Chapter 37: The Novice Village version of Infernal Affairs!

Game Dong Ge's words immediately resonated with many ordinary players, and even some advanced players felt that Game Dong Ge's words made sense.

Floating Tower Shield Mountain was so angry when he saw Game Dong Ge's post that his teeth were itching.

To be honest.

He still believed that Lin Tianhao was awesome.

Because Lin Tianhao had helped him level up.

Those operations were not something ordinary players could do.

However, he really didn't know how to refute it now.

He hadn't leveled up for a long time, and now he had even dropped a level. Even if he wanted to clear his name, he couldn't.

But he still didn't admit defeat.

He simply posted a message:

"Everyone makes mistakes sometimes. I guess Snow Emperor had something going on offline that delayed him for a long time."

"After going online, in order to catch up, he forcibly tried to fight monsters of a higher level, which is why he accidentally dropped a level."

Floating Tower Shield Mountain's obvious sophistry only attracted ridicule from many people.

Floating Tower Club!

Floating Tower Shield Mountain had just sent out the post when he received a private message.

"Don't worry about Snow Emperor's affairs anymore, and don't post those messy things online. It will only make others think that our family members have intellectual problems."

Seeing this message, Floating Tower Shield Mountain immediately became a little unhappy.

"Sister, do even you think Snow Emperor is not good enough?"

"Is he good enough or not? Isn't the fact right there?"

Floating Tower Shield Mountain was speechless for a moment, but he still insisted: "I believe Snow Emperor is only temporarily failing, and he will definitely rise again."

Lin Tianhao didn't know.

Because he dropped a level, it caused such a huge uproar.

Coming out of the resurrection altar.

Old Wine Ghost looked at Lin Tianhao and smiled: "Not bad, you actually knocked off more than 6,000 health from the old village chief."

Lin Tianhao twitched his lips, "I never dreamed that the old village chief would be a fighter."

"Yes, he is a fighter, and he is also an ice and fire dual-type fighter."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Alright, I'm going to level up."

After saying this.

He left the novice village and went to the Twisted Jungle.

Entering the dungeon.

Lin Tianhao's eyes became sharp.

This time, when fighting the old village chief.

He didn't wear the Purification Jade Pendant.

This time he went to fight the old village chief, he didn't think about really knocking off much health from the old village chief.

More than that, he was testing the old village chief's skills, and at the same time, gaining the trust of Wang the blacksmith.

Now that the Hand of Heavenly Punishment has reached three stars, a normal attack can stack three points of health.

But the same problem appeared.

The monsters in the Twisted Jungle couldn't withstand his attacks at all.

They were killed in a few hits, and the stacked health was also very limited.

Soloing the Twisted Jungle twice.

Lin Tianhao successfully reached level ten.

Reaching level ten again does not have a free attribute point reward.

Novice Village, Blacksmith Shop.

Lin Tianhao submitted the task of fighting the old village chief.

"Ding, you have completed Wang the blacksmith's task, reward: Free attribute points + 5."

Lin Tianhao frowned.

This reward was a bit low.

But Lin Tianhao still didn't say anything.

"Wang the blacksmith, the old village chief's strength is beyond my imagination. It's difficult to compete with the old village chief on my own."

Wang the blacksmith nodded, "The old village chief has dominated the novice village for so long, so he naturally has his own unique skills."

"Then how should the old village chief be fought?" Lin Tianhao asked subconsciously.

"I will face the old village chief head-on, you can assist from the side."

Having said that, Wang the blacksmith continued.

"But before that, I need you and Old Wine Ghost to go to the mine."

"Ding, Wang the blacksmith has issued a hidden task to you."

"Task requirement: Kill Old Wine Ghost."

"Task penalty: Unknown."

"Task reward: Unknown."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. Last time, when he was attacked by the old village chief with a combination of punches, he felt that it was very similar to Old Wine Ghost's combination of punches.

Therefore, he also had some doubts.

Now it seems.

Wang the blacksmith also suspected Old Wine Ghost.

"Okay."

Lin Tianhao nodded.

Old Wine Ghost didn't seem to notice Wang the blacksmith's thoughts and went to the mine with Lin Tianhao.

At the entrance of the mine.

Old Wine Ghost looked at Lin Tianhao with a smile.

"Snow Emperor, Wang the blacksmith asked you to kill me?"

Lin Tianhao was shocked. Old Wine Ghost already knew.

"No need to be so surprised."

"Wang the blacksmith is suspicious by nature. He must have discovered something before asking you to come here with me."

Lin Tianhao smiled, "Since you know, why are you still here?"

Old Wine Ghost smiled, "Of course I have to come."

"Because I have to die. Only in this way can you fully gain his trust."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, "I have already gained Wang the blacksmith's trust by attacking the old village chief."

"No, you haven't gained his trust."

At this moment.

A figure walked out of the mine.

Seeing that person.

Lin Tianhao was taken aback.

Because the person who came was none other than the old village chief.

Lin Tianhao felt.

This small novice village.

Is about to be turned into Infernal Affairs by myself!

"It seems that Old Wine Ghost is really your man." Lin Tianhao said with a wry smile.

The old village chief nodded, "That's right, including the flaws, we deliberately left them for Wang the blacksmith to discover."

"The purpose is to let you kill Old Wine Ghost, so as to completely gain his trust."

"Then what? Cut off the water from under the cauldron? Sneak attack him during the real battle?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"Sort of."

"Do you still remember the Mandalore potion I gave you? Put it in Wang the blacksmith's wine jar and let him drink it, so you will be the biggest contributor to this battle."

Lin Tianhao was silent.

The old village chief seemed to see Lin Tianhao hesitating, and he continued:

"Snow Emperor."

"You have been delayed in the novice village for so long."

"Help me with this favor, and I will definitely give you rewards that exceed the current stage."

Lin Tianhao was silent. He looked like he was thinking.

But in fact, he already had an answer.

Don't look at the fact that he didn't even have the power to parry in the last battle with the old village chief.

That's because he didn't wear the Purification Jade Pendant.

If he wore the Purification Jade Pendant, the old village chief would not be able to continuously control him.

Moreover, he has now accumulated eighty free attribute points.

If all of them are added to movement speed, then his movement speed will reach a very terrifying level.

"Okay, Old Village Chief, I believe you."

Lin Tianhao said seriously after hesitating for a while.

"The good things in Wang the blacksmith's hands are of very limited help to me. I hope the things in your hands, Old Village Chief, can be more useful to me."

While speaking, Lin Tianhao's feather arrow had already landed on Old Wine Ghost's body.

Old Wine Ghost didn't resist and quietly greeted death.

Not only him, but also his Blue and White Big Snake.

"Ding, you have completed the first kill of the Blue and White Big Snake, and a server-wide announcement will be made soon. Do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for completing the first kill of the Blue and White Big Snake, hereby announce, I hope the majority of players will continue to work hard!!"
