Chapter 42: It's terrifying to think about it, the Snow Queen is being tortured in the fountain

A cold glint flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes!

No matter the stage of the player, spawn-camping was a great humiliation.

Especially since Lin Tianhao was a transmigrator.

Therefore, even though the pressure was great, he still didn't intend to stop.

"Frost: Freeze!"

The apothecary shop owner waved the staff in his hand, and frost appeared beneath Lin Tianhao's feet.

"Ding, you have been affected by Freeze, attack speed decreased by 10%, movement speed decreased by 10%, duration five seconds."

Furthermore, since it was in the resurrection altar, Lin Tianhao could also recover health, otherwise, there was no way he could withstand their bombardment.

However, Five-Arrow Barrage consumed a huge amount of mental energy, so Lin Tianhao immediately switched to a single Feather Arrow.

This would cause him to lose health faster, but the consumption of mental energy would be significantly reduced.

Even with Lin Tianhao's current abilities, as long as he didn't deliberately move to dodge skills, he could even slowly recover the consumed mental energy.

However...

A single Feather Arrow, without dodging.

The result was that Lin Tianhao began to lose health rapidly.

Almost at a rate of 20,000 health points per second.

His two hundred thousand plus health points could only last for a dozen seconds.

"I can't hold on!"

Lin Tianhao used Five-Arrow Barrage again.

Increasing his health recovery to slow down the time of his death.

However...

This approach was a drop in the bucket.

The recovery was indeed greatly improved.

But it was still not enough to compensate for the rate at which Lin Tianhao was losing health.

Finally, after Lin Tianhao stubbornly held on for three minutes, he still fell.

His level dropped from level nine to level eight.

Thirty seconds later.

Lin Tianhao resurrected from the resurrection altar.

These people didn't give him a chance to breathe at all, and continued to bombard him with skills.

Lin Tianhao only felt his scalp tingle.

In both his past and present lives!

Apart from being schemed to death by Wu Xiaodao that one time, he had never been so aggrieved.

Lin Tianhao still didn't sit still and wait for death, and still counterattacked with all his might.

He only hoped that the Ninefold Bow and Bloodthirsty Necklace would not drop.

Currently, the three most important pieces of equipment he had.

Ninefold Bow, Bloodthirsty Necklace, Purification Jade Pendant.

The Purification Jade Pendant could not be dropped.

But both the Bloodthirsty Necklace and the Ninefold Bow had a certain probability of dropping.

Therefore...

This time...

Lin Tianhao persisted for three minutes.

When he was about to be killed, Lin Tianhao put both the Ninefold Bow and the Bloodthirsty Necklace into his backpack.

The probability of equipment dropping from the backpack was lower.

Not only that...

Lin Tianhao had a lot of things in his backpack, so even if an item dropped, the probability of dropping the Ninefold Bow and Bloodthirsty Ring would be very low.

Fortunately, Lin Tianhao didn't drop any equipment this time.

However, he had already dropped to level seven.

Moreover, he had already seen the old village chief return.

The battle he would face next would be even more severe.

Thirty seconds later.

He resurrected.

The old village chief looked at Lin Tianhao coldly.

"Xue Di, do you know the consequences of offending me now?"

"I can spawn-camp you until you can't leave the novice village!"

The old village chief's voice was full of killing intent.

Lin Tianhao snorted coldly, "If you think you can do that, you can try."

As soon as he finished speaking...

Lin Tianhao took the initiative to attack.

Don't look at the fact that he only lasted three minutes in the previous round.

But with the help of Five-Arrow Barrage...

His health limit had increased by more than eight thousand.

These NPCs were indeed difficult to deal with, but they also had their advantages.

That was, they wouldn't be killed in two hits like other monsters, so he couldn't accumulate much health.

Fighting again.

Lin Tianhao's true damage increased by one hundred and fifty points.

It was just that this increase was insignificant compared to the damage of over a thousand that these NPCs dealt.

This time, with the participation of the old village chief, Lin Tianhao only lasted for one minute before falling.

The reason was simple.

The old village chief used his ultimate move to kill Lin Tianhao when his health was higher than ten percent.

So Lin Tianhao had no way to trigger the passive effect of Withered Wood Revives.

However...

Even in this one minute...

Lin Tianhao still stacked more than two thousand health points for himself.

Currently, he could still maintain Five-Arrow Barrage, which could increase fifteen health points with each normal attack.

In addition...

With Lin Tianhao's current attack speed of more than four points, he could stack sixty health points per second.

Excluding factors such as being controlled, Lin Tianhao still increased two thousand health points in this one minute.

The benefit was that the Bloodthirsty Necklace recovered more health, and the true damage caused by normal attacks increased by sixty points.

As it currently stood, it was better than nothing.

But Lin Tianhao would not give up!

He wanted to accumulate little by little.

He could resurrect infinitely, but the old village chief and the others couldn't.

As for the old village chief destroying the resurrection altar...

That was even more impossible.

If the old village chief destroyed the resurrection altar, then the novice village would be destroyed.

Then his existence as the village chief of the novice village would be meaningless.

This was the main reason, and there was another reason.

That was, if the resurrection altar was destroyed, Lin Tianhao would be directly reborn in the main city after being killed.

Looking at the old village chief's current posture...

It was obvious that he wanted to kill him so that he couldn't leave the novice village.

If this were to happen to other players...

This account would probably be finished.

But Lin Tianhao had the God-tier talent, Hand of Heavenly Punishment.

He would not admit defeat, and he would not give in.

He wanted to fight head-on! !

Floating Tower Club!

Floating Tower Shield Mountain looked at Xue Di in his friend list, and he was stunned.

Because he found that Xue Di had dropped a level.

Moreover, after dropping to level nine, in less than fifteen minutes, he had continuously dropped to level six!

This was obviously unscientific.

He didn't know what Lin Tianhao had encountered, but he instinctively sent Lin Tianhao a voice call.

However, Lin Tianhao was still in a high-intensity battle at this time, so naturally he was not in the mood to care about any voice calls.

This time...

Lin Tianhao lasted for one and a half minutes.

Stacked more than three thousand health points.

Because the old village chief's ultimate move was on cooldown, Lin Tianhao triggered the skill Withered Wood Revives.

With the help of Withered Wood Revives, Lin Tianhao had another chance to breathe.

If he were to go to a dungeon, he estimated that he could only stack a few thousand health points after clearing a dungeon.

Now, he only needed one or two minutes, and a few thousand health points would come.

Floating Tower Shield Mountain saw that Lin Tianhao had dropped another level, and was only level five, so he couldn't help but become more worried.

What exactly happened?

Shouldn't players resurrect in the resurrection altar after death?

Unless... ..

Floating Tower Shield Mountain thought of a very terrifying possibility, that was spawn-camping! !

Xue Di was being spawn-camped! !
