Chapter 31 Ice Flame Corpse King!

His feathered arrow had only just been released when the four zombies attacked.

They were all charging head-on.

Lin Tianhao instinctively wanted to dodge.

Unfortunately, with his movement speed reduced by fifty percent, he was unable to dodge the charging zombies.

“Bang!”

-1283.

Damage numbers appeared above Lin Tianhao’s head.

Lin Tianhao waited for the skill to end before launching a frantic counterattack.

Every time Lin Tianhao attacked, it was a critical hit.

The five percent life steal allowed Lin Tianhao to recover over four hundred health points per second.

With the addition of Rejuvenation, the Treant Set, and the Ninefold Longbow, Lin Tianhao could recover over eleven hundred health points per second.

As long as he could stabilize the situation, the following battle would be much easier.

But then the Purple-haired Zombie's attack made Lin Tianhao's expression change drastically.

Because the Purple-haired Zombie launched a bite attack.

Although he tried his best to dodge and used feathered arrows to interrupt their attacks,

With both movement speed and attack speed impaired, he could only restrain two Purple-haired Zombies at most.

He couldn't handle everything at once.

The result was that he was bitten by a Purple-haired Zombie.

... ..

Lin Tianhao felt a bit defeated. The bite actually caused poisoning, and it could stack with the poisoning effect of Corpse Qi Diffusion.

Now, with the double poisoning buff on him, his health was dropping even faster.

With no other choice, Lin Tianhao could only fight a quick battle.

Finally, the first Purple-haired Zombie fell.

Lin Tianhao breathed a sigh of relief, because with one Purple-haired Zombie dead, the layers of Corpse Qi Diffusion would decrease, and the damage he suffered per second would also decrease.

Then came the second and the third!

When the last Purple-haired Zombie fell, Lin Tianhao collapsed to the ground.

Damn it!

Without detoxification skills or skills to remove negative buffs, this was simply a fatal flaw.

This was where the importance of a priest was highlighted.

Even if Lin Tianhao had an ordinary priest by his side to help him detoxify and remove negative buffs, this battle would have been much easier.

And these were just Black Iron level bosses.

If he faced those World Bosses later, the pressure would be even greater.

Once his health was restored to full,

Lin Tianhao locked his gaze ahead.

The layout here was very similar to the Twisted Jungle, so, in the final level, there should be a Bronze level boss.

Entering the final level,

Lin Tianhao immediately looked over.

In front of this level, there were two crystal coffins.

Inside the crystal coffin on the left lay a dried corpse, while the crystal coffin on the right was empty.

Lin Tianhao frowned.

“Whoosh!”

In the next instant,

Lin Tianhao turned around and fired an arrow into the air.

A zombie with a狰狞面容 appeared behind him, its claws less than a centimeter away from him.

Fortunately, Lin Tianhao’s String-Twisting Arrow Technique had already been launched, and the huge impact force wrapped around the feathered arrow sent the zombie flying.

At the same time, Lin Tianhao kept his distance and continued to fire feathered arrows.

He also began to check the zombie’s attributes.

Iceflame Corpse King (Bronze): Level 10.

Health: 1091320 / 1100000.

Attack: 1560.

Skills: Head-on Charge, Ice and Fire Double Threat, Ice Spell, Flame Engulfment, Corpse Shadow Clone, Ice and Fire Roulette.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, and without hesitation, continued to attack.

The Iceflame Corpse King was very fast. Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow had only just been released, and it had already moved away from its original position.

Moreover,

As a zombie,

The Iceflame Corpse King's reaction speed was much faster than Lin Tianhao had imagined.

Its agility also exceeded Lin Tianhao's expectations.

But this wasn't enough to make Lin Tianhao helpless.

Now that his attack speed wasn't affected, four arrows per second were more than enough to block all of the Iceflame Corpse King's movement space.

Moreover, Lin Tianhao's attacks were very tricky, making it impossible for the Iceflame Corpse King to avoid them.

The Iceflame Corpse King knew that it couldn't avoid them, so it simply stopped dodging.

After taking an arrow head-on, it charged towards Lin Tianhao at high speed.

At the same time, it raised its hand, and a ball of flame appeared in its palm.

Then, something that Lin Tianhao found extremely outrageous happened.

Because at the same time that the Iceflame Corpse King raised its hand, flames also appeared on its body.

“Ding, you are affected by Flame Burning and will continuously lose health.”

-915.

-915.

... ..

Lin Tianhao felt his scalp tingle.

This kind of homing skill, which also continuously caused health loss, really made him feel pressured.

Especially since the opponent was a Bronze Boss with considerable attributes.

“Whoosh!”

Lin Tianhao had no way to remove the burning effect, so he could only increase his output to try and kill the Iceflame Corpse King in the shortest amount of time.

The Iceflame Corpse King was too agile. Lin Tianhao's four arrows could only hit two, or even just one.

Moreover, because it was difficult to attack its weak points, the probability of critical hits was also greatly reduced.

After dodging Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows, the Iceflame Corpse King raised both hands at the same time.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed.

“Ding, you are affected by Ice and Fire Double Threat and will continuously lose health.”

-1598.

-1598.

... ..

Lin Tianhao: ???

What kind of godly monster was this? All kinds of negative effects, it was simply inhumane.

Two homing skills, both of which continuously caused health loss, didn't give him any room to maneuver.

“If this continues, it will be very difficult to clear this instance.”

Lin Tianhao's face was not very good.

His attributes were already very abnormal. If he still couldn't clear this, Lin Tianhao couldn't accept it.

With this in mind,

Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow attacks became even more tricky.

Predicting movements!

This was a basic skill for archers, but the gap between the ceiling and ordinary players was very obvious.

Under Lin Tianhao's focused predictive attacks, the Iceflame Corpse King finally couldn't resist.

"Now is the time."

Lin Tianhao seized a fleeting opportunity to knock the Iceflame Corpse King into the air.

Then, he continued to juggle it in the air, dealing high damage.

"You have no chance now."

Lin Tianhao's eyes were extremely serious. He wouldn't allow himself to fail.

Under complete concentration, the outcome was already determined.

For no other reason than this:

Every detail of the Iceflame Corpse King was captured by Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao had already eliminated any possibility of the Iceflame Corpse King landing.

Even while keeping the Iceflame Corpse King in the air, Lin Tianhao was also interrupting the skills it was preparing to cast.

It could be said that he had pushed his attacks to the extreme.

“Ding, you have killed the Iceflame Corpse King, experience +10850. Since you have not left the Novice Village, you cannot obtain experience.”
