Chapter 45 Blessing of the Gods: Reincarnation of Death!

Red-named players can reduce their red name value by grinding monsters.

Generally speaking, killing 100 ordinary monsters can eliminate one point of red name value, and one hundred elite monsters can eliminate ten points of red name value.

As for bosses, a Black Iron boss can also eliminate ten points, but it needs to be a solo kill.

Moreover, it cannot be lower than your own level.

Because in Gods Twilight, killing monsters below your own level does not give any rewards, and naturally cannot eliminate red name value.

One million!!

Even with his strength, eliminating that is a long and arduous task.

Moreover, he cannot die!

Otherwise, it will increase this red name value.

Once he dies, everything on him except for the non-droppable equipment will be dropped!

And it's the kind that can be dropped completely with just one death.

The question is.

How is he going to leave the Novice Village?

Actually, the other equipment is fine.

Even if the Golden-grade Nine Union Longbow is dropped, Lin Tianhao wouldn't care.

But the Bloodthirst Necklace.

For Lin Tianhao, this is simply a god-tier existence!

If the Bloodthirst Necklace is dropped, he doesn't know when he will be able to own a second piece of equipment similar to the Bloodthirst Necklace!

Could it be that he should eliminate the red name value in the Novice Village before leaving?

However, with his one million red name value, even if he grinds dungeons until he vomits, he won't be able to eliminate it.

In the end.

Lin Tianhao locked his gaze on the Blessing of the Gods.

Whether he can defy fate depends on the Blessing of the Gods.

"Due to your red name value being too high, the blessing has changed."

"Ding, you have received the Blessing of the Houtu Goddess..."

A dark red beam of light descended from the sky, enveloping Lin Tianhao.

"Ding, you have obtained Death Reincarnation."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up, and he immediately checked the introduction of Death Reincarnation.

Death Reincarnation: 1 Star.

Effect: Your normal attacks have a 0.5% chance to instantly kill the enemy unit.

Cooldown: None.

Consumption: None.

Proficiency: 0 / 1000 (Note: This proficiency is gained by killing monsters, NPCs, and adventurers that are not lower than your own level. Each kill grants one point of proficiency.)

Lin Tianhao's mouth twitched.

This is indeed a blessing bestowed by the Houtu Goddess.

It is only a one-star Death Reincarnation, and it only has one seemingly simple effect.

But this one effect is ridiculously powerful!

A 0.5% effect is not high.

But what if this star rating is increased?

The effect that can be produced will not be simple.

Especially when facing those world bosses in the later stages, will he even be able to instantly kill world bosses?

Just thinking about it made Lin Tianhao a little excited.

Adjusting his emotions.

Lin Tianhao began to loot the corpses.

There were sixteen bosses waiting for him to loot corpses here.

Especially the old village chief.

This was a super boss in the Novice Village, and who knows what good things he could drop.

Equipment, skills, gold coins, various materials...

Lin Tianhao frowned.

Except for skills that he could use to increase the proficiency of Withered Tree in Spring, other things were of no help to him.

The reason was simple.

With his current red name value, as long as he left the Novice Village.

Everything would definitely be dropped.

Finally.

Lin Tianhao saw something useful to him.

"Guild Creation Order!!"

Awesome.

In the early stages of the game, the Guild Creation Order is even more useful than the Lord's Heart.

"Use the Guild Creation Order."

Lin Tianhao didn't hesitate at all and used it directly.

Because if he didn't use it, once he died, it would only be dropped.

The key is that after his death, he would be reborn in the main city and would not be able to come back to pick it up.

"Please name your guild."

"Lone Snow Guild."

Lin Tianhao directly named it after the guild he established in his previous life.

"Ding, you are the first player to establish a guild. A server-wide announcement will be made. Do you want to hide your name?"

"No."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for being the first to establish a guild, rewarding a special guild item +1. This announcement is hereby made, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

"Server-wide announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for being the first to establish a guild, rewarding a special guild item +1. This announcement is hereby made, hoping that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

...

Establishing a guild!!

This has more gold content than the first kill of a boss.

Originally, many people were still discussing the destruction of the Novice Village, but when they heard that Lin Tianhao had established a guild, they were immediately attracted.

"Damn, Snow Emperor? Is Snow Emperor, who has been silent for so long, finally making a sound again?"

"What are the benefits of establishing a guild? Can a big shot come out and popularize it?"

"It's in the game introduction of Gods Twilight. It seems that there can be special buffs, such as guild members gaining an additional 1% experience, 1% damage, 1% movement speed, etc."

"Only 1%, that's not much, is it?"

"This is a one-star guild. The higher the guild level, the more the increase."

...

Everywhere in Gods Twilight, there were voices of discussion.

In a level fifteen dungeon.

Chasing Dreams Snow frowned upon hearing this server-wide announcement.

"You haven't been rushing up, just for this Guild Creation Order?"

She was actually wondering why Lin Tianhao's level hadn't been rising all along. Now it seems that it can be explained.

In order to get the Guild Creation Order, he was doing story missions and gave up leveling up.

"But, you don't have a big guild behind you. What can establishing a game guild do?"

...

Not only Chasing Dreams Snow, but other guilds were also discussing.

They all use the name of a guild, but without a Guild Creation Order, they are not real game guilds.

Just self-organized guilds.

While the outside world was discussing, Lin Tianhao began to check the situation of his guild.

Name: Lone Snow Guild.

Level: 1 Star.

Guild Leader: Snow Emperor.

Vice Guild Leader: None.

Administrator: None.

Ordinary Member: None.

Wealth: 0.

Warehouse: None.

Achievement: 0 / 1000.

Buff: Damage + 1%.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up, and he dumped all the gold coins, equipment, and various materials and props into the guild.

This way, he wouldn't drop them upon death.

"It's really like getting a pillow when you're sleepy."

Before, Lin Tianhao was worried that his equipment would be dropped when he left the Novice Village.

But now that he had a guild, all of his items could be stored in the guild warehouse.

This way, he could take everything with him.

After establishing the guild, he also obtained a special guild item.

Special Guild Item: Bronze.

Effect: After use, guild members will gain a 10% critical hit bonus.

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

This buff is good.

In the early stages, the guild's buffed attributes were basically 1%, but this one immediately gave 10%.

"Use."

"Ding, you have used a special item. Guild members' critical hits +10%, guild achievement +200."
