Chapter 281 - Dragon-killing and beheading plan!

“Before coming, I thought I might have to waste some words, but I didn't expect you to believe it so easily.”

The Old Leader looked slightly surprised, took the initiative to pour Lin Tianhao a cup of tea, and continued: "The country is preparing to deal with this great cataclysm, and there are currently some relatively powerful players emerging, but compared to you, they are not on the same level."

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment, "Old Leader, are you trying to recruit me?"

“Initially, that's what I thought, but I think someone like you probably doesn't like being constrained.”

The Old Leader smiled and said, "So, I want to establish a long-term cooperative relationship with you. If you have any good things you can't use, or know any strategies, you can give them to us."

“And if you need anything, you can also let us help you find it. Although none of our players can compare to you, we have more people.”

Lin Tianhao was indeed surprised.

He thought that the Old Leader came to see him in person to recruit him.

At this point.

The Old Leader took out two Divine Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls and placed them in front of Lin Tianhao.

“Knowing that the Snow Emperor is looking for this thing, it's a small token of our appreciation and the beginning of our cooperation.”

Divine Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll!

This thing is not easy to get, and its preciousness cannot be described in words.

“Since you are so sincere, let's add each other as friends. I'll send you something. By the way, are you a territory lord?”

“No, what's wrong?”

“Then it won't work, your backpack can't hold it. I'll give it to Blade Warrior instead.”

The Old Leader was a little surprised. He didn't know what Lin Tianhao wanted to give, but he actually said that his backpack couldn't hold it.

“But even so, we can still add each other as friends, so it's easier to contact each other in the future if anything happens.”

“Okay.”

Lin Tianhao added the Old Leader. His ID was very simple, just Old Leader!

After adding the Old Leader, Lin Tianhao sent 300,000 pieces of equipment to Blade Warrior.

Basically, they were all obtained from the Land of Chaos, and he gave all the ones he couldn't use to Berserker Blade.

As for skill books, Lin Tianhao didn't give them. Sea beast skill books are useless to many players.

After all, most players' main battlefields are not in the ocean.

“What did Snow Emperor give you?”

The Old Leader didn't ask Berserker Blade, but directly asked Lin Tianhao.

“300,000 pieces of Black Iron grade and above equipment.”

Old Leader: “? ? ?”

Even with the Old Leader's composure, he couldn't help but stare blankly at this moment.

In fact, even if Lin Tianhao took out 300,000 pieces of equipment, he wouldn't be too surprised.

But what Lin Tianhao said was that he took out 300,000 pieces of Black Iron grade and above equipment, which was incredible.

Ordinary players.

It's good to have one or two pieces of Black Iron grade equipment on them. Lin Tianhao took out so many at once.

The key is that it starts at Black Iron grade, and there must be a lot of Bronze grade and even Silver grade equipment.

“Thank you, Snow Emperor. If you need anything, you can make a list.”

“Super God-level Talent Awakening Stone, Equipment Evolution Scroll, Talent Evolution Flower, and clues to the Land of Divine Sealing.”

Lin Tianhao briefly mentioned what he needed most at the moment.

The most needed is naturally the Super God-level Talent Awakening Stone, which can enhance himself.

Although Poseidon, the God of the Sea, said that the Vast Continent does not have Super God-level Talent Awakening Stones.

But Lin Tianhao felt that there were no absolutes in the world.

The country has tens of millions of soldiers, and maybe someone will be lucky enough to encounter this kind of thing.

Secondly, the clues to the Land of Divine Sealing are also very important.

There are only two gods on the God Conferring List, which is not enough, far from enough!

Originally, Lin Tianhao was thinking of going to find the Silver-Eyed Octopus after he had dealt with the matters at hand.

The god in the Cthulhu myth is still a space-type god.

According to the God of the Undead, the Silver-Eyed Octopus is an existence that can compete with him.

“By the way, does Snow Emperor know about the Henry Group's bounty on you?” the Old Leader asked.

Lin Tianhao nodded: “I know.”

“Shadow Assassin and Xiao Nie have already been eliminated.”

Lin Tianhao wasn't too surprised, and Shadow Assassin's actions were obviously meaningful.

After all, Shadow Assassin had offended him before, although Lin Tianhao didn't care much.

But the government still let him go to the Henry Group in person, and the purpose was self-evident.

“Then thank you.”

“The Henry Group is a tumor in itself, so it's good to destroy it.”

The Old Leader still had a kind smile on his face.

“But the Henry Group is backed by the United States. I got news that the United States is preparing to take action against you.”

“They have united with eight other countries and launched a Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan, preparing to target our Dragon Country's top players in the game, preparing to weaken our Dragon Country's combat power.”

“And Snow Emperor, you are their first target.”

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said, “It's okay, I can't wait for them to take action.”

“Snow Emperor, I know you are very strong, but you still need to be careful.”

“In addition, if you are willing, you can move into the Heavenly Book Pavilion. There, if nothing happens to me, nothing will happen to you.”

Lin Tianhao was even more surprised.

The Old Leader's attention to him was higher than he imagined.

It can only show that the Old Leader's vision is unique and far-sighted enough.

"I will consider it."

Lin Tianhao nodded. Staying in the rental house all the time may indeed be dangerous.

Even if it's not being wanted by some Henry Group, accidents may happen, but the probability is very low.

It's just that Lin Tianhao has seen too many twisted human hearts in his previous life. He trusts the Old Leader, but it doesn't mean he trusts everyone in the Dragon Country's high-level.

Now that reality and the game have not yet merged, his main body has no power bonus, and he still needs to be careful.

"Okay, this conversation was very pleasant. I hope we can have more cooperation in the future. I will also ask my people to pay attention to the things you said."

The Old Leader stood up, smiled at Lin Tianhao, and then went offline on the spot.

It can be seen.

This No. 1 Elegant Room was booked by the Old Leader.

You can go offline here, and you can also handle some online matters here, which is convenient.

Lin Tianhao took the words of the Old Leader to heart.

Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan.

In the previous life, it only started to be implemented half a year after the game started.

But now it's only been two months since the game started, and it's already starting to be implemented.

The reason is not difficult to imagine.

The United States and several other countries can't sit still.

Lin Tianhao's growth rate is too fast.

"Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan, huh? I couldn't do anything in my previous life. This time, let you feel the fear of being dominated by absolute power!"

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes, and then he took out the Book of Life and Death and rewrote the name of another person from the Unrivaled Guild.....

Chapter 282 - Chatty Little Sword!

Killing everyone in the Hegemony Guild at least ten times was something Lin Tianhao had promised Kos Moyo.

Although this matter didn't exist in the form of a task, Lin Tianhao would still do what he had promised.

After rewriting the name.

Lin Tianhao rubbed his hands and began to check the two Divine Blessing pre-quest scrolls that Chief had given him.

"The Mountain and Sea Empire of the ancient Eastern Kingdom has been revived, and the battle between East and West has begun again. As a person of the East, you must not disgrace the prestige of the East."

"Task Requirement: Within one month, enter the top ten on the Comprehensive Combat Power Ranking and the Arena Ranking. Regardless of whether you accept it or not, this time limit will be calculated from the date of the announcement of the Combat Power Ranking and the Arena Ranking."

"Task Punishment: Unknown."

"Task Reward: Divine Blessing +1, Saint-grade Talent Awakening Stone +1."

The Combat Power Ranking doesn't require fighting to get on the list. It is a ranking that the Twilight of the Gods itself makes based on comprehensive factors such as the player's level, talent, equipment, past battle records, and combat skills.

Those who can be on the list may not be high in level, but their combat power is definitely terrifying.

As for the Arena Ranking, it's a bit like the ranked matches of past online games. Entering the arena will randomly match you with opponents, and the higher the ranking, the stronger the opponents you match with.

Every month, players in the top 10,000 of the Arena Ranking will be rewarded, and the higher the ranking, the more rewards.

In addition to individual arena, there is also team arena. As long as you can be among the best, you can get good rewards.

In addition.

Every year and every quarter, there will be arena competitions, and rewards can be obtained for winning places.

Initially, this Arena Ranking was just to increase the enthusiasm of players.

However, once, Sakura Country players provoked the Dragon Country players and defeated them in the arena, and also recorded videos for various taunts.

This made the arena evolve into the initial battlefield for the conflict between East and West.

In this life, he only changed the game trajectory of many players in the Dragon Country region, and the changes of players in other regions should not be great.

After all, in the second-rank region, there is no way to conduct profit transactions with each other, and the probability of producing a butterfly effect on players in other regions is very low.

To be honest, this Divine Blessing pre-quest scroll is like a freebie for Lin Tianhao.

The tasks inside can really be completed with your eyes closed.

The Arena Ranking and Combat Power Ranking were opened three months after the game started in the previous life. There is still about a month, so there is no rush.

Lin Tianhao picked up the second Divine Blessing pre-quest scroll again.

"Although the ancient Eastern Kingdom has been revived, those Western parasites are still there, especially the people from the former Vast Sea Kingdom and the Netherworld Land, who seem to be plotting something."

"Task Requirement: Destroy the conspiracy of the Western remnants of the Vast Sea Kingdom and the Netherworld Land. If they capture any town in the Mountain and Sea Empire, the task will be considered a failure."

"Task Punishment: None."

"Task Reward: Divine Blessing, Sixth-Rank Official Title of the Mountain and Sea Empire."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly.

He did ignore this problem.

However.

Is this task difficult?

It doesn't seem to be.

Not to mention a city, even the guarding power of a town should not be weaker than a main city of the former Vast Sea Kingdom.

However, since this task is issued in the form of a Divine Blessing pre-quest scroll.

That means the Vast Sea Kingdom and the Netherworld Land still have some foundation.

Especially.

The former Demon Cave of the Vast Sea Kingdom had a Great Leader and a Second Leader, but the one who always rushed to the front was the Third Leader.

The other two never showed up.

Moreover.

The Third Leader of the Vast Sea Kingdom is from the Boundless Void Palace. Is he out for training, or does the Demon Cave itself have some secrets?

Their Great Leader and Second Leader are even more powerful.

As for the Netherworld Land.

Lin Tianhao didn't know much about it.

But it was also a second-rank place before. Even if it's strong, it shouldn't be strong to any extent.

After coming out of Chunfeng Teahouse, Lin Tianhao's pop-up message came.

The message was sent by a friend he had added before, Little Sword.

A female swordsman with a God-level talent.

She is petite and flexible, and her combat skills are good, but it is said that her combat skills were very poor at the beginning.

It was the dual baptism of the game and the great cataclysm that gradually improved her combat skills.

"Wow wow wow wow wow, Emperor Xue, it's really you! A super big shot like Emperor Xue would actually add a little newbie."

"Big shot, do you know that after seeing you add me as a friend, I looked at it carefully no less than ten times and slapped myself twice. I almost thought I was hallucinating."

"Stop."

Lin Tianhao looked at the prompt that Little Sword was typing on the chat box and immediately sent a message.

But the message had already been sent.

"Big shot, do you know that you are my idol? I like you so much. One person and one bow break a city. This is better than Ximen Chuixue, okay?"

"Okay, okay, Little won't say it anymore, you say it, big shot."

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead.

Sure enough.

Rumors are not necessarily true, but they are somewhat based on facts.

This Little Sword is really a chatterbox.

"I have established a territory, do you want to join?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Little Sword was overwhelmed with favor and sent a series of stunned emoticons.

"I... can I really do it, this little noob?"

"To be honest, I did a task and was rewarded with a random exploration function. I explored and found that you are a peerless genius, one in a million. I wonder if you are willing to join my territory."

"Willing, willing, willing, super willing."

"Emperor Xue, is Little really a peerless genius, one in a million? I knew it, I will definitely rise."

"And then, one person and one sword, kill all the injustices in the world, open the gate of heaven and kill the immortals."

Lin Tianhao: "..."

"Then you report to Fan Palace tomorrow."

"Okay, okay, can I come over now? I feel so excited, I'm afraid I won't be able to sleep at night. It's getting dark anyway, and it's not suitable for fighting monsters at night."

"It's really a very, very rare material."

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath and silently replied, "Okay, I'll wait for you in Fan Palace."

Then... Little Sword sent a series of messages again, expressing her extreme joy and gratitude to Lin Tianhao.

Chapter 283 - Find the water like smoke!

Ending the chat.

Lin Tianhao walked towards the palace.

He wanted to talk to the emperor of the Shanhai Empire about something.

Actually, after the Han Hai Kingdom was destroyed, Lin Tianhao wanted to do this, but he never had the qualifications to do so.

Arriving at the palace gate, there were more than a dozen guards standing in two rows.

Just as Lin Tianhao arrived, a petite woman wearing a black hat walked out of the palace gate.

She stopped abruptly in front of Lin Tianhao, staring at Lin Tianhao through her veil.

Lin Tianhao also noticed her, "Player?"

Although hidden under the hat, Lin Tianhao could still tell that this woman was not an NPC.

The Shanhai Empire had only been revived for such a short time, and there were already players who could enter the palace.

This player had an extraordinary opportunity.

The petite woman seemed to know that staring at someone like this was not good, so she withdrew her gaze and left quickly.

Lin Tianhao looked back at the petite woman's back, and for some reason, he always felt that this woman was strange.

"Just a level one little girl."

The voice of the God of the Undead sounded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment, "She is also an adventurer like me, but, is she only level one?"

Level one, how is she qualified to enter the palace of the Shanhai Empire.

"Indeed, she is level one."

The voice of the Sea God Poseidon also came, "She should have had some opportunity to recognize a big shot in the court as her godfather, which is why she has the qualifications to enter and leave the palace."

"What are you doing?!"

Just as the Sea God Poseidon's voice fell, a guard walked over fiercely.

"The palace is a forbidden area, idlers are not allowed to enter."

Lin Tianhao directly took out the Palace Master Token.

When the guard who had just scolded Lin Tianhao saw the token in Lin Tianhao's hand, he shivered in fright, and the spear in his hand fell to the ground.

He hurriedly knelt down towards Lin Tianhao.

"Greetings, Palace Master!"

When the other guards saw this, they all knelt down and respectfully said to Lin Tianhao: "Greetings, Palace Master."

.....

Icefire Los Island!

After Los Jingkong came back, he angrily overturned the table.

"How could this be?!"

"What virtue or ability does Fan Dian have to actually allow a god to be their palace master."

Just at this time.

The demigod Chihua walked over unhurriedly.

"What are you doing here? You wanted to push me out to take the blame before!!"

Los Jingkong did not have a good look on her face towards the demigod Chihua.

After all, she was almost killed by the demigod Chihua.

"I'm here, of course, to discuss with you how to deal with Fan Dian."

Hearing this.

Los Jingkong said unhappily: "Deal with Fan Dian? Are you crazy, or am I crazy?"

"That is Fan Dian, where a god is sitting, this time our Icefire Los Island lost eight Divine-grade Talent Awakening Stones to escape."

The demigod Chihua chuckled, "Don't be so impatient, think about it carefully, is that kid really a god?"

Los Jingkong frowned, "Although my strength is lower than yours, that divine power is genuine."

"Otherwise, do you think my Divine-grade Talent Awakening Stones came from the wind?"

The demigod Chihua walked to Los Jingkong's side, "The divine power on him is indeed real, but who stipulates that one must have a god to possess divine power."

"Divine artifact? Or the remnant soul of a god?"

Los Jingkong reacted quickly, "You mean, that kid is possessed by the remnant soul of a god?"

The demigod Chihua shook her head, "I think it's more likely to be a divine artifact."

"After the Palace Master of Fan Dian killed the Ice Goddess, the Ice Goddess's natal divine artifact disappeared."

"You mean..."

Los Jingkong's breathing became a little rapid, "No wonder that kid only wanted a little Divine-grade Talent Awakening Stone."

"With the greed of a god, it is entirely possible to drain all the treasures from us, and may even not let us leave."

"I initially thought that I had met a relatively kind god, but listening to you say this, it does seem to be a problem."

Speaking of this.

Los Jingkong changed the topic.

"But even so, what can we do? These are just your unilateral guesses, what if the new Palace Master of Fan Dian is really a god."

"Even if it's just a being possessed by a god, it's not something we can provoke."

The demigod Chihua chuckled, "Do you really want to spend your whole life on this island?"

"Replacing Fan Dian and taking charge of the Shanhai Empire is more carefree and comfortable than being on this island."

"Moreover, if you can obtain the Ice Goddess's divine artifact, how much will it help you improve your Ice Law, I don't need to tell you, right."

.....

Shanghai Empire, Imperial Palace.

After Lin Tianhao entered the palace, he asked the Sea God Poseidon to use his divine sense to explore and take him to see the emperor of the Shanghai Empire.

Imperial Study Room.

Lin Tianhao came all the way here, with the Fan Dian Palace Master Token, he can be said to have come here unimpeded.

Just.

Before entering the Imperial Study Room, Lin Tianhao saw a figure he had been dreaming about for a long time.

"Shui Ruhuan!!"

Lin Tianhao was a little itchy with anger, if he hadn't come to the emperor this time, it is estimated that he would not be able to find Shui Ruhuan for who knows how long.

Shui Ruhuan saw Lin Tianhao and walked straight over.

"You inherited the mantle of the Palace Master of Fan Dian?"

Lin Tianhao did not answer, "What about the Super God-level Hidden Profession you promised me?"

"Afraid I'll run away? Don't worry, I've kept it for you."

Shui Ruhuan raised her hand, and a token appeared in her hand.

"Heaven's Punishment Archer Job Change Order, it's yours, as for whether you can successfully change jobs, that's your business."

Lin Tianhao took the token and immediately checked it.

Heaven's Punishment Archer Job Change Order: Super God-level.

Usage Requirements: Archer who has not changed to a Hidden Profession.

Effect: Holding this token to enter the Super God-level Job Change Altar, change to the Super God-level Hidden Profession Heaven's Punishment Archer.

Abrasion Resistance: Indestructible.

Lin Tianhao frowned, "Where is the Super God-level Job Change Altar?"

"Divine Realm."

"Divine Realm????"

Lin Tianhao almost had the urge to curse, this is because he can't see him well.

He is still hundreds of thousands of miles away from becoming a god.

"No, you are not a god, how did you change jobs?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"Me? I am a Chosen One, chosen by Heaven, and directly obtained this Hidden Profession. Later comers who want to obtain it can only change jobs step by step."

Speaking of this.

Shui Ruhuan continued: "But you are so strong, it doesn't matter if you change jobs or not."

"Who would mind becoming stronger?"

"Okay, besides the Divine Realm, some Secret Realms with higher levels may also have Super God-level Job Change Altars, whether you can find them depends on your luck."

Shui Ruhuan had an indifferent attitude, "You haven't answered my question just now, did you inherit the mantle of the Palace Master of Fan Dian?"

Chapter 284 - The secret book of the true meaning of archery!

"Not bad, but can I ask you a question?" Lin Tianhao asked mysteriously.

"What question?"

"What's your attack speed?" Lin Tianhao asked.

He hadn't used the Red Thread of Cupid's Blessing yet.

He was a little disappointed.

Poseidon's attack speed at his peak was only a little over a hundred.

To be honest.

Lin Tianhao was somewhat pessimistic about it.

Unless one day he could send a fierce female archer god onto the list.

Otherwise, it would be better to bind Shui Ruyan.

"My attack speed? 2.1."

Lin Tianhao: ???

"What's with that look? It's as if I'm lying to you."

Shui Ruyan said unhappily.

"How could that be? You are a transcendent hidden class."

Shui Ruyan spread her hands, "It's because of this damned transcendent hidden class, you'll understand once you change classes."

"Alright, let's talk business. Since you are the Lord of the Mortal Palace, can you get the Mountain Sea Empire to send troops to attack the Moon Wheel Empire?"

"What do you want to do?"

Lin Tianhao was a little numb. It seemed that Shui Ruyan had already been turned down by the emperor.

But anyone could guess that this was unrealistic.

The Mountain Sea Empire had only just recovered, and the foundations of the Mortal Palace were not as good as before.

Under these circumstances, how could they actively send troops to the Moon Wheel Empire?

"If the Moon Wheel Empire is destroyed, the Mountain Sea Empire can continue to recover. What you see now is just a drop in the ocean."

"A long, long time ago, the entire Vast Continent was the territory of the Mountain Sea Empire, but due to various reasons, it became like this."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao vaguely guessed, "You have relatives who are also from the Mountain Sea Empire, and only by taking down the Moon Wheel Empire and reviving the Mountain Sea Empire can your relatives be revived."

"Smart."

"I can help you, but what can I get?" Lin Tianhao asked with interest.

"Your bullet speed should be very slow now, right? I have a true meaning of archery here. After comprehending it, you can increase the flying speed of your feather arrows. Comprehending it to perfection can increase the flying speed by 30%."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. This was indeed something he needed.

As for attacking the Moon Wheel Empire, it seemed a little too early.

"Give me the thing first, and I promise to attack the Moon Wheel Empire within a year, how about that?"

Lin Tianhao didn't want to waste manpower and resources. The Mountain Sea Empire was his territory, and it would not be wise to consume the country's strength to start a war with another great power just after its recovery.

"Okay, I won't bind the task. I believe you."

Shui Ruyan directly handed Lin Tianhao a secret book of true meaning.

Secret Book of the True Meaning of Archery!!

The Dao of the Sword is common, but the Dao of the Arrow is somewhat rare.

"Thanks."

Increasing bullet speed was currently the fastest way for him to increase his combat power.

"Alright, I'll wait for the day you attack the Moon Wheel Empire."

Shui Ruyan bid farewell and left, while Lin Tianhao went straight to the imperial study.

He had come this time specifically to talk to the emperor about opening a money shop.

After the Mountain Sea Empire recovered, his money deposit business stagnated.

He had even gone to the forum to take a look before and found that many people were complaining.

There were also many people spraying him for running away with the money.

Moreover.

Lin Tianhao was able to spend money lavishly in the Land of Chaos before.

This money shop business was a great help.

As the Lord of the Mortal Palace, the emperor listened to Lin Tianhao's words, and immediately ordered preparations to be made to open Lin Tianhao's money shop throughout the country, completing the initial investment and use within seven days.

Open the money shop all over the Mountain Sea Empire within a month.

After doing these things.

Lin Tianhao returned to the Mortal Palace.

He gave the three Divine Talent Awakening Stones to Ouyang Wenlong, and asked him to give one to Xiaoxiaojian later.

In fact, besides Xiaoxiaojian, there was also a female swordswoman.

Lin Tianhao also wanted to win her over, but he didn't know if she had entered the game.

That was Jian Wushuang!

Lin Tianhao had tried to add her before, but found that he couldn't search for her.

Either she had hidden her nickname, or there was no such ID.

Collecting his thoughts.

There was also a trivial matter. After finishing it, he would almost be able to safely do his own things.

"Blade, help me check which altar Duba Xiongxin is at. He should be constantly dying and then resurrecting."

Lin Tianhao had basically killed the people of the Duba Guild more than ten times.

Now, only Blade, whose name he didn't know, was left.

After about three minutes, Kuangzhan Blade's voice came.

"Sunset Town, Mountain Sea Empire."

"Sunset Town?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. He had come into contact with Sunset Town when he was at the former residence of the Drought Demon.

At that time, Lin Tianhao also encountered a swordmaster in Sunset Town whose feather arrows couldn't penetrate. He didn't know if they were still in Sunset Town now.

Sunset Town had only been revived, it wasn't a completely new place.

Although Lin Tianhao couldn't directly use the Kunlun Mirror to get inside Sunset Town, it was no problem to get to the entrance of Sunset Town.

At this time, the sky had completely darkened, Sunset Town was brightly lit, with people coming and going, quite lively.

Walking into Sunset Town, Lin Tianhao saw many players setting up stalls to sell materials, equipment, and skill books.

"Little brother, come and take a look, this level 50 elite quality longbow of mine, the added attack power and attack speed are a perfect match for archers."

"Iron ore with a purity of over 40%, blacksmith brothers, come and take a look, a rare opportunity, first come first served."

"This chain fireball can release three fireballs at once, the stats are very high, now selling at 20% off."

... ..

Behind these vendors, there were blacksmith shops, tailor shops, and so on.

It could be seen that many players were working inside.

With the arrival of night, the efficiency of monster farming became very low, so naturally they could only come to the town to brush up on the progress of their side jobs.

Or, like these people, set up stalls to sell things.

Of course.

Those with good conditions basically went to restaurants and casinos to have fun.

In his previous life, Lin Tianhao was similar to these people.

He worked hard for gold farming tasks, and even when he couldn't fight monsters at night, he seized every second to brush up on the proficiency of his side jobs, in order to seek more opportunities to earn gold coins.

Now, seeing these people again, the bits and pieces of his previous life surfaced in his mind.

The lives of these ordinary players were quite down-to-earth.

Just as Lin Tianhao was thinking about his previous life, he vigilantly noticed the sound of something breaking through the air behind him.

"Kid, you're blocking your grandpa's way!"

Lin Tianhao's movement speed was so fast, he dodged the kick from the person behind him with a sidestep.

The person behind him missed the kick, and couldn't control the momentum, directly doing a one hundred and eighty degree split on the ground.

"What did you just say?"

Lin Tianhao looked at the chubby man with a beard with a smile.

The chubby man with a beard only felt a cold breeze below. He propped himself up a few times, trying to stand up, but ultimately failed.

"What are you two standing there for? Help me up."

The chubby man with a beard scolded the two warriors beside him.

The two warriors immediately supported the chubby man with a beard, preparing to help him up.

But just at this moment.

A foot stepped on the shoulder of the chubby man with a beard, stepping the chubby man with a beard, who had been helped up a bit, down again!

"Pa — —"

"Ah!"

The screams of the chubby man with a beard were mixed with the sound of eggs breaking... ...

Chapter 285 - The mysterious president who dominates the guild!

"If you like doing the splits, then keep doing them."

Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

The bearded fatty gnashed his teeth in anger.

"Move your foot away from me, this is your last chance, otherwise... I will definitely make you quit the game!"

"Pa!"

Lin Tianhao lifted his foot, and then stomped it onto the bearded fatty's big face.

"Is this where you want me to move it?"

The bearded fatty trembled with anger.

"Kid, you're asking for death!"

As soon as he finished speaking.

The bearded fatty's long blade slashed towards Lin Tianhao.

He entered combat mode!

In the town, simple physical contact would not be judged as an attack. Generally, entering combat mode is required to be judged as an attack.

This bearded fatty slashed over with his blade.

“Clang!”

A crisp sound.

His weapon shattered in response.

Because Lin Tianhao used the God-Slaying Whip to block his attack.

The bearded fatty was shocked and shouted at the surroundings:

“Is there no one left in the Black Tiger Guild? Are you just watching me suffer here without helping?”

In Sunset Town, more than a dozen players walked out one after another. They included warriors, archers, and mages.

They immediately surrounded Lin Tianhao in the middle.

“Kid, don’t cause trouble for yourself. Kneel down and apologize to our Vice Guild Leader, and you might still have a good ending.”

“Kneel down?”

Lin Tianhao held the God-Slaying Whip against their Vice Guild Leader’s forehead, “This piece of trash? He deserves me kneeling.”

“Since you insist on seeking death, then don’t blame us.”

One of the archers said in a deep voice, then drew his bow and shot an arrow at Lin Tianhao.

However.

The speed of his arrow was too slow in Lin Tianhao’s eyes. He simply tilted his body slightly to avoid the arrow.

With the Immaculate Eye and Lin Tianhao’s current movement speed, a single arrow like that could not pose a threat to Lin Tianhao at all.

“What are you doing?”

Just at this moment.

A low shout came.

“Fighting is prohibited within Sunset Town.”

The guards of Sunset Town ran over.

The players of the Black Tiger Guild did not dare to take action.

If they didn't stop after being warned, they would be confined for twenty-four hours, or even seventy-two hours in severe cases.

"Sir, he bullied me, you must stand up for me and confine him."

The bearded fatty, who had just been ferocious, was now like a wronged little wife, complaining to the guard.

The guard glanced at Lin Tianhao and scolded: "Fighting is prohibited in Sunset Town. Deal with things outside."

Lin Tianhao did not respond to the guard, but looked at the bearded fatty and asked:

"What's your name?"

The bearded fatty sneered, "What? You want to retaliate?"

"I am Black Tiger Heart-Piercer, Vice Guild Leader of the Black Tiger Guild. Today's matter is not over!"

"Black Tiger Heart-Piercer."

Lin Tianhao silently remembered the name. In his previous life, when he was a corporate slave, he was often bullied by these trash people.

In the game, there were many people who relied on their power and background to act recklessly.

Because there are laws in the real world, even the craziest people will restrain themselves when doing things.

You can kill anyone you don't like.

Black Tiger Heart-Piercer is just a microcosm of that group of people, including the Overlord Guild that Lin Tianhao is currently targeting.

In the game, they release their desires.

This desire is not limited to the Brothel of Peach Blossoms or the Gambling House.

Bullying the weak.

Is also the desire of some people!!

And in his previous life, Lin Tianhao was the weak one who was bullied.

As for the Dream Chaser Guild?

Would the Dream Chaser Guild stand up for a small gold farmer?

Don't dream!

Sometimes, when the Dream Chaser Guild has friction with other guilds, and they need to appease the situation.

Those who come out to take the blame are these gold farmers.

"Go, I'll give you a chance. Call as many people from your Black Tiger Guild as you can, and I'll give you a chance to kill me."

Lin Tianhao originally wanted to directly kill Black Tiger Heart-Piercer.

But thinking about those things in his previous life, he still felt that killing him directly was too easy for him.

At least, he had to wipe out the Black Tiger Guild once.

Lin Tianhao kicked Black Tiger Heart-Piercer to the ground and turned to leave.

“Good, very good, very good.”

Black Tiger Heart-Piercer glared at Lin Tianhao, “Tonight, outside Sunset Town, I will be waiting!”

“If I can’t kill you, my Black Tiger Guild might as well rename itself the Black Cat Guild.”

“Okay, I’ll be there.”

Lin Tianhao responded and came to the resurrection altar in Sunset Town.

At this time, Overlord Ambition was dying and resurrecting, resurrecting and dying, suffering inhuman torture.

Lin Tianhao walked to the resurrection altar and changed Overlord Ambition’s name to the name of the Dark Night Spirit God Moilai.

The stacking of life values is endless, so naturally it cannot be wasted.

Overlord Ambition was not instantly killed this time after resurrecting.

He breathed a slight sigh of relief and was about to leave.

But Lin Tianhao blocked his path.

“Overlord Ambition, right.”

“Who are you?”

Overlord Ambition looked at Lin Tianhao warily.

“The person who is making your Overlord Guild die in turns.” Lin Tianhao replied lightly.

Hearing this.

Overlord Ambition gnashed his teeth in anger.

“Bastard, you’re asking for death!!”

“Are you sure it’s me asking for death?” Lin Tianhao looked at Overlord Ambition with interest.

Overlord Ambition gritted his teeth.

“Snow Emperor, I know it’s you. Our Overlord Guild did block you once before, but is your behavior of making everyone in our Overlord Guild lose more than ten levels a bit too much?”

Before, Dream Chaser Yanxue was able to guess Lin Tianhao’s identity.

It’s not surprising that the people of the Overlord Guild could guess it too.

“It’s not because of what happened before, it’s because your Overlord Guild provoked someone you shouldn’t have provoked.”

“Someone did me a big favor and let me kill your Overlord Guild.”

Cosmo Abyss even forced out the power of Poseidon, the God of the Sea, otherwise it would have been very difficult for him to kill Poseidon, the God of the Sea.

But now it doesn’t matter anymore.

There is still one person in the Overlord Guild that he has not killed.

According to the information provided by Blade, that person should be the Guild Leader of the Overlord Guild, and his combat skills are very strong.

To be precise.

The combat skills of everyone in the entire Overlord Guild are ridiculously fierce.

“You came here because you haven’t killed me yet, right.”

Before Lin Tianhao could ask, a calm voice came.

Then, a person wearing a ghost face mask stepped forward.

“There is divine power fluctuation on that mask.”

He had just appeared.

The voice of Poseidon, the God of the Sea, sounded in Lin Tianhao’s mind.

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. No wonder Berserker Blade couldn't find his ID.

"From the moment you started killing the first person in our Overlord Guild, I guessed it was you."

"At first, I thought you were here to retaliate for blocking you before, but when you killed so many other people in our Overlord Guild, I realized that you might not just be retaliating, but also... doing a mission, right?"

Chapter 286 - You talk so loud, is that all?

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile, "Since you know I'm doing a task, you shouldn't have appeared."

The ghost-faced masked man chuckled, "If I didn't appear, how would I kill you?"

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment, he almost thought he had misheard.

"Are you sure you want to kill me?"

The ghost-faced masked man nodded earnestly, "What? Is your Snow Emperor unkillable?"

"I just want to end your undefeated myth, and let others see that their idol, the man who slaughtered the Star Kingdom, isn't really that strong."

Lin Tianhao nodded with interest, "Of course I can be killed, but I'm curious, who gave you the courage to say these words."

Hearing this.

The ghost-faced masked man chuckled, "It's not who gave me the courage, it's just that you are too arrogant, thinking that you can look down on everything just because you have some ability."

This conversation attracted the attention of many players around.

Accurately speaking, when Dúbà Xióngxīn was endlessly killed, some players were already watching and even recording videos.

"Damn, this masked man is really brave, doesn't he know the weight of the words Snow Emperor?"

"I don't think it's that he doesn't know the weight of the words Snow Emperor, on the contrary, he knows, probably like that Little Bear, just to get attention."

"I don't think so, although the Dúbà Guild often disgusts people, their combat power is beyond doubt."

The surrounding discussions continued, but they did not interrupt the ghost-faced masked man's words.

He walked step by step to the front of Lin Tianhao and said very seriously:

"Snow Emperor, Twilight of the Gods is very, very big, there are many, many players, you are not the only one with a God-level talent, nor are you the only one with great opportunities."

"You are just an ant who relies on awakening a God-level talent first, and thinks you are invincible just because you have a slight advantage."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly.

"Do you want to compare talents with me, or opportunities?"

"Can't we compare both?"

The ghost-faced masked man didn't have the slightest fear, and a shield appeared in front of him.

This shield was completely constructed of thick, black liquid, which looked disgusting.

When the God-Slaying Whip hit this shield, it was as if it had hit a muddy swamp, and the speed of advance was slowed down slightly.

However, it was only a slight delay.

Lin Tianhao's God-Slaying Whip still accurately smashed into the ghost-faced masked man's forehead.

Critical Hit!

- 518507!!

The ghost-faced masked man was instantly killed on the spot, without the slightest ability to fight back, and many people didn't even react.

However, this ghost-faced masked man has more than 500,000 health points at this stage, which is indeed not bad.

"This... was he instantly killed just like that?"

"Damn, didn't this ghost-faced masked man just say something awesome? Why didn't he resist at all?"

"Are you kidding me? I thought I could see a strong man fighting the Snow Emperor, I had prepared my melon seeds, potato chips, and small bench, and you show me this?"

...

The surrounding onlookers were in an uproar.

They were all waiting to see an epic battle.

As a result...

Is that it?

Dúbà Xióngxīn on the side was also dumbfounded.

Others don't understand their guild leader, but he knows very well how fierce their guild leader is.

But such a powerful guild leader.

In front of the Snow Emperor, he didn't resist at all and was killed.

Lin Tianhao walked into the resurrection altar, calculating the time.

The ghost-faced masked man had just been resurrected when he saw the God-Slaying Whip already on his forehead.

"Bang!!"

- 518507!!

Another critical hit, another instant kill!

Dúbà Xióngxīn couldn't sit still, he roared:

"Guards, guards, come here quickly, someone is spawn camping here, arrest him quickly and lock him up for ten days and a half months."

In fact, even without Dúbà Xióngxīn speaking, the commotion here had already alarmed the guards.

Fighting in the town was already a very serious matter.

This spawn camping was even more excessive.

"Stop!"

The guard captain was a level 78 bronze warrior, and he roared at Lin Tianhao when he saw him.

Lin Tianhao raised the token of the Lord of the Mortal Palace.

When the guards saw this, they were all shocked.

They all knelt down in unison.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Get out of the way, don't affect me doing my task."

"Bang!!"

Lin Tianhao struck again with the God-Slaying Whip, and the ghost-faced masked man who had just been resurrected was killed again.

The guards immediately left respectfully.

Dúbà Xióngxīn couldn't sit still, "Can't you see? He's spawn camping, spawn camping, aren't you going to do anything about it?"

The guard captain glanced at Dúbà Xióngxīn coldly and shouted, "Come on, arrest this guy who is disturbing the peace."

Several guards surrounded Dúbà Xióngxīn.

"No, he, he's spawn camping, why are you arresting me?"

The guard captain snorted coldly, "One more word, and you'll be locked up for two months!"

Dúbà Xióngxīn shut up, he could see it.

The Snow Emperor was from Sunset Town, or rather, a nobleman of the Shanhai Empire.

"This Dúbà Xióngxīn has some problems with his brain, it was the Snow Emperor who revived the Shanhai Empire, according to my speculation, at least a third-rank official position."

"Looking down on the Snow Emperor so much, I feel like it's a first-rank."

"This is reviving the Shanhai Empire, I think he'll be directly made a prince, if the Shanhai Empire's emperor has a larger scale, giving the Snow Emperor a prince on par wouldn't be too much."

...

The discussions continued.

The ghost-faced masked man had already been resurrected again.

This time his reaction speed was already very fast, and the pre-motion of the displacement skill had already come out.

As long as 0.2 seconds, he would be able to move out.

Only...

0. 2 seconds?

With Lin Tianhao's attack speed, he could launch more than ten attacks.

So.

The ghost-faced masked man's attempt to use the displacement skill to escape had already failed.

"Ahhh!!"

"Snow Emperor, this hatred is irreconcilable, one day, I will make you regret what you did today!!"

The ghost-faced masked man was trembling with anger.

Since he awakened the God-level talent and obtained that great opportunity, he had never suffered such a big loss.

In broad daylight, being spawn camped!!

What a shame!!

"If you say so, then I originally only planned to kill you ten times, but now if I don't kill you to level one, I'll be sorry for what you just said."

Lin Tianhao grinned, and killed the ghost-faced masked man as soon as he resurrected!

"This, this, this is too cruel, but it looks so cool."

"It seems that the Black Tiger Heart Grab who offended the Snow Emperor at the entrance of Sunset Town is already gathering people, I wonder what he will think when he sees this scene."

Chapter 287 - Xiao Xiaojian's talent: infinite sword distance!

"Hehe, I don't think it's interesting to watch the excitement here. It seems that hundreds of players from the Black Tiger Guild have gathered outside Sunset Town."

"Hundreds? What's so interesting about that? Probably just ten seconds."

"I think six seconds is enough. It seems that Snow Emperor has a skill that can jump out of lightning."

.....

"95."

"96."

"97."

.....

Lin Tianhao counted the number of times he killed the ghost-faced mask man.

"One hundred, done!"

Lin Tianhao forcibly killed the ghost-faced mask man a hundred times.

"Buddy, let me give you a reminder, it's okay to show off, but you have to see the situation clearly. I really planned to kill you ten times, but you had to say harsh words. Who can you blame for this?"

Lin Tianhao put on a look that he was not wrong, it was all your fault.

The ghost-faced mask man's face was gloomy like a pool of stagnant water, and the way he looked at Lin Tianhao was like a hungry wolf about to eat someone.

He opened his mouth, wanting to say some more harsh words.

However, his eyes fell on the guard captain nearby, and in the end, he didn't say it.

It's just spawn camping.

Even if he killed him a hundred more times, he wouldn't be afraid.

What he was afraid of was being caught by the guards and locked up for ten days or half a month, which would have a very big impact on his game progress.

"You have a god-level talent, it's related to the Dominate Guild, and your combat skills are also strong..."

A name appeared in Lin Tianhao's mind. After all, there were very few people with god-level talents in the Twilight of the Gods, only a few.

After a little thought, Lin Tianhao had already guessed something.

Of course.

Not necessarily accurate.

He took out the Book of Life and Death and rewrote the name Lord of the Night on the Book of Life and Death.

Then...

The ghost-faced mask man in front of him was fine.

"It's not you."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. His judgment was actually wrong.

In the depths of the Netherworld, a warrior holding dual blades finally cut down the level 100 bronze boss in front of him and was about to step forward to loot the corpse.

Then...

-300021!!

A huge damage number popped up above his head, and he, with a health value of over 300,000, was instantly killed.

The Lord of the Night was furious. Were bosses so easy to farm?

Wasn't this deliberately messing with his mentality?!

Just.

The method of instantly killing him still made him a little frightened.

His current health value of over 300,000, although not comparable to those lucky dogs, still exceeded most players.

But who was so perverted that he was instantly killed without even seeing anyone?

After Lin Tianhao discovered that the person in front of him was not the Lord of the Night, he smiled awkwardly and changed the name back to Dark Night Spirit God Moi Lai.

After doing all this.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Leave, don't go looking for trouble with others casually. Some people are really not someone you can provoke."

The people the Dominate Guild offended were not simple. Although Lin Tianhao didn't know the specific identity, the fact that the Mazu Goddess and several other gods were fighting over it was telling.

Walking all the way to the gate of Sunset Town.

Lin Tianhao found that many players had gathered here. When they saw Lin Tianhao coming, they immediately made way for him.

"I guess five seconds."

"You're underestimating the Black Tiger Guild a bit. I think six seconds is still needed."

"More than two hundred people from the Black Tiger Guild have come. Six seconds? I think at least eight seconds."

"Shh, keep your voice down, don't let the people from the Black Tiger Guild hear you. If they run away, we won't have a good show to watch."

.....

These people were all talking at once.

Lin Tianhao roughly understood.

They seemed to be saying that he could solve these people from the Black Tiger Guild in a few seconds.

More than two hundred people? Need five seconds?

Walking out of Sunset Town.

Black Tiger Heart-Piercer stood there swaggering. Next to him was a fat man with a beard similar to his.

"Boy, is it you who bullied my brother?"

The fat man with the beard asked arrogantly.

"It's me."

"Kneel down, kowtow and apologize to my brother, and then let my brother kill you ten times, and I'll consider letting you go."

"Is it killing you ten times?"

Hearing this.

The fat man with the beard narrowed his eyes slightly, "Your mouth is quite tough, but it doesn't matter. Now that we're here, you shouldn't even think about leaving the city today."

As soon as he finished speaking.

The fat man with the beard waved his hand, and more than a dozen archers behind him immediately attacked Lin Tianhao.

Feather arrows pierced through the air.

Lin Tianhao also raised his hand and shot arrows, intercepting all the feather arrows that were shot at him with his feather arrows.

"Only more than two hundred people came? What a pity, I wanted to kill a few more and teach you a lesson."

Lin Tianhao shook his head with some disappointment, and then raised his hand and shot arrows without hesitation.

He didn't even use Five Arrows Fired Simultaneously.

Because these people were not worthy at all.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!!

Even without Five Arrows Fired Simultaneously.

Lin Tianhao still shot ninety-three arrows in one second, plus Lightning Leap, he didn't even need a second.

More than two hundred people from the Black Tiger Guild were completely annihilated in less than a second.

Silence!!

Pin drop silence!

The onlookers were all stunned.

They were still guessing what five seconds, six seconds just now.

But seeing this scene, they realized.

They were wrong.

They had all underestimated Lin Tianhao's output ability.

"These equipment are useless to me, you can take them as you please."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and didn't pick up the equipment dropped by these people from the Black Tiger Guild.

Because there was no need.

There were only two pieces of bronze equipment, and the rest were below bronze, and most of them were elite and ordinary equipment.

Such equipment.

To be honest, Lin Tianhao felt that picking them up was a waste of his time.

Returning to the Mortal Hall.

At this time, Little Sword had already arrived here. She was chasing Ouyang Wenlong and asking questions like a chatterbox.

Ouyang Wenlong was already a little unbearable from being asked.

If Little Sword wasn't someone Lin Tianhao had instructed him to take care of, and Little Sword had awakened a god-level talent, he would have really lost his temper.

After Lin Tianhao came back.

Ouyang Wenlong ran back as if he had found a savior.

"Hall Master, you're finally back. Little Sword is gifted and is a rare genius among millions of people. This subordinate still has things to do, so I'll leave first."

After sending Little Sword to Lin Tianhao, Ouyang Wenlong ran away in a puff of smoke.

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead. Before Little Sword could open her mouth, he preemptively said, "Show me your talent."

"Okay, okay."

Little Sword sent her talent panel to Lin Tianhao.

Infinite Sword Range: God-level.

Effect 1: Every time you kill a monster that is not lower than your own level, you can permanently increase one point of attack power.

Effect 2: Every time you kill a boss that is not lower than your own level, your attack distance is permanently increased by 0.01.

Proficiency: Cannot be starred.

God-level talents all permanently stack attributes.

Little Sword's permanent increase in attack power and attack distance is still very powerful.

Her attack is not limited to normal attacks, which means that her skills can also be released from a long distance.

Chapter 288 - The rights of the Lord of the Holy Land: issue tasks!

“Snow Emperor, how is it? My talent seems pretty average. It's supposed to be a god-tier talent, but I don't feel anything amazing.”

“Snow Emperor, is this Mortal Hall really a sacred ground? Why are there so few people here?”

... ..

Lin Tianhao said somewhat weakly, “Little Sword, your talent is very strong. Why don't you go level up by killing monsters to stack attack power and attack range first?”

Little Sword looked a little dejected, “Snow Emperor, do you also think Little Sword is a chatterbox?”

Lin Tianhao: “I didn't say that.”

“Then can you team up with me to kill monsters? You can have all the experience points, and all the items that drop. It's really boring to level up alone without anyone to talk to.”

“Before, there were people who were willing to team up with me, but now they run away as soon as they hear my name. I'm clearly so cute.”

Lin Tianhao: “...”

Indeed, very cute.

It's just a pity she has a mouth.

Lin Tianhao hesitated, feeling like saying such things would be impolite.

“Little Sword, I still have my own tasks to do, I'll go first.”

Lin Tianhao used the Kunlun Mirror, took a step, and disappeared.

Little Sword looked at the place where Lin Tianhao disappeared, and pouted helplessly.

“Little Sword just likes to talk, what's wrong with Little Sword...”

Lin Tianhao didn't care about Little Sword anymore, the chatter was really a headache.

Perhaps it was because night was falling, One Arrow Breaks the Sky and I'm Really a Melee Mage finally accepted Lin Tianhao's friend request.

Lin Tianhao briefly communicated with them, stating his intentions.

Compared to Little Sword, One Arrow Breaks the Sky and I'm Really a Melee Mage were both quite normal.

Not particularly excited.

But when Lin Tianhao said he would give them God-tier Talent Awakening Stones and let them join the sacred ground.

Both of them were no longer calm.

They agreed without hesitation and prepared to come to Mortal Hall immediately.

Lin Tianhao had already given the God-tier Talent Awakening Stones to Ouyang Wenlong, so he let Ouyang Wenlong handle this matter.

He still had his own things to do.

For example.

Comprehending the True Meaning of Archery.

If it weren't for the True Meaning of Archery, Lin Tianhao would probably have gone to find the Silver-Eyed Octopus already.

Now that he had the True Meaning of Archery, Lin Tianhao planned to comprehend it first.

With the Book of Life and Death stacking health points, Lin Tianhao wasn't worried.

After all, what he lacked now wasn't damage, but effective damage.

He was now at full power, dealing over two billion damage per second, who could stop him?

However, the flying speed of his arrows was too slow, making them easy to block or dodge.

Therefore.

Increasing bullet speed was very important.

Raising the True Meaning of Archery to Great Perfection would increase his bullet speed by thirty percent, which was a relatively large increase.

After pondering for a while.

Lin Tianhao still sent messages to Berserker Blades and Fatty, asking them to pay attention to the movements of the Underworld and the original Han Hai Kingdom people.

After all, he still had a Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll related to this.

After explaining these trivial matters, Lin Tianhao began to retreat and comprehend the Dao.

With the blessing of the Creation Jade Disc.

Lin Tianhao comprehended the Dao very quickly.

In the blink of an eye.

Sixteen days passed.

Under Lin Tianhao's continuous comprehension, he finally raised his True Meaning of Archery to Great Perfection.

“Whoosh!!”

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and fired an arrow, the arrow streaked across the sky and pierced through a pillar in front of him in the blink of an eye.

“So fast.”

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up, the flying speed of his arrows had obviously increased a lot, and with his attack speed and damage, his combat power had increased by more than a little.

“Silver-Eyed Octopus, are you ready to accept the baptism of my arrows?”

Lin Tianhao smiled and prepared to leave.

But as soon as he took out the Kunlun Mirror, Ouyang Wenlong ran over quickly.

“Hall Master, the other sacred grounds have all started recruiting disciples, but we haven't made any moves yet...”

“Didn't I recruit a few?”

Ouyang Wenlong grinned, “Hall Master, you have keen eyes, the people you recruited are all exceptionally talented, but how can a sacred ground only recruit a few people?”

Lin Tianhao pondered for a while, “Then you are responsible for recruiting, I still have things to do.”

“By the way, talent is very important for recruiting, but character is even more important.”

Ouyang Wenlong nodded repeatedly, "Hall Master, although you are an adventurer, you get benefits every month as our Hall Master."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up, the previous Hall Master of Mortal Hall gave so much that he hadn't even thought about this issue.

"Also, Holy Master, there is another function you haven't used."

"What function?"

"You are the master of the sacred ground, of course you can issue tasks to other adventurers."

"You can check the specifics using the Hall Master's Token."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, in the past, NPCs issued tasks, he never thought that he could actually issue tasks himself.

"Hall Master, put your mind into the Hall Master's Token, and you will naturally be able to see it."

Lin Tianhao nodded, he took out the token and immersed his mind in it.

An attribute panel appeared.

"Respected Holy Master, welcome to check the task space."

Name: Snow Emperor.

Sacred Ground in charge: Mortal Hall.

Tasks that can be issued this month: 10000.

Tasks issued this month: 0.

Personal rewards: None.

Rewards available for issuing tasks this month:

Free attribute points: 1000000 points

Equipment of all grades: 10000 pieces (click to view details).

Skill books of all grades: 10000 copies (click to view details).

Pet eggs of all grades: 100 (click to view details).

... ..

Lin Tianhao looked down, and his whole body was a little numb.

“Can I take out all these things?”

Lin Tianhao was a little excited.

Because he saw a lot of good things in it.

Equipment, skills, pet eggs, none of the grades were lower than gold.

If he could get all these things, wouldn't that be great?

“No, the Holy Master can only issue tasks, set rewards, and after the adventurer completes the task, the Holy Master can get a 10% reward commission.”

Lin Tianhao suddenly had a bold idea, could he set a task that gives him a copper coin and rewards one million free attribute points?

“Friendly reminder, the task difficulty is linked to the reward, if the task difficulty is too low, the reward will not be issued.”

Lin Tianhao curled his lips, it seemed that it was impossible to exploit this bug.

“Can I issue any task I want?”

The prompt sound rang again.

“You can, but the reward must be linked to the difficulty of the task.”

Chapter 289 - Godfather, please accept my greeting!

Giving himself tasks and rewards, a million free attribute points, if all given to Monkey in the form of tasks, to what extent would Monkey grow?

His health might even surpass mine.

But how should I set the difficulty of these tasks?

Lin Tianhao glanced at the weapons, equipment, skill books, pet eggs, and mounts.

Even for Monkey and Fatty, obtaining them would be extremely difficult, because the lowest difficulty match for these items is Fourth Transition.

According to Lin Tianhao's calculations, for Monkey and Fatty to obtain these rewards, they would have to kill a Fourth Transition Gold-rank target at the very least.

It's not that there's no chance, but the chances are slim.

Although Monkey's overall attributes are good, frankly, over a million health points are still somewhat insufficient in front of a Fourth Transition Gold-rank boss.

As for Fatty.

Fatty's talent only grants him health and dual resistances.

Relying on Lin Tianhao, Fatty's health is very high.

In addition to Goudao Wangu and Monkey, his armor and magic resistance are also not low.

However.

Having only health and dual resistances, what's the difference between him and a wooden stake?

Fatty is suitable for dungeons, because most wilderness dungeon monsters have relatively fixed movement distances and usually don't leave that range.

"That's right."

"Dungeons."

Lin Tianhao felt like he had opened a new world.

"Monkey, Fatty, good news for you two."

Lin Tianhao smiled and made a video call to Monkey.

At this moment...

Monkey was getting a massage, and one could see a lady in ancient costume skillfully pressing on his body.

"Comfortable."

"Godfather, do you want to come? It's at the former Dragon Capital Imperial City, my treat."

Lin Tianhao held his forehead.

"That's just your nature."

Monkey felt somewhat wronged, "No, Godfather, I've been fighting monsters all day, and I really can't take it anymore. It's good to relax with a massage."

"The monsters are hard to see after dark, so I can't grind."

"Location, I'll be right there."

Lin Tianhao said.

"Brother Hao, we truly are brothers, with the same preferences."

Lin Tianhao: ...

Seeing the location Monkey sent, Lin Tianhao took a step and disappeared.

When he reappeared, Lin Tianhao had already arrived at the entrance of a place called Jade Field Bathhouse.

Lin Tianhao walked in and successfully saw Fatty and Monkey getting massages.

"You two are quite carefree."

Monkey smiled helplessly, "There's no way, Godfather. We can't help with the tasks you do, and that Glasses guy goes into a tomb for ten days to half a month."

"Wrong."

"This time, he hasn't come out for half a month. Without offline contact, I'd suspect he's not even in the game."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Let's talk business. I'm giving you two a task."

"Giving us a task?"

"Brother Hao, you can issue tasks now? Are you taking the jobs of NPCs too?"

Fatty was somewhat surprised.

Lin Tianhao grinned and then sent out the tasks he had set up in advance.

The task content was simple.

As long as Fatty and Monkey cleared a dungeon for the first time, they would receive one thousand free attribute points. The higher the difficulty of the first clear, the more rewards they would receive.

The highest reward for a dungeon could be one hundred thousand free attribute points.

"Holy shit, holy shit, holy shit!!"

Monkey directly knelt down to Lin Tianhao.

"Godfather, please accept this child's bow. In the future, if Godfather has any orders, this child will go through fire and water without hesitation!!"

"Alright."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Work hard, especially you, Fatty. Don't really develop yourself into a simple-minded iron lump. You need to figure out some combat paths for yourself."

"I've stacked reflection damage, and now the reflection damage is already stacked to 19%. Hitting me is like hitting yourself."

"Well, think about it yourself anyway. Don't let others ignore you, and then you can't hurt others."

Fatty rolled his eyes.

"Brother Hao, I'm fat, not stupid. Ask Monkey if he can beat me in a one-on-one."

Monkey couldn't help but complain, "Shut up, without Brother Hao and Brother Gou, you're nothing. I can easily pin you to the ground and rub you around."

"Alright, Monkey, you too. Combat skills are also important. Don't blindly rush when grinding monsters. Take the opportunity to practice your combat skills."

"Yes, Godfather."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and used the Kunlun Mirror to leave directly.

These trivial matters were almost dealt with.

Next.

He should do real business.

The Dark Night Spirit God and the Silver-Eyed Octopus are still alive, which made Lin Tianhao somewhat uncomfortable.

Sea God Temple.

Lin Tianhao appeared again.

Kosmos Abyss seemed to sense something and walked out of the Sea God Temple.

"Snow Emperor, my injuries from last time haven't recovered yet. What are you here to do again?"

Lin Tianhao grinned, "Small matter, just wanted to ask you, where is the Silver-Eyed Octopus?"

Kosmos Abyss narrowed his eyes slightly, "You kid, are you so vengeful? Killing Sea God Poseidon wasn't enough, and you still want to kill the Silver-Eyed Octopus?"

"I am a righteous man. Evil gods like the Silver-Eyed Octopus should be punished by everyone. I am acting on behalf of Heaven."

Lin Tianhao said solemnly.

Kosmos Abyss couldn't help but roll his eyes, "If I didn't know you, I would really believe you."

"Seriously, don't tell me you don't know."

Kosmos Abyss spread his hands, "I'm not omnipotent. I really don't know, but the Mountain and Sea Empire has an organization that should know."

"What organization?"

"God Sheep Cult."

The Mountain and Sea Empire didn't revive in my previous life, so Lin Tianhao didn't know anything about the Mountain and Sea Empire.

"I also heard it from Our Goddess Mazu. The Mountain and Sea Empire initially went into slumber not only because of external pressure but also because of internal evil organizations."

"This God Sheep Cult is a sect representing the lineage of Cthulhu gods. They believe in Shub-Niggurath, the Black Goat of the Woods with a Thousand Young."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. It seemed that the Mountain and Sea Empire was not as peaceful as he had imagined.

"Also, I learned from snippets of information that your current Mountain and Sea Empire is less than one-fifth of the true Mountain and Sea Empire."

"The most prosperous Mountain and Sea Empire ruled the entire Vast Continent. What has revived now is only a small part."

Lin Tianhao nodded. He already knew this from Shui Ruyan before.

"In your adventurers' words, you might trigger a task to completely revive the Mountain and Sea Empire."

"As for how to trigger this task, I don't know. You can think about it. If you can trigger this task, it should be of great help to you."

Lin Tianhao moved closer to Kosmos Abyss and said softly, "Name a price. Tell me the truth."

Knowing Kosmos Abyss's nature, Lin Tianhao knew that this guy definitely knew more, but it wouldn't be easy to get him to say it for free.

"Snow Emperor, with our friendship, how can you speculate about me like this?" Kosmos Abyss said unhappily.

Chapter 290 - The beast tide is coming!

"One million."

Kos Moyuan waved his hand, "Snow Emperor, I'm really not that kind of person."

"Ten million."

"Snow Emperor, if you keep saying that, I'm going to get upset."

Kos Moyuan said seriously, even feigning anger.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly. Was this Kos Moyuan insatiably greedy, or was his information really worth that much money?

Without hesitation.

Lin Tianhao directly shouted out the latest price.

“One hundred million!!”

Kos Moyuan was stunned for a moment, and then a smile appeared on his face.

“Snow Emperor, on this point I have to admit, you really have a good eye for people.”

“Speak, what else do you know?”

“First, the Silver-Eyed Octopus has already pulled off the golden cicada trick. Now it exists in the form of a remnant soul of a god possessing the leader of the Divine Sheep Sect.”

“As for his purpose, it is to destroy Shanhai, wipe out the Mortal Palace, and establish a new holy land.”

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath. No wonder First Elder gave him one of the God-given Blessing Pre-quests to protect the Shanhai Empire.

At that time, he was still wondering, where did the Netherworld and the Han Hai Kingdom get the foundation to attack the Shanhai Empire.

The Shanhai Empire is a genuine Rank 9 territory. It's not a place where just anyone can come and try to take advantage of it.

Even the last time other holy lands wanted to target the Mortal Palace, they didn't directly start a big fight, but instead tested the waters first.

God possession.

That is indeed a bit troublesome.

He has the Sea God Poseidon, who can completely dominate ordinary god possessions with all his strength.

But once the divine power of both sides reaches a certain level, the rules of the Twilight of the Gods will inevitably intervene.

After all, the existence of gods is too perverted at this stage.

Even god possession, if they recklessly take action, will have a huge impact on the balance of the game at this stage.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Got it."

.....

Shanghai Empire.

The night enveloped, and the wilderness was pitch black.

Sunset Town.

Although it was still brightly lit, it had lost its previous liveliness.

Under the night.

Pairs of glowing eyes appeared near Sunset Town.

A guard hugged his spear and leaned against the corner of the wall, dozing off.

“Whoosh!”

A Wind Source Magic Wolf rushed over with its bloody mouth wide open, biting the guard’s neck in one bite.

Tearing the guard’s neck into a bloody mess.

Critical hit!

-10258!

Bleeding!

-1958.

-1921.

.....

One damage number after another appeared, followed by the second, the third, the fourth...

The number of Wind Source Magic Wolves appearing increased more and more.

“Beast tide, beast tide, someone come quickly.”

A guard was alarmed and roared hoarsely.

A large number of guards rushed out and fought with the Wind Source Magic Wolves.

It's just that there are too many Wind Source Magic Wolves, so it is a bit difficult to resist.

“Town-wide announcement, Sunset Town is under attack by a beast tide, please all adventurers take up arms and resist together. Anyone who kills monsters attacking Sunset Town will be rewarded heavily.”

.....

After Lin Tianhao left the Sea God Temple, Mad Blade's message came.

“Snow Emperor boss, a beast tide suddenly broke out in Sunset Town, and it's fierce. I suspect someone is controlling the beast tide, preparing to take down Sunset Town.”

“Okay.”

Lin Tianhao took another step, and when he reappeared, he had already arrived at the entrance of Sunset Town.

A large number of monsters rushed towards him, as if wanting to tear him apart.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed, and he raised his hand to unleash a rain of feather arrows.

“Undead army.”

With an order, a large number of undead appeared.

Although Leona, Zelian Shuyun and other experts are no longer there because the enslaved undead can only exist for one month, the number of the undead army has been sharply reduced.

But Lin Tianhao can snowball by killing himself.

Just in the time it took to breathe, hundreds of monsters were killed by him and joined his undead army.

Outside Sunset Town, on a small earth slope.

Two people were standing.

One of them was the ghost-faced masked man that Lin Tianhao had beaten up before.

Beside him was a level 98 archer.

At this level, he can already be considered very high at this stage.

“Is what you said true? You need to know that attacking a town is a serious crime if it’s found out.”

Hearing this, the archer said with absolute certainty: “His God-given Blessing Pre-quest scroll was taken from me by Mad Blade.”

“To be honest, I’m not willing to accept it. Why should my opportunity be given to Snow Emperor?”

“As long as you can take down Sunset Town, Snow Emperor’s God-given Blessing Pre-quest scroll will be scrapped.”

Hearing such a definite answer.

The ghost-faced masked man’s eyes became more and more gloomy.

“Snow Emperor, relying on awakening your talent first, you abused my fountain. From today onwards, I will let you live in the fear I bring.”

Beside the ghost-faced masked man, a Wind Source Magic Wolf King with blood-red eyes was panting heavily, as if it was difficult to suppress the violent power in its body.

If you observe carefully, you will find that there are circles of strange fluctuations on the ghost-faced masked man’s mask, spreading in all directions.

The monsters shrouded in these fluctuations became unusually violent.

“Go, tear apart the guards of Sunset Town and turn Sunset Town into your carnival paradise!”

A happy smile appeared on the ghost-faced masked man’s face. He was so excited at the thought of being able to get rid of a God-given Blessing Pre-quest scroll in Lin Tianhao’s hands.

The haze of being abused and killed a hundred times in the fountain before also disappeared.

But at this moment.

The ghost-faced masked man noticed something was wrong.

The sound of fighting in the direction of Sunset Town gradually subsided.

Even the Wind Source Magic Wolf King who had just rushed up was gone.

“What’s going on?”

The ghost-faced masked man’s expression was a little gloomy.

“There doesn’t seem to be any experts in Sunset Town, right? Their guard captain’s level is not even as high as yours.”

Under the ghost-faced masked man’s doubts, he saw a large number of undead beginning to counterattack.

And the Wind Source Magic Wolf King he had just released was also among them.

“Damn it, what is this thing?”

The ghost-faced masked man roared in exasperation.

Even.

He even tried to use his ghost-faced mask to influence the undead army, but the result was useless, and he could only run away in a puff of smoke.

Sunset Town.

Not many buildings were damaged this time, but the guard casualties were heavy.

The beast tide attacked too quickly and too fiercely. The guards were defeated before they could react.

The town chief of Sunset Town is a middle-aged man with a hooked nose. He rushed over in a hurry, pulling up his pants.

As the strongest person in Sunset Town, he didn’t even participate in the battle this time.

“What... what’s going on? Why did a beast tide suddenly appear for no reason? You wine bags and rice sacks, how do you guard Sunset Town?”

As soon as he came out, he was furious, pointing at the few guards who were still injured and scolding them!
