Chapter 52 Dimensional reduction version of the Book of Life and Death!

“The appearance of this red-named player has allowed our Dragon Country region to lead the world, giving us three hundred more bronze equipment pieces and three thousand free attribute points.”

“His greatness is already difficult to describe in words. I strongly suggest that after completing the mission, he should be allowed to leave the city. Perhaps he can benefit us even more in the future.”

“Therefore, we pay tribute to this great red-named player!!”

He was really worried that some players who got carried away would catch him and kill him crazily, which would be a headache.

However.

What Lin Tianhao didn't know was that major clubs, consortia, and government officials were all holding emergency meetings.

“I believe you have all noticed that this red-named player has 400,000+ health points. At this stage, even our special operations team's shield warriors with bronze armor only have a little over 50,000 health points.”

“Moreover, his million red name value should be due to doing something that angered both heaven and men, such as... destroying the novice village and killing those NPCs in the novice village.”

“This is very likely. His resistance is almost zero. Being able to kill the NPCs in the novice village probably means he has extremely high output.”

“High health, high damage, his potential is very high. After this mission is over, we must bring him into our team.”

... ..

The results of the discussions among the major forces were the same.

That is, Lin Tianhao's potential is huge, and he has the potential to be drawn in.

However, it is not absolute.

Some forces also believe that.

Lin Tianhao's current red name value will be difficult to clear before the second or even third turn. In the future, as long as he dies once, his level will inevitably return to zero, his equipment will be lost, and all his efforts will be in vain.

The further you go.

The more difficult it is to level up.

Losing one level for every point of red name value is terrifying, and a million red name value is unimaginable.

... ..

Inside the rental house.

After posting the post, Lin Tianhao still chose to go online.

After going online.

Lin Tianhao ignored the players surrounding him. Let them kill him, anyway, it wouldn't have any substantial impact on him.

Moreover, killing him could also help these players get rewards, which could be regarded as strengthening the strength of the Dragon Country region. For him, it was not unacceptable.

He came online this time to submit the mission.

“Ding, you have completed the mission 'Release the Drought Demon'. Mission reward: Free attribute points +50, Blessing of the Gods +1.”

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath, “Use the Blessing of the Gods.”

The last Cycle of Death was definitely a heaven-defying blessing.

“Ding, you have received the Blessing of the Gods...”

“Due to your high red name value, the blessing has changed.”

“Ding, you have received the Blessing of the Empress Houtu...”

As before, a dark red beam of light descended from the sky, enveloping Lin Tianhao.

“Ding, you have obtained the Book of Life and Death.”

Lin Tianhao: ???

Book of Life and Death?

This...

Isn't this a super invincible artifact!

Any Dragon Country person knows the power of the Book of Life and Death.

It's just that I don't know how much difference there is between this Book of Life and Death and the Book of Life and Death in myths and legends.

Book of Life and Death: God-given equipment.

Wearing requirements: Limited to Snow Emperor, cannot be dropped, cannot be given away, transferred, or traded.

Effect: You can write the name of any existing person on the Book of Life and Death (limited to one person). The person written on the Book of Life and Death, no matter where they are, will suffer 10,000 plus one percent of your maximum health in true damage every second, lasting until the other party dies.

Abrasion resistance: Indestructible.

Sure enough!

This is just a weakened version of the Book of Life and Death.

However, even so.

That's quite perverted.

As long as you know the name, you can attack remotely.

The basic damage caused per second is 10,000, and there is even a percentage of health bonus.

This bonus may not be significant for other players, but for Lin Tianhao, it is completely different.

He now has more than 400,000 health, and one percent is more than 4,000.

And in the future, he can continue to increase his maximum health.

Moreover.

For other players, this equipment is only of average use.

Because this equipment has a limitation.

That is, you need to write down the name.

As a reborn person, Lin Tianhao knows the names of most of the bosses in his previous life.

This means that he can remotely hunt these bosses.

Especially...

Lin Tianhao thought of some interesting operations, and a playful smile appeared on his face.

While Lin Tianhao was checking these, the bounty mission finally ended.

Those players left one after another.

However, there were a few people who didn't leave.

One of them stepped forward and said lightly: “Hello, I am Xiu Luoyize from the Shura Guild. I don’t know if you are interested in joining our Shura Guild? The treatment is negotiable.”

As soon as his voice fell, another voice rang out, “Little brother, come to our Jinghong Guild. Our guild has a lot of beautiful young ladies.”

“Go aside, little brother, our Mad Warrior Guild is your best choice. Join us and we will help you clear your red name value.”

... ..

Several people started arguing noisily.

Lin Tianhao rolled his eyes.

“When you guys attacked me just now, you weren't soft-hearted at all.”

Several people smiled embarrassedly, “Little brother, it's not our fault. You went offline for a meal, and we were able to get so much equipment and free attribute points. You didn't suffer any losses, did you?”

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, “Alright, I originally had something to do offline. Being killed is considered supporting the players in the Dragon Country region, but I don't want to join a guild, I'm leaving.”

He didn't want to waste time with these people here. He still had very important things to do next.

Support Princess Leona to become the king of the Star Kingdom!!

This is very important!

Whether he can become a god in the future is closely related to this.

The sooner he helps Princess Leona become the king of the Star Kingdom, the sooner he can obtain the power of incense.

If he obtains the power of incense in the early stage of the game, when the Great Cataclysm arrives and the Alele Star System comes to attack, he will also have stronger power.

The power of incense is different from the power of attributes.

Its level is much higher than the power of attributes.

During the Great Cataclysm.

Lin Tianhao had seen a strong man from the Alele Star System who possessed the power of incense, using the power of incense to kill three ninth-turn strong men with one sword.

That kind of strength was terrifying!

After coming out of Blackwind City, Lin Tianhao walked towards a place with fewer people.

His red name value is so eye-catching no matter where he goes.

Lin Tianhao stopped until he reached the territory of the level 20 wild monster Green Poison Spider.

As soon as he stopped, the surrounding temperature suddenly dropped.

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes and said in a deep voice: "Princess Leona, you're finally here."

"Watching me being spawn camped, is it fun?"

Princess Leona smiled noncommittally, "Otherwise? Can I help you? If I help you, the kingdom ministers will label me with a big hat of helping evildoers."

"At that time, how can I compete for the throne?"

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "Speak, what are you looking for me for?"
