

O game 35

Chapter 35 I accept this task!

Not only Dreaming Yuxue.

Other clubs had also reduced their attention to Lin Tianhao.

After all, the early stages of Ragnarok were very important, and Lin Tianhao had been stuck at level ten for so long, which inevitably made them wonder if Lin Tianhao's value was still worth it.

However, Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain.

He had been paying attention to Lin Tianhao, and even sent him a few messages of concern during that time.

Unfortunately, he didn't get any replies.

On the internet.

There were also bloggers who posted.

Saying that Lin Tianhao had become ordinary.

"As for some people saying that Snow Emperor has offline matters and has not been online, I think it is nonsense. Who would give up an annual salary of hundreds of millions to mess around offline?"

... ..

After this blogger's analysis came out, many people agreed with his point of view.

In fact, in the eyes of professional players, this blogger's words are full of loopholes.

However, most ordinary players do not understand the game enough, so they think what this blogger said is correct.

But professional players would not go to bat for someone they are not familiar with.

However, while others did not go to bat.

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain couldn't stand it when he saw this post.

He immediately opened a new post to retort.

"First of all, to that blogger named [Game Dongge], please think before you speak."

"Snow Emperor is relying on his floating skills, even if he can't fight the boss, can't he fight ordinary monsters?"

"Moreover, have you seen the live recording of [Brother Hu's Jiangcheng Brother]? What is Snow Emperor's damage? Would he be stuck at level ten and unable to level up?"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain's entry immediately caused a small sensation.

After all, Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain is the young master of the Floating Slaughter Guild, and has made a name for himself in the main city with his elite Treant set.

Therefore, there are still many players who know Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain.

Only fifteen minutes after his post came out, Game Dongge had already released a new post.

"To my surprise, a professional player would actually be a Snow Emperor fan. I don't deny that Snow Emperor's floating skills are very powerful, but so what?"

"His damage value was already very outrageous in the novice village, relying on free attributes or equipment. It is almost impossible to have such perverted damage."

"Therefore, I speculate that Snow Emperor most likely has a special item that increases damage. It is not that no one has obtained it in the early stages of the game."

"However, special items often have time limits. I think the time for Snow Emperor's special item has expired, and the damage has returned to normal, which is why he has become ordinary."

... ..

Game Dongge and Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain began to argue with each other, and both had a certain fan base.

Their mutual argument caused an uproar on the internet.

It has even rushed into the top ten trending topics.

At this moment.

As the key figure in this incident.

Lin Tianhao was happily farming the Twisted Jungle.

Passing through once, twice, three times...

Here, I have to thank one of the benefits of the novice village.

Infinite inventory slots!

Otherwise, Lin Tianhao's inventory would have been full long ago.

Lin Tianhao didn't even calculate how many times he had farmed the Hell difficulty of the Twisted Jungle.

He only knew that he had been farming.

Finally...

"Ding, your Hand of Heavenly Punishment has been upgraded to three stars."

Hand of Heavenly Punishment (God Tier): 3 Stars

Effect 1: Each normal attack deals 3% of the user's maximum health as true damage.

Effect 2: Each normal attack permanently increases health by 3 points.

Proficiency: 0/10000000.

A satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

The Hand of Heavenly Punishment was finally upgraded.

At the same time, his health also broke through 220,000!

Now, according to the effect of the Hand of Heavenly Punishment, his normal attack can deal 6,600 true damage.

And each normal attack can permanently increase health by three points.

After the Hand of Heavenly Punishment was upgraded.

Lin Tianhao didn't stop.

Clearing the dungeon again, he obtained a large number of rewards.

Lin Tianhao checked the equipment and found that there were already more than 1,100 pieces, and the blacksmith Wang's mission requirement had been met.

Back to the novice village.

Lin Tianhao found the blacksmith Wang.

"Blacksmith Wang, I have brought you what you wanted."

Blacksmith Wang was slightly surprised, obviously not expecting Lin Tianhao to come so quickly.

Lin Tianhao took out the equipment and the Iceflame Magic Ore.

Seeing these things.

Blacksmith Wang also took out the Bloodthirsty Necklace.

Mutual exchange.

A satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

With this Bloodthirsty Necklace, plus the CC immunity of the Purification Jade Pendant.

Lin Tianhao's pressure was greatly reduced.

CC immunity, life steal, plus his current attributes and skills.

He felt that even if he fought the old village chief, he would have a chance.

"Snow Emperor, now that you have gotten what you wanted, shouldn't you leave?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows.

"To tell you the truth, I have offended several guilds in the main city. If I go, I will probably be killed and unable to leave the main city."

Hearing this, blacksmith Wang's face darkened.

The old drunkard scolded: "Snow Emperor, don't push your luck. The affairs of the novice village are not something you can interfere with."

Lin Tianhao grinned, "What I value is profit. As long as the benefits are in place, I will even destroy the old village chief."

Blacksmith Wang stared at Lin Tianhao.

He was optimistic about Lin Tianhao's strength.

It's just that Lin Tianhao has been a bit fickle recently, making it impossible for him to believe him.

Moreover, he always felt that Lin Tianhao was that variable.

In order to ensure that nothing goes wrong, he hoped that Lin Tianhao would leave the novice village.

But if Lin Tianhao was willing to sincerely help him, then the benefits he could get would also be huge.

"Okay."

Blacksmith Wang nodded, "Snow Emperor, if you really want to help me, then go and destroy the resurrection altar now."

Lin Tianhao's expression changed.

Destroying the resurrection altar now would destroy his retreat.

In other words.

In the novice village, without the resurrection altar, if he was killed.

He would be forced to resurrect in the main city.

The risk was too great.

Even though Lin Tianhao's Spring of Life had been upgraded to three stars, his Invincible Golden Body had not cooled down yet. This could not be done.

"Blacksmith Wang, the resurrection altar cannot be destroyed now. That is cutting off my own path. How about destroying the resurrection altar after the old village chief is dead?"

Blacksmith Wang sneered, obviously, his doubts about Lin Tianhao were even greater.

"Snow Emperor, you are making it very difficult for me to trust you."

"Why don't you go to the cliff and start a war with the old village chief? With the resurrection altar, you can resurrect even if you die."

"As for leveling up, I believe it will be easy for you."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes.

Blacksmith Wang was forcing him to take sides.

"Ding, blacksmith Wang has issued you a mission."

"Mission Requirement: Go to the cliff to fight the old village chief."

"Mission Penalty: Unknown."

"Mission Reward: Unknown."

If he accepted this mission to attack the old village chief, then he would completely break with the old village chief.

From blacksmith Wang's point of view.

Lin Tianhao could only choose to stand with him!

Blacksmith Wang looked playful. In his opinion, Lin Tianhao could not accept this mission.

But Lin Tianhao's next answer stunned him.

"Okay, I accept this mission."
