

O game 501

Chapter 501 - Gulou Yuancong VS Prince Beimo!

"Okay, no problem."

Berserk Bladedancer agreed readily.

After hanging up with Berserk Bladedancer, Lin Tianhao continued browsing the forum.

Although very little information could directly help Lin Tianhao, it allowed Lin Tianhao to obtain as much useful information as possible.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao once again saw a post that interested him.

Following that, the poster briefly described their encounter with the Mayfly Merchant.

Lin Tianhao also knew about this Mayfly Merchant in his previous life, and they were similar in nature to wandering poets.

Both were merchants that you could only encounter by chance, appearing and disappearing unpredictably without a fixed location.

They could change their location at any time due to various reasons.

Compared to wandering poets, the Mayfly Merchants' goods were even more awesome and heaven-defying.

Lin Tianhao knew from his previous life that a lucky guy had bought a second talent from a Mayfly Merchant.

Talents are innate.

Unlike professions, as long as you are lucky, you might obtain a second profession, or even a third.

But talents.

In the perception of many people, cannot be obtained again.

But it was that person from his previous life who obtained a second talent from the Mayfly Merchant.

This directly pushed the Mayfly Merchant onto the altar, and many players searched for the Mayfly Merchant like crazy.

Especially those with Yellow-grade and Black-grade talents.

If the talent is too low, the growth limit will also be very low.

But in the end, they discovered.

The probability of encountering a Mayfly Merchant was too low, you really had to have incredible luck to encounter one.

This is also the reason why Lin Tianhao is interested in information about Mayfly Merchants now.

Although his talent is already very strong, who would complain about having too many talents?

After a brief look.

After this person encountered the Mayfly Merchant, the Mayfly Merchant's requirement was to pay 10,000 gold coins first to view his goods.

As a result, this person refused.

Of course.

This is what this person said himself, Lin Tianhao doesn't know if it's true.

After all, there is a saying: 'A common man is innocent, but possessing a treasure is a crime.'

If this person obtained good things, he probably wouldn't admit it easily.

Continuing to browse the forum.

Lin Tianhao didn't see any more useful information for himself.

However, the conflict between Dragon Country and other countries has not been alleviated.

The relationship between the major guilds of Dragon Country and those foreign guilds is very tense.

Even on the forum.

Lin Tianhao discovered that several foreign guilds had had small-scale skirmishes with several major guilds in Dragon Country.

According to this rhythm, it is not impossible for it to eventually evolve into a large-scale skirmish.

Overall, there was no more useful information.

Lin Tianhao closed the forum, and there was still some time before dawn.

He couldn't find Su Ruyan's second job change for the time being, so he could only focus on comprehension first.

Because of the Sword Dao Seed, Lin Tianhao's first choice for comprehension must be Sword Dao.

But Lin Tianhao wants more.

He wants to enter the Five Mountains Secret Realm and obtain his second super-god-level hidden profession.

After obtaining the super-god-level hidden profession of Heavenly Punishment Archer, Lin Tianhao deeply realized the power of the super-god-level hidden profession.

Therefore.

His desire for the Five Mountains Secret Realm is very high.

Currently, among these five holy attributes, the laws recorded by Lin Tianhao's Creation Jade Disc include Space from the Silver-Eyed Octopus, Darkness from the Dark Night Spirit God, and Death from the God of the Undead.

Having them recorded on the Creation Jade Disc makes them much easier to comprehend.

Not only that.

Lin Tianhao also has the assistance of the Fairy Maiden Picture, which allows his comprehension speed to reach another level.

Nothing happened overnight.

Lin Tianhao's Space True Intent is on the right track.

His state of mind has reached Immaculate Inquiry, as long as the Space True Intent crosses the threshold of Materialization, it can directly inherit Immaculate Inquiry.

And one step further, he can reach the Realm of Laws.

The requirement to enter the Five Mountains Secret Realm is that the five holy attributes must all reach the Realm of Laws. From the current point of view, it doesn't seem as difficult as imagined.

Especially since.

His Creation Jade Disc has already recorded three of the required holy attributes, and the remaining Light and Life don't seem that difficult to find.

That Crimson Flower Demigod seemed to have used a trace of the power of the Life attribute before, perhaps there might be some gains from her.

Withdrawing his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao returned to the Boundless Limitless Palace.

He had made a bet with Xiudeli Haohong, and this battle was especially important to him.

Lin Tianhao also wanted to see how strong the lineup of the Boundless Limitless Palace was.

Many people actually think that the Crimson Flower Sand Palace shouldn't have much resistance when facing the Boundless Limitless Palace.

But after Lin Tianhao heard the conversation between the Crimson Flower Demigod and Xiudeli Haohong.

He still had some expectations for the lineup of the Crimson Flower Sand Palace.

Under the auspices of Xiudeli Haotu.

The first match between Boundless Limitless Palace and Crimson Flower Sand Palace began.

The one who came up from the Boundless Limitless Palace was a man holding a broken blade.

Gulou Yuancong: Level 500.

Health Points: 19.85 million / 19.85 million.

Attack: 3.19 million.

Skills: ???

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, level 500 is not worth being surprised about.

After all, they are the top group of people.

But this nearly 20 million health points still surprised Lin Tianhao a bit.

The key is that he had never heard of Gulou Yuancong in his previous life at all.

A powerful expert that Lin Tianhao is unfamiliar with has appeared.

Is it a talent? Or a hidden profession?

Or did the Boundless Limitless Palace give him some equipment through the back door?

The one sent out by the Crimson Flower Sand Palace, however, surprised Lin Tianhao a bit.

Prince Beimuo: Level 500.

Health Points: 29.97 million / 29.97 million!

Attack: 1.01 million.

Skills: ???

Also level 500.

But the health points are a full 10 million higher than Gulou Yuancong.

Competing on the same stage.

With such a large difference in health points, the outcome seems to be already determined.

This Prince Beimuo.

Is likely to be able to permanently stack health points, and has also received the support of the Crimson Flower Sand Palace.

But it's still hard to say who is stronger.

After all, Prince Beimuo's attack power is much lower than Gulou Yuancong's.

If they go all out, it's really hard to say what the outcome will be.

The battle is about to break out.

Both are warriors, and they attacked almost simultaneously.

Gulou Yuancong used a broken blade, while Prince Beimuo used a long sword.

Neither of them used skills, and they immediately engaged in dozens of fierce collisions.

This is a very common tactic in warrior duels.

Using skills first is likely to miss, and may also expose flaws, giving the opponent a chance to counterattack.

Finding the opponent's flaws in ordinary attack collisions, and then using killing moves after the opponent exposes flaws, is the most stable approach.

Because of the difference in attack power, Prince Beimuo is naturally at a disadvantage in ordinary attack collisions.

Moreover.

In terms of movement speed and attack speed, Prince Beimuo is still behind Gulou Yuancong.

Chapter 502 - The official who controls thunder and lightning!

This made it somewhat difficult for Prince Beimo to parry.

Finally.

While parrying, Gu Lou Yuanzong found a flaw in Prince Beimo, and directly delivered a Floating Sky Slash onto Prince Beimo.

-2.99 million!

A huge damage number floated above Prince Beimo's head.

Although Prince Beimo had high health, losing one-tenth of it at once was still quite dangerous.

After one strike, Gu Lou Yuanzong immediately used Cross Slash.

Normally, Prince Beimo, who was knocked into the air at this time, should use Body of Steel to remove the floating effect, otherwise he might really be chained to death by the opponent's combo.

But Prince Beimo did not do so.

-1.51 million!

-1.35 million!

Two consecutive damage numbers appeared again.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly.

Because although the damage value of Cross Slash was lower than Floating Sky Slash.

Looking at the damage of the Floating Sky Slash just now, this Cross Slash should have dealt two hits of about 1.8 million damage each.

But the results were 1.51 million and 1.35 million.

The damage Prince Beimo was taking was decreasing.

In other words.

Prince Beimo's double resistance was increasing.

Not just double resistance.

Prince Beimo's attributes also underwent some changes.

Prince Beimo: Level 500.

Health: 24.12 million / 29.97 million!

Attack: 1.6 million.

Skills: ???

His health had decreased, but his attack power had increased from 1.01 million to 1.6 million.

With just a little thought.

-2.39 million!

The damage value was still very high, higher than the single attack damage of Cross Slash.

But normally speaking.

Chaotic Blood Slash and Floating Sky Slash were of the same level of attack, even if the damage was lower than the 2.99 million of Floating Sky Slash, it shouldn't be this much lower.

Gu Lou Yuanzong's third skill choice of Chaotic Blood Slash was not the optimal choice for a warrior's combo.

But he still used Chaotic Blood Slash.

It was because he himself had noticed something was wrong, which was why he tried to verify it with Chaotic Blood Slash.

But the result of the verification made his expression change slightly, and he also gave up continuing to attack.

"Why aren't you attacking?"

A sneer appeared on Prince Beimo's face.

"Are you going to attack me again?"

On the high platform.

Lin Tianhao tried to copy Prince Beimo's skills.

If he could also achieve the effect of increasing other attributes when health decreased, then he would be extremely abnormal.

However.

He failed.

This showed that Prince Beimo's method was not a skill, it should be an effect brought about by an item or weapon, or even a talent.

"Red Flower Demigod, your player is a bit interesting."

Red Flower Demigod grinned, "His talent is indeed not bad, the more health he loses, the stronger his other attributes become."

"However, this insignificant talent is still not worth mentioning compared to your Snow Emperor's talent."

Lin Tianhao was secretly shocked, didn't the other party have a talent for permanently increasing health?

"Moreover, he is also an extremely rare Saint-God, a dual-talent owner."

When Red Flower Demigod said this, there was a hint of complacency in his words.

"The lower his health, the stronger his other attributes is only his first talent, he also has a second God-level talent, which is that he can permanently stack health!"

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but be a little surprised when he heard this.

One Saint, one God, dual talents!

The key was that these two talents complemented each other, directly making Prince Beimo abnormally perverted.

However.

This Prince Beimo seemed to be an unknown person in his previous life.

Could it be that... Prince Beimo in his previous life only awakened a Saint-level talent? Or perhaps he didn't even awaken a talent at all?

But no matter what the reason.

The future growth limit of this Prince Beimo will be very high.

After all, the combination of the two talents even made Lin Tianhao feel that this guy could be comparable to an incomplete Transcendent-level talent.

On the arena.

Gu Lou Yuanzong was currently in an awkward situation.

The reason was very simple.

That was because Prince Beimo's dual talents were too strong.

He could at most knock off 20 million health from Prince Beimo.

After that, Prince Beimo would greatly increase his other attributes due to the decrease in health.

The first match between Vast Infinity Palace and Red Flower Sand Palace ended without suspense, with Prince Beimo winning.

"Prince Beimo... the name of the Dragon Country, is a bit interesting."

As soon as the first match ended, Lin Tianhao sent a message in the group.

"Prince Beimo, do any of you know him? Judging by the name, he seems like a player from our Dragon Country."

As soon as Lin Tianhao's message was sent, several people began to @ Berserker Blades.

The meaning was already self-evident.

Berserker Blades also directly came out to send a message to Lin Tianhao.

"Snow Emperor, both sides of this match are our people."

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment, and couldn't help but sigh.

"You guys really control lightning."

In his previous life, Lin Tianhao knew that the official background was deep and the strength was strong.

But he didn't expect it to be so strong.

"Have they both taken peaches?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"Yes." Berserker Blades answered very directly.

"I originally wanted to poach them, but now it seems there's no chance."

Berserker Blades said helplessly: "Snow Emperor, you're already strong enough, leave us a way to survive."

"I'm very curious, why did you let them join the Holy Lands separately? Wouldn't it be very powerful if they joined the Holy Lands together?"

"It's impossible."

Berserker Blades answered somewhat helplessly: "These NPCs of Twilight of the Gods are too real."

"Put yourself in their shoes, if it was your Mortal Palace, would you let all the geniuses under your command come from one force?"

Lin Tianhao was silent, he only considered that Berserker Blades and the others had the right to choose, but he ignored that the Holy Land side also had the right to choose.

"Could it be that all the major Holy Lands have your people?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Berserker Blades sent an embarrassing emoticon to Lin Tianhao.

"Except for the Mortal Palace where Snow Emperor is, our people have already joined nine Holy Lands."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, nine Holy Lands?

"You guys are developing quite well, to be honest, is the outcome of this competition all in your hands?"

If all the participating Holy Lands had their people, then they could really do something to change the outcome.

"We can't say that, we wouldn't do anything to fix the match."

Berserker Blades immediately explained, "Moreover, there are also many experts from foreign countries, as far as I know, there are even dual God-level talents in foreign countries."

"What about you guys?" Lin Tianhao asked.

In his previous life, he had heard that all the larger countries in the world had mysterious dual God-level talent owners.

But they were basically hidden and would not be easily exposed.

"Snow Emperor, this is confidential, if it was to anyone else, I would definitely say no."

Chapter 503 - Flame Pterosaur!

Mad Warrior Blade's answer, while not directly stated, still conveyed the answer to Lin Tianhao.

These officials were incredibly secretive.

"Alright, since they're your people, then it's all good."

At this moment.

On the arena.

After all, Prince Bei Mo's mechanics were a bit too abnormal.

The lower his health, the fiercer he became, and eventually, without true damage, it was estimated that no one could even touch this guy.

And this time, the Boundless Palace of Infinity sent out a blonde, blue-eyed woman.

She held a short staff in her hand, and it seemed she was a mage.

Or perhaps... a summoner!

Siberian Fox: Level 50.

Health Points: 110 million / 110 million.

Attack Power: 0.

Skills: ???

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly. This Siberian Fox was a bit outrageous.

110 million health points, besides Lin Tianhao and his younger sister Lin Qingqing, in the entire Boundless Continent, there shouldn't be a second adventurer with that much, right?

At least not in the current stage.

It's just that she's in a hidden attribute state, so others can't see her attributes.

However.

If Fatty knew her health points, he would definitely jump up in excitement.

"Palace Master, your contestant is a bit heaven-defying. At this stage, there shouldn't be more than a handful of people with over 100 million health points, and... she's still a summoner."

Crimson Flower Demigod said with some surprise.

Tu Tulu Hongqiong smiled and said, "Crimson Flower Demigod, what you should be worried about is her summoned beast."

"A mage class, only level fifty, how could she have such high health points? There's only one possibility..."

"Life Sharing!!"

Crimson Flower Demigod spoke the information Tu Tulu Hongqiong wanted to say.

It's not surprising that some powerful summoners can obtain the means to share life with their summoned beasts.

However.

Usually, they only share the health points of one summoned beast.

If that's the case.

Then that means this summoner named Siberian Fox possesses a summoned beast with over 100 million health points.

The few people on the high platform analyzed this situation.

Crimson Flower Demigod's expression also became solemn.

A summoned beast with over 100 million health points, that's somewhat too terrifying.

However.

Prince Bei Mo in the arena hadn't yet realized the seriousness of the problem.

He was still looking at Siberian Fox provocatively, seemingly preparing to let Siberian Fox make the first move.

After all, he couldn't see Siberian Fox's health points and couldn't judge too much information.

Siberian Fox waved the short staff in her hand.

In an instant.

A beam of light descended from the sky.

Prince Bei Mo's expression changed slightly, because Siberian Fox's skill was too special.

Lin Tianhao silently used his Origin Replication ability and began to copy Siberian Fox's skill.

He wasn't a summoner.

But he could copy Siberian Fox's summoning skill.

Summoners generally can obtain war beasts under two circumstances.

One is a contract, similar to Qing Shuang Da Mu and the Nine-Tailed Celestial Fox from before.

If they were summoners, they could directly sign a contract with them and take them as war beasts.

Of course.

The prerequisite is that the summoner must be able to intimidate them like Lin Tianhao.

Besides this method of signing a contract, there's another, which is to summon war beasts from another world to assist in battle.

Judging from Siberian Fox's beam of light, she should have used some kind of summoning skill.

Lin Tianhao's Origin Replication was successfully recorded, and now he only needed to replicate it into a skill book.

When the light flashed.

Behind Siberian Fox, a wyvern appeared!

This wyvern was entirely crimson red, and as soon as it appeared, the surrounding temperature slightly increased.

On the high platform.

Crimson Flower Demigod's expression was somewhat grave.

This wyvern's health points were as high as 110 million, indicating that Siberian Fox's health points were indeed shared with this wyvern.

Sharing health points with a skill summon is already very rare.

At least.

It's very rare at this stage.

After seeing the Flame Wyvern, Lin Tianhao already knew.

It might be difficult for Prince Bei Mo to win.

Unless...

Prince Bei Mo still had a trump card.

But the probability of that was very low.

After all, Prince Bei Mo had already revealed the power of his one Saint and one God dual talents.

Now, the probability of him still having a trump card was really too low.

Facts proved.

Prince Bei Mo indeed had no more trump cards.

He only became fierce after his health points decreased, but even after his health points decreased, he still couldn't withstand the Flame Wyvern's attacks.

Because summoners generally don't have much combat power themselves.

But what's different is that summoners can learn all kinds of skills to enhance their war beasts.

The Flame Wyvern's combat power was already enough to defeat Prince Bei Mo.

Coupled with Siberian Fox's various amplification skills.

Prince Bei Mo didn't even have much resistance before he was defeated.

Western Peak Demigod, seeing this scene, flattered, "Palace Master, with this summoner's existence, you will definitely win this time."

Xiudeli Honghong shook his head, "That's hard to say. Didn't you hear Crimson Flower Demigod say before? Her team is also very strong. It's only one to one now. Whether I can get past this Crimson Flower Sand Palace hurdle is still unknown, so how dare I hope for more?"

Hearing this.

Crimson Flower Demigod hurriedly said:

"Palace Master, your summoner is very strong. I'm afraid our Crimson Flower Sand Palace won't be able to stop you this time."

Xiudeli Honghong waved his hand and said, "Crimson Flower Demigod, there's no need for you to be humble. I think you should still have a trump card, right?"

"Watch the match, watch the match."

Crimson Flower Demigod didn't explain, but instead watched the third match that was about to begin.

Both sides had already entered the arena.

The one the Boundless Palace of Infinity sent out before seemed to be their strongest.

This third match, two versus two.

The Boundless Palace of Infinity sent out Gu Lou Yuan Cong and Siberian Fox.

Both of them had appeared before.

And the Crimson Flower Sand Palace, in addition to Prince Bei Mo, also brought a priest.

The moment he saw the priest enter the arena, Lin Tianhao instantly realized something.

Could it be...

Could Prince Bei Mo repeatedly stack attributes?

Prince Bei Mo's Saint-level talent was that after losing health points, all his other attributes would increase.

If Prince Bei Mo could quickly recover health points after losing them, what would that mean?

Would it mean that as long as the battle didn't end, Prince Bei Mo's attributes would stack without limit?

If that were the case.

Then if this Prince Bei Mo were to grind monsters in a dungeon, as long as he brought a priest, he would basically be invincible.

However.

It doesn't seem to be absolute.

Perhaps Prince Bei Mo's effect would disappear when he passed a small checkpoint in the dungeon and entered the next small checkpoint.

Chapter 504 - Violent priest!

But it doesn't matter anymore.

Next, in this third match, Lin Tianhao also wants to see what kind of sparks they can create.

The battle begins.

Koro Genso charged towards the priest.

He also saw through what methods Prince Beimo wanted to use.

To win, the only way is to kill the priest first.

At the same time.

He can also buy time for Siberian Fox to release skills.

Prince Beimo would not allow anything to happen to the priest, so he took the initiative to step up.

This time, Koro Genso was not in a hurry to deplete Prince Beimo's health points, but simply entangled with Prince Beimo.

If Prince Beimo's health points don't drop, his attributes won't be improved.

In terms of attack speed and movement speed, Prince Beimo is inferior to Koro Genso.

Therefore.

If Koro Genso doesn't want to hurt Prince Beimo, Prince Beimo can't do anything to Koro Genso.

When Siberian Fox finished summoning, the Flame Wyvern flew towards the priest.

This battle seems to have no suspense anymore.

Prince Beimo can't get rid of Koro Genso, and a priest faces a Flame Wyvern with hundreds of millions of health points.

This ending... seems to be destined.

The priest, seeing this scene, seemed to be frightened, and actually put away her staff.

"This... is she trying to admit defeat?"

"It seems that the Red Flower Sand Palace doesn't have any other better methods, it can only be said that the decision to let the priest come up wasn't a big problem, it's just a pity... she's still going to be gone."

"It doesn't matter, anyway, I bought Vast Infinity Palace to win, this time I can earn two thousand yuan."

"Didn't everyone say to bet against the score? Villa by the sea, am I the only one who bet against it? I really want to cry to death!"

...

In the audience seats.

Many viewers seemed to have already seen the result.

This battle is undoubtedly without suspense.

But in the next moment.

A scene that stunned everyone present appeared.

The priest, who had put away her staff, instantly appeared at the feet of the Flame Wyvern.

Then...

She raised her somewhat slender arm and grabbed one of the Flame Wyvern's giant legs.

Immediately afterwards, it was a simple and unadorned shoulder throw, and the Flame Wyvern's body made intimate contact with the ground.

The ground was even smashed into a super big pit because of this.

Silence!!

Pin-drop silence!

Only the slightly heavy breathing of many viewers could be heard.

After a short while.

Some viewers came back to their senses.

Xiudeli Haohong's face instantly became more ugly than if he had eaten shit after seeing this scene.

He didn't say a word.

But everyone could see that he was very unhappy at this time.

Red Flower Demigod couldn't help but shrink her neck, she really wanted to win the first place in this Holy Land Tianjiao Rookie Competition.

But she didn't want to offend Xiudeli Haohong either.

But as things stand now, she has no way out.

It seems that she inevitably has to offend Xiudeli Haohong.

On the arena.

The battle didn't end.

The priest grabbed the Flame Wyvern's leg and directly smashed it towards the summoner Siberian Fox.

Using her summoned beast to attack her?

Siberian Fox was a little annoyed, this was a provocation to her.

She commanded the Flame Wyvern to activate its super armor.

She broke free from the priest's palm, and then turned around and spewed flames at the priest.

The priest was not afraid at all, she released a magic shield for herself.

At the same time as this magic shield appeared, a bolt of lightning flew out from the magic shield and hit the Flame Wyvern.

-97528!

A damage number close to one hundred thousand appeared.

This damage is only equivalent to less than one-thousandth of the Flame Wyvern's health points, and poses almost no threat to the Flame Wyvern.

This attack effect is actually not that special.

In the middle and late stages of Twilight of the Gods, some priests will obtain some relatively special skills or supernatural powers.

That is, when applying shields or healing effects to themselves or their teammates, an attack will be ejected, causing damage to nearby enemy units.

This damage is generally a part of the healing and shield value.

But despite this.

This priest still made Lin Tianhao feel a bit interested.

Such a fierce priest seems to be the talent that his team lacks.

I just don't know if this priest is also someone from the official side.

He glanced at the priest's name: Shi Yiran ya.

A very ordinary and popular name.

However.

Judging purely from the name.

This is a typical name of an Eastern person.

A Dragon Kingdom compatriot, then there is a possibility of winning her over.

Lin Tianhao directly sent a message to Berserker Blade.

"Blade, is this priest on the arena not one of your people?"

Berserker Blade couldn't help but laugh a little, "We tried to win her over, but we all failed."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

After all, with the official side's foundation, after knowing the other party, they can basically meet all the other party's conditions, so how could they fail to win her over.

"What conditions did she open that caused the attempt to win her over to fail?"

"She wants a thousand Talent Evolution Flowers, or a transcendent-grade hidden class transfer scroll."

Lin Tianhao was a little dumbfounded.

This Shi Yiran ya is really asking for a lot.

No wonder the official side couldn't win her over.

God-grade hidden class transfer scrolls are still possible, but transcendent-grade.

Lin Tianhao even felt that the current official side should not have transcendent-grade hidden class transfer scrolls.

As for a thousand Talent Evolution Flowers.

This is even more of a pipe dream.

You must know.

He has only collected nine Talent Evolution Flowers now, a thousand, even if there are many official experts, it is difficult to do.

After all, there are too few missions that reward Talent Evolution Flowers.

"These conditions are indeed difficult for people to accept."

Lin Tianhao replied, and then continued to watch the game.

On the arena.

The Flame Wyvern, after activating its super armor, chased after Shi Yiran ya and began to bombard her wildly.

But Shi Yiran ya seemed to have expected this result, she directly rushed to Siberian Fox's side.

And launched an attack on Siberian Fox.

Siberian Fox was shocked.

She knew that Shi Yiran ya was very fierce, and immediately distanced herself.

And let the Flame Wyvern protect herself.

Above the high platform.

Xiudeli Haohong's face sank when he saw this scene.

Because with his realm, he had already seen that Siberian Fox had been tricked.

The one attacking Siberian Fox is not the real Shi Yiran ya.

That is a skill like Fatty's.

Mirage Flower in the Mirror!

The one attacking Siberian Fox is an illusion, the real Shi Yiran ya has already arrived next to Koro Genso.

She attacked from behind, directly grabbed Koro Genso's neck, and then her knee lifted up and slammed into Koro Genso's lumbar spine.

Chapter 505 - Akaha Shagong takes the match point!

Gu Lou Yuan Cong's expression changed drastically.

The broken saber in his hand slashed fiercely backward.

But it seemed to be because it was a broken saber that he was still barely able to avoid it.

It seemed to onlookers that it was due to the broken section of the saber, otherwise, this saber would have definitely hit.

Lin Tianhao, however, knew that it wasn't because the broken saber was shorter, but because Shi Yiran's control over distance had reached a meticulous level.

She was an ancient martial artist.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have such meticulous control.

The subsequent battle also confirmed Lin Tianhao's guess.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong's attacks were extremely fierce, but each attack was just a little short of hitting Shi Yiran.

Obviously.

He wanted to withstand the Flame Wyvern's attacks, thereby reducing his own health.

Under the control of the Siberian Fox, the Flame Wyvern was trying to avoid attacking the Northern Mo Prince as much as possible.

But that was clearly impossible.

Because the Northern Mo Prince's attacks would not be soft.

"They seem to be trapped in a dead end."

A sharp-eyed audience member saw the problem.

It seemed that no one could break this situation today.

Finally.

The Siberian Fox let go and allowed the Wyvern to attack the Northern Mo Prince frantically.

There was no other way now.

Shi Yiran's control over distance was too good. If the Flame Wyvern attacked Shi Yiran, it would definitely attack Gu Lou Yuan Cong as well.

And that wasn't the most crucial thing.

The most crucial thing was.

The Northern Mo Prince would use his body to take the Flame Wyvern's attacks, in order to achieve his goal of getting injured.

As the Northern Mo Prince wished, he was severely injured by the Flame Wyvern. In less than three seconds, the Northern Mo Prince lost fifteen million health points, and other attributes were temporarily amplified.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong knew the Siberian Fox's plan, and he directly activated Berserk.

Attack speed and movement speed both went up a level.

Obviously.

He wanted to hold Shi Yiran back.

As long as Shi Yiran couldn't heal the Northern Mo Prince, he would die in at most thirty seconds.

This was because the lower the Northern Mo Prince's health, the harder it was to kill him.

If not for that.

The battle would probably be resolved in ten seconds.

As long as he could hold Shi Yiran back for thirty seconds, then the victory in this battle would definitely be his.

However.

He underestimated Shi Yiran too much.

With Shi Yiran's control over distance, she easily manipulated Gu Lou Yuan Cong in the palm of her hand.

Immediately afterward.

She cast a healing spell on the Northern Mo Prince, restoring a little over one million health points to him.

This recovery value was already considered very strong among the current stage of priests.

But it gave the Siberian Fox hope.

Her Flame Wyvern's DPS was more than a million.

It was entirely possible to kill the Northern Mo Prince when his health was raised.

But imagination was beautiful, and reality was cruel.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong once again attacked Shi Yiran.

This time, Shi Yiran didn't choose to distance herself, but instead flashed to Gu Lou Yuan Cong's side.

Her slender, fair legs were like rubber bands, kicking out in an extremely strange shape.

"Overlord Body!"

Gu Lou Yuan Cong was prepared. He knew that Shi Yiran had a second class, a fighter.

The fighter's control methods were extremely terrifying.

He had to avoid the fighter's close-range control methods. The simplest and most effective method was the Overlord Body.

After activating the Overlord Body.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong switched the broken saber in his hand to a long saber.

Obviously.

He felt that Shi Yiran was able to avoid his attacks every time because his broken saber was too short, so that Shi Yiran was able to avoid the attacks thrillingly every time.

But anyone with a little martial arts foundation could see it.

The problem was not with the broken saber.

Sure enough.

After Gu Lou Yuan Cong switched weapons, he still couldn't attack Shi Yiran.

His attacks were always just a hair's breadth away from Shi Yiran.

"Just a little bit, why is it always just a little bit."

Gu Lou Yuan Cong was a little depressed.

His attacks were always just a little bit short, and Shi Yiran actually used this gap to heal and shield the Northern Mo Prince.

Above the high platform.

When everyone saw this, they already had the answer in their hearts.

The Western Extremity Demigod couldn't help but complain: "This is a bit unsolvable."

"Originally, with this lineup, the battle could be ended as long as that priest was killed, but I didn't expect that this priest would be so difficult to deal with."

The Red Flower Demigod smiled slightly, "This priest is a dual-classer, but the most crucial thing is her control over distance."

Tu Tulu Hongqiong couldn't help but laugh.

"Hahaha, Red Flower Demigod, you're a bit unkind. Xiudeli Haohong made a bet with the Snow Emperor. If he loses, he has to give a divine artifact."

"You're eliminating them in the top 8 promotion match. Isn't that a bit too much?"

Tu Tulu Hongqiong's words were naturally meant to anger Xiudeli Haohong.

After all, this was the match point for the Vast Expanse Limitless Palace and the Red Flower Sand Palace.

If they lost this game, it would be as difficult as ascending to heaven for the Vast Expanse Limitless Palace to advance to the top 4.

Xiudeli Haohong's expression was a little gloomy.

Suddenly.

A smile appeared on his face, and his gaze fell on Lin Tianhao.

"Snow Emperor, this lineup is indeed a bit rogue-like. I wonder if your team can break this rogue-like lineup."

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and said: "It's really hard to say. You also know that the strongest person on my team is a shield warrior."

"Wouldn't that be giving them stats to stack when encountering these two?"

Everyone present could see it.

To defeat these two from the Red Flower Sand Palace, the simplest way was to quickly eliminate one person.

And Fatty obviously didn't have that ability.

Fatty could really tank, but he would indeed be a little weak against the opponent's lineup.

Xiudeli Haohong looked at the Red Flower Demigod again and smiled:

"Red Flower Demigod, I didn't expect your people to be so fierce. It seems that the trump card I was hiding to deal with the Mortal Palace will have to be revealed in advance."

Xiudeli Haohong's words were spoken.

The Red Flower Demigod couldn't help but feel a thud in her heart.

Lin Tianhao was also a little surprised.

This Xiudeli Haohong, still has a trump card?!

A summoner who could summon the Flame Wyvern wasn't even his full trump card.

Who else was there?

Lin Tianhao even felt a little uneasy.

Originally, he thought he could easily sweep this competition, but he still underestimated the ability of these holy lands to cultivate geniuses.

This third game was slightly a bladder game, dragging on a bit too long.

As the Northern Mo Prince's attributes stacked higher and higher, the Flame Wyvern couldn't stop the Northern Mo Prince's offensive, and eventually ended the battle.

"Damn, no way, no way, this is really buying the opposite score, villa by the sea ah."

"The Red Flower Sand Palace's lineup is really a bit too rogue-like. In this kind of arena battle, as long as that warrior isn't killed in seconds, the priest can heal him, and he can stack attributes like crazy."

Chapter 506 - The Netherworld Craftsman!

"The key is, that priest is a dual class, and his movement and distance control are really outrageous. No one can touch him at all."

"I feel like Vast Infinity Palace is done for. Who the hell can break this kind of rogue combination? Unless it's brute force damage to kill them, but even Flame Wyvern can't kill them that way, so who can?"

.....

Most of the audience in the arena bet on Vast Infinity Palace to win, and many even placed heavy bets.

Just because they all felt that Vast Infinity Palace should win easily, but the result was that Scarlet Flower Sand Palace took the match point first.

However, the fourth match is still a duo battle.

As it stands now, Vast Infinity Palace has no way to drag the match into a life-or-death situation.

The gap between them is too obvious.

The fourth round begins.

Scarlet Flower Sand Palace is still the same as before.

It's still Shi Yiran and Prince Beimo.

On the Vast Infinity Palace side, however, there have been some changes.

Summoner Siberian Fox was retained, while Gu Lou Yuan Cong was replaced.

Lin Tianhao knew that Vast Infinity Palace was about to use their trump card.

I just don't know what this trump card of Vast Infinity Palace is.

With this in mind, Lin Tianhao's gaze fell on the person who came on stage.

Netherworld Artificer: Level 729.

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

This guy is different from other contestants. From his health points onwards, Lin Tianhao couldn't see through him.

This shows that his concealment methods are very powerful, otherwise Lin Tianhao wouldn't only be able to see this little bit of attributes.

However, in a normal arena match, having higher health points and attack power is still difficult to influence the battle situation.

What's truly powerful are some of his own mechanics.

For example, Lin Tianhao's talent mechanics, true damage, ignoring damage reflection, shields, etc.

As Xiudeli Haotu announced the start of the battle, the people on the high platform watched very carefully.

Especially the Scarlet Flower Demigod.

She has already used all her trump cards. Shi Yiran and Prince Beimo are the strongest combination in her team.

If the strongest combination of her team loses in this fourth two-on-two match, the final life-or-death match will not be so important.

They actually all know very well that the key to victory or defeat in the Holy Land Pride Newcomer Competition lies in the first four rounds.

Therefore, most holy lands focus on cultivating one or two people.

After all, within the scope allowed by the rules, it is not feasible to cultivate too many people at once.

Even if it's like Lin Tianhao, blatantly giving out quests, only a few people truly get high rewards.

On the arena, the battle has already begun.

The battle strategy of Scarlet Flower Sand Palace has not changed much.

Prince Beimo took the lead and waited for the two of Vast Infinity Palace to attack him.

With nearly 30 million health points, he is not worried about being instantly killed.

Under the watchful eyes of everyone, the man named Netherworld Artificer made his move.

The weapon in his hand is very special, it is actually a series of nails.

He holds three dark red nails in each hand, and it is impossible to see what he wants to do.

Lin Tianhao vaguely thought of something.

That seems to be Soul-Suppressing Nails!

Just as Lin Tianhao recognized the Soul-Suppressing Nails of the Netherworld Artificer, he had already attacked.

He saw the Soul-Suppressing Nails in his hand fly out, heading straight for Prince Beimo.

Prince Beimo was not afraid at all. Shi Yiran behind him seemed to be worried that Prince Beimo would be instantly killed, and also released a shield on Prince Beimo.

However, what no one in the audience expected was that the Soul-Suppressing Nails did not hit Prince Beimo's body.

All six Soul-Suppressing Nails landed on Prince Beimo's shadow.

"I knew it, as long as the people of Vast Infinity Palace aren't stupid, they won't attack the warrior of Scarlet Flower Sand Palace first."

"If Vast Infinity Palace wants to win, the only way is to kill that priest first. Only in this way is there a chance."

"Difficult, that priest is not a rookie. You have seen it before, even the Flame Wyvern was forced out of its super armor by that priest."

.....

The audience still held a glimmer of hope.

After all, many of them bet on Vast Infinity Palace to win.

If Vast Infinity Palace loses this game, their money will be wasted.

The small portion of the audience who bet on Scarlet Flower Sand Palace to win were very excited.

If they win this game, many of them will get several times the return.

However, the next scene that happened in the arena stunned these people.

Because they found that Prince Beimo, whose shadow was targeted by the Soul-Suppressing Nails, could not move.

"What's going on? Is this a control skill? Activate super armor, Flame Wyvern is going towards the priest."

The audience who bet on Scarlet Flower Sand Palace started urging at this time.

This is the last game. If they win, they can count the money.

On the arena, Prince Beimo seemed to have heard the voices of the audience and released his super armor without hesitation.

However, a scene that horrified Prince Beimo and the audience appeared.

He saw that after Prince Beimo activated super armor, he still couldn't move.

"This... how is this possible!!! I've already activated super armor, why can't I move."

"What kind of control is this? Could it be a fixed match? It doesn't make sense, super armor has already been activated."

"Fixed match? Brother, you're probably not awake. If Scarlet Flower Sand Palace wins this game, the bookmaker will also be a big winner."

.....

The audience was talking crazy, especially the audience who bought Scarlet Flower Sand Palace, all of them were a little excited.

This is the excitement of predicting that the game is about to be lost.

Similarly, the audience who bet on Vast Infinity Palace to win were also very excited. Originally, when they saw the third game, they thought they were dead.

But this fourth game gave them hope.

They never dreamed that such a change could happen in the fourth game.

"Hahaha, that's how it is, good job, if you win this fourth game, will the fifth game be far away?"

"If you control this guy from Scarlet Flower Sand Palace to death, it is absolutely impossible for that priest to fight two against one, right?"

"Hehe, where are those people who said to buy the opposite score and the villa is by the sea? Why are you not talking now? Hahaha."

"What you said is wrong, the people who bought Scarlet Flower Sand Palace are going to lose, what do you mean by being so sarcastic?"

.....

The audience who bet on Scarlet Flower Sand Palace were gnashing their teeth.

How much they hoped that some changes could happen in the arena.

If they lose this most critical game like this, he is really unwilling.

On the high platform, Lin Tianhao has already seen the reason why the opponent's super armor cannot break the control.

Because the Soul-Suppressing Nails control the soul, not the body!

Chapter 507 - A life and death game!

The physique of the Overlord can indeed break free from control, but it only releases physical control, not control over the soul.

On the arena.

Shi Yiran also discovered this problem. With a flick of her figure, she arrived at the shadow of Prince Beimo in the blink of an eye.

She wanted to pull out the Soul Suppressing Nail that was pinning Prince Beimo.

But how could the Siberian Fox let her get her wish?

She commanded the Flame Wyvern to spit out a ball of flames, covering Shi Yiran.

Shi Yiran had no choice but to retreat.

As soon as she retreated.

The Netherworld Artificer also charged up.

The Netherworld Artificer's figure was like a ghost, his movement speed was not particularly fast, but he could bring up afterimages.

His attack was simple and unadorned, slapping towards Shi Yiran with a palm.

Shi Yiran instinctively wanted to dodge, but found that the Netherworld Artificer's figure kept following her.

It seemed that the Netherworld Artificer would not stop until his palm attack landed.

Generally, the skills of professionals are straightforward.

But it is rare to see something like the Netherworld Artificer that can keep chasing.

The Flame Wyvern assisted from the side.

The Siberian Fox came to Prince Beimo's side and re-summoned two war beasts.

The health of these two war beasts was only barely a million, less than one percent of the Flame Wyvern's.

Obviously, the Siberian Fox was able to stand on this arena.

It was all because the Flame Wyvern lifted her to a height that originally did not belong to her.

The Flame Wyvern cooperated with the Netherworld Artificer to launch a frenzied attack on Shi Yiran.

Although Shi Yiran had a good grasp of distance, she was still a little overwhelmed when facing two powerful opponents at the same time.

Her health was being lowered bit by bit. At this rate, Shi Yiran would not escape death.

Above the high platform.

The Western Extremity Demigod glanced at the Red Flower Demigod and smiled:

"Red Flower Demigod, it seems that your Red Flower Sand Palace will have a hard time advancing to the top four this time."

The Red Flower Demigod spread his hands, "This method is indeed a bit difficult to deal with."

Tutu Lu Hongqiong smiled helplessly, "Alas, I originally wanted to watch the joke of the Boundless Infinite Palace, but now it seems that there is no such opportunity."

Xiudeli Honghong looked indifferent.

He suddenly looked at Lin Tianhao with interest and asked:

"Snow Emperor, do you have a way to解除soul control?"

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "If I say no, do you want to attack me?"

"Not to that extent."

Xiudeli Honghong shook his head, "I actually think it's good to maintain the status quo of the Boundless Continent. I don't want to cause trouble, and I don't want others to cause trouble."

"So, I need to have the ability to stop others from causing trouble."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said, "I don't want to cause trouble either, but sometimes tasks are like this."

"Some tasks can be done, some tasks, if done, may be self-destructive."

Especially Yuelun Kezu, he couldn't wait for Lin Tianhao and Xiudeli Honghong to fight.

Then the Boundless Infinite Palace would personally end the game, so he wouldn't need his Yuelun Empire to bear the oppression brought by Lin Tianhao alone.

However.

Xiudeli Honghong did not continue to talk to Lin Tianhao.

The two stopped there.

And on the arena.

The fourth battle has ended.

Although Shi Yiran is a dual-class, her opponents are the Netherworld Artificer and the Flame Wyvern. The gap between them is too obvious.

This also doomed her to be unable to withstand it.

She is dead, and the remaining Prince Beimo is the fish on the chopping board, at the mercy of others.

The Red Flower Sand Palace lost the fourth game.

Some people are happy and some are sad.

In general, there are more happy people.

Next.

It's the fifth game, the life and death game!

Whoever wins will be able to advance to the top four.

This is also the first game in the top four competition to enter the fifth game, the life and death game.

In the first game, Fatty won three in a row.

In the second game, the people of the Western Extremity Holy Land also ended the battle quickly with a score of three to one.

This is the third game of the top four competition, and it is also the first time to enter the fifth game, the team competition.

Team competition.

It is six people against six people.

Generally speaking.

There are more changes in team competitions.

Lineup matching, cooperation, and the matching of talents with each other, etc.

Sometimes.

If the lineup and talent matching are good enough, it is possible to fight across levels.

Audience seats.

The audience who bought the Red Flower Sand Palace were all clenching their teeth.

This is the closest they have ever been to getting rich.

"Ahhh, Red Flower Sand Palace, you must win."

"Team competition, I believe the Red Flower Sand Palace still has a chance. The person who appears later is just particularly good at control. If they defend, let the warriors of the Red Flower Sand Palace stack attributes, it is entirely possible to reverse the situation."

"Hahaha, are you still fantasizing? To put it bluntly, the Red Flower Sand Palace can only come up with that guy who increases attributes when he loses health. The others are just so-so."

.....

In the audience seats.

Most people still hope that the Boundless Infinite Palace will win.

After all, more people bought the Boundless Infinite Palace to win.

Lin Tianhao's eyes swept over the teams of the Red Flower Sand Palace and the Boundless Infinite Palace.

Just one glance.

Lin Tianhao knew there was no hope.

Because the other four of the Red Flower Sand Palace are too ordinary.

It's not to say that they are really ordinary players.

But among the high-level players, they are just ordinary level, not the kind of amazing talent.

And the ones who appeared later on the side of the Boundless Infinite Palace, although they are not particularly strong, are much stronger than the few of the Red Flower Sand Palace.

Moreover.

Among the top experts.

The Boundless Infinite Palace also has Gu Lou Yuan Cong.

With such a lineup gap, unless they can kill the Netherworld Artificer first, and then protect Prince Beimo, there is still a chance.

But the Netherworld Artificer's profession is soul-based, and all kinds of methods are inherently strange and unpredictable. It is not easy to kill the Netherworld Artificer first.

As Xiudeli Haotu announced the start, the fighting parties immediately distanced themselves and prepared to fight.

No one took the lead.

After all, Lin Tianhao can see that the attributes of the few of the Red Flower Sand Palace are average, but others can't see it.

What they see is the hidden attribute state, and they cannot judge the opponent's strength based on the attributes.

At this moment.

Someone moved.

The one who took the lead was the assassin of the Red Flower Sand Palace. He was targeting the Netherworld Artificer.

"You want to kill me in seconds so that I can't control your people, too naive."

The Netherworld Artificer showed a smug smile, because this was all within his expectations.

Thinking from the position of the people of the Red Flower Sand Palace, the easiest way for them to win is to kill his Netherworld Artificer.

Therefore.

The Netherworld Artificer was prepared.

At the moment when the assassin attacked, he also attacked, and at the same time, the shield warrior not far from him also rushed up, preparing to kill the assassin of the Red Flower Sand Palace first.

Chapter 508 - Replace the inferior horse with a superior horse!

However.

Just as they were about to make their move.

Lord Bei Mo also rushed forward, seemingly wanting to take the hit while trying to provide assistance.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong immediately stepped up, getting entangled in a fierce battle with Lord Bei Mo.

But at this very moment.

The true killing move of the Scarlet Flower Sand Palace emerged.

The mage waved his staff, appearing to target the Netherworld Artificer, but that wasn't his true intention.

A dual-colored curse mark appeared above Siberian Fox's head.

This was a silence curse, preventing the target from casting any skills for the next few seconds.

Shi Yiran Ya instantly arrived beside Siberian Fox.

A whirlwind kick sent Siberian Fox flying.

Then, she leaped into the air.

In mid-air, she unleashed a series of connecting kicks, constantly pushing Siberian Fox back.

The others' expressions changed slightly upon seeing this, and some tried to rush to her aid, but it was too late.

Because the assassin had already drawn the attention of the Netherworld Artificer and the shield warrior.

Gu Lou Yuan Cong was once again locked in combat with Lord Bei Mo.

The remaining two members of the Limitless Vastness Palace were immediately entangled by the Scarlet Flower Sand Palace's members.

Preventing them from having the chance to assist Siberian Fox.

Coupled with the silence effect.

Siberian Fox was constantly being knocked back, suspended in mid-air.

Fortunately, her health bar was thick enough, so her health points remained relatively healthy.

But soon, someone realized Shi Yiran Ya's goal.

The audience seats instantly erupted in an uproar.

"What the heck? Why was the summoner eliminated so early? What's the point of even fighting now?"

"I don't even want to say anything. A summoner comes on stage and doesn't summon a battle pet first? Isn't that just acting?"

"And that shield warrior too, he should have protected the summoner and summoned the Flame Wyvern first! It's making me want to puke."

... ..

Above the high platform.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod had an undisguised smile on his face upon seeing this.

"These young people always have such strange ideas."

Western Extremity Demigod couldn't help but say, "Scarlet Flower Demigod, just laugh if you want to. Otherwise, I'll just think you're being hypocritical."

"Hahaha, Western Extremity Demigod, you've already advanced to the top four, so don't make fun of me."

Xiu Deli Haohong glanced at the Scarlet Flower Demigod.

"This first Holy Land Heavenly Pride Newcomer Competition is the easiest to achieve results in. It will only become more and more difficult to win rankings later on."

The Scarlet Flower Demigod took over the conversation and said with a smile:

"Palace Master Haohong is right. I've heard that several holy lands want to revive, and they're already secretly nurturing geniuses."

With that said.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod looked at Xiu Deli Haohong again and explained:

"Palace Master Haohong, this first competition is the only chance for our Scarlet Flower Sand Palace. We won't have another chance in the future."

"Therefore, I will go all out. Please don't blame me, Palace Master Haohong."

Hearing this.

Xiu Deli Haohong waved his hand, "Scarlet Flower Demigod, what do you mean by that? It sounds like I would create external factors to make you admit defeat?"

"Is our Limitless Vastness Palace such a force in your eyes?"

The Scarlet Flower Demigod immediately waved his hand upon hearing this, "Of course not, of course not."

"Palace Master Haohong has misunderstood."

Xiu Deli Haohong chuckled and said, "What is this? The Holy Land Heavenly Pride Newcomer Competition. We, the major holy lands, should go all out."

"If you hold back, then you're looking down on me."

Lin Tianhao listened to their back-and-forth conversation, feeling unimpressed.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod was somewhat conflicted.

He wanted to win this Holy Land Heavenly Pride Newcomer Competition, but he was also afraid of offending the Limitless Vastness Palace.

Just at this moment.

Xiu Deli Haohong suddenly said:

"But Scarlet Flower Demigod, it's just that you're lucky. If you had encountered the Mortal Palace's team first, you might have already been defeated."

"After all, if no one can control that shield warrior from the Mortal Palace, he's really hard to deal with."

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly.

The latter half of Xiu Deli Haohong's words was very meaningful.

What did he mean by 'if no one can control him, he's really hard to deal with'?

Wasn't that implying that only the Netherworld Artificer from their team could control Fatty?

He even said not to hold back, but wasn't that telling the Scarlet Flower Demigod to hold back?

How hypocritical!!

The Scarlet Flower Demigod gritted his teeth. He had obviously understood the meaning behind Xiu Deli Haohong's words.

He wanted her to hold back.

If she didn't, then she would be clearly going against the Limitless Vastness Palace.

"Palace Master Haohong, actually, I think that warrior under my command is also a natural counter to the Mortal Palace's shield warrior."

"The Mortal Palace's shield warrior has high health points, but his burst damage is lacking. He can only constantly stack attributes for the warrior under my command."

The Scarlet Flower Demigod explained earnestly.

He lowered his stance and spoke very sincerely.

But everyone with eyes could see.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod didn't want to hold back. He still wanted to win this Holy Land Heavenly Pride Newcomer Competition.

Xiu Deli Haohong's expression instantly darkened.

Clearly.

The Scarlet Flower Demigod's decision made him very unhappy.

He felt that his hints were already very obvious, but the Scarlet Flower Demigod had such an attitude.

"I think it's still uncertain who will have the last laugh in this battle. You guys should stop talking about this for now. It's awkward for the listeners."

"After all, we're not fools either."

Tu Tulu Hongqiong spoke.

He glanced at Xiu Deli Haohong.

"Xiu Deli Haohong, it's just a Holy Land Heavenly Pride Newcomer Competition. If you have to use such methods, then I'm sorry, but I really look down on you from the bottom of my heart."

Xiu Deli Haohong's expression became even more unsightly.

Lin Tianhao knew.

Xiu Deli Haohong was doing this because he didn't want to lose face in front of him.

He wasn't stupid either.

He could naturally see that Xiu Deli Haohong wanted to enter the finals with him, and then eliminate him.

Of course.

If he was eliminated early.

Xiu Deli Haohong would probably be even happier.

Xiu Deli Haohong glanced at Tu Tulu Hongqiong, "Tu Tulu Hongqiong, no one thinks you're mute if you don't speak."

"I'll say it again, if the Snow Emperor gains power and our Limitless Vastness Palace falls, your Tu Tulu Holy Mountain won't have a good ending either."

"There's no need for Palace Master Haohong to worry about that."

... ..

On the arena.

After Siberian Fox was eliminated, the assassin who had taken the initiative to attack the Netherworld Artificer was also eliminated.

This assassin was only at the level of an ordinary high-level player, and his task was just to draw aggro.

Chapter 509 - If national war doesn't work, then there will be civil unrest!

But even in a one-for-one exchange, the Crimson Flower Sand Palace would come out ahead.

After all, that assassin's combat strength was average.

But the Siberian Fox's combat strength was completely different.

After the fourth match, many people thought the Crimson Flower Sand Palace was destined to lose.

But the start of this fifth match gave many people hope.

On the arena.

It was originally six against six, but now it's five against five.

Although the Siberian Fox was eliminated.

Both the Crimson Flower Sand Palace and the Boundless Palace of Emptiness had two top-tier players and three ordinary players.

The Netherworld Craftsman was still there, and he was still a threat to Prince Beimo.

Although Gu Lou Yuanzong was powerful, judging from the previous battle situation, he was not as good as Shi Yiran, who had dual professions.

This fifth match was still full of uncertainty.

Just at this moment.

Shi Yiran rushed towards the Netherworld Craftsman.

Her approach was correct, trying to pull the Netherworld Craftsman away, so that the Netherworld Craftsman would not have the opportunity to control Prince Beimo.

As for the Netherworld Craftsman controlling her.

Shi Yiran was not worried about this.

With her footwork and control over distance, it would not be easy for the Netherworld Craftsman's Soul-Suppressing Nails to hit her.

However, Gu Lou Yuanzong was still able to suppress Prince Beimo, and the situation seemed to be at a stalemate.

For a time, it was impossible to tell which side had a better chance of winning.

Above the high platform.

Xiudeli Haohong's expression was slightly gloomy.

Obviously.

He also couldn't tell who had a greater advantage.

But Lin Tianhao knew that, barring any accidents, the Boundless Palace of Emptiness would win.

Because the Netherworld Craftsman was silently weakening the soul power of the others around him.

The weakened soul power was all enhancing the Netherworld Craftsman himself.

This method was very strange.

Moreover.

If Lin Tianhao didn't have a god by his side, he probably wouldn't have noticed this little trick of the Netherworld Craftsman.

The Netherworld Craftsman was also very smart, and after becoming stronger, he didn't rush to attack, but continued to maintain the status quo and fight with Shi Yiran.

This was to paralyze Shi Yiran.

A slight weakening of soul power is difficult to detect.

At most, one would just feel a little tired.

Finally.

The Netherworld Craftsman seemed to feel that the time was ripe.

He unhesitatingly attacked.

Shi Yiran, who had been fighting him evenly, was instantly sent flying.

The remaining things seemed to be much easier.

Gu Lou Yuanzong and the Netherworld Craftsman quickly eliminated the remaining members of the Crimson Flower Sand Palace.

Finally, Prince Beimo and Shi Yiran were eliminated.

This battle ultimately ended with the victory of the Boundless Palace of Emptiness.

Seeing the victory.

Xiudeli Haohong finally showed a smile on his face.

He glanced at the Crimson Flower Demigod and said with a chuckle: "It's a bit of a pity, your original hope was very high, but in the end, you still lost."

The Crimson Flower Demigod smiled bitterly and said: "Alas, I was too overconfident."

"It's not that you're overconfident, it's that your team is still a bit short, try harder in the next competition."

The morning battle ended with the victory of the Boundless Palace of Emptiness.

This afternoon.

It's the Xitu Divine Palace versus the Moon Wheel Demon Palace.

The two holy lands had some minor friction before.

This time, because of Lin Tianhao's instigation, the competition for this last spot in the top four will be very fierce.

Because the morning session was full of five matches, there wasn't much time to rest at noon.

Lin Tianhao felt that this was a good opportunity.

If he could take advantage of this relatively tight noon to accomplish something, he would definitely be able to make the situation in the Boundless Continent even more chaotic.

Time was short.

It was not easy for him to provoke both sides.

Therefore.

He needed someone to help.

As for the person to help, Lin Tianhao had already considered it before.

The Divine Sheep Sect!

This was the sect that originally believed in the Silver-Eyed Octopus.

After Lin Tianhao sent the Silver-Eyed Octopus to the God Conferring List, he arranged for the Divine Sheep Sect to go to the Moon Wheel Empire.

Now is an opportunity to create internal strife in the Moon Wheel Empire.

Moon Wheel City!

Lin Tianhao directly descended to this place, he took the token of the Silver-Eyed Octopus, and directly found the current leader of the Divine Sheep Sect: Yun Ding Gubu.

Yun Ding Gubu was a believer of the Silver-Eyed Octopus, and when he saw Lin Tianhao coming with the token of the Silver-Eyed Octopus, he was respectful to Lin Tianhao.

"Sir, if you have anything, please order."

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and said: "I want to take people to the Flower Moon Tower, specifically ordering the daughters of former prominent families, the more excessive the better."

"Especially those who sell their art but not their bodies, take care of them all!"

Flower Moon Tower.

Belongs to the Spring Tower.

But it is different from ordinary Spring Towers.

That is a Spring Tower backed by the Moon Wheel Empire, and the girls inside are all female relatives of those officials and nobles who committed crimes, and they will be arrested and sold into the Flower Moon Tower to redeem their sins.

But officials and nobles are still officials and nobles after all, even if they are arrested, they will still have some connections.

Moreover, since rabbits die and foxes grieve, those nobles who are still in the officialdom will also take care of the Flower Moon Tower.

Therefore.

Although the Flower Moon Tower is good, very few people dare to go to the Flower Moon Tower to spend money.

After all, not to mention the price, one might be taught a lesson by those officials and nobles who are grieving over the death of rabbits and foxes.

Yun Ding Gubu looked at Lin Tianhao with a solemn expression.

He naturally knew.

What consequences would be faced if the female relatives of those fallen nobles were ruined in the Flower Moon Tower.

"Don't worry."

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly, "When things are exposed and someone wants to target you, you can reveal the news, saying that Lord Luyun asked you to do this."

Lord Luyun.

An ambitious prince of the Moon Wheel Empire, it is said that he also competed for the throne, but unfortunately failed in the end.

"Sir, isn't such a frame-up too obvious?"

"It doesn't matter, I just want to give the emperor of the Moon Wheel Empire a chance to act."

Lin Tianhao said lightly.

"Moreover, who do you think will be the first to suspect if others know that Lord Luyun was framed?"

"The emperor of the Moon Wheel Empire!!"

Yun Ding Gubu's eyes lit up, and he instantly understood some of the details.

"They competed for the throne back then, and now that the emperor of the Moon Wheel Empire has the upper hand, it is natural to deal with Lord Luyun."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said: "Yes."

Yun Ding Gubu suddenly understood.

"If others guess that it was the emperor of the Moon Wheel Empire who instructed us to frame Lord Luyun, the officials and nobles in the court will be dissatisfied with the emperor of the Moon Wheel Empire."

"After all, the establishment of the Flower Moon Tower has made those officials and nobles dissatisfied, and now they have to sacrifice those female relatives to frame Lord Luyun, this kind of behavior is to create discord between the ruler and his subjects."

Lin Tianhao nodded in satisfaction, "Smart, since you know everything, you should know what to do."

"Your subordinate understands, please rest assured, sir!"

Chapter 510 - Encounter the vast Wuji Palace in advance!

After explaining everything, Lin Tianhao returned to the Boundless Infinite Palace.

He would let Yun Ding Gubu handle the next matters.

It could only be said:

Let the bullets fly for a while.

This afternoon.

The final match of the top four elimination round would conclude.

Currently, the teams advancing were the Mortal Palace where Lin Tianhao was, the Western Extreme Divine Palace, and the Boundless Infinite Palace.

As for the last spot, it would be decided between the Xitu Divine Palace and the Moon Wheel Demon Palace.

After today's match, the draw for the semi-final matchups would also take place.

Afternoon.

The enthusiasm remained high.

The twists and turns of the Boundless Infinite Palace's match against the Red Flower Sand Palace in the morning had ignited the audience's passion.

As for this afternoon's match.

Well-informed viewers knew that there were some conflicts between the Xitu Empire and the Moon Wheel Empire.

Today's match would likely be quite brutal.

However.

The outcome of this afternoon's match was somewhat surprising.

Originally, everyone thought it would be an evenly matched battle, but the Xitu Divine Palace achieved a crushing victory.

"The Moon Wheel Demon Palace's team played like a pile of shit, and a big pile at that."

"I'm disgusted, I rarely criticize people, but this is too outrageous.

Aren't they even pretending to try, just giving it away?"

... ..

In the audience stands, many people began to criticize.

Lin Tianhao didn't care.

Whether it was the Xitu Divine Palace or the Moon Wheel Demon Palace, which side advanced didn't affect Lin Tianhao.

After the Moon Wheel Demon Palace was eliminated, Xiudeli Haotu began to preside over the draw.

The semi-final draw was also a matter of skill.

The Fatty was still responsible for the draw for the Mortal Palace.

Actually, the optimal choice should have been to let Lin Qingqing do the drawing.

After all, Lin Qingqing's luck was well-known.

But Lin Tianhao felt that it didn't seem necessary.

His goal this time was the championship.

Therefore, no matter who they drew in the next round, his team would have to crush them.

The Fatty drew first.

This time, he drew the number two ball.

Among the next three people, whoever drew the number two ball would be the Mortal Palace's next opponent.

The second to draw was the Western Extreme Demigod's team.

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd.

Their team drew number one.

This result made many people nervous.

The third to draw was someone from the Boundless Infinite Palace, and there was still a number two and a number one in the box.

They had a fifty percent chance of drawing the Mortal Palace.

"Damn, why am I a little nervous?"

"Could it be that the Boundless Infinite Palace is going to run into the Mortal Palace in the semi-finals?"

"Currently, the strongest team we've seen is the Boundless Infinite Palace's team, as for the Mortal Palace, they've only revealed a shield warrior so far, we don't know if they have any hidden cards."

"The Palace Lord of the Mortal Palace is the Snow Emperor, is it possible that the Snow Emperor will personally participate later? With his strength, wouldn't everyone else be delivering food?"

"Is the head coach warming up? But I heard that's not allowed, the Holy Land Master can't participate in this kind of competition."

... ..

Many viewers were discussing.

During this draw.

Lin Tianhao wasn't nervous, but these viewers became nervous instead.

Finally.

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd.

Gu Lou Yuanzong took out a small ball from the box.

The number on the small ball was clearly [2].

"Damn, damn, damn, really damn it, the Boundless Infinite Palace and the Mortal Palace are really meeting in the semi-finals."

"This is interesting, this shows that there is no inside story in the draw, otherwise, for the sake of traffic, the showdown between the Mortal Palace and the Boundless Infinite Palace should be placed in the finals."

"Hehe, if that's the case, I'll be energized."

... ..

This draw result surprised many people.

The audience stands were excited.

On the high platform.

The Western Extreme Demigod and the Xitu Demigod both revealed knowing smiles on their faces.

This draw result gave them a chance to enter the finals.

Even if they lost in the end, they would still be the runner-up.

If they had drawn the Mortal Palace and the Boundless Infinite Palace respectively, they would likely have no chance to reach the finals.

Xiudeli Haohong's expression was somewhat uncertain.

This result didn't seem bad for him either.

After all, a victory had to be decided between him and Lin Tianhao.

Deciding the victory in advance didn't seem like a problem.

"Snow Emperor, it seems that one of us is destined to fall in the top four."

Having said that.

Xiudeli Haohong smiled slightly and said, "Speaking of which, I'm at a disadvantage, the Red Flower Sand Palace forced out all my trump cards, and my understanding of you is still limited to a shield warrior."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally and said, "So, you should be careful, oh, if you're not careful, you might be carried away by me."

"Hahaha."

Xiudeli Haohong looked up and laughed.

"Snow Emperor, you wouldn't really think that my dignified Boundless Infinite Palace only has this much to show, would you?"

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly.

Could it be that the Boundless Infinite Palace still had trump cards?

To be honest.

Lin Tianhao didn't quite believe it.

At this stage, top talents similar to Gu Lou Yuanzong were very limited.

Moreover, judging by the names, most of them were players from their Dragon Country.

This was thanks to the benefits that Lin Tianhao had continuously distributed in the Mountain and Sea Empire area before.

That's how these top talents came about.

The Boundless Infinite Palace occupying three of them was already remarkable.

If he still had trump cards, then the fifth game would be too risky.

If the trump cards weren't used and they lost, wouldn't that be a great injustice?

However, Xiudeli Haohong didn't need to make such groundless statements.

In addition, if it wasn't because Siberia's Fox was eliminated first in the fifth game, the Boundless Infinite Palace would have almost certainly won.

In any case.

Tomorrow's match would be somewhat tricky for Lin Tianhao.

After all, the Netherworld Craftsman's Soul-Suppressing Nail was a bit too perverted.

In a one-on-one situation, the Netherworld Craftsman seemed to be an unsolvable existence.

After all, the Netherworld Craftsman's control came from the soul, and currently, Lin Tianhao didn't know who under him had the means to解除soul control.

Moreover.

Even if he let the Monkey go, relying on fast movement speed to dodge the Soul-Suppressing Nail, the Netherworld Craftsman could still silently deprive the opponent of soul power to increase his strength.

This meant that when facing the Netherworld Craftsman, he had to fight quickly.

But as the saying goes, soldiers come to block, water comes to cover.

There was still time tonight to discuss countermeasures with the Fatty and the others, and also ask them if they had any means to 解除 soul control.

The draw ended.

Everyone left.

Lin Tianhao met up with the Fatty and the others.

When the Fatty saw Lin Tianhao, he couldn't help but laugh.

"Brother Hao, is my luck a bit bad, running into the people from the Boundless Infinite Palace in advance?"

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter, to take first place, we're bound to have a battle with the Boundless Infinite Palace."

"What I'm concerned about is, do you have any good strategies against the Netherworld Craftsman?"
