Chapter 321 - The legend of the Yamata Fire Snake!

The woman in the bamboo hat shook her head, "Sorry, I don't know you."

Her words fell.

The woman in the bamboo hat attacked again, casting ice spells on Lin Tianhao, followed by a barrage of ice cones.

"Your voice can't be mistaken. I don't believe there are two people in this world with such similar voices."

Lin Tianhao's emotions were slightly agitated. He had been searching for his sister for so long, he didn't believe his judgment was wrong.

"I already said, I am not your sister."

"Then who are you?" Lin Tianhao stared at the woman in the bamboo hat.

A trace of confusion appeared on the woman's face, but it quickly disappeared.

"It's not important. Focus on the battle."

"You are strong, but you shouldn't be so distracted during a fight."

The woman in the bamboo hat was slightly annoyed, and her attacks became even more violent.

A large number of attacks swept towards Lin Tianhao.

-51.

-53.

-54.

... ..

The damage numbers were still pathetic.

The woman in the bamboo hat's pupils slightly contracted, "Your magic resistance is constantly increasing?"

"Can I get your friend request?"

Lin Tianhao didn't know what had happened to his sister.

Or was it that he really mistook her?

But the almost identical voice still made Lin Tianhao feel that his judgment should be correct.

The woman in the bamboo hat pondered for a moment, then nodded in agreement.

"My name is Gui Ye Wuqing."

Lin Tianhao directly sent a friend request. Gui Ye Wuqing, a somewhat strange name, seemed to have some meaning, yet also seemed to have none.

After adding her as a friend, Lin Tianhao grinned and said, "You still haven't answered me, how long is the cooldown on your Earth Wolf?"

Lin Tianhao didn't have enough evidence to prove that the other party was his sister, so he could only try to get in touch with her first.

"Half an hour."

Lin Tianhao was depressed.

This cooldown was a bit long.

Three thousand every half hour, six thousand an hour, more than one hundred thousand a day.

It seemed pretty good.

But Lin Tianhao was still a little dissatisfied.

"Did you lose your memory?" Lin Tianhao asked.

He still felt that the other party was his sister.

"I... I don't know."

Gui Ye Wuqing's voice stunned Lin Tianhao a bit.

"Let's not talk about this for now. I can't beat you, so I won't waste any more time."

As soon as the words fell.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath. When he heard Gui Ye Wuqing's answer of 'I don't know,' Lin Tianhao knew that the other party was likely his sister.

Her memory had problems.

He just didn't know the reason yet.

"Poseidon, did you see anything wrong with her?"

Lin Tianhao asked in a deep voice.

"I don't know, but it's very strange, because... I can't see through her. My divine sense is blocked by an invisible force when it approaches her."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, "You are a god..."

"That's why I said it's very strange."

"The power on her makes me feel fear."

The voice of the silver-eyed octopus came, "She must have some amazing secret on her."

Lin Tianhao sighed helplessly.

He should have been happy to find his sister, but the fact that she didn't recognize him made him want to cry.

Lin Tianhao sent an invitation to Gui Ye Wuqing, inviting her to join the Mortal Palace.

However.

To Lin Tianhao's surprise, she refused.

"I already have a force I want to join."

Gui Ye Wuqing's answer was very simple, and she didn't reveal which force she wanted to join.

Lin Tianhao had no choice but to leave it at that for now.

He would find a way to contact her later and see if he could find more compelling evidence to prove that she was his sister.

Although Lin Tianhao was sure in his heart, he couldn't rule out the possibility that such a coincidence could really happen.

Next, Lin Tianhao had no intention of rushing up the rankings. He was going to grind dungeons to stack some health points.

At the same time, it would also stabilize his somewhat fluctuating emotions.

It was difficult to gain enlightenment with unstable emotions.

Just after coming out of the arena.

Lin Tianhao received a message from Berserker Blade.

"Snow Emperor, I got a Scroll of Divine Blessing Prequel Quest. I'll send it to you."

Berserker Blade didn't waste any words and directly sent the Scroll of Divine Blessing Prequel Quest to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao showed joy, but he still asked, "How did this Scroll of Divine Blessing Prequel Quest come about?"

"Someone was selling it on the forum before, so I bought it for some money."

Lin Tianhao also had some impression.

"Is it the poorest guy in Wanlitou?"

"Yes, he sold it."

Lin Tianhao had also seen it on the forum before.

He didn't think there was anything wrong with the poorest guy in Wanlitou's approach.

After all, not everyone knew that the Great Cataclysm was about to come.

In this case, it was understandable to exchange the good things in his hands for money and enjoy life.

After Lin Tianhao got the scroll, he couldn't help but start checking it.

"Unrest has recently appeared in the Sea of Flames outside the vast continent. It seems that there are beings that do not belong to this world that are recovering. Go and investigate and kill them."

"Task Requirements: Investigate the changes in the Sea of Flames within three months and kill the existence that brought about the changes."

"Task Penalty: Unknown."

"Task Reward: Divine Blessing + 1."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. The changes in the Sea of Flames had also appeared in his previous life.

But this was not a single-player task. In the previous life, this was a national task.

Because there was a world boss in the Sea of Flames.

The strength of existences that could be called world bosses was very outrageous.

Because the world boss was not limited by the number of people. 100,000 people, 1 million people, or even 10 million people could attack the world boss together.

The changes in the Sea of Flames were because of that world boss. Lin Tianhao still remembered its name: Yamata Fire Serpent!

Yamata Fire Serpent, extremely lustful.

The evil fire was powerful and unparalleled, able to arouse the primitive desires of living beings, causing them to lose their minds and become puppets controlled by desire.

The Sea of Flames was affected by the Yamata Fire Serpent's evil fire, and a large number of sea beasts went mad and began to mate chaotically, producing a large number of strange monsters.

The Yamata Fire Serpent's evil fire had been affecting those sea beasts for a long time.

It just didn't attract attention at first. Later, the problem gradually emerged, and only a small number of people received the task of hunting mutated sea beasts.

This Scroll of Divine Blessing Prequel Quest was released now. Suspicious, too suspicious!

"Could it be that someone deliberately wants to lure me to the Sea of Flames?" Lin Tianhao thought to himself.

Chapter 322 - I've been fooled, Gui Ye Wuqing is a mechanic!

"Poseidon, what was the purpose of your layout in the Land of Chaos before?"

If this is a setup, then there must be a method to target me.

Simply blocking one of his quests, or killing him twice, is meaningless.

"Sealing."

The Sea God Poseidon answered directly, "The purpose is to get you to Sea God Island to participate in the trial. Whether it's the tentacles or helping Horne upgrade his fruit, the fastest way is to come to Sea God Island."

"When the time comes, we will set up an inescapable net on Sea God Island. Two divine envoys, one divine slave, and the remnant soul of the Dark Night Spirit God will join forces with me to seal you on Sea God Island."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "You guys are really something, setting up such a big game just to seal me."

"Lord, this is also something that can't be helped. Your identity as an adventurer makes simply killing you meaningless."

"The best way to stop you from reviving the ancient Eastern kingdom is to seal you. Secondly, there is also a teleportation array on my Sea God Island that can forcibly send you to the Vast Continent."

“Lord, you should know that leaving is easy, but wanting to return to the second-tier land is extremely difficult.”

For example, it is almost impossible for players to return to the novice village now.

“By the way, are there any other gods nearby?” Lin Tianhao asked.

“I don't know about that. If I knew, more gods would have participated in the layout last time.”

Lin Tianhao: “.....”

Looking at the Gods' Blessing prerequisite quest scroll in his hand, Lin Tianhao put it away. He did not continue to rush up the rankings, but came to a new monster spawn point to farm dungeons.

Level 200 Corrosive Bone Worms.

Corrosive Bone Worm (Normal): Level 200.

Health: 31259 / 31259.

Attack: 1009.

Skills: Corrosion Sting, Corrosion Spit, Bone-Eating Poison.

Normal monster.

As always, trash.

Even at level 200, it's still the same.

In Gods Twilight, it is extremely difficult to become a top expert.

But the difficulty of monster farming has never been high, at least most ordinary players can solo farm monsters of the same level.

- 31259!

One arrow kill, without any suspense.

The health of the Corrosive Bone Worm is considered high among monsters of the same level.

It's just a pity that Lin Tianhao's damage is really too outrageous.

The Corrosive Bone Worm has no power to resist under Lin Tianhao's attacks.

The place where the Corrosive Bone Worm lives has many corpses. It is rumored that this was once the battlefield of two tribes.

They had a conflict over a fertile piece of land, thus starting a bloody battle.

Both tribes had hundreds of thousands of people.

That battle, from the initial land battle to the later life-and-death battle, broke countless families.

This place was once littered with corpses, and even the treasure of the two tribes was lost here.

Later, the people of the two tribes were almost wiped out, and the war ended.

The remaining people did not need that fertile land and had enough resources to survive.

It's just that this place has spawned countless Corrosive Bone Worms because of the large number of corpses.

The Corrosive Bone Worm is not large, only the size of a basketball, and compared to other monsters in Gods Twilight, it is almost like a caterpillar.

Archer players do not like to come here to farm Corrosive Bone Worms.

It's because they are difficult to hit.

But this problem is not a problem for Lin Tianhao.

Compared to other monsters of the same level, the Corrosive Bone Worm has a larger number, spawns faster, and if you can find the treasures of the two tribes.

You can open the dungeon Corrosive Land, and the progress of farming the dungeon will be much faster.

One, two, three...

Lin Tianhao kept farming Corrosive Bone Worms.

At the same time, he took time to refresh his friend list.

Confirmed.

Gui Ye Wuqing has not yet approved his friend request.

A bit abnormal.

She had clearly agreed, why would she go back on her word.

Just at this moment.

An elite Corrosive Bone Worm appeared.

Corrosive Bone Worm (Elite): Level 201.

Health: 163980 / 163980.

Attack: 4011.

Skills: Corrosion Bone Worm, Bone-Eating Poison, Corrosion Mud, Corpse Eating.

The elite Corrosive Bone Worm only has one more skill than the normal Corrosive Bone Worm, but the overall attribute improvement is very large.

But it's still no different.

- 163980!

One arrow, ruthlessly killed.

Later, it was not easy to brush out the black iron level Corrosive Bone Worm boss, but it was still useless.

Three million health, under Lin Tianhao's double true damage + critical hit, one arrow kill, without any suspense.

However, to Lin Tianhao's surprise, there was no full server announcement after he killed the black iron level Corrosive Bone Worm.

It shows that someone killed the Corrosive Bone Worm before him.

This is different from the Land of Chaos, there is a full server announcement here.

As for Lin Tianhao not remembering, it is because there are many full server announcements every day at this stage, and you can selectively shield full server announcements.

For example.

The full server announcement of the first kill boss can be shielded.

Otherwise, you can hear you vomit every day!

At this stage, it can be said that it is the time when there are the most full server announcements.

Generally, this situation will be slightly better after level 500.

Because the difficulty of killing high-level bosses will increase, and the experience points required for upgrading are higher, accompanied by the fact that most players will repeatedly farm monsters in the same area to upgrade.

Thereby reducing the frequency of full server announcements.

The difficulty of the black iron level Corrosive Bone Worm is not very high at this stage.

It is not a difficult thing for someone to kill it one step ahead of him.

After solving the Corrosive Bone Worm, Gui Ye Wuqing finally approved his friend request.

“Snow Emperor, how did you know it was me?”

The first message sent by Gui Ye Wuqing made Lin Tianhao stunned.

“You admitted it?”

“You're tricking me?”

“Then what are you pretending in front of your brother?” Lin Tianhao asked.

Gui Ye Wuqing: “? ? !”

This chat is a bit weird.

Then, Lin Tianhao checked Gui Ye Wuqing's profession.

Mechanic!!

Damn it!!

Got played!

Lin Tianhao frowned, and combined with the chat content just now, he had already guessed who the other party was.

“Are you the mechanic who led Onedo to attack the Sea God Temple back then?”

Gui Ye Wuqing: "You really know, adding me specifically, wouldn't you want to retaliate, I know you have long-range headlock means."

"Everyone is for the task, there is no need to bring grievances outside the task."

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead.

It seems that the other party is unaware.

That veiled woman gave herself a fake name.

"This is an accident, do you know a female mage with a lot of small skills? Wearing a veil, she told me your name."

Gui Ye Wuqing: "? ? ?"

"I don't know, my nickname has always been hidden, and I haven't told anyone, including NPCs, I thought you had some special means to find out my nickname."

Chapter 323 - My sister is found!

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "Are you sure you haven't told anyone else your nickname?"

"Really, I haven't."

Gui Ye Wuqing answered very confidently, "So as soon as you added me, I guessed you were here because of what happened last time."

"That's interesting."

Lin Tianhao thought of the veiled woman; the voice couldn't be wrong.

But why would she lie to him?

Could it be because she knew he had the ability to lock onto people using their names, so she was wary of him?

That was also possible.

Amnesia?

Amnesia caused by severe brain trauma was possible, but when he asked her before, her answer was that she didn't know.

That was a bit ambiguous.

For a moment, Lin Tianhao didn't know what the reason was.

But what he could be sure of was that the other party didn't recognize him, nor did she know he had a brother.

And it didn't seem like amnesia.

What's even more interesting is that the name she gave him was actually someone who had never revealed their name.

If she wanted to lie to him, she could have just given him any name.

Could it be that this Gui Ye Wuqing was just a random name she gave, and out of billions of players worldwide, someone just happened to use this name?

And it just so happened that this person with this name had some grievances with him.

While thinking about these things,

Lin Tianhao's feather arrows didn't stop; he was still constantly outputting Corrosive Bone Worms.

Finally.

Bronze-grade Corrosive Bone Worms appeared.

The Bronze-grade Corrosive Bone Worms, with a health of over ten million, were finally not instantly killed by Lin Tianhao's arrows.

But three arrows were naturally the limit for the Bronze-grade Corrosive Bone Worms.

"Ding, you have completed the first kill of the Bronze-grade Corrosive Bone Worm, a server-wide announcement will be made soon, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Xue Di for completing the first kill of the Bronze-grade Corrosive Bone Worm, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

Such a server-wide announcement was already insignificant to the current players.

Lin Tianhao didn't stop moving.

He continued to hunt, trying to reach the end.

In the blink of an eye.

Night fell.

The attributes of the Corrosive Bone Worms became even stronger because of the darkness.

His current efficiency of stacking health points using normal attacks was too low.

He had to take a few steps to kill a Corrosive Bone Worm, and some that were further away required him to walk even further.

He could rely on his Heavenly Punishment Heart to stack health points.

The Book of Life and Death was the most worry-free, and there was another one.

Actually, there was another skill: Heavy Armor Counterattack!

Lin Tianhao had initially thought about using Heavy Armor Counterattack to exploit a bug to quickly stack health points.

However, the damage setting of Heavy Armor Counterattack didn't belong to the damage Lin Tianhao caused to the enemy.

From the damage explanation, Heavy Armor Counterattack reflected the damage caused to oneself by the enemy unit, and the damage source was judged to be the enemy unit.

Otherwise, Lin Tianhao could find some archers to help him stack health points.

Temporarily not having a better method, Lin Tianhao could only ponder whether it was possible to get something similar to the Book of Life and Death.

In the Twilight of the Gods, there were many ways to continuously lose health.

Burning was a very common one.

It's just that burning is generally a passive additional damage, and burning generally only lasts for three to twelve seconds.

This duration is too short.

Curse!

This has the potential to last for a relatively long time.

However, curse-type skills require a curse master profession, and curse skills that continuously lose health for a long time are even rarer.

Temporarily not having a better method.

Lin Tianhao could only do this for now.

Midnight soon arrived, and the arena rankings were officially announced.

"Server-wide announcement, the arena rankings are announced, those who reach the top ten of the arena rankings in the first month can receive additional rewards, please players work hard, the rankings are now officially released."

"Arena Ranking Tenth, God Fat Invincible, 1990 points."

The first name was God Fat Invincible, which didn't quite match his fourth-place title on the combat power list.

"Arena Ranking Ninth, Hidden Nickname, 1998 points."

Ninth place surpassed Fatty by a slight advantage.

Fatty pounded his chest and stomped his feet, "I'm unlucky, if it wasn't for meeting Brother Hao, this ninth place should have been mine."

"Arena Ranking Eighth, Monkey of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, 2539 points."

Monkey didn't enter the top ten on the combat power list, but he entered the top ten on the arena rankings, ranking eighth.

Because the combat power list is a comprehensive evaluation of combat power, Fatty can defeat Monkey, but the key is that Monkey has to fight him, and he relies on counterattack, damage reduction, heavy injury, and other effects to defeat Monkey.

In addition, even if Fatty wins, the time it takes will not be short.

And to score points in the arena rankings, you not only have to look at comprehensive combat power, but also at the speed of resolving battles.

Monkey's attributes are comprehensive, and as long as he doesn't encounter a particularly powerful existence, he can end the battle in a very short time.

This is also the reason why he can rank eighth.

... ..

"Arena Ranking Third, Jinderland, 4295 points."

"Arena Ranking Second, Hidden Nickname, 5001 points."

Hearing this ranking, Lin Tianhao knew that he was a bit worried for nothing.

The second place in the arena rankings didn't even have half of his points.

"Arena Ranking First, Xue Di, 13159 points."

When Lin Tianhao's points came out, not many people were surprised anymore.

Everyone felt it was only right and proper.

If Lin Tianhao didn't have this score, it would have been abnormal.

"Too weak."

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but shake his head; he thought his ranking would be high, but he didn't expect that second place didn't even have half of his points.

Next!

Was the most anticipated moment.

Lin Tianhao took out the scroll for the preliminary quest for the Blessing of the Gods.

"Use the Blessing of the Gods."

"Ding, you have used the Blessing of the Gods."

"Ding, the gods are bestowing blessings upon you..."

"Ding, you have obtained the blessing of Taishang Laojun, Divine Flame Nine Refinements."

Lin Tianhao frowned; he didn't have much of an impression of this Divine Flame Nine Refinements.

However, Taishang Laojun, as a super big shot in refining weapons and pills, this name sounds like it's related to refining things.

Most people only know that Taishang Laojun is very good at refining pills, but few know that Taishang Laojun also has extremely high achievements in weapon refining.

Legend has it that the Xuanyuan Sword was refined by Taishang Laojun.

Besides this.

The Nine-toothed Rake of Marshal Tianpeng also came from the hands of Taishang Laojun.

Divine Flame Nine Refinements: 1 Star.

Learning Requirements: Xue Di only.

Passive Effect 1: Your speed of refining pills and equipment is increased by 50%.

Passive Effect 2: Your proficiency increase speed as an alchemist and weapon refiner gains a 10% bonus.

Proficiency: 0 / 10.

(Note: This proficiency requires collecting special flames to increase.)

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up; his three clones were refining Life Orbs day and night.

Even if his three clones are now elite-level weapon refiners, the number of Life Orbs they can refine in a day is only about eighty.

If he learns this skill, then the number he can refine in a day will be as high as one hundred and twenty Life Orbs.

And this is still the state of one star; continuing to increase stars, his speed can still be improved.

When everyone has a Life Orb, that will be really wonderful.

Without hesitation, he learned this skill, Lin Tianhao notified Fatty and told him not to forget to replenish the nutrient solution.

Then he prepared to return to Fandian to ask his heart and understand the Tao.

But just at this moment, Fatty made a video call.

"Brother Hao, good news, Qingqing has been found."

Chapter 324 - Weird Lin Qingqing!

Fatty was extremely excited. He and Lin Tianhao would spam the whole server with broadcasts every now and then, but for almost three months, there hadn't been any activity.

Today, there was finally news.

Lin Tianhao's face revealed excitement. They finally found her.

"Where is she? I'll come over immediately!"

"We are currently in the Imperial Capital, Dragon City, at Juxian Tower," Fatty said.

"Okay, I'll be there soon."

Lin Tianhao took a step, and in the blink of an eye, he arrived in Dragon City.

Juxian Tower...

Lin Tianhao quickly locked onto the location and arrived at Juxian Tower in less than five minutes.

Fatty, Monkey, and a female warrior were together.

Lin Tianhao quickly walked over, "Qingqing."

"Brother!"

This 'Brother' from the female warrior was truly long-awaited.

"Qingqing, where have you been these past few days? Why couldn't I contact you?"

Lin Qingqing smiled a little embarrassedly, "I don't know either. After entering the game, my scenario was different from what Fatty said."

"I didn't have the class selection page. When I came in, I was already a warrior, and the scene wasn't in a newbie village, but in a very strange arena."

"There was a voice prompt in the arena that I had to clear nine levels to leave."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly.

If these words came from someone else, Lin Tianhao would definitely think it was nonsense.

Because he had never heard of such a situation.

Creating a character in the game, choosing a class, activating talents, these all seemed to be the norm.

But Lin Qingqing's situation was just too strange.

"Have you found anything else strange?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Lin Qingqing thought for a moment and said, "I can mobilize all the attributes in the world to bless my attacks, does that count?"

As she spoke.

Lin Qingqing raised the beginner's wooden sword in her hand, and the wooden sword was instantly covered in flames.

In an instant.

The flames extinguished and were covered in ice.

Then the power of metal, wood, water, earth, wind, lightning, darkness, light and other attributes appeared on her wooden sword.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath.

Lin Qingqing's situation was too strange.

"Is this your talent?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Lin Qingqing shook her head, "I don't know either, because my attribute panel only has health and mana."

"Other attributes are not displayed and cannot be viewed."

Lin Tianhao: ???

What exactly was going on with his sister? Strange, too strange!!

Lin Tianhao really couldn't figure out what was going on.

Mainly, based on his previous life's experience, what Lin Qingqing said was simply Arabian Nights.

"Try hitting me with your sword," Lin Tianhao said in a deep voice.

Lin Qingqing waved her sword and slashed Lin Tianhao on the shoulder.

-79528!!

A damage number that stunned both Fatty and Monkey appeared above Lin Tianhao's head.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, the effect of the heavy armor's damage reflection was not triggered.

Even if Lin Qingqing's health bar was thick enough to make the damage reflection negligible.

But the damage number appearing above his head was inevitable.

The fact that there was no damage number meant that there was a problem.

Lin Qingqing was not affected by the damage reflection.

"Try an attack with attributes," Lin Tianhao said again.

Lin Qingqing's wooden sword was covered in flames, and she slashed Lin Tianhao.

-115970!!

Directly breaking through 110,000 damage.

"Ding, you have been burned and will continuously lose health."

-9999.

-9999.

.....

Lin Tianhao was numb again. The burn belonged to a negative effect.

But his Purification Jade Pendant did not reduce the burn damage from Lin Qingqing's attack.

What did that mean?

It meant that Lin Qingqing's attack priority was very high, which led to the burn effect attached to her attack not being affected by the Purification Jade Pendant.

"What is your current health value?" Lin Tianhao asked.

He always felt that his sister was a bit too outrageous.

"Seventy-six million."

Lin Tianhao: ???

Fatty: ???

Monkey: ???

Three faces of bewilderment.

Especially Lin Tianhao.

He relied on the Super God-level talent and the Book of Life and Death.

But even so, he was still a younger brother, and his health value was less than 50 million.

Why was Lin Qingqing's health value 76 million? Was she even human?

"Qingqing, little sister."

Fatty's eyes were about to light up. Seventy-six million, that was seventy-six million health points.

"Can we bind a bond?"

Fatty had always thought that binding Lin Tianhao was already awesome.

But now he realized that the real thigh was actually Lin Qingqing.

"What's going on? Qingqing, how can your health value be so high?"

Lin Tianhao really couldn't believe it. His speed of stacking health points was already fast enough.

Why could Lin Qingqing enter the game later and still be above him?

"I don't know either, anyway, it's just that my health value increases by one million every day."

Lin Tianhao: ???

Fatty: ???

Monkey: ???

Three faces of bewilderment.

What was this?

Automatically increasing one million health points every day, was she even human?

This was just doing nothing, and it was 30 million health points a month.

More than 300 million a year, and when the Great Cataclysm arrives, her health will be close to two billion!!

Lin Tianhao just felt his scalp tingle just thinking about it.

"What about your mana?" Lin Tianhao couldn't help but ask.

"Mana is less, only 7.6 million, only increasing by 100,000 every day," Lin Qingqing said with slight disappointment.

Then her clear eyes looked at Lin Tianhao and the others.

"Brother, Fatty, Monkey, how much health do you guys increase a day?"

Lin Qingqing's words stumped Lin Tianhao and the others.

Fatty pointed at Lin Tianhao, "However much your brother increases, I increase."

Monkey: "..."

"How about we change the topic?"

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Qingqing, we don't automatically increase health points, we need to rely on our own efforts to become stronger."

"Oh."

"I thought this game was a welfare game, and everyone could just lie down and increase their attributes."

Lin Qingqing nodded belatedly.

Fatty grinned, "Qingqing, I'll send you a bond request, please accept it."

Just thinking about how he was about to have more than 70 million health points, Fatty couldn't close his mouth from happiness.

"Uh..."

Just the next moment.

Fatty was stunned.

"What is 'unable to bind'? Why can't I bind? This is the first time I've encountered this situation."

Fatty was dumbfounded. His wish to bind Lin Qingqing and explode his health points was in vain.

Lin Tianhao looked at Lin Qingqing meaningfully. Lin Qingqing was really strange. Many of the things Lin Tianhao knew in his previous life no longer applied to her.

"Qingqing, what's your name? I'll add you as a friend."

"Gui Ye Wuqing," Lin Qingqing said.

Chapter 325 - The two Gui Ye Wuqing are not clones!

"Gui Ye Wuqing?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned. He opened his friend list, and the bright name Gui Ye Wuqing was displayed in his friend list.

“Qingqing, are you sure your name is Gui Ye Wuqing? Which Gui, which Ye...”

Fatty waved his hand from the side, “Brother Hao, why ask so much? I’ve already added Qing’s friend, I’ll recommend her to you.”

Fatty recommended a friend to Lin Tianhao: Gui Ye Wuqing!!

Not a single word was different, exactly the same as the Mechanic Lin Tianhao had added.

Lin Tianhao subconsciously took a step back.

His mind was a little muddled.

Nicknames in Twilight of the Gods cannot be repeated. This situation made Lin Tianhao somewhat disbelieving.

“Qingqing, do you have an alternate character?”

Lin Tianhao didn’t beat around the bush and sent Fatty a screenshot of his friend list.

“I added a friend yesterday, also named Gui Ye Wuqing, she’s a Mechanic.”

“Alternate character?”

Lin Qingqing looked blank, shaking her head and saying, “No, I only heard Fatty’s all-server broadcast after leaving the arena today. I haven’t even left the arena before.”

Lin Tianhao was dumbfounded.

“Qingqing, what does your brother love the most?” Lin Tianhao asked.

“Loves to say ‘to be honest’.”

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, “Then you really are my sister.”

Lin Tianhao had a bad habit of often adding “to be honest” at the beginning of a sentence, like “how about this...”

This issue had always been criticized by his sister, who often complained about it.

To be honest, Lin Tianhao had already changed a lot, but it was still the thing his sister thought he loved the most.

Lin Tianhao added Lin Qingqing through Fatty’s friend recommendation.

No problem occurred.

Lin Tianhao was also pondering whether that level one mage had lied to him.

Did she really call herself Gui Ye Wuqing, but when he added Gui Ye Wuqing, the notification he received was for that Mechanic.

If that’s the case...

Lin Tianhao had a bold idea.

He added Gui Ye Wuqing again.

“Ding, Gui Ye Wuqing is already your friend.”

Sure enough.

He couldn't add her directly. The reason he could add Lin Qingqing just now was because of Fatty's recommendation.

But it didn't matter anymore. Knowing there were two Gui Ye Wuqings, he could actually try this.

Opening the Mechanic's chat box, Lin Tianhao sent a message.

“Where are you? Can we meet?”

Gui Ye Wuqing: “???”

“It's nothing, I have no malicious intent,” Lin Tianhao said.

Gui Ye Wuqing: “Corrosion Bone Forest.”

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. He had been to that place, it was where the Corrosion Bone Worms spawned.

“Qingqing, come with me.”

Lin Qingqing didn't know what Lin Tianhao wanted to do, but she didn't ask much.

She directly followed Lin Tianhao through the Kunlun Mirror to the Corrosion Bone Forest.

Before long, Lin Tianhao found the Mechanic.

At this time, the Mechanic was fighting, with mechanical puppets carpet-bombing the area to search for Corrosion Bone Worms.

Once they found a Corrosion Bone Worm, they would bombard it wildly.

As for the Mechanic herself, she was a hands-off manager.

“Gui Ye Wuqing,” Lin Tianhao called out.

The Mechanic turned her head, “Snow Emperor, I’ve long admired your name.”

She spoke.

A plain and unremarkable sentence, but it made Lin Qingqing stunned.

Sure enough!!

Lin Tianhao secretly thought his guess was correct, the Mechanic and his sister were connected.

“Your voice...”

Lin Qingqing was somewhat in disbelief, “How is it the same as mine?”

Although there were some differences in tone, the essence of the voice was indeed exactly the same.

This was too incredible.

The Mechanic was also stunned. She had obviously encountered this situation for the first time.

Lin Tianhao silently pulled up his friend list and sent a message to Fatty.

“Fatty, tell Qingqing to go offline and then force her offline to see, I want to do an experiment.”

“Okay.”

Forcing someone offline would affect the ongoing game, but if prepared in advance, the impact wouldn't be great.

After about thirty seconds.

Lin Qingqing stopped moving. In the friend list, the Gui Ye Wuqing marked as sister also showed as offline.

But the Mechanic in front of him was still normal, she didn't go offline!!!

Lin Tianhao's eyebrows were furrowed into a “川” shape.

This situation did indeed exceed his understanding.

He initially suspected that Lin Qingqing had an alternate character, but she didn't know it herself.

After all, her attribute panel only had health and mana, nothing else. It was estimated that an alternate character appeared at some point she didn't know about.

She didn't have a panel to check, so she didn't even know.

But now.

Lin Qingqing went offline, according to common sense, her alternate character should also be offline.

But this Mechanic didn't go offline, she was looking at Lin Tianhao.

"You know my voice is the same as hers?" the Mechanic asked.

Lin Tianhao was silent, after a while he shook his head, "I don't know."

Fatty sent a message at this time, "Brother Hao, how is it?"

"Let Qingqing go back online," Lin Tianhao said.

"Okay."

Thirty seconds later, Lin Qingqing's body moved, she looked at Lin Tianhao somewhat blankly.

"Brother, what's going on?"

Lin Tianhao took Lin Qingqing directly back to the Fan Palace, then took off his disguise black robe.

"Qingqing, put on this disguise black robe, and don't let others know your name in the future, neither your game name nor your real name."

Lin Qingqing nodded subconsciously.

She put on the disguise black robe Lin Tianhao gave her and chose to hide her nickname.

Lin Tianhao closed his eyes slightly and sent a message to Fatty, instructing him about this matter.

Although Lin Tianhao hadn't figured out the reason yet, there must be a problem here.

The same nickname could be barely explained as a small bug in Twilight of the Gods.

But the same voice, that couldn't be explained by a simple bug.

The problem here was more complicated than he thought.

Qingqing was forced offline, but the Mechanic didn't go offline, this was abnormal, too abnormal.

Not an alternate character!

Their game launchers were different.

Lin Tianhao opened the Gui Ye Wuqing Mechanic's chat box, he really wanted to ask her out to see if he could meet her offline.

As long as he could meet her offline, then perhaps he could solve this mystery.

But Lin Tianhao ultimately didn't send this message.

Sending it like this was too rash, and it was too easy to expose himself.

Doing it this way now wasn't worth it!

"Where are you from? Your accent is actually exactly the same as my sister's."

Lin Tianhao didn't ask so abruptly, it could be considered asking in a curious tone.

Mechanic: "Dragon Country."

Lin Tianhao: "....."

Wasn't this nonsense, "Which province?"

"Jiangnan Province."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly.

Sure enough.

They were from the same province.

Chapter 326 - The pain of having a huge budget that can't be spent!

"Where in Jiangnan?" Lin Tianhao continued to ask.

Gui Ye Wu Qing: "... ..."

"Investigating my background? You don't think I'm your long-lost older sister, do you?"

Then it would be even more of a headache.

"Why did you choose the name Gui Ye Wu Qing?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"Really investigating my background. I had a flash of inspiration at the time and thought of this name."

Lin Tianhao asked Lin Qingqing the same question.

Lin Qingqing's answer was exactly the same, also a sudden flash of inspiration, and the name just appeared in her mind.

The more it was like this, the more Lin Tianhao was sure there was a problem.

From the Twilight of the Gods until today, Lin Tianhao could be said to have been in control of the situation.

Although there were some things that exceeded his expectations, they were at least within reason and within the rules.

But Lin Qingqing's situation really made Lin Tianhao feel incredible.

"Are you interested in joining my Fan Dian?" Lin Tianhao ultimately didn't continue to investigate further.

He wouldn't be able to find out anything by asking like this.

Most likely, this mechanic is like Lin Qingqing, and doesn't know about this situation between them.

"Fan Dian, the sacred ground of the Eastern Ancient Kingdom, I don't seem to have a reason to refuse."

Lin Tianhao sent her an invitation, and then said: "Hide your nickname in the future, and try not to let people know."

"Understood, I know you have that method of remotely locking heads through nicknames. There are billions of players worldwide, others probably have it too."

Lin Tianhao smiled awkwardly, "Tell me if you know who has it."

"Okay."

... ..

End of chat.

Lin Tianhao thought of that level one mage.

Most likely it was her too.

Three.

This was what he had come into contact with so far.

The mage and the mechanic didn't recognize him, and they all had their own memories, as if they were really completely separate individuals.

If it weren't for so many connections between them, Lin Tianhao wouldn't have thought so much.

After sending Lin Qingqing away, Lin Tianhao asked Poseidon and the Silver-Eyed Octopus.

"Do you know what's going on?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"The nicknames are the same, the voices are the same, and from what I've observed, that mechanic can also add all-attribute power to her machines. At least just now in the Corrosion Bone Forest, I felt the power of eight attributes from those mechanical puppets."

Poseidon's voice was serious, "Although their professions are different, their original talents seem to be related to all attributes."

Lin Tianhao nodded, he had also noticed this.

But this couldn't explain anything, it could only strengthen the connection between them.

"Before, you should have experimented with your adventurer methods, that mechanic is not your sister's clone."

"Then I don't know about this situation. Maybe it's related to the dream of our ancestral god."

The Silver-Eyed Octopus gave his opinion.

Poseidon directly retorted: "Don't always think about your ancestral god for everything. Your ancestral god is only strong in his own rule universe. Outside of his rule universe, he's just so-so."

"And you should have also noticed that after coming here from your ancestral god's world, your power has weakened a lot. Your ancestral god cannot influence things outside of his universe."

The Silver-Eyed Octopus was a little unhappy, "My ancestral god is just asleep."

"Then you should pray that he stays asleep, otherwise it's hard to say whether you gods built on the basis of dream power will still exist."

"That's going too far."

Lin Tianhao interrupted their conversation.

Looking at it this way, it was rather difficult to expect them to give any constructive advice.

He had to figure this out himself.

However, Poseidon did give Lin Tianhao a reminder.

There were indeed some risks in enslaving Cthulhu series gods.

If their ancestral god woke up, then the source of their power would collapse.

He was indeed a little inconsiderate when he enslaved the Silver-Eyed Octopus.

Looking at it this way, he should try to avoid enslaving Cthulhu series gods as much as possible in the future.

At this moment, a notification sounded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

"Ding, your monthly task reward is a total of 579,620 free attribute points, you have received a feedback reward of 58,000 free attribute points."

Last month, Lin Tianhao, as the master of the holy land, issued tasks, and now the rewards were finally settled.

The Twilight of the Gods' main god was still conscientious.

He rounded it up for him and gave him 58,000 free attribute points.

Lin Tianhao opened the Fan Dian Master's token to check, and the rewards given for publishing tasks inside were even more.

The free attribute points increased from one million to one million and two hundred thousand, and other rewards also increased.

"Every month there will be so many rewards waiting for me to send out, is this the feeling of having a lot of budget that can't be spent?"

A new month, more budget.

If this couldn't be sent out, then it would be a real loss.

The key was that the tasks couldn't be issued randomly, it was best to be able to promote the development of the plot, and it also had to be difficult.

Not only that.

It also had to be a task that the whole people could do together, so he had to think about it carefully.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao thought of something and immediately issued a reward.

"National reward, the Blazing Flame Sea has recently undergone a mutation, producing a large number of strange mutated sea beasts. Killing the mutated sea beasts will receive a large number of free attribute point rewards. This is hereby announced, and it is hoped that the vast Shanhai Empire adventurers will actively go to hunt the mutated sea beasts."

... ..

Previously, under the pretext of the black night, Lin Tianhao sent out a large number of free attribute points. Now, under the pretext of the Blazing Flame Sea, he could also send out a lot of rewards.

Not only that.

He had always felt that there was a problem with the Gods' Blessing pre-task scroll for the Blazing Flame Sea in his hand.

He didn't plan to personally test the problem now, so he would just let the players crush it.

After this reward task came out, it could be said that the players of the Shanhai Empire were excited.

"Hahaha, cool, so cool."

"I only earned fifty free attribute points for hunting monsters in the black night before, this time I must work hard."

"You earned fifty, don't go, last time I only earned five free attribute points."

... ..

Voices of discussion came, and the players in the Dragon Country area could be said to be quite excited.

But the players in other countries were dumbfounded on the spot.

"Isn't this a mistake? Isn't this obviously giving out benefits? How can it be like this? I seriously suspect that Dragon Country has brought the drinking culture to the game."

"Why only the Shanhai Empire, doesn't our Vast Empire have it?"

"Our Moon Wheel Empire doesn't have it either, it's unfair, I strongly suggest that we also have such a reward."

Chapter 327 - The Heart of Heavenly Punishment upgrades its star!

In the vast Hao Miao Continent, those from other sacred grounds were enraged upon hearing about this bounty.

Moon Wheel Empire, Moon Wheel Magic Palace.

An angry roar echoed from within the palace.

"This Snow Emperor is really going too far, acting so blatantly."

It wasn't just the Moon Wheel Magic Palace; other sacred grounds also found it hard to watch.

Tutu Lu Sacred Mountain.

Mountain Lord Tutu Lu Hongqiong chuckled in astonishment, "Old stubborn, what kind of successor did you find? Doing things like this, the other sacred grounds won't tolerate him."

Hao Miao Boundless Palace.

Second Palace Lord Xiudeli Haotu's expression slightly darkened, "This kid is breaking the rules a bit. If all the Sacred Lords were like him, wouldn't things be chaotic?"

"Second Palace Lord is right."

Just then.

A cold female voice came, and the Scarlet Flower Demigod stepped on flower petals as she walked over.

"We should go to the Mortal Palace and have a good talk with that kid."

"Talk?"

Xiudeli Haotu glanced at the Scarlet Flower Demigod.

"The Scarlet Flower Demigod is someone who has knelt before him. Don't you know what his temper is like?"

"Moreover, I heard that your Three Saints Association also suffered a setback in his hands. Haven't you learned your lesson yet?"

The Scarlet Flower Demigod's expression turned somewhat sinister upon hearing these words.

"Yes, he has a bad temper, but that's not his license to run rampant."

"Anyway, I can't control him, and I definitely won't go looking for him."

Xiudeli Haotu spread his hands, adopting an attitude of helplessness.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod seemed to have anticipated his attitude and wasn't surprised at all.

"Haotu, you're really smooth, avoiding anything that might offend people, aren't you?"

With that said.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod changed the subject.

"Actually, solving his problem is very simple, as long as you're willing to help."

"Oh?"

Xiudeli Haotu was somewhat surprised, "I'm all ears."

"We should also issue bounties, so that the rules of the Twilight of the Gods will judge such bounties as loopholes. Then everyone won't be able to issue bounties, right?" The Scarlet Flower Demigod said.

Xiudeli Haotu nodded, "Good idea, but what if the judgment treats us as loopholes?"

"That kid is very clever. Both times he issued bounties, he had justifiable reasons. The rules of the Twilight of the Gods can't make a judgment."

The Scarlet Flower Demigod's eyes narrowed slightly, "Are we just going to let him mess around like this? It's unfair to the adventurers in our region."

"Fair? Have you ever really thought about helping those adventurers become stronger? You have so many rewards in your hands, but I haven't seen you give out much."

"Isn't it because, at your level, the free attribute points and those things provide negligible help?"

The Scarlet Flower Demigod didn't refute him; she was just indignant.

If it were other sacred grounds doing this, she probably wouldn't say anything.

But the Mortal Palace!

They were her mortal enemies!

Thinking about the grievances she had suffered at the hands of the Mortal Palace, she gritted her teeth in anger.

"In less than three months, it will be the Sacred Ground Newcomer Genius Competition. The rewards of this competition are what we should be fighting for."

Xiudeli Haotu couldn't help but roll his eyes, "Scarlet Flower, how can you have the nerve to say that? Compared to you and those guys in the Western Regions, our Hao Miao Boundless Palace is far behind."

The Scarlet Flower Demigod waved her hand and said, "Our Three Saints Association has been wiped out. Do you have any news about this year's newcomers from the Mortal Palace?"

"I do have some, but it's not important. Anyway, that kid is the Sacred Lord, and he can't personally participate. The others aren't important."

"After all, he's still too young when it comes to nurturing people."

... ..

Mortal Palace.

"Ding, congratulations, your Heart of Heavenly Punishment has been upgraded to four stars."

A look of joy appeared on Lin Tianhao's face. His Heart of Heavenly Punishment had finally reached four stars.

Now, each time the Book of Life and Death deals damage, it can stack four points of maximum health for him.

That's 345,600 points per day. Counting Fatty's bond and the Tears of the Goddess of Life, the health he can increase per day is as high as 449,280 points.

The health he stacks in a day can already beat up many tanks at this stage.

Recalling his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao began to comprehend the Dao.

He planned to reach the advanced level of Immaculate Mind first.

Only after reaching the advanced level of Immaculate Mind would he be able to fully unleash the power of True Intent.

Becoming a god through comprehending the Dao.

Is the simplest, most direct, yet very powerful method of becoming a god.

After the Mind reaches Immaculate, the improvement becomes exceptionally slow.

Even with the assistance of the Jade Disc of Creation, it took Lin Tianhao twenty-one days to finally reach the advanced level of Immaculate Mind.

It was precisely because of the high difficulty of comprehending the Dao that many high-level players in his previous life gave up on becoming gods through comprehending the Dao and blindly pursued becoming gods through incense.

Because compared to becoming a god through comprehending the Dao, becoming a god through incense was much simpler.

He glanced at his Mortal Palace Token. In these twenty-one days, he had distributed more than 800,000 free attribute points.

Wonderful!

The players of the Mountain and Sea Empire are really awesome.

He was just lying down and earning more than 80,000 free attribute points.

Besides that.

The incense of the City God Temple had also allowed his magic resistance to break through 20,000.

In these twenty-one days, the Book of Life and Death had increased Lin Tianhao's health by more than 9.4 million, allowing Lin Tianhao's total health to break through 59 million!!

Currently, he had five things to do.

First, his sister's situation.

Her situation was too special. Lin Tianhao couldn't figure out the reason, but he still had to investigate it thoroughly.

She was his only sister, and it would be a headache if something unexpected happened.

Second was the job change.

He had already obtained the Transcendent-grade hidden class Heavenly Punishment Archer job change token and still needed to find a Transcendent-grade job change altar.

The Warrior's Transcendent-grade hidden class was in the Five Peaks Secret Realm, and the Five Peaks Secret Realm was also a headache for the time being.

He only had the qualifications to enter after comprehending the five holy attributes to the level of law.

Not to mention him, even those level 9 experts couldn't achieve that level.

Third, the Tomb of the Yellow Emperor, or rather, the place suspected to be the Tomb of the Yellow Emperor. That should be a very, very high-level secret realm. The most direct thing inside was, as Kos Moyo said, to trigger the task of further reviving the Mountain and Sea Empire, and at the same time, it could be considered completing the promise to Shui Ruyan.

Moreover.

Intuition told Lin Tianhao that he would have even greater gains in the Tomb of the Yellow Emperor.

Fourth, the quest for the Scroll of Divine Blessing Pre-Quest.

Currently, he still had two unfinished quests.

The first one was given to him by the First Elder, to eradicate the remnants of the Vast Sea Kingdom and the Netherworld. He had never done this quest before.

It was because the God-level hidden class job change scroll of One Arrow Breaks the Sky was related to those people. He was worried that dealing with those people would cause unknown changes to the quest scroll.

Chapter 328 - Bronze door!

The second was the quest scroll about the Blazing Ocean that Berserker Blades had obtained from the poorest player in the bay.

His bounty for mutated sea beasts in the Blazing Ocean was also a consideration in this regard.

Fifth, god slaying, such as the Dark Night Spirit God.

Actually, there's one more, which is to find special flames to improve the proficiency of Divine Flame Nine Refinements, but this isn't a particularly urgent matter; it's best to proceed gradually.

These twenty-one days have been very peaceful.

The West hasn't carried out the Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan anymore, and other holy lands also seemed to have disappeared.

Apart from occasional news that so-and-so had joined some holy land, there wasn't much other news about the holy lands.

Most importantly, these holy lands haven't attacked the Mountain Sea Empire anymore.

The remnants of the瀚海 Kingdom and the幽冥之地 also haven't taken any action, as if it truly is a world of peace and everyone is happy.

眼镜 sent a message to Lin Tianhao, congratulating him on finding Qingqing and also saying that he was preparing to give up on the Tomb of the Yellow Emperor.

That place is not somewhere a person can enter.

Trying to break in with a third job advancement is just a fool's dream.

Lin Tianhao hadn't paid attention for twenty-one days.

He first opened the various rankings to check.

Level Ranking:

First, Su Li, Level 199 71%.

Second, Jin Delan, Level 195 13%.

Third, Berserker Blades, Level 193 92%.

... ..

These top players are leveling up very quickly, especially those who can grind monsters on a large scale; leveling up is as simple as eating and drinking.

However, Lin Tianhao was a little surprised that Su Li was first on the level ranking, but it seemed to be reasonable.

First, Snow Emperor.

Second, Hidden Nickname.

Third, Hidden Nickname.

... ..

It's still the same, there's no change.

Arena Ranking:

First, Snow Emperor, 13159 points.

Second, Hidden Nickname, 10301 points.

Third, The Monkey of the Monkey King, 9998 points.

... ..

Lin Tianhao briefly scanned the various rankings.

There are also equipment rankings and mount rankings.

But it's not important anymore.

After scanning, Lin Tianhao clicked on the forum of Twilight of the Gods again.

It was as lively as ever.

There was all kinds of messy information.

However, most of them were ordinary players discussing and sharing some relatively good strategies.

For example, which NPC can trigger a quest with reward skills, which quest has high experience rewards, strategies for teaming up to grind a certain dungeon, how to trap monsters, etc.

Lin Tianhao briefly browsed it, and there wasn't much useful information.

After all, with his current level, general things really can be ignored in terms of helping him.

After wandering around, he didn't find any useful information.

Lin Tianhao closed the forum, took a step, and came to the Bone Swamp again.

Now Lin Tianhao has reached the advanced stage of Undisturbed Mind.

Although the pressure he endured was still very high, it ultimately couldn't stop his progress.

Using Space Blink and the Kunlun Mirror, Lin Tianhao walked the last few steps and successfully arrived on the platform in front.

The platform was several thousand square meters. After ascending the platform, the Bone Giant behind him gave up attacking, and the pressure on Lin Tianhao also suddenly dissipated.

On this platform, underfoot were stones as black as ink, and directly in front was a huge bronze door.

Lin Tianhao stepped forward to the bronze door. In front of this huge bronze door, he was like an insignificant ant, not worth mentioning.

Mysterious Bronze Door: ???

Lin Tianhao could only see such an introduction; he couldn't see anything else.

He raised his hand, trying to push open the bronze door.

But just as his hand was placed on the bronze door, his entire spirit was extracted by a terrifying force.

In the next instant,

his consciousness appeared in a misty chaos.

"Where is this..."

Lin Tianhao looked around. The surroundings were filled with mist, and he couldn't see the things between heaven and earth clearly.

"Dong—"

A muffled sound, as if it came from the Nine Nether Hells, or as if it came from beyond the heavens, ethereal and traceless, yet truly echoing in his heart.

"Dong—"

Another muffled sound.

Lin Tianhao saw a beam of light appear in front of this chaos.

He slowly walked in the direction of the light.

But just after taking a step, lightning suddenly flashed and thundered in the sky, and a bolt of lightning struck him.

One step, two steps, three steps...

With each step,

the power of the lightning would increase by several points.

-317456!

-423697!

-529561!

... ..

The damage from the lightning fell on Lin Tianhao, but the effect of the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor was not triggered.

This attack level was very high, and ordinary skills had already lost their effect.

The importance of Enlightenment is reflected here.

The Dao is above ordinary skills.

Many skill effects will lose their original effect when facing the Dao.

Or the original effect will be weakened a lot.

Lin Tianhao's health was high enough, and he could withstand this damage.

He walked all the way to the place of the beam of light.

Only then did Lin Tianhao see that it was a huge bronze door.

This bronze door was the same as the bronze door he had just seen outside.

This beam of light was because the bronze door had opened a beam of light.

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and placed it on the bronze door, trying to push the bronze door wider.

Just after his conscious hand was placed on the bronze door, his consciousness quickly returned to his body.

But it was only for this moment.

He saw the back of a person in the gap that the bronze door opened.

He seemed to have noticed Lin Tianhao's gaze, and slowly turned around, wanting to see Lin Tianhao.

But before he could complete the turning action, Lin Tianhao's consciousness had already returned to his body.

"Dong—"

A muffled sound.

Lin Tianhao's consciousness returned to his body. He was still stepping on the black rock, with the Bone Swamp behind him.

And this huge bronze door was slowly opening under his push.

"Rumble—"

A huge sound rang out.

The bronze door opened little by little, and an extremely vast square appeared in Lin Tianhao's vision.

In the square, there were thousands of black statues, large and small.

It is said that they are large and small, but the small ones are more than a thousand meters tall. In front of these statues, Lin Tianhao is as small as an ant.

Each one was like a fierce god descending into the world, giving people a strong sense of oppression.

Lin Tianhao swept over these statues.

Clearly, each statue was carved lifelike, and Lin Tianhao could see their faces very clearly.

But as long as he turned his head, the faces of the statues he had just seen would immediately disappear from his mind, as if they had never appeared.

"This..."

Lin Tianhao was shocked in his heart, these are just statues.

If it were a true god in person, it would be nothing to forget his face immediately after seeing it.

True god statues do not have this ability, at most they make people feel vague and unclear.

Since these are not true god statues, then what are they...

Chapter 329 - Were the three thousand gods and demons created by someone?

Saint Statue!!

A crazy idea surfaced in Lin Tianhao's mind.

Only a saint statue could possibly make people unable to remember its face, even if it's just a statue.

If there were such a statue here, Lin Tianhao wouldn't find it strange.

But the statues here, just a cursory glance, and you know there are thousands of them.

Before the heavens and earth were separated, in the chaos, three thousand demon gods were born, each with the realm of a saint...

Lin Tianhao thought of an ancient legend from Eastern myths.

However, the three thousand demon gods have always been just a legend.

Even with the existence of the Twilight of the Gods, the three thousand demon gods are still regarded as just a legend.

But the statues in front of him almost confirm that the three thousand demon gods truly existed.

Lin Tianhao walked inside, and one after another, strange and bizarre demon gods appeared in Lin Tianhao's sight.

“2995...”

“2996...”

But.

When he counted to 2997, he stopped.

Because he saw a scene that made him unbelievable.

He saw a stone platform in front, and in front of the stone platform sat a statue of a young man in a robe.

The statue held a carving knife in its hand, and on the stone platform was an unfinished statue.

Lin Tianhao stepped forward.

This young man was like a living person, but Lin Tianhao still couldn't see his appearance clearly.

This wasn't just forgetting, it was directly not being able to see clearly.

But.

What he was carving in his hand was exactly the same as these demon god statues.

It seemed to be something that was countless times weaker than these demon god statues.

Or perhaps.

These demon god statues were originally only the size of a palm.

It was only after this person finished carving them that they became this huge.

Lin Tianhao moved a little closer, trying to see the appearance of the carver clearly.

Who was it that was carving the statues of the three thousand demon gods here?

When Lin Tianhao got closer, his consciousness was pulled again.

This time.

It was still in that chaos, he saw a person, he was holding his chin with both hands, seemingly lost in thought, or perhaps thinking about something.

Suddenly.

He seemed to have some insight, groped for a stone from the chaos, and began to carve.

First, he carved a human-shaped statue, the human-shaped statue was dignified and solemn, and just the eyes gave people a very strong sense of oppression.

The young man gently tapped on this human-shaped statue, and a force of supreme and powerful rules poured into the statue.

After a while.

The statue actually grew in the wind, and in the blink of an eye, it became a thousand-foot giant.

The original stone body also turned into a flesh and blood body.

He looked around blankly, and finally focused his gaze on the young man.

“Boom!”

The giant knelt down on one knee, bringing up the sound of thunder.

“Greetings, Godfather.”

The young man smiled slightly, although Lin Tianhao couldn't see his face clearly.

But he could also see that he was smiling.

Then.

An ethereal voice sounded.

“You have been infused with my power, today I grant you the name Pangu, the master of the Great Dao of Power!”

“Thank you, Godfather, for the name!”

“Boom!”

Lin Tianhao only felt a thunderclap in his mind.

This was not only because of Pangu's voice, but also because of the scene in front of him.

Pangu was carved out by someone.

How is this possible!!

Pangu was already the head of all saints, and once suppressed the demon gods with the Great Dao of Power, making them unable to lift their heads.

To say that he was carved out, Lin Tianhao really couldn't accept it.

Next was the second statue, the third statue...

Lin Tianhao really felt it was absurd.

The three thousand demon gods were actually carved out by the young man in front of him.

Is this possible?

Lin Tianhao still felt that this was somewhat unrealistic.

One step, two steps...

Lin Tianhao tried to get closer to him, and he also seemed to sense something, stopped the carving action, and raised his eyes to look at Lin Tianhao.

The same situation as last time happened, the two people's sight did not collide at all, and Lin Tianhao's consciousness was pulled back into his body.

Looking at the statue of the young man in front of him again, Lin Tianhao's fingertips couldn't help but tremble slightly.

This was too incredible.

“Illusion?”

Lin Tianhao could only think like this, because if what he saw was true, then the origin of this world would be even more terrifying than he imagined.

Standing in front of the young man's statue, Lin Tianhao still couldn't see his appearance clearly.

But.

Lin Tianhao found that there was also a passage of text on the stone table.

This passage of text was different from the previous ones, Lin Tianhao clearly didn't recognize the words on it, but he could still understand the meaning expressed by this passage of text.

“Having existed for too long, and being too lonely, I always feel that I should do something, perhaps creating some life can change something.”

The content was very simple, but this was too incredible.

Lin Tianhao looked at these saint statues, each one was lifelike.

The person who could carve these stone statues was definitely not simple.

After all, saint statues were not something that anyone could carve.

Taking a deep breath.

Lin Tianhao calmed down his emotions, he looked at the end of the square.

At the end of the square was a long corridor.

Apart from the statues, there was nothing else of value here.

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to leave and continue moving forward, he suddenly noticed the carving knife in the young man's hand.

Everything else was stone, only this carving knife didn't seem to be.

Lin Tianhao reached out and grabbed the carving knife, wanting to pull it out.

But the carving knife seemed to be embedded in the young man's hand, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't take the carving knife away.

“What a pity, what a pity.”

Although Lin Tianhao couldn't check the attributes of the carving knife, he was sure that it must be a good thing.

But since he couldn't take it down, he was also powerless.

Having reached here.

Lin Tianhao could basically confirm that this was not the Tomb of the Yellow Emperor.

It should be a secret realm, a secret realm beyond his imagination.

Passing through the square, Lin Tianhao came to the corridor.

The entire corridor was made of unknown wood, Lin Tianhao followed the corridor forward.

With every step he took, Lin Tianhao felt that the surrounding space seemed to have some unknown changes.

But as far as his eyes could see, there was no change at all.

Suddenly.

He heard footsteps.

How could there be footsteps here!

Who is it?

Lin Tianhao restrained his aura and stepped through the corridor.

When he walked out of the end of the corridor, Lin Tianhao was directly dumbfounded.

Because he came to a wide street.

It was bustling with people, very lively.

Turning around.

The corridor he had just walked through had disappeared.

“What is this place?”

Arriving at an unknown place made Lin Tianhao a little uneasy.

“Secret realm?”

Lin Tianhao wasn't sure.

Judging from the streets here, this should be ancient times, the clothing is relatively luxurious, and the average level of this city is not low.

Lin Tianhao's gaze fell on one of the soldiers, and he saw his introduction.

City Guard (Black Iron): Level 500.

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Chapter 330 - The secret realm of the ancient dynasty!

Seeing this, Lin Tianhao was almost certain of his guess.

He had entered a secret realm within this place.

A secret realm is different from a dungeon. It can be understood as a small, independently existing world, somewhat different from the outside, but the overall social order is roughly the same as the outside world.

Secret realms can be monster-infested, or they can be like what Lin Tianhao is seeing now, with cities and NPCs.

Compared to monster-infested secret realms, the kind Lin Tianhao was encountering now was a treasure.

Because here,

Lin Tianhao was the only player, and all the quests here were his.

A brand new secret realm meant brand new Scrolls of Divine Blessing Prerequisite Quests and some meaningful special rewards.

A guard at level 500, it seems this secret realm is of a very high level.

But Lin Tianhao still felt something was off.

Because the suppression he suffered in the Bone Marsh before, and the things he saw in the square, were all telling Lin Tianhao.

This place is not simple.

But it doesn't matter now.

Here, he shouldn't have to worry about being plotted against by those Western gods, and obtaining Scrolls of Divine Blessing Prerequisite Quests should be easier.

But similarly, his understanding of this place was very low, and if he wanted Scrolls of Divine Blessing Prerequisite Quests, he had to get in touch with the higher-ups.

"Ding, congratulations on entering the Ancient Dynasty of Dao Secret Realm. Secret Realm Quest: Find the carving knife you want and learn at least four deeds about the Origin God of Dao."

"Quest Requirements: Find the carving knife you want and learn four deeds about the Origin God of Dao. Current progress: 1/4 (Creating Three Thousand Gods and Demons)."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: Blessing of Gods and Demons +1, New Secret Realm Quest +1, Enlightenment Points +3."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, Blessing of Gods and Demons?

What is this thing?

Lin Tianhao tried it.

His Kunlun Mirror could leave from here.

In other words,

The restrictions here weren't as high as he had imagined.

After all, the Kunlun Mirror was only divinely bestowed. If this secret realm had restrictions, he definitely wouldn't be able to enter.

"Ding, you have opened the Ancient Dynasty of Dao Secret Realm, a server-wide announcement will be made soon. Hide your name?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned.

This secret realm seemed to be a hidden secret realm with special properties.

But looking at the situation, this secret realm would be open to the public.

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for successfully opening the Ancient Dynasty of Dao Secret Realm. Special announcement, may all players actively enter the secret realm to train."

... ..

"Ding, you are the first player to open the secret realm, reward: Free Attribute Points +500, Platinum Set for your class +1."

The rewards were not bad, but Lin Tianhao was somewhat dissatisfied.

He originally thought that he was the only player here, so all the good things here would be his alone.

Now that other players could also enter this secret realm, there might be some people with heaven-defying luck who would obtain the good things in this secret realm.

"It seems I need to hurry."

Lin Tianhao found a general store and walked straight in.

"Hello, I want to buy a map and a classic introduction to the Ancient Dynasty."

Only by understanding the basic situation can he know what to do next.

"Okay, sir, that's a total of fifty Rank 1 Crystal Cores."

Lin Tianhao was stunned, "Crystal Cores?"

The general store owner looked at Lin Tianhao strangely.

"Fifty isn't expensive."

"Where do Crystal Cores come from?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The general store owner was even more surprised, "Hunting wild monsters, of course."

"Rank 1?"

"Sir, you must be an adventurer from another world. Ordinary wild monsters drop Rank 1 Crystal Cores, Elite-grade drop Rank 2, Black Iron-grade drop Rank 3, and so on."

Lin Tianhao understood, "Okay, thank you for the information."

With that said,

Lin Tianhao took out a Bronze-grade long saber, "How many Crystal Cores can this weapon be exchanged for?"

"This is a Rank 4 weapon, at least 30,000 Rank 1 Crystal Cores."

"20,000, how about selling it to you?"

Lin Tianhao didn't lack this weapon. He would exchange it for some Crystal Cores first to facilitate future transactions.

"Okay, okay, okay, of course, no problem."

The owner only felt that he had picked up a bargain.

He gave Lin Tianhao 20,000 thumb-sized white Crystal Cores.

At the same time, he also gave Lin Tianhao the map and the classic introduction.

"These things are all given to you as a bonus."

"Then thank you, boss."

"Hehe, I should be the one saying thank you."

At this point,

The owner put away the Bronze equipment.

"Young adventurer, I could tell at a glance that you are no ordinary person. Recently, the Lord of Red Maple City seems to have encountered some trouble and is looking for experts to help. Maybe you can lend a hand."

"Okay, thank you for the reminder."

This was something Lin Tianhao hadn't expected.

Buying a map could actually trigger quest clues.

His luck didn't seem to be that low after all.

Unfolding the map,

Lin Tianhao took a rough look.

This Ancient Dynasty was a bit bigger than he had imagined, with an area about the same size as the current Mountain and Sea Empire.

The city he was in now was Red Maple City, one of the three major cities of the Ancient Dynasty, second only to the capital of the Ancient Dynasty in scale.

From a level perspective,

This Ancient Dynasty belonged to the Rank 5 area, which was actually much friendlier compared to the Mountain and Sea Empire and the Moon Wheel Empire.

Because the Mountain and Sea Empire and the Moon Wheel Empire were both Rank 9 areas.

And for players to directly enter the Rank 9 area from the Rank 2 area was a bit too insignificant.

This place could become a transition area for many players.

Of course,

The premise was that they could obtain enough benefits here.

Lin Tianhao went all the way to the Lord's Manor of Red Maple City.

As soon as he arrived, he saw the notice posted on the wall next to the Lord's Manor.

"Recently, a Flower Plucking Bandit has appeared in Red Maple City, specializing in harming young ladies from good families in the dead of night. Several young ladies have already suffered. A reward is issued for killing the Flower Plucking Bandit."

"Those who successfully kill the Flower Plucking Bandit will be rewarded with one million Crystal Cores, Free Attribute Points +500, and an Equipment Evolution Scroll +1."

The rewards were average.

If it weren't for the Equipment Evolution Scroll, Lin Tianhao might have lost the desire to accept the quest.

But that didn't matter. What mattered was that by completing this quest, he could smoothly get in touch with the Lord of Red Maple City.

Judging from the introduction, Red Maple City was a city second only to the capital of the Ancient Dynasty, and their Lord should still have a high status and position.

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to ponder how to kill this Flower Plucking Bandit, Fatty's message came.

"Brother Hao, monsters have started attacking again, this time it's Violet Myrtle Town."

Lin Tianhao wasn't surprised. After the secret realm was opened, messages could basically be sent.

Especially for this kind of nationwide secret realm!

"They knew I entered the secret realm, so they couldn't wait to start attacking?"
