Chapter 47: Village Chief Wang, the Secret of the Novice Village!

Lin Tianhao believed he understood the beginner village quite well.

The NPCs in the beginner village were dead.

He had also never heard of Wang the Blacksmith having an older brother.

Moreover, it was too similar.

The person before him looked almost exactly like Wang the Blacksmith.

Lin Tianhao was even more inclined to believe that this was Wang the Blacksmith resurrected.

"Who told you Wang the Blacksmith didn't have an older brother?"

"He does, his brother was originally the village chief of the beginner village, but unfortunately, on the first day he became the village chief, the previous old village chief didn't want to relinquish power, and a conflict arose between the two, and his brother was banished to the wilderness to fend for himself."

Lin Tianhao's pupils suddenly contracted.

The man continued, "Otherwise, why do you think the old village chief is called 'old'? It's because he was the previous village chief, and I should be the current village chief of the beginner village!"

Lin Tianhao finally checked his attributes at this moment.

Village Chief Wang (Silver): Level 20.

Health Points: 5255500 / 5255500.

Attack: 3999.

Skills: ???

(Note: Village chief of the beginner village, Wang the Blacksmith's older brother, was banished from the beginner village due to a conflict with the old village chief, and became a demon due to a single thought, becoming a wild boss in the beginner village.

He has been plotting an extremely terrifying thing, and you must not let him succeed, otherwise you will be punished by the gods.)

Lin Tianhao's expression changed drastically.

Because this guy's classification was actually a wild boss.

Not only that.

But also a Silver-grade wild boss.

Five million health points plus four thousand attack power.

At this stage, he was definitely a being at a different level.

"So it's Village Chief Wang, but I'm very curious, what exactly are you plotting?"

"Destroying the beginner village doesn't seem to benefit you."

Under normal circumstances, Village Chief Wang should want to regain power.

But now that the beginner village has been destroyed, the meaning of his existence as the village chief of the beginner village is gone.

"Who told you I wanted to be the village chief of this beginner village?"

"What I want is to become the son-in-law of the Starry Sky Empire!"

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly.

He thought of Princess Leona.

She was the princess of the Starry Sky Kingdom, and she was also in the beginner village.

"Princess Leona is in the beginner village, you can directly pursue her, there's no need to destroy the beginner village, right."

"Of course there's a need."

Village Chief Wang's expression was ferocious, "How could Princess Leona look up to a lowly commoner like me? To make her submit, I must make her beg me."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao became interested, he knew that he was very likely starting a new plot quest.

"After I was banished from the beginner village, I took away two divine blessings from the beginner village."

"After leaving, I discovered the existence of Princess Leona, and began planning."

Village Chief Wang grinned and said, "I didn't expect you to know about the Starry Sky Kingdom."

"If Princess Leona is released, she will leave from the resurrection altar, so the resurrection altar must be destroyed and cannot be repaired, therefore, the old village chief and the others must also die."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, and he had a crazy guess in his heart, "You want to use this as a condition to coerce Princess Leona into submission."

"That's right."

Village Chief Wang nodded.

"The Nine-Headed Serpent and the Weasel are both my subordinates, and the two quest scrolls were also arranged by me in advance, just waiting for someone destined to help me kill the old village chief."

Lin Tianhao laughed, so he had done so much, but had become someone else's pawn.

"So, what is your purpose here? Shouldn't you be looking for Princess Leona?"

"Of course it's to retrieve the quest scroll."

Village Chief Wang grinned and said, "I also want the divine blessing, you should be content with getting one divine blessing."

"Hand over the quest scroll, and I'll let you leave."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, "Deliberately designing opposing quests to make your plan seamless."

"Not bad."

Village Chief Wang nodded, "Now that you know everything, hand over the item."

"Why should I hand it over?" Lin Tianhao grinned, "Anyway, I'm going to leave the beginner village, it's death either way, at worst I'll be killed."

Village Chief Wang's expression darkened upon hearing this, "Suit yourself, anyway, with your current red name value, as long as I kill you, everything that should drop from your body will drop."

As soon as he finished speaking, Village Chief Wang turned into an afterimage and charged towards Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao also made his move.

"咻!"

A feather arrow pierced through the air!

At the same time, Lin Tianhao took out three bottles of potions and drank them all.

Movement speed, attack speed, and life steal.

All three attributes received temporary boosts.

-13358.

A huge damage number appeared above Village Chief Wang's head.

Immediately afterwards.

A similarly huge damage number appeared above Lin Tianhao's head.

-10000.

Lin Tianhao's eyelids twitched.

"Integer reflection damage?"

Integer reflection damage is reflecting damage based on the integer of the maximum value of damage taken.

This thing, the reflection damage is at least 50% or more.

If you encounter that kind of damage that is just 100, then it is 100% reflection damage.

With his five million health points, Lin Tianhao had no chance of confronting him with this integer reflection damage mechanism.

With a leap.

Lin Tianhao had already landed on the steel wire.

"Wanting to run now, don't you think it's too late?"

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao secretly thought it was bad, and his intuition told him that something was going to happen.

Sure enough.

Above the cliff, the stone wall broke open, and a vine lashed towards Lin Tianhao.

"Nine-Headed Serpent?!"

Lin Tianhao backflipped in shock to avoid the attack, but the steel wire was broken by this vine of the Nine-Headed Serpent.

Before Lin Tianhao could land, he heard the sound of something breaking through the air coming from behind.

"唰!"

Sharp claws scraped against Lin Tianhao's armor, creating a series of sparks.

At the same time, a damage number appeared above his head.

-1580!!

This damage was not too outrageous.

Lin Tianhao could still accept it.

But the current situation made his scalp tingle.

The Nine-Headed Serpent and the Weasel were both very abnormal beings at this stage.

In a one-on-one fight, Lin Tianhao was not afraid.

Even if they joined forces, Lin Tianhao could still cope.

But with a Silver-grade Village Chief Wang, he was a little difficult to deal with.

Lin Tianhao's expression was solemn, the steel wire was broken, and it was no longer realistic for him to leave now.

"Snow Emperor."

"There's no need to waste time, hand over the item, and we can still be friends, if I become the king of the Starry Sky Kingdom in the future, I can grant you the title of Earl and the corresponding Lord's Heart."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, he really had no reason to refuse.

The divine blessing was good, but in the current situation, he had no chance of success.

Unless...

Lin Tianhao looked towards the cliff.

On the cliff, snowflakes were falling.

The surrounding temperature suddenly dropped.

"Ding, you are affected by the cold, movement speed reduced by 12%, attack speed reduced by 12%."

"You have suffered frost damage and will continuously lose health."

-240.
