Chapter 53: A decision that will cost you your life!

"Do you remember our agreement? I've just returned and have no achievements. To gain the support of ministers and nobles, I must have achievements."

"Get to the point," Lin Tianhao said.

Princess Leona said seriously, "In our Starry Kingdom, there is a Blackwind Mountain with a band of bandits who commit all sorts of evil. I hope you can help me destroy them."

"Ding, Princess Leona has issued a quest to you."

"Quest Objective: Destroy Blackwind Stronghold."

"Quest Penalty: Unknown."

"Quest Reward: Unknown."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. "Blackwind Stronghold is a level thirty area."

"With your strength, you should have a chance, right?"

Lin Tianhao shook his head.

Leona's expression changed. "Is there a problem?"

"Yes, hunting a level thirty Blackwind Stronghold is just a small matter. How can it be considered a great achievement?"

"Others will even see you as a clown, grandstanding."

Lin Tianhao's blunt words made Leona's face look a little unpleasant.

"I naturally know, but with your current situation, destroying Blackwind Stronghold should be the limit."

Lin Tianhao shook his head again. "Who told you that destroying Blackwind Stronghold is the limit? What if I told you I could kill Greylorenson, the sealed son of the Demon King?"

"That's impossible!!"

Leona said subconsciously.

Hearing what Lin Tianhao said, Leona's expression became more serious.

"Snow Emperor, how do you know these things?"

Lin Tianhao smiled. "Does it matter?"

Leona took a deep breath, did not continue to ask, but said seriously: "You said you could kill Greylorenson without destroying the seal, is that true?"

"It's true."

"You can go back and tell the king and those ministers now that you can kill Greylorenson without destroying the seal."

"Don't harm me!"

Leona was still a little worried, mainly because what Lin Tianhao said was too unbelievable.

If Greylorenson could be killed without destroying the seal, the Starry Kingdom would have taken action long ago, and wouldn't have waited until today.

"I am an adventurer, what good would it do me to harm you?"

"Of course, if you don't believe me, then pretend I didn't say anything."

Lin Tianhao didn't care. If Leona questioned him like this, he could completely support other princesses to take the throne.

"I believe you."

After only a brief hesitation, Leona's eyes became firm.

"Snow Emperor, you are different from other adventurers. I believe in your ability. I will go back now and tell my father, mother, and those ministers and nobles."

A satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face. "You made the right decision."

Leona's breathing stagnated.

For some reason, she had a very strong feeling that if she had questioned Lin Tianhao again just now, she would have missed the throne!

After saying goodbye to Leona.

Lin Tianhao decided to level up first.

Being able to reduce a little red name value is something.

Green Poison Spider (Common): 20.

Health Points: 2450 / 2450.

Attack: 108.

Skills: Web Restraint, Poison Arrow.

The common monsters of Twilight of the Gods are still relatively friendly.

Their attributes are generally not high.

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and fired an arrow.

- 2450.

"Ding, you killed a Green Poison Spider, experience +400."

"Ding, you have leveled up to level 2."

Killing monsters above your level, the experience reward is indeed good.

A common monster can provide 400 experience points.

Next, Lin Tianhao fired another arrow.

Lightning Leap triggered, all eighteen Green Poison Spiders around were affected by the Lightning Leap.

With more than two thousand health points, they couldn't withstand Lin Tianhao's attack at all and were all instantly killed.

"Ding, you have leveled up to level 3."

... ..

After the dropped levels are re-leveled, you cannot get free attribute points, it is just a simple level increase.

Lin Tianhao is leveling up here.

At this time.

Starry Kingdom, Royal Palace Hall.

Princess Leona stated her thoughts.

Immediately, it caused a burst of laughter.

"Leona, my good sister, did the Drought Demon burn your brain in the novice village? What nonsense are you talking about?"

Qing Fuyun's face was full of mockery. As the Second Princess of the Starry Kingdom, she has been managing her own power in the kingdom and is a very strong competitor for the throne.

"Princess Leona, shouldn't you think clearly before you speak? Kill Greylorenson without destroying the seal, is that possible?"

Prime Minister Kaisenluo's face was full of sarcasm, and he didn't take Princess Leona, who had just returned from the outside, seriously at all.

Above the throne.

The elderly King Yabala raised his hand, and the people in the field who were preparing to ridicule Leona immediately shut up.

"Leona, as royalty, we must weigh our own strength when we speak and act. When you say this, have you ever thought about what the consequences would be if you couldn't do it?!"

Leona took a deep breath. She had already expected such a situation when she came.

Since she chose to come here, it was an absolute trust in Lin Tianhao.

"Father, Mother, since I said that, I naturally have the confidence to do it."

As soon as Leona finished speaking, Qing Fuyun questioned: "Third sister, what if you don't do it? What then?"

King Yabala also looked at Leona, "That's right, there should always be a punishment, otherwise everyone will run to the hall and talk nonsense in the future, where is the majesty of our royal family?!"

Leona bit her lip. Now the arrow is on the string and has to be fired.

"If I can't do it, I will voluntarily give up the throne competition!!!"

She finally said these words.

Without an explanation, these people would not let it go.

Hearing this.

A smile could not help appearing on Qing Fuyun's face. She was naturally happy to have one less competitor.

As for Leona really being able to kill Greylorenson without destroying the seal.

Is that possible?

Absolutely impossible!!

If there really was such a method, Greylorenson would have already been dead.

The court was full of different thoughts, but most people were happy.

With one less person to stir up trouble, it is easier for them to take sides.

Yabala on the throne was a little surprised.

His thoughts were actually similar to Qing Fuyun, but he thought more.

If Leona really didn't have any confidence, would she say such a thing? And use the status of a king candidate as a guarantee.

Therefore.

Yabala felt that Leona must have her own trump card.

"Okay, Leona, I look forward to you killing Greylorson. If you can kill him, our Starry Kingdom's Starry Chamber of Commerce will be under your control!"
