

Online game 331

Chapter 331 - The competition between masters from the East and the West begins!

Lin Tianhao opened the Kunlun Mirror, stepped out, and disappeared.

Ziyuan Town.

Although it is a new town, it is also located on the original territory of the Star Kingdom.

Lin Tianhao's Kunlun Mirror can reach the vicinity of Ziyuan Town.

When he arrived near Ziyuan Town, he happened to see the wild monsters attacking.

The level is not high, but it is not low either.

Most of them are above level 50, and there are even a few level 100 wild monsters.

Similar to the wild monsters that attacked Sunset Town before, they were attacking like crazy.

Lin Tianhao used feather arrows to cover the attack, and within a few minutes, he repelled these wild monsters.

In the distant mountains and forests.

The ghost-faced masked man clenched his fist, "Isn't this Snow Emperor still in the secret realm? How could he appear here so quickly."

Standing next to him was a person who said with a smile: "It doesn't matter anymore, only some wild monsters died."

"Moreover, the Snow Emperor must now make a choice."

"What do you mean?" the ghost-faced masked man asked in a deep voice.

The man smiled slightly, "He was the first to open the secret realm. I learned from the adults that the first to open the secret realm usually has one or even a series of secret realm missions with generous rewards."

"Now he has to guard against people coming to attack his territory, and also consider the tasks in the secret realm. He must make a choice between the two."

"He can first destroy the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land, and then go to the secret realm," the ghost-faced masked man said.

The man smiled indifferently, "Now a large number of players are pouring into the Ancient Dynasty secret realm. By the time he destroys the remnants of Hanhai Qiankun and the Netherworld Land, whether the mission is still there is another matter."

"Furthermore, do you think there is no support behind the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land?"

Having said that.

The man changed the subject.

"I might as well tell you a piece of news. The Snow Emperor destroyed the Three Saints Association, and the three holy lands are very unhappy with the Snow Emperor."

"Some of them are already supporting the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land."

Hearing this.

The ghost-faced masked man couldn't help but reveal an evil smile.

"Hmph, that's really great."

The man glanced at the ghost-faced masked man, "We are each working for our own masters, but the goals are the same. There is no need to pretend that you don't know anything in front of me."

"The Snow Emperor is not easy to deal with, it is better to exchange information."

The man nodded, "The Holy Land Newcomer Genius Competition is still more than two months away. The adults behind me don't want any troubles to occur."

"What? Are you going to target the geniuses of the Mortal Palace now?"

The man smiled mysteriously, "Yes, but we are still studying the plan. Simply killing the geniuses of the Mortal Palace a few times is somewhat insignificant."

... ..

Ziyuan Town.

After solving these wild monsters, Lin Tianhao was indeed in a dilemma.

Should he complete the mission of the secret realm first, or should he solve the people of the Hanhai Kingdom first?

The result is.

The secret realm mission has a higher priority, even if it really fails, it is just a matter of losing a scroll of the Prelude to the Gods' Blessing mission.

The rewards in the secret realm are obviously higher.

Moreover.

This is not without a win-win solution.

"National announcement, the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land are eyeing the Mountain and Sea Empire. A reward is now issued to kill the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land, and a large number of rewards can be obtained."

... ..

This month, Lin Tianhao still has more than 300,000 free attribute points that have not been distributed.

The mutated sea beasts that can be killed in the Sea of Flames have been almost killed.

The remaining ones are either very powerful or hidden better, and the free attribute points are being distributed less and less.

Moreover, in another eight days, the rewards will be refreshed again, which definitely needs to be distributed.

This task does not violate the regulations, but is justified.

Outside Ziyuan Town.

The ghost-faced masked man was taken aback when he heard this national announcement.

"He doesn't seem to need to make a choice."

The person next to the ghost-faced masked man also frowned.

"No, he needs to make a choice."

"We should talk to these remnants and see how many rewards they can offer."

"The only one who can issue tasks is not just the Snow Emperor!!"

... ..

After Lin Tianhao issued the reward, the players became excited.

A national mission that rewards free attribute points cannot be missed when encountered.

But this time.

They were not as smooth as before.

Someone found the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom, and just as they were about to attack, they were backstabbed to death by a dagger.

Such things happened a lot. As long as anyone tried to kill the remnants of the Hanhai Kingdom and the Netherworld Land, they would be killed by some high-level players.

This matter instantly rushed to the top of the forum's hot list.

"What's going on? Is that damn Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan starting to be implemented again? But I'm not considered a high-level player either."

"It feels like it's targeting people who are doing reward missions. I was killed when I went to do the mission of hunting down remnants, but it's okay to do other things."

"In my opinion, this is because those players from Western countries are jealous and cannot see us doing well, so they are interfering."

... ..

There is a lot of discussion online.

Because many of the people who took action this time were players who had previously carried out the Dragon Slaying Decapitation Plan.

Although they were easily killed by Lin Tianhao like chickens and dogs.

But this does not mean that they are really chickens and dogs. When facing most middle and lower-level players.

They are still nightmare-like existences.

As a result, Lin Tianhao's reward was issued, but very few people actually received the reward, and even once made people lose faith in this reward.

"Does everyone think that there are no masters in our Dragon Kingdom district?"

In the end, someone couldn't stand it anymore, and the Lord of the Night took the lead in breaking the balance.

Immediately afterwards was a level one mage, who used an all-round coverage of magic to carry out a bombing-style attack.

The Monkey and Fatty also took action.

The original appointment battle became a melee of Eastern and Western masters.

Some clever anchors specialize in live broadcasting of such master duels, and it can be said that many anchors have become popular because of this.

Simultaneously.

More high-level players have also appeared in the players' field of vision.

Fatty's terrifying double resistance and health bar, the Monkey's outrageous comprehensive combat power.

Level one mage Gui Ye Wuqing's bombing-style battle.

Su Li's pile of high-level, high-grade summoned beasts.

The lineup on the Western side is not bad either.

Jindlan, Heavenly Ninja Blood Buddha, a warrior with gravity suppression, and a curse master who knows various powerful curse methods.

The Eastern and Western battles are in full swing, and the fighting is fierce.

Moreover, because there is no Lin Tianhao, a balance-breaking existence.

The two sides of masters fought back and forth.

Especially a few Western masters who came out of the Holy Land, and even their comprehensive combat power has been able to compete with the Monkey.

But there are also exceptions.

Chapter 332 - The flower thief!

Goudao Wangu hasn't changed his job all this time and is still stuck at level 20.

But he doesn't care, and even feels great about it.

Because his talent is to gain double resistance by killing monsters not lower than his own level.

Leveling up would instead affect his stacking of double resistance.

Moreover.

As time goes by, basically no one is competing with him for monsters in the level 20 area anymore.

He just brushes through one area after another, which is really wonderful.

“An adult's time shouldn't be spent fighting and killing, but more on being steady. Can't we just grow slowly and steadily like me?”

Goudao Wangu muttered to himself.

... ..

Ancient Dynasty Secret Realm.

Night falls, it's time for nightlife to begin, and it's also time for the flower picking thief to come out to work.

Lin Tianhao accepted the reward and researched the situation in Red Maple City.

Three young ladies have already suffered, and the young ladies of other major families are in constant fear.

The major families have strengthened their defenses.

Lin Tianhao didn't care.

After this place existed in the form of a secret realm, the previous suppression no longer exists.

The divine senses of Poseidon, the Sea God, and the Silver-Eyed Octopus can be released.

Lin Tianhao directly used an all-round, no-dead-angle monitoring system.

Not only that.

During the day, Lin Tianhao visited all the major families in Red Maple City.

As long as he finds the flower picking thief, he can use the Kunlun Mirror to rush over at the first moment.

Hundred Flowers Building.

The gathering place for fallen girls in Red Maple City.

Lin Tianhao leaned against the window, with fine wine and delicacies in front of him, a woman in thin gauze pouring wine beside him, and a woman playing the pipa in front of him, which was quite pleasant.

“No wonder so many people in ancient times liked to visit brothels to listen to music. This feeling is indeed good.”

Especially listening to music here, the health points are increasing rapidly, which is quite wonderful.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao's message popped up.

“Brother, are you comfortable?”

This was a message from Gui Wqing, who was marked as his sister.

Lin Tianhao subconsciously looked down, he was sitting by the window at this time.

With this glance, he happened to see Lin Qingqing looking at him with a smile.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, “Not comfortable, not comfortable at all, Qingqing, it was Fatty who insisted on dragging me here. I said I wouldn't come, and he said he would pull my power cord offline.”

Lin Qingqing's eyes narrowed, “Is Fatty the kind of person?”

“He is that kind of person. He even dragged Monkey to take a bath before. If you don't believe me, ask Monkey.”

Lin Qingqing was a little suspicious, while Lin Tianhao came out of the Hundred Flowers Building.

“This Ancient Dynasty Secret Realm has just opened, there should be many tasks, have you received any?” Lin Tianhao asked with concern.

Lin Qingqing nodded, “As soon as I came in, an old man grabbed me and insisted on giving me a task, and I couldn't get rid of him.”

Lin Tianhao: “? ? ?”

“There is such a thing, what is the task reward? If the reward is not good, don't accept it.”

Lin Qingqing screenshotted the task reward and sent it to Lin Tianhao.

Task Reward: Blessing of the Gods + 1, Eternal Scroll + 1.

Lin Tianhao: “? ? ?”

“Are you sure this task was forced upon you by him?” Lin Tianhao couldn't help but twitch his lips.

Lin Qingqing nodded, “Yes, I don't know why, maybe no one wants to accept his trash task.”

Trash task?

“By the way, brother, how is this reward? If it's not good, I won't do it. It's too stingy. The tasks I did before directly increased health points and mana, but this reward doesn't increase either.”

Lin Tianhao: “? ? ?”

“Are you saying that you have received tasks that permanently increase health points and mana?”

“Yes.”

Lin Qingqing sent two more screenshots.

Task Reward: Maximum Health Points + 100000.

Task Reward: Maximum Mana + 50000.

Lin Tianhao was a little numb, what kind of fairy is his sister?

How could she receive tasks with such rewards?

He worked so hard, but he hadn't received such a task, it's simply unreasonable.

"I'm going to do the task."

Lin Qingqing waved her hand, "Brother, you should come to this kind of place less in the future. If you find a sister-in-law in the future, and she asks me if you have ever been here... how should I answer?"

Lin Tianhao smiled awkwardly, "Brother is very self-disciplined."

Lin Qingqing leaned closer and lowered her voice: "Even if you want to come, don't sit by the window, it's so ostentatious, are you afraid others won't see you?"

"Ahem, I'll pay attention next time."

Lin Qingqing didn't care, "Brother, I have something serious to tell you."

"What?"

"I heard a voice a few days ago. When I was hit, I heard someone talking, and that voice was very similar to the voice at that time."

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes. His sister was hit, and the other party fled the scene.

In his previous life, his sister died because of this.

Even in this life, his sister is still in a vegetative state!

This revenge, Lin Tianhao will definitely take.

"Do you know his identity?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Lin Qingqing shook her head, "I don't know, Fatty said it's because of your lock-on skill, which made everyone panic, and many people have hidden their nicknames."

"Fatty is talking nonsense, I never randomly lock on." Lin Tianhao said seriously.

"It doesn't matter anymore, anyway, I don't have his contact information, and I can't find him for the time being. I only know that he is a priest, male."

"Priest, male..."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. There are relatively few men who choose priests.

To some extent, this has already eliminated most people.

"My lord, the person has arrived, at the Zhang residence."

The voice of Poseidon, the Sea God, sounded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

“Not good, I have to go.”

Lin Tianhao said hello to Lin Qingqing, and in the next moment, he used the Kunlun Mirror to arrive in front of the Zhang residence.

“The flower picking thief has entered the Zhang residence!”

Lin Tianhao didn't try to break into the Zhang residence, as that would only waste time.

He shouted at the top of his lungs, immediately alerting the people of the Zhang residence.

Inside the Zhang residence.

The flower picking thief, dressed in night clothes, who had already sneaked into the room of the Second Young Lady of the Zhang family, suddenly changed his expression.

This sudden change caught him a little off guard. At the same time, he couldn't care about anything else and turned around to run.

“Who is it that dares to ruin my good deeds.”

The flower picking thief didn't dare to stay and turned around to run.

He had just run out of the Zhang residence when a barrage of feather arrows swept towards him.

“Blood Flame Rose!”

The flower picking thief raised his hands, and roses burning with flames appeared, resisting Lin Tianhao's feather arrows.

“True Meaning of Arrows, String Twisting Arrow!”

Lin Tianhao condensed the True Meaning of Arrows.

Wenxin Wuchen has reached the limit of using the power of True Meaning.

In addition, Lin Tianhao's arrow used the String Twisting Arrow Technique to increase the impact force, these Blood Flame Roses could not withstand Lin Tianhao's feather arrows.

“Chī — —”

The feather arrow hit, and a huge damage number appeared.

- 2159803! !

One arrow kill, no suspense.

Chapter 333 - Lord of Red Maple City: Fairy Picture!

"Ding, you have killed the Flower Plucking Bandit, a nationwide announcement is about to be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Nationwide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for successfully killing the Flower Plucking Bandit, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

Announcements within the secret realm generally do not extend beyond the secret realm.

Therefore, it is a nationwide announcement, not a server-wide announcement.

At this moment.

The people of the Zhang mansion also chased over, seeing Lin Tianhao kill the Flower Plucking Bandit with one arrow, the Second Master of the Zhang mansion quickly approached.

"Young hero, thank you very much for taking action to kill this Flower Plucking Bandit and eliminating this scourge for our Red Maple City."

Lin Tianhao's gaze landed on this middle-aged man in luxurious clothes.

Second Master of the Zhang Mansion (??): ???

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Without any suspense, everything is a question mark.

This is a fifth-tier area, which means that normal leveling can increase to level 1000.

The fifth-tier limit is exactly level 1000.

First tier is level 20, second tier is level 50, third tier is level 100, fourth tier is level 200, and fifth tier is level 500.

Level 500 only reaches the threshold of the fifth tier, sixth tier is level 1000, so the fifth-tier limit is exactly level 1000.

Although Lin Tianhao doesn't know the specific level of this Second Master of the Zhang Mansion, it is estimated that he is definitely a fifth-tier, but he just can't see the specific attributes.

"It is only right to help those in need and punish evil-doers. It's nothing worth mentioning,"

Lin Tianhao said politely.

The Second Master of the Zhang Mansion nodded with a smile, "Seeing your archery skills just now, young hero, they are outstanding. Our Zhang Mansion is preparing to enter the Red Maple Ancient Ruins soon, I wonder if young hero is interested."

"Ding, the Second Master of the Zhang Mansion has issued a quest to you."

"Quest Requirement: Follow the Zhang family to the Red Maple Ancient Ruins to find a Glacial Ice Profound Flower."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: First Tier Crystal Core + 10000, Archer Skill Book + 1, Free Attribute Points + 30."

"Ding, do you accept?"

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly, this quest seems good for other ordinary archers.

But Lin Tianhao really doesn't think much of it.

"Sorry, I have my own arrangements,"

Lin Tianhao refused the quest.

Taking the time to accept this quest wouldn't help him much.

The Second Master of the Zhang Mansion shook his head with some regret, "That's a pity, then we'll have a chance to cooperate in the future."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile, came to the Flower Plucking Bandit, and began to loot the corpse.

"Ding, you have obtained Fairy Painting + 1."

"Ding, you have obtained Crystal Core + 10000."

"Ding, you have obtained Free Attribute Points + 50."

"Ding, you have obtained the Flower Plucking Bandit's Mask (Quest Item) + 1."

... ..

As long as you have this mask, you can submit the quest.

But this Fairy Painting aroused Lin Tianhao's interest.

Effect: Your Enlightenment Speed is increased by 50%.

Proficiency: 5 / 100. (Note: This proficiency is the number of women with perfect bodies who cultivate with you. For each additional person, Proficiency + 1, Enlightenment Speed increases by 10%.)

Wear Resistance: Indestructible.

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth twitched.

This Fairy Painting is a bit interesting.

This proficiency... ..

Ahem! !

This is going to lead him astray.

He needs to find women with perfect bodies to cultivate with, and the key is not just one, but a hundred! !

This... ..

This Fairy Painting is poisonous!

Although Lin Tianhao has lived two lives, he sees many things relatively lightly.

He even had one-night stands in his previous life.

But those were purely physical pleasures and did not involve emotions.

But this requirement is a perfect body, which makes Lin Tianhao a little unacceptable.

Otherwise, it wouldn't be impossible to have a good time in the Hundred Flower Building for a while.

But can you find a perfect body in the Hundred Flower Building? It's a bit unrealistic.

As for other places?

Can't he just learn from the Flower Plucking Bandit?

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao felt that this Fairy Painting was poisonous.

Its effect is unquestionable, but the method of increasing proficiency is really not suitable for Lin Tianhao.

"If I had known, I wouldn't have taken this Flower Plucking Bandit's quest. It would have been better to wait for the Flower Plucking Bandit to increase the Fairy Painting to the maximum value before killing him."

There is another method, gather couples who are still virgins, and let the man wear it when they are about to consummate their marriage.

Ahem... ..

As soon as he had this idea, Lin Tianhao felt his scalp tingle.

This idea doesn't seem very reliable no matter how you look at it.

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead, he doesn't have any good methods for the time being, and he can only put it away first.

Anyway, he can't personally go and gather this proficiency, he really can't do it now.

He can't get over this psychological hurdle.

In any case.

Lin Tianhao still put on the Fairy Painting.

Adding 50% to the enlightenment speed is already quite good.

Taking out the Flower Plucking Bandit's mask, Lin Tianhao came to the City Lord's Mansion.

"Hello, I'm here to submit the quest."

Seeing the mask in Lin Tianhao's hand, the City Lord's Mansion guard showed a respectful expression on his face.

"Young hero, please follow me. The City Lord already knows that someone has killed the Flower Plucking Bandit and is waiting for your arrival."

Lin Tianhao nodded with a smile and followed the guard into the City Lord's Mansion hall.

In the City Lord's Mansion hall, there is a tall, delicate-looking woman.

Red Maple City Lord (??): ???

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Unexpectedly, the Red Maple City Lord is actually a woman, and she is so beautiful.

After the Red Maple City Lord saw Lin Tianhao, a smile appeared on her face.

"Thank you, young hero, for removing this scourge from our Red Maple City."

The Red Maple City Lord's voice is soft, just like a girl next door, with an unspeakable and inexplicable affinity.

Just listening to the voice makes people want to get close to her.

"It's just a small effort, not worth mentioning,"

Lin Tianhao said politely.

The Red Maple City Lord waved her hand, "This is the reward for the bounty."

Lin Tianhao smoothly received the reward for the bounty and was about to ask about the Scroll of Divine Blessing Prerequisite Quest.

But unexpectedly, the Red Maple City Lord said first:

"Snow Emperor, do you know why that Flower Plucking Bandit specifically targeted the daughters of noble families?"

Lin Tianhao smiled, "The daughters of noble families have the highest probability of being virgins."

Hearing this.

The Red Maple City Lord narrowed her eyes slightly, "It seems that thing has already fallen into your hands."

With that.

The Red Maple City Lord changed the subject, her voice carrying a hint of coldness.

"I wonder how you plan to use that thing, Snow Emperor?"

"Use it normally,"

Lin Tianhao said.

The Red Maple City Lord spread her hands, "I am also a woman, and I don't want our Red Maple City to have a second Flower Plucking Bandit."

"Especially, a Flower Plucking Bandit who can release such a wide range of divine sense."

Lin Tianhao's pupils shrank slightly, Poseidon's release of divine sense was actually detected.

This is a bit abnormal.

The divine sense of a god should not be so easily detected in principle.

"Don't panic, it's just that my ancestors brought a small trinket from the Red Maple Ancient Ruins that can just detect divine sense."

Chapter 334 - Clues to the super god-level hidden career change altar!

It's Red Maple Ruins again!

Judging by the name, these Red Maple Ruins should be extraordinary.

"Lord City Lord, if you have any ideas, you can speak directly," Lin Tianhao said.

"That thing isn't safe with a man. Why don't you name a price and give it to me?"

The Red Maple City Lord said.

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment.

"It's not impossible to give it to you, but what bargaining chips can you offer in exchange?"

"A Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll," the Red Maple City Lord said.

"Lord City Lord is very sincere."

For any leader, a Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll is a very precious item.

Even Lin Tianhao, as the Lord of a Sacred Land, only gets one Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll as a reward each year.

People in other places might only get one Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll in their entire lives.

Her willingness to offer the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll for a trade shows her sincerity.

"So, you agree?" the Red Maple City Lord asked.

Lin Tianhao shook his head. "No, I don't think it's enough."

Because she felt that she had already shown enough sincerity.

"It's not greed. I just have a few questions I want to ask Lord City Lord, without asking for anything else," Lin Tianhao said.

The Red Maple City Lord's expression improved slightly.

"Ask, but I won't necessarily answer everything."

Lin Tianhao didn't mind and asked directly, "Do you know the Origin God of the Dao?"

Hearing this,

The Red Maple City Lord nodded. "I know. I can't reveal information about him. Of course, I don't know much either."

"Then do you know about the Transcendent-God-Rank Hidden Class Transfer Altar?" Lin Tianhao asked again.

"I know."

The Red Maple City Lord gave a definite answer, which made Lin Tianhao smile.

"It is said that our Ancient Dynasty didn't exist at first. It was because someone built this Transcendent-God-Rank Hidden Class Transfer Altar that people settled near the altar, and gradually the Ancient Dynasty came into being."

Lin Tianhao was overjoyed. "Do you know where this altar is?"

"I don't know. It's just a rumor. I've only heard about it. It may or may not be true."

"Who did you hear it from?" Lin Tianhao asked again.

"The Sixth Prince of the Ancient Dynasty."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes. He actually had more questions, but he didn't ask them in the end.

Because he could already see that the Red Maple City Lord was somewhat displeased.

He already knew what he wanted to know the most this time, and adding a Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll was already good.

After all, he didn't have a good way to increase the proficiency of the Fairy Maiden Picture, so it would be a waste in his hands.

"Gods' Blessing pre-quest."

The Red Maple City Lord took out the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll and completed the transaction with Lin Tianhao.

The quest on the scroll was to give her a Tier 1 Core, showing that the Red Maple City Lord didn't make things difficult for him.

"You are a good partner. If there's a chance, we can cooperate again," Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

This was the City Lord's Mansion.

The Red Maple City Lord could have just robbed him, but she chose to negotiate a trade instead.

After getting what he wanted, Lin Tianhao used it directly.

"Ding, you used the Blessing of the Gods..."

"Ding, the Gods are bestowing blessings upon you..."

"Ding, you have received the blessing of the Queen Mother of the West: +1 Peach Tree Sapling."

Lin Tianhao immediately checked the Peach Tree Sapling.

Peach Tree Sapling: God-Given.

Usage Requirements: Plant it in a place with rich spiritual energy, and it will automatically absorb the spiritual energy of the world to grow.

Effect: Mature peaches can permanently increase the target's HP by 10,000,000 (only one peach is effective per person). The growth rate depends on the spiritual energy concentration of the planting environment. Cores can increase the growth rate of the peaches.

Current Progress: Not Planted.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. This thing was a bit heaven-defying.

It wasn't of much help to him.

But for Fatty, it was a complete win.

Giving it to him and the people he was bound to would directly increase his HP by 110,000,000!!!

Moreover,

Peaches could make up for the shortcomings of most combat classes with low HP.

Such as assassins, archers, mages, and priests.

These classes didn't have high HP and were easily targeted.

But only one mature peach could change the situation of low HP.

After obtaining the Peach Tree Sapling, Lin Tianhao directly returned to the Mortal Palace and planted the Peach Tree Sapling in the deepest part of the Mortal Palace.

After the sapling was planted, Lin Tianhao began to check the progress of the Peach Tree.

The previously "Not Planted" changed to "Seedling Growth Stage", current progress 0.01%.

This...

Lin Tianhao threw all the cores he had into it.

The progress increased from 0.01% to 0.08%.

Lin Tianhao: ???

Was he kidding? He had over a million Tier 1 Cores on him.

It didn't even increase by 0.1%. This was a bit outrageous.

The key was the seedling stage.

Would there be a maturity stage later?

Even like the tree planting on a certain treasure in the real world before, there would be a lot of levels, and the later it got, the more difficult it would be.

Although the fruit of the Peach Tree was very precious, the difficulty was too high.

At this rate, it was unknown whether there would be mature fruits when the Great Disaster came.

He could only find a way to earn more cores to accelerate the growth of the Peach Tree.

It would be best if he could get mature peaches during the Sacred Land Newcomer Competition, so that the probability of winning this Sacred Land Newcomer Competition would be greatly increased.

There should be a lot of cores in the Ancient Dynasty. If he could get some, it would probably allow the peaches to mature quickly.

Before that,

Lin Tianhao prepared to use the Equipment Evolution Scroll in his hand.

It was still the Purification Jade Pendant.

The Purification Jade Pendant had been upgraded to God-Given, and the current CC immunity value had reached 93%.

And according to the previous understanding, the Purification Jade Pendant had a chance to be upgraded to Divine Artifact.

Therefore, upgrading the Purification Jade Pendant was the most beneficial for Lin Tianhao.

"Ding, you used the Equipment Evolution Scroll on the Purification Jade Pendant. The Purification Jade Pendant is evolving..."

"Ding, congratulations, the Purification Jade Pendant has evolved successfully."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

This was wonderful.

"It seems that my non-chief attribute is gone, and the last two evolutions have been successful."

Lin Tianhao glanced at the Purification Jade Pendant. The value increased from 93% to 93.5%.

The increase was not large, but it was still steadily increasing.

According to Lin Tianhao's calculations,

The increase value might be reduced after it was increased to 95%.

After checking the Purification Jade Pendant, Lin Tianhao discovered a problem.

Very few people who had truly received the reward from his bounty.

"It shouldn't be. Fatty and Monkey only got more than 80 free attribute points as rewards."

Lin Tianhao felt something was wrong.

The remnants of the Han Sea Kingdom and the Netherworld should not be very strong. At least most of them were not that powerful.

Chapter 335 - Encounter with Putuo Tianlong!

Thinking of this.

Lin Tianhao sent a message to Fatty.

"Fatty, what's going on? Why have you only killed so few remnants of the 瀚海 Kingdom?"

Fatty took several minutes to reply to Lin Tianhao's message.

"Brother Hao, that guy Jin Delan seems to have become stronger again. That group executing the Dragon Slaying Beheading Plan is preventing us from doing bounty missions."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "Are these people not learning their lesson?"

"I don't know, but Fatty, I'm fearless. Jin Delan was just beaten away by me. It's just a pity I couldn't catch up with him, otherwise I would have pinned him to the ground and rubbed him."

"I'm not going to talk anymore, I'm going to continue fighting. Brother Hao, if you're concerned, you can check the forum and live broadcasts. There should be a lot of videos about our battles on there."

Lin Tianhao opened the forum, and the top ten trending topics were all about discussions of Eastern and Western experts.

"Omnipotent King battles Dual Blade War God, a battle lasting one minute and fifty-nine seconds, making people's blood boil."

Lin Tianhao clicked on the post, and inside was a high-definition video, precisely Monkey battling Dual Blade War God.

It's probably because Monkey hid his nickname that he got the title of Omnipotent King.

However, the title of Omnipotent King does indeed suit Monkey.

Dual Blade War God's combat skills are higher than Monkey's, Lin Tianhao could see this from the beginning of the battle.

After all, Monkey hasn't experienced systematic combat training, and his game time is short, so it's understandable that his combat skills are not mature enough.

But Gods' Twilight is, after all, a game world, combat skills are important, but attributes and equipment are even more important.

In terms of equipment.

Monkey's advantage isn't too great.

But in terms of attributes, Monkey's advantage is too great.

His all-around talents make his dual resistance very high.

As a result, Dual Blade War God's attacks don't cause Monkey to lose much health.

But Monkey's attacks on Dual Blade War God cause a terrifying amount of health loss.

Therefore, although Monkey's combat skills are not as good as Dual Blade War God's, Dual Blade War God was also retreating under Monkey's offensive, and was eventually killed by Monkey in less than two minutes.

If Monkey's combat skills were similar to Dual Blade War God's, he could save at least half the time.

Besides this.

Lin Tianhao also saw the confrontation between Fatty and Jin Delan.

It's really just me standing still, if you dare to attack me, I dare to reflect the damage back and kill you.

In the end, Jin Delan fled in panic, unable to do anything about Fatty.

But in the video, Lin Tianhao also discovered a problem.

That is, Jin Delan not only recovered, but also seems to have become stronger.

It hasn't been that long, this recovery is too fast.

But Fatty's attributes are too strong in countering Jin Delan.

Similarly.

Jin Delan's abilities make it difficult for Fatty to kill him.

The two are just evenly matched.

However, there is one person who can kill Jin Delan.

That is Su Li!

As a summoner, her summoned beasts are strange and endless.

Beating Jin Delan into retreat.

The West does not represent one country, but multiple countries, and some non-Western countries have also joined the Western camp.

And the East basically only has Dragon Kingdom players.

In other words, the Dragon Kingdom is simultaneously fighting high-level players from many countries.

Even if their individual combat power is not weak, they are still fewer in number.

Lin Tianhao roughly looked at it, and the two sides were evenly matched, so he didn't plan to take action.

Fighting with these experts is also very necessary to hone their combat skills.

With a step.

Lin Tianhao returned to Red Maple City.

Before, he had already received news that the Sixth Prince of the Gu Dynasty knew about the Transcendent-God-Rank hidden class change altar.

Since this is the case.

Then Lin Tianhao definitely needs to change classes first.

Transcendent-God-Rank hidden class!

The improvement for Lin Tianhao will definitely be significant.

Although Lin Tianhao still doesn't know why Shui Ruyan's attack speed as a Heaven's Punishment Archer is so low.

But one thing is certain, that is, as a Transcendent-God-Rank hidden class, its power is beyond doubt.

The Sixth Prince of the Gu Dynasty.

This is also a celebrity in the Gu Dynasty, but ordinary people would not discuss people in the royal family. Lin Tianhao still needs to figure out how to meet this Sixth Prince.

The Sixth Prince of a dynasty is not someone you can meet just because you want to.

Gu Dynasty Capital: Tiangu City.

Tiangu City is larger and more prosperous than Red Maple City.

When Lin Tianhao entered Tiangu City, he had already noticed the figures of players.

Especially.

He also ran into acquaintances.

"Snow Emperor."

Puto Tianlong gave Lin Tianhao a Buddhist greeting.

Lin Tianhao smiled, "Any gains?"

Puto Tianlong nodded slightly, "A brand new dynasty, many missions, generous rewards, it's really good."

At this point.

Puto Tianlong changed the subject and said with a smile: "I still have to thank you for this. If you hadn't opened the Gu Dynasty Secret Realm, we wouldn't have had such an opportunity."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Since we've met, if there's any information in the future, we can share it."

Puto Tianlong bowed, "It is this monk's honor to be able to cooperate with Snow Emperor."

"Alright, you go do your own thing."

Puto Tianlong paused and said to Lin Tianhao: "Snow Emperor, what do you think, is it possible to take down this secret realm and establish our own territory here?"

Lin Tianhao was stunned, "Your ambition is big enough."

Puto Tianlong smiled bitterly and shook his head, "It's just a whim, don't take it seriously."

"The method you mentioned is feasible, but this secret realm... let's forget about it."

"Oh?"

Puto Tianlong was a little surprised, "Has Snow Emperor already set his sights on this secret realm?"

"No."

Lin Tianhao said solemnly: "It's that I am not qualified to become the master of this secret realm."

"At least... I am not qualified now."

Puto Tianlong was even more surprised, he nodded and said: "I see."

After Lin Tianhao separated from Puto Tianlong, he walked towards the core area of Tiangu City.

Generally, the famous and powerful families of a city are in the core area.

Many players know this, and Lin Tianhao saw many players in the core area.

Although they hid their nicknames, in this fifth-tier area, players are still too obvious.

The main reason is that the players' levels are too low.

Even Su Li, who is number one on the level榜, has not reached level 200 yet, let alone others.

The fifth-tier area doesn't mean that everyone has reached the fifth tier, there are people who are one or two hundred levels, or even dozens of levels.

But there are not many who wander in this core area.

Especially these people are still trying to find ways to contact those NPCs who look like they are full of question marks.

The purpose is self-evident.

They all hope to get some hidden missions and soar into the sky.

Lin Tianhao didn't care, relying on this method does have a certain probability of receiving missions.

But it is still somewhat difficult to contact people at the level of the Sixth Prince.

Before coming here, Lin Tianhao already had an idea.

Chapter 336 - Kill three people!

To meet the Sixth Prince, conventional methods might not work.

According to Lin Tianhao's knowledge from his previous life, the best way to meet the Sixth Prince is to attract his attention.

Similar to these secret realm dynasties, you can choose to get the first kill. As long as you get enough first kills in a short period, you will inevitably attract the attention of the higher-ups.

Another method, which is used less often, is to go directly to see him.

Refusal?

That doesn't exist.

When your strength reaches a certain level, you can directly barge in if refused.

Secret realms aren't all high-level; there are some relatively low-level ones.

But if you only kill someone in a mansion, you are only provoking that mansion.

Of course.

The premise is that you can only kill the servants of this mansion.

If you kill the master, the situation is different.

To go and challenge him, I need to find out where the Sixth Prince's mansion is.

Lin Tianhao didn't hesitate and directly asked Poseidon, the God of the Sea, to release his divine sense.

Even though Poseidon's divine sense was captured by the City Lord of Red Maple City, Lin Tianhao still didn't care.

It doesn't matter if it gets captured again.

Poseidon, the God of the Sea, released his divine sense, but before he could find anything, a voice came.

"Are you looking for me?"

Lin Tianhao looked in the direction of the voice and saw a young man in luxurious clothes, holding a wine gourd, appearing in front of him.

"You came from Red Maple City and released your divine sense after arriving here. You must be the Snow Emperor that Little Red mentioned."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

It seems that the City Lord of Red Maple City has already told the Sixth Prince about me.

"Don't blame Little Red. She is my person, and I instructed her to lead anyone who asks about the Super God-level Hidden Class Advancement Altar to me."

Lin Tianhao looked at the Sixth Prince without saying a word.

"Snow Emperor, a very domineering name. I don't know if you want to advance yourself or are asking for someone else."

"I want to advance," Lin Tianhao said.

The Sixth Prince nodded with a smile, "How about returning to my mansion for a couple of drinks? There are too many people here, and some things are inconvenient to say."

"Okay."

Lin Tianhao also wanted to see what the Sixth Prince wanted to say.

Judging from the reactions of the Sixth Prince and the City Lord of Red Maple City.

They can capture Poseidon's divine sense, but because it is with external force, they don't know that the owner of the divine sense is a god.

Otherwise, their attitude and reaction would definitely not be like this.

But this is also good, allowing him to hide some trump cards.

Following the Sixth Prince to his mansion, he dismissed the servants, leaving only a tall woman to pour wine.

"Don't worry, she is my confidant," the Sixth Prince said to Lin Tianhao with a smile.

"Snow Emperor, at such a young age, you have already come into contact with the Super God-level Hidden Class Advancement, truly commendable."

Lin Tianhao didn't listen to his flattery but directly asked: "Does the Sixth Prince know about Super God-level Hidden Classes?"

"I wouldn't say I know much, only that the origin of this Super God-level Hidden Class is in our world."

"World?" Lin Tianhao asked in surprise.

The Sixth Prince nodded, "In your eyes, this is a secret realm, but in our eyes, where you are is also a secret realm."

"I understand."

This is not surprising, "But what I care about is the world you mentioned, meaning there is more than just your Ancient Dynasty here."

"Yes, but it doesn't matter anymore. You only need to know that the Super God-level Hidden Class Advancement Altar is in our Ancient Dynasty."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "The Sixth Prince already knows my purpose, so I wonder what kind of price I need to pay to have you take me to the Super God-level Hidden Class Advancement Altar."

The Sixth Prince looked at Snow Emperor, "To be honest, I don't know you well, and I don't know your strength."

"You can tell me what your current most desired goal is," Lin Tianhao said.

The Sixth Prince smiled slightly and said: "The Ancient Dynasty to be promoted."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "I thought you would say to become the Emperor of the Ancient Dynasty."

"Emperor?"

The Sixth Prince waved his hand, "We know our own business. Even if I become the Emperor of the Ancient Dynasty, it would be very, very difficult to promote the Ancient Dynasty."

"Moreover, being an emperor benefits me, while promoting the Ancient Dynasty is a contribution for generations to come."

Lin Tianhao was slightly stunned, then couldn't help but laugh, "What a contribution for generations to come."

"I really want to help you with what you said, but I can't do a five-turn promotion to six-turn right now."

Lin Tianhao could actually do it if he was willing to go all out and spend some time.

But he didn't want to waste too much time on it. If he could complete the advancement of the Super God-level Hidden Class at a relatively low price, that would be the best thing.

"As expected."

The Sixth Prince wasn't surprised or disappointed.

To be precise.

He would be surprised if Lin Tianhao nodded and agreed.

"How about this, you help me kill three people, and I will take you to the Super God-level Hidden Class Advancement Altar."

Kill people?

This seems much easier.

After all, Lin Tianhao can even kill gods, so killing a few people doesn't seem like a difficult thing.

"Speak, who are you killing?"

"First, Su Youfei, the Empress of our Ancient Dynasty."

"Second, the King of Black Mountain."

"Third, the Fish Intestine Scholar."

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment, "What is their strength?"

"The ceiling of the five-turn area."

"That is, they have already broken the limit?" Lin Tianhao frowned.

"Yes, but not the six-turn limit. Their level should be between 1,100 and 1,500."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I need more detailed information about the three of them."

"I have it all here."

The Sixth Prince handed three golden books to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao glanced at them. Su Youfei, the Empress of the Ancient Dynasty, caused chaos in the harem, bewitched the emperor, and harmed loyal officials. She was originally the daughter of Su Beilong, the King of Zhenbei, and was sent into the palace by Su Beilong to secretly support her in becoming the empress. She has a rebellious heart.

"Why don't you just let me kill Su Beilong?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The Sixth Prince shook his head, "This is a secret and cannot be revealed for the time being."

"Even if you don't say it, I can guess. Su Beilong is not the leader. This Su Youfei is the leader who intends to rebel?"

"If so, then she has not only the backing of King Zhenbei, but also someone who can suppress King Zhenbei."

The Sixth Prince looked solemn, "You are very smart. That's right, but I don't know what other backers she has, but killing her is a must."

"I need to restore my father."

Lin Tianhao nodded and looked at the introduction of the King of Black Mountain.

The King of Black Mountain is the leader of a group of mountain bandits in the 100,000 Mountains north of King Zhenbei. Although they are called mountain bandits, their number has exceeded 300,000, constantly threatening the safety of the border. If they are allowed to develop, the consequences will be endless.

"Mountain bandits? The number exceeds 300,000. Could it be that they are the private soldiers raised by King Zhenbei himself? If so, killing the King of Black Mountain would be useless, right?" Lin Tianhao said.

Chapter 337 - Seven Killing Hall: Silent Arrow!

"I know what I'm doing." The Sixth Prince was very confident.

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly.

He had already guessed the reason.

The Sixth Prince must have planted someone within this group of bandits, and someone with a high position.

Probably either the second-in-command or the third.

That way, as soon as the Lord of Black Mountain died, his man would be able to legitimately take over Black Mountain.

The 300,000+ bandits of Black Mountain would become a sharp blade in the hands of his Sixth Prince.

Lin Tianhao didn't voice this guess.

After all, these superiors don't like their thoughts being speculated by others.

Su Youfei was an open book, so it didn't matter if he said it.

But the bandits of the Ten Thousand Mountains were different; they were likely the Sixth Prince's trump card, and no one wants their trump card to be known.

Lin Tianhao had this much sense.

Thinking like this, Lin Tianhao looked at the information of the last person.

Fish Gut Scholar, the number one assassin of the Ancient Dynasty, had three successful assassinations of fifth-tier peak experts, and since his debut, he had never failed a single assassination mission.

“What? Is this Fish Gut Scholar going to kill you?” Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

In fact, he could understand.

Superiors like the Sixth Prince are not afraid of open attacks.

What they fear most are top assassins like the Fish Gut Scholar.

“No, I just think he is a variable. If he is not my man, then he must be someone else's man. If he wants to assassinate me, it will be very troublesome.”

“If that’s the case, it’s better to nip this trouble in the bud.”

Lin Tianhao nodded, “Okay, I’ll take this job. I hope that after I kill them, you can take me to the Super God-level Hidden Class Transfer Altar.”

“That’s natural.”

The Sixth Prince nodded, then added: “If possible, don’t start a massacre in the Ten Thousand Mountains. Many of the bandits inside are common people.”

“Most of them have become bandits because my father has been昏庸无道 these past two years.”

Lin Tianhao was not surprised, “I am also a commoner. If possible, I will show mercy.”

In fact, he didn't plan to start a massacre even if the Sixth Prince didn't say so.

Because he had already guessed some of the Sixth Prince's arrangements. If he destroyed the Ten Thousand Mountains, and the Sixth Prince wanted to make trouble, it would be troublesome.

Now that the task has been accepted, it depends on how to complete it.

Not to mention killing these three people, it would be difficult for him to even meet them.

One is in the palace, one is in the Ten Thousand Mountains, and one is a hidden assassin.

None of them are easy to kill.

Lin Tianhao already had a plan in his mind.

If there was an order, it would definitely be to kill the Fish Gut Scholar first, then the Lord of Black Mountain, and finally the Empress Su Youfei.

An assassin being killed is the least likely to be targeted.

As for the Book of Life and Death.

The Book of Life and Death may be useful, but the Fish Gut Scholar sounds like a nickname, and it's useless to write it in the Book of Life and Death.

Since that's the case, then I can only post a reward.

Seven Kill Hall.

The largest assassin organization in the Ancient Dynasty. The name is said to have come from the fact that the Seven Kill Hall was established by seven top assassins.

Later, the Seven Kill Hall continued to recruit assassins, and the seven top assassins disappeared and almost never took action again.

However, the Seven Kill Hall is still famous, and recently a master like the Fish Gut Scholar has been born.

Night fell.

A woman walked out of Red Maple City.

She came to the Seven Kill Hall branch.

“Hello, I want to put a bounty on the Snow Emperor.”

There is no face-to-face conversation in the Seven Kill Hall. People who come in to place orders are separated by a curtain, and they can't see each other's appearance, which is very private.

“Snow Emperor?”

“The one who killed the flower-picking thief?”

A low, hoarse voice came from behind the curtain.

“He is an adventurer. Killing him once is not enough.”

“Does the Seven Kill Hall consider these things when accepting orders?” the woman said with a smile.

“Of course not. Killing him is possible, 30 million first-tier crystal cores.”

The woman pondered for a while and handed out a ring.

“There is 100 million here, kill him three times.”

“Okay.”

There was a bit more smile in the person's words behind the curtain, “He will die three times within three days.”

“Hopefully that’s true.”

The woman got up and left.

Sixth Prince's Mansion.

The Sixth Prince smiled slightly at Lin Tianhao, “Okay, I have already asked someone to put a bounty on you at the Seven Kill Hall.”

Lin Tianhao nodded, “Okay, I’m going out to grind monsters.”

This round, of course, Lin Tianhao asked the Sixth Prince to send someone to put a bounty on him.

As for the result.

Lin Tianhao was confident that he could get the Fish Gut Scholar to kill him personally.

After all, other assassins can't threaten him.

After Lin Tianhao left, a woman walked out of the room.

This woman was the City Lord of Red Maple City.

“Your Highness, can he really hold on until the Fish Gut Scholar takes action?”

The Sixth Prince waved his hand, “It doesn’t matter. It’s not a bad thing to let these adventurers fight with the people from the Seven Kill Hall. It’s best to force out the person behind the Seven Kill Hall.”

At this point.

The Sixth Prince added: “Where is the thing?”

The City Lord of Red Maple City respectfully presented the Fairy Maiden Picture with both hands.

The Sixth Prince took the Fairy Maiden Picture and unfolded it to take a look.

“It is indeed a rare treasure.”

While speaking, the Sixth Prince turned to look at the City Lord of Red Maple City.

He raised his hand and lifted the City Lord of Red Maple City’s chin.

“Little Hong, you are still a virgin, right.....”

.....

Outside Tiangu City.

After Lin Tianhao left, he walked outside, preparing to hunt wild monsters.

Of course.

The bigger purpose is to fish.

I just don't know when the big fish I want to catch will come.

“The efficiency is a bit fast.” Lin Tianhao muttered.

Because he had already sensed a sense of crisis.

Although there was no one around, he knew that there was, an assassin, in stealth mode.

Lin Tianhao pretended to be nonchalant and continued to move forward, as if there was no one around him.

Finally.

The assassin couldn't help but take action.

His left and right hands simultaneously took out daggers flashing with cold light, and stabbed towards Lin Tianhao's back.

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth raised, and the God Striking Whip in his hand struck first, slamming **** the assassin's forehead.

Critical hit!!

-112W.

Instant kill!

The assassin didn't have the slightest ability to react and was easily killed by Lin Tianhao.

“Whoosh!”

After the assassin was instantly killed, there was an extremely slight sound of air being broken.

Lin Tianhao swept the God Striking Whip in his hand backward.

Too slow!

He was still hit by the feather arrow.

Critical hit!!

-361458!!

“Such a fast rate of fire!”

Lin Tianhao was surprised. He had already made a blocking action when he heard the sound.

Critical hit!!

-492189!!

Another damage number popped out from the top of Lin Tianhao's head. He was hit again.

“Silent Arrow!”

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. Archers also have a relatively special skill that allows their feather arrows to have no sound of breaking through the air and fly out completely silently.

Chapter 338 - Double Eagles take action!

Silent Arrows are generally used for assassination, and in terms of skills, Silent Arrow belongs to a general category.

This is because Silent Arrows are basically active skills with a cooldown, usually around thirty seconds, or even longer.

This cooldown only allows for one silent arrow, and the damage it can inflict is very limited.

They are usually used for surprise attacks, first using a Silent Arrow to lower the opposing priest's health, and then initiating combat.

Of course.

Their attack speed was not particularly high, only a little over ten, but their damage was not to be underestimated.

Lin Tianhao switched weapons, suppressing both archers simultaneously with his own strength.

After the True Meaning of the Arrow reached perfection, Lin Tianhao's projectile speed increased by thirty percent.

Now that his state of mind has reached the level of Undisturbed Mind, the projectile speed increase has gone from thirty percent to seventy percent.

The power of the True Meaning of the Arrow is not only reflected in the projectile speed, but also in the power of the arrows.

One arrow from Lin Tianhao can simultaneously scatter three of the opponent's arrows.

This is still because the opponent also has True Meaning infused into their arrows, otherwise it would be even more.

"Misjudged his strength, retreat!"

The two archers, seeing the arrows flying towards them, simultaneously threw smoke bombs and turned to run.

Instant transmission scrolls are very expensive and often unavailable for purchase.

But smoke bombs are different, they are affordable and practical.

Especially when facing ranged classes, the effect of smoke bombs is immediate.

If opponents can't see them, they are naturally less likely to be attacked.

But Lin Tianhao was an exception.

Poseidon can use his divine sense to report the positions to Lin Tianhao, who can then launch precise strikes.

Neither of the two archers survived.

"Ding, you have killed a mysterious archer, a national announcement will be made, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"National Announcement: Congratulations to player Xue Di for successfully killing a mysterious archer, this announcement is to encourage all players to continue their efforts."

... ..

All three assassins had national announcements.

But none of that mattered, Lin Tianhao began to loot the corpses.

These assassins who live on the edge have two extremes.

One is that all the good stuff is on them, and the other is that besides equipment, they have nothing good on them.

"Ding, you have obtained the skill book Silent Arrow."

"Ding, you have obtained equipment +2."

"Ding, you have obtained crystal cores +10000."

"Ding, you have obtained free attribute points +50."

... ..

The harvest was not bad, but it was limited to that.

Three boss-level assassins, and judging from the damage dealt by the two archers.

These two assassins were not weak, dealing hundreds of thousands of damage, which is already pretty good.

Even if it was because Lin Tianhao's armor was low, it was still considered good.

To have hundreds of thousands, or even two hundred thousand attack power below level 500, it either means high grade or strong equipment.

Seven Kill Hall!

In an ancient palace.

A man hidden in black mist suddenly raised his eyes.

"Misjudged his combat power, send someone else to continue."

"Yes, sir."

"This time we cannot fail, let the Twin Eagles go."

"Yes."

... ..

Wilderness.

Lin Tianhao checked the effect of Silent Arrow.

It was about what he expected.

Active skill, one-minute cooldown, can only fire a silent arrow, cannot be upgraded.

This effect is almost useless to Lin Tianhao.

There's a cooldown, and it's only silent.

Ambush is also useless.

After solving the three assassins, Lin Tianhao came to a plain.

Black Horned Bulls roamed here.

Black Horned Bull (Normal): Level 190.

Health: 24958 / 24958.

Attack: 2099.

Skills: Bull Roar, Headlong Rush, Black Horn Whirlwind.

Ordinary monsters, as always, trash.

Monsters of this level, not to mention Lin Tianhao, even ordinary players can farm them without any pressure.

"Shoo!"

- 24958!!

One arrow.

No suspense at all.

The Black Horned Bull fell.

Lin Tianhao walked towards the Shiwan Mountains while killing.

After killing Yu Chang Scholar, seamlessly connect to kill the Black Mountain Lord.

Perfect!

In less than half an hour.

Lin Tianhao sensed danger approaching.

This was the sixth sense honed from five years of life-and-death battles under the Great Cataclysm.

Lin Tianhao still didn't care, the Seven Kill Hall wouldn't tolerate mission failure, they should have sent a more powerful assassin this time.

Just didn't know how capable this more powerful assassin was.

"Earth Burst!"

A soft shout came out, the sound had just entered his ears, and the soil under Lin Tianhao's feet exploded.

- 296587!!

The power of the explosion sent Lin Tianhao flying into the air.

The damage was high, Lin Tianhao was not careless.

Because he felt a figure rushing towards him at extreme speed.

That person didn't use displacement, so Lin Tianhao naturally didn't bother using Purification.

The control reduction effect of the Purification Jade Pendant would make him land quickly, without displacement, it was impossible to connect to control.

"Be careful."

The mage in the distance noticed that Lin Tianhao's landing speed was a bit ridiculously fast.

The black-clothed man who rushed up reacted, his body flickered, and he instantly arrived behind Lin Tianhao.

His palm grabbed towards the back of Lin Tianhao's neck.

"Shadow Chasing Instant Kill!"

Lin Tianhao glanced at the moment the black-clothed man made his move, and the skill was already activated.

He held the God Striking Whip and appeared behind the black-clothed man, directly taking the initiative.

"Aren't you an archer?"

The black-clothed man's expression changed slightly, he had just seen Lin Tianhao farming monsters.

He was clearly an archer, but why did he switch to a warrior's weapon for close combat.

But at this time, he didn't have so much opportunity to think, his figure blurred for a moment, and Lin Tianhao's God Striking Whip actually passed through his figure.

Lin Tianhao didn't care, and the God Striking Whip in his hand swept out again.

At the same time he made his move, the mage in the distance also made his move.

Mud wrapped around his legs, causing Lin Tianhao's body to stagnate slightly for a moment.

But that was all.

"What a pervert, such high tenacity?"

Lin Tianhao didn't care what she thought, the God Striking Whip smashed towards the black-clothed man in front of him.

The black-clothed man flew out two throwing knives, then his body sank, and a sweeping strike came.

The throwing knives instantly shattered when they came into contact with the God Striking Whip in Lin Tianhao's hand.

The God Striking Whip sank down and smashed towards the black-clothed man's head.

The black-clothed man didn't bother to attack anymore, and rolled sideways, narrowly avoiding Lin Tianhao's attack.

"Undead Army!"

Lin Tianhao softly shouted, and a large number of Black Horned Bulls appeared, as well as the three assassins Lin Tianhao had killed before.

The two undead archers shot arrows at the black-clothed female mage, interrupting her attack.

Chapter 339 - The owner of Baihua Tower: Hua Baixin!

“Undead系!”

The female mage was somewhat surprised, “Withdraw.”

She had no intention of fighting, and with a command, she was the first to run.

A cold glint flashed in Lin Tianhao’s eyes.

“Run? Now that you’re here, don’t even think about leaving.”

Lin Tianhao switched weapons, the Netherworld Longbow spewing feathered arrows, instantly engulfing the female mage.

The black-clothed men near Lin Tianhao released three more throwing knives, which arrived in front of Lin Tianhao in the blink of an eye.

“Clang clang clang!”

Lin Tianhao turned around and fired three arrows, easily knocking away the throwing knives, and the feathered arrows flew towards the black-clothed men.

The black-clothed man's expression changed drastically, and he crushed a talisman in his hand.

After Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows landed, he had already disappeared, leaving only a scarecrow in his place.

“Substitute Technique?”

Lin Tianhao wasn't surprised; it was normal for such powerful assassins to have some life-saving methods.

But wanting to run away relying on these methods was unrealistic.

Although the Substitute Technique was instantaneous, the distance it could create after substitution wasn't far.

After the black-clothed man revealed his figure again, Lin Tianhao's feathered arrows chased after him.

On the other side.

The black-clothed female mage was also running away relying on the Substitute Technique.

However, she was entangled by the Black Horn Minotaur and two undead archers, making it somewhat unrealistic to escape the battle.

And here with the black-clothed man.

The Flower Plucking Bandit and the assassin who had previously assassinated Lin Tianhao both attacked together, flanking the black-clothed man from the left and right.

“Archer, warrior, undead mage, what the hell are you?!!”

The black-clothed man roared in exasperation, already knowing his fate; escaping today was extremely unlikely.

“Yelling so loudly, are you trying to send a signal?”

“Poseidon, go and deal with the observers.”

Lin Tianhao had actually considered trying not to use the power of the gods as much as possible.

But in the end, it was still somewhat unfeasible.

Although his current strength was strong, he was still just one person.

“Yes, Master.”

Poseidon took action.

Even using only one-millionth of his power, he could quickly eliminate the observers.

The remaining black-clothed man and black-clothed female mage, with the undead's restraint and Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow attacks, also fell one after another.

“Ding, you have killed the Mysterious Fighter, a national announcement is about to be made, do you want to hide your name?”

“No.”

“National Announcement: Congratulations to player Snow Emperor for successfully killing the Mysterious Fighter. Special announcement to encourage all players to continue their efforts.”

.....

This time, including the observers, Lin Tianhao had three more level 500 undead subordinates.

It could only be said... no guns, no cannons, the enemy makes them for us!

This was much more useful than enslaving a few Black Horn Minotaurs.

Seven Kill Hall!

The man shrouded in black mist was somewhat surprised.

“This Snow Emperor is quite capable.”

“Master, should we arrange for Fish Gut to go?”

One of the subordinates asked respectfully.

Before the man in the black mist could answer, a refined scholar's voice came from outside the door.

“I’m not going.”

Scholar Fish Gut strode in, “This Snow Emperor is just an adventurer. According to our observations, he’s only level fifty.”

“But he’s killed several of our experts,” the skinny old man said.

“Sen Nu, such an obvious thing, you still want me to go, what are your intentions?”

The skinny old man's expression changed, and he said in a deep voice: “What do you mean by that?”

“A level fifty archer can kill so many of our experts? Is that possible?”

“This reward is clearly targeted at us by some big shot. Snow Emperor is just bait.”

Scholar Fish Gut said indifferently.

The skinny old man frowned, “Fish Gut, this is just your own idea.”

“This is an obvious thing. If you want to go, you go. Anyway, I’m not going.”

Scholar Fish Gut spread his hands, looking like he wouldn't go even if he was beaten to death.

The skinny old man's expression darkened, and just as he was about to say something, the man hidden in the black mist interrupted him.

“Enough, what Fish Gut said isn’t unreasonable. In that case, Fish Gut, in your opinion, what should we do?”

“Don’t make a move for seven days.”

Scholar Fish Gut was still calm, “After seven days, you, Master, personally lead the team to kill Snow Emperor.”

The skinny old man was stunned, “Fish Gut, what do you mean by that? If Master takes action, why do we need to wait seven days?”

“Your brain, has it all gone to the pigs these years?” Scholar Fish Gut scolded.

The skinny old man's face turned blue with anger, but before he could speak, he was interrupted again.

“Okay, let’s do that. We'll take action again in seven days.”

The black mist man's voice became a bit heavier, “Sen Nu, Fish Gut is right, your brain really has gone to the pigs.”

The skinny old man's expression was unsightly, “Master is right to reprimand me.”

The black mist man waved his hand, “All of you, withdraw.”

After they left, the black mist man's body slowly disappeared from the throne.

Hundred Flowers Building.

In the room of the Flower Master, Hua Baixin, the black mist man slowly emerged.

On the bed.

Was a man who had been drained of his essence.

Hua Baixin enjoyed putting on her clothes, her gaze falling on the black mist man.

“Seventh Brother has good taste, do you want me to arrange a few girls to serve you?”

The black mist man didn't answer Hua Baixin's question, but instead went straight to the point:

“It seems that a big shot is targeting our Seven Kill Hall.”

“Big shot? How big of a shot?”

The black mist man shook his head, "Not clear yet, but someone paid 100 million to have us kill an adventurer three times."

"Fishing? I heard the announcement, it really does seem like fishing. Looks like we seven haven't made a move in too long, some people have forgotten the foundation of our Seven Kill Hall."

"That's why I'm here this time, we can't let people underestimate our Seven Kill Hall, can we?"

The black mist man said seriously.

Hua Baixin chuckled, and walked to the black mist man's side.

"Fifth Sister understands me best."

Hua Baixin smiled charmingly, and walked to the black mist man.

"Then Seventh Brother, do you want to stay and let Fifth Sister serve you well?"

The black mist man glanced at the man on the bed who had been sucked into a dried corpse, and couldn't help but shudder.

"No need, this little brother has his right hand, so I won't trouble Fifth Sister."

After saying that.

The black mist man didn't care about anything else and left in a panic.

Hua Baixin shook her head in disappointment at this scene.

"Alas, it seems it's really hard to find a man with sufficient essence, energy, and spirit."

“I wonder if the person targeting our Seven Kill Hall this time has sufficient essence, energy, and spirit? Can they please me a little... ..”

Chapter 340 - The Seven Killing Palace strikes again!

Wilderness.

It was not until nightfall.

The assassins of the Seven Kill Hall did not appear again.

The next day.

The third day.

The fourth day... ..

For three consecutive days.

Lin Tianhao brushed monsters all the way, all the way to the foot of the Shiwan Mountains.

But the result was that no assassins from the Seven Kill Hall came.

“It shouldn’t be, are the people from the Seven Kill Hall afraid after I killed them for two rounds?”

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. What were they thinking? Could it be that they discovered that he was fishing?

But even if they found out, they shouldn’t have taken so long to come.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao realized something.

He was only level 50!!

The people from the Seven Kill Hall would definitely not think that he was the one fishing.

From a certain point of view, their understanding of him would only stay at level 50.

But how powerful can a level 50 adventurer be?

If they were to think about this issue from the perspective of the rulers of the Seven Kill Hall, what would they think?

They would think that he was bait, and someone was using him as bait to lure out the experts from the Seven Kill Hall to kill them.

If that were the case, then it would be understandable why the Seven Kill Hall had not taken action for these three days.

However, even though they had not taken action, Lin Tianhao did not think that they would give up.

A killer organization, once they had accepted a mission, there was no reason to give up.

If they were to give up so easily, the reputation of the Seven Kill Hall would be ruined.

“It seems that I still thought things too simply, thinking that the Seven Kill Hall would keep sending experts over like experience babies.”

But he was not a saint in the first place, and it was impossible for him to think perfectly.

What he can be sure of now is that the Seven Kill Hall will not give up on assassinating him for the sake of their reputation.

It's just that they should be waiting.

Wearing down his patience.

Or perhaps.

They are wearing down the patience of the person they think is behind him.

The Seven Kill Hall must think that there are powerful experts around him.

Such experts generally would not delay too much time, so as long as they delay, the "expert" around him would leave.

It's just.

The Seven Kill Hall probably never dreamed that Lin Tianhao was the expert.

And he did have experts around him.

But from a certain point of view, they are no longer considered experts, but... gods.

Since the Seven Kill Hall wants to delay, Lin Tianhao doesn't care.

He can stack up a little more health to prepare for entering the Shiwan Mountains later.

At the same time, hunting these monsters can also collect crystal cores to prepare for cultivating the flat peach tree saplings.

Another four days passed, and seven days had passed since the last assassination.

In these seven days, Lin Tianhao's health had increased by more than three million, and now his health had exceeded 63 million.

Because of the health bonus, Lin Tianhao's true damage from his talents alone is now 1.9 million. If you count critical hits and double true damage, Lin Tianhao's damage is even more outrageous.

Because of the awakening of the Heart of Heavenly Punishment, Lin Tianhao's demand for the Book of Light and Darkness has decreased instead.

This is also the reason why he has not put finding the Book of Light and Darkness on the agenda during this period.

Before the Heart of Heavenly Punishment was awakened, Lightning Leap and Heavenly Fire Meteor could not stack health.

One arrow would kill a large area, but it could only stack three points of health, so Lin Tianhao really wanted to get the Book of Light and Darkness.

But now that the Heart of Heavenly Punishment's skills and equipment can also stack health, Lightning Leap and Heavenly Fire Meteor have become Lin Tianhao's weapons for stacking health.

What affects Lin Tianhao's stacking of health is also the Cycle of Death and Double True Damage.

However, these two passive effects do not have a big impact.

Because even some Black Iron bosses are killed by Lin Tianhao in one arrow.

Whether the Cycle of Death is triggered or not, it is a one-shot kill.

The Double True Damage is similar, it will only have an impact when fighting bosses with higher grades.

Of course.

If you can find the Book of Light and Darkness, it would definitely be better.

The sky gradually darkened.

Lin Tianhao prepared to return to Tian Gu City.

I have to admit.

The assassins of the Seven Kill Hall are very patient. It has been seven days, and they still have no intention of taking action.

Just as Lin Tianhao was preparing to return to Tian Gu City, a circle of fiery red formations appeared in the sky.

A series of fireballs flew out of the formation and smashed towards him.

“Are you finally unable to hold back and want to take action?”

Lin Tianhao’s mouth turned up, he directly rode on the Flame Fire Chicken King and ran to the side.

It’s just that as soon as he made a move to escape, three sword qi came head-on.

“Swish swish swish!”

Lin Tianhao fired three arrows in a row, shattering the sword qi, and continued to flee.

However.

The attack did not end. The earth under his feet began to roll, and the ground kept receding, making the Flame Fire Chicken King’s running useless.

Lin Tianhao jumped up, and the feather arrow in his hand shot towards the front.

The Seven Kill Hall’s shot after seven days was obviously prepared.

Because as soon as Lin Tianhao’s feather arrow was shot, there were some fluctuations in the space in front of him, changing the trajectory of his feather arrow.

“The True Meaning of Space?”

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

The space attribute belongs to one of the holy attributes, and it is extremely difficult to comprehend.

I never thought that someone in the Seven Kill Hall had already comprehended the True Meaning of Space.

“The True Meaning of Arrows.”

Lin Tianhao attached the True Meaning of Arrows to the feather arrow. He wanted to see.

Whether his untainted by desire True Meaning of Arrows is more powerful, or the other party's holy attribute True Meaning of Space is stronger.

The holy attribute True Meaning can suppress ordinary True Meanings from a certain point of view, provided that the realm is the same.

Lin Tianhao's feather arrow was still changed direction, indicating that the other party's True Meaning of Space had also reached untainted by desire, or even higher.

This made Lin Tianhao feel a trace of pressure. He had actually recorded the True Meaning of Space, but he had not had time to comprehend it.

However, even without the True Meaning of Space, Lin Tianhao didn't care.

Because he also has the True Meaning of Power.

Drawing the bow and accumulating power.

Lin Tianhao attached the True Meaning of Power to the feather arrow.

"Swish!"

This time.

The feather arrow broke the suppression of the True Meaning of Space and flew towards the mage in the distance.

At this time, the fireballs above the sky had already fallen.

-54621!

-54666!

... ..

One after another damage numbers appeared above Lin Tianhao's head, and Lin Tianhao's health bar dropped a tiny bit.

"Is his health bar so thick?"

Someone was surprised, "It seems that our guess was wrong. This adventurer named Xue Di is very strong himself."

"It doesn't matter, he must die today no matter how strong he is."

Lin Tianhao broke through the True Meaning of Space, but spikes appeared under his feet, causing damage to him while restricting his movement.

These people have good ideas.

Use long-range methods to suppress yourself.

It's a pity.

They are destined to fail.

"Five Arrows Barrage!"

Lin Tianhao didn't even activate Three Heads Six Arms, and directly fired Five Arrows Barrage. The overwhelming feather arrows suppressed the mage who was attacking him in all directions.

“Damn, how can this kid be so perverted!”
