

O game 41

Chapter 41: A reborn person was actually abused in the fountain!

Lin Tianhao didn't answer.

He didn't like to talk during battles.

Arrows whistled through the air.

They landed on the old village chief again.

The increase in attack speed and movement speed made Lin Tianhao's kiting very smooth.

The old village chief's reaction speed was also not slow!

After Lin Tianhao pulled away, his fourth Shadow Step was unleashed.

Lin Tianhao felt his scalp tingle.

Nine Shadow Steps!

If he could really use nine teleports, that would be too abnormal.

Especially since this kind of skill was in the hands of a fighter.

Every time he got close, it was a fatal threat to squishy ranged classes such as priests, mages, archers, and summoners.

"Exploding Fist!"

The old village chief slammed a punch on Lin Tianhao's chin, knocking him flying.

But just as he was preparing to follow up with a combo after knocking Lin Tianhao away, Lin Tianhao had already landed.

"So fast, he can even reduce the knockback effect?"

The old village chief's pupils suddenly contracted, and he had a bad feeling in his heart.

He currently had no advantage in terms of movement speed, and both his Super Armor and Berserk had been used.

One normal attack recovered about three thousand health points, which was even more abnormal than him, the novice village's big boss who recovered one thousand per second with his Silver set.

"Sure."

Lin Tianhao's hands didn't stop moving, but his mouth said it was okay.

The old village chief was stunned for a moment, "What do you want?"

Lin Tianhao pretended to think, but the speed of his arrows was still ridiculously fast.

Attack speed maxed out!

"How about ten Divine Talent Awakening Stones?" Lin Tianhao said.

Upon hearing this.

The old village chief knew that he was being played.

"Snow Emperor, you forced me to do this. In that case, even if I waste this talisman, I will kill you."

As soon as he finished speaking.

A light blue talisman appeared in the old village chief's hand.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed drastically, and he turned around and ran.

Talismans were already extremely terrifying.

He might be able to deal with Yellow-grade talismans, but the one that the old village chief took out was a Blue-grade talisman, and even if he wanted to resist, he didn't have the strength.

"Want to run now? It's too late!"

The old village chief activated the Blue-grade talisman in his hand.

Icy cold air surged out from the talisman, and everything it passed was frozen into ice sculptures.

Lin Tianhao went full speed, but it was still not enough!

In the blink of an eye.

Lin Tianhao felt a stiffness in his legs, and saw his legs beginning to freeze from the bottom up.

In just the blink of an eye, Lin Tianhao was completely frozen.

-9999!!

-9999!!

.....

After being frozen, Lin Tianhao's health bar began to plummet.

But the old village chief didn't plan to let Lin Tianhao off like this.

"Blazing Cloud Piercing Palm!"

A palm with the power of intense flames struck Lin Tianhao's frozen body.

The power of the two attributes of ice and fire completely exploded at this moment.

-98510!!

Lin Tianhao's health bar was directly emptied, and he died on the spot!

Novice Village, Resurrection Altar!

After Lin Tianhao resurrected, all of the equipment on his body, except for a few pieces that didn't require a level to wear, dropped.

This was because he had been wearing the level ten Breeze Set.

Now that his level had dropped to nine, he naturally couldn't wear the equipment.

Lin Tianhao resurrected from the resurrection altar.

As soon as he resurrected, many NPCs gathered outside the resurrection altar.

There was the tavern's waiter, the potion shop's owner, the tailor shop's owner, and some other NPCs wandering in the novice village. At a glance, there were actually fifteen!

When they saw Lin Tianhao resurrect, they didn't hesitate at all, and their attacks were released.

The tailor shop owner's silver needles flew out, attacking Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao stepped back on the bowstring and jumped up, while simultaneously raising his hand and firing five arrows at once.

The Nine Union Longbow had no wearing requirements, so Lin Tianhao was still using this Gold-grade longbow.

Five arrows hit five different NPCs, dealing nearly eight thousand damage to each NPC.

At the same time, it also triggered Lightning Leap.

On the five arrows, three of them triggered Lightning Leap, and another series of damage numbers jumped out from the tops of these NPCs' heads.

"Blazing Body Burning!"

The tavern waiter threw out a wine jar, smashing it at Lin Tianhao's feet, causing burning damage to Lin Tianhao.

"Ding, you have received burning damage and will continuously lose health."

-100.

-100.

.....

Damage numbers were constantly jumping out, but fortunately, there was the Purification Jade Pendant, which gave Lin Tianhao an 80% immunity to this kind of negative buff.

Otherwise, it would be -500 per second.

Before Lin Tianhao could attack a second time, the potion shop owner attacked.

A bottle of pitch-black potion was sprinkled around him.

"Ding, you have been affected by the Heavy Injury Potion, and your recovery and lifesteal are reduced by 8%."

Not only them, but the other NPCs were also using their own methods, and all kinds of damage were raining down on Lin Tianhao.

In less than a second, Lin Tianhao's health dropped by twenty thousand.

Damn it!

Lin Tianhao cursed inwardly.

He was a reincarnator, yet he was actually being spawn-camped here.

This was simply a great humiliation!

"You want to spawn-camp me? Then let's have some fun!!"

Lin Tianhao's eyes turned cold, and after enduring a round of damage, he immediately used the extreme five-arrow volley.

In the archer's equipment, there were equipment like the Split Bow.

That kind of Split Bow had relatively low accuracy requirements.

But Lin Tianhao's five-arrow volley, where all arrows had to hit, had unimaginable pressure.

"Whoosh whoosh whoosh..."

Lin Tianhao released his arrows, attacking five NPCs.

This time, he discovered a very interesting thing, which was that the five-arrow volley could trigger the passive effect of the Hand of Heavenly Punishment five times.

With his current three-star Hand of Heavenly Punishment, each five-arrow volley could permanently increase fifteen points of health.

Not only that.

The five-arrow volley also had a problem.

That was insufficient damage.

Especially since these NPCs were all bosses with high defense.

In this situation.

The damage that a five-arrow volley could generally deal was not high.

However, the abnormal level of Lin Tianhao's Hand of Heavenly Punishment, this God-tier talent, was reflected at this time.

The true damage of 3% of maximum health caused by the passive was not affected by the five-arrow volley.

Therefore, he could deal massive damage just from this passive damage alone.

The old village chief hadn't returned yet.

But he was definitely on his way.

Lin Tianhao had to eliminate at least five NPCs before the old village chief returned, otherwise it would probably be very difficult for him to break out of here.

The five-arrow volley.

Consumed a lot of energy.

Lin Tianhao's current stats could only support him using the five-arrow volley for no more than fifteen minutes.

Any longer.

The accuracy of the five-arrow volley would be affected.

"Fifteen minutes is enough."
