

O game 571

Chapter 571 - Endless emergence of [Demons]!

"Yes."

Bei Nuo Qingji nodded respectfully, since they were out, they would definitely listen to Lin Tianhao.

Milai Fulong hesitated, and finally said:

"Snow Emperor, my suggestion is not to directly attack the Seven Sons of the North Sea, but to take down the islands around them first."

"First, to familiarize yourself with the rhythm of capturing islands, and also to prepare a retreat for yourself."

"If you fail at sea and don't have a place to land, it will be a very, very dangerous thing."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "Okay, then let's conquer the islands around the Seven Sons of the North Sea first."

He was still too confident.

He hadn't considered the possibility of retreat.

After all, how could they be forced into a desperate situation with a god leading the team?

Moreover.

When Lin Tianhao killed Poseidon, the God Slayer mark granted him a skill to instantly restore full health in the ocean.

Therefore.

In the ocean, Lin Tianhao himself is super strong.

As long as he doesn't encounter those who can instantly kill him, he's not afraid of anything else.

With the God of the Undead protecting him, it's still very difficult for Lin Tianhao to be instantly killed.

"Snow Emperor, there is another problem with sailing at sea."

"What problem?"

Entering the ocean, Lin Tianhao felt no discomfort at all, but rather moved faster.

Next.

It was Lin Tianhao's hunting moment.

Lin Tianhao disdained to enslave ordinary sea beasts.

The sea beasts that Lin Tianhao could enslave were at least Black Iron grade, and their level could not be lower than level 200.

In the inner sea ahead, there were still some Black Iron grade sea beasts, and occasionally Bronze grade sea beasts could be encountered.

But above that, Lin Tianhao hadn't encountered a single one.

Until he walked out of the inner sea, Lin Tianhao discovered that the number of sea beasts had obviously increased.

It seemed that because merchant ships came and went in the inner sea on weekdays, some sea beasts in the inner sea were cleared.

After coming out, Lin Tianhao discovered that the number of sea beasts had obviously increased.

Not only that.

The quality of sea beasts has also been significantly improved.

Before, he hadn't encountered a single Silver grade sea beast. After leaving the inner sea for only thirty nautical miles, Lin Tianhao encountered the first Silver grade sea beast.

Bloodthorn Demonic Shark (Silver): Level 358.

Health: 23.58 million / 23.58 million.

Attack Power: 299521.

Skills: Underwater Vortex, Rift Impact, Ninefold Pillar, Super Bite, Bloodthorn Life-Snatching Strike, Scarlet Demonic Eyes, Water Return Technique, Shadow Doppelganger, Berserk, Super Armor.

The overall attributes of this Bloodthorn Demonic Shark were already pretty good.

But for Lin Tianhao, it was not a threat at all.

More than 23 million health points only required one arrow.

Ultimately, it was because the level of this Bloodthorn Demonic Shark was too low, and the Silver grade was a bit too high and not low enough.

But this was just an appetizer.

Because the further into the depths of the Northern Wilderness Sea Area, the higher the grade and level of the sea beasts became.

Three days later.

Lin Tianhao's team had advanced more than 1,500 nautical miles.

At this time, Lin Tianhao had finally encountered some relatively powerful sea beasts.

Moreover.

Lin Tianhao also discovered a problem.

The sea beasts here were more or less related to the [Demon].

Since Lin Tianhao killed the Bloodthorn Demonic Shark three days ago, he has killed more than 2,000 boss-level sea beasts related to [Demon].

This is not a small number.

In Lin Tianhao's impression in his previous life, this sea area did not seem to be linked to [Demon].

It may be that he didn't know much about it, but Lin Tianhao most likely still felt that this was very abnormal.

As the saying goes, there must be a demon when things go wrong.

The large-scale appearance of sea beasts related to [Demon] here is likely to have the same problem as Youming Island.

This situation usually involves great danger.

But at the same time, it is also possible to obtain unexpected gains.

Continue to go deeper.

When the fleet sailed 3,000 nautical miles, Lin Tianhao encountered a seventh-rank sea beast for the first time!

Demonic Eye Ghost Kun (Gold): Level 2198.

Health: 1.52 billion / 1.52 billion!!

Attack Power: 1.89 million.

Skills: ???

Exceeding level 2,000 is already considered a seventh-rank sea beast.

The gold grade is neither high nor low, just so-so.

Moreover.

This Demonic Eye Ghost Kun, like most of the sea beasts Lin Tianhao had encountered before, had the characteristics of [Demon].

However, because Lin Tianhao's damage was high enough, with Lin Tianhao activating Heavenly Punishment and Three Heads and Six Arms, he could solve the opponent in less than a second.

"Ding, congratulations, you have completed the first kill of the Demonic Eye Ghost Kun, and the North Sea announcement is about to begin. Do you want to hide your nickname?"

"No."

"North Sea Announcement, congratulations to player Snow Emperor for completing the first kill of the Demonic Eye Ghost Kun. This is a special announcement, and I hope that the majority of players will continue to work hard."

... ..

After entering the Northern Wilderness Sea Area, Lin Tianhao's killing of BOSS is no longer a server-wide announcement, but has become a North Sea announcement.

After killing the Demonic Eye Ghost Kun, a clone that looked almost exactly like Lin Tianhao rushed up to touch the corpse.

This is Lin Tianhao's Water Condensation Clone, which is the ability obtained by the God Slayer mark after killing the Water Elemental God before.

The Water Condensation Clone has 50% of Lin Tianhao's full attributes.

Not only that.

The Water Condensation Clone is also different from One Qi Transformation into Three Pure Ones, and can be used for combat.

Of course.

You can also touch the corpse.

Lin Tianhao is responsible for killing, and he is responsible for touching the corpse.

This can greatly improve efficiency.

... ..

Northern Wilderness Sea Area, Blood Lake Cave!

A man whose shape was similar to a human, but covered in * scales and with three strange horns on his head, suddenly opened his eyes.

There was a fierce light flashing in his eyes.

"Our Northern Wilderness Sea Area has been peaceful for so long, and the people of the vast continent dare to set foot in our Northern Wilderness Sea Area and slaughter the sea beasts within the jurisdiction of my Blood Lake Cave."

"Come here!"

The Triangular Blood Tiger Fish gave a low shout, and immediately a shrimp soldier strode in.

"My lord, what are your orders?"

Chapter 572 - Nocturne ghost ship!

The triangular blood tiger fish's eyes flashed with a cold light, "Dispatch a patrol team to investigate the details of this Snow Emperor."

Upon hearing this, the shrimp soldier couldn't help but tremble slightly.

"Third Lord, that's a demon. On his way here, he's been killing almost everyone, leaving no one alive."

"If our patrol team goes, it's likely to be a waste of life."

The triangular blood tiger fish's eyes narrowed slightly, "The Limitless Vast Palace hasn't set foot in our Northern Wilderness Sea for many years."

"Is this invasion an attempt to provoke a sea-land war?"

Just as the triangular blood tiger fish's voice fell, a soft voice rang out.

"Second Brother, in my opinion, it's a struggle on the Vast Continent. Someone has been kicked out and is now preparing to seek a place to live in our sea."

As the voice fell.

A woman in a long dress walked over. Although she was called a woman, her temples were slightly bulging, covered with seven-colored scales.

Her eyes also had colorful flowing lights, making people feel dizzy just looking at them.

"Second Sister, I don't think so. The Limitless Vast Palace has been deeply rooted in the Vast Continent for many years, and has reached a point where no one can surpass it."

"It's not impossible for them to unify the Vast Continent and then invade our sea area."

The seven-colored sea python pondered for a while, and finally shook her head, "Then let's stand still for now. I've already dispatched the Shadow Crabs to the Vast Continent to investigate the situation."

"With the speed of the Shadow Crabs, they should be back by tomorrow night."

The triangular blood tiger fish nodded, "Then we'll talk about it after the Shadow Crabs come back."

"Snow Emperor, you better be representing the entire Vast Continent, otherwise, I will definitely devour you alive!!"

The triangular blood tiger fish's eyes were full of ferocity, like a fierce god ready to devour people.

The seven-colored sea python glanced at the shrimp soldier, "Send the order to let all sea beasts above the golden rank retreat, don't sacrifice themselves in vain. Everything will be decided after we have made a decision."

"Yes, Second Lord."

... ..

No.

It's no longer a question of not increasing but decreasing, but rather that he could hardly encounter any high-rank sea beasts.

According to the previous situation, the number of sea beasts should be increasing, and the number of high-rank sea beasts should also be continuously increasing.

But now the number of high-rank sea beasts has decreased significantly.

This is very abnormal.

Generally, when this kind of situation occurs, it's likely that he has entered the territory of a powerful sea beast king.

Whether it's sea beasts, wild monsters, or demon beasts, they all have a sense of territory.

The stronger the sea beast, the larger the territory.

Now that there are no high-rank sea beasts in the seabed, it's meaningless for Lin Tianhao to continue in the seabed.

He returned to the ship.

Bei Nuo Qingji saw Lin Tianhao coming up and quickly walked over.

"Lord Snow Emperor, has something happened in the seabed?"

Lin Tianhao nodded lightly.

Seeing this.

Bei Nuo Qingji's expression changed slightly. In this vast sea, any change could lead to the destruction of their ship and the death of their people.

"Lord Snow Emperor, what happened that forced you to come back on board?"

Miley Fuling had also walked over at this time.

Not only him.

Many experts on the ship gathered, obviously worried that a powerful sea beast would appear in the seabed, making them unable to cope.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and said, "It's not a big problem, it's just that we may have entered the territory of some king-level sea beast."

"What!!"

Everyone present was shocked. Every king meant a ruling power.

"Now that the gods are all suppressed by the Twilight of the Gods rules, even gods can hardly kill a king."

Miley Fuling's expression was solemn, "Lord Snow Emperor, can you tell me in detail what's going on?"

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly, "You don't need to worry too much, it's just that those high-rank sea beasts in the seabed suddenly disappeared."

"According to my speculation, we should have entered the territory of a powerful existence, which led to the sudden decrease in high-rank sea beasts."

Miley Fuling nodded solemnly after hearing Lin Tianhao's words.

"Lord Snow Emperor's analysis is very correct. The high-rank sea beasts have suddenly decreased for no reason. We do seem to have entered the territory of a king-level sea beast."

"What should we do?" Bei Nuo Qingji asked with a frown.

Most of them are generals from the Ten Cities of the North. Although they have some strength, it's only so-so.

If they were to face a king-level sea beast, they would have no power to resist.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand indifferently, "Don't worry, if a king-level sea beast really comes to make trouble, I'll destroy it."

Lin Tianhao wasn't bragging.

His combat power at sea is fiercer than on land, and with the protection of the Divine Domain.

Killing a king-level sea beast would only take a little more time.

"Miley Fuling, how far are we from the nearest Seven Sons of the North Sea?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Miley Fuling pulled out a sea chart and said after observing it slightly, "It's still early."

"It's estimated that there are still about 20,000 nautical miles, and at the current speed, it will take about twenty days."

Lin Tianhao nodded, after all, it was a pioneering voyage, and it was impossible to go at full speed.

After giving a few simple instructions, Lin Tianhao returned to the cabin to rest.

But it wasn't really resting, but using this time to comprehend the Dao.

There are still twenty days of journey ahead, and using it to comprehend the Dao will definitely lead to a good improvement.

Especially.

Lin Tianhao now urgently hopes that he can have his own domain.

Because he is too weak when facing those domain powerhouses.

If it weren't for the existence of Heavenly Punishment, even if Lin Tianhao's health points were increased by another 1 billion or 2 billion, it would be difficult to shake the domain powerhouses.

This is their natural gap.

And to say which Dao has the fastest comprehension speed, it is naturally the Sword Dao.

After all, Lin Tianhao has a Sword Dao seed.

In addition to the Fairy Picture and the Jade Butterfly of Creation, Lin Tianhao's progress in comprehending the Sword Dao can be said to be exceptionally terrifying.

However.

Lin Tianhao's comprehension of the Dao was interrupted before it lasted long.

The setting sun.

The golden sunlight sprinkled on the sea, making people feel as if the ship was sailing towards paradise.

At this moment.

A black shadow appeared on the golden sea.

The shadow grew bigger and bigger, and the shadow was stretched very long by the setting sun.

"That's... a ship!"

A general from the Ten Cities of the North had good eyesight and saw the black shadow clearly.

Miley Fuling quickly walked to the bow of the ship, his eyes deep and terrifying.

He stared at the distant ship for a full ten breaths before shouting:

"Quickly change direction, it's the Demon Ascension Ghost Ship!!"

His voice was very loud and very urgent.

This forced Lin Tianhao, who was comprehending the Dao, to stop comprehending the Dao and quickly walk out of the cabin.

"What's the situation?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Miley Fuling said urgently: "It's the Demon Ascension Ghost Ship. It is said that there is a powerful and terrifying Void Demon God attached to it. Anyone who comes into contact with the Demon Ascension Ghost Ship will be devoured by it and completely disappear from this world."

Chapter 573 - Attack of the Devil's Ivy, get on board!

Lin Tianhao's eyes were like torches. As Miley Fulong finished speaking, he had already操控(操控) his undead sea beast army to approach the Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

Miley Fulong described this Devil Vine Ghost Ship as sinister, but Lin Tianhao had no idea what it was really like.

The fleet was changing direction, and Lin Tianhao did not stop it, because he had not yet figured out this Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

This Devil Vine Ghost Ship was very large, even much larger than the super warships in Lin Tianhao's fleet that could accommodate millions of people.

Its entire body was blackish-gray, and the black color was strange, as if it were the black color formed by dried blood.

And the gray color that was revealed was probably the original color of the Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

Besides these.

The Devil Vine Ghost Ship was also entwined with countless black-red vines.

These vines were as thin as steel wires, and the thick ones were as thick as buckets.

Lin Tianhao activated his Fiery Eyes, trying to see through the essence of these vines.

Devil Vine (???): ???

Health Points: ???

Attack Power: ???

Skills: ???

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. Could it be that this so-called Devil Vine Ghost Ship was not as sinister as the rumors said?

It was just that this Devil Vine occupied this warship and floated on the sea, becoming the Devil Vine Ghost Ship that people feared like a tiger.

What happened next seemed to confirm Lin Tianhao's guess.

“Whoosh—”

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and shot an arrow through the air.

The feather arrow arrived in front of the Devil Vine Ghost Ship in the blink of an eye.

“Pa—”

Without any suspense!

The feather arrow was easily smashed by the Devil Vine.

“No!”

Miley Fulong was shocked when he saw Lin Tianhao attacking the Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

“The Devil Vine Ghost Ship carries a terrifying curse. Everyone who attacks the Devil Vine Ghost Ship will be cursed.”

Lin Tianhao didn't care. The more sinister things were, the more likely they were to be accompanied by opportunities.

Wealth and fortune are found in danger. How would he know what it would be like if he didn't try?

At least, based on what Miley Fulong was showing now, it seemed that he had only heard of the Devil Vine Ghost Ship and had not really fought against it.

“Whoosh!!”

Lin Tianhao shot another arrow, this time activating Heavenly Punishment.

He was also prepared to see what this Devil Vine was all about.

The Devil Vine was still the same as before, whipping towards the feather arrow.

However, this time the vine passed through the feather arrow and did not block the feather arrow.

Instead, it was accurately hit by Lin Tianhao.

-147 million!!!

A huge damage number appeared.

Lin Tianhao's critical hit value was now at its maximum of 100%.

However, after hitting the Devil Vine, it did not deal critical hit damage.

This damage value was not as high as Lin Tianhao had imagined. Overall, it was just barely passable.

“It’s over, it’s over, it’s completely over!!”

Miley Fulong seemed to have foreseen something extremely terrifying that was about to happen.

He hugged his head in fear and hid behind the cabin.

Everyone looked at the Devil Vine Ghost Ship in the distance warily.

They all wanted to know what kind of changes would happen to the Devil Vine Ghost Ship after being attacked by Lin Tianhao.

“Whoosh—”

It was as if a curse was about to descend.

A blood-colored vine fell from the sky and landed on Lin Tianhao in an instant.

“Domain of the God of Death!!”

Lin Tianhao immediately had the God of the Undead deploy his domain to fight against this blood-colored vine with the power of the God of the Undead.

The blood-colored vine began to wither rapidly when it came into contact with the Domain of the God of Death.

The withered vine was rapidly dissipating, but the blood-colored vine was still relentlessly flying towards Lin Tianhao.

“This is a strange creature.”

The voice of the God of the Undead entered Lin Tianhao's mind.

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly, “I guessed it.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

Lin Tianhao once again drew his bow and nocked an arrow, and the feather arrow pierced through the air.

“Whoosh whoosh whoosh—”

In the Heavenly Punishment state, Lin Tianhao's attack speed still had a very strong destructive power.

The most important thing was.

The feather arrow locked onto the head, and the damage that could be dealt was very considerable.

“Not good!!”

Suddenly.

The somewhat anxious voice of the God of the Undead came.

Immediately afterwards.

Lin Tianhao saw that the blood-colored vine that had been blocked by the Domain of the God of Death had penetrated the Domain of the God of Death.

In an instant.

The blood-colored vine passed through Lin Tianhao's body.

Lin Tianhao was ready to be instantly killed.

He had the super skill of Resurrect on the Spot, and dying once was nothing to him.

But when the blood-colored vine pierced through Lin Tianhao's body, he did not die.

He intuitively felt that there was an abnormal fluctuation in the space around him. The next moment, he appeared on a ship!!

Lin Tianhao was now standing in the cabin of the ship.

At this time, he was in the lounge on the left side of the cabin. On the left and right sides were two slightly old double beds.

What is this place?!

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, and an extremely bad premonition surged into his heart.

Because he had just tried to communicate with the God of the Undead, but he did not hear any response from the God of the Undead.

There was something wrong with this ship!

In all likelihood, he was on the Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

But judging from the style, this place was not as old as the Devil Vine Ghost Ship.

After thinking for a while.

Lin Tianhao prepared to walk out of the cabin to take a look.

He came to the door of the room and tried to open the door, but found that the door was locked.

This was not enough to stump Lin Tianhao.

He sacrificed a long sword and heavily slashed at the door.

“Clang—”

A sound of metal clashing came, but the door did not move at all.

“Clang clang clang—”

Lin Tianhao continued to try, but the result was of no use at all.

The door did not move at all, and there was no sign of damage.

Unable to open the door for the time being, Lin Tianhao looked around.

In addition to the two double beds, there were also two small single desks with several ancient books on them.

Lin Tianhao was not in a hurry to go out. He casually opened an ancient book.

The content on the ancient book made Lin Tianhao stunned.

It was a photo of a scantily clad woman tied to a chair full of [mechanisms].

The woman's expression was painful with a hint of enjoyment, and a bit of... ecstasy.

Lin Tianhao:...

Not suitable for children.

Lin Tianhao casually flipped through a few pages. It was not good at all. He just silently put it into his backpack to avoid polluting the eyes of later people.

After doing this.

Lin Tianhao found a notebook in the drawer of the desk.

This was a good thing. Maybe there were useful clues.

Lin Tianhao opened the notebook and saw the content on the first page.

“I’m going out to sea today. I don’t know how long I’ll be at sea this time. Although I ordered three last night, I still feel a little flustered when I think about going to sea.”

“Fortunately, the sailor who retired last time gave me a few strange books, which may add some color to the lonely life at sea.”

Chapter 574 - Weird ship!

Lin Tianhao flipped through several pages, but the things recorded on them were not very informative.

The owner of the notebook mostly mentioned things related to that aspect, occasionally mentioning money two or three times, but it was only a little bit.

It seems like there isn't much useful information here.

Finally.

After flipping through almost half of it, Lin Tianhao finally saw something a little different.

"Another lonely day, those ancient books are becoming less and less interesting."

"There are only a few rolls of paper left in the room. I want to go ashore. I miss Qingqing and Xiaoyu from Ten Miles of Peach Blossoms, the woman who buys groceries, and... my poor sister-in-law."

"It's probably almost time to go ashore, after all, someone died on the ship, so it has to be dealt with."

"Why would someone die in the room for no reason? Could it be that they couldn't stand the loneliness, or were killed by someone who couldn't stand the loneliness."

... ..

The content on the next page took a sharp turn, with nothing more about those messy things.

"Another person died, I really want to go ashore, I'm scared, the first person's death might have been an accident."

"But only one night has passed, how could two more people die? I took a distant look at the way those two people died."

"It's too scary, flowers actually grew out of their eyes. How can flowers grow out of people's eyes?!"

... ..

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. For three consecutive days, the number of sailor deaths had been doubling.

And their deaths were extremely abnormal.

Another page.

The words on this page were obviously much more潦草 (liáo cǎo -潦草 means careless, hurried, or scribbled) .

"She's here, she's here, I feel like I'm going to die, this voyage has really harmed me!!!"

This page only had this short sentence, with no other content.

After reading through the entire notebook, Lin Tianhao knew that an unknown change had occurred on the ship at that time.

The last page used "She", indicating that the killer was a woman, or perhaps... a female ghost.

Of course.

It cannot be ruled out that this guy wrote it randomly in a panic, and it cannot prove that the killer was female.

The only thing that can be confirmed is that flowers will grow out of the eyes of the people who were killed.

Flowers...

Could it be related to the Devil Vine.

After all, both are plants.

Lin Tianhao thought to himself, but none of this matters anymore, he has to find a way to leave the room first.

Coming to the door again, Lin Tianhao sacrificed his long sword and started to chop wildly.

His Hand of Heavenly Punishment's normal attacks come with true damage, and with his God-tier hidden class, the priority of his true damage is very high.

Therefore.

Unless this door is the incarnation of a god, there is no reason to stop Lin Tianhao.

Sure enough!

After Lin Tianhao didn't know how many times he chopped, the door exploded directly.

This door probably had very high wear resistance.

That's why it took him so many hits to break it.

The door was opened, and Lin Tianhao walked out of the door. This was a long corridor. On the right side of the corridor were cabins one after another. At a glance, there were probably no less than fifty.

Lin Tianhao also glanced at the back, and as he expected, there were also many rooms behind him.

Walking forward.

The room doors were closed. Lin Tianhao pushed them, but they didn't open. It was probably the same as the room door just now.

"Clang clang clang — —"

Lin Tianhao, like just now, directly smashed the door open with his sword.

He didn't go in. Lin Tianhao glanced inside at the door and didn't find any useful clues inside.

Next.

Every time Lin Tianhao passed a room, he would not hesitate to strike and smash the room door.

Anyway, with his attack speed, it wouldn't delay him a few seconds.

Sweeping all the way.

Lin Tianhao smashed more than a dozen doors in a row, but gained nothing.

Just when Lin Tianhao was wondering if it was useful for him to search like this, a burst of footsteps attracted his attention.

Originally, it was very quiet here, even the sound of the waves hitting the deck was not heard.

This sudden sound of footsteps instantly made Lin Tianhao vigilant.

It's just that this is a corridor, and there are many rooms.

The sudden sound of footsteps only allowed Lin Tianhao to judge that it came from the front, but Lin Tianhao could not be sure which room it was in.

But now that he knew the direction, it was not a big problem.

Quickly stepping forward, Lin Tianhao smashed two more room doors.

There were no clues inside, until the third room door was smashed by Lin Tianhao, and a change finally occurred.

In this room, there were several wet footprints.

The footprints were not big, about the footprints of a twelve or thirteen-year-old child.

Lin Tianhao held his long sword and slowly squatted down.

Because from his perspective, only the space under the two double beds was his blind spot.

If there was someone in this room, it was likely to be under the bed.

Lin Tianhao slowly squatted down to the bed.

He was disappointed.

There was no one under the two double beds.

But the footprints here were real.

Could it be that they jumped into the sea from the window?

But looking at the footprints, the other party should have just climbed up from the sea.

Lin Tianhao walked to the bottom of the boat, but he didn't find any useful clues.

But from these few wet little footprints, it can be judged that a woman did come on board from here just now.

Just at this time.

Lin Tianhao was startled.

Because there were footsteps behind him, very frequent footsteps.

Not only that.

He also heard the voices of many people talking.

"Hei Zi, I heard that you brought a few strange books on the ship, lend them to us to read, I can give you half a roll of paper."

"That's right, good things should be shared, keeping them to yourself, what's the matter."

... ..

Lin Tianhao had walked all the way here before and looked at so many rooms.

There was no one.

The ship was clearly eerily quiet, but now there were sudden sounds, which made him a little incomprehensible.

"Could it be... this is an illusion?!"

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath.

He has Fiery Eyes of Truth, even if it is an illusion created by ordinary gods, it will not have much impact on him.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath.

He turned to look.

He saw a black bald man grinning at Lin Tianhao, "Xiao Wu, tell me, did you tell them that I have strange books."

"I knew you couldn't keep your mouth shut, I even lent it to you to release your energy, is this how you treat me."

"Xiao Wu?"

Lin Tianhao was a little 错愕 (cuò è - cuò è means stunned or surprised) , the black bald man seemed to be very familiar with him.

But when did he become Xiao Wu?

He was standing by the window near the sea at this time, and he subconsciously looked down.

Sure enough.

His appearance has changed.

At this time, he had become a slightly thin young man, and the long sword in his hand had also disappeared.

"This... what's going on?!"

Chapter 575 - A different couple!

Lin Tianhao knew that today's trouble was big.

Before, he thought the Devil Vine was a strange creature.

But now it seems.

It's not just a strange creature, it's also... a strange god!!

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but gasp.

This time, there's really big trouble.

He can't contact the God of the Undead, most likely because the God of the Undead has already been suppressed by the other party.

In other words, he needs to rely on himself in this game today.

The strange are different from ordinary creatures. Their existence is often attached to their own rules.

Defeating them usually doesn't focus on force, because the strange cannot be destroyed by conventional force.

A powerful domain can fight against the rules of the strange, but it is also difficult to truly kill the strange.

Unless, the main body of the strange is found.

And this is almost equivalent to cracking the rules of the strange.

The strange is affecting this ship, indicating that the strange is on the ship.

Find her, then kill her, and everything can naturally be cracked.

"Xiao Wu, what are you dazing off for? Let's go eat. I heard there's radish stew with ribs for lunch today. Finally, I don't have to eat that damned fish."

Hei Zi's voice continued to come, and Lin Tianhao stopped thinking, smiled, and walked out.

"Let's go."

Lin Tianhao didn't say anything extra. Although he had Xiao Wu's appearance, he didn't have Xiao Wu's memory.

If someone died on this ship and he acted very abnormally, it would definitely attract attention.

Therefore.

Lin Tianhao wanted to make himself appear as normal as possible.

Following Hei Zi and the others, Lin Tianhao arrived at the center of the cabin.

This place is very large. At a glance, there are many people gathered for dinner.

There must be hundreds of thousands of people...

Lin Tianhao muttered to himself. The large number of people gave him a little peace of mind.

The more people there are, the lower the probability of him being discovered.

Not only that.

Lin Tianhao also discovered a problem.

These hundreds of thousands of people are all men.

At least.

He hasn't seen a single woman yet.

Withdrawing his thoughts.

Lin Tianhao was now a little troubled.

Hundreds of thousands of people.

It is immeasurable how difficult it is for him to find the strange among these people.

Now that Lin Tianhao is trapped here, he can't leave for the time being.

Looking at a glance.

There are many people here, but unexpectedly, they are all fifth-rankers above level 500.

There are even many sixth-rank professionals above level 1,000.

It's one thing for a ship to accommodate so many people, but they are all experts.

This couldn't help but make Lin Tianhao suspect the purpose of this voyage.

After all, this is already the number of an army, and with this lineup, taking down a kingdom would be easy.

Just as Lin Tianhao was preparing to mix in and pretend to eat a few bites, he heard someone whispering.

"I heard that a woman came on the ship today. She's very beautiful, but unfortunately, she was discovered by the captain and taken to his luxurious private room."

"Are you still dreaming? This is the Falling Star Sea, hundreds of thousands of nautical miles away from the mainland. How could any woman run here?"

"Could it be a mermaid from the bottom of the sea? It is said that mermaids are extremely beautiful, and they can give men the ultimate pleasure when doing that kind of thing."

... ..

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly. This seemed to be a new clue.

On a ship full of men, a woman suddenly appears, which is abnormal in itself.

In addition, the last page of Hei Zi's notebook used [She]. There may be a connection between the two.

Lin Tianhao has reason to suspect that the woman they are discussing is that [She].

Now that he has a direction, he needs to find a way to see that woman next.

After eating.

Lin Tianhao began to observe.

He wanted to know if these sailors had work on the ship.

The result was no.

It seems that these sailors boarded the ship as warriors in order to participate in the battle after arriving at their destination.

As for what their destination is, that is unknown.

In the room, there are three other people in the same room as Lin Tianhao.

They all know Lin Tianhao, and they all call Lin Tianhao [Xiao Wu].

But the embarrassing thing is that Lin Tianhao doesn't know them.

He can only learn their names from their conversations with each other.

The muscular man named Lu Tie, who sleeps in the lower bunk, is at level 1,151, and his profession is Berserker.

He is also the highest level in their room.

The two people on the other bunk are a [couple], the receiver is called Fidehua, and the attacker is called Mailingge, but Lu Tie calls him Mailingzai.

Regarding the love between Fidehua and Mailingzai.

It's not that Lin Tianhao can't understand it, but it's okay for them to flirt in the room.

When night fell, they actually started exercising openly in the room.

This visual impact is a bit strong.

"Damn it, you two are really enough. I haven't touched a woman in almost half a year. If you continue like this, I'll do you both."

Lu Tie couldn't stand it anymore. As a vigorous man, his physiological needs are strong.

The behavior of Fidehua and Mailingzai is simply forcing Lu Tie to commit a crime.

Lin Tianhao didn't say a word. Speaking less, listening more, and understanding the current situation is better than anything else.

"Brother Lu Tie, I'm sorry, we'll go out."

Mailingzai said with a smile. They are only over level 600, barely half of Lu Tie's level, so naturally they dare not offend Lu Tie.

Fidehua and Mailingzai left, but Lu Tie tossed and turned in the lower bunk, not knowing what he was thinking.

After tossing for more than an hour, he cursed to himself.

"Damn it, damn it, I really have bad luck for eight lifetimes. I actually got on this pirate ship!!"

Lin Tianhao opened his mouth at the right time, "Brother Lu Tie, when can we go ashore?"

"Go ashore? The Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island they are looking for is itself a legendary place. With the way they are looking, it will take them another year and a half."

Lin Tianhao finally knew the real purpose of this voyage.

Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island!!

The most important thing is.

Lin Tianhao had heard of Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island in his previous life.

According to legend.

The Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island has two great god-level inheritances, and those who land on the island have the opportunity to obtain the god-level inheritance on it.

In his previous life, it seemed that a group of people from the United States had been to Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island, and several of them had obtained god-level inheritances and possessed strength surpassing adventurers of the same stage.

God-level inheritance is different from god-level hidden professions.

God-level hidden professions are usually in the form of scrolls.

After being used, it will be extremely difficult for others to transfer to the same profession again.

But god-level inheritance is different!

Since it is an inheritance, it means that it can be obtained by many people.

After the Dragon and Phoenix Immortal Island incident spread in his previous life, I don't know how many people frantically went to search for it, but the final result was failure.

Chapter 576 - The things in the notebook reappear!

Moreover.

Back then, it was after the Great Cataclysm. If you failed to find something, it was basically a one-way trip.

A Divine-level inheritance still holds some appeal for Lin Tianhao.

If the Dragon and Phoenix Island's Divine-level inheritance is powerful, it might be able to deal with the Slaughter God's Endless Slaughter.

Thinking this in his mind.

Lin Tianhao discovered a not-so-good problem.

That is, Fidehua and Mailingzai actually didn't come back all night.

Mailingzai's physical strength doesn't seem that strong, no matter how you look at it.

Could it be that I got the attacker and receiver relationship wrong?

The relationship between them is more complicated than he imagined.

But very quickly.

Lin Tianhao realized something was wrong.

Because a manager came looking for them.

Lutie was a little dissatisfied when he saw the arrival of the manager.

"Don't try to fool us with gold coins anymore. I want to go ashore. It's been half a year. How long will it take to see the end?"

The leading manager shook his head, "Today, we're not here to distribute gold coins, but to ask you about Fidehua and Mailingzai."

"What? You want to manage their affairs? You should have done it long ago. If everyone was like them, this ship would be in chaos sooner or later."

Lutie has a loud voice and a visibly irritable temper.

"No, they're dead. We're here to understand the situation."

"Dead?"

Lutie was stunned for a moment, "Could it be that someone else couldn't stand their behavior and killed them?"

"What did they do to bring about such a fatal disaster?" the manager asked.

Lutie lay down on the bed and said to Lin Tianhao on the upper bunk.

"Xiaowu, you tell him."

Lin Tianhao smiled awkwardly, "Actually, it's nothing. It's just men loving men. You should understand."

Indeed.

The manager, who often works on the ship, immediately understood what Lin Tianhao meant.

"What happened last night? Tell me in detail."

Lin Tianhao thought for a while and told him everything that happened last night.

"After Brother Lutie let them go out, they never came back."

"Okay, I understand. My name is Sabu Mingsi. If you have any new clues, please tell me as soon as possible."

"Also, I don't want the news of their deaths to spread. If anyone asks, just say they violated the ship's rules and were transferred to the bottom hold."

"Especially you, Lutie!"

When he said the last sentence, Sabu Mingsi unleashed a small domain, and a wave of power pressed down.

Seventh Rank!

Much stronger than Lutie.

Lutie glared at Sabu Mingsi and said unhappily:

"Got it. Do I, Lutie, look like a big-mouthed person?"

Sabu Mingsi sneered, "You better not be, otherwise killing a few more people wouldn't be impossible."

After saying this.

After they left, Lutie cursed angrily: "Damn it, thank God, those two bastards are finally dead."

"Let's go, Xiaowu, let's go eat. They're dead, and I feel like my appetite has improved a lot."

Lin Tianhao nodded immediately. As he got up, he asked softly:

"Brother Lutie, I heard that a woman came on this ship and was taken to his room by the captain. Is this true?"

Lin Tianhao couldn't waste too much time on this ship.

He needed to contact that woman as soon as possible to confirm his judgment.

When Lutie heard Lin Tianhao mention that woman, he rarely put away his loud voice and lowered his voice to say:

"You believe this kind of talk?"

"What kind of place is this? The vast sea. If a woman climbs up here, she must be a female demon."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I think so too. They say beautiful women bring trouble. Won't this cause some trouble?"

"You're just worrying about nothing. There are millions of men on our ship. Even if a female demon really comes, we'll make her kneel down and beg for mercy."

Lin Tianhao was stunned and couldn't help but smile wryly.

Their thought processes are a little abnormal.

But this kind of thinking doesn't seem to be a problem.

The place to eat breakfast was the previous cabin. It was still a gathering of hundreds of thousands of people, and there were still no useful clues.

He also tried to contact more people to hear some more useful clues.

But the result was... He heard several dirty jokes, and everything else was useless.

All day long.

Lin Tianhao didn't find anything unusual.

Until the evening, Heizi found Lin Tianhao.

"Xiaowu, be careful these days. The two people who died in your room last night were not normal."

"What's wrong?"

Lin Tianhao asked softly. Judging from the way he looked, Heizi seemed to know some useful information.

"The two people who died in your room last night had flowers growing in their eyes."

"Flowers growing in people's eyes. That's too strange."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly, "We don't even know about this. Who did you hear it from?"

Heizi smiled with a bit of smugness, "I have to mention my few strange books."

"Thanks to those few strange books, I have a good relationship with several managers, so I was able to find out about this."

"Oh."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "What's going on? Also, I heard that the captain got a woman. Is it true?"

When Heizi heard this, he quickly looked around.

Finding someone not far away, he pulled Lin Tianhao to the corner and said:

"It's true, but you also know that on our ship, not to mention women, even if a female ghost comes, she won't have a good time."

"The woman was brought on board for less than five hours and then she disappeared. Even the corpse wasn't spared. Alas, it's a pity that I'm not strong enough, otherwise I would have had the opportunity to go in and observe."

Lin Tianhao's expression changed. Could it be that this woman died and produced some kind of mutation?

This... is also known as weirdification.

Death with strong resentment may lead to this kind of weirdification mutation.

A woman, tortured to death by so many men, and even the corpse was not spared. It is reasonable to appear weirdified.

"Anyway, be careful. I have a hunch that there will be a major change on this ship."

After saying that, Heizi left.

Lin Tianhao didn't care too much.

Another night.

Lin Tianhao normally comprehended the Dao, and his understanding of the Sword Dao made some progress.

But it wasn't very clear. It was estimated that it would take about a week to take another step forward.

The next morning.

Lin Tianhao opened his eyes and found Lutie staring at him with eyes as big as copper bells.

"Are you comprehending the Dao?"

Lin Tianhao was slightly stunned and nodded with a smile.

"Missing women, can't sleep, so I just comprehend the Dao for fun."

"Awesome."

Lutie gave Lin Tianhao a thumbs up.

"Missing women and still being able to calm down and comprehend the Dao, you are really amazing."

"I can't do it. If I miss women, I can't even eat. I have to go to the toilet to solve it before I can feel better."

Chapter 577 - For seeds to blossom, they need fertile soil!

I came out of the room to eat. On the surface, everything seemed normal today, no different from before.

But in the afternoon, Hei Zi found Lin Tianhao alone.

"Xiao Wu, let's run away together. More people died. This time, four people died, all with white flowers growing in their eyes."

"It's terrible. Something unclean must have gotten on the ship. Staying on the ship will definitely lead to trouble."

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, thinking about the contents of Hei Zi's notebook.

He recorded the day the four people died, and the day after that, he only recorded "She" came.

Could this mean that tonight, that "She" will go looking for Hei Zi?

If that's the case, then this is an opportunity.

"Okay, Brother Hei Zi, don't panic. I'll go with you. It's just that there are too many people around right now. Let's prepare first, and we'll leave tonight."

When Hei Zi heard that Lin Tianhao agreed to leave with him, the nervous expression on his face relaxed slightly.

Night fell.

Lin Tianhao and Hei Zi met in his room.

To Lin Tianhao's surprise, Hei Zi was the only one in his room.

"Xiao Wu, wait for me here. I'll go get something and come back."

Seeing Lin Tianhao's arrival, Hei Zi did not immediately run away with Lin Tianhao, but went out to get something.

He was very anxious.

Lin Tianhao didn't know what he wanted to get, but he clearly felt that Hei Zi was a little abnormal.

Hei Zi went out.

Following Hei Zi, there is a high probability of encountering that "She".

As long as he finds the source of the strangeness, he may be able to break the situation.

Hei Zi walked all the way to the door of a room, and he flashed into it.

"Is it done?" Lin Tianhao had sharp ears and eyes, and heard a very low voice coming from the room.

"I left Xiao Wu in my room."

It was Hei Zi's voice, with a hint of guilt in his tone.

“It’s a pity for Xiao Wu, I can only let him die for me.”

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed. The other party left him in the room, actually wanting him to be a scapegoat.

Fortunately, he had already followed out, and glanced at both sides of the corridor. There was no place to hide anyone all the way to the end of the corridor.

So Lin Tianhao didn't hide, he stood at the door of the room where Hei Zi was hiding.

He wanted to see how that woman came.

Moreover,

Lin Tianhao was also curious.

There were so many people on the ship, and the woman was blatantly harming people, it should have caused a stir long ago.

Just as Lin Tianhao was thinking this, the door of the room suddenly opened.

Immediately afterwards, Lin Tianhao saw Hei Zi walking out of the room.

He didn't look at Lin Tianhao, and walked indifferently towards the other end of the corridor.

Something's wrong!

Hei Zi looked like he was bewitched.

Fiery Eyes!

Lin Tianhao immediately activated his Fiery Eyes, and sure enough, a blood-colored vine was wrapped around Hei Zi's body at this time. The blood-colored vine was controlling him to walk towards the end of the corridor.

It's just that this blood-colored vine, not to mention seeing it, the passing professionals couldn't even touch it.

If Lin Tianhao didn't have Fiery Eyes, he probably wouldn't be able to see the blood-colored vine wrapped around Hei Zi's body.

Lin Tianhao followed unhurriedly, pretending to be nonchalant.

The end of the corridor was a three-way intersection. One direction went forward, which was a new corridor, and the other direction went horizontally towards the middle of the cabin.

And Hei Zi was now walking towards the horizontal corridor.

Lin Tianhao still followed at a distance that was neither too close nor too far.

This blood-colored vine is the Devil Vine. If there are no accidents, he will solve the trouble on this ship.

“Swoosh—”

Suddenly, a blood-colored vine arrived in front of Lin Tianhao's eyes in the blink of an eye, less than a centimeter away from Lin Tianhao's eyes.

It seemed that as long as the blood-colored vine went one step further, it could pierce in from his eyes and pierce through his head.

Lin Tianhao turned a blind eye and continued to move forward.

Under normal circumstances, this vine cannot be touched.

Sure enough, Lin Tianhao directly passed through the blood-colored vine without being harmed.

The reason why he didn't take action now was because he didn't know where the source of this blood-colored vine was.

If he takes action now, it is likely to be a waste of effort.

Immediately afterwards, Lin Tianhao saw several blood-colored vines.

These blood-colored vines were all pulling people, pulling them in one direction.

There were many people on the ship, and the actions of these people did not attract the attention of others.

This time, Lin Tianhao became more vigilant and chose to track them separately instead of just staring at one person.

Because the place they will eventually arrive at is likely to be the same.

Sure enough, they crossed one area after another, and finally walked towards the bow of the ship.

That was the area that only managers could enter.

Lin Tianhao himself did not have the ability to enter it.

However, he had the Seventy-Two Transformations, so it was not difficult to sneak in.

At a corner, Lin Tianhao transformed into a manager at an extremely fast speed.

Then he followed those people towards the bow of the ship.

Sure enough!

There was a problem with the ship.

Those people were not managers, but they walked directly into the bow of the ship.

Those managers guarding there did not stop them.

And Lin Tianhao also followed in.

With the appearance of a manager, no one stopped him.

After entering the bow of the ship, Lin Tianhao clearly felt that the decoration here was more luxurious.

And the number of people suddenly decreased, and it was not as crowded as other places.

It seems that the news he heard at the beginning was true.

A woman came on the ship.

She was brought back to his room by the captain.

This woman probably had problems herself.

After dying unjustly, she transformed into a strange being and began to kill people on the ship.

A total of eight people were entangled by vines, and they gathered at the door of the captain's room.

Lin Tianhao watched silently, and did not continue to step forward.

Now, as long as the strange being appears, he can take action.

Regardless of whether he can beat this strange being, he must take action.

Because he is probably on the Demon Vine Ghost Ship at this time, and everything he sees in front of him is an illusion.

Only by attacking the strange being can he completely break everything around him.

The captain's room slowly opened, and Lin Tianhao saw a woman.

A woman in a white dress. She had no feet. To be precise, the blood-colored vines were her feet.

Eight blood-colored vines all extended from under her white dress.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath and walked up quickly.

The woman in the white dress noticed Lin Tianhao. She tilted her head and looked at Lin Tianhao, her eyes curiously looking at Lin Tianhao.

“Do you want to play with my body too?”

Lin Tianhao shook his head, “I want to know, what happened, why are you killing these innocent crew members?”

“Seeds, those men left so many, many seeds in my body. The seeds need fertile soil to bloom.”

Chapter 578 - You'll end up paying the price for your arrogance!

The white-skirted woman's voice faded.

The eight men simultaneously raised their heads, their eyes bursting open, blood streaming down.

One after another, white flowers sprouted from their eyes.

“Whoosh—”

Lin Tianhao no longer hesitated.

He unhesitatingly released an arrow.

The arrow passed through the white-skirted woman's body without causing any damage.

“Hehe, you're just like them, all wanting to shoot me.”

“But my body really can't hold any more seeds, so many, my body is about to burst.”

Lin Tianhao said with a沉着 face, “Whoever gave you the seeds, go find them yourself!!”

As he spoke.

He activated the Heavenly Punishment state, and released another arrow.

Under the Heavenly Punishment state.

The arrow was guaranteed to hit, even if this white-skirted woman was a god, she couldn't dodge it.

As expected.

“Shoot me, shoot me again, I already said I can't hold any more, why do you keep shooting me!!”

The white-skirted woman roared angrily at Lin Tianhao, and eight bloody vines simultaneously lashed down towards Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed, and he instantly activated Three Heads Six Arms.

Using the Heavenly Punishment state, he maximized his attack speed.

“Swish, swish, swish—”

The arrows in Lin Tianhao's hand continuously flew out, although this white-skirted woman could ignore critical hit damage.

But facing Lin Tianhao's true damage, she still found it somewhat difficult to withstand.

In just the blink of an eye, the white-skirted woman's health bar was emptied by Lin Tianhao.

Her total health was only a little over 800 million, and under Lin Tianhao's such high damage, she couldn't last even a second.

The white-skirted woman fell.

The surrounding environment began to undergo earth-shattering changes.

It was still on the ship.

But it had turned into the Demon Vine Ghost Ship he had seen before.

In front of him was still the white-skirted woman, but the vines extending from under her white skirt were already countless.

Countless bloody vines wrapped around the Demon Vine Ghost Ship, giving Lin Tianhao an extremely strong sense of oppression.

Besides these bloody vines, Lin Tianhao also saw a scene that made his hair stand on end.

Everywhere around him were people.

No, they could no longer be considered people, they should be called anomalies!

They were all the previous crew members, in extremely large numbers.

A vine extended from their eyes, and on the vine was a hideous infant.

“Mommy, mommy...”

These hideous infants made extremely ear-piercing sounds, they called out to the white-skirted woman.

The sound waves formed a very special power, causing Lin Tianhao to feel extremely dizzy.

The purification jade pendant on his chest began to heat up, and the dizziness gradually subsided.

But although the dizziness subsided, the purification jade pendant was getting hotter and hotter.

Lin Tianhao secretly thought it was bad.

This was because the controlling power was too strong, constantly breaking through the limit that the purification jade pendant could withstand.

Fortunately, Lin Tianhao had used a large number of equipment evolution scrolls on this purification jade pendant, otherwise it would probably have been torn to pieces at this moment.

Lin Tianhao took a deep breath.

He continued to attack, his target still the white-skirted woman.

But when the arrow landed on the white-skirted woman, he was dumbfounded.

-108.768 billion!!

Lin Tianhao was stunned!!

This damage number made Lin Tianhao unbelievable.

His true damage could never be so high.

He himself only had a little over 1.8 billion health, how could he deal damage in the hundreds of billions.

It's Source Burning!!

Lin Tianhao's Godslayer mark skill obtained from the Yuan Fire God.

Attacks and skills can deal 1/1000 of the target's maximum health as true damage.

This...

One-thousandth of the true damage was actually as high as hundreds of billions, wouldn't this white-skirted woman's health exceed hundreds of trillions?!

This is too terrifying!!

“Kunlun Mirror!”

Lin Tianhao realized he couldn't win, and directly sacrificed the Kunlun Mirror, trying to return to the Moon Wheel Empire.

But when Lin Tianhao passed through the Kunlun Mirror, he was still on the Demon Vine Ghost Ship.

At the same time.

The heating of the purification jade pendant had already made Lin Tianhao's skin unbearable.

He had to take off the purification jade pendant, otherwise he really felt that the purification jade pendant would be directly torn apart.

He hadn't been out to sea for long, yet Lin Tianhao had encountered this level of powerhouse, which really made him feel a little incredible.

“Lord, there's no escape.”

The God of the Undead's extremely weak voice came, “This guy is a strange creature, she hasn't become a god, but because of some rules, she can grow infinitely.”

“According to my confrontation with her just now and my exploration of her rules, every time she plants a seed, she will have one more bloody vine, and her health will increase by 100 million!”

“The people on this ship should have been killed by her, she has millions of vines, and even more hundreds of trillions of health, and has strange rules to protect her, there's no way to fight.”

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but gasp, this white-skirted woman's strange rules and growth value were too terrifying.

“Lord, I can't last too long, only now can I use god-level power to break the strange rules, you seize the opportunity to use the Kunlun Mirror to leave.”

“As for me, I may have to sleep forever on this Demon Vine Ghost Ship.”

Lin Tianhao was silent.

He knew.

He had to pay the price for his arrogance.

“Do it!”

Lin Tianhao gently closed his eyes.

Hundreds of trillions of health, plus healing methods, it was almost impossible for him to kill her.

As for the percentage damage of Source Burning was powerful, but the white-skirted woman couldn't give him the chance to shoot a thousand arrows.

Not only that.

The white-skirted woman would also heal, so theoretically a thousand arrows were not enough at all.

The God of the Undead unhesitatingly released power beyond the god level.

Above the sky.

Thunderclouds rolled.

“Absolute Weakness!”

This was a skill obtained from the Ghost Grass God by the Godslayer mark, and it was effective even against gods.

In this situation.

The more suppression methods, the more chance he would have to survive.

“Go!!”

Death divine power frantically surged from the God of the Undead's hands, corroding a crack in the void.

However.

The God of the Undead was left on the Demon Vine Ghost Ship.

Perhaps he would be completely annihilated!

Lin Tianhao's fists instantly clenched.

He had ultimately paid a heavy price for his recklessness.

But facing the white-skirted woman with strange rules and hundreds of trillions of health, he really had no power to resist.

“Ridiculous, how ridiculous!!”

Lin Tianhao laughed mockingly, guilt, regret, powerlessness.

Various emotions surged into Lin Tianhao's heart.

Suppressing these emotions.

Lin Tianhao's expression became serious.

He realized his insignificance.

At the same time.

He also knew what he must do in the future.

That is to find the Demon Vine Ghost Ship again and defeat that white-skirted woman!!

Pray that the God of the Undead is still alive at that time, although the hope is very slim.

“Lord, perhaps we can go back, at sea, that woman is not completely unbeatable.”

Chapter 579 - Return to the Nocturne Ghost Ship and enter the strange rules again!

“Poseidon?”

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment.

Because Poseidon was already dormant, it was theoretically impossible for him to awaken so quickly.

“I’ll explain my awakening to you later, my lord.”

And the thunderclouds in the sky had already gathered.

“Boom—”

Chaotic thunder fell, enveloping the body of the God of the Undead.

“Shushushu—”

Lin Tianhao didn’t hesitate to attack, maximizing his attack speed and frantically attacking the white-skirted woman.

Her health was very high, but because of the Origin Burning.

In addition to the resurrected Sea God Poseidon, it was not impossible for Lin Tianhao to kill her.

“Die, die, all of you die!!”

The white-skirted woman roared angrily, “Men should all die!!”

Countless blood-colored vines rushed towards Lin Tianhao’s remnant soul.

“Poseidon!”

Lin Tianhao let out a low shout, but the expected Sea God Poseidon did not appear.

“My lord, let her release some of her resentment.” The voice of the Sea God Poseidon came.

Lin Tianhao knew what the Sea God Poseidon was thinking, using his infinite resurrection to let the white-skirted woman release some of her current frenzied power.

In an instant.

Lin Tianhao was enveloped by vines, and his health bar instantly emptied.

After Lin Tianhao’s health bar was emptied, he chose to resurrect in place.

His level dropped by one.

Then he was killed again, and his level dropped again.

Soon.

Lin Tianhao’s level fell to level one.

“Die, all of you die, men should all die!!”

The white-skirted woman was still very frenzied, roaring at Lin Tianhao repeatedly.

Lin Tianhao was already numb, he didn’t know how long the white-skirted woman would vent.

But the Sea God Poseidon was right.

With the white-skirted woman in her current state, they would have no chance of winning if they really fought.

One day, two days, three days...

The white-skirted woman continuously killed Lin Tianhao for seven days and seven nights.

Her emotions finally stabilized slightly, changing from the initial frenzy and anger to the current calmness and indifference.

“Not killing anymore?”

Lin Tianhao raised his head and looked coldly at the white-skirted woman.

“Come on, vent your anger on me.”

The white-skirted woman suddenly raised her eyes, her somewhat hollow eyes seeming to devour people.

“You are protected by rules, many, many rules that are above me are protecting you, allowing you to resurrect infinitely.”

“But this kind of rule will definitely not last too long, you cannot leave, and you will eventually die in my hands.”

Lin Tianhao’s eyes narrowed, this white-skirted woman was quite clever.

“What’s your name?” Lin Tianhao did not continue to provoke the white-skirted woman.

The white-skirted woman did not speak, ignoring Lin Tianhao.

She knew she couldn’t kill Lin Tianhao, so she gave up.

She would wait until Lin Tianhao was no longer protected by the rules before taking action.

“I am not from this ship, but I have vaguely guessed something in the rule space you created.”

“You have seen the evil of human nature, but it does not mean that there is no kindness in this world.”

“Swoosh—”

Countless vines pierced through Lin Tianhao’s body, emptying his health bar.

The white-skirted woman killed Lin Tianhao, she still didn’t say a word.

“Since we can’t do anything to each other, why can’t we chat?”

“Being filled with hatred must be very tiring.”

Lin Tianhao continued to say after resurrecting, but the white-skirted woman responded to him with countless vines as before.

Once.

Twice.

Three times.

...

As long as Lin Tianhao dared to speak after resurrecting, the white-skirted woman would kill him without hesitation.

If he didn't speak, the white-skirted woman would ignore him, not letting him leave, nor attacking him.

But Lin Tianhao was thick-skinned.

"If killing me can let you vent your emotions, then kill me a few more times."

"Everyone on this ship has been killed by you, what's the point of you staying on this ship?"

"Could it be that your strange rules can only be on this ship?"

Lin Tianhao began to talk non-stop, this time the white-skirted woman did not attack Lin Tianhao.

Seeing this.

Lin Tianhao began to continue speaking.

"Those who hurt you are already dead, you should let go of your obsession." Lin Tianhao said.

"No!!!"

The white-skirted woman roared at Lin Tianhao: "I only killed a part of the people on the ship, there are still some, they ran away, I want to find them and kill them all!!!"

Lin Tianhao wasn't too surprised.

The white-skirted woman wasn't strong at first.

At least.

When she only had eight blood-colored vines, Lin Tianhao could also kill her instantly.

At least from the strength of the crew members and managers on the ship.

There was a high probability that there were Ninth Revolutions on the ship, and even demigods were possible.

Moreover.

The stronger the person, the clearer they were about the birth of the white-skirted woman, and the more likely they were to leave early.

"How did you get on this ship? According to my understanding, you seem to have boarded the ship midway, or suddenly appeared on the vast sea."

"Boom!"

The white-skirted woman killed Lin Tianhao again.

Obviously.

She didn't want to explain so much to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao was now level 1, and his resurrection time was very short.

After resurrecting, he looked at the white-skirted woman again.

The white-skirted woman seemed to be tired of Lin Tianhao, and a blood-colored vine instantly pierced through Lin Tianhao's brow.

The next moment.

The world spun.

When Lin Tianhao landed again, he actually returned to Hei Zi's room from before.

The scene was the same as when he first boarded the ship.

It seemed that the white-skirted woman didn't want to listen to Lin Tianhao's nagging anymore, and pulled Lin Tianhao into her strange rules.

"My lord, it's up to you."

The voice of the Sea God Poseidon came again.

"I only briefly revived due to some special reasons, my combat power is not particularly strong, to deal with this strangeness, the key is to first break his strange rules."

Lin Tianhao nodded lightly, if he could break the white-skirted woman's strange rules, it would be much easier to deal with.

Lin Tianhao glanced at the table, it was still those few strange books.

He didn't stay here.

Because he also had those few strange books in his backpack, he took a copy when he was here before.

It's just that now he has entered the rule rule again.

The strange books in his backpack were still there, and the strange books on this table were also still there.

Before, he saw wet footprints in [Xiao Wu]'s room.

If the guess is correct.

The white-skirted woman boarded the ship from the window of [Xiao Wu]'s room.

It's just that after boarding the ship, she was discovered, and then suffered some inhuman torture, becoming strange.

Lin Tianhao didn't dare to be negligent.

He quickly rushed to the door of [Xiao Wu]'s room, and quickly broke open the door of [Xiao Wu]'s room.

This time Lin Tianhao came directly, without destroying other room doors, so he could theoretically encounter the white-skirted woman.

Sure enough.

Lin Tianhao waited in the room for a few minutes.

A panicked, soaking wet white-skirted woman climbed in from outside the window...

Chapter 580 - The dead girl in the sea is imprisoned, little prisoner!

Seeing Lin Tianhao, the woman in the white dress immediately retreated nervously, wanting to jump off from where she had just boarded the ship.

“Madam, don’t be afraid.”

Lin Tianhao immediately called out to her. This woman in the white dress was the anomaly.

Previously, when she was in an anomalous state, Lin Tianhao couldn't see her information.

But now Lin Tianhao discovered that he could see the information of this woman in the white dress.

Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman (King-level): Level 2359.

Health Points: ???

Attack Power: ???

Skills: ???

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly. This woman in the white dress was a bit outrageous.

King-level!!

There weren't even a few King-level beings in the entire Vast Continent, yet he actually encountered one here.

However, it was more reasonable for this fellow to be King-level.

Because judging from the attributes of the woman in the white dress after she became anomalous, her initial grade must not be low.

Otherwise, if an ordinary professional could become so terrifyingly anomalous after being persecuted, then the entire Twilight of the Gods would have long been in chaos.

“There are only men on this ship. You won’t be too safe on the ship. If possible, you’d better leave first.”

“I can take you away.”

Lin Tianhao possessed the title of Child of the Sea, and being in the ocean was like returning home.

The woman in the white dress was silent for a long time before saying, “They captured my child. I’m here to save my child.”

Lin Tianhao was stunned for a moment, “Captured your child? Who? The captain or someone else?”

The woman in the white dress shook her head, “I don’t know. Several very powerful professionals, Ninth Rank, all Ninth Rank.”

“They want to use my child’s blood to make medicine. My child is already weak. If he loses more blood, he will die, he will die.”

As she spoke.

The woman in the white dress’s emotions began to become somewhat agitated.

“I can help you. How old is your child? What’s his name?” Lin Tianhao asked.

“Why do you want to help me? Aren’t you with them?” The woman in the white dress looked at Lin Tianhao with a suspicious gaze.

Lin Tianhao shook his head, “It’s not important. What’s important is that if I don’t help you, it’s useless for you to rush over like this.”

“Your child is in their hands. They can use him as leverage.”

The woman in the white dress was silent. After a short while, she said.

“I am the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman. My child is called Little Imprisoned. He is only seven years old.”

Lin Tianhao nodded, “You should be able to stay in the sea. If you trust me, you should return to the sea first. I will help you find your child.”

The Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman looked at Lin Tianhao seriously. She didn’t say a word and was silent for a long time before saying.

“Okay, I trust you. If you can help me save my son, I will be grateful to you.”

Lin Tianhao nodded. The Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman’s obsession should be her child.

Perhaps her own humiliation and death were not the key to her becoming anomalous.

The real reason she became anomalous was her child.

A mother.

If she saw her own child die tragically in front of her, the resentment in her heart would definitely be terrifying.

The Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman took a serious look at Lin Tianhao, "Please."

After saying this.

The Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman turned around and jumped into the sea.

Heizi's voice came from outside, still the same conversation as before.

Everything seemed to be replaying.

The difference was.

Lin Tianhao found the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman in advance, perhaps able to change the original ending in this strange rule.

Next, he had to find a way to find the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman's child.

Walking out of the room, Lin Tianhao took the initiative to find Heizi.

"Brother Heizi, I heard that there's a child on this ship. Is it true?"

Hearing this, Heizi's expression changed slightly, "Who did you hear that from?"

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "I just heard it when I was listening to other people's discussions. I don't know if it's true or false."

“That’s true. The reason why we’re going out to sea this time to find Dragon Phoenix Immortal Island is because of that child.”

“It’s said that the child is the son of a devil living on Dragon Phoenix Immortal Island. By chance, he ran out and was caught by our captain.”

“The captain learned the news of Dragon Phoenix Immortal Island from his mouth, which is why we went out to sea this time.”

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, which meant.

That he wasn’t captured just this time when they went out to sea.

But was captured before.

Moreover.

That child was the son of a devil.

Doesn’t that mean the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman is a devil?

But looking at the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman’s appearance, she didn’t seem like a devil either.

“The son of a devil, I wonder what he looks like.”

Heizi said in a low voice:

“You can’t have this kind of curiosity. Devils are terrifying. It’s better to stay away from them if you have nothing to do.”

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment and followed Heizi and the others to the hall to eat.

It was still the same as before, crowded with people.

But this time, Lin Tianhao began to approach those professionals with higher grades, trying to get some useful information from them.

The result was disappointing. There was no useful news.

It wasn't until night fell.

That Lin Tianhao followed the route he had taken before and walked towards the captain's room.

With the Seventy-Two Transformations, it wasn't difficult for Lin Tianhao to sneak in.

After all, there were too many people on this ship, and they generally wouldn't check much.

Lin Tianhao arrived outside the captain's room very smoothly.

At this time, the door to the captain's room was closed, and Lin Tianhao waited outside as if nothing had happened.

If the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman's child was on the ship, the captain would most likely know.

He needed to observe.

"Poseidon, investigate the situation in the room."

The Sea God Poseidon released his divine sense and silently observed the captain's room.

“That child is in the captain’s room. It seems he’s very familiar with the captain.”

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly.

Logically speaking, Little Imprisoned was kidnapped by the captain and was going to have his blood drawn to make medicine. Their relationship couldn’t be good.

Could it be that in order to use Little Imprisoned to find Dragon Phoenix Immortal Island, the captain was coaxing Little Imprisoned.

Just as Lin Tianhao was thinking this.

The Sea God Poseidon’s somewhat surprised voice came.

“Wait!!”

“What’s wrong?” Lin Tianhao asked curiously.

“Heart-Protecting Mirror of Heavenly Punishment!!”

“Master, it’s the equipment of the Heavenly Punishment Archer you’re looking for.”

Hearing this.

Lin Tianhao was greatly shaken.

This was really luck. He was actually able to find a piece of the Heavenly Punishment Archer’s equipment on this ship.

With this piece of equipment, he could advance to the second rank, and his strength would definitely be able to rise to another level.

After the second rank.

It should be easier for him to deal with the Sea-Imprisoned Dead Woman.

“Force our way in?” Lin Tianhao frowned.

“Probably not necessary. The Heart-Protecting Mirror of Heavenly Punishment is on the display stand in the captain’s room. After the captain leaves, Master can transform into the captain’s appearance and go in to take it.”

“Not only that, Master should also be able to come into contact with that child.”

Lin Tianhao nodded secretly, “That makes sense, then let’s wait and see.”

The captain couldn’t stay in the room all the time and would definitely have to leave the room.
