

Online game 341

Chapter 341 - Kill the Yuchang scholar!

The mages were screaming in agony, no longer bothering to attack, focusing entirely on desperately trying to stay alive.

“Swish!”

Critical Hit!!

-4192368!!

The fire mage was unlucky enough to get hit by an arrow, his health bar instantly wiped out, leaving him no chance at all.

“Shhh!”

Just then.

A figure appeared in front of Lin Tianhao in the blink of an eye.

One slash.

Lin Tianhao was sent flying.

Critical Hit!!

-3159625!!

A massive damage number appeared above Lin Tianhao's head.

Lin Tianhao noticed.

He couldn't see any information about this black mist man.

After knocking him away, the black mist man didn't stop his attack, and in the blink of an eye, another slash came at Lin Tianhao.

“Clang!”

Lin Tianhao activated Three Heads, Six Arms, using the God Striking Whip to block the black mist man's attack.

“Three Heads, Six Arms? I can do that too.”

The black mist man sneered, also casting Three Heads, Six Arms.

His Three Heads, Six Arms were all wielding long sabers, and he spun around like a tornado, instantly arriving in front of Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao held the God Striking Whip in front of him for defense.

“Clang clang clang—”

The saber tornado collided with Lin Tianhao's God Striking Whip dozens of times in the blink of an eye.

The result was...

All the sabers in the black mist man's hands shattered.

“Damn it!!”

Looking at the weapon in his hand, which was now just a hilt, the black mist man felt an urge to curse.

After his anger subsided, greed flashed in his eyes.

“A Demi-God item?”

“Kid, being blameless is a sin when carrying a treasure. Be smart and hand over the Demi-God item in your hand.”

“The Demi-God item is in my hand, come and get it if you have the ability,” Lin Tianhao said.

The black mist man sneered, “How amusing.”

As he spoke.

The black mist around him detached from his body, forming a black mist clone.

The black mist clone charged towards Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao swung the God Striking Whip, while his other four arms used feather arrows to suppress the others.

When the God Striking Whip hit the black mist clone, it passed right through it without causing any damage.

“Bang!”

Lin Tianhao's attack didn't harm it, but the black mist phantom punched Lin Tianhao in the jaw.

If this wasn't a game, Lin Tianhao suspected his jaw would have been dislocated.

-523129!!

The damage value was still quite high.

“Snow Emperor, this is a top-tier divine power I found in the Scarlet Maple Ruins. With this divine power, you are invincible unless you use your domain.”

The black mist man was quite smug.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes, his figure moved, and in the blink of an eye, he arrived behind the black mist man.

Shadow Chasing Instant Slash!

The black mist man sneered, “Teleportation, I have that too.”

As he spoke.

The black mist man's body flickered and disappeared.

“Spatial Blink.”

Lin Tianhao didn't stop, his second skill activated, and he followed the black mist man again.

“Clang—”

A saber reappeared in the black mist man's hand, colliding with Lin Tianhao's God Striking Whip.

Lin Tianhao didn't care, the God Striking Whip in his hand seemed to have disappeared, causing the black mist man's pupils to shrink.

The God Striking Whip hadn't really disappeared, but Lin Tianhao's attack speed was too fast.

When he swung it, it was as if it had disappeared, and it was difficult to capture with the naked eye.

But Lin Tianhao's attack missed again.

More accurately, it landed on a scarecrow.

Substitute Technique!

A relatively common technique among experts.

But the Substitute Technique couldn't be used casually.

Just as the black mist man landed, he had to face Lin Tianhao's arrow attacks again.

“Revelation: Kill Word Art.”

At this moment, a refined and gentle voice came.

He held a meter-long writing brush, writing the character 'kill' in the air.

As soon as this 'kill' character appeared, wind blades condensed in the void, sweeping towards Lin Tianhao.

“Revelation: Bind Word Art!”

The refined and gentle voice sounded again, and vines wrapped around Lin Tianhao's body, trying to imprison him.

The light in the Purification Jade Pendant flowed, and these vines wrapped around him quickly, but dissipated even faster.

Seeing this, the Fish Intestine Scholar was slightly surprised, and his movements became even faster.

“Revelation: Suppress Word Art!”

Waves of dispirited light landed on Lin Tianhao, but Lin Tianhao didn't seem to be affected at all, and his attacks were still sharp.

The wind blades were dispelled by Lin Tianhao's arrows before they even got close to him.

“Found you.”

Lin Tianhao's gaze landed on the Fish Intestine Scholar.

He hadn't been using his full strength, he was waiting, waiting for the Fish Intestine Scholar to appear.

After being stared at by Lin Tianhao, the Fish Intestine Scholar felt as if he was being targeted by the God of Death.

A terrifying thought emerged in his mind.

That was... he was doomed to die today!!

How was that possible!

He had three Substitute Talismans on him, he shouldn't die, let alone kill the Snow Emperor.

“This kid is strong, we can't hold back.”

The Fish Intestine Scholar bit the tip of his tongue, and blood with some flesh sprayed on the tip of the brush in his hand.

“Revelation: Thunder Punishment!!”

The Fish Intestine Scholar shouted softly, and his entire body's energy and blood withered by a third.

“So decisive?”

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself.

He hadn't even threatened his life yet, and he was already starting to fight desperately.

Thunderclouds rolled and gathered in the sky.

It could be seen.

The Fish Intestine Scholar's method was very strong.

But that was it, after all, it needed to accumulate power.

Lin Tianhao raised his hand, and four flying swords soared into the sky.

“Go!”

This was the Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation.

Simultaneously activating four flying swords, Lin Tianhao didn't plan to give any chance.

Cold sweat instantly seeped out of the Fish Intestine Scholar's forehead.

His intuition told him.

He couldn't stop it, he was going to die.

“Substitute Talisman!”

The Fish Intestine Scholar didn't hesitate at all and directly crushed a Substitute Talisman.

But if the Substitute Talisman could avoid the Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation, then this wouldn't be the Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation.

The moment the Fish Intestine Scholar's main body appeared, four flying swords pierced through him together.

-4632951!!

Instant kill!

Without any suspense, the Fish Intestine Scholar had no resistance at all in front of Lin Tianhao's Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation.

“Retreat!!”

Seeing this, the black mist man's expression changed drastically.

He never dreamed that this first-rank archer in his eyes had become so powerful.

But.

Lin Tianhao's Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation had already been activated, so it was unrealistic for them to escape.

The mages were killed by the Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation in just one exchange.

Then the Immortal Slaughtering Sword Formation aimed at the black mist man.

A pitch-black stone appeared in the black mist man's hand, and the stone grew larger as it was exposed to the wind, blocking his entire body behind the stone.

“Clang!”

The previously invincible flying sword was blocked when it touched the stone!

Chapter 342 - Ask for the title of yellow-skinned man!

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes, recognizing the black stone.

It was the same stone that mysterious youth used to carve the god and demon statues.

Lin Tianhao's figure transformed into a blur as he rushed forward, but there was no one behind the black stone.

The other mages also used their respective methods to escape.

Lin Tianhao didn't continue to pursue them, because his goal had already been achieved.

The Seven Kill Hall, as a top-tier power of the ancient dynasty, probably also had a preliminary quest scroll for the Blessing of the Gods.

Killing them directly would be too much of a waste.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao didn't really use a killing move.

Otherwise, with his full strength, plus the undead army, as well as the Sea God Poseidon and the Silver-Eyed Octopus, he would have been able to keep them all here.

But killing them would make it more troublesome for Lin Tianhao to obtain the preliminary quest scroll for the Blessing of the Gods.

"Ding, you have killed Fish Intestine Scholar, a national announcement will be made soon, do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"National Announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for successfully killing Fish Intestine Scholar, hereby announced, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

Lin Tianhao came to Fish Intestine Scholar's side to loot the corpse.

"Ding, you have obtained the Qilin Whisker Brush."

"Ding, you have obtained the Divine Power Revelation Truth + 1."

"Ding, you have obtained free attribute points + 60."

"Ding, you have obtained crystal core + 15000."

... ..

Another considerable harvest.

Qilin Whisker Brush: Special.

Equipping Requirement: Confucianist profession.

Effect 1: Movement speed + 10.

Effect 2: Confucianist attack effect + 5%.

Effect 3: Tenacity + 10.

Effect 4: Luck + 3.

If it were in the past, that would have been impossible.

In addition to that, there was also a divine power.

That's right.

Revelation Truth was not a skill, but a divine power.

The probability of divine powers dropping was extremely low.

This made Lin Tianhao feel that his luck had been a little too good recently.

Succeeding in evolving the Purification Jade Pendant was already good enough, but he was even able to get this divine power.

Revelation Truth: 1 Star.

Learning Requirement: Confucianist profession.

Effect: You can write a 【Increase】 character, which can increase all attributes of a friendly unit by five percent, lasting for three minutes.

Cooldown: 1 hour.

Consumption: 1000MP.

Proficiency: 0 / 10.

(Note: Each time you increase a star, you can write one more character, and the cooldown of each character is independent. The increase cannot exceed your own rank and level, otherwise the increase effect will be reduced.)

The effect of this Revelation Truth was still very strong.

It increased all attributes, and judging from the looks of it, if it was raised to ten stars, it would be very terrifying.

Revelation Truth, Confucianist profession.

The path of Confucianism was relatively difficult to walk, Lin Tianhao had heard of some people who had gone far on the path of Confucianism in his previous life.

But to be honest.

Even those who had gone far on the path of Confucianism in his previous life, their combat power was very average.

The main reason was that the improvement of Confucianism was too difficult.

Especially later on, the effect of pure skills was no longer significant, and later on, it mainly depended on divine powers and laws.

Confucianism actually had decent skills, even with divine powers, if you were lucky, you could get some relatively powerful divine powers.

The most difficult thing was enlightenment!

The Dao of Confucianism was too difficult to comprehend.

It could even be said that Confucianism was somewhat ethereal.

Of course.

There was also a saying.

That Confucianism was slow to accumulate and quick to erupt. Many times, Confucianism didn't seem strong, that was because the true power of Confucianist professionals hadn't erupted.

But none of this mattered anymore, Lin Tianhao put away the items and looked towards the distant Ten Thousand Mountains.

The second one, Lord of Black Mountain!

Killing a Fish Intestine Scholar might cause a shock, but it wouldn't be too big.

Lin Tianhao was still preparing to ponder over killing this Lord of Black Mountain.

A bandit leader who controlled 300,000 soldiers, and was also a being who had broken through the five-turn limit, wouldn't he have good things on him?

If he could extort a sum before killing him, that would definitely be the best.

If he couldn't extort him, then it wouldn't matter much.

Because it was not difficult to guess that there was someone behind the Lord of Black Mountain.

Otherwise, even if you beat Lin Tianhao to death, he wouldn't believe that a bandit could develop to a scale of 300,000 people.

As for the specifics.

As long as he entered the Ten Thousand Mountains and kicked some mountain peaks, he would naturally know the ins and outs of it.

Lin Tianhao rode his Flame Turkey King and headed towards the Ten Thousand Mountains.

The sky darkened.

The Flame Turkey King's eyes burned with flames, it could be considered a mount version of a halogen headlight, the lighting was okay.

As for going up the mountain at night and encountering wild monsters, Lin Tianhao didn't care.

He went all the way forward.

Lin Tianhao did encounter some wild monsters, but the result was that they were all mercilessly killed by Lin Tianhao.

More than an hour after entering the mountain, Lin Tianhao looked around.

He also unfolded the map to take a look.

These Ten Thousand Mountains stretched endlessly, and the mountain stronghold ruled by the Lord of Black Mountain was called Black Mountain Tower.

As for where it was hidden in these Ten Thousand Mountains, it was not marked on the map.

But there were more than 300,000 people gathered here, so it shouldn't be difficult to find.

Just at this moment.

A faint voice came.

"Young man."

Lin Tianhao looked towards the sound, and saw that it was a yellow weasel with dark green eyes.

The yellow weasel looked at Lin Tianhao, revealing a human-like eerie smile.

"Young man, do you think I look like a god, or do I look like an immortal?"

Lin Tianhao: "? ? ?"

"You're not playing by the rules, shouldn't you be asking if I look like a human?"

The yellow weasel grinned, revealing two rows of sharp fangs that shouldn't have been there.

"Then take a look, do I look like a human? Or do I look like a god?"

Lin Tianhao carefully sized him up, "Covered in yellow fur, I think you look like a super-sized pile of moldy sh*t!"

When the yellow weasel heard this, black smoke billowed from his body.

"Stinky brat, you've ruined my cultivation, I'm going to kill you!"

As soon as he finished speaking.

The black smoke-entwined yellow weasel's figure continued to rise, and his height, which was originally about one meter, instantly increased to five or six meters, and his whole body was full of powerful muscles.

"Roar — —"

The yellow weasel roared angrily at Lin Tianhao, and the huge sound wave also carried some saliva.

"Yellow rat, you're disgusting me."

Lin Tianhao was a little annoyed, he should have killed this yellow weasel with two arrows, what a waste of time.

"Whoosh whoosh! !"

Lin Tianhao released two arrows, and the yellow weasel fell on the spot, and his soul was also enslaved by Lin Tianhao.

Being able to withstand Lin Tianhao's two arrows, this yellow weasel was not bad.

"Ding, you have killed the Begging Weasel, a national announcement will be made soon, do you want to hide your name."

Lin Tianhao pondered slightly.

Yellow weasels were very difficult to deal with, and it was very easy for the small ones to bring the old ones.

Chapter 343 - See the flowers and be happy!

However, from the moment he killed that weasel seeking a title, he should have been targeted.

After a moment's thought.

Lin Tianhao still chose to hide.

"National announcement, congratulations to player Hidden Nickname for successfully killing the title-seeking weasel. This is a special announcement, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

Lin Tianhao chose to hide because there were similar situations in his previous life.

Behind the weasel, there is not only the old weasel, but also people!

These people are not only similar to the shaman in real-world legends, but more like the relationship between pets and masters.

Generally, those who can raise such evil things as weasels will themselves be even more evil.

Therefore, Lin Tianhao felt that it was right for him to be conservative.

Sometimes, hiding a little and letting others guess is not a bad thing.

Looting the corpse.

This time, the harvest was very ordinary.

Originally, he was counting on the weasel to drop something useful, but in the end, he thought too much. It was all basic rewards.

The night was already deep.

It became increasingly difficult to move forward in the mountains and forests.

Lin Tianhao took a step and returned to Tiangu City.

Hundred Flowers Building.

This time, Lin Tianhao avoided the window seat.

With nothing to do, he listened to music in the brothel!

Fine wine, delicacies, beauties, and the sound of the pipa!

It was quite pleasant.

But Lin Tianhao came because of what Poseidon, the Sea God, said.

There was a residual aura of the black mist man here.

"My lord, it's in the Hundred Flowers Building's owner's room. Although his divine power is powerful, the residual aura is very obvious."

The voice of Poseidon, the Sea God, sounded in Lin Tianhao's mind.

"He has been here more than once. It seems that assassins also like to indulge in pleasure."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Whether he is a playboy or not, we'll know by taking a look."

As soon as he finished speaking.

Lin Tianhao pointed his finger.

In the corner of the Hundred Flowers Building's owner's room, a silver eye tore through the void and slowly appeared.

The silver eye had just appeared and couldn't help but blink.

Because in the room, they were doing unspeakable things.

"The owner of the brothel is actually doing it himself."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

Because he knew that many owners of brothels did not participate in the "business", and were mostly hands-off shopkeepers.

But it was really rare for someone to participate in the business themselves.

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to watch a real-life drama, the owner of the Hundred Flowers Building opened her small mouth and sucked hard.

"Yes, if it weren't for the Nine Heavens Divine Stone, I might have died too."

The black mist man said in a deep voice.

Hua Baixin was a little surprised, "Do you know who is targeting our Seven Kill Hall?"

"I don't know."

The black mist man shook his head, "This time we went, no one else took action."

"According to what you said, the Snow Emperor killed the Ichthyosaur Scholar with his own strength and threatened you."

Hua Baixin was even more surprised, "How can a first-rank archer have such great ability?"

"High health, high tenacity, high attack speed, possessing both warrior and archer professions, also has the divine power Three Heads and Six Arms and a sword formation."

"This is what is known. I can feel that he didn't use his full strength. It seems that he deliberately let us leave."

The black mist man's expression became serious when he said this, "His purpose this time seems to be Ichthyosaur."

"In this way, the reward is indeed used for fishing. The purpose is to kill the Ichthyosaur Scholar, but he didn't aim the spearhead at our seven people, which means that the person behind the layout doesn't want to destroy our Seven Kill Hall, but... deterrence!"

Lin Tianhao's silver eye did not directly look at them, but slightly shifted his gaze.

Because he knew.

The more skilled a person is, the stronger their sixth sense is.

If he looked directly, he would definitely be noticed.

"If he wants to deter us, then it is likely to be one of those princes. The First Prince and the Third Prince have both been to our Seven Kill Hall and intended to win us over... Could it be them?" The black mist man said.

Hua Baixin shook her head, "Don't think of the royal family so simply. I think someone wants us to think that way."

As soon as she finished speaking, she raised her hand and stroked the hairpin on the top of her head.

"But it seems that those princes want us to choose a side as soon as possible."

As soon as she said this.

The hairpin in her hand flew out and flew towards the silver eye released by Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao immediately put away the silver eye, but he was still a little slow, and the hairpin stabbed into the silver eye.

The silver eye was Lin Tianhao's perspective.

From Lin Tianhao's perspective, it was as if his eyes had been poked.

The silver eye was torn apart, which also brought backlash to Lin Tianhao, causing him to lose more than 100,000 health points.

"This woman is very alert."

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself.

However, from their conversation, he could know that the owner of the Hundred Flowers Building and the black mist man were both seven founding assassins of the Seven Kill Hall.

It's just that he doesn't know the specific ranking and the information of the other five people.

Since he had already been discovered, Lin Tianhao simply didn't hide it anymore and directly walked towards the owner of the Hundred Flowers Building's room.

Before he reached the room, two women dressed in gaudy clothes blocked Lin Tianhao's path.

"Guest, the owner is entertaining guests. Why don't our sisters accompany you to have fun?"

Lin Tianhao ignored them, but said with a smile: "Tell your owner that I am the Snow Emperor. As for whether she wants to see me or not, she will decide."

The two women looked at each other. Lin Tianhao did not hide his name when he killed the Ichthyosaur Scholar.

They had also heard about it.

And being able to guard outside the owner of the Hundred Flowers Building's door, they still knew some information about their owner.

"Please come in, Young Master Snow."

Before the two women could answer, Hua Baixin's voice came from the room.

Lin Tianhao stepped into the room.

In the room.

The charming Hua Baixin leaned against the bed, covered only with a layer of thin gauze, her skin fair, her figure slender but not lacking in plumpness.

The black mist man was no longer in the room at this time, and the corpse of the man who had been sucked dry was also gone.

"Young Master Snow is visiting late at night, so let's not waste time."

Hua Baixin came gracefully, her slender jade feet lightly touching the ground, and quickly came to Lin Tianhao's side.

"The owner of the Hundred Flowers Building, one of the founders of the Seven Kill Hall, Owner Hua, am I right?"

Hearing this.

Hua Baixin smiled slightly, "What Young Master Snow said is true, but this slave no longer does the business of killing people."

"I only want to find a man who can make this slave tremble."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. Why does this line sound so familiar?

"I am not the man you are looking for. I am here just to make friends with Owner Hua."

"Friends?"

Hua Baixin's face straightened, "Young Master Snow's reward is still hanging in the Seven Kill Hall. You killed the Ichthyosaur Scholar not long ago. How can we make friends?"

Chapter 344 - Simulate small areas!

Lin Tianhao sat down as if nothing had happened, smiling nonchalantly, "It's not your son who was killed, what's wrong with making friends?"

"I think if Fish Intestine Scholar knew in heaven that I was friends with you, he would probably not rest in peace."

Hua Baixin looked at Lin Tianhao with a smile.

"You assassins, do you even care about that?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"Of course, we care."

Hua Baixin's expression became serious, "There are only two reasons why our Seven Kill Hall can develop to where it is today."

"One is that we respect the assassins under our command enough and never treat them as tools."

"The second is that as long as we accept a job, even if we misjudge our strength and pay a higher price, we will still complete the reward."

Having said that.

Hua Baixin changed the subject, "You killed our number one assassin, and you are also our wanted target, how can we be friends?"

"It's okay for you to try and kill me a few more times." Lin Tianhao said casually.

"I'll help your Seven Kill Hall complete the reward, will you make friends with me?"

"Instead of saying we're making friends, it's better to say you have an advantage you want to gain. Tell me, what do you want from our Seven Kill Hall?"

"A Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll." Lin Tianhao said bluntly.

"You are one of the top forces in the Ancient Dynasty, I'm almost certain you have this thing in your hands."

Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls are generally in the hands of the top people in a region.

Similar to Village Chief Wang in the novice village, the princess and king of the Starry Kingdom, and the major forces in the Land of Chaos, they all have Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls.

This is an unspoken rule of the Twilight of the Gods, and it is also the key to attracting people to many secret realms.

Secret realms can also be considered a region, and it is possible to obtain Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls.

Compared to the nine-revolution regions in the vast continent, it is much easier to obtain a Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll in a secret realm.

Similar to the current Ancient Dynasty Secret Realm.

In a five-revolution secret realm, it is definitely much easier to obtain a Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll from a five-revolution, or even a six-revolution, person.

Hua Baixin smiled and said, "Your guess is correct, our Seven Kill Hall has a full seven Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls, second only to the royal family."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, even with his composure, his breathing became a little rapid.

One force, seven Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scrolls, the last time was in the Starry Kingdom.

"However, if you think that you have some ability and can make us take out the Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll to cooperate with you, then you are too naive."

Lin Tianhao didn't care, and said with a smile:

"I always believe that everyone has their own needs, and the people of your Seven Kill Hall are no exception."

Hua Baixin smiled charmingly, "Didn't I say? I want to find a man who makes me tremble."

While speaking.

Hua Baixin tapped her jade foot lightly, approached Lin Tianhao, and a faint floral fragrance lingered around Lin Tianhao's nose.

"As long as you can make me tremble, or... you can find a man who makes me tremble, I can give you my Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, "Before that, are you going to kill me?"

Hua Baixin chuckled and nodded, "Did you notice? But is it a little late?"

As the voice fell.

The curtains around the room instantly fell, and various strange runes were engraved on the curtains.

Lin Tianhao's body sank slightly.

"Gravity suppression?"

Hua Baixin shook her head, "This is more than just gravity suppression."

She tapped her jade hand lightly, and the surrounding space squeezed, further increasing the output.

"The true meaning of force, the true meaning of space, actually engraving the power of the true meaning on the curtains to simulate a small domain."

"Smart."

"Although this simulated small domain is less than one percent of a real domain, it is still simulated by the two great holy attributes of force and space. Even if you have some tricks, you will die here today."

Lin Tianhao spread his hands, "I actually know who can make you tremble."

"Oh?"

"Knowing you can't win, do you want to negotiate?"

Hua Baixin raised her eyebrows, "But killing you is our mission, we can't negotiate now."

Having said that.

"Seven-revolution? You actually look down on seven-revolution!"

"That's a powerhouse above level two thousand, how many levels are you, how dare you say that?"

Lin Tianhao spread his hands, "Didn't your Fish Intestine Scholar also have more than a thousand levels?"

"You!"

Hua Baixin was speechless for a moment, "Forget it, you will definitely die today."

As the voice fell.

She raised her hand and pointed, and the small domain formed by the true meaning of force and the true meaning of space strangled towards Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao stood still.

The power of the small domain couldn't get close at all, and didn't cause any harm to Lin Tianhao.

"How is that possible? What kind of freak are you? ! !" Hua Baixin was shocked.

Even that seven-revolution powerhouse would be affected in this small domain.

The young man in front of him was not affected at all, which was too terrifying.

Lin Tianhao doesn't have a domain, but the Silver-Eyed Octopus does.

The Silver-Eyed Octopus's domain covers Lin Tianhao's body, and this small domain is useless.

"If I don't want to die, you can't kill me." Lin Tianhao said.

Hua Baixin recovered from her shock and looked at Lin Tianhao with charming eyes.

"You are the most powerful man I have ever seen, come and make me tremble, I will give you everything I have."

The corner of Lin Tianhao's mouth twitched.

This woman wanted to kill him just now, this change is too great, right?

She clearly doesn't look very old, how can the demand be so great! !

"You misunderstood, I have a friend who may be able to fulfill your wish, but you need to give me your Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll first."

Hua Baixin hesitated slightly and took out her Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll.

The task on the task scroll was not anything else, it was really to make her tremble.

"You really give the task like this, wouldn't it be against the rules?"

Lin Tianhao knew very well that the task of the Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll could not be given casually.

Even the last time he traded with the city lord of Red Maple City, its essence was to prevent Red Maple City from producing a second flower thief.

It was for the peace of the city, so it could be established.

But Lin Tianhao felt that this task was somewhat untenable.

"If the task of the Gods' Blessing Pre-Quest Scroll is not established, the task will not appear."

Hua Baixin looked at Lin Tianhao with a smile, "Now, can you call your friend over?"

"Silver Eyes."

Chapter 345 - Ambush in Nether Valley: Fiery Eyes and Golden Pupils!

With Lin Tianhao's command, Silver Eyes emerged from the Fengshen List.

As a deity whose true form was the Silver-Eyed Octopus, Lin Tianhao had no doubt about his abilities.

"Have fun."

Lin Tianhao smiled and walked out of the room.

Lin Tianhao wasn't interested in what would happen next.

Exiting the room, Lin Tianhao continued to listen to music.

Women would only affect his firing rate; listening to music was quite nice.

The next morning.

Six hours had passed since Lin Tianhao had come out of Hua Baixin's room.

The Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll had not been completed.

The information on the Silver-Eyed Octopus on the Fengshen List was still there.

Could it be... what he was thinking?

Finally.

Lin Tianhao saw a change in the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll, showing that the quest was completed.

About three minutes later, the Silver-Eyed Octopus returned.

"No wonder no one can make her tremble."

Poseidon, the Sea God, couldn't help but sigh.

The Silver-Eyed Octopus's somewhat resentful voice came.

"She's reached the seventh transformation."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "Did she absorb your essence, qi, and spirit?"

"Her? Is that possible?" Lin Tianhao looked at the Silver-Eyed Octopus's condition; there were no problems, and he even seemed...unfulfilled.

Damn!

As soon as he spoke.

He unfurled the Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll.

"Use the Gods' Blessing."

"Ding, you have used the Gods' Blessing..."

"Ding, the Gods are bestowing blessings upon you..."

"Ding, you have received the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, Sun Wukong's blessing: Fiery Eyes of Truth!"

Fiery Eyes of Truth: God-given.

Usage Requirement: Limited to Xue Di.

Effect: You can see through all disguises, transformations, cultivation realms, illusions, and hallucinations, etc. This effect is ineffective against gods.

Cooldown: None.

Consumption: None.

Proficiency: Cannot be upgraded.

These Fiery Eyes of Truth seemed to be an upgraded version of the Immaculate Eyes.

For example, levels.

If the level was too much higher than Lin Tianhao's, everything he saw would be question marks.

Also, disguises like the black robe would be useless.

Most importantly.

Lin Tianhao discovered that he could now see names through the information he saw.

This was awesome!

Now, not only could he see the grade and level, but he could also see the name.

For others, this effect would be average.

But Lin Tianhao had the Book of Life and Death.

As long as he could see the name, what did that mean?

Although it was a lower-dimensional version and ineffective against gods, it was still very perverted.

Lin Tianhao took out the Kunlun Mirror, took a step, and returned to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Because of the darkness last night, he hadn't gone far.

Now he directly returned here and continued on his way.

He didn't know what kind of role the Black Mountain Lord, the second person to be killed, played in the ancient dynasty.

Specifically, whose person was he?

The King of Zhenbei?

Judging from the superficial information, the possibility of the King of Zhenbei was very high.

Just then.

Fatty sent a message.

"Brother Hao, the people from the Underworld and the Han Sea Kingdom have begun a large-scale attack. We can still hold on now, but do you want to come back and hold the fort? It won't be good if there's an accident."

Lin Tianhao hadn't paid much attention to the battle situation outside these past few days.

Judging from this, the people from the Underworld and the Han Sea Kingdom couldn't hold on anymore.

Moreover, calculating the time, the Holy Land Lord's rewards would be refreshed tonight.

He had only distributed a little over a million free attribute points, and there were still over a hundred thousand free attribute points that hadn't been distributed.

It would be a pity if they rotted in his hands.

"Okay, I'll come right away."

This concerned a Gods' Blessing pre-quest scroll in Lin Tianhao's hands, so Lin Tianhao still needed to pay some attention to it.

Mountain and Sea Empire.

A dozen border towns were attacked at the same time.

And what was interesting was.

Most of the towns they attacked were originally towns in the Underworld.

"Coincidence?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised because he hadn't been to the Underworld, so he couldn't directly use the Kunlun Mirror to teleport to the towns in the Underworld.

He could only use the Kunlun Mirror to teleport to Nether Valley first, and then continue forward on the Flaming Fire Chicken King.

However, he hadn't even gone halfway.

Suddenly, huge rocks rolled down from above the canyon.

Moreover, the number of huge rocks was not small.

"It seems someone has really deduced the usage of my Kunlun Mirror."

Lin Tianhao was shocked; these people in the Twilight of the Gods were not to be underestimated.

They had calculated that he would pass through here.

The Flaming Fire Chicken King was also a very eye-catching mount, so as soon as he came, they would trap him in Nether Valley.

At least.

Delay his time.

"Wings of Frozen Ice."

Wings appeared behind Lin Tianhao; he put away the Flaming Fire Chicken King and soared into the sky.

Above the canyon, tornadoes swept towards Lin Tianhao, seemingly wanting to knock Lin Tianhao out of the sky.

Immediately after.

Large arrays condensed from above the canyon.

Ice cones, fireballs, wind blades, falling rocks, and a large number of feather arrows were all flying towards him.

Lin Tianhao dodged and moved among these attacks, but he couldn't avoid being attacked.

The damage from the feather arrows was still considerable.

But the magic damage was a bit indescribable, and many were even single-digit damage.

"Aren't Xue Di's dual resistances very low? What the hell is this?"

A mage was incredulous; they had laid out their plan in advance, wanting to contain Lin Tianhao.

But now, after their attacks hit Lin Tianhao, the damage they caused could be described as negligible.

"Exploding Giant Bear."

Above the canyon, a giant bear rushed out, wanting to hug Lin Tianhao.

"Bang!"

Lin Tianhao greeted it with the God-Smiting Whip, instantly killing the Exploding Giant Bear on the spot.

"Damn it, asking us to contain Xue Di, this pervert, is simply asking us to die."

"Freezing Spell!"

"Wind Binding."

"Light of Weakness."

"Exploding Fireball."

... ..

A series of skills flew towards Lin Tianhao.

They wanted to control Lin Tianhao and delay his time as much as possible.

Unfortunately.

They were destined to be disappointed today.

"Five Arrow Volley!"

Lin Tianhao directly went all out, teaching them how to behave.

Seeing Lin Tianhao's overwhelming feather arrows, these players didn't dare to be negligent and fled frantically.

"Lightning Strike!"

Some people were still delaying time, but it was useless.

In front of these ordinary players, Lin Tianhao was like a nightmare.

Feather arrows poured out, killing them all instantly.

"They're all ordinary players, why do they think they can stop me?"

Lin Tianhao frowned.

He didn't know whose decision it was, but it was somewhat foolish.

"Xue Di, although it's a bit unkind to do this, but you're too strong. Destroying one of your Gods' Blessing pre-quest scrolls is also a three-point suppression against you."

A person stepped out; he raised his hand, and thousands of novice wooden swords floated into the air.

Chapter 346 - The defense battle of Youyan Town!

The person who came was none other than Jin Delan, who had once had a great battle with Lin Tianhao, but was completely crushed by Lin Tianhao.

"Jin Delan?"

"I don't have time to waste with you."

Lin Tianhao took out the Book of Life and Death and changed the name of the Dark Night Spirit God, Moilai, to Jin Delan.

Then.

Jin Delan was quickly finished off.

"Damn it, Xue Di, you don't play by the rules."

Jin Delan was furious, but there was nothing he could do.

Lin Tianhao used the remaining flight time of the Xuanbing Wings to hurry on his way.

At the same time, he sent a message to Fatty.

“Fatty, how’s the situation?” Lin Tianhao asked.

Fatty didn’t reply, and Lin Tianhao knew things weren’t looking good.

At this time, a message came from Berserker Blades.

“Snow Emperor, two level 7 experts have appeared in Youyan Town, and we’re barely holding on.”

Lin Tianhao unfolded the map of the Mountain and Sea Empire.

His expression sank, and he immediately rushed towards Youyan Town.

Youyan Town was the furthest place from Youming Valley, almost traversing the entire Netherworld.

It seemed they really had guessed the use of his Kunlun Mirror, and this was deliberately making things difficult for him.

Lin Tianhao hurried on his way with all his strength, even allowing the Silver-Eyed Octopus to use its spatial jumping ability for short-distance jumps within the rules, so as to take him there quickly.

Level 7.

The lowest would be level 2000, and the grade was probably not bad either.

In a head-on battle, these Dragon Kingdom players would indeed be under some pressure at this stage.

Youyan Town!

Many people from the Berserker Guild had come and become the main force in the battle.

In addition to this.

The Asura Guild, the Futu Guild, and other large guilds also had people coming over.

One was for the bounty, and the second was that the war between the East and the West was getting a bit heated.

The people who came were not only from the Hanhai Kingdom and the remnants of the Netherworld, but also from Western guilds.

The ambush on Lin Tianhao in Youming Valley before was also by a Western guild.

At this time, the battle here in Youyan Town was very fierce.

But the real problem was the two level 7 experts who had suddenly appeared.

One was an archer and the other a warrior, and their appearance instantly broke the original situation.

The level 7 archer, although his damage was not as high as Lin Tianhao's,

He didn't need Lin Tianhao's damage to kill people instantly.

The mainstream players were only just entering the level 3 stage.

Even if the Berserker Guild had a small number of players with Life Orbs, most of their health points were below 300,000.

As for those with more than 300,000, either their equipment was good or their talent was strong, but such people were rare.

A level 2000 fighting a level 100 was really like shooting kids one by one.

“Red Cannon!”

The mechanic Gui Wuxing offered three red cannons, bombarding the level 7 archer from a distance.

At the same time.

In response.

The level 7 archer fired a feather arrow, which was attached with an arc of electricity. Wherever it passed, all the self-exploding mechanical bees exploded, and there was no possibility of getting close to him.

Monkey’s body turned into an afterimage and rushed up.

His movement speed was the highest among everyone present, without exception!

Even Lin Tianhao’s movement speed was inferior to his.

“Omnipotent King, your opponent is me.”

The Two-Blade War God blocked Monkey's path. He knew the situation of the battle, so naturally it was impossible to give Monkey the chance to get close to the level 7 archer.

It was still very dangerous for an archer to be approached by a warrior.

Although Monkey's level was not high, his attributes were quite perverted.

Monkey was a typical player with high own attributes and strong equipment.

His combat skills have also been improving rapidly during this time.

"Looking for death!"

Monkey turned into an afterimage, and attacks fell crazily.

Although his attack speed was inferior to Lin Tianhao's, compared to the Two-Blade War God, his attack speed was already heaven-defying.

"咻!"

A feather arrow flew towards Monkey.

Monkey was shocked. Even if his dual resistance was not low, he would not dare to resist the feather arrow of a level 7 archer.

"Brother Monkey, you go, I'll leave him to me."

Lin Qingqing's voice came.

The long sword in her hand slashed out two icy sword energies. Although the sword energies were blocked by the Two-Blade War God, the cold air emanating from them slowed the Two-Blade War God's movements.

“Okay.”

Monkey continued to rush towards the level 7 archer.

His movement speed can be said to be one of the few existences that can approach the level 7 archer.

He hadn't arrived yet.

Someone had already taken action against the level 7 archer first.

It was Shadow Kill who had sneaked over.

Shadow Kill's sudden attack startled the level 7 archer.

“I didn't even notice you?!”

While surprised in her heart, she also flickered her body, avoiding Shadow Kill's sudden attack.

Shadow Kill missed the attack, and was not discouraged. His body split into three and continued to rush up.

“咻!”

The level 7 archer shot an arrow, and the arrow split into three in the air.

Split Arrow!

But it was obvious that it was not a passive Split Arrow, but an active skill with a cooldown.

Most Split Arrow skills are active, because passive Split Arrow skills are too perverted.

Moreover, even in the middle and late stages, the damage of that kind of Split Arrow is only a part of the normal basic attack.

This part is usually no more than fifty percent.

But this kind of active skill Split Arrow, although there is a cooldown, and the number of splits is not large.

But most of the feather arrows that split out are the same as normal basic attacks.

The Shadow Kill on the left slashed the feather arrow with a dagger, and at the same time exposed himself.

But this was no longer important. His body also flickered and came to the side of the level 7 archer.

When the level 7 archer saw Shadow Kill's body flickering, he crushed a talisman in his hand.

A repelling fire ring rose up, and Shadow Kill was pushed away forcibly.

-19625!

The damage of the repelling fire ring made with this talisman was not high, but it interrupted Shadow Kill's attack rhythm.

And just as Shadow Kill was pushed away, the feather arrow had already swept towards him.

He threw three throwing knives and quickly retreated after releasing an acceleration skill.

This level 7 archer obviously didn't intend to let him go like this.

“Ice Arrow!”

Once hit, it can slow down the opponent, which has the same effect as Lin Qingqing's ice sword energy just now.

Even if Shadow Kill uses a dagger to slash the feather arrow, he will still be affected by this slowing effect.

“Gust Barrage!”

The level 7 archer fired seven feather arrows in the blink of an eye. Even if you don't look carefully, you will suspect that these seven feather arrows were fired at the same time.

Shadow Kill's face sank.

This was a bit troublesome. These seven arrows blocked all his retreat routes.

“Guardian Shield!”

Fatty gave a low shout, and the shield in his hand smashed on the ground. A huge shield phantom appeared in front of Shadow Kill.

Helping Shadow Kill to block these seven arrows, the damage of these seven arrows was also transferred to Fatty.

-35192!

-34921!

.....

A series of damage numbers appeared, and the damage of more than 30,000 for one arrow was definitely not low.

But this level 7 archer couldn't help but be stunned!

“How high is this dual resistance?!”

Chapter 347 - Two great seventh-level masters!

As a level 2350 archer, he was equipped with a full set of level 2000 gear, the lowest grade being bronze, and his main weapon was a level 2300 platinum piece.

His attribute bonuses were extremely high.

Both his attack power and armor penetration were considerable.

Even though his 100% critical hit chance didn't trigger a critical hit because he didn't hit the target's body, the damage shouldn't have been this low.

This damage was truly too weak.

The key was that after his seven arrows, he was reflected for over 60,000 damage himself.

"What kind of freak is this?"

The seventh-tier archer was somewhat numb.

"Don't attack him."

The seventh-tier warrior with him said, "He's not normal, don't attack, take care of the others first."

Fatty: "? ? ?"

"You're saying your Fatty is not normal? I think you're the one who's not normal, your whole family is not normal."

Fatty charged towards the seventh-tier archer without hesitation.

Although he had just retorted to the seventh-tier warrior, he still knew who had the greater reaping ability on the battlefield.

Moreover, he was the natural counter to this archer.

He had reflection and grievous wounds.

Even if the archer's life steal was good, he had high health, so stalling and restraining the seventh-tier archer wouldn't be a problem.

Of course.

If the seventh-tier archer dared to ignore him, he would let the seventh-tier archer experience the damage of a shield warrior.

Due to his talent, all his free attribute points were allocated to attack power, attack speed, and movement speed.

Coupled with his powerful equipment, his output ability was considerable.

Moreover.

As long as he had the chance to get close, he could have Monkey come over to kill.

The seventh-tier warrior also saw Fatty's plan.

His life steal wasn't as high as the seventh-tier archer's, and he was unwilling to get entangled with Fatty.

However, he also saw that Fatty's movement speed was good among warriors of the same level, but that was only the same level.

The seventh-tier archer was over a thousand levels higher than him, so his movement speed could still outpace Fatty.

The key was this warrior with Fatty.

His movement speed was abnormally fast.

Even he was inferior to this warrior in terms of movement speed.

He could completely get close to the seventh-tier archer.

So he personally came to intercept Monkey.

Monkey's movement speed was indeed faster than this seventh-tier warrior, but as long as the seventh-tier warrior used his mobility to entangle with him, it would be difficult for him to create distance.

"Clang clang clang—"

Monkey and the seventh-tier warrior clashed, neither of them used skills first.

It was just constant collisions of weapons, but Monkey was still being forced back.

The weak person would naturally be forced to retreat continuously.

"Shadow Clone: Triple Wave Slash!"

Monkey knew that continuing like this wouldn't work, so he used his skill first.

Seeing this.

The seventh-tier warrior smiled contemptuously.

"In the end, you lack experience."

"Crescent Moon Slash!"

The seventh-tier warrior used a Crescent Moon Slash, covering both of Monkey's shadow clones.

This was a damage-for-damage style of fighting.

He was certain that Monkey's movement speed was fast, so his dual resistances couldn't be very high.

The same went for his health.

Therefore, as long as he exchanged damage with Monkey, Monkey definitely couldn't withstand it.

In fact, Monkey's dual resistances were not low, and his health was not to be underestimated.

But he knew that in front of the seventh-tier warrior, all of this was not enough.

Therefore, he didn't choose to exchange damage.

"Leaping Sky Slash!"

Monkey forcibly retracted his released skill, using the skill to leap high into the air, avoiding the attack while slashing down with his sword.

However.

The seventh-tier warrior showed a smile on his face when he saw this scene.

"Rage Blood Burst!"

A ball of blood energy exploded below Monkey.

The violent shockwave didn't interrupt Monkey's attack.

Because at this critical moment, Monkey activated his Super Armor.

Although the Super Armor removed the control effect of the Rage Blood Burst, the damage couldn't be reduced.

-370,000!!!

Monkey's health bar dropped by one-fifth, while the effect of the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor slightly raised it by more than 50,000.

At the same time.

His attack also landed on the seventh-tier warrior.

-51,521!

The damage wasn't low.

But it was somewhat unsatisfactory.

Monkey's attack power wasn't low, his armor penetration wasn't low, and he even had the buff of the Magic Warrior God General.

But even so, the damage dealt was still not good enough.

"So that's all you've got."

The seventh-tier warrior was quite proud. While he was complacent, the long sword in Monkey's hand struck him again.

-51,521!

-59,123!

This time, two damage numbers appeared simultaneously.

One physical damage, one magical damage.

One of the Magic Warrior God General's skills.

Weapon Enchantment, a normal attack can simultaneously deal magic damage and physical damage, and the damage value is related to magic power and attack power.

If it were a normal warrior class.

Magic power could be ignored, and the class upgrade would be insignificant.

"Dual Cultivation of Magic and Martial Arts?"

The seventh-tier warrior's eyes narrowed, and flames rose from the long blade in his hand.

The high temperature of the flames scorched his skin, making it hot and painful.

Monkey was not afraid at all, and swept the long sword in his hand horizontally.

"Ghostly Slaughter Sword Formation!"

A sword formation appeared above the seventh-tier warrior's head, and black long swords like raindrops fell.

"Three-Foot Flame Wave Slash!"

Faced with Monkey's attack, the seventh-tier warrior was somewhat disdainful, and slashed out three fiery blade energies with the long blade in his hand.

The blade energies formed three fiery waves in the air, unavoidable.

It was still a damage-for-damage style of fighting.

"Parry!"

A very simple warrior skill, but it could effectively reduce damage.

-290,000!!!

-290,000!!!

.....

Three consecutive damage numbers further lowered Monkey's health.

Monkey's parry had just ended when the seventh-tier warrior in the original sword formation had disappeared.

By the time he reacted, the seventh-tier warrior's broadsword had already reached him.

"Clang—"

The benefits brought by attack speed and movement speed allowed Monkey to react at the limit.

Otherwise, his current health bar, carrying this strike again, would really become a sliver of health.

But the seventh-tier warrior obviously didn't intend to give Monkey another chance.

"Flame Dragon Impact!"

He slashed out with his blade, and the blade energy turned into a fire dragon, sweeping towards Monkey.

Monkey's pupils shrank, and the long sword in his hand split into two.

"Dragon and Phoenix Soaring Through the Sky!"

Two long swords turned into a dragon and a phoenix, charging towards the flame dragon.

"Boom—"

With a loud noise, a huge shockwave swept in all directions.

If Monkey wasn't in a Super Armor state, he would definitely be blown away by this shockwave at this time.

But the damage brought by the shockwave still made him lose over 100,000 health.

His Dragon and Phoenix Soaring Through the Sky still failed to completely block the Flame Dragon Impact.

The difference in levels, the difference in skill star ratings, these were all difficult to overcome.

Monkey's condition was getting worse and worse.

On the other side, Fatty restrained the seventh-tier archer, causing the archer's "naming" speed to drop by about 50%, the effect was okay, but it still couldn't stop the decline of Youyan Town.

Chapter 348 - Putuo and ambition join forces!

The cities near Youyan Town are also sending people.

But the battle is too sudden, and it will take time for them to receive the news and arrive.

People from the Mad Warrior Guild are still rushing over one after another.

The elite team of the F屠 Guild has gradually begun to retreat, although they are still resisting.

But more are taking the bounty to grab kills, and no major guild is acting as the main force.

The Asura Guild and the Swift Goose Guild are still very strong, they really regard this confrontation as a clash between the Dragon Kingdom and the West.

Because they can all see that the top guilds of Western countries, although not all of them have come, at least one-third of them have.

Coupled with the joint efforts of many Western countries, the scale and number of people in this battle are not small at all.

The seventh-rank archer's "calling out names" makes the elite players of these Dragon Kingdom guilds in the front line a little overwhelmed.

"Swish swish swish!"

Just at this moment.

Someone else joined the battle.

It's the Qi family from Tian Gong Mountain.

They belong to family operations and are usually busy with their own affairs, so they arrived a little late.

After the Qi family from Tian Gong Mountain arrived, their arrows were like they had eyes, accurately locking onto the opponent's eyes, throat, and other key vital points.

Almost every arrow is a critical hit, their joining has eased the situation of the team, but the impact is not significant.

Because experts from Western countries are also joining the battle one after another.

"Restrain that archer."

Shooting Through the Sky also saw that their "calling out names" effect was not as good as that seventh-rank archer, so he simply chose to attack together and restrain that seventh-rank archer.

They may need ten arrows to break one arrow of that seventh-rank archer.

Moreover, archers who can accurately intercept the opponent's arrows with their own arrows are rare even in the Qi family of Tian Gong Mountain.

Therefore, the Qi family of Tian Gong Mountain's attack only reduced the seventh-rank archer's harvesting speed by another twenty-five percent.

This decrease in speed has further slowed down the opponent's advance.

Of course.

The premise is that Monkey can't have any problems here.

But it's obviously a bit unlikely.

Monkey's health bar has already dropped by three-quarters.

The remaining health bar is not enough to support him to continue fighting.

"Amitabha!"

A Buddhist chant sounded.

It was Pᑦᑦ Tianlong who made a move.

He released a hand seal, blocking an attack from the seventh-rank warrior for Monkey.

"Let me do it."

Pᑦᑦ Tianlong's eyes were solemn.

He is probably the first dual-god class player in Twilight of the Gods.

Of course, this is what he knows himself.

At least Xue Di is not.

He had contact with Lin Tianhao, Lin Tianhao is indeed strong, but he can see that Lin Tianhao is an ordinary class, not a god-level hidden class.

Although he doesn't want to meddle in other people's business, sometimes it's not wrong to walk his own path.

But in the struggle between the East and the West, he is still prepared to take action.

At the same time.

He also wants to verify how strong he is, a person who possesses both a god-level talent and a god-level hidden class!

The ground cracked.

You can see magma flowing in the cracks.

"Boom!"

The magma instantly surged out, turning into magma cheetahs rushing towards Pᑦᑦ Tianlong.

"Amitabha."

Pᑦᑦ Tianlong chanted scriptures in his mouth.

The scriptures formed golden runes that flew out of Pᑦᑦ Tianlong's mouth.

The flying golden characters were attached to the magma flames.

The magma cheetah's body began to melt, and finally disappeared.

One, two, three...

"Sh*t!"

The seventh-rank warrior cursed lightly, his body turned into a stream of light, and his whole body was surrounded by flames.

"Triple Flame Body!"

In the instant he jumped up, three consecutive flame phantoms holding long knives appeared behind him.

Each flame phantom was taller than the last, with an unspeakable sense of oppression.

陀 Tianlong frowned slightly, his staff stuck in the ground, and a golden罩 appeared, protecting him in the middle.

At the same time, the speed at which he chanted the scriptures in his mouth was even faster.

Countless golden runes flew out and merged with the golden罩.

"Clang--"

The main body's broadsword slashed down.

The golden罩 only trembled slightly, with a general impact.

"Clang--"

The broadsword of the first flame phantom fell, the golden罩 shook violently, and even appeared with strands of cracks on it. It almost didn't hold up.

"Clang--"

The broadsword of the second flame phantom fell, the golden罩 was overwhelmed and shattered.

P陀 Tianlong staggered back a step.

A damage number also appeared above his head.

-17W!!

This is because the golden罩 blocked most of the damage.

Otherwise, the damage from this attack would definitely be more than this.

However.

P陀 Tianlong didn't have time to react at all.

The broadsword of the third flame phantom was already close at hand.

This third flame phantom is the largest, so there's no need to think about it, the damage must be quite terrifying.

But P陀 Tianlong already has no backup.

Moreover, under the lock of this third flame phantom, P陀 Tianlong found that his displacement skill was in a gray state and could not be used.

The opponent's skill has a lock-on function, and skills cannot be released after being locked on.

From here, you can see that the opponent didn't want to waste time.

"Clang--"

Another golden light rose, and golden iron chains as thick as arms flew quickly, entangling the flame phantom.

Immediately afterwards, a person in a Taoist robe jumped up and slapped the flame phantom's eyebrows with one palm.

The flame phantom's body began to crack, centered on the eyebrows, and finally collapsed.

"Ambition."

佛陀 Tianlong obviously knew the person who came, "Didn't you enter a special dungeon?"

"I just came out and heard that it was very lively here, so I came to take a look."

"If I had come one step later, this poor Taoist would have to help you to be reborn."

Daoist Ambition said gently and elegantly.

佛陀 Tianlong couldn't help but roll his eyes, "Fight first."

After saying that.

He took off the Buddhist beads from his neck.

He formed a hand seal, and the Buddhist beads broke.

One dark golden Buddhist bead after another flew out, suspended around Pí Tiānlóng.

It can be seen.

There are strange and mysterious runes on the Buddhist beads, with a sense of profoundness.

Daoist Ambition smiled slightly and raised his hand.

Lightning surged in both hands.

"Palm Thunder!"

Daoist Ambition took the lead, and the lightning surged out of his hands.

Turning into thunder snakes, they rushed towards the seventh-rank warrior.

Pí Tiānlóng pinched a magic formula in his hand and pointed out with one finger.

One dark golden Buddhist bead after another turned into streamers, arriving in front of the seventh-rank warrior in the blink of an eye.

"Fierce Cloud Mad Blade Slash!"

The seventh-rank warrior did not show any weakness, and the broadsword in his hand slashed out afterimages.

With his own strength, he simultaneously dealt with two experts, P<sub>陀</sub> Tianlong and Daoist Ambition.

At the same time.

His back couldn't help but feel cold.

Two level 100 little guys actually fought him to a 50-50 draw. If his friends knew about it, they would definitely laugh at him!

Chapter 349 - The lethality of the Seventh Revolution Mage!

"Originally, I didn't want to bully the small with the big, but you forced me to this point, so don't blame me."

The Seventh Rank Warrior knew that if he dragged on any longer, he would truly lose face.

The Snow Emperor didn't come, and he was fighting these little guys like this, he really felt like he was losing face.

"Flame Domain!"

The Seventh Rank Warrior unleashed his domain, he originally thought that he could crush them without even needing to activate it.

But now he realized he was wrong.

These people were more troublesome than he imagined.

Just now, Potala Heavenly Dragon and Ambitious Taoist Priest joined forces and were able to fight this Seventh Rank Warrior to a standstill.

“You, as a Seventh Rank Warrior, still need to open your domain to fight us, that's too shameless. Dare to leave your name? When I grow up in the future, I will definitely avenge this day.”

Potala Heavenly Dragon rebuked.

“Hmph, my name is Friedon. You little brat have some potential, I'll wait for you to come.”

Friedon was quite smug.

Hearing these words.

The presidents of several Western guilds were dumbfounded. They wanted to stop him, but it was obviously too late.

Potala Heavenly Dragon, however, revealed a sly smile on his face.

He immediately sent a message to Lin Tianhao.

“Snow Emperor, emergency help, target Friedon.”

Lin Tianhao was currently rushing on his way. After receiving the message from Potala Heavenly Dragon, he immediately changed Kinderland's name to Friedon on the Book of Life and Death.

Outside Youyan Town!

Friedon didn't realize the seriousness of revealing his name.

- 650,000!!!

When this terrifying damage number appeared, he was momentarily dazed.

He didn't seem to have been attacked by anyone just now, so why did he start losing health?

“It's you!”

Friedon seemed to have thought of something, and a 狰狞 smile appeared on his face.

- 650,000!

The damage was still continuing, and he knew that he had been tricked.

“Die for me!!”

Friedon rushed up in exasperation.

Under the domain, even Potala Heavenly Dragon, who had the blessing of dual god-level equipment, was somewhat outmatched.

He was killed in less than five seconds.

After killing Potala Heavenly Dragon, Friedon saw that the continuous health loss above his head had not ended, and he was even more annoyed.

“No, I have to go back first.”

The rate of health loss was something that his health regeneration couldn't keep up with at all.

If he wanted to survive, the best thing to do was to go back immediately and use the altar to regenerate health.

He took out a scroll and crushed it without hesitation.

The departure of a Seventh Rank expert greatly alleviated the battle situation.

Although Potala Heavenly Dragon had died because of this, Ambitious Taoist Priest could now free up his hands to contain the Seventh Rank Archer.

“Ice Rain Domain!”

The Seventh Rank Archer didn't hesitate at all and released his domain.

With his domain, his reaping ability greatly increased.

“Big sister, the Snow Emperor must be on his way, let's make a quick decision.”

The Seventh Rank Archer shouted in a direction after opening his domain.

“Troublesome.”

An displeased voice came.

Immediately after, a woman stepped out.

With each step she took, a small, one-foot-tall tornado appeared around her.

By the time she walked into the battlefield, there were already more than a dozen small tornadoes around her.

Then, these small tornadoes instantly swept towards all directions.

The original one-foot-tall tornadoes were also constantly growing, and in just a few breaths, they had already grown to the point of covering the sky and sun.

Wherever the tornadoes passed, a large number of ordinary players were instantly killed.

It should be known.

With the participation of the major guilds, the number of players had already exceeded one hundred thousand.

But with just one skill, tens of thousands of players were killed. Such efficiency could already be described as terrifying.

Mages were weak in the early stages, but mages in the later stages could definitely be called walking killing machines.

When area-of-effect skills were used, it was truly earth-shattering and difficult to resist.

Especially in this kind of faction war, it was even more perverted.

Because faction wars have a faction protection mechanism, similar to the team protection mechanism.

Friendly units cannot harm each other.

The appearance of the Seventh Rank Mage instantly plunged the previously improved situation into despair.

“Endless Sword Qi!”

Lin Qingqing took a step forward. She knew that this battle concerned her brother, so she had to take action.

Streams of sword qi were unleashed by her.

There was Flame Sword Qi, Geng Metal Sword Qi, and Ice Sword Qi. All kinds of sword qi intertwined to form a large net, with astonishing power.

“Like brother, like sister.”

Monkey muttered to himself.

Lin Qingqing's current health bar was even higher than Fatty's, and her output ability was not bad at all.

“A bit interesting.”

The Seventh Rank Mage didn't care. She raised the staff in her hand, and a cyan glow condensed on the staff.

Immediately after.

This cyan glow turned into a laser, instantly piercing through Lin Qingqing's intertwined net of sword qi.

The cyan laser's power did not diminish, and in the blink of an eye, it had already reached Lin Qingqing.

Lin Qingqing raised her longsword to block.

But it was useless. It could reduce damage, but not by much.

Critical Hit!!

- 3,520,000!!

This attack dealt a magic critical hit, and even more so, it dealt a terrifying damage number.

“Eh...”

The Seventh Rank Mage was somewhat surprised.

Because she originally thought that even if her attack didn't kill Lin Qingqing, it should have reduced her to low health.

But this attack only took away a very small portion of Lin Qingqing's health.

It didn't even seem to be one-twentieth.

“Your output ability is good, and your health is also so impressive, not bad. Stop now, and I can recommend a Ninth Rank mentor to you.” The Seventh Rank Mage said.

Lin Qingqing's eyes didn't waver at all, “Even if you're going to recommend someone, shouldn't you recommend a demigod expert?”

The Seventh Rank Mage pondered slightly, “With your talent, you are indeed qualified to become a disciple of a demigod, but I cannot directly contact demigod experts.”

“But I can promise that I will definitely help you. Joining our Moon Wheel Empire will not be wrong.”

Lin Qingqing shook her head, “Your promise is too unconvincing. How about this, as long as you stop, I'll consider your suggestion.”

The Seventh Rank Mage narrowed her eyes, "Are you stalling for time?"

"From your eyes, I can see that you will not join us. Since that's the case, then you must die."

As soon as the words fell.

The Seventh Rank Mage waved the staff in her hand, and a strong wind rose, with flying sand and rocks.

The terrifying hurricane tore apart Lin Qingqing's net of sword qi, and killed her.

"Geng Metal Shield!"

Just then, a calm voice sounded.

Immediately after, thousands of golden shields appeared in the void, and these golden shields were trying to resist the hurricane.

Chapter 350 - Sky-patrolling magic skill!

However.

The thousands of golden shields only managed to resist for a moment before cracks appeared, and they shattered completely.

"Earth Shield!"

"Earth Wall!"

"Wind Wall!"

"Wood Shield!"

Each spell appeared thousands of times simultaneously, continuously blocking the approaching hurricane.

She used all her defensive spells, finally managing to stop the hurricane.

"That voice..."

Lin Qingqing and the mechanic's gazes converged on the level one mage in the bamboo hat.

They couldn't see her face or her nickname, but they both realized something.

This first-class little mage sounded very similar to them, almost exactly the same.

If there was a difference, it was her tone.

"You are worthy of my respect for being able to withstand my attack."

The seventh-class mage's gaze swept over the level one mage in the bamboo hat.

Then a pair of cyan wings appeared behind her.

She soared into the sky, waving the staff in her hand.

"Wind Calamity: Gu Jie!"

The next moment.

The wind howled between heaven and earth, carrying a piercing sound.

It sounded like fingernails scratching a drum, or the cackling of a demon, piercing, destructive, and terrifying.

Wherever the hurricane passed, the players' health bars plummeted.

"Is there no chance?"

The fatty muttered to himself as he slammed his palm on his shield.

"Triple Sky Shield!"

Three huge shield phantoms condensed on his shield, defending three directions, trying to withstand the hurricane.

"Under the calamity, you are all ants!"

The seventh-class archmage showed a playful smile.

The power of a mage's calamity is immeasurable.

The fatty's Triple Sky Shield only resisted slightly before shattering, completely useless.

"Light's Healing: Dawn's Light!"

A soft voice sounded.

Immediately, a ray of light tore open a gap, and wherever the light passed, a large number of players began to recover health rapidly.

"How is this possible?"

The seventh-class mage's face showed astonishment, "A Celestial skill, and you're only second class!"

The seventh-class mage landed in the distance on a petite woman.

This woman was only level ninety-five, inconspicuous among the many players, but the skill she used stunned the seventh-class mage.

Celestial Skill!

It is a skill, but not really a skill.

Because Celestial Skills cannot be obtained through learning.

The mage's Calamity, the priest's Healing, the warrior's Battle, the assassin's Slaughter, the archer's Shot, the summoner's Beast, the formation master's Technique, etc., can all be called Celestial Skills.

Celestial Skills lie in comprehension, not in learning.

It's somewhat related to enlightenment.

In terms of lethality, Celestial Skills are no less powerful than domains.

They are even above domains, and the key is that Celestial Skills are not incompatible with domains.

When releasing a domain, adding a Celestial Skill will greatly increase its strength.

Comprehending Celestial Skills is very difficult, and even some ninth-class masters have not comprehended them.

This level ninety-five little priest has comprehended a Celestial Skill. If she hadn't seen it with her own eyes, she would have thought she was seeing things.

"A Celestial Skill, and of the light element, indeed very strong, but you are only level ninety-five after all."

The seventh-class mage raised her hand and pressed down, and the hurricane swept towards the priest.

The priest's expression changed, and Lin Qingqing rushed over immediately, standing in front of the priest.

She waved the long sword in her hand, and the sword energy crisscrossed, although it was insignificant, the sword energy was easily torn apart.

"Do you like bullying the weak so much?"

Just then, a somewhat ethereal voice came.

"You've even used a calamity, aren't you ashamed?"

A middle-aged man in a silver robe with blood-colored patterns on his white robe stepped out.

He stepped on the void, suspended in the air.

"Space Law?"

The seventh-class mage's expression suddenly changed, because space intent might be able to achieve levitation briefly, but it could never be as easy as this man in front of her.

"You don't seem to be a master from the Mountain Sea Empire, are you going to meddle in other people's business?"

The seventh-class mage was very sure of this, she knew some of the famous masters of the Mountain Sea Empire.

Moreover, this time's operation against the Mountain Sea Empire, in addition to destroying Xue Di's Divine Blessing pre-quest scroll, had deeper arrangements.

Therefore, although it seemed that only a few seventh-class mages were here, in fact, many, many people were involved in this war.

They just weren't brought to the table.

Because if they were brought to the table, it wouldn't be just a small town like Youyan Town, it could completely trigger a national war, or even a melee in the vast continent.

Although the Mountain Sea Empire has only just been revived, the attitude of Tutulu Sacred Mountain is still very close to the Mountain Sea Empire.

Therefore.

Many disputes cannot be put on the table, they can only be carried out in private.

Whether the battle of Youyan Town fails or succeeds, it is an error caused by a few people instigating adventurers.

The final result is that a small number of mistakes are made, and they are pushed out to take the blame.

Of course, the high-level officials of both countries are actually well aware of this.

What cannot be known is the public.

If the public knew these things, then it would not be possible to quell the public's anger with the death of a few small fries.

At that time, even if it was acting, they would need to put on a big battle.

But there is no such thing as acting in war. Once a large-scale war begins, the situation will change rapidly, and the impact it will bring will be enormous.

The war in Youyan Town is more like a test of the Mountain Sea Empire by the Moon Wheel Empire.

But the preparation work for a military test will not be small.

The strong and the army of the Mountain Sea Empire will enter a state of high alert.

Once troops and strongmen join the battlefield, the Moon Wheel Empire will inevitably respond.

However, she had never seen this person in front of her, completely unfamiliar.

In other words.

His sudden arrival probably did not attract the attention of the strong of the Moon Wheel Empire.

Silver-Eyed Octopus smiled contemptuously, "You are not worthy to know my identity. By acting here, you have already chosen a path to death."

"Kill me?"

The seventh-class mage sneered, "Even if you have comprehended the Space Law, it won't be so easy to kill me."

-1485W!!

Silver-Eyed Octopus did not speak. He took a step and appeared behind the seventh-class mage.

A bloody hole appeared in the seventh-class mage's chest.

Her face was full of disbelief. She didn't even react before she was instantly killed.

At this time.

Thunderclouds were slowly gathering in the sky.

Silver-Eyed Octopus's heart tightened, "Not good, I overdid it a bit."

He immediately restrained his aura, and the thunderclouds in the sky slowly dissipated.

Silver-Eyed Octopus's attack just now had stepped on the limit of the rules. If his attack had been more violent, it might have attracted thunder punishment.

"The seventh-class mage is dead, follow me and counterattack!!"
