Chapter 32 Princess Leona: Purification Jade Pendant!

“Ding, you have completed the first clear of the Lost Princess. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Hide.”

“Ding, congratulations to player Hidden Name for completing the first clear of the Lost Princess. Special announcement, hoping all players will continue to work hard.”

“Ding, congratulations to player Hidden Name for completing the first clear of the Lost Princess. Special announcement, hoping all players will continue to work hard.”

.....

The Lost Princess!

Hidden dungeon in the newbie village!

Most of the first batch of players entering the game at this stage have already gone to the main city.

Therefore, not many people paid attention to this level eight dungeon.

No one would think that this small level eight dungeon could produce anything good.

Stone Peak City.

Floating Shield Mountain opened his friend list.

He has been paying attention to Lin Tianhao.

He has been level ten for some time.

With Lin Tianhao's ability, he shouldn't have leveled up for so long.

Then the biggest possibility is... Lin Tianhao didn't leave the newbie village at all.

He really wanted to ask Lin Tianhao what was going on, but in the end, he didn't ask.

Not only that.

The other clubs, the people who were paying attention to Lin Tianhao all discovered this problem.

Lin Tianhao is still in the newbie village!

“Could it be that something happened offline? Delaying the game progress?”

“It's a pity, his talent is good, but he has been delayed for so long. Even if he wants to catch up later, he will only be a mid-to-upper-level player.”

Zhu Meng Yanxue shook her head with some disappointment when she saw the information about Lin Tianhao reported by her subordinates.

Level ten, not leaving the newbie village, is likely to be delayed by something offline.

Not only Zhu Meng Yanxue, but most of the clubs that paid attention to Lin Tianhao thought so.

After all, Lin Tianhao's talent and attributes are there. If it wasn't for being delayed by something offline, there would be no way to explain the current situation.

They don't know that Lin Tianhao is not delayed by offline matters. He is now doing a very terrifying plot mission.

If this plot mission is completed, it will change the pattern of the newbie village.

“Ding, the first clear dungeon reward is being settled.”

“Ding, you have obtained 31 skill books.”

“Ding, you have obtained 42 pieces of equipment.”

“Ding, you have obtained 120 gold coins.”

“Ding, you have obtained 20 free attribute points.”

“Ding, you have obtained an Ice Flame Magic Ore +1.”

Sure enough.

A smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

This second Ice Fire Magic Ore is finally in hand.

Just as Lin Tianhao was checking the rewards.

In this case.

He can choose to leave the dungeon directly, after all, the dungeon clear rewards have already been obtained.

But Lin Tianhao is also skilled and bold, he wants to see what this hidden boss is.

“Boom!”

With a loud noise, the crystal coffin exploded, and a woman with fair skin, delicate features, and silver-white long hair appeared in front of him.

Lin Tianhao's eyes fell on this woman.

Princess Leona: ???

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Lin Tianhao's expression changed. This guy is all question marks.

Moreover, in Twilight of the Gods.

Similar to this kind of title with princess, prince, general, etc., they are generally not easy to provoke.

“Adventurer, did you save me?”

Lin Tianhao nodded subconsciously, "I guess."

Hearing this.

Princess Leona looked extremely calm. She looked at Lin Tianhao for a while and said, "You saved me. I can give you two things, but you can only choose to take one of them."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

Is this triggering a hidden reward?

"This is the first thing. You can become a viscount of our Star Kingdom and obtain a territory of your own."

Lin Tianhao gasped.

Lord's Heart?

In the early stage of the game, it is almost impossible for something like the Lord's Heart to appear.

What's more, Princess Leona said that there is also the identity of a viscount, which is a noble!

Having the identity of a noble in the kingdom, he can get a lot of benefits.

But Lin Tianhao still suppressed the excitement in his heart and asked, "What about the second thing?"

Leona took out a pale blue jade pendant.

"This is a piece of equipment passed down from the Godfall Era, which can allow the wearer to obtain 80% control immunity."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

Eighty percent control immunity, this is already very perverted.

“What is your choice?”

Lin Tianhao hesitated for a while, he chose the jade pendant.

“I want the jade pendant.”

Based on his previous life experience, it is not difficult for him to obtain the Lord's Heart and establish a territory.

Viscount is only the second to last rank among the nobles.

Not only that, the Star Kingdom is okay in the early stage of the game, but in the later stage of the game, this kingdom is a bit unsightly.

But this jade pendant is awesome.

Eighty percent control immunity, no matter what stage it is placed in, this effect is very awesome.

Princess Leona looked at Lin Tianhao in surprise, as if she didn't expect Lin Tianhao to choose a piece of equipment.

“Could it be that our kingdom's viscount and territory are not as good as a piece of equipment?”

Lin Tianhao shook his head, “It's not that the viscount is not good, nor is the territory not good, nor is your Star Kingdom not good.”

“It's just that, radishes and vegetables, each has its own love.”

Princess Leona smiled helplessly and gave the jade pendant to Lin Tianhao.

Purification Jade Pendant: Special equipment.

Wearing requirements: Only the active transferor can wear it, cannot be dropped, cannot be taken, and cannot be worn by outsiders unless actively gifted.

Effect: Immune to 80% of control, knockback, slow down, curse, poisoning, burning, freezing, paralysis and other negative buffs.

Durability: 100.

A satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

This effect can be described as quite perverted.

Even in the Cataclysm era, this attribute can be described as explosive.

Wearing the Purification Jade Pendant, Lin Tianhao felt much better.

This is really an unexpected surprise.

Next is to check the equipment and skills.

It's a pity.

There is not a single piece of equipment and skills that he can wear.

The only two useful things are free attribute points, and the Ice Flame Magic Ore.

Just.

According to Old Drunkard's meaning, there should be two more Ice Flame Magic Ores here, but now only one has appeared.

That means there is still one more.

Leaving the dungeon, Lin Tianhao entered the dungeon again.

But this time, something unexpected happened to Lin Tianhao.

That is, this dungeon no longer has hell difficulty.

“Because I rescued Princess Leona, the hell difficulty is gone?”
