

O game 29

Chapter 29: Nine-in-one longbow, it's terrifying when you think about it!

Lin Tianhao smiled, "No need."

With that, he walked straight into the dungeon.

Dungeon Difficulty: Hell Level.

Having already cleared this dungeon several times, Lin Tianhao now navigated it with ease.

The main purpose of farming this dungeon was to increase his health points and to farm skill books.

This was because upgrading the "Withered Tree Rejuvenation" skill required sacrificing skill books.

Although the rewards for clearing the dungeon now were far less than the first clear, it was still a dungeon with four bosses.

In the blink of an eye, five hours passed!

Lin Tianhao's health points had increased from just over 70,000 to over 100,000.

Five hours, an increase of 30,000 health points.

This increase was quite terrifying.

In addition to the increase in health points, Lin Tianhao's "Withered Tree Rejuvenation" also increased from two stars to three stars.

However, to upgrade from three stars to four stars, he needed to sacrifice a thousand skill books, which would be a challenge even with Lin Tianhao's monster-killing speed.

Not only that, but with his health points exceeding 100,000, the "Revival" skill also upgraded to four stars.

Originally, it restored 50 health points per second, but now it directly increased to 500 health points per second.

With this recovery speed, ordinary players probably couldn't even reduce Lin Tianhao's health while he stood still.

Returning to the novice village, the blacksmith Wang had not yet forged the gold-grade longbow.

Lin Tianhao chose to log off to eat.

"It seems that once my sister recovers a bit, I need to buy a nutrient pod."

Lin Tianhao thought secretly, although the time spent logging off to eat wasn't too long, it was still a kind of interference.

"Brother Hao, according to the strategy you told me, I got a silver-grade broadsword, with very powerful attributes."

Lin Tianhao smiled. Zhou Xiaopang, relying on his three passive skills, reaching the level of a silver-grade weapon was entirely within Lin Tianhao's expectations.

"Next, you can go to the main city."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said, "The main city most suitable for warrior development should be Blackwind City."

"But Fatty, remember, after going to the main city, don't change jobs easily, even if it's a hidden class, it's best to ask me."

"Willing."

Lin Tianhao smiled.

The blacksmith Wang nodded, "In that case, you can go to the cliff on the south side. Old Jiu Gui will take you to the old village chief's secret base. You and Old Jiu Gui will kill the guards there."

"Ding, the blacksmith Wang has issued you a quest."

"Quest Requirement: Kill the old village chief's guards at the secret base."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: Unknown."

Lin Tianhao frowned. The quest penalty was actually unknown.

This was a bit of a headache.

Would the blacksmith Wang retaliate against him if the quest failed?

It was entirely possible.

"Accept Quest."

After only a brief hesitation, Lin Tianhao accepted the quest.

This storyline quest had already reached this point, and he had no reason to back down now.

The blacksmith Wang smiled with satisfaction and took out a golden longbow from the shop.

"Your gold-grade longbow, I have already forged it for you."

Nine Union Longbow: Gold Grade.

Equipment Requirement: None.

Effect 1: Attack Power +500.

Effect 2: Attack Speed +1.

Effect 3: Critical Hit +20%.

Effect 4: Life Steal +5%.

Effect 5: Health Points +2000.

Effect 6: Restores 100 Health Points per second.

Durability: 100.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

As expected of a custom-level longbow.

These attributes were highly compatible with him.

The increase in attack power and health points was a bit lackluster.

But the other four attributes were almost perfect.

"Thanks."

Lin Tianhao took the Nine Union Longbow.

"Old Jiu Gui is waiting for you at the cliff on the south side. Go quickly."

Lin Tianhao nodded. With this gold-grade longbow, his combat power could be said to have reached a new level.

South of the novice village, the cliff!

The cliff here was bottomless.

In his previous life, some players also believed that there might be opportunities below the cliff.

They wanted to jump off the cliff to obtain opportunities.

But the result was that after jumping off the cliff, they died on the spot.

After some people tried it, they finally gave up this thankless approach.

When Lin Tianhao arrived at the cliff, he saw a familiar figure.

It wasn't Old Jiu Gui!

But... the old village chief.

The moment he saw the old village chief, Lin Tianhao felt his heart skip a beat.

"Snow Emperor?"

The old village chief was slightly surprised to see Lin Tianhao appear here.

Obviously, he had not expected Lin Tianhao to appear here.

Lin Tianhao pretended to be calm, "Old village chief."

"I heard that you fought with Old Jiu Gui, and he escaped."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I'm ashamed to say that the cyan flower snake released by Old Jiu Gui disrupted my attack rhythm."

The old village chief nodded, "That was my oversight. I originally thought that if you could successfully poison him, the cyan flower snake wouldn't be released."

"I see."

Lin Tianhao nodded and took the initiative to ask, "Why is the old village chief here? Is there anything I can help you with?"

The old village chief actually wanted to ask Lin Tianhao why he was here, but being asked proactively by Lin Tianhao caught him off guard.

"Below our novice village is sealed an extremely powerful monster, and I am the person responsible for guarding this monster."

"Recently, I have noticed a force stirring, wanting to break the seal of that monster, so I came here specifically to take a look."

Lin Tianhao pretended to be surprised, "There is such a thing."

"Alas, saying more is just tears."

"In the beginning, in order to seal this monster, I don't know how many sages paid the price of their lives, but now someone actually wants to release it."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I see, these people who want to release this monster are simply wolves with wild ambitions, and they should be cut into a thousand pieces."

The old village chief nodded and said, "Yes."

"Snow Emperor, in fact, I am very optimistic about you. If my guess is correct, those thieves should all be looking for the Iceflame Magic Ore."

The old village chief's expression was very solemn, "Once they find the Iceflame Magic Ore, the consequences will be unimaginable."

"If you are willing to help me, please go to the mine. You must stop Old Jiu Gui from finding the Iceflame Magic Ore."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, "Okay, I will do my best."

With that.

He turned and walked towards the mine.

Old Jiu Gui was not here.

Why?

Because the old village chief was here, so he hid.

Or is it...

From the beginning, this was a scheme.

The blacksmith Wang did not completely trust himself.

Letting him come here was to lure the tiger away from the mountain, creating an opportunity for Old Jiu Gui to find the Iceflame Magic Ore.

Thinking like this, it was really terrifying.
