

O game 36

Chapter 36 The old village chief is actually a fighter!

Blacksmith Wang was taken aback for a moment, "Oh? Then I hope you can successfully kill the old village chief. If you kill the old village chief alone, I will give you a growable weapon for archers."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

This kind of growable weapon is the most perverted.

Because only growable weapons are unlimited.

They can surpass artifacts and become legendary super artifacts.

"Okay, I'll go now."

Lin Tianhao also wanted to try out how strong the old village chief of the novice village really was.

It is said that the old village chief of the novice village is the biggest boss in the novice village, and he can take this opportunity to find out.

Cliff.

When Lin Tianhao arrived here.

At some point, a shed had been set up here, and the old village chief was sitting in the shed drinking tea.

Seeing Lin Tianhao's arrival, he took out a cup and poured a cup of tea for Lin Tianhao.

"Xue Di, come over and have a cup?"

"咻!!"

The response to the old village chief was a feathered arrow.

The feathered arrow accurately hit the teacup in the old village chief's hand.

The old village chief sighed, "Xue Di, you disappoint me too much. I didn't expect that you would eventually walk together with Blacksmith Wang."

Lin Tianhao's expression was indifferent.

"Old village chief, there is no need to say any more nonsense, let's do it."

As soon as he finished speaking.

Lin Tianhao took the lead.

The feathered arrow broke through the air and flew towards the old village chief's brow.

The old village chief smiled and didn't take any action.

Lin Tianhao's feathered arrow actually hovered in front of him, turned into an ice sculpture, and finally shattered with a bang.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed drastically.

But the attack didn't stop.

String Twisting Arrow Technique!

The high-speed rotating feathered arrow was finally not frozen by the old village chief.

But the feathered arrow with such strong penetrating power was continuously slapped away by the old village chief with his fingers.

Then, the old village chief threw it away casually.

The feathered arrow actually flew towards Lin Tianhao, and the flying speed was very fast.

In the blink of an eye, the feathered arrow had already reached Lin Tianhao's face.

The methods displayed by the old village chief now correspond to a relatively special profession.

"Do you know now?"

The old village chief grinned.

In the next moment.

He disappeared from the spot.

Lin Tianhao immediately dodged to the side.

But the old village chief's speed was too fast.

His dodge was unsuccessful, and the old village chief grabbed his arm and performed an over-the-shoulder throw.

"Bang!"

Lin Tianhao smashed to the ground, cracking the ground.

-5128!!

A huge damage value appeared.

Lin Tianhao only felt his scalp tingling.

He wanted to run, but the old village chief had already grabbed his legs and hung him upside down.

"Bang!"

At the moment when Lin Tianhao was hung upside down, the old village chief's knee slammed into Lin Tianhao's spine.

"Crack!"

-10256!!

Lin Tianhao only felt that his bones were about to fall apart.

That is, this is a game, and everything is dataized.

Otherwise, Lin Tianhao would probably be paralyzed now.

But then.

The old village chief showed Lin Tianhao what it means to be unscrupulous in order to achieve his goals!

I saw the old village chief chop down between Lin Tianhao's legs with a hand knife.

Lin Tianhao subconsciously clamped his legs, and then used the old village chief's hand knife to turn over and jump up, sitting on the old village chief's shoulders.

The experience of long-term life-and-death battles in his previous life allowed Lin Tianhao to immediately reverse the bow, wrap the bowstring around the old village chief's neck and rotate it, and pull it back.

The old village chief suddenly couldn't breathe, his face flushed.

But his reaction speed was also ridiculously fast.

A monkey stole peaches, grabbing towards Lin Tianhao's legs in reverse.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed.

This old village chief is really inhuman.

Lin Tianhao even suspected that the old village chief had been attacked like this before, so he wanted to use such methods to target him.

But I have to say that the old village chief's method is very effective.

Lin Tianhao had to dodge.

The old village chief rushed up quickly after getting up.

String Twisting Arrow Technique!

Lin Tianhao shot an arrow at close range.

-6612!

Lin Tianhao was like, what the hell!

Because there is only true damage!

This is simply outrageous!

In other words, his close-range string-twisting arrow didn't break the defense, which is terrible.

The old village chief was also a little stunned.

It seemed that he didn't expect Lin Tianhao's attack to cause so much damage to himself.

Even if he was a little stunned, the old village chief's movements were not slow at all.

He resisted Lin Tianhao's arrow and punched Lin Tianhao into the air with a hook.

Then he jumped up and performed a set of combo punches.

Wait...

How is this set of combo punches so similar to Old Drunkard's combo punches.

Could it be that Old Drunkard is the old village chief's man?

This possibility cannot be ruled out.

After all, the old village chief had previously placed people around Blacksmith Wang, and now he is placing his subordinates again, which can also be explained.

But Lin Tianhao is no longer in the mood to think so much now.

Because before he landed, he was grabbed by the old village chief's head and slammed into his knee.

Is this the fighting method of a fighter?

The old village chief's fighting skills have simply subverted his imagination.

Now Lin Tianhao is like a toy, completely unable to parry in the old village chief's hands.

Almost infinitely controlled and knocked into the air.

"Bang!"

Once again, he was smashed **** the ground, and Lin Tianhao's health bar plummeted.

Two hundred and twenty thousand health points are now less than one-third.

But the old village chief still didn't give Lin Tianhao a chance to react. The old village chief raised his hand.

Lin Tianhao was frozen.

Then, the old village chief hit the frozen Lin Tianhao hard.

"Boom!"

With a loud noise, a huge damage number floated above Lin Tianhao's head.

-59280!!

Nearly 60,000 damage instantly killed Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao was killed without even using the Rejuvenation from Decaying Wood!!

Because his health was higher than 10% when he was killed, so Rejuvenation from Decaying Wood was not triggered.

Novice Village.

In the resurrection altar.

Lin Tianhao came out.

His level dropped from level ten to level nine.

This result stunned the few players who were still paying attention to him.

Especially Floating Tower Shield Mountain.

He fought hard with Game Dong Ge online, supporting Lin Tianhao.

But now, the news of Lin Tianhao's rise has not come, but instead he has dropped a level.

Lin Tianhao dropped a level.

Who is the happiest?

Undoubtedly!

Game Dong Ge!

Before, he and Floating Tower Shield Mountain tore each other apart. The two held different opinions and both had some truth, which caused him not to gain the upper hand.

But now it's different.

Lin Tianhao dropped a level.

This is where the article can be made.

In just ten minutes.

Game Dong Ge posted.

"@FloatingTowerShieldMountain Hehe, is there anything else to say now? The Xue Di you boasted about has dropped a level."

"He hasn't leveled up for so long. Now he has dropped a level, which also confirms what I said before."

"Xue Di is just lucky. He got some special props in the novice village. Even his infinite floating is not a skill, but the result of special props."

"This level drop can fully prove that Xue Di has become mediocre, even inferior to ordinary players!"
