Chapter 44: Destroy the Novice Village, One Million Red Name Points!

“Ding, you have completed the first kill of Alchemist Amy. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Hide it!”

“Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player with hidden nickname for completing the first kill of Alchemist Amy. Special announcement, hoping that all players will continue to work hard.”

“Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player with hidden nickname for completing the first kill of Alchemist Amy. Special announcement, hoping that all players will continue to work hard.”

Because this server-wide announcement only had one name, the person who killed the boss completed it alone.

Recently, there have also been players who hunted bosses alone, but most of them did not hide their nicknames.

Of course, if it was just like this, he wouldn't think there was anything special.

What really surprised him was.

In his friend list, Snow Emperor's level suddenly increased from level one to level five.

There is only one possibility.

It was Lin Tianhao who killed Alchemist Amy and obtained a large amount of experience points, so he obtained so many rewards in one go.

As for why Lin Tianhao hid his nickname.

It's because he doesn't know what the consequences of destroying the novice village will be.

So, he wants to hide his nickname.

What he's afraid of isn't people.

But some NPCs in Twilight of the Gods knowing.

The NPCs in Twilight of the Gods cannot be judged by common sense. Who knows what outrageous things they will do in the future if they know that they destroyed the novice village.

“Ding, you have killed the Tavern Keeper. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Ding, you have killed the Novice Village Hunter. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Ding, you have killed the Sixth Granny Tailor. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Hide it.”

.....

The entire Twilight of the Gods Dragon Country server began to sound one server-wide announcement after another.

If at first not many people cared about Lin Tianhao killing Alchemist Amy.

But now.

This non-stop server-wide announcement has caused the entire Twilight of the Gods to explode.

“Holy crap!!”

“What happened? What kind of great figure is this? Is he slaughtering the novice village?”

“If you didn't say it, I almost didn't notice. The people in these announcements are all NPCs in the novice village.”

“Which great figure is so awesome that he actually bloodbathed the novice village? This is something we never dared to think about before!”

.....

Floating Tower Club!

Floating Tower Shield Mountain's hands were trembling with excitement.

Others don't know who this fierce man who slaughtered the novice village is.

But he knows!

Snow Emperor!!

It must be Snow Emperor!!

Because now Snow Emperor has returned to level ten.

There won't be such a coincidence.

Moreover, now he can also understand why Snow Emperor was spawn camped.

Because the ones spawn camping him were not players, but these NPCs in the novice village.

Although Floating Tower Shield Mountain doesn't know how Lin Tianhao managed to slaughter these NPCs in the novice village, it can't change his excitement.

Novice Village!

The old village chief, seeing his subordinates falling one by one, roared in anger:

“Snow Emperor, you're crazy, what exactly do you want to do!!”

Lin Tianhao's expression was indifferent, “Didn't I say it before? I respectfully send the old village chief to his death!”

The old village chief's face turned green and then purple with anger.

“Snow Emperor, you are bullying people too much.”

“Even if it means perishing together today, I won't let you succeed.”

As soon as the words fell.

The aura on the old village chief's body became extremely violent.

He didn't attack Lin Tianhao immediately.

His attack was aimed at the resurrection altar.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed.

“Not good!!”

If the old village chief destroys the resurrection altar, and then uses a blue quality talisman, then his efforts may be completely destroyed.

“Swish swish swish.....”

Lin Tianhao didn't dare to be negligent in the slightest.

The feather arrows in his hand kept flying out, all aimed at the old village chief's weak points.

“霸体 (Overlord Body)!”

“狂暴 (Berserk)!”

The old village chief shouted angrily, pushing his power to the extreme.

“Swish swish swish!”

Lin Tianhao attacked again, standing in the resurrection altar, taking the lead in destroying the altar.

The moment he destroyed the altar, the entire Twilight of the Gods issued a warning sound.

“Warning, warning, someone is maliciously destroying the novice village resurrection altar. The resurrection altar has been destroyed. All adventurers can no longer enter the novice village and will be directly born in the main city. Adventurers who are already in the novice village will also be resurrected directly in the main city after being killed.”

.....

The sound of the alarm being broadcast continuously made the players of Twilight of the Gods dumbfounded.

“It was the battle just now, the person who hunted the novice village NPCs, he destroyed the resurrection altar.”

“What exactly does he want to do? Destroying the resurrection altar means that level one players will be born in the main city.”

“Holy crap, then the latecomers will suffer. Level one players come to the main city, but the weakest in the main city seem to be level ten monsters. What will they use to grind?”

.....

The entire Twilight of the Gods player base exploded.

Many people cursed Lin Tianhao, the person who destroyed the novice village resurrection altar, and his ancestors for eighteen generations.

Lin Tianhao, after arriving at the final resurrection altar, began to frantically attack the old village chief.

The old village chief was exasperated and wished he could tear Lin Tianhao apart.

Lin Tianhao was very calm. He had experienced too many big scenes in his previous life.

This little scene couldn't scare him.

The old village chief's stormy attacks landed on Lin Tianhao, although it knocked off a lot of Lin Tianhao's health.

But similarly.

His health was also dropping crazily.

Because of the Purification Jade Pendant, he had no way to control Lin Tianhao to death, and the result was that he was killed by Lin Tianhao's powerful output.

“Ding, you have killed the Novice Village Old Village Chief. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?”

“Hide it.”

“Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player with hidden nickname for completing the first kill of the Novice Village Old Village Chief. Special announcement, hoping that all players will continue to work hard!”

“Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player with hidden nickname for completing the first kill of the Novice Village Old Village Chief. Special announcement, hoping that all players will continue to work hard!”

.....

Another server-wide announcement.

Those people have already started madly spraying Lin Tianhao.

Especially those players in the novice village.

They have to commit suicide to leave the novice village.

Because only after death can they leave the novice village and be born in the main city.

“Ding, you have destroyed the novice village, red name value + 1000000.”

“Ding, you have completed the task of destroying the novice village. Task reward: Free attribute points + 50, Blessing of the Gods + 1.”

Lin Tianhao was dumbfounded when he saw his red name value.

Killing a player is one point of red name value.

He... one million red name value!

The higher the red name value, the higher the penalty for death.

Generally speaking, one point of red name value will result in dropping 1 level after death and will increase the drop rate after death by 1%.

Not only that, but if the red name value exceeds ten points, you will not be able to enter the main city. Even if you are resurrected in the main city, you will be immediately expelled.

In other words, it is also impossible to change jobs or receive tasks in the main city.

“Damn it, how long will it take for me to clear this red name value?”
