Chapter 28 Pig Farming Strategy!

The old drunkard also saw Lin Tianhao's intention and actually pulled himself behind the Azure Flower Serpent, wanting to use the Azure Flower Serpent to interrupt Lin Tianhao's attack rhythm.

As long as he had the chance to release a skill, he was confident that he could kill Lin Tianhao in the next attack.

But how could Lin Tianhao give him the chance?

The String-Twisting Arrow Technique was used in conjunction with the Rapid-Fire Arrow Technique.

Besides high attack power and strong penetration, the String-Twisting Arrow Technique had another very important advantage.

That was that it could turn!

Whoosh!

The old drunkard hiding behind the Azure Flower Serpent was hit by Lin Tianhao's arrow.

His face was filled with disbelief.

Lin Tianhao's attack methods had already exceeded his imagination.

The Azure Flower Serpent swayed its body and rushed towards Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao knew that it wanted to use its Entanglement skill.

If he was controlled by the Azure Flower Serpent's Entanglement, then the subsequent battle would lose its suspense.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao would not give the Azure Flower Serpent a chance.

It was still the Rapid-Fire Arrow Technique, but this time Lin Tianhao's target was the eyes of the Azure Flower Serpent and the old drunkard.

This kind of weak point attack required very high accuracy from the archer.

Moreover, Lin Tianhao was using Dual Shot and Rapid-Fire Arrow Technique at the same time, which made the requirements even higher.

If he didn't have the Immaculate Eye, this would be a bit difficult for Lin Tianhao.

But now Lin Tianhao relied on the Immaculate Eye to make this step much easier.

Dual Shot, targeting the two eyes of the Azure Flower Serpent, followed by the String-Twisting Arrow Technique, allowing his attack to reach an unbelievable level.

The old drunkard's idea of attacking by hiding behind the Azure Flower Serpent failed, and he was completely suppressed by Lin Tianhao's continuous attacks.

"Is this still a human?"

The old drunkard's expression was sinister.

He patted his waist, and a talisman appeared in his hand.

Lin Tianhao was shocked, that at this stage, NPCs already possessed such things.

Almost instantly, Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow shot towards the talisman in the old drunkard's hand.

But the old drunkard had already sacrificed the talisman, and a golden light spread out.

Golden radiance appeared on both the old drunkard and the Azure Flower Serpent.

Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow landed on the old drunkard.

-1420.

When this damage number appeared, the old drunkard was dumbfounded.

"How could this be? Your attack... is true damage!!"

But at this moment, Lin Tianhao stopped.

"Senior, I don't want to kill you, how about we make a deal?" Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

The old drunkard narrowed his eyes slightly, "What deal?"

"I won't kill you, you give me fifty free attribute points."

Hearing this, the old drunkard looked at Lin Tianhao with some suspicion.

"Just for fifty free attribute points? You're not even doing the old village chief's quest."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile, "To be honest, I also think that the old village chief is not worthy of his position, the position of novice village chief should belong to Wang the blacksmith."

"But I am an adventurer and have to consider things for myself, so, I only need fifty free attribute points, and I will let you leave."

The old drunkard was silent for a while, and then said: "Okay, deal."

"Ding, the old drunkard has issued you a quest."

"Quest requirements: Let him leave."

"Quest penalty: None."

"Quest reward: Fifty free attribute points."

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth turned up, and he directly accepted the quest.

He didn't kill the old drunkard, just not killing him now.

He could still consider the old village chief's quest, but perhaps it would be better to wait.

Besides, Lin Tianhao had other considerations.

What he wanted was for the old village chief and Wang the blacksmith to fight to the point of mutual destruction.

The old drunkard was obviously Wang the blacksmith's right-hand man, and if he was killed, then Wang the blacksmith, who was already weak, would be even more passive.

The situation of mutual destruction that he wanted would also be difficult to achieve.

Taking fifty free attribute points like this, without breaking the balance between Wang the blacksmith and the old village chief, would allow them to continue fighting.

After sending the old drunkard away, Lin Tianhao gained another fifty free attribute points.

Open the attribute page.

As a level 10 player, Lin Tianhao's attributes could definitely be described as abnormal.

Especially his skills, the skills Lin Tianhao currently possessed, apart from the basic Rapid Shot skill.

The other skills could be considered very powerful existences at this stage.

Moreover, because Lin Tianhao had chosen the best options, the skills he currently possessed were very helpful to him.

Not only that, but he also had fifty free attribute points in his hand.

Currently, he could choose to increase his attack speed or his movement speed.

The time spent traveling in the novice village was not much, but after arriving in the main city, traveling would sometimes waste a lot of time.

Especially during the time when there were no mounts to help with traveling.

Moreover, faster movement speed would also allow him to be more powerful in attack kiting.

After a little thought.

Lin Tianhao did not rush to use them, but instead retained these free attribute points, waiting to add points based on the battles he might encounter later.

In the following time, let the plot line go on a bit, and he needed to increase his health as much as possible before Wang the blacksmith forged the Gold-grade longbow.

Bring his state to an optimal level.

Not only that, but there was also the Withered Tree Rejuvenation skill.

Lin Tianhao could also obtain more skill books through the following battles.

Players were leaving one after another, and Novice Village 10086 was already a bit deserted.

Subsequent players would come in to fill the vacancies in the novice village, but Novice Village 10086 was very awkward.

Most of the new players who filled the vacancies were from the earlier novice villages.

Therefore, even at the level 10 Twisted Jungle dungeon here, Lin Tianhao only saw two or three scattered teams.

"Brothers, want to team up? We have a super-strong shield warrior here with an Elite-grade Treant Set, we can definitely clear the dungeon."
