

O game 50

Chapter 50: Oh my god, I was abused twice in one day!

Lin Tianhao stared at the Drought Demon, gritting his teeth, and said, "No, you still have a conscience. If you were truly demonized, you wouldn't be talking to me, but would have directly killed me."

Hearing these words.

A cold glint flashed in the Drought Demon's eyes.

"The only reason I didn't kill you immediately is because I haven't spoken to anyone in too long."

As soon as these words fell.

The Drought Demon struck Lin Tianhao's chest with a palm.

There is a respawn time after death.

Lin Tianhao was now waiting, waiting to respawn.

"City-wide announcement, a heinous criminal has entered Blackwind City. The City Lord of Blackwind City has issued an urgent task: Hunt down the criminal."

"City-wide announcement, a heinous criminal has entered Blackwind City. The City Lord of Blackwind City has issued an urgent task: Hunt down the criminal."

... ..

All the players in Blackwind City, at this moment, had an extra task?

Task: Hunt down the criminal.

Requirement: Kill the criminal who entered Blackwind City (adventurer with a red name value greater than 10,000) one hundred times, current progress: 0/100.

Penalty: None.

Reward: Each hunt will reward a Bronze equipment and ten free attribute points.

Holy crap?!

When the players in Blackwind City received this task, their faces showed unbelievable expressions.

"Holy crap, what did I see? A welfare task?"

"Find him quickly, who is the player whose red name value exceeds 10,000? Come out and let me kill you a hundred times."

"Ten free attribute points each time, a thousand free attribute points for a hundred times, and a hundred pieces of Bronze equipment. If I kill him a hundred times by myself, wouldn't I take off on the spot."

"Please calm down, I don't know what this guy did, but he actually reached a red name value of over 10,000."

... ..

Blackwind City was full of discussions.

Lin Tianhao, however, was covered in black lines.

What virtues and abilities did he possess.

To actually have a bounty placed on him like this.

Looking at the respawn countdown.

Lin Tianhao was already thinking about how he was going to run away.

Kill his way out?

It was estimated that there was no other better way.

After all, the red name value could not be hidden, it was right above his head, and it was a bright red, extra-large number.

Under such circumstances.

Wanting to sneak out quietly was not very realistic.

Therefore, he could only kill his way out.

Equipping the Ninefold Longbow and the Bloodthirsty Necklace, and preparing potions for speed and shields, Lin Tianhao was ready to charge.

Here.

He had to thank those good people in the novice village. After death, they dropped a lot of things.

But just in the short time that Lin Tianhao was respawning, a national announcement came again.

"National announcement, a heinous criminal has entered the Starry Kingdom. The King of the Starry Kingdom has issued an urgent task: Hunt down the criminal."

"National announcement, a heinous criminal has entered the Starry Kingdom. The King of the Starry Kingdom has issued an urgent task: Hunt down the criminal."

... ..

Lin Tianhao: ? ? ?

He was dumbfounded.

Who did he provoke?

To be targeted like this.

Now, not only were the players in Blackwind City boiling, but the players throughout the Starry Kingdom were also excited.

In other words, all the players in the Dragon Country region were excited.

Because all Dragon Country players could only be in the Starry Kingdom before their second job advancement.

"Holy crap, the rewards given by the King of the Starry Kingdom are so generous, directly double the rewards of Blackwind City, love it, love it."

"Hahaha, that red name adventurer, consciously come out and accept your death, you can't hide, it's your honor to become our equipment and free attribute points."

"In the past, it was a group of people looking for wild bosses, now it's looking for red name players, but I really want to know, how did this red name player's red name value get so high."

... ..

All the players in the Dragon Country region were boiling.

And at this moment.

Lin Tianhao finally respawned.

Level one!

That's right!

He was now level one.

His red name value was too high, each death cleared all levels and experience points.

The moment he came out of the respawn altar in Blackwind City, Lin Tianhao went full speed, running towards the outside of the city.

But the red name value of up to one million above his head was so conspicuous.

"He's over there!"

"Who, who, who, is that red name player?"

"Damn it!!"

"His red name value, one million!!"

"Kill him quickly!"

... ..

Red name players are not protected in the main city, therefore, these players can attack him in the main city.

Lin Tianhao couldn't care about anything else now.

Nor could he fight back.

If he fought back, it wouldn't be the players chasing him, but the city guards of Blackwind City would come over.

Killing players in the main city would result in arrest and imprisonment by the city guards, with sentencing based on the red name value. The higher the red name value, the longer the sentence.

With his red name value, if he was arrested, he wouldn't have to play the game anymore.

As for fighting the city guards head-on, that was out of the question. When the main city guards took action, he wouldn't be able to stand for even a second in his current state without resistance and would be instantly killed.

Therefore.

Before leaving Blackwind City, Lin Tianhao could only run.

He was now level one, and could equip too few weapons.

Purification Jade Pendant.

And the Ninefold Longbow that had no level requirement, and... the Bloodthirsty Necklace.

However, none of these two pieces of equipment added resistance.

These pieces of equipment had one characteristic.

That was that none of them added resistance.

Now, the attacks of these players landing on Lin Tianhao were almost like true damage.

-512.

-198.

-299.

A series of damage numbers floated out from above Lin Tianhao's head.

Behind Lin Tianhao, there were hundreds of thousands of players chasing him.

Although Lin Tianhao's movement speed was fast, there were people in all directions, and he was quickly blocked in Blackwind City.

"Damn it, they really aren't giving me any chance!!"

Lin Tianhao jumped up, running by stepping on their shoulders.

But wherever he went, countless skills came crashing down.

Even if the damage of a single skill was not very high, only able to deal a few hundred, or even a hundred or so damage.

But he couldn't withstand the number of people.

Hundreds of thousands of people!!

It was because of the crowding, if tens of thousands of people really hit him at the same time, he wouldn't have the slightest chance and would be instantly killed.

But even in the current situation, he was losing more than 100,000 health points per second.

"Damn, for the first time, I feel that the respawn altar in Blackwind City is so far away from the city gate."

Lin Tianhao's face was extremely ugly.

In the instant he was killed, he put all his equipment into the guild warehouse.

He was dead!

Under his best efforts to pull.

His four hundred and forty thousand health points lasted a full nine seconds.

He was able to last nine seconds because of his sudden appearance, many players did not react.

Looking at the respawn countdown.

And looking at the large group of players standing outside the respawn altar, Lin Tianhao was dumbfounded.

There was no chance at all.

There really wasn't even the slightest chance.

"I'll go to your uncle's!"

"I, a dignified reborn person, have actually been spawn camped twice in one day. Where is the justice?"

Lin Tianhao slandered in his heart.

But looking at the hundreds of thousands of players blocking the respawn altar, and the players who were coming one after another from outside Blackwind City, he gave up struggling.

His four hundred thousand health points.

Seriously, it was really just a matter of one round of attacks.

Sure enough.

Lin Tianhao had just respawned, and a round of attacks fell, and he died again.

Lin Tianhao: ? ? ?

No fun.

Really no fun!

Lin Tianhao chose to log off on the spot. You guys go ahead and spawn camp, as long as I'm not online, even if you kill me a thousand times, it won't affect my mood.
