

As soon as he finished speaking.

A golden glow descended from the sky.

“Huh... This power, it's Lord Zeus's, he actually participated in this battle.”

The golden beam representing Zeus overwhelmed the other beams and flew towards Lin Tianhao quickly.

“No.”

Lin Tianhao's heart tightened.

Although Zeus was powerful, Lin Tianhao didn't want the blessing of a Western God now.

Just as Zeus's golden beam was about to fall, a pure white beam of light fell towards Lin Tianhao at an extremely fast speed.

The golden beam still wanted to block it, but it was blown away by the white beam with just one encounter.

At the same time, a system prompt sounded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

“Ding, Ancestor Hongjun is bestowing blessings upon you...”

Chapter 263 - Jade disc of creation!

“Ding, you have obtained the Creation Jade Disc +1.”

Lin Tianhao: ? ? ?

Ancestor Hongjun has directly bestowed his strongest magic weapon upon me.

Although Lin Tianhao knew that this Creation Jade Disc must be a downgraded version.

But no matter how downgraded it is, it's still the Creation Jade Disc!!

Creation Jade Disc: Heavenly Dao Saint's Gift.

Equipping Requirement: Limited to the Snow Emperor.

Effect 1: Your speed of comprehending the Dao is a hundred times faster than before.

Effect 2: Any attack of the Dao you endure will be recorded by the Creation Jade Disc, and you can directly observe and comprehend the Dao afterward.

Durability: Indestructible.

(Note: Only Ancestor Hongjun can take it away; no one else can take it away in any form or by any means.)

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but breathe a little faster.

Is this the Creation Jade Disc?

This is too perverted!!

The power of the domain is related to the comprehension of the Dao. The power of the Dao can be integrated into any form of attack, with infinite wonderful uses and extreme power.

The two effects of this Creation Jade Disc are simply allowing him to embark on the path of the Three Thousand Great Daos.

With such a treasure, if he only comprehends less than a thousand Daos, he would be too embarrassed to tell others.

Even if he grows to the level of a Half-Saint one day, Lin Tianhao estimates that he would blush when he sees Ancestor Hongjun.

Retracting his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao walked to the front of Ze Lianbaoku.

“How have you considered it?”

Lin Tianhao asked with a smile.

“I'll consider your grandpa. If you have the ability, kill me. If you don't have the ability, don't be a nuisance.”

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes. Originally, he planned to take Ze Lianbaoku to the Yihong Building in the Hanhai Kingdom to have some fun and make him hand over the Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll.

Now it seems.

He's not worthy.

“Come on.”

Lin Tianhao took out the Netherworld Longbow. Killing living beings with the Netherworld Longbow can enhance its attributes.

At least he is a Tier 3 Gold-level boss, so he should be able to enhance the attributes of the Netherworld Longbow a bit.

“Swish swish swish!!”

Equipping Requirement: Archer.

Effect 1: After you kill an enemy with the Netherworld Longbow, the Netherworld Longbow can absorb the soul power of the killed to enhance its attributes.

Effect 2: Lifesteal +2.05%.

Effect 3: Attack Speed +3.11.

Effect 4: Movement Speed +6.22.

Effect 5: Health +19012.

Effect 6: Mana +19012.

Durability: Indestructible.

The attributes of the Netherworld Longbow have been improved a lot.

However, for Lin Tianhao at this stage, it is not very helpful.

Lin Tianhao's current attack speed is 76+, and an attack speed increase of three does not directly increase it to 79. Instead, like adding attack speed with free attribute points, the higher the attack speed, the lower the bonus.

Within an attack speed of ten, one point added by equipment is one point. Beyond ten, one point added by equipment actually increases it by 0.5 points.

Beyond twenty, it's 0.25, beyond thirty, it's 0.125, and so on.

Therefore, adding these three points of attack speed to Lin Tianhao's current attack speed is completely negligible.

The same goes for movement speed.

Lin Tianhao's current movement speed has exceeded 45, which is equivalent to 0.5 to the power of four multiplied by six. The result can be imagined.

Six points of movement speed can actually only increase Lin Tianhao's current movement speed by 0.375. As for the extra 0.22, it can really be ignored.

After solving Ze Lianbaoku, Lin Tianhao was not in a hurry to act.

He now has two choices.

The first.

Kill a god first to enrich the God Conferment List. Although the risk is a bit high, the benefits are not to be underestimated.

Not to mention that Abel's Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll is related to the Sea God Poseidon, just the thought of sending a god to the God Conferment List is so satisfying.

Not only that.

Lin Tianhao felt that it was necessary to have a good chat with the Sea God Poseidon, the Dark Night Spirit God, and the Silver-Eyed Octopus who blocked him this time.

The second.

That is to revive the Ancient Eastern Kingdom first.

Of course.

Before that, there is still a trivial matter that he needs to do.

That is... looting corpses.

Two god envoys, one god slave, and so many boss-level NPC corpses are still lying here.

Wouldn't it be a pity not to loot the corpses?

“Ding, you have obtained Skill Book +2.”

“Ding, you have obtained Equipment +2.”

“Ding, you have obtained Free Attribute Points +500.”

“Ding, you have obtained Vampire Marquis Token +1.”

“Ding, you have obtained Gold Coins +100,000.”

“Ding, you have obtained...”

.....

The first corpse Lin Tianhao looted was Mindkaito. Lin Tianhao still gained a little from Mindkaito.

As a god envoy, 500 free attribute points are not bad, although it would be a waste to use them to increase attack speed.

The reason why Lin Tianhao only had 13.5 attack speed in his previous life was largely because the more attribute points he needed, the more free attribute points he needed.

Especially attack speed and movement speed. Most archers add points to around ten, or even less than ten.

Because other attributes also need the blessing of free attribute points.

Of course.

Different people have different talents, and most of the points are added around the talent.

It's a pity that Lin Tianhao had no talent in his previous life, so he didn't have a good life. He was really just a wage slave at the bottom of society, and he could only survive with great difficulty under the Great Cataclysm.

As he continued to loot corpses, the rewards Lin Tianhao gained became more and more numerous.

In addition to the Keef family, the Blood Raven Tower, and the Red Beard family.

This time, Lin Tianhao gained more than 11,000 skill books, more than 21,000 pieces of equipment, and a number of various materials and props.

It's just a pity.

For the current Lin Tianhao, the things that can directly help can be ignored.

Take out the Book of Life and Death.

The stacking of health points cannot be stopped.

"It's you, Dark Night Spirit God..."

“God of the Undead, what is the name of this Dark Night Spirit God?”

Lin Tianhao knew the name of the Dark Night Spirit God's mother, the Dark Night Goddess.

After all, her mother Nyx is Zeus's foster mother and is highly respected by Zeus.

It's just that Lin Tianhao couldn't remember his daughter's name for a while.

“Moirai.”

“Yes, it seems to be this name.”

Lin Tianhao wrote the Dark Night Spirit God Moirai on the Book of Life and Death.

“Done!”

As for why not write Zhu Meng Yanxue?

Health points cannot be stacked during the player's resurrection period.

Not only that.

Lin Tianhao is indeed not so petty that he would give up the path he should take because of a little grudge.

Even to do things that are detrimental to himself.

He killed Ze Lianbaoku because he knew that it would be useless to take Ze Lianbaoku to Yihongyuan, and keeping him would only give him a headache.

“Revive the Ancient Eastern Kingdom first, then find Shui Ruyan to change jobs, improve strength, and then go to Sea God Island to find Sea God Poseidon to discuss how to better cooperate with feather arrows and the God-Slaying Whip, perfect!!”

After formulating the plan, Lin Tianhao waved his hand to put away the undead army, sacrificed the Kunlun Mirror, took a step, and disappeared.

Chapter 264 - The entire network is shocked: the ancient oriental country is revived!

The footprints of the Snow Corpse!

Lin Tian once again came to this place.

He once again saw that stone tablet.

The ancient kingdom of the East, rests here!

In his previous life of ten years, Lin Tian had not waited for the revival of the ancient kingdom of the East.

Now.

This ancient kingdom of the East will be revived in his hands.

Reviving a giant ancient kingdom, he wondered what rewards he would receive.

Lin Tian stepped forward, step by step.

He arrived before the overthrown Mortal Palace.

As if sensing Lin Tian's arrival.

The statue of the Lord of the Mortal Palace floated in mid-air, then slowly condensed into a general's statue wearing armor.

In the blink of an eye.

This statue actually transformed into a living person.

"Lord of the Mortal Palace?"

The armored general nodded and smiled, "Snow Emperor, I was right about you."

"You are... reviving a remnant soul?"

Lin Tian could sense that the Lord of the Mortal Palace was in a very special state right now.

"Not quite, just an image with a trace of remaining consciousness."

"An image can have consciousness, above Rank 9? Demigod?"

Lin Tian was a little surprised, the realm of the Lord of the Mortal Palace was higher than he had thought.

"It's not important anymore."

The Lord of the Mortal Palace shook his head and stepped into the Mortal Palace.

"Come in with me, this is the root of the revival of the ancient kingdom of the East."

Lin Tian followed the Lord of the Mortal Palace into the Mortal Palace, and the Lord of the Mortal Palace continued:

"Summon the God-given phantoms of your ten Eastern gods."

Lin Tian did not hesitate, because summoning the God-given phantoms would not affect him.

God-given phantoms are generally only used to bluff people.

One after another, God-given phantoms of Eastern gods appeared around Lin Tian.

Supreme Lord Lao!

Jade Emperor!

Queen Mother of the West!

Goddess Mazu!

Fire God Zhurong!

Old Man of the Moon!

God of Wealth!

Third Prince Nezha!

The God-given phantoms of the ten great Eastern gods, with Lin Tian as the center, floated in mid-air.

The phantoms were tall and majestic, looking sacred and solemn.

When the God-given phantoms of the ten great Eastern gods appeared, the world changed in an instant.

"Ding, you have fulfilled the conditions for the revival of the ancient kingdom of the East, do you want to revive the ancient kingdom of the East?"

"Yes."

"Ding, congratulations, you have revived the ancient kingdom of the East, a server-wide announcement is about to be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for successfully reviving the ancient kingdom of the East. The ancient kingdom of the East will replace the four regions of the 瀚海 Kingdom, the Land of Chaos, the Endless Sea, and the Netherworld, and spread to the Vast Continent and the 通幽 Ancient Ruins. Special announcement, please be prepared!"

.....

The server-wide announcement rang out three times in a row, and the entire network boiled over.

"This... this this this, those who said that the Twilight of the Gods was made by the US, stand up. Who said that the Twilight of the Gods are all foreigners? Now, our ancient kingdom of the East is also about to revive."

"So we didn't enter a foreign server, it's just that our own server's country was dormant, and now it has been revived by the Snow Emperor."

"Snow Emperor is awesome (voice cracking)!!!"

.....

Forums, streets, everywhere was boiling.

However.

This server-wide announcement was just the beginning, and new server-wide announcements began to come.

"Server-wide announcement, due to the revival of the ancient kingdom of the East, all Dragon Country region players will receive +10% to their ten basic attributes, +500 free attribute points, +1 Black Iron grade main weapon for their class, +1 skill book for their class. Special announcement, I hope all players will continue to work hard!!"

.....

Another boiling.

If the first revival of the ancient kingdom of the East made them feel that their own server had returned.

Then now, this is a visible benefit.

+10% to the ten basic attributes, +500 free attribute points, and a Black Iron grade main weapon and skill book.

If one player got this, they would be extremely happy.

And now.

This is for all players in the Dragon Country region, all!!!

The overall strength of the Dragon Country region instantly rose to a new level.

To be precise, it's more than just one level.

Dragon Country, Heavenly Book Pavilion!

A dozen old men appeared here and held an emergency meeting.

"You've all heard the server-wide announcement, right? This is a qualitative leap for our Dragon Country region."

The old man in the Zhongshan suit sitting in the first seat was very excited.

In the first position to the right of the old man in the Zhongshan suit was an old man with white hair and a resolute face.

He was imposing without being angry, and revealed a powerful, unique iron-blooded aura of a soldier.

"Chief, regarding the Twilight of the Gods, should we consider publishing some information? At least, let the people realize the importance of the Twilight of the Gods."

The old man in the Zhongshan suit pondered for a while, "There are still fifty-eight months until the disaster we predicted. If we announce it now, the people will inevitably panic, and social order cannot be disrupted now."

"That's right, a large number of personnel from the war department have entered the Twilight of the Gods. If there is a riot, it won't be a good thing."

"What we have to do is to continue to increase the popularity of the Twilight of the Gods, lower the price of the game pods, improve social welfare, implement a four-hour work system every day, and implement a three-day weekend every week."

.....

More than a dozen people began to discuss, and most of the opinions they put forward had certain feasibility, but they still needed to be carefully considered.

"Alright."

The chief raised his hand and interrupted the discussion.

"The main reason I asked you to come here today is to discuss this person."

On the monitor behind the chief appeared the outline of a mysterious person, and next to the outline was an introduction.

Snow Emperor: Archer, suspected of being a dual class, the second class is Warrior.

Introduction: High health, high damage and true damage, high tenacity, fast attack speed, low dual resistance, has an unusual familiarity with the Twilight of the Gods, it is speculated that he has a god-level talent, the talent is related to stacking health and true damage.

Guild: Lonely Snow Guild.

Territory: None yet.

Personal deeds: Destroyed the Star Kingdom, supported the establishment of the 瀚海 Kingdom in the Demon Cave, suspected of killing the God of the Undead, helped the ancient kingdom of the East to revive.....

Related characters: Invincible Fatty God, Monkey of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven.

Real information: Investigation not yet authorized.

"You should all be familiar with this person."

These people need to play games in their spare time every day.

The iron-blooded old general took the lead in speaking, "It is very necessary to absorb such talents into our war department."

The chief waved his hand, "Old Fu, don't always think about absorbing him. People like Snow Emperor are difficult to absorb. What we have to do is put him on an equal footing with us, fair, just dialogue, cooperation."

"What?!"

Someone was surprised.

"No matter how powerful he is, he is just a player with outstanding talent and superb skills. Putting him on the same level as us....."

"Alright, is the Twilight of the Gods really a game? Others don't know, but don't you know?"

"The fate of our Dragon Country, and even our planet, is tied to it."

The chief took a deep breath and said earnestly, "Find an opportunity, I will personally contact Snow Emperor. We must give him enough importance and respect."

"Also, take care of the younger generation in your family and don't provoke Snow Emperor."

Chapter 265 - The storm is coming: full recovery!

United States, the Black House!

"Smash!"

A middle-aged man with blond curly hair smashed a crystal glass worth $188,888 in a fit of anger.

"You, shouldn't you give me an explanation? All players in the Dragon Country region have their top ten basic attributes increased by 10%, and each person also has 500 free attribute points. What's going on?"

"Mr. President, it's all that Snow Emperor..."

"Smash!!"

The blond middle-aged man smashed his $9 million watch at Mick, his assistant, who was speaking.

"Snow Emperor, Snow Emperor, Snow Emperor! My ears are getting calluses from hearing about the Snow Emperor. Every time, all you know is to tell me what's happening with the Snow Emperor. I have ears, I can hear the global announcements myself. What I want to hear is the solution you guys are giving me, understand?"

Assistant Mick calmly took the watch behind his back and put it into the back pocket of his trousers, while replying:

"Mr. President, we have already arranged for the Henry Group to put a bounty on the Snow Emperor..."

"And the result?"

The blond middle-aged man picked up a football-sized luminous pearl beside him, ready to smash it over.

After thinking about it, this thing is worth $98 million, and he finally put it down.

"Waste, waste, waste!!"

"How can I have such waste around me? What I want is results, and what I see is that the Snow Emperor is not only unscathed, but also revived some damn ancient oriental country."

"I don't care about that ancient oriental country, but all players in the Dragon Country region have +10% to their top ten basic attributes, and 500 free attribute points, as well as equipment and skills. Tell me, what do you want me to do?"

Assistant Mick glanced at the luminous pearl that the blond middle-aged man had put down, and put down his hand that was eagerly trying to catch it.

"Mr. President, I think we can start a Never-Setting Alliance meeting to discuss with the high-level officials of other countries and implement the decapitation operation in advance."

"No matter how powerful the Snow Emperor is, he is just one person. As long as he arrives in the vast continent, we will immediately arrange for people to kill him ten times."

"If ten times is not enough, then kill him a hundred times, until he is scared to death, until he doesn't dare to leave the city!!"

The blond middle-aged man's eyes lit up, "You have finally made a slightly constructive suggestion. Immediately draft an implementation plan according to this."

"Yes, Mr. President."

... ..

The revival of the ancient oriental country.

It can be said that it shocked the entire network.

Of course.

It was not only players and high-level officials of various countries who were alarmed, but also some existences in the Twilight of the Gods.

Vast Continent, the far west, apart from sand, there is still sand, countless and endless sand.

Here is the largest desert in the vast continent, the Moke Latin Desert.

At this time.

Deep in this great desert, inside a palace buried deep in the sand.

A fiery red, extremely enchanting giant pistil slowly opened, revealing a woman sleeping in the pistil.

The woman's body was covered by petals, to be precise, a long dress woven from fiery red petals.

The woman in the flower skirt slowly opened her eyes, sat up from the pistil, and looked towards the direction of the ancient oriental country.

"The ancient oriental country... has been revived!!"

"They are really a bunch of good-for-nothings, actually allowing the ancient oriental country to revive."

In the darkness, a low, hoarse voice came.

"After sleeping for so long, it's time to move my muscles and bones after all. I just don't know how many people in the vast continent still remember us."

The woman in the flower skirt glanced in the direction of the darkness.

Below the Deadly Cliff.

It's all flames.

These flames are like ghost fires, obviously without any combustibles, but they have been burning for who knows how many years and have never been extinguished.

Deep in these flames, there is a huge skeleton of an unknown creature.

This bone is like a small mountain range, winding and circling.

The head of this skeleton is even as large as a palace, making it impossible to imagine how powerful the owner of this skeleton was, and for what reason he fell here.

At the head of the skeleton.

A little girl who looked only twelve or thirteen years old, wearing a black long dress, seemed to sense something and looked towards the direction of the ancient oriental country.

"So many years have passed, can I finally go home? I wonder if father is still doing well?"

... ..

Such scenes are being staged all over the Twilight of the Gods.

The revival of the ancient oriental country has a greater impact than many people imagine.

The pattern of the vast continent, and even the entire Twilight of the Gods, will be changed because of this!!

Outside Blackwind City!

There was a rumbling sound, and an ancient town emerged from the ground.

Above the ancient town, pedestrians came and went in an endless stream.

But their time seemed to be frozen, and everyone maintained a specific action, motionless.

When the ancient town completely emerged from the ground, the people in the ancient town seemed to have recovered from the time standstill and began to act normally.

Not just here.

In the Han Sea Kingdom, the Land of Chaos, the Netherworld, and many islands in the Endless Sea, huge buildings emerged from the ground.

Strong, unstoppable.

When these buildings emerged from the ground, the people, things, objects, everything inside seemed to be in a state of time standstill.

Only when the building itself stabilized did they seem to break away from the time standstill and begin to live their lives normally.

Han Sea Kingdom.

The central Sky Star City.

At this time, rumbling sounds continued to come from the ground, and the buildings of Sky Star City itself began to collapse and turn into ashes.

A large number of NPCs and players were sent out of the city by a mysterious force.

The scale of this city exceeded Sky Star City by a hundred times, huge, majestic, and also... an unspeakable sense of solemnity!

When one-third of this city appeared, some people had already seen the name of this city: Dragon Capital Imperial City!

In addition to the changes on the ground, in the sky, white cranes and various birds seemed to shuttle through the void, suddenly appearing in the sky.

The players who were originally in the Han Sea Kingdom were all dumbfounded.

Who am I? Where am I? What is happening??

"This... is this the ancient oriental country? Such architecture is in line with our oriental aesthetics. What the hell were those town buildings before?"

"The emergence of new towns, doesn't it mean there are new tasks? New hidden professions, and... a brand new Yihong Tower!!!"

"Damn, brother, you're right. To be honest, although the Yihong Tower in the Han Sea Kingdom is not bad, it's still a bit lacking. Now that I see these towns, and those NPCs in the towns, I feel that this time I go to the Yihong Tower, the feeling will definitely be right."

Chapter 266 - The mantle of the Lord of the Mortal Palace!

Elegant and simple palaces rose from the ground, and peaks surrounded by cranes emerged from the earth.

Originally, in the boundless snowfield, a series of buildings spread out from the center of the Mortal Palace.

Magnificent, grand, sacred, and solemn.

"Ding, you have completed the revival of the ancient oriental kingdom: the Shanhai Empire, rewarding you with a +100% bonus to all ten basic attributes, +100,000 free attribute points, and +100 million Shanhai Empire reputation."

Lin Tianhao's original life value of over 16 million soared to over 33 million in one breath.

It was a bit of a pity about the mana, because most of Lin Tianhao's mana came from various bonuses, and his own mana was too low, so the increase was not significant.

Due to the diminishing returns on attack speed, it did not directly double. The principle is the same as the Nether Longbow adding 3.11 to the attack speed, but the actual increase is negligible.

But even so.

Lin Tianhao's attack speed also increased from 77.65 to 93.12 in one breath.

Breaking through 100 attack speed is just around the corner.

As for movement speed, it also directly broke through the 60 mark, reaching 62.1.

The Lord of the Mortal Palace looked at Lin Tianhao meaningfully, "Are you willing to accept my mantle, become my successor, and become the new master of this Mortal Palace?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned. He felt that this should be the ultimate reward he triggered this time.

He was not a warrior before and could not inherit his mantle, so it was a bit of a pity.

The Lord of the Mortal Palace was able to slay gods with the body of a mortal. You must know that at that time, the Lord of the Mortal Palace did not have the Godslayer mark and had to face the suppression of divine power.

But even so, he still succeeded in slaying a god.

His god-slaying was different from Lin Tianhao's killing of the remnant soul of the Ice and Snow Goddess, or killing the sealed God of the Undead.

That was the Ice and Snow Goddess in her peak state!

"I am willing."

Lin Tianhao nodded heavily.

"Becoming the Lord of the Mortal Palace will bring you great benefits, but it also comes with great responsibilities."

"What responsibilities?"

Lin Tianhao did not rashly accept. If there were responsibilities, he would need to consider them carefully.

It was not that he was afraid of responsibility, but that he was very clear that his future enemies were the Arlett Star System, the invincible gods from outside this universe, the saints, and even the Heavenly Dao saints like Hongjun Old Ancestor!

If he was bound by responsibility and it affected his development, it would be a loss.

"Do you know about the Holy Land?"

"I know. Many countries have Holy Lands behind them. For example, the strongest and oldest empire on the vast continent, the Vast Empire, has the Vast Boundless Palace behind it."

"Then do you know the responsibilities of the Holy Land?"

Lin Tianhao nodded, "To help when the country is in trouble."

The Lord of the Mortal Palace smiled and nodded, "That's right, that is your responsibility."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. If that was all, then it would not be a burden to him, but a good thing.

"Do you mean that the Mortal Palace is the Holy Land behind this Shanhai Empire?"

"That's right."

"Then I accept this mantle."

The Holy Land is a typical case of few things and many resources, similar to nuclear weapons in the real world.

Unless absolutely necessary, the Holy Land will not take action.

But the Holy Land can obtain a lot of resources from the empire.

Not to mention that an empire is unlikely to encounter troubles that require the Holy Land to take action.

Even if it does, so what?

For Lin Tianhao, war, especially the war in the Twilight of the Gods, is never a bad thing.

On the contrary.

It's a good thing.

Especially now that Lin Tianhao's Heart of Heavenly Punishment has awakened, his skills can also stack life value.

Lightning Leap and Heavenly Fire Meteor, these range skills, are really awesome.

Especially Heavenly Fire Meteor, in large-scale wars, just one use can stack at least a thousand life value.

"Good."

A satisfied smile appeared on the Lord of the Mortal Palace's face. He waved his hand, and one item after another appeared in front of Lin Tianhao.

"Palace Lord Token, the symbol of your identity, is also the permanent key to open the secret realm of the Mortal Palace. Many places in the Mortal Palace require the Palace Lord Token to be authorized to enter. Also, the right to appoint and remove the emperors of the Shanhai Empire, etc., you can slowly understand later. There is an explanation on the top floor of the library."

"The rest of these are a God-level talent awakening stone, a divine scroll, ten Saint-level hidden class transfer scrolls, ten Saint-level talent awakening stones, and finally, this is my God-level hidden class transfer scroll, for the warrior class."

At this point.

The Lord of the Mortal Palace changed his tone and continued: "My hidden class is special, it is the Magic Martial God General, suitable for those who practice both magic and martial arts, and belongs to the top level among God-level hidden classes."

"But, I don't think it suits you."

Magic Martial God General?

Lin Tianhao was stunned. He knew of a top-tier Heaven-level hidden class, the Magic Martial Heavenly General, which he was planning to arrange for Monkey.

As a result, he didn't expect that a top-tier God-level hidden class would come.

Should he say that he was lucky, or should he say that Monkey was lucky?

Lin Tianhao was not considering adding spell power, to be precise, Lin Tianhao was not considering adding attack power either.

Therefore, the hidden class of Magic Martial God General would not be of much help to him.

Thinking of this, Lin Tianhao immediately sent a message to Monkey, telling him not to transfer to the Magic Martial Heavenly General.

Lin Tianhao had previously given Monkey the strategy for transferring to the Magic Martial Heavenly General, so he could only pray that he had not completed the series of quests for the Magic Martial Heavenly General.

If he had already completed the transfer, it would be a pity.

"Snow Emperor, don't be discouraged. I once came into contact with a mysterious, powerful, and unpredictable existence."

"From her mouth, I learned a new message."

"What message?"

Lin Tianhao subconsciously asked.

"God-level hidden classes are not the top. Above the God-level, there are Super God-level hidden classes!!"

"That is the key to being able to touch the top of the world, and even break through the limits of the gods."

Breaking through the limits of the gods, wouldn't that be... becoming a saint!!

Even according to Eastern mythology, there are very few saints.

"When I learned that there were Super God-level hidden classes in this world, I began to search hard. Heaven did not disappoint, and I really found one."

Lin Tianhao's pupils shrank, and his heart was filled with uncontrollable joy.

His talent was already Super God-level, and he had also come into contact with the Super God-level archer class from Shui Ruyan.

If... his second class, warrior, could also transfer to a Super God-level hidden class.

With three Super God-levels, Lin Tianhao didn't dare to imagine.

According to what Lin Tianhao knew in his previous life.

God-level hidden classes and God-level talents all have the potential to become gods.

As long as they continue to grow, these two types of people are likely to become gods.

Of course.

It is not to say that people below God-level talents cannot become gods. They can still become gods, but the difficulty coefficient is very high.

Chapter 267 - Clues to the hidden profession of the super god-level warrior!

God-level talents and god-level hidden classes, as long as you develop all your potential, you can basically become a god without relying on external forces.

However, those below god-level talents and hidden classes need to become gods through incense offerings, enlightenment, and so on.

Not only is the difficulty coefficient high, but the key is that those with god-level talents will also come to snatch incense offerings.

Because even after becoming a god, relying on incense offerings can still enhance combat power.

There's a saying that goes like this:

Gods are often more greedy than mortals.

Lin Tianhao was schemed to death five years into the Great Cataclysm in his previous life, but he also heard of some gods who would do anything to become stronger, causing the deaths of countless living beings.

Objectively speaking,

There are such gods in the West, and there are also such gods in the East.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao wants to seize this opportunity in this life, to change his fate against the heavens and constantly become stronger.

"Lord of the Mortal Palace, do you know the method to obtain the super god-level hidden class for the Warrior profession?" Lin Tianhao couldn't help but ask curiously.

The idea of Three Super Gods is good, but he hasn't even fully awakened his own super god-level talent yet, and the others are even more castles in the air.

"I'm not very clear about the specific method. I only found a little information after walking through countless secret realms. I only know that the super god-level hidden class may be related to the Five Mountains Secret Realm."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, somewhat surprised.

Indeed.

None of these super god-level hidden classes are simple.

Previously, Shui Ruyan spoke of the blessings of ten gods from the ancient Eastern kingdom, and now the clue provided by the Lord of the Mortal Palace, the Five Mountains Secret Realm, is not a place that normal people can go to.

The Five Mountains Secret Realm requires simultaneous comprehension of the five major sacred attribute laws of Space, Darkness, Light, Life, and Death before one can enter.

This is just the qualification to enter.

Judging from what the Lord of the Mortal Palace said, entering is probably just the beginning, and obtaining the super god-level hidden class will require going through untold hardships.

"That's about it. Although you are the Lord of the Mortal Palace, you are still an adventurer after all. The rules of the Twilight of the Gods still need to be followed."

"It's still easy to cause problems if you blatantly give you too many things."

Lin Tianhao grinned and quickly put away these things in front of him.

If he were to exchange this for another place, he wouldn't easily get it without doing a task that would make him wish he were dead.

After all, his luck isn't very good. He can't encounter the kind of relatively simple task that can get huge rewards.

This time, the Lord of the Mortal Palace can be said to be quite generous.

"Alright, I've found a new successor, and I should continue to do my thing."

"Wait a moment."

Lin Tianhao immediately asked: "Where did the Eastern gods go? I can't figure it out. How could the Western gods alone be able to put the Ancient Mountain and Sea Kingdom to sleep?"

"You are still too weak now. When you reach the demigod level, you will naturally slowly come into contact with these things."

As soon as the words fell.

The Lord of the Mortal Palace completely disappeared.

Lin Tianhao in his previous life was not as strong as he is now, so he couldn't come into contact with people at the level of gods.

"Brother Hao, I was just doing the last part of the Demon Martial Heavenly General mission. What's wrong?"

Monkey replied to Lin Tianhao's message.

Lin Tianhao directly sent the god-level hidden class job change scroll, Demon Martial God General, to Monkey.

When Monkey got the job change scroll of the Demon Martial God General, he was stunned for a moment.

"I didn't expect that reviving the ancient Eastern kingdom would get this reward. Hurry up and change jobs and become stronger as soon as possible."

"Okay, godfather, this child will change jobs now."

.....

Afterward.

Lin Tianhao looked at the God-level Talent Awakening Stone and began to think.

Should he use it himself?

Or give it to Goudao Wangu?

After a brief thought, Lin Tianhao decided to give it to Goudao Wangu after all.

Goudao Wangu has no problem with his character, and his strength is equal to Fatty's strength. After all, the armor and magic resistance stacked by Goudao Wangu can be synchronized to Fatty.

His own health points, plus Goudao Wangu's armor and magic resistance, Fatty may really become the number one meat shield in the Twilight of the Gods in the future, without one!

I, Fatty, stand on the shoulders of giants and overlook the world. Just ask, besides true damage, who can beat me?

In fact, there is another reason for giving it to Goudao Wangu, and that is to stack attributes as soon as possible.

The sooner a god-level talent is awakened, the better, because there can be more time to stack attributes, which is naturally more advantageous than those who awaken later.

"Fatty, give this God-level Talent Awakening Stone to Goudao Wangu."

Fatty didn't ask much. He had already discovered that Lin Tianhao's understanding of the Twilight of the Gods was extraordinary.

Even... somewhat prescient, as if he had done an internal test.

Even, it is possible that the game planner of the Twilight of the Gods game is a relative of Lin Tianhao.

Of course.

No matter what the reason is.

It doesn't matter anymore, because they are brothers, that's enough!

After doing these things, Lin Tianhao looked at the God-given Scroll.

God-given Scroll: God-given level disposable item.

Effect: Use on a piece of equipment to upgrade it to the God-given level.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

What else is there to say? Lin Tianhao directly used it on the Purification Jade Pendant.

"Ding, you have used the God-given Scroll on the Purification Jade Pendant. The Purification Jade Pendant is upgrading. The upgrade time is 72 hours. Please be patient."

Lin Tianhao was not surprised. After all, repairing equipment and enlightenment actually take a lot of time.

Lin Tianhao doesn't lack equipment in this life. Silver and gold equipment will be broken if they are broken. He won't even blink an eye.

But ordinary players are different. If the durability of a piece of black iron equipment is less than 80, it is estimated that it will be sent for repair.

As for the remaining Saint-level Talent Awakening Stone and Saint-level Hidden Class Job Change Scroll, Lin Tianhao roughly glanced at them.

They are all available for the six main professions.

Lin Tianhao doesn't need them for the time being, so he will save them first.

Next.

It's time to think about how to use the 100,000 free attribute points rewarded this time.

If these are added to attack speed, adding 100,000 free attribute points won't increase it much.

If these are added to movement speed, it can still be increased by a section, but it doesn't seem to be of much use for the time being.

Dual resistance?

Mana?

They don't seem to work very well.

It's a bit of a headache.

In the end, Lin Tianhao did not choose to add points. He can wait and see what attributes are needed in the future, and then add points.

Next, he should carefully check the Mortal Palace, this... is a holy land!!

Chapter 268 - Deputy Palace Master: Ouyang Wenlong!

Territory: Fan Temple.

Lord: Snow Empress.

Level: Ninth Rank Star Radiance Level.

Territory Management: None for now.

Territory Members: None for now.

Basic Attribute Bonus: Attack Speed +2, Health Points +20000, Attack Power +1000, Mana +10000, Movement Speed +5, Armor +500, Magic Resistance +500, Lifesteal +3%, Spell Power +1000, Luck +1.

Special Attribute Bonus: All Damage Reduction +10%, Projectile Speed +10%, Base Mana Regeneration +10/s, Base Health Regeneration +50/s.

Territory Contribution Value: 100 million / 100 billion.

When Lin Tianhao saw the attribute values of the Fan Temple, he knew he had made the right choice.

Thirteen attribute bonuses, including all damage reduction and projectile speed increase.

The projectile speed increase includes the speed of Lin Tianhao's arrows in flight.

For example, if a normal arrow from Lin Tianhao takes 1 second to travel twenty meters, an increase of ten percent would shorten the flight time by 0.1 seconds.

This shortening may not seem like much, but it can't withstand Lin Tianhao's fast attack speed.

Besides this.

Lin Tianhao also has the attribute bonus from the Lonely Snow Guild.

This is also one of the reasons why Lin Tianhao was able to survive in his previous life even without talent.

Even ordinary players can get these attribute bonuses from the territory by joining the territory.

Joining a guild will also have attribute bonuses.

Later in the game, there will also be camp bonuses.

In addition, as the level increases, the attribute values of those elite and black iron equipment will also be relatively high.

Returning to his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao stepped towards the building in front of the Fan Temple.

This Fan Temple alone is even larger than Sky Star City.

According to Lin Tianhao's estimation.

It can accommodate at least ten million people.

However.

A holy land usually has only tens of thousands of people, and a holy land with more than one hundred thousand people is considered a large holy land.

"Ouyang Wenlong, Vice Hall Master of the Fan Temple, greets the Hall Master."

Lin Tianhao's eyelids twitched.

Ouyang Wenlong (??): ???

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Everything was a question mark, but one thing was good, the Fan Temple had people, he wasn't a lone commander.

"Vice Hall Master?"

"Does the Hall Master have any instructions?" Ouyang Wenlong was very respectful to Lin Tianhao.

"How many people are there in the Fan Temple now?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Ouyang Wenlong's emotions were somewhat low, "After the Hall Master slew the god, he suffered heavy injuries. The nine holy lands of the West joined forces to attack our Fan Temple. The Fan Temple originally had more than 39,000 people, and now there are only 138 people left, plus you, Hall Master, 139 people."

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath, it was good that there were still people.

"What is their strength like?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"The two Vice Hall Masters, Shangguan Hongxun and I, are at the Ninth Rank Star Radiance level. There are also five Eighth Rank experts, twenty-nine at the Seventh Rank, and the others are below the Seventh Rank."

Lin Tianhao: ???

Below the Seventh Rank is not worth mentioning? They are directly classified together below the Seventh Rank.

Is this the foundation of a holy land?

"Where is Vice Hall Master Shangguan Hongxun? And the others?"

"Now that the Fan Temple has just recovered, they are all recuperating and cannot come out to greet the Hall Master. Please forgive them, Hall Master."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and said, "Those are minor issues, recuperation is important."

Ouyang Wenlong bowed to Lin Tianhao again, "Hall Master, Shangguan Hongxun's situation is a bit serious. I implore you to find a way to save him."

"Ding, Ouyang Wenlong has issued a quest to you."

"Quest Requirement: Save Shangguan Hongxun."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: You will gain the absolute loyalty of everyone in the Fan Temple."

"Accept or decline?"

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. The fall of a Ninth Rank expert would be a huge loss for their Fan Temple.

Moreover, as long as he saves him, he will be able to gain the absolute loyalty of these people.

What is absolute loyalty? It is being willing to die for him.

Betrayal is impossible.

If it were ordinary people, Lin Tianhao wouldn't care even with absolute loyalty.

But who are these people? They are Ninth Rank Star Radiance level existences, people that Lin Tianhao had to look up to in his previous life!!

Now, as long as he completes this quest, he will be able to gain their absolute loyalty.

That's right, it's them.

There is also Shangguan Hongxun, who is also likely to be at the Ninth Rank Star Radiance level.

"Shangguan Hongxun is our Fan Temple Vice Hall Master. As the Hall Master, I should save him."

"Hall Master's great kindness, I thank the Hall Master on behalf of Hongxun."

"You haven't said how to save Shangguan Hongxun yet."

Lin Tianhao asked, this is the key.

It is not easy to save a Ninth Rank Star Radiance level expert whose life is in danger.

"Please have a demigod-level priest take action, or a Ninth Rank Grandmaster-level priest will also do."

Lin Tianhao frowned when he heard this.

"This... Where should I go to find one?"

"Uh..."

Ouyang Wenlong looked at Lin Tianhao with a look of astonishment, "Hall Master is the master of a holy land, don't you know a few Ninth Rank priests?"

Lin Tianhao: ???

Should I know a few Ninth Rank priests?

Master of a holy land.

Knowing a few Ninth Rank priests doesn't seem to be a problem, right?

"Can't you see my strength?" Lin Tianhao asked subconsciously.

Ouyang Wenlong nodded, "Hall Master holds the Fan Temple Token, so I naturally cannot see through your realm unless the Hall Master actively reveals it."

Lin Tianhao didn't hesitate and revealed it directly.

He also wanted to see.

What would Ouyang Wenlong's attitude be when he learned that he was only at the First Rank?

"Ah--"

Ouyang Wenlong widened his eyes and showed a ghostly expression.

"First... First Rank!!!!"

"Hall Master, quickly hide your attributes."

Ouyang Wenlong said urgently after the shock.

Lin Tianhao did not hesitate and directly hid his attributes.

"What's wrong?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"If the people from those holy lands in the West know that you, Hall Master, are only at the First Rank, our Fan Temple will be in big trouble."

At this point.

Ouyang Wenlong sighed, "It seems that Hongxun has no hope, alas, it's a pity for such a good person as Hongxun."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "That's not necessarily true, maybe I can try to save him."

"Save?"

"First Rank?"

"Archer?"

Ouyang Wenlong looked at Lin Tianhao with a strange expression.

A First Rank archer saving a Ninth Rank Star Radiance level expert whose life is in danger, is that possible?

There is no feasibility at all!

"Hall Master, why don't you just not force it? I really didn't know your strength just now, otherwise I definitely wouldn't have said this."

Ouyang Wenlong waved his hands repeatedly, seemingly not wanting to embarrass Lin Tianhao.

Chapter 269 - The female demon that is fought over by the gods!

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but roll his eyes, "How much longer can Shangguan Hongxun hold on?"

"At most three months, but the longer it drags on, the lower the possibility of a cure. Ideally, someone should be found to treat him within a month."

Ouyang Wenlong looked a little sad, as if he had already anticipated the outcome.

"One month, no big deal."

Lin Tianhao took out the Book of Life and Death and changed the name to Poseidon, God of the Sea.

Given the current situation, he had three choices.

First, personally kill Shangguan Hongxun and have him ascend to the God Ranking to restore his peak state.

But this was somewhat disadvantageous.

Because once a spot on the God Ranking was used, it was permanently occupied. Lin Tianhao still felt it was a bit of a waste to give a spot to a Rank 9 expert.

The second option.

Was to follow Ouyang Wenlong's suggestion and invite a Rank 9, or even a demigod-level, priest.

However.

He didn't know any demigod-level priests right now, so asking for one was out of the question.

Third, kill Poseidon, God of the Sea!

"I'll go out for a bit."

Lin Tianhao took a step, passed through the Kunlun Mirror, and disappeared.

He arrived at the location before Sky Star City, preparing to find Shui Ruyan.

But at this time, the place had been replaced by a more massive and majestic city.

"Dragon Capital Imperial City!"

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself and stepped into the city.

He wanted to find Shui Ruyan.

Although his attack speed was now over ninety, and his health exceeded thirty million, making him very strong, Lin Tianhao didn't mind becoming even stronger.

Godslaying – having more preparation was always a good thing.

After entering Dragon Capital Imperial City, Lin Tianhao searched around, but to no avail!

"Damn, that little vixen Shui Ruyan wouldn't stand me up, would she?"

Lin Tianhao felt a little depressed. Shui Ruyan hadn't issued it as a quest at the time.

Lin Tianhao wasn't too concerned at the time either.

After all, it was a super-god-tier hidden class, so it was normal to be a little secretive.

But now that he was back, she hadn't even taken the initiative to meet him, and he couldn't even find her.

Lin Tianhao wandered around Dragon Capital Imperial City and even tried his luck at several pleasure establishments.

But the result was nothing.

"Shui Ruyan, you better have a good reason for not coming to see me, or don't blame me for being impolite when I find you!"

Lin Tianhao thought to himself, found a deserted place, took a step, and directly appeared on Heavenly Sea Island, at the Sea God Temple.

Hmm...

The name was still Sea God Temple, but there was an additional statue in the center of the Sea God Temple, a tall statue of a woman.

"Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea?"

"Yes."

A familiar voice came, and then he saw Koss Moyuan quickly walking over.

"Is your injury better?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Koss Moyuan waved his hand. "Don't even mention it. A god possessing me, how could my body withstand it? I'll see if I can fully recover after reaching Rank 7 later."

Lin Tianhao was startled. "The damage is that serious?"

"Yeah, if any god wants to possess you in the future, don't ever agree. It's too painful," Koss Moyuan said.

"Cough cough."

Lin Tianhao coughed twice. "I came to ask you about the situation with Poseidon, God of the Sea. I remember your previous weapon was a god-given weapon from Poseidon, God of the Sea, right?"

"Yes, let me secretly tell you, the god-given weapon of Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea, isn't easy to use at all, so I went to Poseidon to get a trident."

Koss Moyuan moved closer to Lin Tianhao and lowered his voice.

Lin Tianhao looked up at the statue of Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea.

Saying such things in front of the statue of Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea, Koss Moyuan's courage was extraordinary.

"Poseidon gave it to you?" Lin Tianhao asked in surprise.

"Of course he didn't want to, but if he didn't give it, I would activate the Sea Domain to chat with him whenever I had time. When my mana was exhausted, I would come back and recover after a while."

"He's in a sealed state, so it takes a long time to recover even a little power."

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but give a thumbs up. "As expected of you."

"By the way, who did you give the Pre-Quest Scroll for Blessings of the Gods to?"

Lin Tianhao knew that the difficulty of the quests given by the Pre-Quest Scroll for Blessings of the Gods wouldn't be too low.

Koss Moyuan's Pre-Quest Scroll for Blessings of the Gods most likely hadn't been completed.

"Snow Empress, you're making things difficult for me. That person is the chosen successor of Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea. I really can't reveal her information."

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but be slightly surprised. "Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea, has already determined her successor so quickly? Isn't she going to observe further?"

"What do you know? Our Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea, is a little depressed. Several of her good sisters are fighting with her for this successor."

Lin Tianhao's interest grew even stronger. What kind of monster was this, to be contested by several gods? This was very rare.

After pondering for a while.

"Forget it, since it's the successor found by Mazu, the Goddess of the Sea, I'll give her face."

"I came to you this time mainly to ask about the strength of Poseidon, God of the Sea."

"He's definitely stronger than me in terms of combat power, and his health is definitely higher than mine. The key is that he regenerates quickly."

"What? Are you planning to cause trouble for him? If so, I suggest you get some serious injury potions, preferably the super awesome kind."

Koss Moyuan's words served as a reminder to Lin Tianhao. Serious injury potions still needed to be prepared.

"You often go to cause trouble for him, so you must have serious injury potions, right?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Koss Moyuan smiled knowingly and took out a bottle of dark red potion from his arms. "Given our friendship, it's okay to give you a bottle, but this thing can only last for fifteen minutes per bottle."

Crimson Rot Potion: God-given disposable item.

Effect: After use, your attacks will have an additional 30% serious injury effect. This effect is reduced to 3% when used on gods, lasting for fifteen minutes.

"Reduced to three percent against gods, this is..."

"That's for peak gods. For sealed gods like Poseidon, God of the Sea, it has a serious injury effect of fifteen to twenty-five percent."

Lin Tianhao looked at Koss Moyuan suspiciously, wondering if Koss Moyuan was tricking him.

These NPCs don't have a system to verify whether they're telling the truth, so Lin Tianhao had to question everything.

"Do you want to buy a few more bottles? Crimson Rot Potion that's effective against gods, only one million gold coins per bottle, great value, honest prices, no deception?"

"Too expensive, one hundred thousand."

"Nine hundred thousand."

"Two hundred thousand, really can't go any higher."

"How about this, I won't bully you. Five hundred thousand gold coins, if not, then forget it."

"Deal, give me a hundred bottles."

Koss Moyuan: ? ? ?

He thought Lin Tianhao was haggling because he was poor.

But now he realized that he was too shallow. Lin Tianhao was just too rich.

Chapter 270 - The attitudes of the holy places from all sides!

"Snow Empress, I can sell you a maximum of ten bottles."

"One million per bottle, one hundred bottles," Lin Tianhao corrected himself.

Kosmo Abyss's eyes lit up, "If that's the case, then it's not impossible, deal!"

As expected!

Sometimes, not being able to buy something just means the price isn't right.

The main reason Lin Tianhao is willing to buy Crimson Potion at a high price is that its grievous injury effect is also effective on gods.

Gods can actually be immune to most grievous injuries, slowing, knockback, control, and other effects.

This potion is definitely not worth one million gold coins a bottle for ordinary players, but for Lin Tianhao, it's a different story.

"Kosmo Abyss, how about helping me with a favor?" Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

Lin Tianhao grinned, "With our relationship, discussing conditions hurts our feelings."

"Help me kill people from a guild, killing each person in that guild at least ten times, and I'll help you with this favor, how about it?"

"An adventurer's guild?"

"Yes."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, "Which guild would offend you?"

"It's not exactly offending me, but that's not important, the guild is called the Unrivaled Guild."

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao understood.

This Unrivaled Guild had also caused him trouble before.

It was probably that the successor of the Mazu Goddess was disgusted by the Unrivaled Guild, which is why someone needs to take action to lower the game progress of those people in the Unrivaled Guild.

"No problem."

Lin Tianhao has no good feelings for the Unrivaled Guild, and dealing with them suits his wishes.

"Okay, then let's go to Seagod Island now."

Kosmo Abyss had someone sail a ship, "It will probably take half a month from here to Seagod Island, you should be mentally prepared."

"So long."

Lin Tianhao was a little depressed, he was in a hurry now.

However, thinking that as long as he went to Seagod Island and killed Poseidon, the Sea God, he could use the Kunlun Mirror to directly return to the Mortal Palace, and he would have enough time, he instantly calmed down.

Moreover, on the ship, Lin Tianhao could also comprehend the True Meaning of the Sea.

Lin Tianhao set sail, and at this time, in the Mountain and Sea Empire, a large number of players entered the new main city, and the entire region was directly upgraded from Tier 2 to Tier 9.

And the space barrier disappeared, and the Vast Continent and the Mountain and Sea Empire were connected.

The Mountain and Sea Empire also quickly became lively.

Vast Limitless Palace!

One of the most ancient holy lands in the Vast Continent, a very neutral holy land that generally does not participate in the disputes of other holy lands.

In addition to this.

The Vast Limitless Palace is also one of the few holy lands that does not exclude the East and the West. As long as they are geniuses, whether they are from the ancient Eastern countries or Western countries, they are willing to accept and cultivate them.

At this time.

In the side seat of the main hall of the Vast Limitless Palace.

The Second Palace Master of the Vast Limitless Palace, Xiudeli Haotu, looked at the people below, and a slightly solemn voice came.

"The Mortal Palace has recovered, and a mysterious powerhouse has taken over the position of Palace Master. Which of you is willing to take a trip?"

Hearing this.

The people below were a little surprised, "The previous Palace Master of the Mortal Palace was so terrifying, killing the Ice and Snow Goddess with his own strength, although the Palace Master of the Mortal Palace has already left the Vast Continent."

"But after all, a new Palace Master has been born now, and we still need to establish contact, so that our Vast Empire below can establish trade with the Mountain and Sea Empire."

An old man, tall and thin, on the left took a step forward, "Second Palace Master, I am willing to go."

"Okay, prepare some gifts, don't be too bad, don't let others look down on our Vast Limitless Palace."

"Yes, Second Palace Master."

... ..

Tutu Lu Holy Mountain!

The number one mountain in the Vast Continent, with a height of 99,999 meters, and a Tutu Lu Holy Temple built on the top of the mountain.

The most united empire in the Vast Continent, the holy land behind the Tutu Lu Empire.

At this time.

Above the main hall of the Tutu Lu Holy Land, a tall fat man with white hair and a youthful face was full of smiles.

"Good, very good, the Mortal Palace has finally recovered. Although that old stubborn left the Vast Continent, we still have to take a look."

A middle-aged man in a silver-white long coat bowed.

"Mountain Master, your subordinate knows that you have a good relationship with the Old Palace Master of the Mortal Palace, but he has already left the Vast Continent after all."

"The Mortal Palace has caused a lot of trouble in the past, and if we show too much enthusiasm now, I am afraid it will bring trouble to our Tutu Lu Holy Mountain."

"Trouble, trouble, you only know how to talk about trouble, when has Tutu Lu Hongqiong ever been afraid of trouble?"

The tall fat man with white hair and a youthful face scolded.

"Mountain Master... .."

"Okay, no need to say more, half a month later, I will personally visit the Mortal Palace, you go and prepare some good gifts, don't embarrass our Tutu Lu Holy Land."

... ..

These are the neutral ones and those who have a good relationship with the Mortal Palace.

Compared to them.

More holy lands are very dissatisfied with the recovery of the Mortal Palace.

Icefire Los Island!

The overlord-level force in the southeast direction of the Vast Continent, the Icefire Ocean.

Controlling the Icefire Empire, an empire built of many islands.

At this time.

In the center of Icefire Los Island, the top floor of a towering pagoda.

A woman with a pale face, bright red lips, and jet-black hair coiled into a painting.

She looked a little gloomy at this time.

"The Mortal Palace has recovered."

After she gritted her teeth and said this, the surrounding air dropped a little.

"Holy Master, do you want to summon the thirty-six island masters? The Mortal Palace suffered heavy damage in the past. As long as we kill them now, we will definitely be able to catch the Mortal Palace off guard."

Los Jingkong nodded lightly, "Summon them, since the Mortal Palace dares to recover, then I dare to destroy the Mortal Palace. In addition, contact the other holy lands, that old fat man from Tutu Lu Holy Mountain might interfere again."

"Yes, Holy Master!"

... ..

The Mortal Palace has recovered.

The holy lands of the entire Vast Continent began to move.

However.

Lin Tianhao, the Palace Master of the Mortal Palace, was drifting at sea.

At the same time, he was also comprehending the True Meaning of the Sea.

With the blessing of the Creation Jade Disc, the speed of Lin Tianhao's progress in the True Meaning of the Sea can be described as rocket-like.

Now comprehending for one day is equivalent to comprehending for one hundred days before.

Therefore.

In just fifteen days, Lin Tianhao's True Meaning of the Sea reached the advanced stage of manifestation, and the True Meaning level was complete!

Next is asking the heart.

Lin Tianhao knew that the enlightenment realm was divided into five realms: True Meaning, Asking the Heart, Law, Asking the Dao, and Dao.

As for going further, Lin Tianhao didn't know, because it was said that reaching the Dao realm, one would have the qualifications to become a god.

There may be higher enlightenment realms above the Dao realm, but that is what gods need to consider, and it has nothing to do with Lin Tianhao.

"We're here."

Kosmo Abyss looked ahead, and there was no trace of tension in his expression when he was about to face a god.

Lin Tianhao looked around and did not see any islands, "Is this Seagod Island in a secret realm?"
